Information about this reprint

This Act is reprinted as at 15 December 1994. The reprint—

- shows the law as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before that day
- incorporates all necessary consequential amendments, whether of punctuation, numbering or another kind.

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see List of legislation and List of annotations in Endnotes.

Minor editorial changes allowed under the provisions of the Reprints Act 1992 mentioned in the following list have also been made to—

- use standard punctuation consistent with current legislative drafting practice (s 27)
- use expressions consistent with current legislative drafting practice (s 29)
- use aspects of format and printing style consistent with current legislative drafting practice (s 35).

This page is specific to this reprint. See previous reprints for information about earlier changes made under the Reprints Act 1992. A Table of previous reprints is included in the Endnotes.

Also see Endnotes for information about—

- when provisions commenced
- provisions that have not commenced and are not incorporated in the reprint
- editorial changes made in earlier reprints.

ACTS INTERPRETATION ACT 1954

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 15 December 1994]

An Act to assist in the shortening and interpretation of Queensland Acts

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Acts Interpretation Act 1954.

Act applies to all Acts

- 2.(1) This Act applies to all Acts (including this Act).
- (2) In this Act, a reference to “an Act” includes a reference to this Act.

Displacement of Act by contrary intention

4. The application of this Act may be displaced, wholly or partly, by a contrary intention appearing in any Act.

Act binds Crown

5. This Act binds the Crown.

PART 2—MEANING OF ACT

References to “Act”

6. In an Act—

“Act” means an Act of the Queensland Parliament, and includes—

- (a) a British or New South Wales Act that is in force in Queensland; and
- (b) an enactment of an earlier authority empowered to pass laws in Queensland that has received assent.

Act includes statutory instruments under Act etc.

7.(1) In an Act, a reference (either generally or specifically) to a law (including the Act), or a provision of a law (including the Act), includes a reference to the statutory instruments made or in force under the law or provision.

(2) In subsection (1)—

“law” includes a law of the Commonwealth, another State or a Territory.

PART 3—GENERAL PROVISIONS APPLYING TO ACTS

Act to be interpreted not to exceed Parliament’s legislative power

9.(1) An Act is to be interpreted as operating—

- (a) to the full extent of, but not to exceed, Parliament’s legislative power; and
- (b) distributively.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), if a provision of an Act would, apart from this section, be interpreted as exceeding power—

- (a) the provision is valid to the extent to which it does not exceed power; and

(b) the remainder of the Act is not affected.

(3) Without limiting subsection (1), if the application of a provision of an Act to a person, matter or circumstance would, apart from this section, be interpreted as exceeding power, the provision's application to other persons, matters or circumstances is not affected.

(4) This section applies to an Act in addition to, and without limiting, any provision of the Act.

Section has effect as substantive enactment

10. Every section of an Act has effect as a substantive enactment without introductory words.

Acts to be public Acts

11. Every Act passed after 26 July 1852 is a public Act unless the Act otherwise expressly provides.

Private Acts not to affect rights of others

12.(1) A private Act does not—

- (a) affect pre-existing rights in a way prejudicial to the Crown or another person; or
- (b) impose liabilities on the Crown or another person in relation to previous acts or omissions;

except so far as the Act otherwise expressly provides.

(2) Subsection (1) does not affect rights conferred, or liabilities imposed, on—

- (a) a person at whose instance, or for whose special benefit, the Act is passed; or
- (b) another person claiming by, through or under such a person.

Private Acts amended by public Acts do not become public Acts

12A. A private Act does not become a public Act merely because it has been amended by or under a public Act.

Future Acts when binding on the Crown

13. No Act passed after the commencement of this Act shall be binding on the Crown or derogate from any prerogative right of the Crown unless express words are included in the Act for that purpose.

Acts not to affect native title except by express provision 13A.(1) An Act enacted after the commencement of this section affects native title only so far as the Act expressly provides.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), an Act affects native title if it extinguishes the native title rights and interests or it is otherwise wholly or partly inconsistent with their continued existence, enjoyment or exercise.

Material that is, and is not, part of an Act

14.(1) A heading to a Chapter, Part, Division or Subdivision of an Act is part of the Act.

(2) A heading to a section, subsection or another provision of an Act is part of the Act if—

- (a) the Act is enacted after 30 June 1991; or
- (b) the heading is amended or inserted after 30 June 1991.

(3) An example in an Act of the operation of a provision of the Act is part of the Act.

(4) A schedule or appendix to an Act is part of the Act.

(5) Punctuation in an Act is part of the Act.

(6) A footnote to an Act or to a provision of an Act, and an endnote to an Act, are not part of the Act.

Interpretation best achieving Act's purpose

14A.(1) In the interpretation of a provision of an Act, the interpretation that will best achieve the purpose of the Act is to be preferred to any other interpretation.

(2) Subsection (1) does not create or extend criminal liability, but applies whether or not the Act's purpose is expressly stated in the Act.

(3) To remove any doubt, it is declared that this section applies to an Act passed after 30 June 1991 despite any presumption or rule of interpretation.

Example—

There is judicial authority for a rule of interpretation that taxing legislation is to be interpreted strictly and in a taxpayer's favour (for example, see Partington v AG (1869) LR 4 HL 100 at 122). Despite such a possible rule, this section requires a provision imposing taxation to be interpreted in the way that best achieves the Act's purpose, whether or not to do so would be in a taxpayer's favour.

Use of extrinsic material in interpretation

14B.(1) Subject to subsection (2), in the interpretation of a provision of an Act, consideration may be given to extrinsic material capable of assisting in the interpretation—

- (a) if the provision is ambiguous or obscure—to provide an interpretation of it; or
- (b) if the ordinary meaning of the provision leads to a result that is manifestly absurd or is unreasonable—to provide an interpretation that avoids such a result; or
- (c) in any other case—to confirm the interpretation conveyed by the ordinary meaning of the provision.

(2) In determining whether consideration should be given to extrinsic material, and in determining the weight to be given to extrinsic material, regard is to be had to—

- (a) the desirability of a provision being interpreted as having its ordinary meaning; and
- (b) the undesirability of prolonging proceedings without compensating advantage; and

(c) other relevant matters.

(3) In this section—

“extrinsic material” means relevant material not forming part of the Act concerned, including, for example—

- (a) material that is set out in the document containing the text of the Act as printed by the Government Printer; and
- (b) a report of a Royal Commission, Law Reform Commission, commission or committee of inquiry, or a similar body, that was laid before the Legislative Assembly before the provision concerned was enacted; and
- (c) a report of a committee of the Legislative Assembly that was made to the Legislative Assembly before the provision was enacted; and
- (d) a treaty or other international agreement that is mentioned in the Act; and
- (e) an explanatory note or memorandum relating to the Bill that contained the provision, or any other relevant document, that was laid before, or given to the members of, the Legislative Assembly by the member bringing in the Bill before the provision was enacted; and
- (f) the speech made to the Legislative Assembly by the member in moving a motion that the Bill be read a second time; and
- (g) material in the Votes and Proceedings of the Legislative Assembly or in any official record of debates in the Legislative Assembly; and
- (h) a document that is declared by an Act to be a relevant document for the purposes of this section.

“ordinary meaning” means the ordinary meaning conveyed by a provision having regard to its context in the Act and to the purpose of the Act.

Changes of drafting practice not to affect meaning

14C. If—

- (a) a provision of an Act expresses an idea in particular words; and

- (b) a provision enacted later appears to express the same idea in different words for the purpose of implementing a different legislative drafting practice, including, for example—
 - (i) the use of a clearer or simpler style; or
 - (ii) the use of gender-neutral language;

the ideas must not be taken to be different merely because different words are used.

Examples

14D. If an Act includes an example of the operation of a provision—

- (a) the example is not exhaustive; and
- (b) the example does not limit, but may extend, the meaning of the provision; and
- (c) the example and the provision are to be read in the context of each other and the other provisions of the Act, but, if the example and the provision so read are inconsistent, the provision prevails.

PART 4—REFERENCE TO AND CITATION OF ACTS

References to Acts generally

14E. An Act passed by Parliament, or any earlier legislature empowered to pass laws for Queensland, may be referred to by the word “Act” alone.

References to particular Acts

14F.(1) An Act may be cited—

- (a) by its short title; or
- (b) by reference to the year in which it was passed and its number.

(2) A Commonwealth Act may be cited—

- (a) by its short title; or

- (b) in another way sufficient in a Commonwealth Act for the citation of such an Act;

together with a reference to the Commonwealth.

(3) An Act of another State or a Territory may be cited—

- (a) by its short title; or
- (b) in another way sufficient in an Act of the State or Territory for the citation of such an Act;

together with a reference to the State or Territory.

(4) A British Act may be cited—

- (a) by its short title; or
- (b) in another way sufficient in a British Act for the citation of such an Act;

together with a reference to the United Kingdom or the term ‘UK’, ‘Imperial Act’ or ‘Imp’.

References to enactments

14G.(1) An enactment may be cited by reference to the provision of the Act in which it is contained.

(2) The reference is to be made according to the copy of the Act printed by the relevant Government Printer or a person authorised by law to print the Act.

(3) In this section—

“Act” includes Commonwealth Act, Act of another State, Territory Act or British Act.

“enactment” includes any portion of an Act.

References taken to be included in citation of law

14H.(1) In an Act, a reference to a law (including the Act) includes a reference to the following—

- (a) the law as originally made, and as amended from time to time since it was originally made;

- (b) if the law has been repealed and remade (with or without modification) since the reference was made—the law as remade, and as amended from time to time since it was remade;
- (c) if a relevant provision of the law has been omitted and remade (with or without modification) in another law since the reference was made—the other law as in force when the provision was remade, and as amended from time to time since the provision was remade.

(2) In an Act, a reference to a provision of a law (including the Act) includes a reference to the following—

- (a) the provision as originally made, and as amended from time to time since it was originally made;
- (b) if the provision has been omitted and remade (with or without modification and whether in the law or another law) since the reference was made—the provision as remade, and as amended from time to time since it was remade.

(3) In this section—

“law” includes a law of the Commonwealth, another State or a Territory.

“make” includes enact.

References to changed short titles and citations

14I.(1) If the short title or citation of a law is amended, a reference in an Act to the short title or citation includes a reference to the short title or citation as amended.

(2) In this section—

“law” includes a law of the Commonwealth, another State or a Territory.

References to repealed or expired laws

14J.(1) If an Act refers to another law as repealed or expired, the reference is to the other law as in force immediately before it was repealed or expired.

Example—

The ‘repealed ABC Act 1950’ is a reference to the ABC Act 1950 as in force immediately before it was repealed.

(2) In this section—

“law” includes a law of the Commonwealth, another State or a Territory.

PART 5—COMMENCEMENT OF ACTS

References to enactment etc. of Acts

15. In an Act, a reference to the enactment of an Act or the passing of an Act is a reference to the fact of the Act’s having received the Royal Assent.

Commencement of Acts on date of assent

15A. An Act commences on the date of assent except so far as the Act otherwise expressly provides.

Time of commencement of Acts

15B. If an Act or a provision of an Act commences on a day, it commences at the beginning of the day.

Commencement of citation and commencement provisions on date of assent etc.

15C.(1) The provisions of an Act providing for its citation and commencement commence on the date of assent by force of this subsection.

(2) A reference in an Act to the commencement of the Act, or another Act, (the “Act concerned”), is a reference to—

- (a) if the provisions of the Act concerned (other than those providing for its citation and commencement) commence, or are required to commence, on a single day or at a single time—the commencement of the remaining provisions; or
- (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply and the reference is in a provision

- of the Act concerned—the commencement of the provision; or
- (c) in any other case—the commencement of the relevant provision of the Act concerned.

(3) Subsection (1) applies to an Act despite anything in the Act unless the Act expressly provides that it does not apply.

Commencement by proclamation etc.

15D.(1) If an Act or provisions of an Act is or are expressed to commence on a day to be fixed by proclamation or other instrument—

- (a) a single day or time may be fixed; or
- (b) different days or times may be fixed for different provisions.

(2) If the day or time fixed by a proclamation for the commencement of an Act or a provision of an Act happens before the day on which the proclamation is notified in the Gazette (the “notification day”)—

- (a) the proclamation is valid; but
- (b) the Act or provision commences on the notification day.

Automatic commencement of postponed law

15DA.(1) In this section—

“assent day” means the date of assent of—

- (a) if the postponed law is an Act—the Act; or
- (b) if the postponed law is a provision of an Act—the Act that enacts the provision.

“postponed law” means an Act or provision of an Act that does not commence on the assent day because a provision of an Act postpones its commencement until a day fixed under an instrument.

(2) If a postponed law has not commenced within 1 year of the assent day, it automatically commences on the next day.

(3) However, within 1 year of the assent day, a regulation may extend the period before commencement under subsection (2) to not more than 2 years of the assent day.

(4) The regulation mentioned in subsection (3) may be made under—

- (a) the Act that is the postponed law; or
- (b) the Act of which the postponed law is a provision; or
- (c) an Act that the postponed law amends;

as if the Act mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) included a provision that had commenced and authorised the regulation to be made.

(5) This section—

- (a) only applies to a postponed law enacted after 31 December 1994; and
- (b) applies to a postponed law unless an Act expressly states it does not apply.

Example—

The Hypothetical Act 1995 was assented to on 5 April 1995 and was expressed to commence on a day to be fixed by proclamation. If the Act was not commenced by 5 April 1996, it would commence on 6 April 1996 under subsection (2) unless a regulation had been made under subsection (3) extending time for commencement.

Commencement of paragraphs etc. in amending Act

15E. If an Act amends another Act and the amendment is in the form of—

- (a) a paragraph, or subparagraph, of a section or subsection of the amending Act; or
- (b) any other provision that is not self-contained;

the amendment may be given a separate commencement.

Evidence of date of assent

16. In a proceeding, a copy of an Act on which the Government Printer has purported to print the date of assent is admissible as evidence of that date.

Exercise of powers between enactment and commencement

17.(1) If a provision of an Act (the “empowering provision”) that does not commence on its enactment would, had it commenced—

- (a) confer a power—
 - (i) to make an appointment; or
 - (ii) to make a statutory instrument of a legislative or administrative character; or
 - (iii) to do any other thing; or
- (b) amend a provision of another Act so that the other Act would confer such a power;

then—

- (c) the power may be exercised; and
- (d) anything may be done for the purpose of—
 - (i) enabling the exercise of the power; or
 - (ii) bringing the appointment, instrument or other thing into effect;

before the empowering provision commences.

(2) If—

- (a) an Act that has commenced confers a power to make a statutory instrument (the “basic instrument-making power”); and
- (b) a provision of an Act that does not commence on its enactment would, had it commenced, amend the Act mentioned in paragraph (a) so as to confer additional power to make a statutory instrument (the “additional instrument-making power”);

then—

- (c) the basic instrument-making power and the additional instrument-making power may be exercised by making a single instrument; and
- (d) any provision of the instrument that required an exercise of the additional instrument-making power is to be treated as made under subsection (1).

(3) If an instrument, or a provision of an instrument, is made under subsection (1) that is necessary for the purpose of—

- (a) enabling the exercise of a power mentioned in subsection (1)(a); or
- (b) bringing an appointment, instrument or other thing made or done under such a power into effect;

the instrument or provision takes effect—

- (c) on the making of the instrument; or
- (d) if the instrument or provision is expressed to take effect at a later time—the later time.

(4) If—

- (a) an appointment is made under subsection (1); or
- (b) an instrument, or provision of an instrument, made under subsection (1) is not necessary for a purpose mentioned in subsection (3);

the appointment, instrument or provision takes effect—

- (c) on the commencement of the relevant empowering provision; or
- (d) if the appointment, instrument or provision is expressed to take effect at a later time—the later time.

(5) Anything done under subsection (1) does not confer a right, or impose a liability, on a person before the relevant empowering provision commences.

(6) After the enactment of a provision mentioned in subsection (1)(b) but before the provision's commencement, this section applies as if the references in subsections (1) and (4) to the commencement of the empowering provision were references to the commencement of the provision mentioned in subsection (1)(b) as amended by the empowering provision.

PART 6—AMENDMENT AND REPEAL OF ACTS

Act may be amended or repealed in same parliamentary session

17A. An Act may be amended or repealed in the session of Parliament in which it is passed.

Time of expiry of Act etc.

18. If an Act or a provision of an Act—

- (a) expires on a day; or
- (b) is expressed to remain or continue in force, or otherwise have effect, until a day;

the Act or provision has effect until the end of the day.

Repealed Acts etc. not revived

19. If an Act, or a provision of an Act, that has commenced is repealed or amended by another Act or a provision of another Act, the Act or provision is not revived merely because the other Act or the provision of the other Act—

- (a) is later repealed or amended; or
- (b) later expires.

Example 1—

Act A repeals Act B. The later repeal or expiry of Act A does not revive Act B.

Example 2—

Act C amends section 10 of Act D. The later repeal of Act C does not revive section 10 in its unamended form and section 10 in its amended form continues in force until it is later repealed or amended or expires.

Commencement not undone if omitted

19A. If a provision of an Act provides for the commencement of a law and the law has commenced, the later omission of the provision does not affect the continuing operation of the law.

Saving of operation of repealed Act etc.

20.(1) The repeal, amendment or expiry of an Act or a provision of an Act does not—

- (a) revive anything not in force or existing at the time the repeal, amendment or expiry takes effect; or
- (b) affect the previous operation of the Act or provision or anything suffered, done or begun under the Act or provision; or
- (c) affect a right, privilege or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the Act or provision; or
- (d) affect a penalty incurred in relation to an offence arising under the Act or provision; or
- (e) affect an investigation, proceeding or remedy in relation to a right, privilege, liability or penalty mentioned in paragraph (c) or (d).

(2) The investigation, proceeding or remedy may be started, continued or completed, and the right, privilege or liability may be enforced and the penalty imposed, as if the Act or provision had not been repealed or amended or had not expired.

(3) This section does not affect the following provisions—

- Criminal Code, section 11 (Effect of changes in law)
- Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 180 (Effect of alterations in sentences).

(4) This section is in addition to, and does not limit, any provision of the law by which the repeal, amendment or expiry is effected.

Repeal does not end saving, transitional or validating effect etc.

20A.(1) If an Act or a provision of an Act—

- (a) declares a thing for a saving or transitional purpose (whether or not the Act or provision is expressed to be made for a purpose of that type); or
- (b) validates a thing that may otherwise be invalid; or
- (c) declares a thing for a purpose that is consequential on a declaration mentioned in paragraph (a) or a validation mentioned in paragraph (b) (whether or not the Act or provision is expressed to be made for a purpose of that type);

the declaratory or validating effect of the Act or provision does not end merely because of the repeal or expiry of the Act or provision.

Example of paragraph (a)—

A provision stating that an existing licence under a repealed law is taken to be a licence of a particular kind under another law and authorising the imposition of conditions under the other law.

Example of paragraph (b)—

A provision declaring an instrument to have been validly made and acts done in reliance on the instrument to have been validly done.

Examples of paragraph (c)—

1. A provision stating that a matter that is declared valid is not justiciable.

2. A provision stating that an instrument that is declared valid is taken to have been amended in a particular way.

(2) If an Act or a provision of an Act (the “savings law”) declares an Act or a provision of an Act (the “declared law”) to be a law to which this section applies—

- (a) the effect of the declared law does not end merely because of its repeal or expiry; and
- (b) the effect of the savings law does not end merely because of its repeal or expiry.

(3) This section is in addition to, and does not limit—

- (a) sections 19 and 20; or
- (b) any provision of the law by which the repeal or expiry is effected.

Continuance of appointments etc. made under amended provisions

20B.(1) This section applies if—

- (a) a provision of a law expressly or impliedly authorises or requires—
 - (i) the making of an appointment; or
 - (ii) the delegation of a power; or

- (iii) the doing of anything else (other than the making of a statutory instrument); and
- (b) the provision is amended by an Act; and
- (c) under the amended provision—
 - (i) the appointment may be made; or
 - (ii) the power may be delegated; or
 - (iii) the thing may be done.

(2) An appointment, delegation or other thing mentioned in subsection (1) that was in force immediately before the commencement of the amendment continues to have effect after the commencement as if it had been done under the amended provision.

(3) In this section—

“amend” includes omit and re-enact in the same law (with or without modification), but does not include omit and re-enact in another law.

Continuance of repealed provisions

21. If an Act repeals some or all of the provisions of an Act and enacts new provisions in substitution for the repealed provisions, the repealed provisions continue in force until the new provisions commence.

Act and amending Acts to be read as one

22. An Act and all Acts amending the Act are to be read as one.

Insertion of provisions by amending Act

22A.(1) If an Act amends a provision of a law by inserting a subsection that is to form part of a series of subsections, and does not specify the position in the provision where it is to be inserted, the subsection is to be inserted in the appropriate numerical or alphanumerical position.

(2) If an Act amends a provision of a law by inserting a paragraph that is to form part of a series of paragraphs, and does not specify the position in the provision where it is to be inserted, the paragraph is to be inserted in the appropriate alphabetical position.

(3) If an Act amends a provision of a law by inserting a subparagraph that is to form part of a series of subparagraphs, and does not specify the position in the provision where it is to be inserted, the subparagraph is to be inserted in the appropriate numerical or alphanumerical position.

(4) If an Act amends a provision of a law by inserting a sub-subparagraph that is to form part of a series of sub-subparagraphs, and does not specify the position in the provision where it is to be inserted, the sub-subparagraph is to be inserted in the appropriate alphabetical position.

(5) If an Act amends a provision of a law by inserting a definition that is to form part of a series of definitions, and does not specify the position in the provision where it is to be inserted, the definition is to be inserted in the appropriate alphabetical position, determined on a letter-by-letter basis.

(6) If an Act otherwise amends a provision of a law by inserting a provision that is to form part of a series of provisions, and does not specify the position in the first provision where it is to be inserted, the second provision is to be inserted in the appropriate position.

(7) In determining the appropriate position in which a provision is to be inserted, regard may be had to current Queensland legislative drafting practice.

Amendment to be made wherever possible in provision

22B. If an Act amends a provision of a law—

- (a) by omitting a word; or
- (b) by omitting a word and inserting another word; or
- (c) by inserting a word before or after a particular word;

the amendment is to be made wherever possible in the provision.

Automatic repeal of amending Act

22C.(1) An amending Act enacted after 30 June 1994 is automatically repealed at the beginning of the day after all of its provisions have commenced.

(2) In this section—

“amending Act” means an Act that consists only of provisions of the following types—

- (a) the Act’s long title;
- (b) the Act’s preamble (if any);
- (c) a provision about the Act’s citation;
- (d) a provision (if any) about the Act’s commencement;
- (e) a provision providing for the amendment or repeal of an Act or other instrument (including a provision identifying the amended or repealed instrument);
- (f) a provision declaring an Act or a provision of an Act to be a law to which section 20A applies.

Example 1—

The Hypothetical Amending Act 1995 amends the ABC Act and the LMN Act. It also repeals a list of Acts set out in a schedule. Apart from—

- a long title
- a provision about the Act’s citation (that is, the Act’s short title)
- a provision about the Act’s commencement
- amending provisions (that is, provisions stating that the ABC Act and the LMN Act are amended and the provisions amending the Acts)
- repealing provisions (that is, a provision stating that the Acts set out in the schedule are repealed and a schedule)
- a provision about the application of s 20A to a provision being repealed, the Hypothetical Amending Act 1995 contains no other provisions. Its repealing provisions commence on assent, 21 March 1995. Its amending provisions commence on proclamation, 12 April 1995. Under subsection (1), the Hypothetical Amending Act 1995 is automatically repealed at the beginning of 13 April 1995.

Example 2—

The Example Act 1995 contains provisions establishing a new scheme. It also amends several Acts and repeals others. Because it contains the scheme provisions, it is not an amending Act covered by subsection (1).

PART 7—FUNCTIONS AND POWERS CONFERRED

BY ACTS

Performance of statutory functions etc.

23.(1) If an Act confers a function or power on a person or body, the function may be performed, or the power may be exercised, as occasion requires.

(2) If an Act confers a function or power on a specified officer or the holder of a specified office, the function may be performed, or the power may be exercised, by the person for the time being occupying or acting in the office concerned.

(3) If an Act confers a function or power on a body (whether or not incorporated), the performance of the function, or the exercise of the power, is not affected merely because of vacancies in the membership of the body.

Conferral of statutory power on another entity

23A.(1) If a provision of an Act, whether expressly or by implication, confers a power (the “first power”) on an entity to authorise or require another entity to exercise a power (the “second power”), then, if the first power is exercised, the provision is taken to confer the second power on the other entity.

(2) In this section—

“power” includes doing an act or making a decision for the purpose of performing a function.

Power to make instrument or decision includes power to amend or repeal

24AA. If an Act authorises or requires the making of an instrument or decision—

- (a) the power includes power to amend or repeal the instrument or decision; and
- (b) the power to amend or repeal the instrument or decision is exercisable in the same way, and subject to the same conditions, as the power to make the instrument or decision.

Appointments may be made by name or office

24A.(1) If an Act authorises or requires a person or body—

- (a) to appoint a person to an office; or
- (b) to appoint a person or body to exercise a power; or
- (c) to appoint a person or body to do another thing;

the person or body may make the appointment by—

- (d) appointing a person or body by name; or
- (e) appointing a specified officer, or the holder of a specified office, by reference to the title of the office concerned.

(2) An appointment of a specified officer, or the holder of a specified office, is taken to be the appointment of the person for the time being occupying or acting in the office concerned.

Acting appointments

24B.(1) If an Act authorises a person or body to appoint a person to act in an office, the person or body may, in accordance with the Act, appoint—

- (a) a person by name; or
- (b) a specified officer, or the holder of a specified office, by reference to the title of the office concerned; to act in the office.

(2) The appointment may be expressed to have effect only in the circumstances specified in the instrument of appointment.

(3) The appointer may—

- (a) determine the terms and conditions of the appointment, including remuneration and allowances; and
- (b) end the appointment at any time.

(3A) If the appointer is a body, the appointment may be made or ended by a resolution of the body.

(4) The appointment, or the ending of the appointment under subsection (3)(b), must be in, or evidenced by, writing, signed by the appointer or, if the appointer is a body, by a person authorised by the body for the purpose.

(5) The appointee must not act for more than 1 year during a vacancy in the office.

(6) If the appointee is acting in the office otherwise than because of a vacancy in the office and the office becomes vacant, then, subject to subsection (2), the appointee may continue to act until—

- (a) the appointer otherwise directs; or
- (b) the vacancy ends; or
- (c) the end of a year from the day of the vacancy;

whichever happens first.

(7) The appointment ends if the appointee resigns by writing signed and delivered to the appointer.

(7A) If the vacancy in the office in which a person is acting ends, the person's appointment to act in the office because of the vacancy also ends.

(7B) If the holder of the office in which a person is acting resumes the office, the person's appointment to act in the office because of the absence of the holder of the office ends.

(7C) Subsections (7A) and (7B) apply even if a contrary intention appears in the instrument of, or evidencing the, appointment to act.

(7D) A person's substantive appointment to an office does not end merely because the person acts in another office.

(7E) To avoid any doubt, it is declared that subsections (7A) to (7D) do not change the law of Queensland.

(8) While the appointee is acting in the office—

- (a) the appointee has all the functions and powers of the holder of the office; and
- (b) laws apply to the appointee as if the appointee were the holder of the office.

(9) Anything done by or in relation to a person purporting to act in the office is not invalid merely because—

- (a) the occasion for the appointment had not arisen; or

- (b) the appointment had ended; or
- (c) the occasion for the person to act had not arisen or had ended.

(10) If the Act authorises the appointer to appoint a person to act during a vacancy in the office, an appointment to act in the office may be made by the appointer whether or not an appointment has previously been made to the office.

(11) If—

- (a) the appointer is a specified officer or the holder of a specified office; and
- (b) the person who was the specified officer or holder of the specified office when the appointment was made ceases to be the officer or holder of the office;

then—

- (c) the appointment continues in force; and
- (d) the person for the time being occupying or acting in the office concerned is taken to be the appointer for the purposes of this section.

(12) If—

- (a) the appointer is a body; and
- (b) there is a change in the membership of the body;

then—

- (c) the appointment continues in force; and
- (d) the body as constituted for the time being is taken to be the appointer for the purposes of this section.

(13) Writing purporting to be, or to contain, an appointment, or the ending of an appointment under subsection (3)(b), is evidence of the appointment or the ending of the appointment.

(14) A certificate signed by the appointer (or, if the appointer is a body, by a person authorised by the body for the purpose) stating anything in relation to an appointment is evidence of the thing.

(15) A document purporting to be a certificate mentioned in subsection (14) is taken to be the certificate, and to have been properly given, unless the contrary is established.

Acting person nominated by Act etc.

24C.(1) This section applies if an Act provides that a specified officer, or the holder of a specified office, (the “nominated person”) acts as another specified officer or in another specified office on a specified occasion.

(2) While the nominated person is acting as the other officer or in the other office—

- (a) the nominated person has all the functions and powers of the officer or holder of the office; and
- (b) laws apply to the nominated person as if the nominated person were the officer or holder of the office.

(3) Anything done by or in relation to the nominated person while the nominated person is purporting to act as the other officer or in the other office is not invalid merely because the occasion for the nominated person to act had not happened or had ceased.

Powers of appointment imply certain incidental powers

25.(1) If an Act authorises or requires a person or body to appoint a person to an office—

- (a) the power may be exercised as occasion requires; and
- (b) the power includes—
 - (i) power to remove or suspend, at any time, a person appointed to the office; and
 - (ii) power to appoint another person to act in the office if a person appointed to the office is removed or suspended; and
 - (iii) power to reinstate or reappoint a person removed or suspended; and
 - (iv) power to appoint a person to act in the office if it is vacant (whether or not the office has ever been filled); and
 - (v) power to appoint a person to act in the office if the person appointed to the office is absent or is unable to discharge the functions of the office (whether because of illness or otherwise); and

- (c) the power also includes power to reappoint a person to the office if the person is eligible to be appointed to the office.

(2) The power to remove or suspend a person under subsection (1)(b) may be exercised even if the Act under which the person was appointed provides that the holder of the office to which the person was appointed is to hold office for a specified period.

(3) The power to make an appointment under subsection (1)(b) may be exercised as occasion requires.

(4) An appointment under subsection (1)(b) may be expressed to have effect only in the circumstances specified in the instrument of appointment.

Appointment not affected by defect etc.

26. The appointment of a person to an office, to act in an office, to exercise a power or to do anything else is not invalid merely because of a defect or irregularity in relation to the appointment.

Power to hear and determine includes power to administer oath

27. A person or body authorised by law, or by consent of parties, to conduct a hearing for the purpose of the determination (by that or another person or body) of any matter has authority—

- (a) to receive evidence; and
- (b) to examine witnesses, and to administer oaths to witnesses, who have been lawfully called before the person or body.

Delegation of powers

27A.(1A) Authority to delegate a person's or body's powers includes authority to delegate doing an act or making a decision for performing a function of the person or body.

(1) If an Act authorises a person or body to delegate a power, the person or body may, in accordance with the Act and any other applicable law, delegate the power to—

- (a) a person or body by name; or
- (b) a specified officer, or the holder of a specified office, by reference to the title of the office concerned.

(2) The delegation may be—

- (a) general or limited; and
- (b) made from time to time; and
- (c) revoked, wholly or partly, by the delegator.

(3) The delegation, or a revocation of the delegation, must be in, or evidenced by, writing signed by the delegator or, if the delegator is a body, by a person authorised by the body for the purpose.

(3A) If the delegator is a body, the delegation may be made or revoked by a resolution of the body.

(3B) All conditions and preliminary steps required for the exercise of a delegation are presumed to have been satisfied and performed unless the contrary is established.

(3C) Laws apply to the delegate in the exercise of a delegated power as if the delegate were the delegator.

(4) A delegated power may be exercised only in accordance with any conditions to which the delegation is subject.

(5) The delegate may, in the exercise of a delegated power, do anything that is incidental to the delegated power.

(6) A delegated power that purports to have been exercised by the delegate is taken to have been properly exercised by the delegate unless the contrary is proved.

(7) A delegated power that is properly exercised by the delegate is taken to have been exercised by the delegator.

(8) If, when exercised by the delegator, a power is dependent on the delegator's opinion, belief or state of mind, then, when exercised by the delegate, the power is dependent on the delegate's opinion, belief or state of mind.

(8A) If—

Acts Interpretation Act 1954

- (a) the delegator is a specified officer or the holder of a specified office; and
- (b) the person who was the specified officer or holder of the specified office when the delegation was made ceases to be the officer or holder of the office;

then—

- (c) the delegation continues in force; and
- (d) the person for the time being occupying or acting in the office concerned is taken to be the delegator for the purposes of this section.

(8B) If—

- (a) the delegator is a body; and
- (b) there is a change in the membership of the body;

then—

- (c) the delegation continues in force; and
- (d) the body as constituted for the time being is taken to be the delegator for the purposes of this section.

(9) If a power is delegated to a specified officer or the holder of a specified office—

- (a) the delegation does not cease to have effect merely because the person who was the specified officer or the holder of the specified office when the power was delegated ceases to be the officer or the holder of the office; and
- (b) the power may be exercised by the person for the time being occupying or acting in the office concerned.

(10) A power that has been delegated may, despite the delegation, be exercised by the delegator.

(10A) The delegation of a power does not relieve the delegator of the delegator's obligation to ensure that the power is properly exercised.

(11) Subject to subsection (12), this section applies to a subdelegation of a power in the same way as it applies to a delegation of a power.

(12) If an Act authorises the delegation of a power, the power may be subdelegated only if the Act expressly authorises the power to be subdelegated.

(13) Writing purporting to be, or to contain, a delegation, or the revocation of a delegation, is evidence of the delegation or revocation.

(14) A certificate signed by the delegator (or, if the delegator is a body, by a person authorised by the body for the purpose) stating anything in relation to a delegation is evidence of the thing.

(15) A document purporting to be a certificate mentioned in subsection (14) is taken to be the certificate, and to have been properly given, unless the contrary is established.

(16) In this section—

“power” includes doing an act or making a decision for the purpose of performing a function.

Content of statement of reasons for decision

27B. If an Act requires a tribunal, authority, body or person making a decision to give written reasons for the decision (whether the expression ‘reasons’, ‘grounds’ or another expression is used), the instrument giving the reasons must also—

- (a) set out the findings on material questions of fact; and
- (b) refer to the evidence or other material on which those findings were based.

Legislative Assembly’s resolutions to be interpreted not to exceed authority

29.(1) A resolution of the Legislative Assembly, or a committee of the Legislative Assembly, made under an Act is to be interpreted as operating—

- (a) to the full extent of, but not to exceed, the Legislative Assembly’s constitutional powers; and
- (b) subject to the Act; and
- (c) distributively.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), if part of a resolution would, apart from this section, be interpreted as exceeding authority—

- (a) the resolution is valid to the extent to which it does not exceed authority; and
- (b) the remainder of the resolution is not affected.

(3) Without limiting subsection (1), if the application of part of a resolution to a person, matter or circumstance would, apart from this section, be interpreted as exceeding authority, the part's application to other persons, matters or circumstances is not affected.

(4) This section applies to an Act in addition to, and without limiting, any provision of the Act.

Reports to Legislative Assembly

29A.(1) Where, by any Act, a report (whether accompanied by other documents or not) required to be made to a Minister or the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly and required or permitted to be tabled in or laid before the Legislative Assembly whether within a period of time specified in that Act or not, is received by the Minister or Speaker whilst the Legislative Assembly is not sitting, then, upon delivery of that report and any accompanying document to the Clerk of the Parliament, the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly may order that the report and any accompanying document be printed as if it were printed by order of the Legislative Assembly.

(2) Where a report and any accompanying document is printed under subsection (1)—

- (a) the Minister or the Speaker shall table the report and accompanying document in the Legislative Assembly at the next day of sitting; and
- (b) for the purpose of any motion in relation to any matter contained in or dealt with by that report, the report and any accompanying document shall be taken to have been tabled in the Legislative Assembly on the next day of sitting; and
- (c) the report and any accompanying document shall be accorded all the immunities and privileges of a report tabled in and ordered to be printed by the Legislative Assembly.

Working out number of sitting days

29B. In working out a particular number of sitting days of the Legislative Assembly, it does not matter whether the days are within the same or different Parliaments or within different sessions of Parliament.

PART 8—TERMS AND REFERENCES IN ACTSDefined terms—other parts of speech and grammatical forms

32. If an Act defines a word or expression, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of the word or expression have corresponding meanings.

Definitions to be read in context

32A. Definitions in or applicable to an Act apply except so far as the context or subject matter otherwise indicates or requires.

Terms defined both in this Act and another Act

32AA. If—

- (a) a word or expression is defined non-exhaustively for the purposes of an Act other than this Act (the “non-exhaustive definition”); and
- (b) the word or expression is also defined in this Act (the “Interpretation Act definition”);

then, for the purposes of the first Act—

- (c) the non-exhaustive definition does not exclude or limit, but may extend, the meaning of the word or expression given by the Interpretation Act definition; and
- (d) the non-exhaustive and Interpretation Act definitions are to be read in the context of each other and the other provisions of the first Act, but, if the definitions so read are inconsistent, the

Interpretation Act definition is displaced.

Gender

32B. In an Act, words indicating a gender include each other gender.

Number

32C. In an Act—

- (a) words in the singular include the plural; and
- (b) words in the plural include the singular.

Meaning of “may” and “must” etc.

32CA.(1) In an Act, the word “may”, or a similar word or expression, used in relation to a power indicates that the power may be exercised or not exercised, at discretion.

(2) In an Act, the word “must”, or a similar word or expression, used in relation to a power indicates that the power is required to be exercised.

(3) To remove any doubt, it is declared that this section applies to an Act passed after 1 January 1992 despite any presumption or rule of interpretation.

Words and expressions used in amending Acts

32CB.(1) Words and expressions used in an Act that amends another law have the same meanings as they have in the other law.

(2) Subsection (1) does not limit section 22 (Act and amending Acts to be read as one).

(3) To remove any doubt, it is declared that this section applies to an Act passed after 1 January 1992 despite any presumption or rule of interpretation.

References to persons generally

32D.(1) In an Act, a reference to a person generally includes a reference to a corporation as well as an individual.

(2) Subsection (1) is not displaced merely because there is an express reference to either an individual or a corporation elsewhere in the Act.

Examples of references to a person generally—

- ‘another’
- ‘anyone’
- ‘no-one’
- ‘one’
- ‘party’
- ‘person’
- ‘someone’
- ‘whoever’.

Examples of express references to a corporation—

- body corporate
- company
- corporation sole.

Examples of express references to an individual—

- adult
- child
- spouse.

Production of records kept in computers etc.

32E. If a person who keeps a record of information by way of a mechanical, electronic or other device is required by or under an Act—

- (a) to produce the information or a document containing the information to a court, tribunal or person; or
- (b) to make a document containing the information available for inspection by a court, tribunal or person;

then, unless the court, tribunal or person otherwise directs—

- (c) the requirement obliges the person to produce or make available for inspection, as the case may be, a document that reproduces the information in a form capable of being understood by the court, tribunal or person; and
- (d) the production to the court, tribunal or person of the document in that form complies with the requirement.

References to commencement

32F.(1) In an Act, a reference to “commencement” for an Act or a provision of an Act is a reference to the time the Act or provision comes into operation.

(2) In a provision of an Act, a reference to “the commencement” without indicating a particular Act or provision is a reference to the commencement of the provision in which the reference occurs.

Example of subsection (2)—

If section 24(3) of an Act stated ‘This section expires 1 month after the commencement’, ‘the commencement’ referred to is the commencement of section 24(3).

References to Ministers, departments and chief executives

33.(1) In an Act—

- (a) a reference to a Minister is a reference to a Minister of the Crown; and
- (b) a reference to a particular Minister by title, or to “the Minister” without specifying a particular Minister by title, includes a reference to another Minister, or member of the Executive Council, who is acting for the Minister.

(2) In a provision of an Act, a reference to “the Minister” without specifying a particular Minister by title is a reference to—

- (a) the Minister administering the provision; or
- (b) if, for the time being, different Ministers administer the provision in relation to different matters—
 - (i) if only 1 Minister administers the provision in relation to the

Acts Interpretation Act 1954

relevant matter—the Minister; or

(ii) if 2 or more Ministers administer the provision in relation to the relevant matter—any 1 of the Ministers; or

(c) if paragraph (b) does not apply and, for the time being, 2 or more Ministers administer the provision—any 1 of the Ministers.

(3) If a provision of an Act refers to a Minister and specifies the Minister merely by reference to the fact that the Minister administers a specified Act or enactment, subsection (2) applies as if references in paragraphs (a) to (c) to the provision were references to the specified Act or enactment.

(4) If an Act defines the expression “Minister” or “the Minister” for the purposes of the Act or a provision of the Act in a way that does not specify a particular Minister by title, subsections (2) and (3) apply to the provision despite that definition of the expression.

(4A) In an Act, a reference to a specified Minister who no longer exists—

(a) is a reference to the Minister specified by notification by the Governor in Council; and

(b) includes another Minister, or a member of the Executive Council, who is acting for the specified Minister.

(4B) In an Act, a reference to a department is a reference to an entity specified as a department of government in Schedule 1 to the Public Service Management and Employment Act 1988.

(5) In a provision of an Act, a reference to “the department” without specifying a particular department of government by name is a reference to—

(a) if, for the time being, different Ministers administer the provision in relation to different matters—the department of government that—

(i) deals with the relevant matter; and

(ii) is administered by the Minister or Ministers administering the provision in relation to the matter; or

(b) in any other case—the department of government that—

(i) deals with the matters to which the provision relates; and

Acts Interpretation Act 1954

- (ii) is administered by the Minister or Ministers for the time being administering the provision.

(5A) In an Act, a reference to a specified department of government that no longer exists is a reference to the department specified by notification by the Governor in Council.

(5AB) If a provision of an Act refers to a department of government and specifies the department by reference to the administration (however described) of a specified Act or enactment, subsection (5) applies as if references in paragraphs (a) and (b) to the provision were references to the specified Act or enactment.

(5AC) In an Act, a reference to a chief executive is a reference to a chief executive of a unit of the public sector.

(5B) In a provision of an Act, a reference to the “chief executive” without specifying a particular unit of the public sector by name is a reference to the chief executive of—

- (a) if, for the time being, different Ministers administer the provision in relation to different matters—the unit of the public sector that—
 - (i) deals with the relevant matter; and
 - (ii) is administered by the Minister or Ministers administering the provision in relation to the matter; or
- (b) in any other case—the unit of the public sector that—
 - (i) deals with the matters to which the provision relates; and
 - (ii) is administered by the Minister or Ministers for the time being administering the provision.

(5C) If a provision of an Act refers to a chief executive by reference to the administration (however described) of a specified Act or enactment, subsection (5B) applies as if references in paragraphs (a) or (b) to the provision were references to the specified Act or enactment.

(6) To remove any doubt, it is declared that if—

- (a) a provision of an Act is administered by 2 or more Ministers; and
- (b) under this section, the provision authorises or requires anything to be done by or in relation to any 1 of the Ministers;

the provision does not authorise or require it to be done in a particular case by or in relation to more than 1 of the Ministers.

(7) Any notification of administrative arrangements by the Governor in Council distributing the public business, or any of that business, amongst the several departments of government or any of those departments, or showing the offices or any of the offices placed under the control of, or the Acts or any of the Acts administered by, each Minister respectively, or by any Minister, shall upon publication in the Gazette be judicially noticed.

References to States include Territories

33A.(1) In an Act, a reference to a State (other than a reference to Queensland or a particular State by name) includes a reference to the Australian Capital Territory and the Northern Territory.

Examples—

‘a law of a State’ includes a law of the Australian Capital Territory and a law of the Northern Territory.

‘a law of the Commonwealth or another State’ includes a law of the Australian Capital Territory and a law of the Northern Territory.

(2) Subsection (1) is not displaced merely because there is an express reference to a Territory elsewhere in the Act.

(3) This section applies to an Act enacted before 1 July 1994 only if the Act includes a definition to the effect that a reference to a State includes a reference to a Territory.

References to officers and holders of offices

34. In an Act, a reference to a particular officer, or to the holder of a particular office, includes a reference to the person for the time being occupying or acting in the office concerned.

References to Queensland to be implied

35.(1) In an Act—

(2) If the last day of a period provided or allowed by an Act for doing anything is not a business day in the place in which the thing is to be or may be done, the thing may be done on the next business day in the place.

(3) If the last day of a period provided or allowed by an Act for the filing or registration of a document is a day on which the office is closed where the filing or registration is to be or may be done, the document may be filed or registered at the office on the next day that the office is open.

(4) If no time is provided or allowed for doing anything, the thing is to be done as soon as possible, and as often as the relevant occasion happens.

Age

38A. For the purposes of an Act, a person is an age in years at the beginning of the person's birthday for the age.

PART 10—SERVICE OF DOCUMENTS

Service of documents

39.(1) If an Act requires or permits a document to be served on a person, the document may be served—

- (a) on an individual—
 - (i) by delivering it to the person personally; or
 - (ii) by leaving it at, or by sending it by post, telex, facsimile or similar facility to, the address of the place of residence or business of the person last known to the person serving the document; or
- (b) on a body corporate—by leaving it at, or sending it by post, telex, facsimile or similar facility to, the head office, a registered office or a principal office of the body corporate.

(2) Subsection (1) applies whether the expression 'deliver', 'give', 'notify', 'send' or 'serve' or another expression is used.

(3) Nothing in subsection (1)—

- (a) affects the operation of another law that authorises the service of a document otherwise than as provided in the subsection; or
- (b) affects the power of a court or tribunal to authorise service of a document otherwise than as provided in the subsection.

Meaning of service by post etc.

39A.(1) If an Act requires or permits a document to be served by post, service—

- (a) may be effected by properly addressing, prepaying and posting the document as a letter; and
- (b) is taken to have been effected at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post, unless the contrary is proved.

(2) If an Act requires or permits a document to be served by a particular postal method, the requirement or permission is taken to be satisfied if the document is posted by that method or, if that method is not available, by the equivalent, or nearest equivalent, method provided for the time being by Australia Post.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) apply whether the expression ‘deliver’, ‘give’, ‘notify’, ‘send’ or ‘serve’ or another expression is used.

PART 11—OFFENCES AND CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

Penalty at end of provision

41. In an Act, a penalty specified at the end of—

- (a) a section (whether or not the section is divided into subsections); or
- (b) a subsection (but not at the end of a section); or
- (c) a section or subsection and expressed in such a way as to indicate that it applies only to part of the section or subsection; indicates that an offence mentioned in the section, subsection or part is punishable on conviction (whether or not a conviction is recorded) or, if no offence is mentioned, a contravention of the section, subsection or part constitutes an offence against the provision that is punishable on conviction (whether or not a conviction is recorded)—

- (d) if a minimum as well as a maximum penalty is specified—by a penalty not less than the minimum and not more than the maximum; or
- (e) in any other case—by a penalty not more than the specified penalty.

Penalty other than at end of provision

41A.(1) In an Act, a penalty specified for an offence, or a contravention of a provision, indicates that the offence is punishable on conviction (whether or not a conviction is recorded), or the contravention constitutes an offence against the provision that is punishable on conviction (whether or not a conviction is recorded)—

- (a) if a minimum as well as a maximum penalty is specified—by a penalty not less than the minimum and not more than the maximum; or
- (b) in any other case—by a penalty not more than the specified penalty.

(2) This section does not apply to a penalty to which section 41 applies.

Any person may prosecute etc.

42. Any person may take a proceeding for the imposition or enforcement of a penalty, or the making of a forfeiture order, under an Act.

Appropriation of penalties

43.(1) The following rules apply to an amount recovered because of the imposition of a penalty or the making of a forfeiture order—

- (a) any part of the amount that is ordered under subsection (2) to be paid to the party prosecuting must first be paid to the party;
- (b) the remaining part of the amount must then be paid to the Consolidated Fund.

(2) The court that imposes the penalty, or makes the forfeiture order, may order that not more than half of the amount recovered be paid to the party prosecuting.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply if the party prosecuting is prosecuting as an officer or employee of the State or an officer of the public service.

Summary proceedings

44.(1) In an Act, a provision of the type mentioned in subsection (2) means that a proceeding for an offence, or a specified offence, against the Act is a summary proceeding under the Justices Act 1886.

(2) Subsection (1) applies to provisions of the following type—

- (a) a provision to the effect that a proceeding for the offence is to be heard and decided summarily;
- (b) a provision to the effect that a proceeding for the offence is to be heard and decided by or before justices or a Magistrate;
- (c) a provision to the effect that the offence is a summary offence or is punishable on summary conviction or summarily;
- (d) a provision for an offence that does not expressly or impliedly make the offence an indictable offence.

(3) In an Act, a provision that provides that another type of proceeding is to be heard and decided summarily, or before justices or a Magistrate, means that the proceeding is a summary proceeding under the Justices Act 1886.

(4) A provision providing for the imposition of a penalty or the making of a forfeiture order, without providing how the penalty is to be recovered or the order made, is taken to mean that the penalty may be recovered, or the order made, under the Justices Act 1886.

Offence punishable only once

45.(1) If an act or omission is an offence under each of 2 or more laws, the offender may be prosecuted and punished under any of the laws, but the offender may not be punished more than once for the same offence.

(2) Subsection (1) applies to a law unless an Act otherwise expressly provides.

(3) In this section—
“law” includes the common law.

Bodies corporate

46. A provision of an Act relating to offences punishable on indictment or summary conviction applies to bodies corporate as well as individuals.

PART 12—THE EXECUTIVE GOVERNMENT OF THE STATE

Purpose of Part

47.(1) This Part declares certain matters.

(2) A declaration about a matter is intended to remove any doubt about the matter.

Meaning of “State” in Part

47A. In this Part—

“the State” means the Executive Government of the State of Queensland.

Powers of State

47B.(1) The State has all the powers, and the legal capacity, of an individual.

(2) The State may exercise its powers—

- (a) inside and outside Queensland; and
- (b) inside and outside Australia.

(3) This Part does not limit the State’s powers.

Example—

This Part does not affect any power a Minister has apart from this Part to bind the State by contract.

Commercial activities by State

47C.(1) The State may carry out commercial activities.

(2) This section is sufficient statutory authority for the State to carry out a commercial activity.

(3) Commercial activities may be carried out—

- (a) without further statutory authority; and
- (b) without prior appropriation from the public accounts for the purpose.

(4) Commercial activities may be carried out—

- (a) inside and outside Queensland; and
- (b) inside and outside Australia.

(5) In this section—

“commercial activities” includes—

- (a) commercial activities that are not within the ordinary functions of the State; and
- (b) commercial activities of a competitive nature; and
- (c) activities declared by a regulation to be commercial activities;

but does not include activities declared by a regulation not to be commercial activities.

“State” includes—

- (a) a department of government of the State; and
- (b) a part of a department of government of the State.

Commercial activities by Minister

47D. A Minister may carry out commercial activities for the State.

Delegation by Minister

47E.(1) A Minister may delegate the State's powers to an officer of the State.

(2) An officer of the State may subdelegate delegated powers to another officer of the State.

(3) In this section—

“officer of the State” means—

- (a) a chief executive, or employee, of a unit of the public sector; or
- (b) an officer of the public service.

PART 13—MISCELLANEOUSMode of pleading affirmation instead of oath

48. Wherever in any legal proceeding of any kind any other legal proceedings may be set out it shall not be necessary to specify that any particular persons, who acted as jurors had made affirmation or declaration instead of oath, but if it is stated in such first mentioned proceedings or in any record of any kind that the jurors served and acted as jurors (in the same way as if no Act had passed for enabling persons to serve as jurors without oath) such proceedings or record shall not be held insufficient in respect thereof.

Verification of documents

48A. If an Act requires that, for a purpose of the Act or another law, a document, or information or a document included in, attached to or given with a document, be verified in a specified way, the purpose is not fulfilled unless the requirement is satisfied.

Example—

If an Act requires a document accompanying an application form to be verified by statutory declaration and the document is lodged without being verified in this way, the document has not been properly lodged for the purposes of the Act.

Forms

49.(1) If a form is prescribed or approved under an Act, strict compliance with the form is not necessary and substantial compliance is sufficient.

(2) If a form prescribed or approved under an Act requires—

- (a) the form to be completed in a specified way; or
- (b) specified information or documents to be included in, attached to or given with the form; or
- (c) the form, or information or documents included in, attached to or given with the form, to be verified in a specified way;

the form is not properly completed unless the requirement is complied with.

(3) If—

- (a) a form (“form 1”) may be prescribed or approved under an Act for a purpose or 2 or more purposes; and
- (b) another form (“form 2”) may be prescribed or approved under the Act or another Act for the same or another purpose or purposes;

then, if separate forms 1 and 2 are prescribed or approved, a combined form 1 and 2 may be prescribed or approved and used for the purpose or all the purposes.

(4) If, under an Act, a form is required or permitted to be filed with, or served on, a person (whether the expression ‘file’, ‘lodge’, ‘deliver’, ‘give’, ‘notify’, ‘send’ or ‘serve’ or another expression is used), the form may be filed with, or served on, another person under arrangements made between the persons.

(5) If a form may be prescribed or approved under an Act for a purpose or 2 or more purposes, the form may only require information or documents to be included in, attached to or given with the form that are reasonably necessary for the purpose or 1 or more of the purposes.

Example 1—

A prescribed or approved form may not require the provision of personal information irrelevant to a purpose for which the form is required.

Example 2—

A prescribed or approved form may not require the provision of personal information that has some relevance to a purpose for which the form is required, but is excessively intrusive to personal privacy.

Jurisdiction of courts and tribunals

49A. If a provision of an Act, whether expressly or by implication, authorises a proceeding to be instituted in a particular court or tribunal in relation to a matter, the provision is taken to confer jurisdiction in the matter on the court or tribunal.

Rules of court

50. The power to make rules of court includes power to make rules of court for the purpose of an Act that directs or authorises anything to be done by rules of court.

Judges of Supreme Court

51. Where any power or authority is given by any Act to the Judges of the Supreme Court collectively to make or approve of any general rules or orders of the Supreme or any inferior court, the power or authority may be exercised by a majority of Judges of whom the Chief Justice shall be one.

Form of oath of allegiance

52.(1) On and after the coming into operation of this Act and without prejudice to the provisions of any Act requiring the taking of a further oath of allegiance upon the demise of Her Majesty, there shall be substituted for the oath of allegiance prescribed by section 1 of the Oaths Act 1867, for the oath of allegiance prescribed by section 4 of the Constitution Act 1867, and for any oath of allegiance prescribed by or under any other Act an oath of allegiance in the following form—

I, _____, do sincerely promise and swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth the Second, as lawful Sovereign of the United Kingdom, Australia, and her other Realms and Territories, and to Her Heirs and Successors, according to law.

So Help Me God!

Name of the Sovereign

(2) In the case of the demise of Her Majesty (whom may God long preserve) the name of Her Majesty's successor according to law for the time being shall be substituted in the form of oath of allegiance prescribed by subsection (1) instead of the name of Her Majesty.

References to the Crown etc.

(3) In every Act—

- (a) reference to the Sovereign reigning at the time of the passing of such Act, or to 'Her Majesty', 'His Majesty', 'the Queen', 'the King', or 'the Crown', shall be construed as references to the Sovereign for the time being, and, where necessary, shall include the heirs and successors of such Queen or King; and
- (b) references to any style or titles appertaining to the Crown at the time of the passing of such Act, shall be construed as references to the style and titles appertaining to the Crown for the time being adopted, with the assent of the Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia, by the Sovereign for the time being for use in relation to the Commonwealth of Australia and its Territories.

Regulations

53. The Governor in Council may make regulations under this Act.
