Powers of officers of other States to fight fires in Queensland

86.(1) In this section—

“officer of another State” means an officer of any body or organisation that, pursuant to any law of another State, is responsible for extinguishing fires in rural areas in that State.

“State” means the State of New South Wales or the State of South Australia or the Northern Territory.

(2) Where an officer of another State determines in good faith—

- (a) that a fire burning in Queensland may continue burning into the other State; or
- (b) that a fire burning in the other State may continue burning into Queensland;

the officer may take measures in Queensland for extinguishing or controlling the fire.

(3) If an officer of another State, in Queensland for the purpose of taking measures authorised by subsection (2) to be taken, is the senior officer present of the relevant body or organisation, the officer may exercise, subject to subsection (4), any of the powers of a first officer of a rural fire brigade.

(4) Where, pursuant to this Act or any direction given by the commissioner, any person has control of operations at a fire in Queensland at which an officer of another State is present, that officer must obey any direction given by the person having control of operations.

PART 8—FIRE EMERGENCY

Division 1—Local fire bans

Imposing local fire ban

86A.(1) If the commissioner considers a fire emergency exists in a local government's area, the commissioner may impose a fire ban (a "local fire ban") in the area.

(2) A local fire ban may—

- (a) be imposed for an entire local government area or part of a local government area; and
- (b) prohibit the lighting of all, or only certain, types of fires.

(3) The area to which a local fire ban applies is called the "fire ban area".

Publicising local fire ban

86B.(1) A local fire ban may be imposed—

- (a) by notice (a "newspaper notice") published in a newspaper circulating in the fire ban area; or
- (b) by notice (a "broadcast notice") transmitted by a broadcasting service generally able to be received by persons in the fire ban area.

(2) However, a local fire ban may be imposed by a broadcast notice only if the commissioner considers—

- (a) it is necessary because of urgent circumstances relating to the fire emergency; and

- (b) imposing the ban by a newspaper notice would result in a delay that was undesirable, having regard to the urgent circumstances.

(3) The newspaper or broadcast notice must—

- (a) state the local government area to which the ban applies and, if appropriate, describe the part of the local government area to which it applies; and
- (b) state the fires the lighting of which is prohibited; and
- (c) state the period of the ban (not longer than 14 days).

(4) As well as using a newspaper or broadcast notice to impose a local fire ban, the commissioner may cause the ban to be publicised in any other way the commissioner considers appropriate.

Cancelling local fire ban

86C.(1) If, while a local fire ban is in force, the commissioner considers the fire emergency for which the ban was imposed has ceased to exist, the commissioner must cancel the ban.

(2) The cancellation may be made—

- (a) by notice (a “newspaper notice”) published in a newspaper circulating in the fire ban area; or
- (b) by notice (a “broadcast notice”) transmitted by a broadcasting service generally able to be received by persons in the fire ban area.

(3) However, a local fire ban may be cancelled by a broadcast notice only if the commissioner considers a newspaper notice would unnecessarily delay the cancellation of the ban.

(4) As well as using a newspaper or broadcast notice to cancel a local fire ban, the commissioner may cause the cancellation of the ban to be publicised in any other way the commissioner considers appropriate.

Period of local fire ban

86D.(1) A local fire ban imposed by a notice published in a newspaper takes effect from the day the notice is published.

(2) A local fire ban imposed by a notice transmitted by a broadcasting service takes effect from the day and time stated in the notice.

(3) For subsection (2), the day and time must not be before the notice is transmitted.

(4) A local fire ban remains in force until 1 of the following events happens—

- (a) the period of the ban stated in the notice imposing the ban ends;
- (b) the ban is cancelled.

Effect of local fire ban on other authorisations to light fires

86E. While a local fire ban remains in force, any authority given under this or another Act to light a fire in the fire ban area ceases to have effect, to the extent to which the authority applies to fires the lighting of which is prohibited under the ban.

Contravening local fire ban

86F. While a local fire ban is in force, a person must not light a fire in the fire ban area if the lighting of the fire is prohibited under the ban.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

Evidentiary aid about local fire ban

86G. In a proceeding for an offence against section 86F, a certificate purporting to be signed by the commissioner stating the following matters is evidence of the matters—

- (a) on a stated day, or during a stated period, a local fire ban was in force at a stated place;
- (b) the types of fire the lighting of which was prohibited under the ban.

Division 2—Declarations of state of fire emergencyDeclaration of state of fire emergency

87.(1) The commissioner may, with the approval of the Minister, declare that a state of fire emergency exists within Queensland.

(2) A declaration of a state of fire emergency—

- (a) may have effect throughout the State or in part of the State, as specified in the declaration;
- (b) may apply differently according to factors specified in the declaration;
- (c) may, if it does not prohibit the lighting of all types of fires, prescribe conditions to be observed in lighting fires of any type not prohibited;
- (d) may order that the lighting of any fire of a type not prohibited be subject to the granting of a permit under section 65 by the commissioner or by a person belonging to a class of person specified in the declaration;
- (e) may order that any person finding a fire burning in the open air take all possible steps to extinguish it and, as soon as is practicable, report the existence and locality of the fire to any person belonging to a class of person specified in the declaration;
- (f) may prohibit the use of any appliance, material or substance specified in the declaration that, in the opinion of the commissioner, is or is likely to cause a fire risk;
- (g) may order the suspension of such operations as may be specified for the period specified;
- (h) may, with the approval of the Minister, be amended or revoked at any time.

Publication of declaration

88.(1) Every declaration of a fire emergency or amendment or revocation of a declaration must be notified in the gazette.

(2) A declaration of a fire emergency or an amendment or revocation of a declaration takes effect from—

- (a) the date on which it is notified in the gazette; or
- (b) where it is notified throughout the area to which it applies by newspaper, radio or television, the date on which it is so notified; whichever date occurs sooner.

(3) For the purpose of ensuring public knowledge of the declaration of a state of fire emergency in the area to which it applies, the commissioner must take measures to give widespread publicity to the declaration but any alleged failure to do so is not an excuse for failure to comply with the declaration.

Period of state of fire emergency

89. A state of fire emergency declared by the commissioner remains in force—

- (a) where a period for which it is to remain in force is specified in the declaration, until that period expires unless the declaration is sooner amended by extending that period or revoked; or
- (b) where no period is specified, until the declaration is revoked.

Effect of emergency on existing authorities to light fires

90.(1) Upon the declaration of a state of fire emergency, any authority given under this or any other Act to light a fire, whether given before or during the state of emergency, ceases to have effect while the state of emergency remains in force.

(2) Subsection (1) applies subject to any authority to light a fire specified in the declaration or any permit granted after the commencement of the state of emergency in accordance with the declaration.

Power of commissioner during fire emergency

91.(1) While a state of fire emergency remains in force, the commissioner may take any reasonable measure to abate the fire emergency.

(2) Without limiting those measures, they include requisitioning any premises, plant, equipment, materials or substance for fire fighting or fire prevention.

Failure to comply with declaration

92. Any person who fails to comply with a declaration of a state of fire emergency or with any requisition made pursuant to section 91(2) commits an offence against this Act.

Maximum penalty—250 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment.

Certificate re declaration

93. In any proceeding for—

- (a) an offence defined in section 92; or
- (b) any other offence against this Act where it is alleged as a circumstance of aggravation that the offence was committed during a state of fire emergency at a place to which the declaration of the emergency applied; any certificate under the seal of the commissioner stating that a state of fire emergency declared under section 87 existed at a specified place and during a specified period and specifying any of the provisions of the declaration is evidence of the matters contained in the certificate.

Commissioner may require off-site emergency plan

97.(1) In any case in which the commissioner has power to give a person a notice requiring information concerning any dangerous goods, the commissioner may by notice in writing require the person, within the time specified in the notice, to prepare and lodge with the commissioner a plan relating to those dangerous goods (an “off-site emergency plan”).

(2) A notice may be given to a person under subsection (1) whether or not a notice has been given under section 96 or, where a notice has been given under that section, whether or not the person has complied with the notice.

This part applies in relation to a building that is, or that is treated as part of, a prison for the purposes of the Corrective Services Act 1988, but an authorised fire officer is not competent to exercise a power conferred by sections 55 to 57 in relation to such a building without the consent of the general manager of the prison within the meaning of the Corrective Services Act 1988.

Division 2—Duties of occupiersOccupier of building to maintain means of escape from building

104C. The occupier of a building must maintain at all times free from obstruction adequate means of escape in the event of fire threatening any part of the building.

Occupier of building to maintain prescribed fire safety installations

104D.(1) The occupier of a building must maintain at all times every prescribed fire safety installation to a standard of safety and reliability in the event of fire.

(2) It is a defence to a charge made under this Act that an occupier of a building, in contravention of subsection (1), has failed to maintain in the building a prescribed fire safety installation for the defendant to prove—

- (a) that the prescribed fire safety installation would not be required to be maintained in the building if the building were constructed at the time of the alleged offence and was unnecessary for the purposes of fire safety; or
- (b) that in lieu of the prescribed fire safety installation there is maintained a fire safety installation of equivalent or greater effectiveness.

(3) For the purposes of this section—

Commissioner may assist with plan

104F.(1) The commissioner may provide assistance to the occupier of a building in the preparation and implementation of the plan required to be maintained by the occupier pursuant to section 104E(a) and any regulations made under this part in relation to such a plan.

(2) An occupier to whom assistance is provided is liable to pay the commissioner's charges for the assistance.

Commissioner's notice to comply

104G.(1) The commissioner may give to the occupier of a building a notice in writing requiring the occupier to take steps as directed by or in accordance with the notice, within such time as is specified therein, in order to remedy any matter in respect of which the commissioner is of the opinion that the occupier has failed to comply with this division or with regulations made under this part.

(2) A notice under subsection (1) to the extent that it specifies that an alteration is to be made to the structure of a building is not valid unless the commissioner first consults the local government in whose area the building is situated.

(3) A person who is given a notice pursuant to subsection (1) must comply with the notice.

(3A) In a case where such a person fails to comply with the notice within a time specified therein then—

- (a) notwithstanding that the time has passed, the person's obligation to comply continues until the person complies with the notice; and
- (b) section 150 applies.

(4) The giving of a notice under this section does not prejudice any other proceedings under this Act in respect of the noncompliance to which the notice relates, with the exception that the person to whom the notice is given is not liable, during the period afforded by the notice to comply and any further period during which that person is relieved by this part from any penalty for failure to comply with the notice, to any penalty prescribed by section 150 for continuing offences.

Division 3—Prohibition on prescribed use without certificate of compliance

Prohibition on prescribed use without certificate of compliance

104H.(1) A regulation may prohibit the use of a building as prescribed under the regulation unless there is in existence a certificate of compliance issued under section 104I in relation to that building use.

(2) A regulation made under subsection (1)—

- (a) must be expressed to apply in relation to a building use specified in schedule 5 unless the Governor in Council is satisfied that urgent action is required to reduce the risk of fire in relation to a building use not specified in schedule 5; and
- (b) may be expressed to apply in relation to all buildings or any building of a description defined in the regulation.

(3) A regulation may revoke a certificate of compliance or class thereof issued before the regulation is made that authorised a building use to which the regulation applies.

(4) An occupier of a building who uses the building in contravention of a regulation made under subsection (1) commits an offence against this Act.

(5) An occupier of a building is not liable to any penalty prescribed by this Act by reason of the building being used in contravention of subsection (4) on and from the date the occupier makes application for a certificate of compliance under section 104I to and including the date the occupier is issued a certificate of compliance or given a notice refusing the application pursuant to section 104I.

(6) Subsection (5) does not apply in relation to an application made after a previous application has been refused.

Certificate of compliance

104I.(1) An occupier of a building to which a regulation made under section 104H(1) applies may apply to the commissioner to be issued a certificate of compliance under this section in relation to a building use to which the regulation applies.

(2) An application must—

- (a) be accompanied by the fee prescribed under a regulation; and
- (b) provide the information prescribed under a regulation; and
- (c) specify the building and the building use to which the certificate of compliance is to apply.

(3) An application must be referred to an authorised fire officer for consideration and determination.

(4) The authorised fire officer must then inspect the building.

(5) An applicant is to provide to the commissioner or the authorised officer such information in relation to the application as either may require.

(6) If the authorised fire officer who inspects the building, having regard to the building use specified in the application, is satisfied—

- (a) that sections 104C, 104D and 104E are being complied with; and
- (b) that the regulations made pursuant to this part that apply in relation to building use are being complied with; and
- (c) that adequate fire safety measures and fire prevention measures generally have been taken or are being maintained; the authorised fire officer must issue a certificate of compliance in relation to the building authorising the building use specified in the application.

(7) If the authorised officer who inspects the building is not satisfied of any matter prescribed by subsection (6)(a) to (c), the authorised officer must give notice to the applicant—

- (a) specifying the steps required to be taken before the application will be granted; and
- (b) allowing a reasonable period within which those steps may be taken before the application is refused.

(7A) The authorised officer may at any time extend the period so allowed.

(8) If—

- (a) the applicant declines to take the steps referred to in subsection (7)(a); or
- (b) upon inspection of the building at the expiration of the period allowed to the applicant to take the steps referred to in subsection (7)(a), the authorised officer is not satisfied that those steps have been taken;

the authorised officer must refuse the application by notice given to the applicant.

(8A) The notice must state the grounds of the refusal and any steps required to be taken by the applicant before any further application will be granted.

(9) A notice under subsection (7) or (8) to the extent that it specifies that an alteration is to be made to the structure of a building before an application will be granted is not valid unless the authorised fire officer who issues the notice first consults the local government in whose area the building is situated.

(10) If an authorised officer—

- (a) fails to issue a certificate of compliance or any notice under this section before a date 30 days after the receipt by the commissioner of an application; or
- (b) in a case where a notice under subsection (7) has been given to the applicant—fails to issue a certificate of compliance or a notice of refusal before a date 30 days after the expiration of the time allowed by the notice to take steps specified in the notice;

the provisions of division 4 apply as if the authorised officer had given to the applicant on that date a notice of refusal.

Form of certificate of compliance

104J. A certificate of compliance—

- (a) subject to this Act, may be issued in any convenient form and if convenient be in respect of more than 1 building or building use;
- (b) must state specifically or by reference the fire safety installations the maintenance of which were required for the issue of the certificate.

Certificate of compliance—limitations on requirements

104K. An authorised fire officer who inspects a building for the purposes of section 104I must not impose—

- (a) more onerous requirements for the maintenance of fire safety installations than the occupier was required to maintain pursuant to section 104D immediately before the inspection; or
- (b) in relation to any particular matter provided for by the regulations—more onerous requirements than those imposed in relation to the matter by the regulations; as a prerequisite to the officer being satisfied that adequate fire safety measures and fire prevention measures generally have been taken or are being maintained by the occupier.

Division 4—Objection to notices

Persons aggrieved by notice may object

104L.(1) A person who is aggrieved because the person has been given a notice under this part or by the terms of such a notice within 21 days may object in writing to the regional commander.

(2) An objection is not valid unless it is accompanied by the fee prescribed under a regulation.

(3) For the purposes of this section the regional commander is the person who, pursuant to this Act, holds that office for the region in which is situated the building to which the notice in question relates or a person who is performing the duties of the office for the time being.

Panel of referees to be convened

104M. Upon receipt by a regional commander of an objection under this division, the commissioner or a person nominated by the commissioner must convene within 30 days a panel of referees to determine the objection.

(3) The referee nominated pursuant to subsection (1)(b)—

- (a) if the local government is not the person objecting—is to be a person appointed to be a building surveyor by the local government; and
- (b) if the local government is the person objecting—is to be a person appointed to be a building surveyor by a local government other than the objector.

(4) For the purposes of the nomination referred to in subsection (1)(c), the chairperson of the Building Advisory Committee must request 1 or more of the bodies represented on the committee to nominate a person for appointment.

(4A) The person nominated by the chairperson for the appointment must be a person nominated by 1 of the bodies represented on the committee.

(5) In the event of a failure of a local government or the chairperson of the Building Advisory Committee for any reason to nominate a person to be a referee for the purposes of subsection (1)(b) or (c), in the stead of that person the convenor of the panel may appoint any person to be a referee.

(6) Referees are entitled to such fees and expenses for attendance at meetings of a panel as may be approved by the Governor in Council, with the exception that an officer of the public service of the State is not to receive fees for attendance as a referee during ordinary hours of duty.

Determination of objection

104O.(1) A person who convenes a panel of referees pursuant to section 104M, as soon as practicable thereafter and upon consultation with the chair referee, must give a notice in writing to each referee and the objector appointing a time and place when and where the panel is to consider the objection and any further representations.

(2) At the time and place so appointed, or at any time and place to which the matter is adjourned from time to time, the panel must consider and determine the objection.

(3) A panel is not bound by the rules or the practice of any court or tribunal as to evidence or procedure in the consideration and determination of an objection, but, subject to this Act, may inform itself on any matter and conduct its proceedings in such manner as it thinks proper.

(4) A panel may authorise a person to be represented before it by an agent with the exception that a person is not to be represented by counsel or solicitor.

(5) A determination of the panel is to be decided by majority vote of its members.

(6) In determining the objection, a panel may—

- (a) confirm, cancel or vary the notice to which objection is made in such a manner and to such an extent as it thinks fit; and
- (b) give such directions as are necessary to give effect to its determination.

(7) If the panel confirms or varies a notice it may extend any period for compliance with the notice.

(8) The convenor of the panel must give written notification of the determination of the panel to the objector within 7 days of the determination being made.

Relief from penalty pending determination of objection

104P. If an objection is validly made pursuant to section 104L to a notice given under this part, the objector is not liable to a penalty under this Act—

- (a) in the case of a notice given under section 104G—for any failure on the objector’s part to comply with the notice on and before the date on which the objector is given notice of the determination of the objection; and
- (b) in the case of a notice given under section 104I(8)—for any use of a building, being a building use to which the notice relates, on and from the date the objector is given the notice to and including the date the objector is given notice of the determination of the objection.

Appeal from panel of referees

104Q.(1) A person aggrieved by a determination of a panel of referees notified to the person pursuant to section 104O, may appeal against the determination within 7 days of being so notified to a stipendiary magistrate sitting as a Magistrates Court in the district appointed for such courts under the Justices Act 1886 within which is situated the building to which the determination relates.

(2) In order to institute an appeal, an aggrieved person must file a notice of appeal specifying the grounds of appeal in the office of the registrar of the Magistrates Court and give a copy of the notice to the convenor of the panel of referees.

- (3) An appeal is to be limited to 1 or both of the grounds of—
- (a) denial of natural justice; or
 - (b) error of law.

- (4) The stipendiary magistrate has jurisdiction—
- (a) to hear and determine the appeal, to dismiss or allow it, or to strike it out for want of prosecution;
 - (b) upon allowing the appeal—
 - (i) to remit the matter to the panel of referees, or to the convenor of the panel of referees for rehearing by another panel, in either case with such directions as the magistrate thinks fit; and
 - (ii) to make such other orders, including relating to costs, as are necessary to dispose of the appeal.

Division 5—Injunctions relating to high risk buildings

Injunctions

104R.(1) Where the commissioner is satisfied in relation to any building that the risk to persons in the event of fire or the risk of spread of fire is so serious that the use of the building should be prohibited or restricted until steps have been taken to reduce the risk to a reasonable level, the commissioner, by action in the Supreme Court, may claim against the occupier of the building an injunction prohibiting or restricting the use of the building.

(2) Jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the Supreme Court and a judge thereof to hear and determine any such action and to grant an injunction to prohibit or restrict the use of the building.

- (3) An injunction may be—
- (a) for a limited period of time specified in the order or for an indefinite period of time;
 - (b) in respect of every use of a building or for a use or uses specified in the order.

Liability to contribute

107.(1) For each financial year the owners of prescribed properties must contribute in accordance with this part to the cost of administering and giving effect to this Act.

(1A) An owner of prescribed property is not liable to contribute unless a fire brigade operated by fire officers provides services to prescribed properties in the urban district in which that prescribed property is situated or provided those services at the time when the liability to contribute arose.

(2) For each financial year there must be paid from the consolidated fund to the commissioner—

- (a) an amount representing one-seventh of the estimates for the financial year in question (as established by the budget of the commissioner approved for that year) of the amount to be received from the owners of prescribed properties other than prescribed properties owned by a Commonwealth public trading enterprise; and
- (b) such further amount as the Treasurer may authorise.

(3) If, for any financial year, the Treasurer believes that any anticipated reduction by the Commonwealth in financial assistance payments to the State (not including any grant related to the provision of fire services to properties owned by the Commonwealth) will be attributable to the amount payable under this part by Commonwealth public trading enterprises as owners of prescribed properties, the Treasurer may make a corresponding reduction in the amount payable under subsection (2)(a).

(4) In this section—

“Commonwealth public trading enterprises” means instrumentalities of the Commonwealth liable to pay the taxes and other charges of the State.

Annual contributions of owners of prescribed properties

108.(1) A regulation may prescribe the amounts of the contributions to be paid by owners of prescribed properties for a financial year.

Annual returns by component local governments

109.(1) To enable the amounts of contributions payable by owners of prescribed properties to be assessed in respect of each financial year, each component local government must furnish to the commissioner a return disclosing the particulars prescribed under a regulation relating to properties that—

(3) If a pensioner entitled to a discount in respect of prescribed property is not the sole owner, the discount is an amount that bears to the amount of the discount to which the pensioner would have been entitled as the sole owner, the same proportion as the pensioner’s interest in the property bears to the total of the interests of all owners of the property.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3)—

- (a) owners who hold interests in a property as joint tenants are taken to hold interests in the property as tenants in common in equal shares; and

(2) A person wishing to appeal must lodge a notice to that effect with the commissioner setting out the grounds of the appeal within 30 days after the fire levy notice is given.

(6A) If the local government has already made payments to the commissioner in respect of those contributions, the amount refundable must be paid to the appellant by the commissioner.
