(2) In this section, shops of a prescribed class of business means shops included for the time being in an order made pursuant to section 96B of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1961 and titled ‘Order—Trading Hours—Non-exempted Shops trading by retail—State’ or such other class of business as the Governor in Council by order in council from time to time prescribes.

Register of articles pledged and disposed of 32.(1) A licensed pawnbroker shall enter, or cause to be entered, in a register of articles to be kept by the pawnbroker in the prescribed form particulars of all articles taken as a pawn or pledge including their subsequent disposal.

(2) Before or immediately after a licensed pawnbroker advances money

Duplicate entry to be delivered to customer

33.(1) A pawnbroker shall not take an article as a pawn or pledge unless, at the time the pawnbroker receives it, there is given to and accepted by the person who is pawning the article a document that is clearly legible containing a duplicate of all the particulars entered in relation to that pledge under section 32(2), including the number allotted to that entry, and containing reference to the name of the licensed pawnbroker.

(2) A licensed pawnbroker is not obliged to re-deliver to any person an article taken by the pawnbroker as a pawn or pledge until there is produced to the pawnbroker by that person the document referred to in subsection (1) that was given and accepted when the article was so taken or a copy thereof duly given by the licensed pawnbroker under section 38.

Period of redemption of pledges

34.(1) The period of redemption of an article taken as a pawn or pledge shall be 3 months or such longer period as is agreed between the licensed pawnbroker and the person who is pawning the article.

(2) If a period longer than 3 months is agreed as the period of redemption of an article, the period so agreed shall be entered in the register of articles referred to in section 32.

(3) If an article in respect of which an amount less than $40 or, if a higher amount is prescribed, that amount, has been advanced by the licensed pawnbroker is not redeemed within the period of redemption of the article it shall become the property of the licensed pawnbroker upon the expiration of the period of redemption and the person who pawned it shall thereupon lose all claims thereto or in respect thereof.

(4) If an article in respect of which an amount of not less than $40 or, if a higher amount is prescribed, that amount, has been advanced by the licensed pawnbroker is not redeemed within the period of redemption of the article the licensed pawnbroker may sell the article in the manner prescribed free of all claims thereto or in respect thereof by the person who pawned the article.

(5) A licensed pawnbroker who sells in the manner prescribed an article taken by the pawnbroker as a pawn or pledge before the expiration of the period of redemption of the article or who in any other way disposes of an article taken by the pawnbroker as a pawn or pledge commits an offence against this Act.

Sale of pledges

35.(1) When the period of redemption of an article taken as a pawn or pledge has expired, if the article is one to which section 34(4) relates, the

(2) At least 4 days before the day on which it is proposed to sell an article referred to in subsection (1) the licensed pawnbroker shall cause notice of the proposed sale to be published at least twice in a newspaper that circulates generally in the locality in which the pawnbroker carries on business as a pawnbroker.

(2A) Each such notice shall contain a catalogue describing articles to be put up for sale and specifying the time when each such article was taken as a pawn or pledge.

(3) From the proceeds of the sale of an article there shall be deducted—

- (a) the amount of expenses of the sale; and
- (b) the aggregate of the amount of the advance made by the licensed pawnbroker upon the security of the article and the amount of interest the pawnbroker would have received had the article been redeemed on the day on which its period of redemption expired;

and, if the proceeds of sale exceed the amount of the deductions, the licensed pawnbroker shall pay the balance of such proceeds into the trust account maintained by the pawnbroker pursuant to subsection (4), which balance shall be held in that account for the person who pawned the article, and if such balance is not claimed by or on behalf of that person within 12 months after the date of the sale the pawnbroker shall pay the same from that account to the Public Trustee to be placed to the credit of the Unclaimed Moneys Fund and thereafter to be dealt with as unclaimed money.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3) a licensed pawnbroker shall open and maintain a trust account with a bank within the meaning of the Banking Act 1959 (Cwlth).
