(9A) Subsection (9) applies subject to subsection (10).

(10) A Magistrates Court has and may exercise a discretion not to make an order pursuant to subsection (9) where it is satisfied on medical or other evidence placed before the court that the person's failure to appear before it was occasioned by any medical or other circumstance rendering the person physically incapable of appearing before the court.

(10A) In subsection (10)—

“medical or other evidence placed before the court” means—

- (a) the oral testimony of at least 1 medical practitioner adduced before the court; or

- (b) the person—
 - (i) is taken not to have provided the specimen of breath under subsection (1A); or
 - (ii) provides the specimen of breath; but—
 - (A) the device used for the test is or becomes defective precluding its satisfactory operation; or
 - (B) for any reason it is not possible to use or continue using the device to conduct the breath test; or

(C) for any other reason it is not possible to complete the breath test.

(2C) Under subsection (2) or (2A), the police officer may require the person to provide as many specimens of breath as the officer considers reasonably necessary to carry out the breath test.

(3) A police officer who is exercising a power conferred on the officer by subsection (2) or (2A) may require the person in question to provide the specimen of breath—

- (a) at the time when and the place where the officer makes the requirement including at any police station where the person may then be; or
- (b) at the police station nearest to that place or at some other police station conveniently located as soon as practicable after the police officer makes the requirement if the police officer believes on reasonable grounds that it is reasonable for such person to be taken to a police station for the purpose, having regard to the circumstances of the case; or
- (c) without limiting paragraph (b), as soon as practicable after the police officer makes the requirement, at a place at which the police officer believes on reasonable grounds there is located a device approved by the Minister pursuant to this section for carrying out breath tests, if the officer does not have such a device with him or her.

(4) A requirement shall not be made under subsection (2) or (2A) unless it is made as soon as practicable and within 2 hours after the occurrence of the event whereby a police officer is authorised by that subsection to make the requirement.

(5) If a person required by a police officer under subsection (2) or (2A) to provide at a police station or other place a specimen of breath for a breath test by the person fails to go voluntarily to the police station or other place for that purpose any police officer, using such force as is necessary, may take the person to the police station or, as the case may be, other place for that purpose.

(5AA) Subsection (5) shall be construed so as not to prejudice or affect in any way the provision of section 42.

(5A) Subject to subsection (5B), if a person required by a police officer under subsection (2) or (2A) to provide a specimen of breath for a breath test by the person, either—

- (a) fails to provide the specimen; or

 - (ii) the provision of the specimen could adversely affect the person's health; or
- (b) the person satisfies the justices that the requisition to provide the specimen was not lawfully made or that the person was, by reason of the events that occurred, incapable of providing the specimen or that there was some other reason of a substantial character for the person's failure to provide the specimen other than a desire to avoid providing information that might be used in evidence.

(6) If—

- (a) it appears to a police officer in consequence of a breath test carried out by the officer on a specimen of breath of any person that the concentration of alcohol in the person's blood equals or exceeds 50 mg of alcohol per 100 mL of blood; or
- (aa) it appears to a police officer in consequence of a breath test carried out by the officer on a specimen of breath of any person that the concentration of alcohol in the person's blood exceeds 0 mg of alcohol per 100 mL of blood and the police officer suspects on reasonable grounds that the person is a person to whom

Traffic Act 1949

 - (ii) to a vehicle or vessel, such as is convenient and reasonable in the circumstances, where facilities are available for the analysis by a breath analysing instrument of a specimen of breath; or
- (e) if the person is already at a vehicle or vessel where facilities are available for the analysis by a breath analysing instrument of a specimen of breath—detain the person there or take the person—
 - (i) to another such vehicle or vessel as is convenient and reasonable in the circumstances; or
 - (ii) to a police station such as is convenient and reasonable in the circumstances; for the purposes of subsections (8) to (8L).

(7) Subsection (6) shall be construed so as not to prejudice or affect in any way the provisions of section 42.

(8) Any person who—

- (a) is arrested for an offence against section 16 or 17; or
- (b) is arrested for any indictable offence in connection with or arising out of the driving of a motor vehicle by the person (including any offence against any provision of the Criminal Code, section 328A); or
- (c) is, for the purposes of subsections (8) to (8L), detained at or taken to a police station, or detained at or taken to a vehicle or vessel where facilities are available for the analysis by a breath analysing instrument of a specimen of breath, or taken to a hospital or other place authorised under this section;

may, while at a police station, vehicle, vessel, hospital or other place authorised under this section as aforesaid, be required by any police officer to provide a specimen of the person's breath for analysis by a breath analysing instrument or, according as such officer requires, a specimen of the person's blood for a laboratory test.

(8A) A person to whom subsection (8) applies may be detained at a police station, vehicle, vessel, hospital or other place as aforesaid for the purposes of subsections (8) to (8L) by a police officer.

(8B) Any person referred to in subsection (8) may, for the purposes of subsections (8) to (8L), be taken—

- (a) to a police station; or
- (b) to a police station, vehicle or vessel where facilities are available for the analysis by a breath analysing instrument of a specimen of breath; or
- (c) to a hospital; or
- (d) where there are reasonable grounds for believing that a medical practitioner is available at any other place—to that place; and such person may be taken to more than 1 of such places if the purposes of those subsections cannot be carried out or effected at a place to which the person has been first taken.

(8C) Where any person whom a police officer may require under subsection (2) or (2A) to provide a specimen of breath for a breath test by the person is at a hospital for treatment, that person may, subject to the approval of a medical practitioner who is familiar with the person's injuries and apparent state of health at the time, be required by any police officer to provide at the hospital a specimen of the person's breath for analysis by a breath analysing instrument or, according as such officer requires, a specimen of the person's blood for a laboratory test.

(8D) A requisition shall not be made under subsection (8C) unless it is made as soon as practicable and within 2 hours after the occurrence of the event whereby a police officer is authorised under subsection (2) or (2A) to require the person to provide a specimen of breath for a breath test by the person.

(8E) If a person who is required pursuant to subsection (8) or (8C) to provide a specimen of the person's breath for analysis forthwith upon being so required produces to the police officer who made the requisition a doctor's certificate mentioned in subsection (5B)(a), such police officer shall not require a specimen of breath of such person but shall require a specimen of the person's blood.

(8F) A person who is required pursuant to subsection (8) or (8C) to provide a specimen of the person's breath for analysis shall do so, when directed by the medical practitioner or authorised police officer operating or who is to operate the breath analysing instrument, by placing the person's mouth over the mouthpiece of the instrument and blowing directly and continuously (and without escape of breath otherwise) through that mouthpiece into the instrument until told to stop by the medical practitioner or authorised police officer operating the instrument.

(8G) The commissioner may, by writing under the commissioner's hand, authorise any police officer to be an authorised police officer to operate a breath analysing instrument on being satisfied that such officer is competent to operate a breath analysing instrument.

(8H) An authorised police officer shall continue as such notwithstanding that the writing whereby the officer was made such has been lost, mislaid or destroyed or otherwise cannot be produced and there may be issued to the officer as prescribed by subsection (8G) a fresh instrument of authority which shall be deemed to have been effective on and from the date when the instrument that it replaces took effect.

(8I) A certificate purporting to be signed by the commissioner that the police officer named therein is authorised by the commissioner to operate a breath analysing instrument shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be proof that the officer named therein is so authorised.

(8J) The authorised police officer operating or who is to operate a breath analysing instrument in any particular case shall not be the police officer—

- (a) who has arrested the person concerned for an offence referred to in subsection (8); or
- (b) who requires the person to provide the specimen of breath for a breath test or analysis.

(8K) A person who is required pursuant to subsection (8) or (8C) to provide a specimen of blood for a laboratory test shall do so by permitting such specimen to be taken by a medical practitioner indicated by the police officer who made the requisition when and as directed by and to the satisfaction of the medical practitioner, the medical practitioner being hereby authorised to take such specimen whether or not the person consents to the taking.

(8L) Subsection (8M) applies if—

- (a) a person has been required to provide, under subsection (8) or (8C), a specimen of the person's breath for analysis by a breath analysing instrument or a specimen of the person's blood for a laboratory test and—
- (b) the person—
 - (i) is taken under subsection (1A) not to have provided the specimen of breath or a specimen of blood; or
 - (ii) provides a specimen of breath for analysis by a breath analysing instrument; but—
 - (A) the breath analysing instrument is or becomes defective precluding its satisfactory operation to analyse the breath specimen; or
 - (B) for any reason it is not possible to use or continue using the breath analysing instrument for the purpose of analysing the breath specimen; or

- (C) the breath analysing instrument indicates to the authorised police officer operating the instrument that alcohol or some other substance is present in the mouth of the person supplying the breath specimen; or
- (D) for any other reason it is not possible to complete the analysis.

(8M) Under subsection (8) or (8C), the police officer is authorised to require the person to provide as many specimens of breath or blood as the officer considers reasonably necessary to carry out the analysis or test.

(9) Where a person—

- (a) is arrested for any offence referred to in subsection (8); or
- (b) is, for the purposes of subsections (8) to (8L), detained at or taken to a police station, vehicle or vessel, or taken to a hospital or other place authorised under this section;

and whilst at a police station, vehicle, vessel, hospital or other place authorised under this section as aforesaid is required by a police officer to provide a specimen of the person's breath for analysis by a breath analysing instrument, the police officer making the requisition may—

- (c) if the police officer who arrested, detained or took as aforesaid the person believes on reasonable grounds that at the time of the arrest, detaining or taking the person exhibited external signs indicating that the person was affected by liquor or a drug; and
- (d) if the analysis by the breath analysing instrument of the specimen of breath provided in accordance with the requisition indicates either that there is no alcohol in the person's blood or that the concentration of alcohol in the person's blood is such that it does not reasonably explain the external signs exhibited and observed;

require the person to provide a specimen of the person's blood for a laboratory test and, subject to the direction of a medical practitioner, a specimen of the person's urine for a laboratory test.

(9A) The police officer making the requisition may detain the person at a police station, vehicle, vessel, hospital or other place authorised under this section for a period of time that is reasonable in the circumstances to enable a medical practitioner to attend there in connection with the provision by the person of a specimen of blood or urine or, as the case requires, such police officer may take the person to a place where, in the reasonable belief of such officer, a medical practitioner is available for the purposes of the provision by the person of a specimen of the person's blood.

(9B) A person who is required pursuant to subsection (9) to provide a specimen of the person's blood for a laboratory test shall do so by permitting such specimen to be taken by a medical practitioner indicated by the police officer who made the requisition when and as directed by and to the satisfaction of the medical practitioner, the medical practitioner being hereby authorised to take such specimen whether or not the person consents to the taking.

(9C) A person who is required pursuant to subsection (9) to provide a specimen of the person's urine for a laboratory test shall do so when and as directed by a medical practitioner.

(11) A person who, upon a requisition duly made by a police officer under subsection (8) or (8C), fails to provide as prescribed a specimen of the person's breath for analysis or, as the case may be, a specimen of the person's blood for a laboratory test or a person who, upon a requisition duly made by a police officer under subsection (9), fails to provide as prescribed a specimen of the person's blood for a laboratory test is guilty of an offence which shall be deemed to be an offence against the appropriate provision of section 16(1) and the offender is liable to the same punishment in all respects (including disqualification from holding or obtaining a driver's licence) as the person would be in the case of the offence being actually one committed by the person against the provision.

(11A) A person referred to in subsection (11) is not guilty of an offence pursuant to that subsection if the person satisfies the justices that the requisition to provide the specimen was not lawfully made or that the person was, by reason of the events that occurred, incapable of providing the specimen or that there was some other reason of a substantial character for the person's failure to provide the specimen other than a desire to avoid providing information that might be used in evidence.

(15) As soon as practicable after a specimen of breath provided pursuant to a requisition has been analysed by means of a breath analysing instrument, the medical practitioner or authorised police officer operating such instrument shall sign in duplicate a certificate in writing stating the concentration of alcohol indicated by the analysis to be present in the blood of the person whose breath has been analysed, the date and time at which the analysis was made, and shall deliver—

- (a) 1 copy of such certificate to the police officer who made the requisition; and
- (b) the other copy to the person whose breath has been analysed (or to another person on behalf of that person upon request by that other person).

(15B) Where a person who is required pursuant to subsection (8) or (8C) to provide a specimen of the person's breath for analysis fails to do so as prescribed by that subsection, the medical practitioner or authorised police officer operating or to operate the breath analysing instrument shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, sign in duplicate a certificate in writing stating—

- (a) the full name of the person concerned; and
- (b) the name of the police officer who made the requisition; and
- (c) the name of the operator of the breath analysing instrument; and
- (d) the name and patent number or name and model number appearing on the breath analysing instrument; and
- (e) that the person concerned failed to provide as prescribed by that subsection a specimen of breath when required;

and shall deliver—

- (g) 1 copy of such certificate to the police officer who made the requisition; and
- (h) the other copy to the person who failed to provide as prescribed the specimen of breath when required (or to another person on behalf of that person upon request by that other person).

(15D) Evidence by a medical practitioner or an authorised police officer or by a certificate purporting to be signed by a medical practitioner or an authorised police officer—

- (a) that an instrument operated by the medical practitioner or officer for analysing the breath of any person named by the medical practitioner or officer on any occasion stated by him or her was a breath analysing instrument; and

- (b) that such instrument was on the occasion in question in proper working order and properly operated by the medical practitioner or officer; and
- (c) that in relation to such instrument all regulations made pursuant to this section with respect to any instrument which is a breath analysing instrument were complied with;

shall be evidence of those matters and until the contrary is proved shall be conclusive such evidence.

(15E) The matters referred to in subsection (15D) may be stated in the certificate referred to in subsection (15) or in a separate certificate.

(15F) A certificate referred to in subsection (15B) shall, upon its production in any proceeding, be accepted as evidence—

- (a) that a requisition to provide a specimen of the person's breath for analysis was made to the person concerned by the police officer named therein as the police officer making the requisition; and
- (b) that the person concerned failed to provide as prescribed by subsections (8) to (8L) a specimen of breath when required; and
- (c) that an approved breath analysing instrument was available at the place where and at the time when the requisition was made for the purpose of analysing a specimen of breath provided in accordance with the requisition;

and until the contrary is proved shall be conclusive such evidence.

(15G) Evidence by a medical practitioner or an authorised police officer or by a copy of a certificate referred to in subsection (15) purporting to be signed by a medical practitioner or an authorised police officer of the concentration of alcohol indicated to be present in the blood of a person by a breath analysing instrument operated by such medical practitioner or authorised police officer shall, subject to subsection (15H), be conclusive evidence of the concentration of alcohol present in the blood of the person in question at the time (being in the case of such certificate the date and time stated therein) the breath of that person was analysed and at a material time in any proceedings if the analysis was made not more than 2 hours after such material time, and at all material times between those times.

(15H) The defendant may negative such evidence as aforesaid if the defendant proves that at the time of the operation of the breath analysing instrument it was defective or was not properly operated.

(16) As soon as practicable after a specimen of blood has been provided for a laboratory test pursuant to subsections (8) to (8L) or a specimen of blood or urine has been provided for a laboratory test pursuant to subsections (9) to (9C), the police officer who required such specimen shall deliver the same to the laboratory of an analyst.

(16A) The specimen must be delivered to the analyst's laboratory in the way prescribed by regulation.

(16B) A certificate purporting to be signed by an analyst and stating—

- (a) that there was received at the laboratory of the analyst from the police officer named in the certificate a specimen of the blood of the person named in the certificate provided by that person on the date and at the place and time stated in the certificate; and
- (b) that the analyst made a laboratory test of such specimen on the date and at the place stated in the certificate; and
- (c) that—
 - (i) the concentration of alcohol in the person's blood indicated by the laboratory test was a specified number of milligrams of alcohol in the blood per 100 mL of blood; or
 - (ii) a specified drug or metabolite of a specified drug was indicated by the laboratory test to be present in the person's blood;

shall be evidence of those matters and until the contrary is proved shall be conclusive such evidence.

(16C) Where a person who is required pursuant to subsection (8), (8C) or (9) to provide a specimen of the person's blood for a laboratory test fails to do so as prescribed by the subsection under which the requisition is made, the medical practitioner by whom the specimen is to be taken shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, sign in duplicate a certificate in writing stating—

- (a) the full name of the person concerned; and
- (b) the name of the police officer who made the requisition; and
- (c) that the person concerned failed to provide a specimen of blood

when required;

and shall deliver—

- (e) 1 copy of such certificate to the police officer who made the requisition; and
- (f) the other copy to the person who failed to provide the specimen of blood when required (or to another person on behalf of that person upon request by that other person).

(16E) A certificate referred to in subsection (16C) shall, upon its production in any proceeding, be accepted as evidence—

- (a) that a requisition to provide a specimen of the person's blood for a laboratory test was made to the person concerned by the police officer named therein as the police officer making the requisition; and
- (b) that the person concerned failed to provide as prescribed by the subsection under which the requisition was made a specimen of the person's blood when required;

and until the contrary is proved shall be conclusive such evidence.

(16F) Evidence by an analyst or by a certificate referred to in subsection (16B) of the concentration of alcohol indicated to be present in, or of the drug or metabolite of the drug indicated to be present in, the blood of a person by a laboratory test of a specimen of the blood of that person shall, subject to subsection (16G), be conclusive evidence of the presence of the concentration of alcohol in, or the drug or the metabolite of the drug in, the blood of that person at the time (being in the case of such certificate the date and time stated therein) when the person provided the specimen and at a material time in any proceedings if the specimen was provided not more than 2 hours after such material time, and at all material times between those times.

(16G) The defendant may negative such evidence as aforesaid if the defendant proves that the result of the laboratory test of that specimen of blood was not a correct result.

(16H) The court shall on the application of the complainant adjourn the hearing as necessary to enable the production in evidence of the certificate of the analyst and if within 3 days after providing the specimen the defendant has given to the police officer in charge of the police station at which or nearest to the hospital or other place where the specimen of blood for the laboratory test was provided a notice in writing that the defendant requires a copy of the certificate to be given to the defendant at the address stated in the notice shall, at the request of the defendant, adjourn the hearing as necessary to ensure that such copy has been given to the defendant at such address not less than 3 days before the production of the certificate in evidence.

(16I) Such copy may be given either personally or by sending it by registered post or certified mail.

(16J) The person who gives the copy (whether personally or by sending it by registered post or certified mail) may attend before any justice of the peace having jurisdiction in the State or part of the State or part of the Commonwealth where the person gives the copy and depose on oath and in writing endorsed on a copy of the certificate to the giving thereof.

(16K) Such deposition shall, upon production to the court, be evidence of the matters contained therein and, until the contrary is proved, shall be conclusive such evidence.

(16L) Nothing contained in subsections (16H) to (16K) precludes the court in its discretion from dealing with a charge of an offence against section 16(1) on the application of the defendant notwithstanding that at that time the result of the laboratory test of the specimen of the blood of the defendant is not known if—

- (a) the defendant pleads guilty to the offence; and
- (b) the court is satisfied that the facts available to be put forward by the prosecution, and unchallenged by the defendant, are sufficient to enable it to deal properly with the matter.

(18) A certificate purporting to be signed by a medical practitioner that on a date and at a place and time stated therein the medical practitioner took a specimen of blood for a laboratory test of a person named therein shall, upon its production in any proceeding, be accepted as evidence of those matters and until the contrary is proved shall be conclusive such evidence.

(18A) Where by any provision of this section a certificate of or purporting to be signed by a medical practitioner, an authorised police officer or an analyst is made evidence of any matter, a certificate purporting to be signed by a medical practitioner, an authorised police officer or an analyst, as the case may be, as to that matter shall, upon its production in any proceeding, be accepted as evidence—

- (a) that the signature thereto is that of the person by whom the certificate purports to be made; and
- (b) of all matters contained therein including the status, authority or qualification of the person by whom the certificate purports to be made;

and until the contrary is proved shall be conclusive such evidence.

(19) If a police officer sends a specimen of blood to an analyst's laboratory in a way prescribed by regulation, in any proceeding—

- (a) evidence of that fact given by the officer; and
- (b) a certificate, produced in evidence, purporting to be signed by the analyst certifying that the specimen of blood was received at the analyst's laboratory from the officer; is sufficient evidence of compliance with subsection (16A).

(20) A person who, being thereunto required pursuant to subsection (8), (8C) or (9), has provided a specimen of blood for a laboratory test may when the person provides the specimen or immediately after providing it and where the person provides it (or another person on behalf of that person may when or immediately after the person provides the specimen and where the person provides it) request the police officer or the medical practitioner, as the case may be, who required the specimen in question to give to such person a specimen of blood.

(20A) Upon such request, subject to the person concerned then and there providing a second specimen of blood, the police officer or medical practitioner in question shall give such second specimen to such person or to the person requesting it on the person's behalf.

(21A) The power to make regulations under this Act includes power to make regulations for or in respect of the maintenance or use of breath analysing instruments and the methods to be employed for ensuring that such instruments give accurate results.

(22) Subsection (22AA) applies if—

- (a) the analysis by means of a breath analysing instrument of a specimen of breath of a person required by a police officer to be provided pursuant to subsection (8) or (8C) indicates that the concentration of alcohol in that person's blood equals or exceeds 50 mg of alcohol per 100 mL of blood or in the case of a person to whom section 16(2A), (2B) or (2D) refers, that the concentration of alcohol in that person's blood exceeds 0 mg of alcohol per 100 mL of blood; or

- (b) a person so required fails to provide as prescribed by subsections (8) to (8L) such specimen; or
- (ba) a person has been arrested for an offence under section 16(1) but has not been required by a police officer to provide a specimen of breath for analysis or a specimen of blood for a laboratory test under subsection (8) or (8C)—
 - (i) because the person is violent; or
 - (ii) because of the external signs exhibited by the person, the police officer reasonably believes the person is so affected by alcohol or a drug as to be unable to provide the specimen; or
 - (iii) because of the remoteness of the area—
 - (A) a breath analysing instrument is not available to analyse a specimen of the person's breath; or
 - (B) a doctor is not available to take a specimen of blood from the person for a laboratory test; or
- (c) a person who is required by a police officer pursuant to subsection (8) or (8C) to provide a specimen of the person's blood for a laboratory test permits a specimen of the person's blood to be taken for the purpose and thereupon such police officer requires that person to provide a specimen of breath for a breath test by the officer (the officer being hereby authorised to require such a specimen of breath for a breath test to be provided), and—

- (c) in respect of which there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that such vehicle, tram, or animal has been left on a road unattended whether temporarily or otherwise for such time or in such place, condition, manner or circumstances, that its presence on the road causes or is likely to cause danger, hindrance, or obstruction to traffic or prevents, hinders or obstructs or is likely to prevent, hinder or obstruct, the use of the road or any part thereof for some lawful purpose; or
- (d) which is found on a road in such place, condition, manner, or circumstances that its presence constitutes an offence under this Act or causes or is likely to cause danger, hindrance or obstruction to traffic or prevents, hinders or obstructs, or is likely to prevent, hinder or obstruct, the use of the road or any part thereof for some lawful purpose, and—

 - (ii) which the driver thereof fails to remove forthwith when required by a police officer so to do.

(1A) However, in any of the cases specified in subsection (1)(c) or (d) a police officer may, without seizing and detaining at a place for safe keeping the vehicle, tram, or animal concerned, remove it or cause it to be removed to some other place but in that event the police officer shall only remove or cause the vehicle, tram, or animal to be removed to a place at which it can be located by the driver thereof.

consolidated fund.

(3A) However, when a vehicle, tram, or animal is seized and detained by a police officer under this section and it is, in the opinion of a superintendent, necessary for the police to retain custody of the same for the purpose of producing it as an exhibit or for some other purpose, notification thereof shall be given to the owner and thereupon, unless any order for its delivery is sooner made by a Magistrates Court in the district in which the seizure was made or in the district to which the vehicle, tram, or animal has been removed and detained upon an application made under the provisions of the Justices Act 1886, section 39, such vehicle, tram, or animal may be retained in the custody of the police for that purpose.

(3B) When it is, in the opinion of the superintendent under whose direction a vehicle, tram, or animal is retained in the possession of the police, no longer necessary to retain possession of the vehicle, tram, or animal for the purpose of producing it as an exhibit (and it has not been so produced) or for any other purpose for which it was retained, the owner shall be notified accordingly.

(3C) When the owner of any such vehicle, tram, or animal has been so notified that it is no longer required to be detained in police custody and the owner fails to take possession of the same within 1 month after being so notified, such vehicle, tram, or animal may be sold or otherwise disposed of and the proceeds of such sale or disposal shall be applied as previously specified in subsection (3).

(4) The authority to deal with any vehicle, tram, or animal in any manner specified in this section shall also apply to any goods, equipment, or other property or thing whatsoever contained therein or thereon, or attached thereto at the material time, and the provisions of this section shall extend and apply to such goods, equipment, or other property or thing accordingly.

(5) Subject to any order made by a Magistrates Court under the provisions of the Justices Act 1886, section 39, the following rules shall be observed in relation to the release from police custody of a vehicle, tram, or animal seized and detained by a police officer under this Act, that is to say—

- (a) application for its release from the custody of the police shall be made by the owner of the vehicle, tram, or animal or by a person acting for or on behalf of such owner to the officer in charge of the police station in the area where such vehicle, tram, or animal is located;

- (b) the applicant shall furnish proof of the ownership of the vehicle, tram, or animal to the satisfaction of the said officer in charge;

(6B) The police officer may only cause the vehicle to be removed and detained at a place for safe keeping by a tow truck that is licensed under the Tow Truck Act 1973 and operated by a person holding a driver's certificate under that Act.

(7) When there is on a road within any area any vehicle in respect of which there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the same has been abandoned by the person who last drove or used the same the local government of that area may remove and detain, or cause to be removed and detained, at a place of safe keeping that vehicle and may deal with such vehicle or cause the same to be dealt with, in the manner provided by subsections (8) to (15).

(12) The local government which has caused a vehicle to be removed and detained under subsection (7) may deal with any goods, equipment or thing contained in, on or about such vehicle at the time of its removal in the same manner as it may deal with the vehicle pursuant to this section.

(13) However, any perishable goods contained in such vehicle at the time of its removal may be disposed of in such manner as the clerk or chief executive officer of the local government concerned shall direct and the proceeds (if any) of such disposal shall be applied in accordance with the provisions of subsection (11).

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

(16) Under a local law, a local government may provide for the removal, safe storage or disposal of vehicles that persons authorised under the local law consider, on reasonable grounds, have been abandoned on roads in the local government's area.

(17) If a local law provides for a matter mentioned in subsection (16), subsections (7) to (15) no longer apply in the local government's area.

(18) Subsections (7) to (15) in their application in the local government's area are not revived by the repeal of the local law.

(19) In subsections (7) to (16)—

“vehicle” includes any part of a vehicle.

PART 6A—REGULATED PARKING

Local governments may regulate parking

44A.(1) A local government may, under a local law, regulate parking in its area—

- (a) on a road, other than a declared road; or
- (b) on a declared road, with the chief executive's written agreement; or
- (c) on an off-street regulated parking area.

(2) The local government's regulation of parking may include—

- (a) specifying the times when a vehicle may or must not be parked; and
- (b) requiring the payment of a fee for a vehicle to be parked; and
- (c) specifying the types of vehicles that may or must not be parked; and
- (d) specifying the purposes for which a vehicle may or must not be parked; and
- (e) specifying where its regulation of parking applies.

Parking regulation involves installing official traffic signs

44B.(1) A local government may install official traffic signs indicating how parking is regulated.³

(2) An official traffic sign installed by a local government may apply to parking—

- (a) at or near the place where the sign is installed, for example, a particular parking space, road or off-street regulated parking area; or
- (b) throughout an area consisting of the whole or part of the local government's area (a “traffic area”).

(3) A local government may install an official traffic sign applying to parking throughout a traffic area only if—

- (a) a local law has declared the traffic area and defined its boundaries; and
- (b) the sign is installed on the road at every road entry to the traffic area.

(4) An official traffic sign applying to parking throughout a traffic area—

- (a) may only indicate the following matters about how parking is regulated throughout the traffic area—
 - (i) the times when a person may only park for a maximum specified time;
 - (ii) the times when a person may only park by paid parking at a place where the local government has provided for paid parking; and
 - (iii) the types of vehicle a person may park; and
- (b) for parking for which another official traffic sign is installed within the traffic area—applies subject to the other official traffic sign.

Example of subsection (4)(b)—

An official traffic sign installed within a traffic area may allow a longer or shorter parking time than that allowed by the official traffic sign for the entire traffic area.

(5) Subsection (4)(a) does not limit the matters that may be indicated on an official traffic sign mentioned in subsection (4)(b).

(6) A person parking anywhere within a traffic area is taken to have notice of the contents of the official traffic sign installed at the road entries to the traffic area.

(7) If an official traffic sign is installed at or near a place so that a person parking at the place is likely to see the sign, the person is taken to have notice of the contents of the sign.

(8) An indication on an official traffic sign regulating parking is evidence that the regulation of the parking as indicated was properly imposed under a local law of the local government for the area where the sign is located.

(9) This section does not limit a local government's power to install an official traffic sign under a provision other than this part or under another law.

Examples of how parking may be regulated

44BA.(1) This section does not limit section 44A or 44B and its object is to help local governments in using this part by specifying common examples of how local governments may regulate parking.

(2) Under a local law, a local government may specify for a place or a traffic area—

- (a) the hours and days when parking is only allowed for a specified maximum time; and
- (b) the fixed hours for paid parking; and
- (c) for specified designated parking spaces—the maximum time for which a vehicle may be paid parked; and
- (d) parking fees for paid parking; and
- (e) a system (the “authorised system”) for the payment of a parking fee for paid parking including, for example, by the use of a coin, token, card or credit card; and
- (f) the denomination or number of coins to be inserted in a parking meter or parkatarea in payment of a parking fee.

(3) Under a local law, a local government may—

- (a) allow a vehicle to park contrary to an indication on an official traffic sign regulating parking by time or payment of a fee, if the vehicle displays—
 - (i) a disabled person parking permit; or
 - (ii) a permit issued by the local government; and
- (b) define the persons that may be issued with a permit; and
- (c) specify the fee for a permit.

(4) Under a local law, a local government may—

- (a) allow a vehicle to park in a loading zone if the vehicle displays a commercial vehicle identification label issued by the local government; and

- (b) define the vehicles that may be issued with a commercial vehicle identification label of the type specified by the MUTCD; and
- (c) specify the fee for a commercial vehicle identification label issued by the local government.

(5) Under a local law, a local government may define specified land (including structures on the land) controlled by it as an off-street regulated parking area and regulate the use of the area.

(5A) For subsection (5), land controlled by a local government includes land over which the local government may exercise control for the purpose of this part under an arrangement with a person who owns or has an interest in the land.

Example—

Under subsection (5), a local government may, under an arrangement with the owner of a shopping centre, specify a public parking area at the shopping centre as an off-street regulated parking area and regulate the use of the area.

(6) Traffic signs installed by a local government may define or indicate—

- (a) where paid parking is authorised; or
- (b) spaces on roads or off-street parking areas that are designated parking spaces; or
- (c) loading zones; or
- (d) for roads or off-street parking areas—where parking is only allowed for a specified maximum time.

Things agreements must provide for 44BB.(1) This section applies if a local government and a person (an “occupier”) who owns or has an interest in land, have an arrangement under section 44BA(5) for the local government to control the land as an off-street regulated parking area.

(2) An agreement to give effect to the arrangement for the area must provide for the matters prescribed under a regulation.

Paid parking

44C.(1) Fixed hours start for a designated parking space after a local government has—

- (a) specified under a local law the fixed hours when only paid parking is allowed in designated parking spaces in the traffic area or place where the space is located; and
- (b) installed the appropriate official traffic signs for the space.

(2) A person may park a vehicle in a designated parking space during the fixed hours only if—

- (a) the person does not park the vehicle in the space for longer than the maximum time indicated on the official traffic sign installed in relation to the space; and
- (b) the person pays the parking fee for the space as prescribed immediately on parking the vehicle.

(3) The person may pay the parking fee—

- (a) if a parking meter or parkatarea is installed for the space—by inserting coins of the number and denomination appropriate to the parking fee in the parking meter or parkatarea; or
- (b) if an authorised system applies in relation to the space—by doing what is required by the system.

(4) Nothing in this section prevents a person from making more than 1 payment while a vehicle is parked in a designated parking space, if the total time of continuous paid parking does not exceed the maximum time indicated on the official traffic sign installed in relation to the space.

(5) A local government may install a parking meter or parkatarea for a designated parking space if it is installed in a way—

- (a) specified by the MUTCD; or
- (b) approved by the chief executive.

Paid parking offences

44D.(1) During the fixed hours, a person must not park a vehicle in a designated parking space—

- (a) unless—
 - (i) a parking meter or parkatarea installed for the space indicates that the parking fee has been paid; or
 - (ii) the person has done what is required by an authorised system that applies in relation to the space; or
- (b) for a time longer than the maximum time indicated on the official traffic sign installed for the space; or
- (c) if another vehicle is parked in the space; or
- (d) so that the vehicle is not wholly within the space, unless the vehicle—
 - (i) is longer than the length of the space; and
 - (ii) is parked within a space in relation to which a parkatarea is installed; and
 - (iii) is engaged in loading or unloading goods; and
 - (iv) is as nearly as practicable wholly within the space.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

(2) A person who parks a vehicle in a designated parking space when a parking meter or parkatarea installed in relation to the space indicates that the parking fee has not been paid does not commit an offence against subsection (1)(a) if the person immediately pays the parking fee in accordance with section 44C(3).

(3) If—

- (a) a person commits an offence against subsection (1)(b) in a designated parking space; and
- (b) a notice is affixed to the vehicle under section 44F; and
- (c) the vehicle in relation to which the offence is committed remains parked in the space after the notice is affixed;

the person commits a separate and further offence under subsection (1)(b) for each further time (equal to the maximum time indicated on the official traffic sign installed in relation to the space) that the vehicle remains parked in the space during the fixed hours.

Owner responsible for offence

44E.(1) Subject as hereinafter provided, where any offence is committed in relation to the regulated parking of any vehicle, the person who at the time of the commission of the breach was the owner of the vehicle shall be deemed to have committed that offence and may be proceeded against and shall be punishable accordingly.

(2) Proof that the name and address of a person were shown upon the outside of a vehicle or upon a registration label issued under the Transport Infrastructure (Roads) Regulation 1991, and affixed to a vehicle, or that in or upon a vehicle there was otherwise shown the name and address of a person purporting to be the name and address of the owner of that vehicle, shall be evidence that at the time when such name and address were so shown, the person whose name and address were so shown was the owner of that vehicle, and, in the absence of evidence in rebuttal thereof, shall be conclusive evidence of such ownership.

Notice of alleged offence

44F.(1) Whenever a vehicle is found parked in contravention of this part or a regulation, or is found in any other circumstances which constitute or are deemed to constitute an offence in relation to regulated parking the police officer or authorised person finding such vehicle shall affix on such vehicle in a conspicuous position or give to the owner or driver thereof a notice, in writing.

(1A) Such notice shall—

- (a) be identified by a serial number; and
- (b) be addressed to the owner of such vehicle by name, or, if the name of the owner is not displayed on the vehicle, be addressed to the owner of such vehicle by the registration number of such vehicle; and
- (c) describe the vehicle the subject of the alleged offence; and

 - (A) complete the form provided on the notice; and
 - (B) give the completed form to the local government's chief executive officer or another nominated officer; and
 - (ii) if the owner does not want the alleged offence to be dealt with by a court, the owner must—

 - (h) inform the owner in general terms of the provisions of section 44G(2).

(2) Upon receipt by the chief executive officer of a report wherein it is alleged that a vehicle has been parked in contravention of this part or that a vehicle has been found in any other circumstances which constitute or are deemed to constitute an offence in relation to regulated parking in any case where a notice has not been affixed to the vehicle or given to the owner or driver thereof pursuant to subsection (1), the chief executive officer, or a person authorised in that behalf by the chief executive officer, may give to the owner or driver of that vehicle a notice, in writing, to the like effect as the notice referred to in subsection (1A).

(3) When at any time when regulated parking is operative in a traffic area an authorised person, when acting in the execution of the person's authority, or a police officer finds a vehicle parked, stopped or standing in that traffic area under circumstances constituting an offence against a provision of this Act other than a provision of this part and such offence is prescribed pursuant to section 45A to be a minor traffic offence, then such offence shall be deemed to be an offence in relation to regulated parking and a contravention of this part.

(3A) If and when the Traffic Acts Amendment Act 1960, section 9, is proclaimed in force the expression 'minor traffic offence' shall be read as referring to offences under this Act in relation to the parking, standing or stopping of vehicles which are prescribed pursuant to section 45A as inserted by section 9 of that Act to be traffic offences in respect of which the notice specified in section 45A(1)(a) may be given or affixed as prescribed by section 45A(1)(a).

(4) For the purposes of this section—

“authorised person” means a person who is authorised in writing by the chief executive officer to—

- (a) affix on a vehicle in a conspicuous position; or
- (b) give to the owner or driver of a vehicle;

the notice in writing prescribed by subsections (1) and (1A) in any and every case where the vehicle is found by the authorised person parked in contravention of this part or the vehicle is found by the authorised person in any other circumstances which constitute or are deemed to constitute an offence in relation to regulated parking.

(5) A local government may make a local law prescribing a sum of money to be that payable by way of penalty to the chief executive officer or officer nominated in that behalf for the purposes of the procedure provided for in subsections (1) to (2).

(5A) A local law may prescribe different sums of money in respect of different offences.

(6) When, pursuant to subsection (5), a local government makes a local law prescribing a sum of money in respect of an offence and the local law commences to have force and effect, a provision of the regulations that prescribes a sum of money to be that payable by way of penalty in respect of that offence for the purposes of the procedure provided for in subsections (1) to (2) shall cease to have force and effect in the area of that local government.

(7) Subject to subsection (6), the power had by the Governor in Council to make regulations prescribing a sum of money payable by way of penalty for the purposes of the procedure provided for in subsections (1) to (2) is not limited by the enactment of subsection (5).

Prosecution for breach

44G.(1) Subject to subsection (2), where a notice in writing shall have been affixed on a vehicle or given to the owner or driver thereof pursuant to the provisions of section 44F and the sum of money by way of penalty shall not have been paid to the chief executive officer or officer nominated in that behalf and named in such notice on or before the date or within the period specified therein for such payment, the alleged offence may, notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, be prosecuted upon the complaint of the chief executive officer or of any other person authorised by the chief executive officer, and either against the owner or any other person whomsoever alleged to be guilty thereof.

(1A) For the purposes of any such prosecution the appointment and signature of the chief executive officer shall be judicially noticed.

(3) In any proceedings in respect of an offence related to the regulated parking of any vehicle against a person named in a statement referred to in subsection (2)(a), (b) or (d), a copy of such statement shall be served with the summons.

(3A) The endorsement of a copy of such statement with an oath of service shall be evidence of such service and, in the absence of evidence in rebuttal, shall be conclusive evidence of such service.

(4) Subject to subsection (3), the production by the prosecutor of a statement referred to in subsection (2)(a), (b) or (d) shall be evidence of the facts stated therein and, in the absence of evidence in rebuttal, shall be conclusive evidence of those facts.

Liability for offences in respect of regulated parking

44H. The provisions of this part whereby an owner may be proceeded against and punished for an offence in relation to the regulated parking of a vehicle not actually committed by the owner or may, pursuant to section 44F, pay a prescribed sum of money by way of penalty in respect of such an offence shall not prejudice or affect howsoever the liability of the person by whom the offence was actually committed to be proceeded against and punished therefor, save that where either of them has been punished for the offence by being convicted therefor or by paying pursuant to section 44F a prescribed sum of money by way of penalty, then the other of them shall cease to be subject to any liability under this part in respect of the offence.

(2A) Where under this or any other Act a judge of the Supreme Court or

District Court or justices orders or order that any person shall be disqualified absolutely or for a specified period from holding or obtaining a driver's licence, each subsisting driver's licence held by that person shall, by virtue of such order, be and be deemed to be cancelled on and from the date upon which that person became so disqualified.

(3) Where under any provision of this Act a conviction for an offence disqualifies any person from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for any period therein specified and no order of disqualification has been made upon such conviction, each and every subsisting driver's licence held by that person shall, by virtue of such conviction, be and be deemed to be cancelled on and from the date of such conviction.

(4) Suspension under this Act of any licence—

- (a) shall, whilst such licence is so suspended, have the same effect as the cancellation of the licence; and
- (b) shall, whilst such licence is so suspended, disqualify the person who held that licence from holding or obtaining a licence of the same kind, class, or description; and
- (c) (if the period of such suspension is less than the period during which that licence ordinarily would have remained in force) shall not, upon the termination of that suspension, extend the period during which that licence thereafter remains in force beyond the period during which that licence would have remained in force if it had not been so suspended.

(5) Any cancellation or suspension of a driver's licence shall apply and extend to such licence and to every other driver's licence authorising the person in question to drive any vehicle.

(6) A person shall not apply for or obtain a driver's licence or licence of any other kind, class, or description at a time when the person is disqualified—

- (a) by this Act; or
- (b) by an order made under this or any other Act (including any Act of a State or Territory or any other country);

from holding or obtaining a driver's licence or, as the case may be, licence of that other kind, class, or description.

(7) The provisions of subsection (6) do not apply to a person who in accordance with this Act applies for or obtains a provisional licence pursuant to an order made under section 20A.

(8) A person who applies for or obtains a licence in contravention of subsection (6) shall be guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) for a driver's licence—20 penalty units or 18 months imprisonment; or
- (b) for another licence—40 penalty units.

(10) In determining the punishment to be imposed on a person who is guilty of an offence under subsection (8) where the licence applied for or obtained in contravention hereof is a driver's licence, the justices shall have regard to—

- (a) the whole of the circumstances of the case, including circumstances of aggravation or mitigation; and
- (b) the interest of the public; and
- (c) the criminal and traffic history of the offender; and
- (d) all matters before them in relation to the medical history of the offender or the offender's physical or mental capacity that are considered by them to be relevant in the circumstances; and
- (e) such other matters that are considered by them to be relevant in the circumstances.

(11) Notwithstanding that, at the time of the commission of an offence under subsection (8) where the licence applied for or obtained in contravention hereof is a driver's licence, the person who committed the offence is disqualified by this Act or by an order made under this or any other Act from holding or obtaining a driver's licence, the justices before whom the person is convicted of the offence, in addition to any punishment they may impose upon the person on conviction, shall order that the person shall, on and from the date of the conviction, be disqualified absolutely from holding or obtaining a driver's licence, and the person shall thereupon be so disqualified under and in accordance with that order.

(12) Any driver's licence or licence of any other kind, class, or description, obtained by any person or issued to the person at any time when the person is disqualified—

- (a) by this Act; or
- (b) by an order made under this or any other Act (including any Act of a State or Territory or any other country);

from holding or obtaining a driver's licence or, as the case may be, licence of that other kind, class, or description shall be absolutely void and of no legal effect whatsoever.

(13) The provisions of subsection (12) do not apply to a provisional licence obtained by any person or issued to the person pursuant to an order made under section 20A.

(14) Subsection (12) shall be read so as not to affect the liability (if any) of that person to punishment under any other provision of this Act or under any other Act in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by the person in relation to the obtaining of the licence in question.

Effect of disqualification on subsequent issue of driver's licence

55A. Where the driver's licence of a person is cancelled or deemed to be cancelled in accordance with the provisions of section 55 and that person subsequently makes application for a driver's licence (other than a learner's permit referred to in section 14(1) or a driver's licence applied for pursuant to an order made under section 20A), the superintendent may cause the person to be tested as prescribed and any driver's licence issued to the person shall be issued as a provisional licence.

Effect of cancellation pursuant to regulations

55B.(1) Where pursuant to the regulations a driver's licence is cancelled and the regulations require that the person who held the driver's licence shall not be issued with another driver's licence unless the person has obtained permission from the chief executive or commissioner to apply for a driver's licence, then, until that permission is given and the time arrived at which the application may be made, the cancellation of that driver's licence shall disqualify the person from holding or obtaining a driver's licence of the same class or description as that which was cancelled.

- (2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to disqualify a person from holding or obtaining a driver's licence where the licence is cancelled at the request of the person who held the licence.

(3) In any proceedings the onus of proving that a driver's licence was cancelled at the request of the person who held the licence shall be upon the person relying on that fact.

Delivery of cancelled or suspended licences, or licences for endorsement

56.(1) Where any licence is or is deemed to be cancelled or suspended or is surrendered or is required for the purpose of making an endorsement thereon under this Act the licensee shall forthwith deliver that licence—

- (a) if any person is appointed by the regulations to whom a licence of that kind, class, or description is to be delivered upon its cancellation, suspension, or surrender, or for its endorsement—to that person; or
- (b) where any person has not been so appointed by the regulations and—
 - (i) where such licence is cancelled or suspended consequent on a conviction on indictment, or by or consequent on an order made by a judge of the Supreme Court or District Court—to the registrar of the Supreme Court, Circuit Court, or District Court which recorded the conviction or made the order; or
 - (ii) where such licence is cancelled or suspended consequent on a conviction, or by or consequent on an order, by justices—to the clerk of the court which recorded the conviction or made the order; or
 - (iii) in any other case—to the superintendent who is the officer in charge of the police station in the police division in which the address of the licensee, as indicated on the licence in question, is situated.

(2) Any person who fails to deliver any licence as required by subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

(2A) If such default in delivering any licence is continued by any person who has been convicted of the offence of failing to deliver that licence as required by subsection (1), then that person shall be deemed to commit a continuing offence and shall be liable to a penalty of 1 penalty unit for each and every day during which such offence is so continued.

(2B) However, the continuing offence in respect of the non-delivery of such licence shall not be deemed to commence until the expiration of 14 days from the date of conviction as aforementioned.

(3) The person to whom any licence is delivered pursuant to the provisions of this section shall make an endorsement containing such particulars relating to its cancellation, suspension, or surrender, or the other purpose for which the endorsement is required to be made thereon, as may be prescribed and shall transmit such licence to the commissioner unless, in the case of a licence continuing in force, the commissioner is authorised by the regulations to return such licence to the licensee.

(4) Subject to this Act, where any licence is deemed to be cancelled under this Act by reason of the disqualification of any person from holding or obtaining a licence or the suspension of a licence, the commissioner shall keep the licence so deemed to be cancelled until such disqualification has expired or been removed or, as the case may be, such suspension has terminated, and the person entitled to the licence has made a demand in writing for its return to the person.

(5) Where any person (whether the person is at the time the holder of a licence or not) has been disqualified—

- (a) by this Act; or
- (b) by an order made under this or any other Act;

from holding or obtaining any licence (other than a driver's licence), every licence of that kind, class, or description which the person may then hold or may subsequently obtain shall be endorsed with such particulars relating to the person's disqualification as may be prescribed.

(6) On the issue of a new licence (other than a driver's licence) to any person, the prescribed particulars endorsed or required to be endorsed on any previous licence of that kind, class, or description held by the person shall be copied or made on to the new licence unless the person has previously become entitled under the provisions of this Act to have that new licence issued to the person free from such endorsements.

(7) Any person who, having failed to deliver in accordance with this Act for endorsement the person's licence required hereby to be delivered for the purpose of making an endorsement thereon hereunder and not previously becoming entitled under the provisions of this Act to have a licence issued to the person free from such endorsement, applies for or obtains a new licence of the same kind, class, or description as that which was required to be endorsed without giving sufficient particulars to enable any and every required endorsement to be made on the new licence shall be guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty for subsection (7)—40 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

Appeals with respect to issue of licences etc.

57.(1) Any person aggrieved by the refusal of the chief executive or commissioner or of a superintendent to issue or renew a licence, or by the suspension or cancellation of a licence by the chief executive or commissioner, or by the imposition of a condition in respect of a licence by or by direction of the chief executive or commissioner or a superintendent may appeal against such refusal, suspension, cancellation or imposition to the court.

(1A) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Justices Act 1886, the decision upon the appeal of the court shall be final and binding and without appeal.

(1B) Except where the reason, or 1 of the reasons, for the chief executive or commissioner suspending or cancelling the appellant's licence is the mental or physical disability of the appellant, upon and by virtue of the commencement of the appeal the cancellation or suspension in question shall be suspended pending the determination of the appeal but, subject to the decision of the court upon the appeal, that cancellation or suspension shall take effect from the date of the determination of the appeal for that portion of the period for which it was made which had not expired when the appeal was commenced.

(1C) Subsections (1) to (1B) shall be read and construed so that an appeal hereunder shall not lie under subsection (1)—

- (a) in respect of the cancellation or suspension of a driver's licence by reason of the disqualification from holding or obtaining that licence of the licensee upon conviction or by order of a judge of the Supreme Court or District Court or of the court; or

- (b) in respect of the cancellation or suspension of a licence by or at or pursuant to the order or direction of a judge of the Supreme Court or District Court or of the court under any provision of this Act or under any other Act or law; or
- (c) in respect of the refusal to issue or renew a licence or a suspension or cancellation of a licence or the imposition of a condition in respect of a licence if provision is made elsewhere in this Act for or in respect of such an appeal.

(2) A person in respect of whom an order has been made under this or any other Act that the person shall be disqualified absolutely or for a period in excess of 2 years from holding or obtaining a driver's licence or licence of any other kind, class, or description may, at any time after the expiration of 2 years from the date of the order, and subject as hereinafter provided, from time to time apply to—

- (a) if the order was made by a judge of the Supreme Court or District Court—a judge of the Supreme Court or District Court; or
- (b) if the order was made by a Magistrates Court—
 - (i) if the person resides in Queensland—the Magistrates Court exercising jurisdiction at the place where the person resides; or
 - (ii) if the person resides elsewhere—the Magistrates Court, central division of the Brisbane district; to remove the disqualification.

(2A) Notice of any such application shall be given to the commissioner or to any police officer authorised by the commissioner to receive such notices, who shall be entitled to appear and be heard and to give and produce evidence at the hearing of such application for or against the granting of the application.

(2B) The notice required by subsection (2A) to be given shall be given at least 28 clear days prior to the date of hearing of such application.

(2C) Upon hearing any such application the judge of the Supreme Court or District Court or justices constituting the court may, as is thought proper, having regard to the character of the person disqualified and the person's conduct subsequent to the order, the nature of the offence, and any other circumstances of the case, either by order remove the disqualification as from such date as may be specified in the order or refuse the application.

(2D) Where an application under subsection (2) is refused, a further application hereunder shall not be entertained if made within 1 year after the date of the refusal.

(2E) If an order is made under subsection (2) for the removal of a disqualification, the judge or justices shall further order that particulars of the order for removal be endorsed on each and every licence (if any) previously held by the applicant and cancelled as a result of the disqualification, and on every licence of that kind, class, or description which the applicant may subsequently obtain (unless in the case of any licence the applicant may subsequently obtain the applicant becomes entitled under the provisions of this Act to have that licence issued to the applicant free from such endorsement), and the judge or justices shall in any case have power to order the applicant to pay the whole or any part of the costs of the application.

(2F) Particulars of the result of any application made under subsection (2) shall be transmitted by the registrar of the Supreme Court or District Court or the clerk of the court concerned to the commissioner.

(3) A person who by virtue of an order of a judge of the Supreme Court or District Court or justices made under this or any other Act is disqualified from holding or obtaining a licence may appeal against the order in the same manner as against a conviction recorded against the person by that judge or the justices and the Supreme Court or District Court in determining the appeal may, as is thought proper, having regard to the circumstances of the case, either by order remove the disqualification as from such date as may be specified in that order or dismiss the appeal.

(3AA) A memorandum of the determination of the appeal shall be transmitted by the registrar of the Supreme Court or, as the case may be, District Court to the commissioner.

(3A) Where a person has, following upon a conviction, been disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence and has commenced an appeal against that conviction, that disqualification shall, upon the commencement of that appeal, and without further order in that behalf, be suspended pending the determination of that appeal.

(3B) However, subject to any decision of a court upon that appeal, that portion of the period of disqualification which had not expired when such suspension began to operate shall take effect from the date of determination of that appeal.

(4) Where on an appeal a conviction against any person for an offence against this or any other Act is quashed, any disqualification of that person from the holding or obtaining of a licence by that conviction without any specific order of disqualification having been made by a judge of the Supreme Court or District Court or justices shall thereupon be removed without any specific order being required for that purpose and without further or other authority than this Act.

(5) Where under the authority of this or any other Act an order is made by a judge of the Supreme Court or District Court or justices disqualifying a person from holding or obtaining any licence such order shall be valid and effective notwithstanding that no application was made for that purpose or that the person so disqualified was not present or was not called upon to show cause against the making thereof.

Appeals against licence cancellation under regulations

57B. The regulations may provide for any appeal (including to the court or otherwise, which appeal may be stated to be final) against the cancellation of a driver's licence pursuant to the regulations solely on the grounds that such cancellation would cause extreme hardship to the person or the person's family by depriving the person of the person's means of earning the person's livelihood.
