(6) Despite any proceedings against any person for an offence against this section (whether resulting in a conviction or otherwise) such person shall remain liable in all civil proceedings in like manner as if the proceedings for an offence had not been taken.

- (d) if any such representation, promise, or term has been so made or offered, in addition to stating clearly that fact, state clearly the particulars of that representation, promise or term; and
- (e) state the date on which the statement is given; and
- (f) be signed by the auctioneer or real estate agent or by a person authorised in writing (prior notice of which, accompanied by a copy of the authority, has been delivered to the registrar) by the auctioneer or real estate agent; and shall not contain any other written, typewritten, or printed matter except the letterhead (if any) of the auctioneer or real estate agent.

(3) A statement in writing under this section shall be given by the auctioneer or real estate agent to the purchaser before the purchaser signs any contract, agreement, or document legally binding or intended to bind the purchaser legally in respect of the sale.

(4) If, in respect of the sale of any land, whether improved or unimproved—

- (a) by an auctioneer by auction; or
- (b) by a real estate agent whether as such or as a principal;

finance for defraying in whole or in part the purchase price, or any amount or instalment of that finance, is not made available to the purchaser in compliance in every respect with any representation, promise, or term made or offered to the purchaser by, or by an employee of, that auctioneer or real estate agent, then, if the purchaser has been materially affected, the purchaser may at the purchaser's option avoid the contract made by the purchaser in respect of the sale by notice in writing given either to the seller or to the auctioneer or real estate agent concerned at any time before the time at which the purchaser is required by the contract to pay all of the outstanding purchase price or immediately after that time.

(5) Upon the avoidance (whether by the purchaser under this section or by the seller for that the purchaser has failed to pay in terms of the contract the purchase price or any amount of the purchase price) of a contract to which subsection (4) applies, the seller and the auctioneer or real estate agent concerned shall be liable at law, jointly and severally, for the repayment to the purchaser of all money paid by the purchaser under the contract and such money shall be recoverable, by action as for a debt, by the purchaser accordingly.

(6) Judgment recovered against either person liable under subsection (5) in respect of money repayable under that subsection shall not be a bar to an action against the other person so liable, but if separate actions are brought against those persons the sums recoverable under the judgments given in those actions shall not in the aggregate exceed the amount of money repayable to the purchaser concerned and in the one of those actions in which judgment is secondly given the plaintiff shall not be entitled to costs unless the court is of opinion that there was reasonable ground for bringing the action.

(7) Where a representation, promise, or term to which this section applies shall have been given, made or offered without the knowledge, connivance, or consent of the seller, the seller may recover from the auctioneer or real estate agent concerned any money paid under the contract and not received by the seller which the seller has repaid to the purchaser, and additionally any damage suffered by the seller consequent on the avoidance by the purchaser of the contract.

(8) Any covenant, agreement, or condition expressed or implied in any contract, agreement, or document legally binding, or intended legally to bind, the purchaser in respect of the sale to the purchaser of any land, or in a separate document, under which it is agreed between the seller or the auctioneer or real estate agent concerned of the one part and the purchaser of the other part that any representation, promise, or term made or offered to the purchaser for which the seller or the auctioneer or real estate agent is legally liable under this section, shall not be legally binding as against that seller and auctioneer or real estate agent, or either of them, shall be absolutely void and of no legal effect.

(9) An auctioneer or a real estate agent who—

- (a) being required by subsection (1) fails to give to a purchaser of land a statement in writing in compliance in every respect with the requirements of subsections (2) and (3); or

shall be guilty of an offence against this Act

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units or 12 months imprisonment.

(10) Liability to punishment under this section shall be in addition to other liabilities at law imposed by this section, and the fact that an auctioneer or a real estate agent has not been prosecuted or, if prosecuted, has or has not been convicted for an offence against this section shall not bar or prejudice any proceedings for enforcing against the auctioneer or real estate agent any such other liability.

(11) Subject to subsection (4), this section applies so as not to render illegal or void any contract or to empower any party to void the contract.

(12) In any civil proceedings arising out of or connected with a contract or agreement or document to which this section relates the onus of proving that the statement referred to in subsection (2) was duly given shall lie upon the party so alleging.

(13) In this section—

- (a) a promise that a seller of land will transfer the land to the purchaser conditionally upon the purchaser at the same time executing a proper mortgage in favour of the seller to receive payment of all or any part of the money payable or that would afterwards but for the execution of the mortgage become payable by the purchase under the contract of sale; or

- (b) a promise that the terms of the sale will be or will include a provision that the purchase price or any part shall be or may be paid by instalments;

shall not be taken to be a representation, promise or term as respects the availability of finance for defraying wholly or in part the purchase price.

(4) If in respect of the sale of any land to which this section applies—

- (a) by an auctioneer by auction; or
- (b) by a real estate agent whether as such or as a principal;

a statement in writing shall not have been given to the purchaser in compliance in every respect with the requirements of this section, then the purchaser may at the purchaser's option void the contract entered into by the purchaser in respect of that sale by notice in writing given either to the seller or to the auctioneer or real estate agent concerned within 6 months after the purchaser shall have entered into the contract but a contract shall not be subject to avoidance under this subsection because of any defect, error, or irregularity in the statement in writing given to the purchaser under this section that is a defect, error, or irregularity in form and not in substance and that is not likely to mislead or otherwise prejudicially affect the purchaser.

(5) Upon the avoidance not later than 6 months after the purchaser shall have entered into the contract (whether by the purchaser under this section or by the seller for that the purchaser has failed to pay in terms of the contract the purchase price or any amount) of a contract to which subsection (4) applies, the seller and the auctioneer or real estate agent concerned shall be liable at law, jointly and severally, for the repayment to the purchaser of all money paid by the purchaser under the contract and such money shall be recoverable, by action as for a debt, by the purchaser accordingly.

(6) Judgment recovered against either person liable under subsection (5) in respect of money repayable under that subsection shall not be a bar to an action against the other person so liable, but if separate actions are brought against those persons the sums recoverable under the judgments given in those actions shall not in the aggregate exceed the amount of money repayable to the purchaser concerned, and in the one of those actions in which judgment is secondly given, the plaintiff shall not be entitled to costs unless the court is of opinion that there was reasonable ground for bringing the action.

(7) Where under this section a purchaser voids a contract entered into by the purchaser for the purchase of land to which this section applies after the assurance to the purchaser of title to the estate in that land purchased by the purchaser, then that purchaser shall, subject to the tender to the purchaser of repayment in full as prescribed by subsection (5), execute such instruments as, being necessary to reassure that title to the seller or the seller's nominee, are presented to the purchaser for execution by or on behalf of the seller and deliver up to the seller or the seller's nominee any relevant instrument of title in the purchaser's possession or under the purchaser's control, but the purchaser shall not be liable for any costs or expenses in respect of such reassurance of title.

(8) Any covenant, agreement, or condition expressed or implied in any contract, agreement, or document legally binding, or intended legally to bind, the purchaser in respect of the sale to that purchaser of any land to which this section applies, or in a separate document, under which it is agreed between the seller or the auctioneer or real estate agent concerned of the one part and the purchaser of the other part that this section shall not apply in respect of that sale, or shall so apply subject to exceptions, limitations, or restrictions, or otherwise affecting or prejudicing the rights and remedies had by the purchaser under this section, shall be absolutely void and of no legal effect.

(9) An auctioneer or a real estate agent who—

- (a) being required by subsection (1) fails to give to a purchaser of land to which this section applies a statement in compliance in every respect with the requirements of subsections (2) and (3); or
- (b) being liable at law under this section for repayment to a purchaser of land to which this section applies of any money paid by that purchaser under the contract entered into by the purchaser, fails to make such repayment in full within 14 days after becoming so liable;

shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units or 12 months imprisonment.

(10) Liability to punishment under this section shall be additional to other liabilities at law imposed by this section, and the fact that an auctioneer or real estate agent has not been prosecuted or, if prosecuted, has or has not been convicted for an offence against this section shall not bar or prejudice any proceedings for enforcing against the auctioneer or real estate agent any such liability.

(11) In any civil proceedings arising out of or connected with a contract or agreement or document to which this section relates, the onus of proving that the statement referred to in subsection (2) was duly given shall lie upon the party so alleging.

(12) In this section—

“vacant land” means land on which there are no structural improvements other than fencing.

When the Minister may cancel licences

75.(1) The registrar may by notice in writing call upon any auctioneer or real estate agent to attend before the committee at the place, upon the day, and at the time specified in the notice, and there and then to satisfy the committee in respect of any of the following matters—

- (a) that, in respect of a sale of land effected by that auctioneer by auction, or by that real estate agent, whether as such or as a principal, neither the auctioneer or real estate agent nor any employee has made or offered to the purchaser any representation, promise, or term as respects the availability of finance for defraying wholly or in part the purchase price which has not been fulfilled according in every respect as so made or offered or, alternatively, where the making or offering of such a representation, promise, or term which has not been fulfilled is admitted, that the same was made or offered bona fide and the fulfilment of which in every respect as made or offered was prevented by circumstances arising after it was made or offered, being circumstances of which the auctioneer or real estate agent

neither had knowledge nor could, by the exercise of due care and diligence, have acquired knowledge before effecting the sale in question;

- (b) that in respect of a sale or purchase of a proposed allotment (within the meaning of the Land Sales Act 1984) effected by that auctioneer or real estate agent, whether as such or as a principal, the auctioneer or real estate agent has complied with part 2 of that Act binding upon the auctioneer or real estate agent;
- (c) that in respect of a sale or purchase of a proposed lot (within the meaning of the Land Sales Act 1984) effected by that auctioneer or real estate agent, whether as such or as a principal, the auctioneer or real estate agent has complied with part 3 of that Act binding upon the auctioneer or real estate agent;
- (d) that, in respect of a sale of land (being land to which section 74 applies) effected by that auctioneer by auction, or by that real estate agent, whether as such or as a principal, prior to the entry by the purchaser into any contract or agreement in respect of the sale, the auctioneer or real estate agent informed the purchaser of the provisions of section 74, and in particular of the rights of the purchaser under that section, and further that such auctioneer or real estate agent has complied in every respect with the provisions binding upon the person of that section.

(2) The registrar shall not be required or compellable to give to an auctioneer or a real estate agent particulars of a matter specified in subsection (1) in respect of which the registrar requires that auctioneer or real estate agent to satisfy the committee as provided in that subsection.

(3) If any auctioneer or real estate agent required by the registrar under this section—

- (a) fails to attend before the committee at the place, upon the day, and at the time specified by the registrar; or
- (b) upon attending before the committee fails, in respect of the matter of the person's attendance before the committee, to satisfy the committee in every respect as provided by subsection (1);

the committee shall certify accordingly to the Minister who may, in the Minister's absolute discretion and without assigning any reason except the certificate of the committee, cancel the licence or licences under this Act of that auctioneer or real estate agent.

(4) The committee may adjourn any attendance upon it required by the registrar under this section.

(5) This section shall apply so as not to derogate from any other provision of this Act relating to the cancellation of licences.

(6) This section shall be read and construed as if a reference to an auctioneer or a real estate agent includes a reference to a corporation that is the holder of a corporation licence.

Restriction on remedy for commission

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units or 12 months imprisonment.

Minimum penalty—10 penalty units.

(2) Upon conviction for an offence against this section, the adjudicating court shall order the auctioneer, real estate agent, commercial agent, or motor dealer concerned to refund any excess or improper fees, charges, commission, reward, or remuneration received or retained by the convicted person.

(3) Where any amount is alleged to be payable to an auctioneer, a real estate agent, a commercial agent, or a motor dealer for recouping expenditure lawfully incurred by the person in connection with a service or transaction, then, in proceedings against the person under this section for that the person demanded, received, or retained from money received by the person that amount contrary to this section, the court shall presume that the expenditure in question was not lawfully incurred by the person unless the person proves that it was lawfully incurred and the amount that was lawfully incurred.

- (b) the person is the licensee with whom the property has been listed; and
- (c) it is a condition of the person acting as agent in respect of the listing that the person is only entitled to commission payable under this Act for so acting.

Prohibition of contracting out

80. Where the fees, charges, commission, reward, or other remuneration which an auctioneer, a real estate agent, a commercial agent, or a motor dealer shall be entitled to receive for or in respect of any service or transaction are prescribed, any covenant, agreement, or condition under which any person agrees to pay or allow to an auctioneer, a real estate agent, a commercial agent, or a motor dealer any amount by way of fees, charges, commission, reward, or other remuneration which is in excess of or not included in the fees, charges, commission, reward, or other remuneration, as the case may be, so prescribed, or under which any person agrees to waive or surrender any right or remedy which the person may have in respect of any such excess or improper fees, charges, commission, reward, or other remuneration received or retained by an auctioneer, a real estate agent, a commercial agent, or a motor dealer or, in any event, any covenant, agreement, or condition under which any person agrees to waive or surrender any right or remedy which the person may have against an auctioneer, a real estate agent, a commercial agent, or a motor dealer under this Act shall be absolutely void and of no effect.

Failure to comply with court order

81.(1) Any auctioneer, real estate agent, commercial agent, or motor dealer who has been ordered by any court to pay to any person any money received by the first person in respect of a sale or other transaction shall, if the first person fails to pay to the person concerned the money so ordered to be paid within the time specified in the order or, if no time is so specified, then within 14 days after the making of the order, be guilty of an offence against this Act.

(2) A conviction for an offence against this section shall not prejudice or affect any right or remedy which any person may have against the offending auctioneer, real estate agent, commercial agent, or motor dealer under any such order as is referred to in subsection (1).

Appointment of substitute licensee

82.(1) Subject to this section—

- (a) an auctioneer, a real estate agent, a commercial agent, or a motor dealer may, at any time during the currency of the person's licence, appoint in writing as the person's substitute a person approved under this section; and
- (b) whenever an auctioneer, a real estate agent, a commercial agent, or a motor dealer, employed as such by another person, dies or becomes unable, owing to serious illness or other exceptional cause, to carry on duties as an auctioneer, a real estate agent, a commercial agent, or a motor dealer, as the case may be, for and on behalf of the employer, the employer may at any time during the currency of the employee's licence, appoint in writing as substitute for that employee a person approved under this section; and
- (c) when an auctioneer, a real estate agent, a commercial agent, or a

Auctioneers and Agents Act 1971

- (i) the person's executor or executors; or
- (ii) where administration of the person's estate has been granted, the person's administrator or administrators; or

- (iv) in case of bankruptcy—the trustee of the person's estate or the official trustee in bankruptcy;

may at any time during the currency of the licence or during the period that, except for the death of the licensee, the licence would have remained current, appoint in writing as substitute for that deceased or bankrupt auctioneer, real estate agent, commercial agent or motor dealer, a person approved under this section.

(2) An appointment of a substitute under subsection (1) shall be lodged with the registrar for approval and the registrar may, if satisfied that the proposed substitute is fully qualified to hold the licence in question and, in the case of an appointment under either paragraph (b) or (c) of that subsection, that the circumstances justify the appointment, approve of the appointment of the substitute for such period as the registrar may determine but not extending beyond the date when the licence in question would ordinarily expire.

(3) Where the registrar is not satisfied as to the matters referred to in subsection (2), the registrar may and, if so requested in writing by the person who appointed the substitute, shall, refer the appointment to the committee which may, in its absolute discretion, approve or refuse to approve the appointment.

(4) Where the appointment of a substitute is approved under this section then, subject to subsection (6) and subject to the licence remaining in force during the period so approved, the substitute shall, for all the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the holder of the licence and may act as substitute for the auctioneer, real estate agent, commercial agent, or motor dealer in whose place the substitute has been appointed.

(5) An approval of a substitute under this section may be given subject to such conditions as the registrar or, as the case may be, the committee, deems fit and as are specified in the notification of approval.

(6) An auctioneer, a real estate agent, a commercial agent, or a motor dealer, in whose place a substitute has been appointed under this section, shall not act as an auctioneer, real estate agent, commercial agent, or motor dealer, as the case may be, until the expiration of the period during which the substitute has been appointed to act as such, unless—

- (a) the registrar or, where the approval was given by the committee, the committee, sooner revokes the approval of the substitute; or
- (b) the person who made the appointment has delivered to the registrar a notice in writing that the person desires the appointment terminated as from a date to be specified in the notice;

and upon the happening of either such event the substitute shall cease to act as the auctioneer, real estate agent, commercial agent, or motor dealer, as the case may be, and shall cease to be deemed to be the holder of the licence in question.

(7) The registrar or, where the approval was given by the committee, the committee may at any time revoke the approval of a substitute upon any 1 or more of the grounds upon which a licence may be cancelled under this Act, but this subsection shall not in any way prejudice or affect any power under this Act to cancel the licence.

(8) In any case where the committee deems it desirable and appropriate, it may extend the period for which an appointment of a substitute has been approved under this section and for that purpose, if necessary, may grant a renewal of the licence as though it were still held by the person in whose place the substitute has been appointed.

Death of licensee

83.(1) Where an auctioneer, a real estate agent, a commercial agent, or a motor dealer dies, then—

- (a) the deceased person's executor or executors; or

- (c) in case of intestacy and pending a grant of administration of the deceased person's estate—any person satisfying the registrar that the last person has a sufficient beneficial interest in the estate;

may, instead of appointing a substitute under section 82, and subject to any express testamentary disposition or direction of the licensee to the contrary, surrender the licence by notice in writing to the registrar.

(2) Where the registrar is satisfied that a licence has been properly surrendered under subsection (1), the registrar shall register the surrender and on the registration the licence shall be terminated as from the date of death of the licensee and the executor, administrator, or other person, as the case may be, shall be entitled, if any fees for the licence have been paid by the deceased licensee out of the deceased licensee's own money, to receive a refund of a part of such fees proportionate to the unexpired portion of the period.

 - (v) a separate trust account, opened and maintained with a financial institution solely for the purpose of complying with the direction to invest the money.

(2) Money paid to any trust account under subsection (1) shall be retained in the trust account until disbursed under this Act.

(3) An auctioneer, a real estate agent, a commercial agent, or a motor dealer shall be entitled to draw against a trust account kept under this section in payment of—

- (a) the expenses, commission, and other charges of or incidental to such sale or other transaction; and
- (b) any money owing to the auctioneer, real estate agent, commercial agent, or motor dealer by the person on whose behalf the first person has acted in such sale or other transaction.

(4) However, no amount shall be drawn in respect of commission until payment of the balance of the money (if any) in the trust account has been made under subsection (7) or (8)(a).

(5) A licensee must not pay into a trust account mentioned in subsection (1) any money other than money that is required under that subsection to be paid into that trust account.

(6) Nothing in this section is to be construed to require a licensee, who is the holder of more than 1 licence under this Act, to operate and maintain a general trust account in respect of each licence held by the licensee.

(7) An auctioneer, a real estate agent, a commercial agent, or a motor dealer shall, within 14 days of demand in writing made by the person entitled and, in any event, within 42 days of receipt of money to which a person has become entitled in respect of any sale or other transaction, pay the balance of such money (if any) to the person entitled or as that person may direct in writing.

(8) Where, prior to the making of a payment under subsection (7), an auctioneer, a real estate agent, a commercial agent, or a motor dealer, has received notice in writing from any person who was a party to the sale or other transaction in respect of which the money was received that the ownership of the money is in dispute, the first person shall not make any payment of any such money until such time as—

- (a) all parties to the sale or transaction notify the person in writing that the dispute has been resolved and inform the person as to the person to whom the money is to be paid, and the first person shall immediately pay the money to that person or as that person may direct in writing; or
- (b) the first person is advised that legal proceedings have been commenced to determine the ownership of the money, and the first person shall immediately pay the money into the court in which those proceedings have been taken, to abide the decision of the court.

(9) If notice under subsection (8)(a) or advice under subsection (8)(b) is not received by the auctioneer, real estate agent, commercial agent or motor dealer within a period of 30 days after receiving notice of the dispute, the person shall, within 7 days after the expiration of that period, forward to all parties to the sale or other transaction a notice advising that—

receives notice under subsection (8)(a) or advice under subsection (8)(b); or

- (b) the person is unable to determine who is entitled to the money and is retaining it in the trust account until the person receives notice under subsection (8)(a) or advice under subsection (8)(b).

(10) An auctioneer, a real estate agent, a commercial agent, or a motor dealer shall not draw against or cause any payment to be made from a trust account opened by the person under this section unless drawing or payment is made by or on the person's cheque, crossed and marked across its face 'not negotiable' and, where the cheque is in respect of a payment referred to in subsection (7) or (8), requiring payment to be made to or to the order of the person referred to in subsection (7) or (8), as the case requires, or as such person may direct in writing.

(11) However, a licensee who withdraws any money from a separate trust account operated for the purpose of complying with a direction to invest the money, as mentioned in subsection (1), shall do so by giving the financial institution written authorisation in respect of each such withdrawal.

(12) Where a payment referred to in subsection (7) does not exceed $10 and an auctioneer—

- (a) has made that payment from the auctioneer's own money; and
- (b) has received an acknowledgement of that payment in writing and signed by the person to whom the sum not exceeding $10 is payable under or in pursuance of subsection (7);

then, and only then, the auctioneer may recoup that payment by drawing on the auctioneer's cheque against the appropriate trust account.

(13) An auctioneer, a real estate agent, a commercial agent, or a motor dealer, shall, before opening any general trust account or special trust account under this section, notify the registrar in writing of the person's intention so to do, specifying the financial institution and the office or branch of the financial institution in which the person proposes to open the account, and the description of the account, and shall produce to the manager or governing officer of the office or branch of the financial institution concerned evidence that the person has complied with the requirements of this subsection.

(14) An auctioneer, a real estate agent, a commercial agent, or a motor dealer shall, upon opening any general trust account or special trust account under this section, immediately notify the registrar in writing of the opening of the account and shall notify the registrar immediately upon any change of name of such account or upon closing such account.

(16) Despite anything to the contrary in this Act, the provisions of this Act relating to money received by a motor dealer in respect of transactions entered into by the motor dealer as such, the keeping and audit of accounts in relation to, and the dealing with that money does not apply to money received in respect of such transactions entered into solely on the motor dealer's own behalf and not as an agent for another person.

(2) Where property is delivered to the committee under subsection (1), the committee shall deal with the property in such manner as it sees fit and, where the property is sold, the proceeds of the sale shall, for the purposes of subsection (3), be deemed to be money paid by the receiver to the committee under subsection (3).

(3) All money paid by the receiver to the committee under subsection (1) shall be paid to the fund to be applied first in the reimbursement to it of any claims paid out of the fund in respect of the licensee or the partnership of licensees of which the licensee is or was a partner, secondly in the satisfaction of or partial satisfaction of claims against the licensee or partnership of licensees of which the licensee is or was a partner to the extent to which they or any of them have not otherwise been fully satisfied, and thirdly in payment of the expenses of the receivership, as defined in section 142.

Remuneration of receiver and expenses of receivership

142.(1) All money payable to the receiver as remuneration for the receiver's services, all costs of legal proceedings and other expenses incurred by the receiver in the course of the receivership, and any reimbursement made under section 143 (the "expenses of the receivership") shall, to the extent that they have not otherwise been paid to the receiver under this Act, be paid to the receiver by the committee out of the fund.

(2) Any amount paid out of the fund for the expenses of the receivership shall be recoverable by the committee from the licensee as a debt owing by the licensee to the committee in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) In default of agreement between the committee and the receiver as to the amount to be paid to the receiver as the receiver's remuneration the Minister may, on application by the committee or the receiver, determine the amount to be so paid.

Claim or charge against receiver may be paid from the fund

143. If any claim or charge is made by any person against the receiver for any act or omission by the receiver or the receiver's servants or agents done or made by the receiver or the receiver's servants or agents in good faith and in the execution or purported execution of the powers conferred or duties imposed on the receiver by or under this division, the committee may reimburse the receiver out of the fund for all or any costs, charges, expenses, or damages which the receiver may have incurred in relation to the claim or charge.

144. The Minister, on application by the licensee or by any partnership of licensees of which the licensee is or was a partner, may reopen any agreement between the committee and the receiver as to the amount to be paid to the receiver as the receiver's remuneration, and may determine the amount to be so paid.

Court may review receiver's expenses

145.(1) Where proceedings are taken by the committee under section 142(2) for the recovery of any amount paid out of the fund for the expenses of the receivership and there is evidence that satisfies the court that the amounts charged for those expenses are excessive, the court may take an account between the committee and the receiver and relieve the licensee from payment of any sum in excess of the sum adjudged by the court to be fairly payable in respect of those expenses and, if any excess has been paid or allowed in account by the committee, the court may order the receiver to repay it.

(2) The court shall have, and may, on the application of the licensee or of any partnership of licensees of which the licensee is or was a partner, exercise the like power as may be exercised under subsection (1) where proceedings are taken for the recovery of any amount paid out of the fund for the expenses of the receivership under section 142, and any court that could have entertained an action under section 142(2) shall have power to entertain any application under this subsection, even though the expenses of the receivership have not been paid to the receiver.

(3) No proceedings to obtain any relief under this section shall be taken after 3 months from the time when the expenses of the receivership have been paid, but the legal personal representative of a deceased licensee may take any such proceedings at any time within 6 months after that time.

Receiver not deemed to be personal representative

146. Where a licensee dies, a receiver in the execution of the receiver's functions under this division shall not be taken to be a personal representative of the licensee.
