AMBULANCE SERVICE ACT 1991

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 1 December 1998]

An Act to establish the Queensland Ambulance Service and for other purposes

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Ambulance Service Act 1991.

Definitions

2. In this Act—

“ambulance officer” means an ambulance officer appointed under section 13 and an honorary ambulance officer appointed under section 14.

“ambulance service” means service relating to the work of rendering emergency treatment and pre-hospital patient care to, and the transport of, sick and injured persons.

“approved superannuation scheme” means—

- (a) the Queensland Ambulance Service Superannuation Scheme; or
- (b) another superannuation scheme approved by the Governor in Council under section 17.

“conviction” includes a plea of guilty or a finding of guilt by a court even though a conviction is not recorded.

“subscriber” means a person who—

- (a) is a current subscriber to the service under section 54 whether by annual payment or continuing instalments; or
- (b) is a current subscriber to an ambulance service conducted by an ambulance authority in another State or is entitled to the service of that authority without charge; or
- (c) is a person exempted from payment of charges for the use of ambulance services.

PART 2—QUEENSLAND AMBULANCE SERVICE

Division 1—Queensland Ambulance Service

Establishment of Queensland Ambulance Service

3A. The Queensland Ambulance Service is established.

Status of service

3B. The service—

- (a) is a body corporate with perpetual succession; and
- (b) has a seal; and
- (c) may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

Service represents the State

3C.(1) The service represents the State.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the service—

- (a) has all the privileges and immunities of the State; and
- (b) is an exempt public authority under the Corporations Law.

Service's functions

3D. The functions of the service are—

- (a) to provide, operate and maintain ambulance services; and
- (b) for ambulance services provided during rescue and other related activities—to protect persons from injury or death, whether or not the persons are sick or injured; and
- (c) to provide transport for persons requiring attention at medical or health care facilities; and
- (d) to participate with other emergency services in counterdisaster planning; and
- (e) to coordinate all volunteer first aid groups for major emergencies or disasters; and
- (f) to adopt and put into effect all necessary measures (including systems of planning, management and quality control) to best ensure the efficient and economic operation and use of its resources in providing ambulance services; and
- (g) to provide casualty room services; and
- (h) to provide community and workplace education in first aid, cardiopulmonary resuscitation and other related matters; and
- (i) to hold the property of each committee (other than money held in trust and money raised by each committee) whether on or subject to trusts or otherwise; and
- (j) to identify and market products and services incidental to its other functions; and
- (k) to perform other functions given to the service under this Act or another Act; and

- (l) to perform functions incidental to its other functions.

Service's powers

3E.(1) The service has all the powers of an individual and may, for example—

- (a) enter into contracts; and
- (b) acquire, hold, deal with and dispose of property; and
- (c) appoint agents and attorneys; and
- (d) charge for services and facilities it supplies; and
- (e) undertake fundraising activities to benefit the service financially; and
- (f) do anything else necessary or convenient to be done for, or in connection with, the performance of its functions.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the service has the powers given to it under this or another Act.

(3) However, the service may exercise either of the following powers only with the written approval of the Minister—

- (a) acquire land by purchase, lease or exchange;
- (b) dispose of land by sale, lease, mortgage or in another way.

(4) The service may exercise its powers inside and outside Queensland, including outside Australia.

Division 2—Control of service

Chief executive officer of service

3F.(1) The chief executive of the department is the chief executive officer of the service.

(2) The chief executive officer is responsible for the way the service performs its functions and exercises its powers.

Ambulance Service Act 1991

(3) Without limiting subsection (2), it is the chief executive officer's role—

- (a) to decide the objectives, strategies and policies to be followed by the service; and
- (b) to ensure the service performs its functions in an appropriate, effective and efficient way.

Example of subsection (3)(b)—

The chief executive officer could establish performance measures for the service.

(4) The chief executive officer has the power necessary to carry out the chief executive officer's responsibilities and role.

(5) Anything done in the name of, or on behalf of, the service by the chief executive officer is taken to have been done by the service.

Minister's powers to give directions

3G.(1) The Minister may give the chief executive officer a written direction about the carrying out of the chief executive officer's responsibility under section 3F if the Minister is satisfied it is necessary to give the direction in the public interest.

(2) The chief executive officer must ensure the direction is complied with.

(3) Before giving the direction, the Minister must consult with the chief executive officer and the commissioner.

Division 3—Staff of the service

Appointment of commissioner

4.(1) The Governor in Council, acting on the recommendation of the Minister, is to appoint a commissioner of the service.

(2) The commissioner is to be paid such salary and allowances and employed on such terms and conditions as the Governor in Council determines.

Acting commissioner

4A. The Governor in Council may appoint a person to act in the office of commissioner during—

- (a) any vacancy, or all vacancies, in the office; or
- (b) any period, or all periods, when the commissioner is absent from duty, or cannot, for another reason, perform the functions of the office.

Disqualification from appointment

5. A person who—

- (a) is an undischarged bankrupt or takes advantage of the laws in force for the time being relating to bankruptcy; or
- (b) is or attains the age of 65 years; or
- (c) has been or is convicted in Queensland of an indictable offence or has been or is convicted elsewhere in respect of an act or omission that if done or made by that person in Queensland would have constituted an indictable offence; or
- (d) is or becomes a patient within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1974; is not capable of being or continuing to be the commissioner.

Vacation of office

6.(1) The office of the commissioner becomes vacant if the commissioner—

- (a) dies; or
- (b) becomes incapable of continuing as the commissioner; or
- (c) furnishes his or her written resignation to the Minister; or
- (d) under section 5, ceases to be capable of continuing to be the commissioner; or
- (e) is removed from office; or
- (f) without the approval of the Minister, engages in any employment outside the duties of the commissioner under this Act; or

- (g) is absent from duty for a period of 14 days without lawful excuse.

(2) A resignation given under subsection (1)(c) is not effective until written acceptance of it is given by the Minister.

Role of commissioner

9.(1) The commissioner is responsible for managing the service's operations in accordance with its objectives, strategies and policies.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the commissioner is to prepare an annual strategic plan incorporating performance targets approved by the Minister.

(3) The commissioner has power to do anything necessary or convenient to be done for, or in connection with, the management of the service's operations.

Employees

13.(1) The service may appoint and employ on salary or wages or engage and employ under contracts such persons—

- (a) as ambulance officers; and
(b) as medical or administrative officers;

as are necessary for the effectual administration of this Act.

(2) Subject to any applicable decision within the meaning of the Workplace Relations Act 1997, persons employed under subsection (1) (other than on contract) are to be paid salaries, wages and allowances at such rates and are to be employed under such conditions of employment (including conditions as to occupational superannuation and leave entitlements) as the service determines.

Honorary ambulance officers

14.(1) The commissioner may, on behalf of the service, appoint such persons as the commissioner considers appropriate to be honorary ambulance officers.

(2) Honorary ambulance officers—

- (a) may carry out, without remuneration, such of the functions of the service as the commissioner may direct; and
- (b) are subject to the control and supervision of the commissioner.

Officers employed under this Act

15. Service officers are to be employed under this Act, and not under the Public Service Act 1996.

No additional remuneration

16. A service officer is not to seek or accept on account of anything done in the course of duty in the service any fee or reward not authorised by the commissioner.

Superannuation scheme

17.(1) The Governor in Council may approve a superannuation scheme (other than the Queensland Ambulance Service Superannuation Scheme) for service officers or classes of service officers.

(2) Every service officer (other than an honorary ambulance officer) must become a contributor to an approved superannuation scheme (if the officer is otherwise eligible under the terms of the scheme) and, while a service officer, must continue to contribute to the scheme in accordance with its terms.

(3) A service officer who becomes a public service officer must, by written notice given to the commissioner within 2 months after starting employment with the public service, elect—

- (a) to continue to contribute to an approved superannuation scheme; or
- (b) to contribute to the superannuation scheme to which persons who become public service officers after the commencement of this section would usually contribute.

Retrenchment and redundancy

18. If the service is satisfied that—

- (a) the duties and functions of a position in the service are no longer required; or
- (b) the duties of the position are to be incorporated with those of another position;

the service may terminate the services of the officer in accordance with the retrenchment or redundancy arrangements approved by the Governor in Council.

Division 4—Other matters about the serviceFinance

19.(1) Before the start of each financial year, the commissioner must give to the chief executive officer a budget for the service showing the estimated receipts and disbursements for the year.

(2) The chief executive officer is to approve the budget—

- (a) as given by the commissioner; or
- (b) as amended in the way the chief executive officer considers appropriate.

(3) The Minister may specify terms and conditions under which a budget may be amended.

(4) A budget approved under subsection (2) and, if appropriate, amended under subsection (3), is to be the budget for the service for the financial year for which it is prepared.

(5) The service is to observe the budget for each financial year.

Application of certain Acts

20.(1) The service is—

- (a) a unit of public administration under the Criminal Justice Act 1989; and

(b) an agency under the Equal Opportunity in Public Employment Act 1992; and

(c) a public authority under the Libraries and Archives Act 1988.

(2) The Financial Administration and Audit Act 1977 applies to the service as if it were part of the department.

Seal

21. Judicial notice must be taken of the imprint of the service's seal appearing on a document, and the document must be presumed to have been properly sealed unless the contrary is proved.

Delegations

22.(1) The service may delegate its powers under this Act to the commissioner or an appropriately qualified service officer.

(2) The commissioner may delegate the commissioner's powers under this Act to an appropriately qualified service officer.

(3) In subsections (1) and (2)—

“appropriately qualified” includes having the qualifications, experience or standing appropriate to exercise the power.

Example of 'standing'—

A person's classification level in the service.

PART 4—LOCAL AMBULANCE COMMITTEES

Establishment of committees

26.(1) The Minister may authorise the establishment of local ambulance committees.

(2) A local ambulance committee is to be called '(name of area) local ambulance committee'.

(3) A claim or proceeding by or against a committee may be made and enforced by a proceeding by or against a committee in the name of the committee.

Functions of committees

27. The functions of a committee are—

- (a) to liaise between the community it represents and the service; and
- (b) to promote community participation in and awareness of ambulance services; and
- (c) to provide advice to the commissioner in respect of ambulance services in the community it represents; and
- (d) to undertake fundraising activities for the benefit of ambulance services in the community it represents; and
- (e) to manage money held on trust for the benefit of ambulance services in the community it represents; and
- (f) such other functions as the Minister agrees to.

Constitution

28.(1) Each committee is to adopt a constitution in respect of the conduct of its affairs.

(2) A committee is not to adopt a constitution unless it has been approved by the Minister.

(3) A committee is not to alter its constitution unless the alteration has been approved by the Minister.

(4) Any matter not conducted by a committee in accordance with its constitution or the Minister's directions is invalid.

Members of committees

29.(1) The subscribers who—

- (a) permanently reside in the administrative area served by a committee; and

Ambulance Service Act 1991

(b) have attained the age of 18 years;

at a general meeting of the subscribers, are to elect the members of a committee.

(2) A person who—

- (a) does not permanently reside in the administrative area served by a committee; or
- (b) has not attained the age of 18 years; or
- (c) is not a subscriber; or
- (d) is a service officer; or
- (e) is an undischarged bankrupt or takes advantage of the laws in force for the time being relating to bankruptcy; or
- (f) has been or is convicted in Queensland of an indictable offence or has been or is convicted elsewhere in respect of an act or omission that if done or made by that person in Queensland would have constituted an indictable offence; or
- (g) is or becomes a patient within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1974; is not to be elected as or to continue to be a member of a committee.

(3) Each committee is to consist of—

- (a) a president; and
- (b) a vice-president; and
- (c) a secretary; and
- (d) a treasurer;

and not less than 1 and not more than 5 other members.

(4) Nominations for election to a committee are to be sought, in the manner specified in the committee's constitution, from community organisations—

- (a) operating within the administrative area served by the committee; and
- (b) approved by the Minister.

(5) The election of members is to be conducted in accordance with the committee's constitution.

(6) Members of a committee elected under this section hold office in accordance with the committee's constitution or for such longer period as the Minister may, in a particular case, specify.

(7) A member of a committee must at all times act honestly in the exercise of the powers and the performance of duties that he or she has as a member of a committee.

(8) A member of a committee must not make improper use of their office or position to gain, directly or indirectly, an advantage for himself, herself or any other person, or to cause detriment to the committee.

(9) The Minister may dismiss a person from any office of a committee, if the Minister is satisfied it would be in the public interest to do so.

Liability of members

30.(1) A member of a committee is liable to repay to the committee any money that member—

- (a) improperly used; or
- (b) spent without the authorisation of or ratification by the committee.

(2) The committee may recover any money referred to in subsection (1) by action in any court of competent jurisdiction, from the member who improperly used it or spent it without authorisation or ratification.

Protection of members

31.(1) The members of a committee are not personally liable to contribute toward the payment of debts and liabilities of, or any judgment against, the committee.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of a personal guarantee given by a member of a committee in respect of arrangements by a committee.

Committees are statutory bodies

32.(1) Under the Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982, a committee is a statutory body.

(2) The Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982, part 2B sets out the way in which a committee's powers under this Act are affected by the Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982.

Application of laws

33.(1) The Collections Act 1966 does not apply to the fundraising activities of or the collecting of donations by a committee.

(2) The provisions of the Art Unions Act 1992, in respect of the conduct of minor art unions (within the meaning of that Act) by a committee, do not apply.

Investigations

34.(1) The Minister may at any time cause an investigation to be made into any committee, including the exercise by that committee of its functions and the application of its funds.

(2) The Minister may appoint a person to make the investigation on his or her behalf.

(3) Officers of the committee are to produce to the person conducting the investigation all documents of the committee requested by the person conducting the investigation.

(4) At the conclusion of an investigation the person conducting the investigation is to make a written report to the Minister.

Dissolution of committees

35. The Minister may dissolve a committee if—

- (a) the committee has voted that it should be dissolved and has requested the Minister to dissolve it; or
- (b) in the opinion of the Minister, it has exhibited gross neglect of its functions, finances or administration; or
- (c) the Minister is satisfied it would be desirable in the public interest to do so.

Effect of dissolution

36. If a committee is dissolved under section 35, the funds of the committee vest in the service on trust for the community represented by the committee.

PART 5—ADMINISTRATION AND POWERSAuthorised officers

37. The commissioner may authorise a service officer, or service officers of a class of service officers, to exercise—

- (a) all the powers conferred by this Act on an authorised officer; or
- (b) any power or class of power conferred by this Act on an authorised officer.

Powers of authorised officers

38.(1) An authorised officer, in providing ambulance services, may take any reasonable measures—

- (a) to protect persons from any danger or potential danger associated with an emergency situation; and
- (b) to protect persons trapped in a vehicle, receptacle, vessel or otherwise endangered; and
- (c) to protect themselves or other officers or persons from danger, potential danger or assault from other persons.

(2) Without limiting the measures that may be taken for a purpose specified in subsection (1)(a) or (b), an authorised officer may, for that purpose—

- (a) enter any premises, vehicle or vessel; and
- (b) open any receptacle, using such force as is reasonably necessary; and
- (c) bring any apparatus or equipment onto premises; and

Ambulance Service Act 1991

- (d) remove from or otherwise deal with, any article or material in the area; and
- (e) destroy (wholly or partially) or damage any premises, vehicle, vessel or receptacle; and
- (f) cause the gas or electricity supply or motor or any other source of energy to any premises, vehicle, vessel or receptacle to be shut off or disconnected; and
- (g) request any person to take all reasonable measures to assist the authorised officer; and
- (h) administer such basic life support and advanced life support procedures as are consistent with the training and qualifications of the authorised officer.

(3) Without limiting the measures that may be taken for a purpose specified in subsection (1)(c), an authorised officer may, for that purpose, require any person not to enter into or remain within a specified area around the site of the danger to a patient.

Protection from certain liability

39.(1) The service is to indemnify every service officer against all actions, proceedings and claims in relation to—

- (a) acts done, or omitted to be done, by the officer under section 38; or
- (b) acts done, or omitted to be done, by the officer in good faith for the purposes of section 38.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a service officer includes a person required under section 38(2)(g) to assist an authorised officer.

Power to accept gifts etc.

40.(1) The service and each committee may acquire, for any purpose connected with—

- (a) the provision of ambulance services; or
- (b) any of its functions;

any property by gift, devise or bequest and may agree to carry out the conditions of the gift, devise or bequest.

(2) If the gift, devise or bequest is of property other than money and is given or made to a committee, the property vests in the service on trust for the committee.

Codes of practice

41.(1) The commissioner may issue codes of practice, not inconsistent with this Act, relating to—

- (a) the functions, powers, conduct, discipline and appearance of service officers; and
- (b) the performance of duties and the training of service officers; and
- (c) any functions imposed or powers conferred by this Act.

(2) The commissioner may amend or revoke a code of practice.

(3) Wilful failure to comply with a code of practice is grounds for disciplinary action.

PART 6—OFFENCES

Right of way to ambulances

42.(1) Despite the provisions of the Traffic Act 1949, a driver of a vehicle (other than a train), to the extent practicable, is to give clear and uninterrupted passage to—

- (a) any ambulance with warning devices sounding or warning lights activated; and
- (b) any service officer or any person acting under the direction of a service officer who appears to be doing any act for the purposes of assisting at an accident or other emergency.

(2) A person is not to fail to comply with subsection (1).

Maximum penalty for subsection (2)—50 penalty units, 6 months imprisonment or both.

Unauthorised ambulance transport

43.(1) A person, other than the service, is not to directly or indirectly imply that the person provides or participates in providing ambulance transport without the approval of the Minister and except in accordance with such conditions (if any) as the Minister may impose.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) in the case of an individual—16 penalty units; or
- (b) in the case of a corporation—50 penalty units.

(2) The Minister may revoke any approval given, or revoke or vary any condition imposed, under this section.

(3) This section does not apply to—

- (a) the Royal Flying Doctor Service of Australia; and
- (b) an ambulance service conducted under the Health Services Act 1991.

Unauthorised teaching of first aid

44.(1) A person, other than a service officer, is not to teach first aid without the approval of the commissioner and except in accordance with such conditions (if any) as the commissioner may impose.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) in the case of an individual—16 penalty units; or
- (b) in the case of a corporation—50 penalty units.

(2) The commissioner may revoke any approval given, or revoke or vary any condition imposed, under this section.

(3) This section does not apply to—

- (a) St John Ambulance Australia-Queensland; and

Ambulance Service Act 1991

- (c) Royal Flying Doctor Service of Australia; and
- (d) Australian Red Cross Society, Queensland division; and
- (e) Surf Life Saving Association of Australia, Queensland State Centre Inc.; and
- (f) a person registered as a medical practitioner (within the meaning of the Medical Act 1939, or a corresponding Act of any other State); and
- (g) an employee of the department in which the Health Services Act 1991 is administered, authorised by the chief executive of that department.

Unauthorised collections

45.(1) A person, other than—

- (a) a member of, or person authorised by, a committee; or
- (b) a service officer;

is not to organise, conduct or take part in the collection or soliciting of money or property from the public for, towards or in return for the provision of ambulance services without the approval of the commissioner and except in accordance with such conditions (if any) as the commissioner may impose.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

(2) The commissioner may revoke any consent given, or revoke or vary any condition imposed, under this section.

(3) This section—

- (a) does not apply to the Royal Flying Doctor Service of Australia; and
- (b) in respect of that part of ambulance services that comprises first aid services—does not apply to St John Ambulance Australia-Queensland.

Obstruction

46.(1) A person must not wilfully obstruct or hinder any person acting under the authority of this Act.

Maximum penalty—16 penalty units.

(2) A police officer may arrest without warrant a person committing an offence under subsection (1).

(3) A police officer who—

- (a) finds a person committing an offence under subsection (1) at the scene of an accident or emergency; and
- (b) believes on reasonable grounds that the person may continue to commit the offence or repeat the offence;

may require the person to leave and if the person fails or refuses to do so may use such force as is reasonable and necessary to remove that person.

False calls

47.(1) A person must not—

- (a) by conduct; or
- (b) by statements (oral or written); or
- (c) by conduct and statements (oral or written);

falsely and with knowledge of the falsity represent that circumstances exist that result in the utilisation of any resources of the service.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

(2) A court—

- (a) by which a person is found guilty; or
- (b) before which a person pleads guilty;

of an offence defined in subsection (1), whether or not it imposes a penalty in respect of the offence, may order the person to pay to the service, a reasonable sum for the expenses of or incidental to any utilisation of its resources as a result of the false representation.

Restricted use of words ‘Ambulance Service’

48.(1) A person must not—

- (a) without the written authority of the commissioner—use the words ‘Ambulance Service’ or any similar name, title or description; or
- (b) represent that the person is associated with the service unless such an association exists; or
- (c) without the written authority of the commissioner—use the word ‘Ambulance’ on any vehicle that is not owned or operated by the service; or
- (d) impersonate a service officer; or
- (e) without the written authority of the commissioner—use any insignia of the service in any manner contrary to the manner approved by the commissioner.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) in the case of an individual—16 penalty units; or
- (b) in the case of a corporation—50 penalty units.

(2) This section does not apply to—

- (a) an ambulance service conducted under the Health Services Act 1991; and
- (b) the use of the word ‘Ambulance’ by St John Ambulance Australia-Queensland as part of its name; and
- (c) the use of the words ‘animal ambulance’ on a vehicle owned or operated by an animal welfare organisation for the transport of sick or injured animals.

Confidentiality

49.(1) A service officer or agent of the service must not give, directly or indirectly, to any other person any information acquired as such an officer or agent in respect of a person who could be identified from the information as a person who has received prehospital care or ambulance services.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

Ambulance Service Act 1991

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply—

- (a) to information that an officer or agent is expressly authorised or permitted to give under this or any other Act or that is required by operation of law; or
- (b) to information given with the prior consent of the person to whom it relates or, if the person has died, with the consent of the senior available next of kin of the person; or
- (c) to information concerning the condition of a person who has received ambulance services if the information is communicated by an ambulance officer to—
 - (i) a member of the medical staff of a hospital; or
 - (ii) a medical practitioner; or
 - (iii) another ambulance officer or a member of an ambulance service (or similar body providing ambulance services) from outside Queensland; or
 - (iv) the next of kin or a near relative of the patient;
in accordance with the recognised standards of medical practice; or
- (d) to information given to the Australian Red Cross Society for the purpose of tracing blood, or blood products derived from blood, infected with any disease or the donor or recipient of any such blood; or
- (e) to information required in connection with the further treatment of a patient in accordance with the recognised standards of the medical profession; or
- (f) to information used in the conduct of research which has the approval of an appropriate ethics committee which will not identify individual patients.

(3) In subsection (2)—

“medical practitioner” means a person registered as a medical practitioner within the meaning of the Medical Act 1939, or a corresponding Act of any other State.

Proceedings for offences

50.(1) A prosecution for an offence against this Act is to be by way of summary proceedings under the Justices Act 1886 on complaint of—

- (a) a person authorised by the commissioner for that purpose, either generally or in a particular case; or
- (b) a police officer.

(2) The authority of a person referred to in subsection (1)(a) to make a complaint is to be presumed until the contrary is proved.

PART 7—GENERAL

Exemption from tolls

51. A service officer driving an ambulance, and the vehicle, are exempt from the payment of any toll in respect of the use of any road, bridge or vehicular ferry.

Interstate assistance at accidents

52.(1) In this section—

“officer in charge” means the person who, under a direction of the commissioner, is in charge at an accident.

(2) Every member of an ambulance service (or similar body providing ambulance services) from outside Queensland who assists at an accident in Queensland and any plant and equipment in the member’s charge is at the disposal of the officer in charge and is taken to be under the control and direction of that officer.

(3) If there is no officer in charge, the member of the ambulance service or similar body from outside Queensland who is in charge of other members of that ambulance service or similar body has—

- (a) the control and direction of all persons assisting at the accident; and

- (b) all the powers conferred by or under this Act on an authorised officer.

Service of documents

53. Any document required or authorised to be served on the service is properly served if served on the commissioner.

Function of Emergency Services Advisory Council

53A.(1) For this Act, the council's function is to advise the Minister about—

- (a) the extent to which current service delivery by the service—
- (i) satisfies community needs; and
 - (ii) contributes to the achievement of the Government's desired outcomes for the community; and
 - (iii) satisfies the performance targets mentioned in the service's annual strategic plan; and
- (b) anything else relevant to the functions of the service, referred to the council by the Minister.

(2) In this section—

“council” means the Emergency Services Advisory Council established under the Fire and Rescue Authority Act 1990.

Regulations

54.(1) The Governor in Council may make regulations under this Act.

(2) A regulation may be made for or about—

- (a) charges to be made for the use of ambulance services; and
- (b) the amount, the times at which and the manner in which subscriptions to the service are to be paid; and
- (c) the entitlements of subscribers to ambulance services; and
- (d) all matters that arise in connection with the entitlements of and the conditions of employment, occupational superannuation, retrenchment or redundancy of service officers; and

Ambulance Service Act 1991

(e) regulating any matter or thing which by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed or is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

(3) A regulation in respect of subsection (2) may—

(a) specify a concessional amount of subscription in certain cases according to the age or circumstances of the person concerned; and

(b) specify a concessional charge or exempt a person from the payment of charges in certain cases; and

(c) permit the remission of charges in certain cases.

(4) The commissioner may set fees for the special use of ambulance services and vehicles not otherwise provided for under subsection (2).

(5) A regulation may impose a penalty not exceeding 16 penalty units for a breach of the regulation.

(6) A regulation may, where a breach of it is a continuing breach, impose a daily penalty for the breach not exceeding 3 penalty units.

PART 8—SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Division 1—Provisions for Act before commencement of Emergency Services Legislation Amendment Act 1998

Definitions

54A. In this division—

“amendment Act” means the Ambulance Service Amendment Act 1997.

“commencement” means the commencement of the amendment Act, section 5.

“corporation” means the corporation sole under this Act as in force immediately before the commencement.

“former service” means the Queensland Ambulance Service in existence immediately before the commencement.

“transferred officer” means a person taken to be employed as an ambulance, medical or administrative officer of the service under section 61, 62 or 63.

Superannuation entitlements

55.(1) The Queensland Ambulance Service Superannuation Scheme is continued in existence.

(2) A person who, under section 8.2¹ becomes an employee of the Queensland Ambulance Service—

- (a) retains all entitlements accrued or accruing to that person as a contributor to or member of the superannuation scheme to which that person contributed and was a member of immediately prior to the commencement of this Act; and
- (b) is entitled to payments and other benefits from it in respect of that person.

(3) A person who becomes an employee of the Queensland Ambulance Service is to continue to contribute to the scheme referred to in subsection (1).

(4) The trustees may amend the scheme.

(5) However, an amendment prejudicing a right accrued or accruing to a person under the scheme may be made only if the person has given written consent to the amendment.

References to the board and previous committees

56.(1) A reference in any Act, will, document or writing to the State

¹ Section 8.2 (Employment of staff of board and previous committees) was omitted by the Statute Law Revision Act 1995 but provided for the transfer of employees of the board and previous committees to the Queensland Ambulance Service.

Council of the Queensland Ambulance Transport Brigade, the board or a previous committee is to be construed as a reference to the service or the relevant committee, as the case may require.

(2) In subsection (1)—

“board” means the Queensland Ambulance Services Board constituted under the Ambulance Services Act 1967, section 6.

“previous committee” means a committee constituted under the Ambulance Services Act 1967, section 19.

References to Ambulance Services Act 1967

57. In an Act or document, a reference to the Ambulance Services Act 1967 is taken to be a reference to this Act.

References to corporation and former service

58. A reference in an Act or document in existence immediately before the commencement to the corporation or former service is a reference to the service.

Vesting of assets

59. On the commencement, the assets, rights and liabilities of the corporation or former service vest in the service.

Legal proceedings

60. A legal proceeding that could have been started or continued by or against the corporation or the former service before the commencement may be started or continued by or against the service.

Ambulance officers

61.(1) A person who, immediately before the commencement, was employed as an ambulance officer of the former service is, on the commencement, taken to be employed as an ambulance officer of the service.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person holding office as an honorary ambulance officer.

Medical officers

62. A person who, immediately before the commencement, was employed as a medical officer of the former service is, on the commencement, taken to be employed as a medical officer of the service.

Administrative and service officers

63. A person who, immediately before the commencement, was employed as an administrative or service officer of the former service is, on the commencement, taken to be employed as an administrative officer of the service.

Conditions of employment of transferred officers

64.(1) The conditions of employment applying to a transferred officer must be no less favourable than the conditions that applied to the officer immediately before the commencement.

(2) A transferred officer remains entitled to all rights accrued or accruing to the officer as an employee of the former service.

(3) Without limiting subsection (2), a transferred officer is entitled to receive annual, sick and long service leave and any similar entitlements accrued or accruing to the officer as an employee of the former service.

(4) The recognised service of a transferred officer is taken to be service as an employee of the service for the purpose of any law dealing with rights or entitlements mentioned in this section.

(5) In subsection (4)—

“recognised service” of a transferred officer means the officer’s service as an employee of the former service, and includes any previous service of the officer taken to be service with the former service.

Honorary ambulance officers

65. A person who, immediately before the commencement, was an honorary ambulance officer with the former service is taken to be appointed as an honorary ambulance officer for the service.

Trusts

66. On the commencement, any property that, immediately before the commencement, was held in trust by the former service or the corporation vests in the service on the same trusts to which the property was subject immediately before the vesting.

Duty to assist transfer of property

67.(1) The registrar of titles and all persons who keep registers of dealings in property must, if asked by the service, make in the register all entries necessary to record the vesting of property in the service by this division.

(2) A request under this section is not liable to fees or stamp duty.

Division 2—Provision for Emergency Services Legislation Amendment Act 1998Board members go out of office

68.(1) On the commencement of this section the members of the board go out of office.

(2) In this section—

“board” means the service’s board under this Act as in force immediately before the commencement of the Emergency Services Legislation Amendment Act 1998.
