(3C) Except with the prior consent in writing of the Minister, the commission shall not sell at a purchasing price less than the capital cost to it of the house and other improvements (if any) upon the land appurtenant to the house, and of that land if it is sold together with the house reduced by such amount as the commission deems a reasonable allowance for wear and tear.

(4A) The necessary amendments of the contract of sale shall be endorsed upon the instrument, and when signed by the proper officer shall be deemed to be included in and shall become part of the contract of sale and binding on the parties.

(6K) The provisions of the Land Act 1962, section 188 do not apply to leases referred to in subsection (6I).

(6L) All rents payable in respect of every perpetual town lease and every perpetual suburban lease demised pursuant to this section shall be paid to the commission.

(6M) The term of a freeholding lease shall commence on the commencing date of, and be of the same duration as, the term of the contract of sale of the home erected on the land comprised in the lease.

(6N) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the provisions of the Land Act 1962 which apply to leases deemed pursuant to part 7, division 3 of that Act to be leases for terms of years shall, with and subject to all necessary adaptations apply and, it is hereby declared, always did apply from the commencement of that Act to a freeholding lease and for that purpose—

Prepayment of unpaid balance of advance

13.(1) The unpaid balance of any advance under this Act may at the option of the borrower be repaid at any time sooner or in larger instalments than is herein provided but payment of any such larger instalments shall not, unless the commission otherwise determines, affect the calculation of the amount of the instalment payable.

(2) Where the unpaid balance of any advance made under this Act after the commencement of the State Housing Act Amendment Act 1990 is repaid in full by a single payment prior to the full term of the advance, the commission may charge the borrower an amount not exceeding 3 months interest on the amount of the advance outstanding immediately prior to its repayment.

13A.(1) If pursuant to the provisions of the agreement executed by the Government and the Commonwealth Savings Bank of Australia (being the agreement set forth in the schedule to an Act entitled the Commonwealth Savings Bank of Australia Agreement Act 1966) the moneys paid to the commission by the said bank on behalf of a mortgagor whose land is the subject of a mortgage to the commission or on behalf of a purchaser from the commission of a dwelling house and appurtenant land under a contract of sale are insufficient to liquidate in full the liability to the commission of such mortgagor or purchaser, or if a mortgagor or purchaser receives from the bank pursuant to the provisions of the said agreement an advance to liquidate in full his or her liability to the commission but is unable to meet the amount of increase in the monthly instalment of principal and interest which the repayment of the advance to the bank over a shorter term will require, and the commission agrees with such mortgagor or purchaser to pay to the bank on his or her behalf the amount of the increase in the monthly instalment to enable the mortgagor or purchaser to meet his or her repayments to the bank from time to time then and in any such case the commission may—

- (a) release its mortgage to enable the mortgagor to give a first mortgage over the land to the bank; or
- (b) discharge the contract for sale and transfer the land to the purchaser to enable the purchaser to give a first mortgage over the land to the bank; and
- (c) take from the mortgagor or the purchaser, as the case may be, a second mortgage over the land to secure repayment to the commission of the balance of the moneys then remaining owing to it by the mortgagor or purchaser or to secure repayment to the commission of the moneys paid or to be paid to the bank by the commission on behalf of the mortgagor or purchaser as aforesaid; and
- (d) arrange for the registration of such second mortgage subject to the first mortgage to be registered in favour of the bank over the said land.

(2) A second mortgage under subsection (1)(c) must be on terms acceptable to the commission.

Additional advances may be added to principal of loan

14. Any additional advances made to a borrower under the same section of this Act shall, unless the commission otherwise determines, be added to and become part of the then outstanding balance of the original advance, and bear interest at the rate or rates provided for in that section at the time of the additional advance and where such section provides for variation of that rate at the rate as varied from time to time.

Remedies of the commission

15.(1) If default is made by the borrower in the payment of any sum payable by the borrower to the commission, or if the borrower commits any breach of any covenant or condition to be observed by the borrower under any mortgage or under this Act, the whole of the debt then remaining unpaid shall forthwith become due and payable, and shall be recoverable, with interest at the rate determined by the Governor in Council, by the commission accordingly.

(2) If default is made by the borrower in the payment of any sum of money payable by the borrower to the commission, then without prejudice to any other remedy, and although no legal demand has been made for the payment thereof, the commission may enter upon and take possession (for that purpose using such force as may be necessary to eject any occupant) and sell the whole or any part of the land with respect to which the advance has been made, with all improvements thereon (or as deemed expedient all or any of such improvements apart from the land and authorising the removal of the same when sold and with or without a subsequent sale of the whole or any part of the land), either by private sale or public auction, and subject to such terms and conditions of sale as it thinks expedient, and after such notice of the time, place, terms, and conditions of sale as it thinks expedient, with power to give time for payment of purchase money (including interest thereon), or to allow the purchase money to remain on mortgage at the risk of the borrower, and to vary or rescind any contract for sale, and to buy in at any auction, and to resell without being answerable for any loss, and may transfer or convey such land to the purchaser, and give a valid title thereto.

(2A) However, before the commission sells land by private sale under this section, the land must first be offered for sale by public auction.

(2B) Before selling land by public auction under this section, the commission must publish a notice in a daily newspaper circulating generally in the locality where the land is situated.

(2C) A notice under subsection (2B) must—

- (a) identify the land; and
- (b) state the land is to be sold by public auction; and

(c) state the time and place of the auction.

(3) After the commission has taken possession of any land under this provision, it shall debit to the account of the borrower or purchaser an administration charge of $20 per annum for each year or part of a year until the property is sold or the borrower or purchaser is reinstated as such and any occupant who is permitted by the commission to be or remain in occupation of the said property shall pay to the commission such occupation rent as the commission may fix.

Application of proceeds of sale

(4) The commission shall apply the proceeds derived from such sale in payment, in the first instance, of all moneys due in respect of such land, and in redemption of any amount charged thereon in favour of the commission, or of so much thereof as remains unpaid, and of all expenses incurred by the commission in relation to such sale or otherwise with respect to such land, and shall pay the balance (if any) to the person appearing to the commission to be entitled to receive the same.

(5) As against mortgagors, the commission shall not be responsible for involuntary losses or the default of agents or auctioneers.

Power to capitalise arrears of interest

16. The amount of any interest due and unpaid under a mortgage may from time to time at the option of the commission be capitalised and added to the amount of advance notwithstanding that the capital amount of the advance is, or is thereby increased to, more than the prescribed maximum amount of the advance in question, and every mortgage to secure an advance shall be deemed to provide for such capitalisation.

In event of no purchaser land to vest in commission

17.(1) As an additional remedy and power, and without modification or abatement of the provisions of sections 15 and 16 whenever land authorised to be sold by the commission under this Act is offered for sale by public auction and the amount of the highest bidding at such sale is not sufficient to satisfy the moneys due to the commission, together with the costs and expenses of and occasioned by such attempted sale, or there is no bid, the commission shall advertise the land for private sale, in at least 1 newspaper circulating in the district where such land is situated, once at least in each of 3 successive weeks, and shall in such advertisement name a day and time, not less than 1 month from the date of the first of such advertisements, upon or after which the land shall vest in the commission, together with all improvements thereon, unless in the interval a sufficient amount has been obtained by the sale of such land to satisfy the moneys due to the commission and all costs and expenses of and occasioned by such sale and proceedings, and thereupon if such amount has not been so obtained the land shall vest in the commission for the whole estate of the borrower, free from any encumbrance.

Removal of improvements

(2) However, in any case where the commission may think it desirable so to do, the commission may remove from the land in question any dwelling house and any other improvements or fixtures thereon to some other land either vested in it, or in respect of which it may become a mortgagee or owner under this Act.

Provisions for cases of hardship

18.(1) In cases of hardship the commission may extend for such period on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit the time for making a repayment of any instalment in respect of an advance or, as the case may be, a repayment of any payment by way of instalment in respect of a contract of sale or, as the case may be, of rent.

(2) When the time for making any such payment in respect of an advance or, as the case may be, of a contract of sale has been so extended the payment shall bear interest for the time so extended at the same rate per centum per annum as that which is payable under the mortgage or, as the case may be, under the contract of sale.

(3) A lessee of a perpetual lease for the purposes of this Act used exclusively for the lessee's own residential use may apply to the commission for relief on the ground of hardship from the liability to pay in full the annual rent for the second or subsequent rental period.

(4) The application shall be in writing, shall state the grounds of hardship relied upon, and shall contain or be accompanied by full information and particulars of the property and income of the lessee and his or her spouse respectively, and of the circumstances of any hardship relied upon.

(5) All such information and particulars shall be verified by statutory declaration.

(6) The commission shall investigate the application and may require the lessee concerned to furnish to it all such further information and particulars as it deems fit.

(7) For the purpose of investigating the application the commission may require the lessee to appear in person or before an officer of the commission named by it.

(8) If upon investigation and consideration of the application the commission is satisfied that the liability to pay in full the annual rent in question imposes upon the lessee a hardship which should be alleviated, then notwithstanding anything in this Act, the commission may remit, to the extent it deems necessary to effect such alleviation, the annual rent in question.

(9) In the case of a lease in respect of the annual rent whereof a remission is granted by the commission pursuant to subsection (8)—

- (a) the annual rent shall be reduced by the amount of the remission; and
- (b) in respect of the rental period in question—such reduced annual rent shall be payable, and shall be the annual rent, on and from the first day of the month preceding the date of the receipt by the commission of the application for the remission which is the anniversary next preceding the date on which the lease in question commenced.

(10) Subsection (9) applies subject to subsections (12) to (14).

(11) The commission may at any time and from time to time require any lessee to whom it has granted a remission in annual rent pursuant to subsection (8) to inform it in writing, verified by statutory declaration, within a time specified by it whether or not there has been since the application was made or during any period subsequent to the making of the application specified by the commission any, and if so what, alteration in the financial circumstances of the lessee or his or her spouse or in the circumstances of any hardship on the ground whereof the remission was granted.

(12) If a lease is transferred, whether by operation of law or otherwise, any remission in the annual rent thereof by the commission pursuant to subsection (8) shall be determined thereby.

(13) The commission may determine or reduce or increase any remission in the annual rent of any lease granted by it pursuant to subsection (8) if in its opinion the determination, reduction or increase is warranted by change in circumstances of any hardship on the ground whereof the remission was granted (or, in the case of an increase in the remission, by further hardship) or if at any time when the lessee is required by the commission to inform it on any of the matters mentioned in subsection (11), the lessee fails so to do within the time specified by the commission.

(14) Any determination, reduction or increase referred to in subsection (12) or (13) of a remission in the annual rent of a lease shall take effect on and from the first day of the month following the date of the transfer of the lease in question or, as the case may be, the making by the commission of such determination, reduction or increase, which is the anniversary next following the date on which the lease commenced.

19. In case of a mortgage to the commission of a miner's homestead—

- (a) the commission on exercising its powers, may retain possession for any period in its discretion;

- (a) the like consequences shall follow as are hereinbefore provided in case of default made in the payment of any sum of money payable under this Act; or
- (b) the commission or some person authorised in that behalf may comply with all such requirements and, if necessary for that purpose, enter upon the land, and the expense thereby incurred with interest at the rate per centum per annum applicable for the time being in respect of advances by the commission shall be repaid to the commission by the borrower on demand, and if not so paid the commission may, at its option, either forthwith exercise the powers conferred upon it as aforesaid in case of

(2) The provisions of this Act, as to sale and application of the proceeds of sale, shall apply to every sale made under this section.

8 Transitional and savings provisions

State Housing Acts and Another Act Amendment Act 1957 6 Eliz 2 No. 40 pt II provides—

PART II—PROVISION FOR THE FREEHOLDING OF CERTAIN LEASEHOLDS HELD UNDER “THE STATE HOUSING ACTS, 1945 TO 1957.”

Interpretation

3. This Part of this Act shall be read as one with “The State Housing Acts, 1945 to 1957.”

Conversion of certain tenures from Perpetual Leases to leases for term of years with freeholding covenant

4. A lessee of a Perpetual Town Lease or Perpetual Suburban Lease acquired and held under the provisions of subsection six of section twenty-four of “The State Housing Acts, 1945 to 1957,” or section 24A of The State Housing Acts, 1945 to 1961 as amended from time to time may apply in writing to the Commission to have his lease deemed a lease for a term determined in accordance with the provisions of section seven of this Act and subject to a covenant entitling the lessee to a deed of grant in fee-simple (hereinafter in this Part II called a “freeholding lease”).

Purchasing price

5.(1) The purchasing price of the land comprised in a lease deemed, pursuant to this Part, to be a freeholding lease shall be the amount of the unimproved value, as at the date of the receipt by the Commission of the application referred to in section 4, of that land.

For the purposes of this section, the unimproved value of land shall be the amount which experienced persons would be willing to pay for the fee-simple of the land, assuming that it were unimproved and were offered for sale on such reasonable terms and conditions as a bona fide seller would require.

(2)(a) At the option of the lessee, the unimproved value of the land comprised in the lease in question shall be determined by—

- (i) the Commission;
- (ii) the Valuer-General; or
- (iii) the Land Court.

In every case, the lessee shall exercise his option under this subsection by stating in the application referred to in section 4 or in a separate writing given to the Commission the manner in which he desires the unimproved value of the land comprised in the lease in question to be determined.

(b) In every case where the lessee requires the Valuer-General to determine the unimproved value of the land comprised in the lease in question, the Commission shall request the Valuer-General to determine and the Valuer-General shall determine that value.

(c) In every case where the lessee requires the Land Court to determine the unimproved value of the land comprised in the lease in question, the Commission shall refer, or cause to be referred, to that Court for hearing and determination the matter of the amount of the unimproved value of that land and thereupon that Court shall hear and determine that matter.

(d) Where pursuant to this subsection the Valuer-General or the Land Court determines the unimproved value of the land comprised in the lease in question, the Commission may require the lessee to pay the whole or such part of the costs incurred by it thereby as it may determine and if the lessee fails to pay the whole of the amount which pursuant to this subsection he is required to pay, the Commission may recover from the lessee in any court of competent jurisdiction, by action as for a debt, the unpaid balance of any such amount.

(3) No appeal shall lie against a determination pursuant to subsection (2) of the unimproved value of land by the Commission, the Valuer-General or, as the case may be, the Land Court.

(4) The Commission shall give to the lessee notice in writing of the amount of the purchasing price.

(5) The valuation of the unimproved value of any land determined by the Commission, the Valuer-General or the Land Court pursuant to this section shall have no force or effect save for the purpose for which that valuation is so determined or made.

Lessee to elect whether to proceed with application

6.(1) The lessee shall, within thirty days from the date when he receives from the Commission notification in writing of the purchasing price, notify the Commission in writing where he elects to proceed with his application under this Part of this Act.

(2) Every application under this Part of this Act shall lapse at the expiration of thirty days after the date when the Commission gives to the lessee notice in writing of the amount of the purchasing price unless the lessee has sooner notified the Commission in writing that he elects to proceed therewith:

Provided that a lessee may, with the prior approval of the Commission, make a second or any subsequent application under this Part of this Act notwithstanding that any prior such application made by him has lapsed.

(3) A notice under this section in respect of any lease shall not affect or prejudice howsoever any mortgage or other encumbrance, estate or interest then subsisting over, upon, or in the land comprised in the lease.

(4) A lessee who elects to proceed with his application under this Part of this Act shall be deemed to comply with the requirements of the perpetual lease with respect to the payment of rent, if he pays rent, until and including the day preceding the quarter day when the term of the freeholding lease commences, at the rate thereof actually payable at the date when the Commission receives the notice referred to in section four of this Act.

Term of the freeholding lease

7. Upon and from the quarter day next following the receipt by the Commission pursuant to section six of this Act of notice from a lessee that he elects to proceed with his application under this Part of this Act the Perpetual Town Lease or Perpetual Suburban Lease, the subject of the application shall be deemed to be a freeholding lease—

- (i) Where there is a subsisting contract of sale of a home erected on the land comprised in the lease and the unexpired term of that contract exceeds ten years, for a term equivalent to the unexpired term of the contract commencing on the quarter day next following the date when the Commission receives the notice; or
 - (ii) Where there is a subsisting contract of sale of a home erected on the land comprised in the lease and the unexpired term of the contract does not exceed ten years, for a term of ten years commencing on the quarter day next following the date when the Commission receives the notice; or
 - (iii) In any other case, for a term of ten years commencing on the quarter day next following the date when the Commission receives the notice; and
- (b) Subject in every respect to the provisions of this Part II of this Act, and the Commission shall cause the lease to be endorsed in terms of this section.

- (d) The lessee shall pay, as prescribed by section nine of this Act, interest on the outstanding balance of the purchasing price;

- (ii) From the commencement of the term of the freeholding lease, the monthly instalment payable under the contract and "The State Housing Acts, 1945 to 1957," shall be altered from time to time to such sum or sums as will liquidate both the moneys (including interest thereon) payable under the contract and the purchasing price (including interest thereon) of the land not later than the expiration of the term of the contract.

(2) In the case of a freeholding lease whereto subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of section seven of this Act applies, the unexpired period of the term of the contract remaining at the date when the freeholding lease commences shall be extended and shall be ten years commencing on that date and—ten year term of the lease at the rate per centum per annum prescribed from time to time, shall be liquidated by such monthly instalments as shall be determined by the Commission from time to time which instalments are payable respectively on or before the last day of each month of the ten year term of the lease, commencing on the quarter day next following the date when the deposit is paid.

(4) Notwithstanding any provision of “The State Housing Acts, 1945 to 1957,” or any term or condition of the freeholding lease, the lessee may at any time complete payment in full of the purchasing price of the land paying—

- (a) In a case where the purchasing price of the land has been added to the moneys payable under the contract of sale of a home erected on the land, the unpaid amounts of the moneys payable under the contract and of the purchasing price of the land together with the interest payable in respect of those amounts up to the date of payment thereof; and
- (b) In any other case, the unpaid amount of the purchasing price of the land together with the interest payable thereon up to the date of the payment thereof.

(5) Without prejudice to any other remedy had by it, the Commission may recover, by action as for a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction, any moneys due and not paid to it in respect of the purchasing price (including interest thereon) of the land comprised in a freeholding lease.
