COOPERATIVES ACT 1997

[reprinted as in force on 1 September 1997]

An Act to provide for the formation, registration and management of cooperatives, and for related purposes

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

Division 1—Introductory

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Cooperatives Act 1997.

Commencement

2. This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

Purpose

3. The purpose of this Act is to provide a legislative framework for the formation, registration and management of cooperatives that enables flexibility in the operation of cooperatives and promotes the development of cooperatives.

Objects of this Act

4. The objects of this Act are to—
 - (a) enable the formation, registration and operation of cooperatives; and

- (b) promote cooperative philosophy, principles, practices and objectives; and
- (c) protect the interests of cooperatives, their members and the public in the operations and activities of cooperatives; and
- (d) ensure directors of cooperatives are accountable for their actions and decisions to the members of cooperatives; and
- (e) encourage and facilitate self-management by cooperatives at all levels; and
- (f) encourage the development, integration and strengthening of cooperatives at local, regional, national and international levels by supporting and fostering State and national peak organisations and cooperative instrumentalities.

Dictionary

5. The dictionary in schedule 8¹ defines words used in this Act.

Division 2—Qualified privilege provisions

Qualified privilege

6.(1) If this Act provides that a person has qualified privilege for an act, matter or thing, the person, in relation to the act, matter or thing—

- (a) has qualified privilege in a proceeding for defamation; and
- (b) is not, in the absence of malice on the person's part, liable to an action for defamation at the suit of a person.

(2) In subsection (1)—

(3) Neither this section nor a provision of this Act that provides as mentioned in subsection (1) limits or affects any right, privilege or immunity a person has, apart from this section or that type of provision, as defendant in a proceeding, or an action, for defamation.

Division 3—The cooperative principles

Cooperative principles

7. The cooperative principles are the following principles—

1. Voluntary and open membership

Cooperatives are voluntary organisations, open to all persons able to use their services and willing to accept the responsibilities of membership, without gender, social, racial, political or religious discrimination.

2. Democratic member control

Cooperatives are democratic organisations controlled by their members, who actively participate in setting their policies and making decisions. Men and women serving as elected representatives are accountable to the membership. In primary cooperatives members have equal voting rights (1 member, 1 vote) and cooperatives at other levels are organised in a democratic way.

3. Member economic participation

Members contribute equitably to, and democratically control, the capital of their cooperative. At least part of the capital is usually the common property of the cooperative. They usually receive limited compensation, if any, on capital subscribed as a condition of membership. Members allocate surpluses for any or all of the following purposes—

- developing the cooperative, possibly by setting up reserves, part of which at least would be indivisible
- benefiting members in proportion to their transactions with the cooperative
- supporting other activities approved by the membership.

4. Autonomy and independence

Cooperatives are autonomous, self-help organisations controlled by their members. If they enter into agreements with other organisations, including governments, or raise capital from external sources, they do so on terms that ensure democratic control by their members and maintain their cooperative autonomy.

5. Education, training and information

Cooperatives provide education and training for their members, elected representatives, managers and employees so they can contribute effectively to the development of their cooperatives. They inform the general public, particularly young people and opinion leaders, about the nature and benefits of cooperation.

6. Cooperation among cooperatives

Cooperatives serve their members most effectively and strengthen the cooperative movement by working together through local, national, regional and international structures.

7. Concern for the community

While focusing on member needs, cooperatives work for the sustainable development of their communities through policies accepted by their members.

Interpretation to promote cooperative principles

8. In the interpretation of a provision of this Act, a construction that would promote cooperative principles is to be preferred to a construction that would not promote cooperative principles.

Division 4—Application of Corporations Law

Corporations Law applying under its own force

9.(1) The provisions of the Corporations Law (other than the provisions mentioned in subsection (2)) are excluded from applying under their own force to cooperatives.

(2) However, the following provisions of the Corporations Law are not excluded from applying under their own force to a cooperative—

- (a) provisions relating to a matter that a regulation provides is not to be excluded from the operation of the Corporations Law;
- (b) provisions relating to the role of a cooperative in the formation of a company;
- (c) provisions relating to substantial shareholdings, by or involving a cooperative, in a company;
- (d) provisions conferring or imposing functions on a cooperative as a member, or former member, of a corporation;
- (e) provisions relating to dealings by a cooperative in securities of a corporation, other than securities of the cooperative itself;
- (f) provisions conferring or imposing functions on a cooperative in its dealings with a corporation, other than dealings in securities of the cooperative;
- (g) provisions relating to securities of a cooperative, other than shares in, debentures of, or deposits with, a cooperative;
- (h) provisions relating to the futures industry;
- (i) provisions relating to participants in the securities industry;
- (j) provisions relating to the conduct of securities business;
- (k) provisions relating to dealers' accounts and audit;
- (l) provisions relating to money and scrip of dealers' clients;
- (m) provisions relating to registers of interests in securities.

(3) To remove doubt, it is declared that, in relation to the Corporations Law, parts 1.2A, 7.11 and 7.12, subsection (1) only operates to exclude the operation of those parts in relation to shares in, debentures of, or deposits with, a cooperative.

(4) This section does not operate to give rise to any operation of the Corporations Law, and does not confer any function under that Law, that that Law would not otherwise have or confer of its own force.

(5) This section has effect despite the Corporations (Queensland) Act

1990 or the applicable provisions of Queensland within the meaning of that Act.

Corporations Law adopted by this Act or the regulations

10.(1) A regulation may adopt, with or without stated changes, a provision of the Corporations Law for application to cooperatives.

(2) A provision of this Act or a regulation that adopts provisions of the Corporations Law for application to cooperatives operates to apply those provisions as part of this Act and the adopted provisions are to be read as forming part of this Act.

(3) If a provision of the Corporations Law is adopted by a provision of this Act or a regulation, neither the adopted provision nor the adopting provision gives power to the Australian Securities Commission to administer the adopted provision for this Act.

Interpretation of adopted provisions of Corporations Law

11.(1) Provisions of the Corporations Law adopted by this Act apply with any changes that may be necessary or appropriate for the effectual application of the provisions to cooperatives.

(2) Examples of necessary or appropriate changes are as follows—

- (a) a reference to articles or memorandum of association is to be read as a reference to rules;
- (b) a cross-reference to another provision of the Corporations Law is, if the cross-reference is not appropriate (because, for example, the provision cross-referred to is not among the provisions applied), to be read as a cross-reference to the equivalent provision of this Act;
- (c) a reference to the gazette is to be read as a reference to the Queensland Government Gazette;
- (d) a reference to the Commonwealth is to be read as a reference to Queensland;
- (e) provisions that are not relevant to cooperatives or incapable of application to cooperatives are to be ignored;

(f) changes made under a regulation under subsection (3).

(3) A regulation may prescribe the changes necessary or desirable for the effectual operation of the adopted provisions of the Corporations Law.

(4) Provisions of the Corporations Law adopted by or under this Act apply and are to be interpreted as if the definitions of words and expressions and other interpretative provisions contained in the Corporations Law formed part of this Act.

(5) This section has effect subject to any specific requirements of provisions of this Act that adopt provisions of the Corporations Law.

Implied adoption of regulations and other provisions of Corporations Law

12.(1) When a provision of this Act or a regulation adopts a provision (“adopted provision”) of the Corporations Law for application to cooperatives, the following provisions are also adopted by force of this section and are to be read as forming part of this Act—

- (a) the provisions of any regulation (“adopted regulation”) for the time being in force under the adopted provision;
- (b) any provision of the Corporations Law that creates an offence for a contravention of the adopted provision;
- (c) the provisions of the Corporations Law, part 9.4B for the purposes of any provision of the Corporations Law adopted by this Act that is a civil penalty provision under that part.

(2) A regulation under this Act may prescribe changes to any of the provisions adopted by subsection (1) for the purposes of their application under this section, and those provisions apply subject to the changes.

(3) If a provision of the Corporations Law or a regulation under that Law adopted under this Act (including under this section) creates an offence and the penalty for the offence is specified in another provision (the “penalty provision”) of the Corporations Law or the regulation, the penalty provision applies for deciding the maximum penalty for the offence.

- (b) a reference to legal capacity includes a reference to powers.

Doctrine of ultra vires abolished

38.(1) The objects of this division are—

- (a) to provide that the doctrine of ultra vires does not apply to cooperatives; and

- (b) without affecting the validity of a cooperative's dealings with others—to ensure the cooperative's officers and members give effect to the provisions of the cooperative's rules relating to the primary activities or powers of the cooperative.

(2) This division is to be construed and have effect in accordance with subsection (1).

Legal capacity

39.(1) A cooperative has, both within and outside the State, the legal capacity of an individual.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), a cooperative has, both within and outside the State, power—

- (b) if the cooperative's rules contain an express or implied restriction on, or an express or implied prohibition of, the exercise by the cooperative of any of its powers—despite that restriction or prohibition; and
- (c) if the rules of the cooperative contain a provision stating the objects of the cooperative—despite that fact.

(4) The fact that the doing of an act by a cooperative would not be, or is not, in its best interests does not affect its legal capacity to do the act.

Restrictions on cooperatives in rules

40.(1) A cooperative's rules may contain an express restriction on, or an express prohibition of, the exercise by the cooperative of a power of the cooperative.

(2) A cooperative contravenes this section if—

(4) A person who contravenes this section is not guilty of an offence.

Results of contravention of restriction in rules

41.(1) The exercise of a power or the doing of an act in contravention of section 40 is not invalid merely because of the contravention.

(2) An act of an officer of a cooperative is not invalid merely because, by doing the act, the officer contravenes section 40.

- (e) an application by the registrar or by a member of the cooperative for the winding-up of the cooperative.

(4) If, apart from subsection (3), a court would have power under section 460 to grant, on the application of a person, an injunction restraining a cooperative or an officer of a cooperative from engaging in particular conduct constituting a contravention of section 40, the court may, on the application of that person, order the cooperative or the officer to pay damages to that person or any other person.

Division 3—Persons having dealings with cooperatives

Assumptions entitled to be made

42.(1) A person may make the assumptions in section 43 in relation to—

- (a) dealings with a cooperative; or
- (b) dealings with a person who has, or purports to have, directly or indirectly acquired title to property from a cooperative.

(2) If a person may assume a matter, the cooperative or anyone mentioned in subsection (1)(b) can not assert in a proceeding in relation to the dealings that the matter is incorrect.

Assumptions

43.(1) A person may assume that the cooperative's rules have been complied with.

(2) A person may assume that anyone who appears, from information provided by the cooperative that is available to the public from the registrar,

¹¹ Section 460 (Injunctions)

to be a director or officer of the cooperative—

- (a) has been properly appointed; and
- (b) has authority to exercise the powers and perform the duties customarily exercised or performed by a director or officer of a similar cooperative.

(3) A person may assume that anyone who is held out by the cooperative to be an officer or agent of the cooperative—

- (a) has been properly appointed; and
- (b) has authority to exercise the powers and perform the duties customarily exercised or performed by that kind of officer or agent of a similar cooperative.

(4) A person may assume that anyone who is, or may be assumed to be, an officer or agent of the cooperative who has authority to issue a document or a certified copy of a document on its behalf also has authority to warrant that the document is genuine or is a true copy.

(5) A person may assume that a document has been properly executed by the cooperative if it is signed by 2 people, 1 of whom is, or may be assumed to be, a director of the cooperative, and the other is, or may be assumed to be, a director or officer of the cooperative.

(6) A person may assume that a document has been sealed by the cooperative if it bears what appears to be an impression of the cooperative's seal and the sealing of the document appears to be witnessed by 2 people, 1 of whom is, or may be assumed to be, a director of the cooperative, and the other is, or may be assumed to be, a director or officer of the cooperative.

(7) A person may assume that the officers and agents of the cooperative properly perform their duties to the cooperative.

Person who knows or ought to know can not make assumptions

44. This division does not entitle a person to make an assumption, and does not prevent an assertion being made in relation to an assumption if—

- (a) the person has actual knowledge that the assumption is not correct; or

- (b) the person ought to know the assumption is not correct because of the nature of the person's connection or relationship with the cooperative.

Filing of documents not to constitute constructive knowledge

45.(1) A person is not considered to have knowledge of a cooperative's rules, any of the contents of a cooperative's rules, a document, the contents of a document, or any particulars, merely because of either or both of the following—

- (a) the rules, the document or the particulars have been filed with the registrar;
- (b) the rules, the document or the particulars are mentioned in any other document that has been filed with the registrar, or filed with a person under a previous law corresponding to a provision of this Act.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a document, or the contents of a document, that has been filed under part 10, division 2¹² to the extent that the document relates to a charge that is registrable under that division or law.

(3) Despite subsection (1), a member of a cooperative is taken to have knowledge of the rules of the cooperative.

Effect of fraud

46.(1) A person's entitlement under this division to make an assumption is not affected merely by the fact that any person—

- (a) has acted or is acting fraudulently in relation to the dealing, acquisition or purported acquisition of title to property to which the assumption relates; or
- (b) has forged a document that appears to have been sealed on behalf of a cooperative.

¹² Part 10, division 2 (Charges)

(2) The person attaching an official seal must, by signed writing, certify on the instrument to which it is attached the date on which and the place at which it is attached.

Cooperative may authorise person to execute deed

50.(1) A cooperative may, by writing under its common seal, empower a person, either generally or in relation to a stated matter, as its agent or attorney (“authorised attorney”) to execute deeds on its behalf.

(2) A deed signed by an authorised attorney on behalf of the cooperative and under the seal of the attorney, or under the appropriate official seal of the cooperative, binds the cooperative and has effect as if it were under the common seal of the cooperative.

(3) The authority of an authorised attorney, as between the cooperative and a person dealing with the attorney, continues during the period, if any, mentioned in the instrument conferring the authority or, if no period is mentioned, until notice of the revocation or termination of the authority of the attorney has been given to the person dealing with the attorney.

Execution under seal

51. A contract or other document executed, or purporting to have been executed, under the seal of a cooperative is not invalid merely because a person certifying the attaching of the seal was in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in that contract or other document or in the matter to which the contract or other document relates.

Contractual formalities

52.(1) So far as concerns the formalities of making, varying or discharging a contract, a person acting under the express or implied authority of a cooperative may make, vary or discharge a contract in the name of, or on behalf of, the cooperative as if the contract were made, varied or discharged by an individual.

(2) The making, varying or discharging of a contract under subsection (1) is effectual in law and binds the cooperative and other parties to the contract.

(3) This section does not prevent a cooperative from making, varying or discharging a contract under its seal.

Other requirements as to consent or sanction not affected

53. This division does not affect the operation of a law that requires some consent or sanction to be obtained, or some procedure to be complied with, in relation to the making, varying or discharging of a contract.

Transitional

54. This division does not apply to the making, varying or discharging of a contract before the commencement of this division, but applies otherwise to a cooperative whether it gives its authority before, on, or after, the commencement.

- (a) within a reasonable period after the contract is entered into; or
- (b) within any period agreed to by the parties to the contract.

(2) The person is released from any liability under the pre-registration contract if the cooperative enters into another contract in substitution for it—

(3) The person is liable to pay damages to each other party to the pre-registration contract if a cooperative is not registered, or a cooperative is registered but does not ratify the contract or enter into a substitute for it—

- (a) within a reasonable period after the contract is entered into; or
- (b) within the period agreed to by the parties to the contract.

(4) The maximum amount of damages the person is liable to pay to a party is the amount the cooperative would be liable to pay to the party if the cooperative had been registered and had ratified the contract and then completely failed to perform it.

(5) If a proceeding is brought to recover damages under subsection (3)

because the cooperative is registered but does not ratify the pre-registration contract or enter into a substitute for it, the court may do anything it thinks just in the circumstances, including ordering the cooperative—

- (a) to pay all or part of the damages the person is liable to pay; or
- (b) to transfer property the cooperative received because of the contract to a party to the contract; or
- (c) to pay an amount to a party to the contract.

Person may be released from liability but is not entitled to indemnity

56.(1) Any of the parties to the pre-registration contract may release the person who entered into, or purported to enter into, the contract from any liability in relation to that contract.

(2) The release must be in writing.

(3) The party giving the release can not recover damages under section 55 from the person.

(4) Despite any rule of law or equity, the person does not have a right of indemnity against the cooperative in relation to the person's liability under this division even if the person was acting, or purporting to act, as trustee for the cooperative.

131.(1) If the Supreme Court is satisfied the cancellation of a member's membership under section 125²⁸ was or would be unreasonable, the court may by order direct that the membership should not have been cancelled or should not be cancelled.

(2) While an order is in force under this section—

- (a) the membership concerned is not required to be cancelled and any shareholding of the member is not required to be forfeited; and
- (b) the person whose membership was cancelled is entitled to be reinstated as a member of the cooperative with all the rights and entitlements (including any shareholding) attaching to or arising from the former membership.

(3) Reinstatement of a member under this section is to be effected under the directions of the Supreme Court.

Repayment of amounts owing because of cancelled membership

132.(1) If the membership of a member of a cooperative is cancelled under this part, the cooperative must, within 1 year after the date of cancellation—

- (a) repay to the former member the amount owing to the member

²⁸ Section 125 (Cancellation of membership of inactive member)

because of the cancellation; or

- (b) apply the amount under subsection (2) if—
 - (i) the board considers repayment would adversely affect the financial position of the cooperative; or
 - (ii) the board and the former member so agree.

(2) The amount payable may be applied as follows—

- (a) if the cooperative is a deposit-taking cooperative—the cooperative may apply the amount as a deposit by the former member with the cooperative (subject to the requirements of section 133 as to interest on the deposit);
- (b) the cooperative may allot or issue debentures of the cooperative to the former member in satisfaction of the amount;
- (c) the cooperative may appropriate the amount as a donation to the cooperative, but only if the former member consents in writing to the donation.

(3) The amount payable to a former member because of the cancellation of membership includes any amount paid up for shares forfeited because of the cancellation of membership.

(4) If the former member is subsequently readmitted to membership, any amount held by the cooperative under this section must, if the member asks, be applied towards the cost of admission to membership (including any subscription for share capital).

Interest on deposits and debentures

133.(1) This section applies when the amount payable to a former member under section 132 is applied as a deposit with the cooperative or the cooperative allots or issues debentures to the former member in satisfaction of the amount.

(2) The deposit or debenture bears interest during any period—

- (a) for a cooperative with share capital—
 - (i) at the rate (or, if there is more than 1 rate, at the higher or highest rate) of dividend payable for that period on the share capital of the cooperative; or

- (ii) if the rate of dividend payable for that period has not been decided—at the rate (or the higher or highest rate) payable for the immediately preceding period for which a rate has been decided; or
- (iii) if a rate of dividend has never been decided for the share capital of the cooperative—at the rate the board of the cooperative considers reasonable; or
- (b) for a cooperative without share capital—at the rate the board of the cooperative considers reasonable; or
- (c) if the rules provide for a rate to be payable that is higher than the rate applicable under paragraph (a) or (b)—at the higher rate.

(3) A former member may agree to the rate of interest being less than that which would otherwise be payable under this section and may agree to no interest being paid.

(4) The provisions of the Corporations Law, part 7.12 adopted under section 256²⁹ do not apply to an allotment or issue of debentures under this section.

Repayment of deposits and debentures

134.(1) A deposit or debenture to which an amount payable to a former member is transferred under this division is to be repaid to the former member as soon as repayment would not, in the opinion of the board, adversely affect the financial position of the cooperative.

(2) The deposit or debenture must in any case be repaid within 10 years (or within any shorter period the rules of the cooperative may require) after cancellation of the member's membership.

Register of cancelled memberships

135. A cooperative must keep a register in the approved form stating the particulars prescribed under a regulation of persons whose membership has been cancelled under this part.

²⁹ Section 256 (Notification of change in nature of shareholding)

Division 5—Entitlements of former members of trading cooperativesApplication of division

136. This division only applies to trading cooperatives.

Former shareholders to be taken to be shareholders for certain purposes

137.(1) Even though a person's shares in a cooperative have been forfeited under this part, the person is to be taken to be the holder of shares in the cooperative (the same in all respects as those that were forfeited) for the following purposes—

- (a) the entitlement of a shareholder in relation to the purchase of shares in the cooperative under an offer described in section 283(1)(a), (b) or (c)³⁰ or the purchase of all the shares in the cooperative, if the offer or purchase occurs within 5 years after the person's shares were forfeited;
- (b) the entitlement of a shareholder when the cooperative becomes registered as a company if the relevant special resolution under section 301³¹ is passed within 5 years after the person's shares were forfeited;
- (c) the entitlement of a shareholder to a distribution of surplus in a winding-up of the cooperative that starts within 5 years after the person's shares were forfeited.

(2) Subsection (1)(a) does not apply to—

- (a) an offer described in section 283(1)(a) or (c) that is made by another cooperative; or
- (b) the purchase of all the shares in the cooperative by another cooperative.

(3) Subsection (1)(c) does not apply if the winding-up is for a merger

³⁰ Section 283 (Share offers to which division applies)

³¹ Section 301 (Requirements before application can be made)

under part 12, division 1.³²

(4) To remove doubt, it is declared that the entitlement under subsection (1)(a) of a person whose shares have been forfeited does not include an entitlement to vote on any matter.

(5) This section does not apply to a forfeited shareholding in a cooperative if section 138 operates to require the forfeited shareholding to be regarded as a forfeited shareholding in another cooperative.

Entitlements of former shareholders on mergers etc.

138.(1) This section applies when a person's shares in a cooperative (the "original cooperative") are forfeited under this part and within 5 years after the forfeiture—

- (a) the original cooperative becomes a subsidiary of another cooperative (the "new cooperative"); or
- (b) another cooperative (the "new cooperative") is created because of a merger under part 12, division 1³³ involving the original cooperative; or
- (c) the engagements of the original cooperative are transferred to another cooperative (the "new cooperative") under part 12, division 1.

(2) A person mentioned in subsection (1) is, for section 137 (and the further operation of this section), taken to have held shares in the new cooperative and as having had those shares in the new cooperative forfeited under this part when the person's shares in the original cooperative were forfeited.

(3) The extent of the forfeited shareholding in the new cooperative is decided as follows—

- (a) if the entitlement of active members of the original cooperative in the circumstances concerned is solely an entitlement to be allotted shares in the new cooperative—the forfeited shareholding in the new cooperative is the shareholding to which the person would have been entitled had the person's shares in the original cooperative not been forfeited;

³² Part 12, division 1 (Mergers and transfers of engagements)

³³ Part 12, division 1 (Mergers and transfers of engagements)

- (b) in any other case—the forfeited shareholding in the new cooperative is the shareholding that is the same in all respects as the forfeited shareholding in the original cooperative.

(4) The decision under subsection (3)(a) of the person's shareholding in the new cooperative must be made—

- (a) solely on the basis of the person's shareholding in the original cooperative when the shares were forfeited or (in a further operation of this section to the person) when the person was first taken to have a forfeited shareholding in the original cooperative; and
- (b) without regard to any additional shareholding in the original cooperative to which the person would have become entitled had the shares not been forfeited (whether because of any bonus share issue or otherwise).

Set-off of amounts repaid etc. on forfeited shares

139.(1) If a person has an entitlement because of section 138, the entitlement operates to end any liability of the cooperative—

- (a) to repay to the person under section 132³⁴ any amount for the forfeited shares concerned; or
- (b) for a deposit held by the cooperative, or debentures allotted or issued to the person, under section 132 for the forfeited shares concerned (except a liability to pay interest that is payable but unpaid).

(2) If an amount has been repaid to a person under section 132 or 134,³⁵ the amount repaid is to be set off against any entitlement of the person under section 137³⁶ for the forfeited shares concerned.

³⁴ Section 132 (Repayment of amounts owing because of cancelled membership)

³⁵ Section 134 (Repayment of deposits and debentures)

³⁶ Section 137 (Former shareholders to be taken to be shareholders for certain purposes)

(3) If the amount repaid can not be set off against the entitlement because the entitlement is not, or is only partly, an entitlement to money, the entitlement is lost unless the person pays to the cooperative the amount repaid to the person and does so within the period required under subsection (4).

(4) If the circumstances mentioned in subsection (3) arise, the cooperative concerned must—

- (a) give written notice of the matter by post to the person concerned at the person's address last known to the cooperative, stating a period of not less than 28 days after the notice is given within which any amount repaid must be paid to the cooperative; and
- (b) publish a general notice to that effect in a newspaper circulating generally in the district in which the registered office of the cooperative is situated.

Entitlement to distribution from reserves

140. A person whose membership of a cooperative has been cancelled under this part is taken to still be a member for any distribution from reserves of the cooperative that takes place within 5 years after the person's membership was cancelled.

Regulation may exempt cooperatives from provisions

141. A regulation may exempt a cooperative from a provision of this division.

⁴¹ Sections 17 (Approval of disclosure statement) and 29 (Appeal against refusal to approval disclosure statement)

153.(1) If it may reasonably be expected (having regard to all relevant circumstances) that on registration of a transfer of shares the transferee will hold some or all of the shares non-beneficially, the instrument of transfer must include a non-beneficial ownership notice.

- (b) if a lower percentage is specified in the rules of the cooperative—that lower percentage of the nominal value of the share capital of the cooperative.

Transfer not effective until registered

(4) The amount paid for a share when it is repurchased may be an amount decided by the board that is less than the nominal value of the share but only—

- (a) if the records of the cooperative disclose that the amount paid is the net shareholder's equity per share in the undertaking of the cooperative; or
- (b) under the rules of the cooperative.

(5) This section does not apply if the member has resigned or has been expelled from the cooperative or the member's membership has been otherwise cancelled.

Deposit or debentures instead of payment when share repurchased

171.(1) If a cooperative repurchases a share of a member, the cooperative may instead of paying the purchase price to the member—

- (a) for a deposit-taking cooperative—apply the amount as an interest bearing deposit by the member with the cooperative; or
- (b) allot or issue debentures of the cooperative to the member in satisfaction of the amount.

(2) Subsection (1) applies only if—

- (3) The deposit or debenture bears interest during any period—
- (a) for a cooperative with share capital—
 - (i) at the rate (or, if there is more than 1 rate, at the higher or highest rate) of dividend payable for that period on the share capital of the cooperative; or
 - (ii) if the rate of dividend payable for that period has not been decided—at the rate (or the higher or highest rate) payable for the immediately preceding period for which a rate has been decided; or
 - (iii) if a rate of dividend has never been decided for the share capital of the cooperative—at the rate the board of the cooperative considers reasonable; or
 - (b) for a cooperative without share capital—at the rate the board of the cooperative considers reasonable; or
 - (c) if the rules provide for a rate to be payable that is higher than the rate applicable under paragraph (a) or (b)—at the higher rate.
- (4) The deposit or debenture must be repaid to the member as soon as repayment would not, in the opinion of the board, adversely affect the financial position of the cooperative.
- (5) The deposit or debenture must in any case be repaid within 10 years (or within any shorter period the rules of the cooperative require) after the repurchase of the shares concerned.

Cancellation of shares

172. A cooperative must cancel any share purchased by or forfeited to the cooperative under this Act or the rules of the cooperative.

PART 8—VOTING

Division 1—Voting entitlements

Application of part

173. This part applies to all voting whether at meetings or in ballots (including postal ballots).

Voting

174.(1) The right to vote attaches to membership and not shareholding.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (4), each member has only 1 vote at a meeting of the cooperative.

(3) If its rules so provide, a member of an association or federation may have the number of votes (up to 5) at a general meeting that is stated in the rules.

(4) If the rules so provide, the chairperson has a second vote at a board meeting or general meeting.

(5) For joint membership—

- (a) the joint members have only 1 vote between them; and
- (b) that vote may be exercised (subject to the grant of a proxy or power of attorney) only by the joint member decided under the rules.

Voting by proxy

175.(1) If the rules so provide, voting may be by proxy at a general meeting.

(2) The instrument of proxy may state the way in which a proxy is to vote on a particular resolution.

(3) The proxy must vote in the way authorised by an instrument of proxy mentioned in subsection (2).

(4) A person must not act as a proxy unless he or she—

- (a) is an active member of the cooperative; or
- (b) for an association or a federation—may represent a component cooperative or association of the association or federation on the association or federation.

(5) A person must not act as proxy for more than 10 members (or a lesser number of members stated in the rules of the cooperative) on any 1 occasion.

(6) Subsection (5) does not apply if the proxy acts under an instrument of proxy mentioned in subsection (2).

Restriction on voting entitlement under power of attorney

176. A person can not exercise, under a power of attorney, the power of a member of the cooperative to vote if the person has that power in relation to another member of the cooperative under another power of attorney.

Restriction on voting by representatives of corporations

177. A person can not exercise, as the representative of a corporation, the power of a corporation member of a cooperative to vote if the person has that power as the representative of another corporation member of the cooperative.

Inactive members not entitled to vote

178. A member can not vote if the member is not an active member of the cooperative.

Control of the right to vote

179.(1) A person must not directly or indirectly control the exercise of the right to vote of a member.

Maximum penalty—60 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

(2) If a person controls the exercise of the right to vote of a member at a meeting of a cooperative—

- (a) the vote of the member is invalid; and

(b) if the person is a member—the vote of the person is invalid.

(3) Nothing in this section prevents the exercise of a vote by means of a proxy or power of attorney.

Effect of relevant share and voting interests on voting rights

180.(1) A member of a cooperative can not vote if another person (whether or not a member of the cooperative) has a relevant interest in any share held by the member or in the right to vote of the member.

(2) A member who can not vote because of this section may apply to the registrar to review the matter.

(3) The registrar may order that the member may vote if he or she is satisfied in the circumstances of the case that loss of the right to vote would be unjust or unreasonable, and the order of the registrar has effect accordingly.

Rights of representatives to vote

181. A person appointed under this Act to represent a member of a cooperative, association or federation—

- (a) is entitled to receive notice of all meetings in the same way as the member represented; and
- (b) is entitled to exercise the same rights to vote as the member represented; and
- (c) is eligible to be elected to the board of directors if the member represented holds the qualifications required for holding office as a director.

Other rights and duties of members not affected by ineligibility to vote

182. A provision of this Act that disentitles a member of a cooperative to vote (either generally or in relation to a particular matter) does not affect any other right, entitlement, obligation or duty of the member as a member.

Vote of disentitled member to be disregarded

183. Any vote cast by or on behalf of a member of a cooperative when not entitled to vote must be disregarded.

Division 2—ResolutionsDecisions to be by ordinary resolution

184. Unless this Act or the rules of the cooperative otherwise provides, every question for decision by a cooperative must be decided by ordinary resolution.

Ordinary resolutions

185. An ordinary resolution is a resolution of a cooperative that is passed by a simple majority at a general meeting of the cooperative or in a postal ballot of members.

Special resolutions

186.(1) A special resolution is a resolution of a cooperative that is passed—

- (a) by a two-thirds majority at a general meeting of members; or
- (b) by a two-thirds majority in a postal ballot (other than a special postal ballot) of members; or
- (c) by a three-quarters majority in a special postal ballot of members.

(2) A special resolution may be passed by a postal ballot only if the rules of the cooperative so permit or this Act requires the special resolution to be passed by postal ballot (including a special postal ballot).

(3) A resolution must not be considered to have been passed as a special resolution unless not less than 21 days notice has been given to the members of the cooperative stating—

- (a) the intention to propose the special resolution; and
- (b) the reasons for proposing the special resolution; and

(c) the effect of the special resolution being passed.

(4) A cooperative must give at least 28 days notice to the registrar of a proposed special resolution before giving notice to the members of the proposed special resolution.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(5) A failure to give notice to the registrar under subsection (4) does not affect the validity of the resolution.

How majority obtained is ascertained

187.(1) A resolution is passed by a particular majority at a meeting if that majority of the members of the cooperative who, being entitled to do so, vote in person or (if proxies are allowed) by proxy at the meeting vote in favour of the resolution.

(2) A resolution is passed by a particular majority in a postal ballot if that majority of the members of the cooperative who, being entitled to do so, cast formal votes in the postal ballot vote in favour of the resolution.

Disallowance by registrar

188. The registrar may disallow a proposed special resolution before it is passed by written notice to the cooperative if the registrar considers the effect of the special resolution, if passed, would be in contravention of this Act or any other law.

Declaration of passing of special resolution

189.(1) At a meeting of a cooperative for the purpose of passing a special resolution, a declaration by the chairperson of the meeting that the resolution has been passed as a special resolution is evidence of that fact.

(2) A declaration by the returning officer for a postal ballot to pass a special resolution that the resolution has been passed as a special resolution is evidence of that fact.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply if a poll is taken at the meeting of the cooperative.

Effect of special resolution

190.(1) A special resolution has effect from the date it is passed.

(2) However, a special resolution relating to anything for which a special resolution is required to be passed by special postal ballot has no effect until it is registered.

Registration of special resolution

191.(1) A cooperative must file 2 copies of each special resolution passed by the cooperative with the registrar under this section for registration.

(2) The copies must—

- (a) be filed within 28 days after the passing of a special resolution or the further period the registrar allows; and
- (b) be signed by a director and the secretary of the cooperative; and
- (c) be accompanied by the filing fee prescribed under a regulation.

(3) A cooperative or an officer of the cooperative must not knowingly fail to file the required copies under this section.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(4) This section and section 192 do not apply to a special resolution altering the rules of a cooperative.

Decision of registrar on application to register special resolution

192.(1) If the registrar is satisfied the cooperative has complied with this Act and the special resolution is not contrary to this Act, the registrar must register the special resolution.

(2) If the registrar considers the effect of a special resolution filed for registration would be in contravention of this Act or any other law, the registrar—

- (a) may refuse to register the special resolution; and
- (b) must give written notice to the cooperative that the special resolution—

- (i) for a special resolution mentioned in section 190(2)⁴⁷—has no effect; and
- (ii) in any other case—has no effect as from the date it was passed.

(3) A certificate of registration of a special resolution given by the registrar is, in favour of any person advancing money to the cooperative on the faith of the certificate or in favour of any guarantor of that advance, evidence that the resolution was properly passed.

Division 3—Postal ballots

Postal ballots

193.(1) A postal ballot may be held as provided by the rules of a cooperative and must be conducted in the way prescribed under a regulation.

(2) On the declaration by the returning officer of the result of the ballot, the secretary of the cooperative must make an entry in the minute book of the cooperative showing—

- (a) the number of formal votes cast in favour of the proposal concerned; and
- (b) the number of formal votes cast against the proposal; and
- (c) the number of informal votes cast.

Special postal ballots

194.(1) A special postal ballot is a postal ballot that is conducted as required by this section.

(2) The ballot must not be held less than 21 days after notice of the ballot is given to members so as to enable enough time for a meeting to discuss the proposal the subject of the ballot to be called and held (whether by the board or on the requisition of members).

⁴⁷ Section 190 (Effect of special resolution)

(3) The cooperative must send to each member (along with any other material required to be sent in relation to the postal ballot) a disclosure statement approved by the registrar and containing information about—

- (a) the financial position of the cooperative; and
- (b) the interests of the directors of the cooperative in the proposal with which the ballot is concerned, including any interests of the directors in another organisation concerned in the proposal; and
- (c) any compensation or consideration to be paid to officers or members of the cooperative in connection with the proposal; and
- (d) any other matters the registrar directs.

(4) If the registrar so requires, the statement is to be accompanied by a report made by an independent person approved by the registrar about any matters the registrar directs.

(5) Sections 17 (except subsection (2)) and 29⁴⁸ apply to the approval of a disclosure statement under this section with any necessary changes and in particular as if a reference in section 17 to a formation meeting were a reference to the notice of the special postal ballot.

When is a special postal ballot required

195. In addition to any requirement of this Act, the rules of a cooperative must require a special postal ballot to be conducted for passing a special resolution in relation to any of the following matters relating to a cooperative—

- (a) conversion of—
 - (i) a share capital cooperative to a non-share capital cooperative or vice versa; or
 - (ii) a trading cooperative to a non-trading cooperative or vice versa;

Holding of postal ballot on requisition

196.(1) The board of a cooperative must conduct a postal ballot (including a special postal ballot) for the passing of a special resolution on the written requisition of the number of members who together are able to cast at least 20% (or a lesser percentage specified in the rules of the cooperative) of the total number of votes able to be cast at a meeting of the cooperative.

(2) A member can not be a requisitioning member unless the member is an active member.

(3) The following provisions apply to a requisition for a postal ballot—

- (a) it must state—
 - (i) the proposed special resolution to be voted on; and

 - (iii) the effect of the special resolution being passed;
- (b) it must be signed by the requisitioning members (and may consist of several documents in like form each signed by 1 or more of the requisitioning members);
- (c) it must be served on the cooperative by being filed at the registered office of the cooperative.

(4) The postal ballot must be conducted as soon as practicable and in any case must be conducted within 2 months after the requisition is served.

⁴⁹ Section 268 (Acquisition and disposal of assets)

(5) If the special resolution for which the requisitioned postal ballot is conducted is not passed, the cooperative may recover the expenses of the postal ballot from the members who requisitioned the postal ballot as a debt payable to the cooperative.

Expenses involved in postal ballots on requisition

197.(1) All reasonable expenses incurred by a cooperative in preparing for and holding a special postal ballot are taken to form the expenses of the postal ballot for section 196.

(2) Those expenses include (but are not limited to) the following expenses—

- (a) the cost of obtaining expert advice (including legal and financial advice) and of commissioning expert reports;
- (b) costs attributable to the use of staff of the cooperative in preparing for and holding the ballot;

Quorum at meetings

201.(1) The quorum for a meeting of a cooperative must be stated in the rules.

(2) An item of business must not be transacted at a meeting of a cooperative unless a quorum of members entitled to vote is present during the transaction of that item.

Decision at meetings

202.(1) A question for decision at a general meeting must be decided by a majority of members present in person at the meeting and voting, but this is subject to any other provisions of this Act and to the rules of the cooperative.

(2) Unless a poll is demanded by at least 5 members, a question for decision at a general meeting must be decided by a show of hands.

(3) In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairperson of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded may exercise a second or casting vote if the rules so provide.

Calling of general meeting on requisition

203.(1) The board of a cooperative must call a general meeting of the cooperative on the written requisition of the number of members who together are able to cast at least 20% (or a lower percentage specified in the rules of the cooperative) of the total number of votes able to be cast at a meeting of the cooperative.

(2) A member can not be a requisitioning member unless the member is an active member.

(3) The following provisions apply to a requisition for a general meeting—

(4) The meeting must be called and held as soon as practicable and in any case must be held within 2 months after the requisition is served.

(5) If the board does not call the meeting within 21 days after the requisition is served, the following provisions apply—

- (a) the requisitioning members (or any of them representing at least half their total voting rights) may call the meeting in the same way as nearly as possible as meetings are called by the board;
- (b) for that purpose they may ask the cooperative to supply a written statement setting out the names and addresses of the persons entitled when the requisition was served to receive notice of general meetings of the cooperative;
- (c) the board must send the requested statement to the requisitioning members within 7 days after the request for the statement is made;

Division 1—The board

Board of directors

205.(1) Subject to this Act and the rules of the cooperative, the business of a cooperative is to be managed by a board of directors.

(2) The board of directors may exercise all the powers of the cooperative that are not, by this Act or the rules of the cooperative, required to be exercised by the cooperative in general meeting.

(3) The acts of a director are valid despite any defect that may afterwards be discovered in his or her appointment or qualification.

Election of directors

206.(1) Except as provided in subsections (2), (3) and (4), the directors of a cooperative are to be elected in the way specified in the rules of the cooperative.

(2) The first directors of—

- (a) a cooperative formed under this Act are to be elected at its formation meeting; or
- (b) a cooperative that was a corporation incorporated under another

Act are to be the directors in office at the date of registration under this Act.

(3) If authorised by the rules of the cooperative, a board of directors may appoint a person to fill a casual vacancy in the office of a director until the next annual general meeting.

(4) A motion approving or nominating for election 2 or more persons as directors by a single resolution must not be made at a meeting of a cooperative unless a resolution that it be made has first been agreed to by the meeting without any vote being given against it.

(5) If a resolution is passed following a motion in contravention of subsection (4)—

- (a) the resolution is void; and
- (b) there is no provision for the automatic re-election of retiring directors in default of another election.

(6) This section does not apply to a resolution altering the rules to prevent the election of 2 or more directors by ballot.

(7) A nomination for election or appointment to the office of a director must give details of the qualifications and experience of the person nominated.

(8) Unless this Act or the rules of a cooperative otherwise provides, a director is eligible for re-election at the end of his or her term of office.

 - (iv) of an offence under a provision of a previous law of Queensland or another State, with which any of the provisions mentioned in subparagraph (iii) corresponds;

(4) A person who intends to apply for leave of the Supreme Court must give the registrar at least 21 days notice of his or her intention.

(5) The Supreme Court may grant leave subject to any condition or limitation it considers appropriate.

(6) A person must comply with any condition or limitation subject to which leave is granted.

Maximum penalty—240 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment.

(7) On the application of the registrar, the Supreme Court may revoke its leave.

(8) Subject to this section, the Corporations Law, section 599 is adopted as far as is applicable to cooperatives and applies with any changes that are necessary and any other changes prescribed under a regulation.

Meeting of the board of directors

209.(1) Meetings of the board of directors must be held at least once every 3 months and may be held as often as may be necessary.

(2) A meeting of the board of directors may be called by a director giving notice individually to every other director.

(3) The board of directors may hold meetings, or allow directors to take part in its meetings by telephone, video link, or another form of communication that allows reasonably contemporaneous and continuous communication between the directors taking part in the meeting.

(4) A quorum of a meeting of the board of directors is 50% of the number of directors, or a greater number of directors specified in the rules.

(5) The chairperson of the board may be elected either by the board or at a general meeting of the cooperative, and is to be elected, hold office, and retire, and may be removed from office, as provided by the rules of the cooperative.

Transaction of business outside meetings

210.(1) The board of a cooperative may, if it considers appropriate, transact any of its business by the circulation of papers among all of the directors of the board.

(2) A resolution in writing approved in writing by a majority of the directors of the board is to be taken to be a decision of the board.

(3) Separate copies of a resolution may be distributed for signing by the directors if the wording of the resolution and approval is identical in each copy.

(4) For the approval of a resolution under this section, the chairperson of the board and each director of the board have the same voting rights as they have at an ordinary meeting of the board.

(5) The resolution is approved when the last director required for the majority signs.

(6) A resolution approved under this section must be recorded in the minutes of the meetings of the board.

(7) Papers may be circulated among directors of the board for this section by facsimile or other transmission of the information in the papers concerned.

Deputy directors

211.(1) In the absence of a director from a meeting of the board, a person appointed by the board under the rules of the cooperative concerned to act as a deputy for the director may act in the place of the director.

(2) The rules of the cooperative may include provisions regulating the term of office, vacation of or removal from office, and remuneration of a deputy.

Delegation by board

- (g) a trustee or other person administering a compromise or arrangement made between the cooperative and another person or other persons.

Officers must act honestly

215. An officer of a cooperative must at all times act honestly in the exercise of his or her powers and the discharge of the duties of his or her office, both in the State and elsewhere.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) for a contravention committed with intent to deceive or defraud the cooperative, members or creditors of the cooperative or creditors of another person or for another fraudulent purpose—240 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment; or

- (b) in another case—60 penalty units.

Standard of care and diligence required

216.(1) In the exercise of his or her powers and the discharge of his or her functions, an officer of a cooperative must exercise the degree of care and diligence a reasonable person in a like position in a cooperative would exercise in the cooperative's circumstances.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(2) An officer is not liable to be convicted for a contravention of this section if the cooperative has resolved by ordinary resolution to forgive the contravention.

Improper use of information or position

217.(1) An officer or employee or former officer or employee of a cooperative or a member of a committee mentioned in section 212(1)⁵² must not make improper use of information acquired because of his or her position as an officer or employee or member to gain, directly or indirectly, an advantage for himself or herself or for any other person or to cause detriment to the cooperative.

⁵² Section 212 (Delegation by board)

Recovery of damages by cooperative

218.(1) If a person contravenes a provision of this division in relation to a cooperative, the cooperative may, whether or not the person has been convicted of an offence for contravention, recover an amount from the person as a debt payable to the cooperative.

(2) The amount the cooperative may recover from the person is—

- (a) if the person or another person made a profit because of the contravention—an amount equal to the profit; and
- (b) if the cooperative has suffered loss or damage because of the contravention—an amount equal to the loss or damage.

Other duties and liabilities not affected

219. This division has effect in addition to, and does not limit, any rule of law relating to the duty or liability of a person because of the person's office or employment in relation to a cooperative and does not prevent the institution of any civil proceeding for a breach of a duty or for a liability of that type.

Indemnification of officers and auditors

220.(1) A provision, whether contained in the rules or in a contract with a cooperative or elsewhere, for exempting an officer or auditor of the cooperative from, or indemnifying the officer or auditor against, liability that by law would otherwise attach to the officer or auditor for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust of which the officer or auditor may be guilty in relation to the cooperative is void.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a contract of insurance.

(3) Despite subsection (1), a cooperative may, under its rules or otherwise, indemnify an officer or auditor against liability incurred by the officer or auditor in defending a proceeding, whether civil or criminal, in which judgment is given in the officer's or auditor's favour or in which the officer or auditor is acquitted or an application in relation to a proceeding of that type in which relief is under this section granted to the officer or auditor by the court.

(4) If in a proceeding for negligence, default or breach of duty against an officer or auditor of a cooperative it appears to the court that the person is or may be liable for the negligence, default or breach of duty but acted honestly and reasonably and that, having regard to all the circumstances of the case (including those connected with the person's appointment), the person ought fairly to be excused for the negligence, default or breach of duty, the court may relieve the person, either wholly or partly, from the person's liability on the terms the court considers appropriate.

(5) If an officer or auditor of a cooperative has reason to believe a claim will or might be made against him or her for negligence, default or breach of duty in relation to the cooperative, the person may apply to the Supreme Court for relief, and the court then has the same power to relieve the person as it would have under this section if it had been a court before which a proceeding against the officer or auditor for negligence, default or breach of duty had been brought.

(6) If any case to which subsection (4) applies is being tried by a judge with a jury, the judge, after hearing the evidence, may, if satisfied that the defendant should under that subsection be relieved either wholly or partly from the liability sought to be enforced against him or her, withdraw the case in whole or in part from the jury and direct judgment to be entered for the defendant on the terms as to costs or otherwise that the judge considers appropriate.

(7) In this section—

“officer” includes an employee of a cooperative and another person who may under the rules of the cooperative give directions in regard to the business of the cooperative.

Adoption of Corporations Law provisions about officers of cooperatives

221.(1) The provisions of the Corporations Law, sections 589 to 598 and 1307 are adopted by this section and apply to a cooperative in the same way as they apply to a company.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) apply whether the defective notice was filed during or after the period within which the notice was required to be filed.

(4) The giving by the registrar of a direction to the person under subsection (2) does not affect any liability that the cooperative may have incurred or may incur because of a contravention of division 2.

(3) If a charge created by a cooperative secures a debt of an unspecified amount or secures a debt of a specified amount and further advances, a payment or advance made by the chargee to the cooperative under the terms of the charge is not to be taken, for subsection (2), to be a variation in the terms of the charge having the effect of increasing the amount of the charge or the liabilities (whether present or prospective) secured by the charge.

(4) A reference in this section to the chargee in relation to a charge is, if the charge is constituted by a debenture and there is a trustee for debenture holders, to be construed as a reference to the trustee for debenture holders.

“unregistered charge” means a charge that is not registered under part 2, but does not include a charge that is not a registrable charge.

(2) A reference in this part to a person having notice of a charge includes a reference to a person having constructive notice of the charge.

(3) If, by virtue of the definition of “priority time” in subsection (1), a registered charge has 2 or more priority times each of which relates to a particular liability secured by the charge, each of the liabilities is, for this part, to be taken to be secured by a separate registered charge, the priority time of which is the priority time of the first-mentioned registered charge that relates to the liability concerned.

Priorities of charges

46.(1) Subject to this section, division 2¹⁵⁷ has effect on the priorities, in relation to each other, of registrable charges on the property of a cooperative.

(2) The application, in relation to particular registrable charges, of the order of priorities of charges set out in division 2, is subject to—

- (a) any consent (express or implied) that varies the priorities in relation to each other of the charges, being a consent given by the holder of 1 of the charges, being a charge that would otherwise be entitled to priority over the other charge; and
- (b) any agreement between the chargees that affects the priorities in relation to each other of the charges in relation to which those persons are the chargees.

(3) The holder of a registered charge, being a floating charge, on property of a cooperative is taken, for subsection (2), to have consented to the charge being postponed to a subsequent registered charge, being a fixed charge that is created before the floating charge becomes fixed, on any of the property unless—

¹⁵⁷ Schedule 3, division 2 (Priority rules)

- (a) the creation of the subsequent registered charge contravened a provision of the instrument or resolution creating or evidencing the floating charge; and
- (b) a notice of the floating charge indicating the existence of the provision mentioned in paragraph (a) was filed with the registrar under section 13, 17 or 36¹⁵⁸ before the creation of the subsequent registered charge.

(4) If a charge relates to property of a kind to which a particular paragraph of section 4(2)¹⁵⁹ applies and also relates to other property, division 2 applies so as to affect the priority of the charge only in so far as it relates to the first-mentioned property and do not affect the priority of the charge in so far as it relates to the other property.

*Division 2—Priority rulesGeneral priority rules in relation to registered charges

47.(1) A registered charge on property of a cooperative has priority over—

- (a) a subsequent registered charge on the property, unless the subsequent registered charge was created before the creation of the prior registered charge and the chargee in relation to the subsequent registered charge proves that the chargee in relation to the prior registered charge had notice of the subsequent registered charge at the time when the prior registered charge was created; and
- (b) an unregistered charge on the property created before the creation of the registered charge, unless the chargee in relation to the unregistered charge proves that the chargee in relation to the

¹⁵⁸ Schedule 3, section 13 (Filing of notice of charge and copy of instrument), 17 (Acquisition of property subject to charge) or 36 (Assignment and variation of charges)

¹⁵⁹ Schedule 3, section 4 (To which charges does schedule apply)

registered charge had notice of the unregistered charge at the time when the registered charge was created; and

- (c) an unregistered charge on the property created after the creation of the registered charge.

(2) A registered charge on property of a cooperative is postponed to—

- (a) a subsequent registered charge on the property, if the subsequent registered charge was created before the creation of the prior registered charge and the chargee in relation to the subsequent registered charge proves that the chargee in relation to the prior registered charge had notice of the subsequent registered charge at the time when the prior registered charge was created; and
- (b) an unregistered charge on the property created before the creation of the registered charge, if the chargee in relation to the unregistered charge proves that the chargee in relation to the registered charge had notice of the unregistered charge at the time when the registered charge was created.

General priority rule in relation to unregistered charges

48. An unregistered charge on property of a cooperative has priority over—

- (a) a registered charge on the property that was created after the creation of the unregistered charge and does not have priority over the unregistered charge under section 47(1); and
- (b) another unregistered charge on the property created after the first-mentioned unregistered charge.

Special priority rules

49.(1) Except as provided by this section, priority given by this part to a charge over another charge does not extend to a liability that, at the priority time in relation to the first-mentioned charge, is not a present liability.

(2) If a registered charge on property of a cooperative secures—

- (a) a present liability and a prospective liability of an unspecified amount; or
- (b) a prospective liability of an unspecified amount;

priority given by this part to the charge over another charge of which the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge does not have actual knowledge extends to the prospective liability, whether the prospective liability became a present liability before or after the registration of the first-mentioned charge.

(3) If a registered charge on property of a cooperative secures—

- (a) a present liability and a prospective liability up to a specified maximum amount; or
- (b) a prospective liability up to a specified maximum amount;

and the notice filed under section 13 or 17¹⁶⁰ in relation to the charge sets out the nature of the prospective liability and the amount so specified, then priority given by this part to the charge over another charge extends to prospective liability secured by the first-mentioned charge to the extent of the maximum amount so specified.

(4) Subsection (3) applies whether the prospective liability became a present liability before or after the registration of the first-mentioned charge and despite the fact that the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge had actual knowledge of the other charge at the time when the prospective liability became a present liability.

(5) Subsection (6) applies if—

- (a) a registered charge on property of a cooperative secures—
 - (i) a present liability and a prospective liability up to a specified maximum amount; or
 - (ii) a prospective liability up to a specified maximum amount;

but the notice filed under section 13 or 17 in relation to the charge does not set out the nature of the prospective liability or the ¹⁶⁰ Schedule 3, section 13 (Filing of notice of charge and copy of instrument) or 17 Acquisition of property subject to charge)

maximum amount so specified; or

- (b) a registered charge on property of a cooperative secures a prospective liability of an unspecified amount.

(6) In relation to a charge mentioned in subsection (5)—

- (a) priority given by this part to the charge over another charge of which the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge has actual knowledge extends to prospective liability secured by the first-mentioned charge that had become a present liability at the time when the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge first obtained actual knowledge of the other charge; and
- (b) priority given by this part to the charge over another charge of which the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge has actual knowledge extends to prospective liability secured by the first-mentioned charge that became a present liability, as the result of the making of an advance, after the time when the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge first obtained actual knowledge of the other charge if, at the time, the terms of the first-mentioned charge required the chargee in relation to the charge to make the advance after the time.

(7) Subsection (6)(b) extends to the prospective liability whether the advance was made before or after the registration of the first-mentioned charge and despite the fact that the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge had actual knowledge of the other charge at the time when the advance was made.

Application of schedule

2. Except in so far as the contrary intention appears, this schedule applies in relation to a receiver of property of a cooperative who is appointed after the commencement, even if the appointment arose out of a transaction entered into, or an act or thing done, before the commencement.

¹⁶¹ Part 14 (Foreign cooperatives)

Persons not to act as receivers

3.(1) A person is not qualified to be appointed, and must not act, as receiver of property of a cooperative if the person—

- (a) is a mortgagee of property of the cooperative; or
- (b) is an auditor or an officer of the cooperative; or
- (c) is an officer of a corporation that is a mortgagee of property of the cooperative; or
- (d) is not a registered liquidator under the Corporations Law; or
- (e) is an officer of a corporation related to the cooperative; or
- (f) has at any time within the last 12 months been an officer or promoter of the cooperative or of a related corporation, unless the registrar directs in writing that this paragraph does not apply in relation to the person in relation to the cooperative.

(2) In subsection (1)—

“officer”, of a corporation, does not include a receiver, appointed under an instrument whether before or after the commencement, of property of the body.

(3) Subsection (1)(d) does not apply in relation to a corporation authorised under a law of the Commonwealth or of a State to act as receiver of property of the cooperative.

(4) Nothing in this section prevents a person from acting as receiver of property of a cooperative under an appointment validly made before the commencement.

Supreme Court may declare whether controller is validly acting

4.(1) If there is doubt, on a specific ground, about—

- (a) whether a purported appointment of a person, after the commencement, as receiver of property of a cooperative is valid; or

- (b) whether a person who has entered into possession, or assumed control, of property of a cooperative after the commencement did so validly under the terms of a charge on the property;

the person, the cooperative or any of the cooperative's creditors may apply to the Supreme Court for an order under subsection (2).

(2) On an application, the Supreme Court may make an order declaring whether or not—

- (a) the purported appointment was valid; or
- (b) the person entered into possession, or assumed control, validly under the terms of the charge;

as the case may be, on the ground specified in the application or on some other ground.

Liability of controller

5.(1) A receiver, or another authorised person, who, whether as agent for the cooperative or not, enters into possession or assumes control of a property of a cooperative for the purpose of enforcing any charge is, despite an agreement to the contrary, but without prejudice to the person's rights against the cooperative or another person, liable for debts incurred by the person in the course of the receivership, possession or control for services rendered, goods purchased or property hired, leased, used or occupied.

(2) Subsection (1) does not constitute the person entitled to the charge a mortgagee in possession.

(3) If—

- (a) a person (the “controller”) enters into possession or assumes control of property of a cooperative; and
- (b) the controller purports to have been properly appointed as a receiver of the property under a power contained in an instrument, but has not been properly so appointed; and

- (c) civil proceedings in a federal court or a court of a State arise out of an act alleged to have been done by the controller;

the court may, if it is satisfied that the controller believed on reasonable grounds that the controller had been properly so appointed, order that—

- (d) the controller be relieved in whole or in part of a liability that the controller has incurred but would not have incurred if the controller had been properly so appointed; and
- (e) a person who purported to appoint the controller as receiver be liable for an act, matter or thing in so far as the controller has been relieved under paragraph (d) of liability for that act, matter or thing.

Liability of controller under pre-existing agreement about property used by cooperative

6.(1) This section applies if—

- (a) under an agreement made before the control day in relation to a controller of property of a cooperative, the cooperative continues after the control day to use or occupy, or to be in possession of, property (“third party property”) of which someone else is the owner or lessor; and
- (b) the controller is controller of the third party property.

(2) Subject to subsections (4) and (7), the controller is liable for so much of the rent or other amounts payable by the cooperative under the agreement as is attributable to a period—

- (a) that begins more than 7 days after the control day; and
- (b) throughout which—
- (i) the cooperative continues to use or occupy, or to be in possession of, the third party property; and
- (ii) the controller is controller of the third party property.

(3) Within 7 days after the control day, the controller may give to the owner or lessor a notice that specifies the third party property and states that the controller does not propose to exercise rights in relation to the property as controller of the property, whether on behalf of the cooperative or anyone else.

(4) Despite subsection (2), the controller is not liable for so much of the rent or other amounts payable by the cooperative under the agreement as is attributable to a period during which a notice under subsection (3) is in force, but the notice does not affect a liability of the cooperative.

(5) A notice under subsection (3) ceases to have effect if—

- (a) the controller revokes it by writing given to the owner or lessor; or
- (b) the controller exercises, or purports to exercise, a right in relation to the third party property as controller of the property, whether on behalf of the cooperative or anyone else.

(6) For subsection (5), the controller does not exercise, or purport to exercise, a right mentioned in subsection (5)(b) merely because the controller continues to be in possession, or to have control, of the third party property, unless the controller—

- (a) also uses the property; or
- (b) asserts a right, as against the owner or lessor, so to continue.

(7) Subsection (2) does not apply in so far as the Supreme Court, by order, excuses the controller from liability, but an order does not affect a liability of the cooperative.

(8) The controller is not taken because of subsection (2)—

- (a) to have adopted the agreement; or
- (b) to be liable under the agreement otherwise than as mentioned in subsection (2).

Powers of receiver

7.(1) Subject to this section, a receiver of property of a cooperative has power to do, in Australia and elsewhere, all things necessary or convenient to be done for or in relation to, or as incidental to, the attainment of the objectives for which the receiver was appointed.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), but subject to any provision of the court order by which, or the instrument under which, the receiver was appointed, being a provision that limits the receiver's powers in any way, a receiver of property of a cooperative has, in addition to any powers conferred by the order or instrument, as the case may be, or by another law, power, for the purpose of attaining the objectives for which the receiver was appointed—

- (a) to enter into possession and take control of property of the cooperative under the terms of the order or instrument; and
- (b) to lease, let on hire or dispose of property of the cooperative; and
- (c) to grant options over property of the cooperative on conditions that the receiver considers appropriate; and
- (d) to borrow money on the security of property of the cooperative; and
- (e) to insure property of the cooperative; and
- (f) to repair, renew or enlarge property of the cooperative; and
- (g) to convert property of the cooperative into money; and
- (h) to carry on a business of the cooperative; and
- (i) to take on lease or on hire, or to acquire, property necessary or convenient in connection with the carrying on of a business of the cooperative; and
- (j) to execute a document, bring or defend a proceeding or do any other act or thing in the name of and on behalf of the cooperative; and
- (k) to draw, accept, make and endorse a bill of exchange or promissory note; and
- (l) to use a seal of the cooperative; and
- (m) to engage or discharge employees on behalf of the cooperative; and
- (n) to appoint a solicitor, accountant or other professionally qualified person to assist the receiver; and

- (o) to appoint an agent to do any business that the receiver is unable to do, or that it is unreasonable to expect the receiver to do, in person; and
- (p) if a debt or liability is owed to the cooperative—to prove the debt or liability in a bankruptcy, insolvency or winding-up and, in that connection, to receive dividends and to assent to a proposal for a composition or a scheme of arrangement; and
- (q) if the receiver was appointed under an instrument that created a charge on uncalled capital or uncalled premiums of the cooperative—
 - (i) in the name of the cooperative, to make a call for money unpaid on shares in the cooperative (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium); or
 - (ii) on the giving of an adequate indemnity to a liquidator of the cooperative, in the name of the liquidator, to make a call for money unpaid on account of the nominal value of shares in the cooperative; and
- (r) to enforce payment of a call that is due and unpaid, whether the calls were made by the receiver or otherwise; and
- (s) to make or defend an application for the winding-up of the cooperative; and
- (t) to refer to arbitration a question affecting the cooperative.

(3) The conferring by this section on a receiver of powers in relation to property of a cooperative does not, in relation to the property, affect a right of another person other than the cooperative.

(4) In this section, a reference, in relation to a receiver, to property of a cooperative is, unless the contrary intention appears, a reference to the property of the cooperative in relation to which the receiver was appointed.

Controller's duty of care in exercising power of sale

8.(1) In exercising a power of sale in relation to property of a cooperative, a controller must take all reasonable care to sell the property for—

- (a) if, when it is sold, it has a market value—not less than the market value; or
- (b) otherwise—the best price that is reasonably obtainable, having regard to the circumstances existing when the property is sold.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) limits anything in part 9, division 2.¹⁶²

Supreme Court may authorise managing controller to dispose of property despite prior charge

9.(1) On the application of a managing controller of property of a cooperative, the Supreme Court may by order authorise the controller to sell, or to dispose of in some other specified way, specified property of the cooperative, even though it is subject to a charge (the “prior charge”) that has priority over a charge (the “controller's charge”) on the property that the controller is enforcing.

(2) The Supreme Court may make an order if satisfied that—

- (a) apart from the existence of the prior charge, the controller would have power to sell, or to dispose of, the property; and
- (b) the controller has taken all reasonable steps to obtain the consent of the holder of the prior charge to the sale or disposal, but has not obtained the consent; and
- (c) sale or disposal of the property under the order is in the best interests of the cooperative's creditors and of the cooperative; and
- (d) sale or disposal of the property under the order will not unreasonably prejudice the rights or interests of the holder of the prior charge.

¹⁶² Part 9, division 2 (Duties and liabilities of directors, officers and employees)

(3) The Supreme Court may have regard to the need to protect adequately the rights and interests of the holder of the prior charge.

(4) If the property would be sold or disposed of together with other property that is subject to the controller's charge, the Supreme Court may have regard to—

- (a) the amount, if any, by which it is reasonable to expect that the net proceeds of selling or disposing of the other property otherwise than together with the first-mentioned property would be less than so much of the net proceeds of selling or disposing of all the property together as would be attributable to the other property; and
- (b) the amount, if any, by which it is reasonable to expect that the net proceeds of selling or disposing of the first-mentioned property otherwise than together with the other property would be greater than so much of the net proceeds of selling or disposing of all the property together as would be attributable to the first-mentioned property.

(5) Nothing in subsection (3) or (4) limits the matters to which the Supreme Court may have regard for subsection (2).

(6) An order may be made subject to conditions, for example (but without limitation)—

- (a) a condition that—
 - (i) the net proceeds of the sale or disposal; and
 - (ii) the net proceeds of the sale or disposal of other property, if any, that may be specified in the condition and is subject to the controller's charge;or a specified part of the net proceeds, be applied in payment of specified amounts secured by the prior charge; or
- (b) a condition that the controller apply a specified amount in payment of specified amounts secured by the prior charge.

Receiver's power to carry on cooperative's business during winding-up

10.(1) A receiver of property of a cooperative that is being wound-up may—

- (a) with the written approval of the cooperative's liquidator or with the approval of the Supreme Court, carry on the cooperative's business either generally or as otherwise specified in the approval; and
- (b) do whatever is necessarily incidental to carrying on the business under paragraph (a).

(2) Subsection (1) does not—

- (a) affect a power that the receiver has otherwise than under subsection (1); or
- (b) empower the receiver to do an act that the receiver would not have power to do if the cooperative were not being wound-up.

(3) A receiver of property of a cooperative who carries on the cooperative's business under subsection (1) does so—

- (a) as agent for the cooperative; and
- (b) in his or her capacity as receiver of property of the cooperative.

(4) The consequences of subsection (3) include, but are not limited to, the following—

- (a) for section 5(1)—a debt that the receiver incurs in carrying on the business as mentioned in subsection (3) is incurred in the course of the receivership;
- (b) a debt or liability that the receiver incurs in so carrying on the business is not a cost, charge or expense of the winding-up.

Controller's duties in relation to financial institution accounts and accounting records

11.(1) A controller of property of a cooperative must—

- (a) open and maintain an account with a financial institution, bearing—
 - (i) the controller's own name; and
 - (ii) for a receiver of the property—the title 'receiver'; and
 - (iii) otherwise—the title 'controller'; and
 - (iv) the cooperative's name; and
- (b) within 3 business days after money of the cooperative comes under the control of the controller, pay the money into an account maintained under subsection (1); and
- (c) ensure that no account that the controller maintains under subsection (1) contains money other than money of the cooperative that comes under the control of the controller; and
- (d) keep the accounting records that correctly record and explain all transactions the controller enters into as the controller.

(2) A director, creditor or member of a cooperative may, unless the Supreme Court otherwise orders, personally or by an agent, inspect records kept by a controller of property of the cooperative for subsection (1)(d).

Managing controller to report within 2 months about cooperative's affairs

12.(1) A managing controller of property of a cooperative must prepare a report about the cooperative's affairs in the approved form and made up to a day not later than 28 days before the day when it is prepared.

(2) The managing controller must prepare the report and file it with the registrar within 2 months after the control day.

(3) As soon as practicable, and in any event within 14 days, after filing the report with the registrar, the managing controller must cause to be published in a national newspaper, or in each State in a daily newspaper that circulates generally in that State, a notice stating—

- (a) that the report has been prepared; and
- (b) that a person can, on paying the fee prescribed under a regulation,

inspect the report at specified offices of the registrar.

(4) If, in the managing controller's opinion, it would seriously prejudice—

- (a) the cooperative's interests; or
- (b) the achievement of the objectives for which the controller was appointed, or entered into possession or assumed control of property of the cooperative, as the case requires;

if particular information that the controller would otherwise include in the report were made available to the public, the controller need not include the information in the report.

(5) If the managing controller omits information from the report as permitted by subsection (4), the controller must include instead a notice—

- (a) stating that certain information has been omitted from the report; and
- (b) summarising what the information is about, but without disclosing the information itself.

Reports by receiver

13.(1) If it appears to the receiver of property of a cooperative that—

- (a) a past or present officer, or a member, of the cooperative may have been guilty of an offence under a law of the Commonwealth or of a State in relation to the cooperative; or
- (b) a person who has taken part in the formation, promotion, administration, management or winding-up of the cooperative—

 - (ii) may have been guilty of negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the cooperative;

the receiver must—

- (c) file with the registrar as soon as practicable a report about the matter; and
- (d) give to the registrar the information, and the access to and facilities for inspecting and taking copies of any documents, the registrar requires.

(2) The receiver may also file further reports specifying any other matter that, in the receiver's opinion, it is desirable to bring to the notice of the registrar.

(3) If it appears to the Supreme Court—

- (b) that a person who has taken part in the formation, promotion, administration, management or winding-up of a cooperative in relation to property of which a receiver has been appointed has engaged in conduct mentioned in subsection (1)(b) in relation to the cooperative; and that the receiver has not filed a report with the registrar about the matter, the court may, on the application of a person interested in the appointment of the receiver or of its initiative, direct the receiver to file the report.

Supervision of controller

14.(1) If—

- (a) it appears to the Supreme Court or to the registrar that a controller of property of a cooperative has not faithfully performed, or is not faithfully performing, the controller's functions or has not observed, or is not observing, a requirement of—
 - (i) for a receiver—the order by which, or the instrument under which, the receiver was appointed; or
 - (ii) otherwise—an instrument under which the controller entered into possession, or took control, of the property; or

- (iii) in any case—the Supreme Court; or
- (iv) in any case—this Act or rules of court; or
- (b) a person complains to the Supreme Court or to the registrar about an act or omission of a controller of property of a cooperative in connection with performing or exercising any of the controller's functions and powers—

the Supreme Court or the registrar, as the case may be, may inquire into the matter and, if the Supreme Court or registrar so inquires, the Supreme Court may take the action as it thinks appropriate.

(2) The registrar may report to the Supreme Court any matter that in the registrar's opinion is a misfeasance, neglect or omission on the part of a controller of property of a cooperative and the Court may—

- (a) order the controller to make good any loss the estate of the cooperative has sustained because of the misfeasance, neglect or omission; and
- (b) make another order or orders that it thinks appropriate.

(3) The Supreme Court may at any time—

- (a) require a controller of property of a cooperative to answer questions about the performance or exercise of any of the controller's functions and powers as controller; or

(2) For a receiver of property of a cooperative, subsection (1) applies only if the receiver was appointed under a power contained in an instrument.

Power of Supreme Court to fix receiver's remuneration

16.(1) The Supreme Court may by order fix the amount to be paid by way of remuneration to a person who, under a power contained in an instrument, has been appointed as receiver of property of a cooperative.

(2) The power of the Supreme Court to make an order under this section—

- (a) extends to fixing the remuneration for a period before the making of the order or the application for the order; and
- (b) is exercisable even if the receiver has died, or ceased to act, before the making of the order or the application for the order; and
- (c) if the receiver has been paid or has retained for the receiver's remuneration for a period before the making of the order an amount in excess of that fixed for the period—extends to requiring the receiver or the receiver's personal representatives to account for the excess or the part of the excess that is specified in the order.

(3) The power conferred by subsection (2)(c) must not be exercised in relation to a period before the making of the application for the order unless, in the opinion of the Supreme Court, there are special circumstances making it proper for the power to be so exercised.

(4) The Supreme Court may from time to time vary or amend an order under this section.

(5) An order under this section may be made, varied or amended on the application of—

- (a) a liquidator of the cooperative; or
- (b) an administrator of the cooperative; or
- (c) an administrator of a deed of arrangement executed by the cooperative; or

(d) the registrar.

(6) An order under this section may be varied or amended on the application of the receiver.

(7) An order under this section may be made, varied or amended only as provided in subsections (5) and (6).

Controller has qualified privilege in certain cases

17. A controller of property of a cooperative has qualified privilege in relation to—

- (a) a matter contained in a report that the controller files under section 12 or 13;¹⁶³ or
