- (a) shall not receive and shall be deemed to have not received notice of any trust (express, implied or constructive) in relation to any financial arrangements entered into by the statutory body; and
- (b) shall not be bound to see to the execution of any trust that may affect such financial arrangements.

Protection of investors etc.

(2) A person who enters into financial arrangements with a statutory body and receives in consideration therefor a security appearing on its face to be duly issued shall not be bound to inquire whether the issue of the security was in fact duly authorised and the issue of such security shall be conclusive evidence in favour of all persons that approval was duly given to the financial arrangements pursuant to which the security was issued and that the financial arrangements comply with this Act and any other Act that relates to that body.

(3) The approval of the Governor in Council, whether by way of an order in council or otherwise, of a statutory body entering into financial arrangements shall be conclusive evidence in favour of all persons that approval was duly given to the financial arrangements and that the financial arrangements comply with this Act and any other Act that relates to that body.

Advance by way of overdraft

32.(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 22, a statutory body may obtain temporary financial accommodation by way of an advance from any bank by way of overdraft.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) or the provisions of the Act under which a statutory body is constituted, the Governor in Council may set conditions for the operation of the overdraft of any statutory body.

(3) Such conditions may include, but are not limited to—

- (a) the maximum amount to which a statutory body specified in the order may obtain such temporary finance and in that event the statutory body shall not suffer the amount of its overdraft to exceed the amount so fixed; and
- (b) the period over which moneys may remain outstanding and in that event the statutory body shall not suffer such period to be exceeded.

33.(1) Financial arrangements may contain absolute and unconditional covenants, undertakings, promises, guarantees or indemnities, which may

- (a) absolute and unconditional covenants or promises by the statutory body or an affiliate to pay for, or to make payments calculated by reference to output or other product, or the prospect of obtaining the output or other product, whether or not that output or other product is at any relevant time, produced or delivered or capable of being produced or delivered; and
- (b) absolute and unconditional covenants or promises by the statutory body or an affiliate to purchase, and pay for, any property in the events or circumstances specified in the financial arrangements; and
- (c) absolute and unconditional covenants or promises by the statutory body or an affiliate to make or procure loans (at interest or otherwise) in the events or circumstances specified in the financial arrangements and failing this to make payments not less than the amount that would have been lent;

or any of them.

(2) A covenant or promise referred to in subsection (1)(a) may contain an obligation to make payment in advance.

(3) Where the statutory body, in any financial arrangements, makes a covenant or promise or gives an undertaking, guarantee or indemnity to make any payment irrespective of any event or circumstance which otherwise would or might at law terminate, or permit termination of, the arrangements or excuse compliance with, or performance of, or provide a defence to, any proceedings to enforce the covenant, promise, undertaking, guarantee or indemnity, the covenant, promise, undertaking, guarantee or indemnity shall operate and be enforceable in accordance with its terms notwithstanding any Act or rule of law to the contrary.

(4) Financial arrangements may contain a provision that the arrangements shall not be terminated on account of any matter or thing referred to in the financial arrangements and shall be enforceable notwithstanding any such matter or thing, being or including (without limiting the generality of the foregoing) any default, event of force majeure or other event which would or might at law otherwise terminate, or permit termination of the arrangements or excuse compliance with, or performance of, or provide a defence to, any proceedings to enforce the arrangements, and where any financial arrangements so provide the provision—

- (a) shall operate in accordance with its terms so that the financial arrangements shall not be capable of being terminated except by express agreement between the parties or in the events or circumstances expressly provided for in the financial arrangements; and
- (b) shall be enforceable in accordance with its terms;

notwithstanding any Act or rule of law to the contrary.

(5) Financial arrangements may include an express waiver by a statutory body of its immunity (if any) under any Act or rule of law from proceedings, either in whole or in part, and any such waiver shall operate in accordance with its terms notwithstanding any Act or rule of law to the contrary.

(6) Financial arrangements may provide that the ownership of specified buildings, structures or other fixtures shall not vest in the owner of the land on which they are situated, that those buildings, structures or other fixtures are not realty and shall be transferable in accordance with the provisions of that or any other financial arrangements to another person and that any such provision shall operate in accordance with its terms notwithstanding any Act or rule of law to the contrary.

Delegation of powers

34.(1) Where a statutory body enters into financial arrangements in accordance with the provisions of this Act it may, with the approval of the Governor in Council, delegate some or all of its powers, rights, authorities, exemptions and remedies of any nature whatsoever and whether or not in relation to the financial arrangements to any person and upon such delegation that person shall have the same powers, rights, authorities, exemptions and remedies as if that person were the statutory body.

(2) A delegation in accordance with subsection (1) may provide that it shall, to the extent it so provides, be irrevocable notwithstanding any Act or rule of law to the contrary.

Carrying out of financial arrangements

35.(1) A statutory body may charge any persons under financial arrangements or management and operation arrangements or other arrangements undertaken for their benefit or on their behalf and may, on its own account or for their benefit or on their behalf pay for the purchase of any output or other product resulting as a consequence of or in connection with the entering into of any such arrangements.

(2) A statutory body may empower an affiliate to enter, as principal, into any transaction or arrangement related to financial arrangements in the same manner as the statutory body itself may have done.

(3) For the purpose of performing financial arrangements entered into by it a statutory body may, for the purpose to which the financial arrangements are directed, take land within the meaning of the Acquisition of Land Act 1967 or an easement in respect of land within the meaning of that Act.

(3A) Any such taking shall be under and subject to the Acquisition of Land Act 1967 and the purpose of such taking shall be deemed to be a purpose specified in Schedule 2 of that Act which the statutory body, as a constructing authority within the meaning of that Act, may lawfully carry out.

(3B) For the purpose for which a statutory body is authorised by subsection (3) to take land the statutory body may—

- (a) as a constructing authority within the meaning of the Acquisition of Land Act 1967, request the Governor in Council to exercise the powers conferred on the Governor in Council by section 5(3) of that Act;
- (b) request the Governor in Council to resume on its behalf land held from the Crown for an estate or interest less than fee simple, not being a holding within the meaning of the Land Act 1962, or an easement in respect of such land under and subject to the Act under which such land is held from the Crown.

(3C) If the Act referred to in subsection (3B)(b) does not provide for resumption of land held under it or of an easement in respect of such land the provisions of Part 10, Division 11 of the Land Act 1962 shall apply as if the land in question were a holding within the meaning of that Act and, if those provisions are considered by the Governor in Council to be inadequate for the purpose, additional or other provisions may be prescribed by order in council for such resumption and matters connected therewith and the provisions so prescribed shall apply according to their tenor.

(3D) Where the Governor in Council resumes land pursuant to a request referred to in subsection (3B) the Governor in Council may grant the land to the statutory body on whose request the Governor in Council acted for an estate in fee simple pursuant to the Land Act 1962 subject to such reservations, trusts, terms and conditions as the Governor in Council thinks fit.

(4) For the purpose of performing financial arrangements entered into by it a statutory body may apply for and may be granted an approval of a local authority or other person with respect to use of, building on or other development of land held by it.

(5) A statutory body, an affiliate and each other party to financial arrangements may do all things authorised or required by the financial arrangements to be done by them respectively and all things incidental thereto and may also do such things as are necessary or convenient to be done for the purposes of carrying into effect and implementing the terms of any financial arrangement.

36.(1) Where the Treasurer recommends to the Governor in Council that the Treasurer is satisfied that a partnership, joint venture or other association has been formed principally for purposes connected with the purposes of financial arrangements entered into by a statutory body, the Governor in Council may, by order in council, declare that this subsection applies to the partnership, joint venture or association, and thenceforth the following provisions have effect—

- (a) the partnership, joint venture or association shall not, throughout the period from the date of its formation until the date that is 6 months after the date of its formation or, where some other date is prescribed, the prescribed date, be dissolved by reason of any person becoming a member of the partnership, joint venture or association;
- (b) the partnership, joint venture or association shall, as from the expiration of that period, be deemed to have consisted, throughout that period, of those persons who, at the expiration of that period, are members of the partnership, joint venture or association, in accordance with the interest of each of those members at the expiration of that period, but not so as to affect the liability of any person who ceased to be a member of the partnership during that period.

(2) Where the Treasurer recommends to the Governor in Council that a partnership, joint venture or association consisting of more than 20 persons has been formed principally for purposes connected with the purposes of financial arrangements entered into by a statutory body, the Governor in Council may, by order in council, declare that this subsection applies to the partnership, joint venture or association, and thenceforth the following provisions have effect—

- (a) that person giving to the statutory body in default notice of the default; and
- (b) where the payment of such principal or interest is the subject of a guarantee or indemnity given by the Treasurer, if the default continues for the period of 14 days after the giving of the notice referred to in paragraph (a)—that person giving to the Treasurer notice of the default.

(2) If the default continues for a period of 14 days after the giving of the notice referred to in subsection (1)(b) or, in a case where that provision is irrelevant, after the giving of the notice referred to in subsection (1)(a) the person to whom should have been made the payment in respect of which default has been made—

- (a) may apply to and procure all necessary orders and directions from the Supreme Court for the appointment of a receiver and the Supreme Court shall have jurisdiction to make all such orders for the appointment of a receiver, and for the receiver's removal and the appointment of another in the receiver's place, as may be necessary and to make such orders and give such directions as the court considers necessary; or
- (b) may recover the amount in respect of which default has been made as a debt due and owing to the person by the statutory body by action against the statutory body in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) A receiver appointed under subsection (2) shall be deemed to be an officer of the court and shall act under its direction and may be appointed in respect of the general revenue of the statutory body or in respect of specific revenue.

(4) The provisions of subsection (1) do not apply in respect of a right to recover payments falling due in respect of debentures, bonds or inscribed stock issued by a statutory body prior to the date of commencement of the application of this section in respect of that statutory body, which right shall continue to be enforceable in accordance with the law applicable to such debentures, bonds or inscribed stock at the date of issue thereof.

(2) Such remuneration shall be payable out of the revenue of the statutory body in respect of which the receiver is appointed.

Powers and duties of receiver

42.(1) A receiver appointed pursuant to section 40 may collect all the revenue in respect of which the receiver has been appointed receiver payable to the statutory body in respect of which the receiver has been appointed receiver and for the purpose of enforcing the receiver's right thereto the receiver shall be deemed to be the statutory body and may exercise all of its powers to that end.

(2) A receiver shall pay and apply all moneys received by the receiver in the course of the receiver's receivership as follows—

- (a) firstly, in payment of the costs, charges and expenses of collection and of the receiver's remuneration;

(1A) Such provision may include provision for the appointment of a receiver in respect of any of the parties to the arrangements and for the receiver's duties, powers and remuneration.

(2) Where in any financial arrangements there is made provision such as is referred to in subsection (1) that provision shall be given effect in lieu of the provisions of sections 40 to 42 or the corresponding provisions of any other Act.

(3) Where a receiver is appointed pursuant to provision contained in financial arrangements the receiver shall be deemed to be the statutory body or other person upon whose default the receiver is appointed and may exercise all the powers of that body or person to the extent provided in such arrangements.

Regulations about financial arrangements

44.(1) The Governor in Council may make regulations for and with respect to—
