TRAINING AND EMPLOYMENT REGULATION 2000

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 1 July 2002]

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Training and Employment Regulation 2000.

2 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 3 defines particular words used in this regulation.

PART 2—REGISTERING TRAINING ORGANISATIONS AND ACCREDITING COURSES

Division 1—Training organisations

3 Applying to register training organisation

(1) An application for the registration of a training organisation must be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(2) The council may, by signed notice, require the applicant to give within the reasonable time stated in the notice, not less than 14 days, the additional documents or information the council considers necessary to decide the application.

(3) The council may refuse to consider the application until the applicant supplies the requested documents or information.

4 Amending registration on application by registered training organisation

An application by a registered training organisation to amend its registration must—

- (a) state the proposed amendment and the reasons for it; and
- (b) be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

Division 2—Course accreditation

5 Applying for grant of course accreditation

(1) An application by an entity for the grant of an accreditation for a course must be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(2) The council may, by signed notice, require the entity to give within the reasonable time stated in the notice, not less than 14 days, the additional documents or information the council considers necessary to decide the application.

(3) The council may refuse to consider the application until the entity supplies the requested documents or information.

6 Amending course accreditation on application

(1) An entity that has been granted the accreditation of a course may apply in writing to the council to amend the accreditation.

(2) The application must—

- (a) state the proposed amendment and the reasons for it; and
- (b) be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(3) The council may, by signed notice, require the entity to give within the reasonable time stated in the notice, not less than 14 days, the additional documents or information the council considers necessary to decide the application.

(4) The council may refuse to consider the application until the entity supplies the requested documents or information.

(5) The council may amend the accreditation only if satisfied the course under the amended accreditation meets the approved guidelines for accreditation.

7 How council may deal with application to amend accreditation

(1) The council must consider an application to amend a course accreditation and either—

- (a) amend the accreditation, with or without reasonable conditions imposed by the council; or
- (b) refuse to amend the accreditation.

(2) If the council decides to amend the accreditation, the council must promptly give the entity—

- (a) an amended certificate of accreditation for the course; and
- (b) if the amended accreditation is subject to conditions, an information notice.

(3) If the council decides to refuse to amend the accreditation, the council must promptly give the entity an information notice.

Division 3—Provisions about certificates

8 Application of div 3

This division applies to the following certificates—

- (a) a certificate of registration of a training organisation;
- (b) a certificate of accreditation of a course.

9 Definition for div 3

In this division—

“holder”—

- (a) of a certificate of registration of a training organisation, means the training organisation that has been granted registration; or
- (b) of a certificate of accreditation of a course, means the entity that has been granted accreditation for the course.

10 Replacement certificates

(1) The holder of a lost, damaged or destroyed certificate may apply to the council for its replacement.

(2) The application must be in writing and accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(3) The council may, by signed notice, require the holder to give within the reasonable time stated in the notice, not less than 14 days, the additional documents or information the council considers necessary to decide the application.

(4) If the council is satisfied the certificate has been lost, damaged or destroyed the council must replace it.

11 Displaying invalid certificate

(1) An entity must not publicly display a certificate if—

- (a) the certificate is invalid; or
- (b) the entity is not the holder of the certificate.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(2) In this section—

“invalid” means cancelled, expired or suspended.

PART 3—APPRENTICES AND TRAINEES

Division 1—Training contracts

12 Registering training contracts

(1) This section applies if the council receives a signed training contract from an employer for registration.

(2) The council must consider the contract and register or refuse to register it.

(3) The council may, by signed notice, require the employer to give within the reasonable time stated in the notice, not less than 14 days, the additional documents or information the council considers necessary to decide whether to register the contract.

(4) The council may refuse to register the contract until the employer supplies the requested documents or information.

13 Applying for approval to amend registered training contract

(1) The parties to a registered training contract may apply in writing to the council to approve an amendment of the contract.¹

(2) The application must—

(a) state—

(i) the proposed amendment; and

(ii) the reasons for the proposed amendment; and

(iii) the proposed amendment is agreed to by the parties; and

(b) be signed by the parties.

(3) The council may, by signed notice, require the parties to give within the reasonable time stated in the notice, not less than 14 days, the additional documents or information the council considers necessary to decide the application.

(4) The council may refuse to consider the application until the parties supply the requested documents or information.

14 How council may deal with application to amend registered training contract

(1) The council must consider an application to amend a registered training contract and decide either—

(a) to approve the proposed amendment; or

(b) to refuse to approve the proposed amendment.

(2) If the council decides to approve the proposed amendment, the council must promptly give the parties signed notice of its approval.

(3) The approval is effective from the date of the notice unless an earlier or later day is stated in the notice.

(4) If the council decides to refuse to approve the proposed amendment, the council must promptly give the parties an information notice.

¹ Section 52(3) of the Act states who are the parties to a training contract.

15 Applying for approval to temporarily assign registered training contract

(1) The parties to a registered training contract and an employer (“new employer”) may apply in writing to the council to approve the temporary assignment of the contract from the employer under the contract (“original employer”) to the new employer.

(2) The application must—

(a) state—

- (i) the term of the proposed temporary assignment; and
- (ii) the reasons for the proposed temporary assignment; and
- (iii) the proposed temporary assignment is agreed to by the parties and the new employer; and
- (iv) the new employer’s name, address and telephone number; and
- (v) any other particulars about the new employer stated in an approved guideline; and

(b) be signed by the parties and the new employer.

(3) The council may, by signed notice, require the parties or the new employer to give within the reasonable time stated in the notice, not less than 14 days, the additional documents or information the council considers necessary to decide the application.

(4) The council may refuse to consider the application until the parties or the new employer supply the requested documents or information.

16 How council may deal with application to temporarily assign registered training contract

(1) The council must consider an application to temporarily assign a registered training contract and decide either—

- (a) to approve the proposed temporary assignment; or
- (b) to refuse to approve the proposed temporary assignment.

(2) However, the council may approve the proposed temporary assignment only if—

- (a) the new employer is not a prohibited employer; and

Training and Employment Regulation 2000

- (b) the council reasonably believes the new employer is able to meet the training obligations under the training plan that the original employer was unable to meet.

(3) The council may approve the proposed temporary assignment subject to reasonable conditions.

(4) If the council decides to approve the proposed temporary assignment, the council must promptly give the parties and the new employer signed notice of its approval.

(5) The notice must state—

- (a) the duration of the temporary assignment; and
- (b) the day the temporary assignment starts; and
- (c) the conditions, if any, imposed by the council.

(6) The council must promptly give the parties and the new employer an information notice if the council decides—

- (a) to impose conditions on the temporary assignment; or
- (b) to refuse to approve the proposed temporary assignment.

Division 2—Training plans

17 Changing training plan for an apprentice or trainee

The parties to a training plan (“original training plan”) for an apprentice or trainee may change the plan only if—

- (a) all the parties agree to the change; and
- (b) the qualification or statement of attainment to be issued to the apprentice or trainee on completing the training under the changed plan is the same as would have been issued under the original training plan.²

² Section 97(1) of the Act states who are the parties to a training plan.

18 Signing changed training plan for apprentice or trainee

(1) When the parties to a training plan for an apprentice or trainee have agreed to change the training plan, they must sign the changed training plan.

(2) The supervising registered training organisation for the apprentice or trainee must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the parties sign the changed training plan within 14 days after the parties agree to the change.

Maximum penalty for subsection (2)—20 penalty units.

19 Copies of signed changed training plan for apprentice or trainee

The supervising registered training organisation for an apprentice or trainee must ensure that a copy of the signed changed training plan for the apprentice or trainee is given to the apprentice or trainee and the employer within 7 days after the parties sign it.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

Division 3—Training records20 Keeping training record

(1) Within 14 days after a training plan for an apprentice or trainee is signed by the parties to the training plan, the supervising registered training organisation must give the apprentice or trainee the appropriate training record to be kept for the apprenticeship or traineeship.³

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(2) The training record may be kept in any way the supervising registered training organisation considers appropriate.

(3) The training record is to be in the possession of the apprentice or trainee except when it is required to be produced to a person under the Act.

(4) The employer or the supervising registered training organisation may, by reasonable notice, require the apprentice or trainee to produce the training record to the employer or supervising registered training organisation—

³ Section 97(1) of the Act states who are the parties to a training plan.

- (a) for inspection; or
- (b) to enable the record to be kept as required by subsection (6)(b).

(5) The apprentice or trainee must not contravene the requirement, unless the apprentice or trainee has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(6) Where training is required to be delivered by the employer or the supervising registered training organisation, the employer or the supervising registered training organisation must, at reasonable intervals of not more than 3 months—

- (a) require the apprentice or trainee to produce the training record to have the particulars of the training completed by the apprentice or trainee during the interval entered in it; and
- (b) if the training record is produced—keep the record complete, accurate and up to date by entering the particulars in it.

Maximum penalty for subsection (6)—20 penalty units.

21 Falsifying training record

A person must not—

- (a) enter in a training record anything the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular; or
- (b) change or delete a particular entered in a training record or omit to enter a particular in a training record if the effect of the change, deletion or omission is to create a training record that is false or misleading in a material particular.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

22 Ombudsman may require production of training record

(1) The ombudsman may, by signed notice, require the apprentice or trainee to produce the training record to the ombudsman.

(2) The apprentice or trainee must not contravene the requirement, unless the apprentice or trainee has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

PART 4—FAIR PROCEDURES

23 Application

(1) This part applies if, under a relevant section of the Act, an administrator is required to exercise a power or perform a function by fair procedures.

(2) The administrator must exercise the power or perform the function in accordance with this part.

(3) Subsection (2) does not limit the way the administrator exercises the power or performs the function if the way is not inconsistent with this part.

24 Timeliness

The administrator must exercise the power or perform the function as quickly as possible.

25 Show cause notice

(1) The administrator must give the affected person for the relevant section a signed notice (“show cause notice”).

(2) The show cause notice must state the following—

- (a) the action (“proposed action”) the administrator proposes taking under the relevant section;
- (b) the grounds for the proposed action;
- (c) an outline of the facts and circumstances that are the basis of the grounds;
- (d) if the proposed action is suspension of a registered training contract—the proposed maximum suspension period;
- (e) an invitation to the affected person to show within a stated reasonable time (not less than 14 days after the notice is given to the affected person) why the proposed action should not be taken.

26 Representations about show cause notices

(1) The affected person for the relevant section may, in relation to the show cause notice—

- (a) make oral or written representations to the administrator; or
- (b) give the administrator any document or thing (“material”).

(2) The representations must be made, or the material given, to the administrator within the time stated in the notice.

(3) The administrator may permit the affected person to make oral representations by telephone, closed circuit television or another form of communication allowing reasonably contemporaneous and continuous communication between the affected person and the administrator.

27 Administrator may inform itself

The administrator may inform itself of any matter relevant to the exercise of the power or the performance of the function in the way it considers appropriate.

28 Administrator may ask for additional information

(1) The administrator may ask the affected person for the relevant section to give the administrator the additional documents or information it considers necessary to exercise the power or perform the function.

(2) The administrator must give the affected person a reasonable time to give the administrator the additional documents or information.

29 All representations and material to be considered

The administrator must, in exercising the power or performing the function, consider all representations made, or material given, to it by or on behalf of the affected person for the relevant section.

PART 5—VOCATIONAL PLACEMENT

30 Particulars for Act, s 117(3)

The particulars for section 117(3)⁴ of the Act are—

- (a) the name, address and telephone number of the placement person and the student; and
- (b) the training outcome; and
- (c) the start and end dates of the vocational placement.

PART 5A—TAFE INSTITUTE FEES

30A Time for payment of tuition fee or student services fee

A student must pay a tuition fee or student services fee when enrolling at a TAFE institute.⁵

30B When fee for ACE course is chargeable at an hourly rate

A fee for an ACE course is chargeable at an hourly rate only if an official TAFE institute publication states the fee is chargeable at an hourly rate.

30C Facilities fee for ACE courses

- (1) A student in an ACE course must pay a facilities fee for the course.
- (2) The amount of the fee—
 - (a) is worked out by dividing the cost of running the course by the number of students for the course stated in an official TAFE institute publication; and

4 Section 117 (Registration of vocational placement agreement for short placement) of the Act

5 This part contains provisions under which a student may not have to pay a tuition fee or student services fee or may be given time to pay a fee.

- (b) is the amount stated in an official TAFE institute publication as payable by each student in the course as the student's share of the cost of running the course.

(3) The cost of enrolment or tuition is not counted in working out the facilities fee.

(4) If the course is not an adult and community education course under the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cwlth), the cost of running the course may be increased to take account of GST payable for the supply of the course.

30D Government funded subjects for which there are no tuition or student services fees, and free tests

(1) There is no tuition fee or student services fee for the following government funded subjects or tests—

- (a) a subject for which the Commonwealth or the State requires there be no fee;
- (b) a subject for tutors undertaken by someone who has agreed to tutor at a TAFE institute free of charge;
- (c) a test, other than for a special entry apprentice, to decide placement in a literacy or numeracy program;
- (d) an extra learning support subject;
- (e) a subject undertaken at a TAFE institute as part of the student's secondary education.

(2) In this section—

“extra learning support subject” means a subject giving students greater learning support than is provided under normal learning circumstances.

30E Government funded subjects for which there are no tuition fees

There is no tuition fee for an adult literacy or numeracy program of study funded by the State.

30F Transition if a program is superseded by a replacement program

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) a student successfully completes subjects (“completed subjects”) in a program at a TAFE institute that is superseded by a replacement program; and
- (b) the subjects required to complete the superseded program are no longer offered by the TAFE institute; and
- (c) the completed subjects have no equivalent in the replacement program; and
- (d) the student enrolls in subjects in the replacement program.

(2) The tuition and student services fees for the subjects in the replacement program are reduced by the amount of the tuition and student services fees paid for the completed subjects.

30G Director may waive fees for professional development of TAFE institute staff

The director may waive payment of the tuition or student services fee for a subject taken by a student who is a staff member of the institute if the subject is—

- (a) approved by the director; and
- (b) taken for the staff member’s professional development.

30H Vocational placement hours—25% of fees payable for nominal vocational placement hours

(1) Only 25% of the tuition and student services fee is payable for the nominal vocational placement hours for a subject.

(2) In this section—

“nominal vocational placement hours”, for a subject, means the number of vocational placement hours for the subject stated in an official publication about the subject.

30I Fee adjustment for certain transfers and cancellations of enrolment in government funded subjects

(1) This section applies if a student enrolled in a government funded subject at a TAFE institute—

- (a) transfers the enrolment to substantially the same subject at another TAFE institute; or
- (b) cancels the enrolment and enrolls in another subject at the same institute no later than 2 weeks after the start of the cancelled subject.

(2) Any tuition or student services fee payable on the original or cancelled enrolment must be applied to reduce the total amount of tuition and student services fees payable on the later enrolment.

(3) Any balance of the tuition and student services fees paid on the original or cancelled enrolment must be refunded.

30J Fee exemption on grounds of extreme financial hardship

(1) The director may exempt a student from a tuition fee or student services fee.

(2) However, the director may grant the exemption only if the director is satisfied the student is suffering extreme financial hardship.

(3) The student must apply for the exemption in the approved form when enrolling.

30K Tuition fee exemptions for government funded subjects

(1) The director may exempt a student from 75% of the tuition fee for a government funded subject if—

- (a) the student has not completed year 12 and was or will be under 17 at the end of February in the year in which the subject is taken; or
- (b) for a subject in a program of study that includes category A areas of learning, or category B areas of learning, within the meaning of the Education (Queensland Studies Authority) Regulation 2002, or the subject is in a program of study that is considered by the director to be equivalent to year 11 or 12—the student was or will be under 18 at the end of February in the year in which the subject is taken; or

- (c) the student is an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander; or
- (d) the student—
 - (i) holds a health care card or pensioner concession card issued under Commonwealth law; or
 - (ii) is—
 - (A) the partner or a dependant of a person who holds a health care card or pensioner concession card; and
 - (B) named on the card; or
 - (iii) has a document issued in an official form under Commonwealth law confirming that the student, the student's partner or the person of whom the student is a dependant is entitled to concessions under a health care card or pensioner concession card.

(2) The student must apply for the exemption in the approved form when enrolling.

(3) Subsection (1)(d) does not apply if the student obtained a refund of fees for the subject.

(4) A student applying for exemption under subsection (1)(d) must also, when applying, produce—

- (a) the card or a copy of it certified to be a true copy by a justice or commissioner for declarations; or
- (b) the document mentioned in subsection (1)(d)(iii).

30L Half fee exemption for ACE courses for students entitled to concessions under Commonwealth law

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) a student holds a health care card issued under Commonwealth law; or
- (b) a student—
 - (i) holds a pensioner concession card issued under Commonwealth law; and

- (ii) is entitled to the maximum rate of pension; or
- (c) a student—
 - (i) is the partner or a dependant of a person who holds a health care card; and
 - (ii) is named on the card; or
- (d) a student—
 - (i) is the partner or a dependant of a person who—
 - (A) holds a pensioner concession card; and
 - (B) is entitled to the maximum rate of pension; and
 - (ii) is named on the card.

(2) This section also applies—

- (a) if a student has a document issued in an official form under Commonwealth law confirming that the student, the student's partner or the person of whom the student is a dependant is entitled to concessions under a health care card; or
- (b) if—
 - (i) a student has a document issued in an official form under Commonwealth law confirming that the student, the student's partner or the person of whom the student is a dependant is entitled to concessions under a pensioner concession card; and
 - (ii) the student, the student's partner or the person of whom the student is a dependant is entitled to the maximum rate of pension.

(3) If the tuition fee for an ACE course is chargeable at an hourly rate, the student may apply to the director for exemption from half of the tuition fee for the course.

(4) The student must when enrolling apply for the exemption in the approved form and produce—

- (a) the card or a copy of it certified to be a true copy by a justice or commissioner for declarations; or
- (b) the document mentioned in subsection (2).

(5) In this section—

“maximum rate of pension” means the maximum rate of pension payable under the Commonwealth law under which a pensioner concession card or document mentioned in this section is issued.

30M Allowing time to pay fees for government funded subjects

(1) A student may apply to the director for time to pay tuition fees or student services fees for a government funded subject if the total amount of tuition fees or student services fees payable when enrolling is more than $75.00.

(2) The student must apply in the approved form when enrolling.

(3) If the director allows the student time to pay the fees the director may enter into a written arrangement for payment of the fees.

(4) The student must pay the fees as required under the arrangement.

30N Refund if subject or course cancelled by director

If the director cancels a government funded subject or ACE course before it starts, the director must refund the fees paid for the subject or course.

30O Refund if enrolment cancelled before subject or course starts

(1) If a student cancels enrolment in a government funded subject or ACE course before it starts, the director must refund the fees the student paid for the subject or course after deducting—

(a) for an ACE course—the enrolment fee for the course; or

(b) for a government funded subject—an administration charge of $10.00 for all subjects cancelled at the same time.

(2) However, there is no refund for an ACE course unless the enrolment is cancelled no later than 2 days before the course starts.

(3) This section does not apply if a tuition or student services fee payable on the cancelled enrolment must be applied to reduce fees payable on a later enrolment.

30P Refund after government funded subject starts

(1) If any of the following things happen while a student is undertaking a government funded subject, the student may apply to the director for a refund of the fees for the subject—

- (a) the student accepts a place offered through the Queensland Tertiary Admissions Centre;
- (b) the student suffers an illness or injury preventing the student from completing the subject;
- (c) exceptional circumstances prevent the student from completing the subject.

(2) The student must apply in the approved form before the assessment for the subject ends.

(3) The director may refund the fees after deducting an administration charge of $10.00 for all subjects to which the application relates.

30Q Refund if academic exemption received

(1) If a student has received an academic exemption from a government funded subject since enrolling in it, the student may apply to the director for a refund of fees for the subject.

(2) The student must apply in the approved form within 5 weeks after the subject starts.

30R Refund if re-evaluation successful

The director must refund the fee for re-evaluation of a student's result in a government funded subject to the student if the student's result is upgraded to a result of competent or an equivalent result.

30S Refused applications for fee exemptions, refunds and time to pay

(1) If the director refuses a person's application for a fee exemption, refund or time to pay, the director must give the person written notice of the reasons for refusal.

(2) The person may, within 14 days after the written notice is given, apply to the director for a reconsideration of the refusal.

(3) The refusal must be reconsidered by an institute staff member more senior than the staff member who refused the original application.

30T Delegation of director’s powers

(1) A director may delegate the director’s powers under this regulation to an appropriately qualified member of the TAFE institute’s staff.

(2) In this section—

“appropriately qualified”, for a TAFE institute staff member to whom a power under this regulation may be delegated, includes having the qualifications, experience or standing appropriate to the exercise of the power.

Example of ‘standing’—

A staff member’s classification level in the public service.

30U Approval of forms

The chief executive may approve a form (an “approved form”) for use under this regulation.

PART 6—GENERAL

31 Fees

The fees payable under the Act are stated in schedule 1.

32 Prescribed persons for Act, s 257

The persons mentioned in schedule 2 are prescribed for section 257(1)⁶ of the Act.

6 Section 257 (Appointment) of the Act

33 Appointment of prescribed person as inspector

(1) This section applies if a person (“prescribed person”) is prescribed for section 257(1) of the Act.

(2) The chief executive may only appoint the prescribed person as an inspector to monitor or enforce compliance with the Act for a single matter stated in the instrument of appointment.

34 False or misleading statements to registered training organisation

In making oral or written representations to a registered training organisation under section 26,⁷ a person must not state anything to the organisation the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

35 False or misleading document to registered training organisation

(1) In giving a document to a registered training organisation under section 26, a person must not give the organisation a document containing information the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who when giving the document—

- (a) tells the organisation, to the best of the person’s ability, how it is false or misleading; and
- (b) if the person has, or can get, the correct information, gives the correct information to the organisation.

36 Offences about false or misleading statements or documents

For an offence against section 21, 34 or 35, it is enough to allege that the relevant statement or document was ‘false or misleading’ without specifying which.

⁷ Section 26 (Representations about show cause notices)

PART 7—REPEAL37 Repeal

(1) The Vocational Education, Training and Employment Regulation 1991 is repealed.

(2) This part expires on the date of the first reprint of this regulation produced under the Reprints Act 1992.⁸
