ADOPTION OF CHILDREN REGULATION 1999

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 5 July 2002]

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Adoption of Children Regulation 1999.

2 Dictionary

The dictionary in schedule 2 defines particular words used in this regulation.

PART 2—ELIGIBILITY TO BE NAMED IN ADOPTION LIST, EXPRESSION OF INTEREST REGISTER OR ASSESSMENT REGISTER

Division 1—Eligibility generally

3 Application of div 1

This division applies subject to division 2.

4 Special Needs Children's Adoption List

For section 13AA(4)(a)¹ of the Act, a person is ineligible to have the person's name entered in the Special Needs Children's Adoption List unless the person satisfies the following requirements—

- (a) the person must be resident or domiciled in Queensland;
- (b) the person must be an Australian citizen or married to an Australian citizen;
- (c) the person must not be suffering from a physical or mental condition, or have a physical or mental disability, to an extent that the person could not provide a high level of stable, long-term care for a child.

6 Relative Children's Adoption List

For section 13AA(4)(a) of the Act, a person is ineligible to have the person's name entered in the Relative Children's Adoption List unless the person satisfies the following requirements—

- (a) the person must be resident or domiciled in Queensland;
- (b) the person must be an Australian citizen or married to an Australian citizen;
- (c) the person must have been married for at least the past 2 years;
- (d) the person must have custody of the child in relation to whom the person has applied to become an adoptive parent.

7 Expression of interest register and assessment register—non-resident children

(1) Subsection (2) applies to a person whose name is entered in the expression of interest register and whose expression of interest relates to a non-resident child.

(2) For section 13AC(2)(a)² of the Act, the person is ineligible to have the person's name entered in the expression of interest register unless the person satisfies the following requirements—

¹ Section 13AA (Application for adoption of a special needs child or a child who is a relative) of the Act

Adoption of Children Regulation 1999

- (a) the person must be resident or domiciled in Queensland;
- (b) the person must be an Australian citizen or married to an Australian citizen;
- (c) the person must not be suffering from a physical or mental condition, or have a physical or mental disability, to an extent that the person could not provide a high level of stable, long-term care for a child;
- (d) the person must have been married for at least the past 2 years;
- (e) there must not be more than 4 children in the custody of the person, the person's spouse or both of them;
- (f) at the time the chief executive received the expression of interest—
 - (i) if neither the person nor the person's spouse is a previous adoptive parent—1 of them was less than 41 years and the other was less than 47 years;
 - (ii) if either the person or the person's spouse is a previous adoptive parent—1 of them was less than 43 years and the other was less than 47 years.

(3) Subsection (4) applies if—

- (a) a person has, in response to an invitation, expressed interest in being assessed as suitable to be a prospective adopter in relation to a non-resident child; and
- (b) the person's name is entered in the assessment register.

(4) For section 13E(2)(a)³ of the Act, the person is ineligible to have the person's name remain in the assessment register unless the person satisfies the requirements mentioned in subsection (2).

2 Section 13AC (Inclusion of person's name in expression of interest register) of the Act

3 Section 13E (Ineligibility after person's name entered in assessment register) of the Act

7A Expression of interest register and assessment register—certain other children

(1) Subsection (2) applies to a person whose name is entered in the expression of interest register and whose expression of interest relates to a child, other than—

- (a) a child of whom the person is a relative; or
- (b) a non-resident child; or
- (c) a special needs child.

(2) For section 13AC(2)(a) of the Act, the person is ineligible to have the person's name entered in the expression of interest register unless the person satisfies the following requirements—

- (a) the person must be resident or domiciled in Queensland;
- (b) the person must be an Australian citizen or married to an Australian citizen;
- (c) the person must not be suffering from a physical or mental condition, or have a physical or mental disability, to an extent that the person could not provide a high level of stable, long-term care for a child;
- (d) the person or the person's spouse must be infertile;
- (e) the person must have been married for at least the past 2 years;
- (f) there must not be more than 1 child in the custody of the person, the person's spouse or both of them;
- (g) at the time the chief executive received the expression of interest—
 - (i) if the person or the person's spouse has custody of a child—the person was less than 40 years; or
 - (ii) otherwise—the person was less than 36 years.

(3) Subsection (4) applies if—

- (a) a person has, in response to an invitation, expressed interest in being assessed as suitable to be a prospective adopter in relation to a child, other than—
 - (i) a child of whom the person is a relative; or
 - (ii) a non-resident child; or

(iii) a special needs child; and

(b) the person's name is entered in the assessment register.

(4) For section 13E(2)(a) of the Act, the person is ineligible to have the person's name remain in the assessment register unless the person satisfies the requirements mentioned in subsection (2).

Division 2—Eligibility in special circumstances

8 Eligibility of person habitually resident in a convention country

To be eligible to have the person's name entered in an adoption list or the expression of interest register, or remain in the assessment register, a person who is habitually resident in a convention country is not required to be resident or domiciled in Queensland.

9 Eligibility of person seeking adoption order under s 12(3) of the Act

(1) This section applies to a person seeking an adoption order mentioned in section 12(3)⁴ of the Act.

(2) If the person's name is entered in the Relative Children's Adoption List, the requirement mentioned in section 6(c) does not apply to the person.

(3) Subsections (5) and (6) apply if the person's name is entered in the expression of interest register and the person's expression of interest relates to a non-resident child.

(4) Subsections (5) and (6) also apply if—

(a) the person has, in response to an invitation, expressed interest in being assessed as suitable to be a prospective adopter in relation to a non-resident child; and

(b) the person's name is entered in the assessment register.

(5) The requirements mentioned in section 7(2)(d) to (f) do not apply to the person.

4 Section 12 (Persons in whose favour adoption orders may be made) of the Act

Adoption of Children Regulation 1999

(6) In addition to satisfying the requirements mentioned in section 7(2)(a) to (c), the person must satisfy each of the following requirements—

- (a) the person must not have more than 4 children in the person's custody;
- (b) if the person is not a previous adoptive parent—the person must have been less than 41 years at the time the chief executive received the person's expression of interest;
- (c) if the person is a previous adoptive parent—the person must have been less than 43 years at the time the chief executive received the person's expression of interest.

(7) Subsections (9) and (10) apply if the person's name is entered in the expression of interest register and the person's expression of interest relates to a child, other than—

- (a) a child of whom the person is a relative; or
- (b) a non-resident child; or
- (c) a special needs child.

(8) Subsections (9) and (10) also apply if—

- (a) the person has, in response to an invitation, expressed interest in being assessed as suitable to be a prospective adopter in relation to a child, other than—
 - (i) a child of whom the person is a relative; or
 - (ii) a non-resident child; or
 - (iii) a special needs child; and
- (b) the person's name is entered in the assessment register.

(9) The requirements mentioned in section 7A(2)(e) to (g) do not apply to the person.

(10) In addition to satisfying the other requirements mentioned in section 7A(2)(a) to (d), the person must satisfy each of the following requirements—

- (a) the person must not have more than 1 child in the person's custody;

- (b) if the person has custody of a child—the person must have been less than 40 years at the time the chief executive received the person’s expression of interest;
- (c) if the person does not have custody of a child—the person must have been less than 36 years at the time the chief executive received the person’s expression of interest.

PART 3—ASSESSMENT

10 Matters to have regard to for assessment—Act, s 13C(b)

This part sets out the matters to which the chief executive must have regard when making an assessment, under section 13B⁵ of the Act, about a person named in an adoption list or the expression of interest register.

11 Persons named in an adoption list or the expression of interest register—general matters

For a person named in an adoption list or the expression of interest register, the chief executive must have regard to the following matters—

- (a) if the person is married—the quality of the marriage, including its stability;
- (b) the person’s capacity to be an adoptive parent, including—
 - (i) the person’s emotional capacity and other personal qualities; and
 - (ii) the person’s financial stability and other financial capacity; and
 - (iii) the person’s capacity to ensure a child’s safety and wellbeing; and
 - (iv) any other matter relevant to the person’s capacity to provide for a child’s emotional, physical, educational, recreational and social needs;

5 Section 13B (Chief executive’s assessments) of the Act

- (c) the person's attitudes to, and understanding of—
 - (i) children and their physical and emotional development; and
 - (ii) the responsibilities and duties of parenthood; and
 - (iii) the issues relevant to adoptive parenting, including issues about informing a child of his or her adoption; and
 - (iv) the significance of an adopted child's natural parents and their families;
- (d) if the person's application to become an adoptive parent, or expression of interest, relates to a child of a particular indigenous, ethnic or cultural background—the person's ability and willingness to understand the child's background and to develop or maintain the child's indigenous, ethnic or cultural identity;
- (e) the extent of the person's participation in educational programs relevant to adoption, including any programs conducted by the chief executive.

13 Persons named in the Relative Children's Adoption List

For a person named in the Relative Children's Adoption List, the chief executive must have regard to the following matters relating to the child in relation to whom the person has applied to become an adoptive parent—

- (a) the nature of the person's relationship with the child;
- (b) the circumstances in which the person obtained custody of the child;
- (c) the likely effect on the child of separating the child from a parent, sibling or other person with whom the child is, or has been, living;
- (d) if there is a natural parent who does not have custody of the child—the parent's views on the making of an adoption order in favour of the person, so far as the chief executive is reasonably able to obtain those views.

14 Persons named in the expression of interest register

(1) This section applies to a person named in the expression of interest register.

(2) If the person's expression of interest relates to a non-resident child residing in a particular country, the chief executive must have regard to the following matters—

- (a) the person's understanding of, and interest in, the country and its culture;
- (b) if an adoptive child from the country were placed with the person, the person's ability and willingness—
 - (i) to continue to learn about the country and its culture; and
 - (ii) to help the child learn about the country and its culture.

(3) If the person's expression of interest relates to a child, other than a child of whom the person is a relative, or a non-resident or special needs child, the chief executive must have regard to the person's adjustment to, and acceptance of, the infertility of the person or the person's spouse.

(4) In having regard to the matters mentioned in subsection (3), the chief executive must have regard to whether the infertile person is pursuing fertility treatment.

PART 4—PROCEDURAL MATTERS

Division 1—Dealing with applications, expressions of interest and assessments

15 Application fee

(1) An application by a person to become an adoptive parent and to have the person's name entered in an adoption list must be accompanied by the relevant fee specified in schedule 1.

(2) However, the fee is not payable if the application is made by a person whose name is or, within 1 month before the date of the application, was included in a similar list kept by a person approved for the purposes of the law of another State or a Territory of the Commonwealth.

15A Fee for expression of interest

(1) An expression of interest made by a person in response to an invitation must be accompanied by the expression of interest fee.

(2) However, the fee is not payable if the expression of interest is made by a person whose name is or, within 1 month before the date of the expression of interest, was included in a register, similar to the expression of interest register, kept by a person approved for the purposes of the law of another State or a Territory of the Commonwealth.

16 Assessment fee

(1) A person named in an adoption list or the expression of interest register must pay, within the reasonable time required by the chief executive, the relevant fee specified in schedule 1 for an assessment under section 13B of the Act.

(2) The chief executive must not carry out the assessment before receiving the fee.

17 Provision of relevant documents or information

(1) A person who has applied to become an adoptive parent must give the chief executive, on request, any document or information the chief executive reasonably requires to—

- (a) consider the person's eligibility to have the person's name entered in an adoption list; or
- (b) make an assessment, under section 13B⁶ of the Act, about the person.

(2) A person who, in response to an invitation, has expressed interest in being assessed as suitable to be a prospective adopter must give the chief executive, on request, any document or information the chief executive reasonably requires to—

- (a) consider the person's eligibility to have the person's name entered in the expression of interest register; or
- (b) make an assessment, under section 13B of the Act, about the person; or

⁶ Section 13B (Chief executive's assessments) of the Act

- (c) consider the person's eligibility to have the person's name remain in the assessment register.

(3) The chief executive may, for example, ask the person for any of the following—

- (a) a copy of the person's birth certificate;
- (b) a deed poll or other evidence of a change of the person's name;
- (c) a copy of the person's marriage certificate;
- (d) a copy of a certificate evidencing the person's citizenship;
- (e) a document evidencing a decree of dissolution of a marriage of the person;
- (f) if the person has applied to become an adoptive parent in relation to a particular child—a document evidencing a parenting order under the Family Law Act 1975 (Cwlth) or a similar order relating to the child;
- (g) a medical report addressing the person's infertility or another matter concerning the person's physical or mental health;
- (h) a reference from a stated person or member of a stated class of persons.

18 Notice of change in circumstances

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) a person's name is entered in an adoption list; and
- (b) the person has given information to the chief executive about a matter; and
- (c) new information about the matter arises or there is a change in the information given; and
- (d) the new or changed information is relevant to—
 - (i) a decision about the person's eligibility to have the person's name entered in the relevant adoption list; or
 - (ii) an assessment, under section 13B of the Act, about the person.

(2) Also, this section applies if—

Adoption of Children Regulation 1999

- (a) a person's name is entered in the expression of interest register; and
- (b) the person has given information to the chief executive about a matter; and
- (c) new information about the matter arises or there is a change in the information given; and
- (d) the new or changed information is relevant to—
 - (i) a decision about the person's eligibility to have the person's name entered in the expression of interest register; or
 - (ii) an assessment, under section 13B of the Act, about the person.

(3) In addition, this section applies if—

- (a) a person's name is entered in the assessment register; and
- (b) the person has given information to the chief executive about a matter; and
- (c) new information about the matter arises or there is a change in the information given; and
- (d) the new or changed information is relevant to—
 - (i) a decision about the person's eligibility to have the person's name remain in the assessment register; or
 - (ii) an assessment, under section 14⁷ of the Act, about the person.

(4) The person must immediately give the new or changed information to the chief executive.

19 Address for notice of revocation of consent—Act, s 22(2)

The address prescribed for sending a notice to the chief executive under section 22(2) of the Act is GPO Box 806, Brisbane Q 4001.

⁷ Section 14 (Further assessment of prospective adopters) of the Act

Division 2—Removal from adoption list, expression of interest register or assessment register20 Withdrawal of application

(1) A person who has applied to become an adoptive parent may withdraw the application by written notice given to the chief executive.

(2) On receiving the notice, the chief executive must remove the person's name from the relevant adoption list.

20A Withdrawal of expression of interest

(1) A person named in the expression of interest register may withdraw the person's expression of interest by written notice given to the chief executive.

(2) On receiving the notice, the chief executive must remove the person's name from the expression of interest register.

20B Notice asking for removal from assessment register

(1) A person named in the assessment register may give the chief executive a written notice asking the chief executive to remove the person's name from the assessment register.

(2) On receiving the notice, the chief executive must remove the person's name from the assessment register.

21 Removal from Special Needs Children's Adoption List—Act, s 13B(9)

The time prescribed for section 13B(9) of the Act is 2 years from the time the person applied to the chief executive to become an adoptive parent.

22 Removal if chief executive satisfied person no longer wishes to become an adoptive parent

(1) The chief executive may remove a person's name from an adoption list, or the expression of interest register or assessment register, if the chief executive is reasonably satisfied the person no longer wishes to become an adoptive parent.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the chief executive may be reasonably satisfied that a person no longer wishes to become an adoptive parent if the chief executive—

- (a) sends a letter to the person, at the last address for the person known to the chief executive, asking the person to give the chief executive a written notice confirming that the person still wishes to become an adoptive parent; and
- (b) does not receive a reply from the person within 30 days after sending the letter; and
- (c) makes reasonable enquiries about the person's current address; and
- (d) if, on making the enquiries, the chief executive learns of a different address for the person—
 - (i) sends the letter mentioned in paragraph (a) to the address; and
 - (ii) does not receive a reply from the person within 30 days after sending the letter; and
- (e) sends another letter (the “final letter”) to the person, at the last address for the person known to the chief executive, stating that, if the person does not give the chief executive a written notice confirming that the person still wishes to become an adoptive parent, by a stated day not less than 30 days after the date of the letter, the chief executive will remove the person's name from the relevant adoption list or the expression of interest register or assessment register; and
- (f) does not receive a reply from the person to the final letter by the stated day.

23 Notice of removal of person's name from adoption list, expression of interest register or assessment register

(1) This section applies if the chief executive, under sections 20 to 20B or section 22, removes a person's name from an adoption list or the expression of interest register or assessment register.

(2) The chief executive must give the person a written notice of the removal.

(3) However, the chief executive is not required to give the person the notice if the chief executive can not find the person, after making reasonable inquiries.

Division 3—Recording of adoption orders and related matters

24 Registration of orders—Act, ss 54 and 57

(1) This section applies to the registrar general in complying with section 54(3)⁸ of the Act—

- (a) on receiving from the chief executive, under section 54(1) of the Act, a memorandum of an adoption order; or
- (b) on receiving from the registrar of the Supreme Court, under section 54(2) of the Act, a copy of an order for the discharge of an adoption order.

(2) Also, this section applies to the registrar general in complying with section 57⁹ of the Act on receiving—

- (a) a memorandum or copy of an adoption order; or
- (b) a memorandum or copy of an order discharging an adoption order; or
- (c) an original or copy of an order or record of adoption; or
- (d) an original or copy of a rescission of an adoption.

(3) The registrar general must make the entries in, alterations to, and notations on, the adopted children register and the register of births, and the indexes to those registers, that the registrar general considers appropriate to evidence the adoption, discharge or rescission.

(4) The registrar general must ensure the appropriate entries, alterations, and notations are also made for any relevant registers or indexes held by a district registrar.

8 Section 54 (Registration of orders) of the Act

9 Section 57 (Particulars of orders received from other States and countries) of the Act

Adoption of Children Regulation 1999

(5) On receiving a document mentioned in subsection (2)(a) or (c), the registrar general must also prepare a schedule, in the approved form, from the information contained in the document.

(6) If an adoption order is made under the Act in relation to a person born in a jurisdiction outside Queensland, the registrar general must give a copy of the order to the appropriate officer responsible for recording births in the jurisdiction.

(7) On receiving a document relating to an order for the discharge of an adoption order, the registrar general must give a copy of the document—

- (a) if the adoption order was made under the Act—to the chief executive; and
- (b) if the order relates to a person whose birth is registered in a jurisdiction outside Queensland—to the appropriate officer responsible for recording births in the jurisdiction.

(8) The registrar general is not required to comply with subsection (6) or (7)(b) to the extent compliance would be impracticable in all the circumstances.

25 Corrections of entries

(1) The registrar general or chief executive may make any necessary corrections to the recording of an adoption order, including by amending a document or making, amending or omitting an entry in an adoption register.

(2) If a correction is made under subsection (1), the registrar general must make any necessary correction to the register of births.

PART 5—APPLICATION FOR INFORMATION, CERTIFICATES ETC.

26 Application for identifying information

(1) An application for the disclosure of information under section 39B of the Act must be accompanied by the relevant fee specified in schedule 1.

(2) The chief executive must refund any fee paid by a person for the disclosure of information if the person is not entitled to have the chief executive disclose the information to the person under section 39B of the Act.

27 Searches and copies

(1) A person may make any of the following applications to the registrar general—

- (a) in relation to an adoption order, or a memorandum or copy of an adoption order, entered in the adopted children register—
 - (i) if there is a schedule to the order, memorandum or copy—an application for a certificate, in the approved form, containing the particulars stated in the schedule; or
 - (ii) otherwise—an application for a certificate, in the approved form, containing the particulars stated in the order, memorandum or copy;
- (b) in relation to the register kept by the registrar general titled ‘Record of Children whose Births have been registered in the State of Queensland and who have been transferred under Deed of Adoption’—an application for a certificate, in the approved form, containing the information about an adoption recorded in the register;
- (c) an application for the registrar general to search the adoption registers for information that would be contained in a certificate mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b);
- (d) an application for an extract from an entry in an adoption register, containing the particulars that, under the Registration Act, the extract is required to contain.

(2) The application must be accompanied by the relevant fee prescribed under the Registration Act.

(3) Section 22¹⁰ of the Registration Act applies to the application as if it were made under that Act.

10 Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages Act 1962, section 22 (Searches and copies)

(4) Subject to section 39C¹¹ of the Act, a person is not entitled to search, or to obtain a copy of, or extract from, an entry relating to an adopted person in the register of births, other than under an order of the Supreme Court.

(5) In this section—

“Registration Act” means the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages Act 1962.

PART 6—MISCELLANEOUS

28 Access to registers

The registrar general must ensure a person does not have access to a register kept under the Act unless the person is a public service employee, or other person, performing functions under or in relation to the administration of the Act.

29 Waiver of fees

(1) The chief executive may waive payment of a fee for a person if the chief executive is satisfied payment of the fee by the person would impose unjustifiable hardship on the person.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a fee payable under section 27.

30 Chief executive may approve forms

(1) The chief executive may approve forms for use under the Act.

(2) The prescribed form for a purpose under the Act is the form approved for the purpose by the chief executive.

11 Section 39C (Entitlement to certain records etc.) of the Act

PART 7—TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Division 1—Provision for expired regulation

31 Transitional—forms

A form approved by the chief executive for a purpose under section 6 of the expired regulation is taken to have been approved for the purpose under section 30.

Division 2—Provisions relating to Adoption of Children Amendment Act 2002

32 Definitions for div 2

In this division—

“commencement” means commencement of this section.

“Foreign Children’s Adoption List” means the Foreign Children’s Adoption List as it existed immediately before the commencement.

“General Children’s Adoption List” means the General Children’s Adoption List as it existed immediately before the commencement.

33 Eligibility for certain persons to be named in the expression of interest register

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) a person, before the commencement, made an application to become an adoptive parent and to have the person’s name entered in the General Children’s Adoption List or Foreign Children’s Adoption List; and
- (b) the person’s name has not been entered in the appropriate list before the commencement; and

(c) the application is to be dealt with under section 71(2)(b)¹² of the Act.

(2) Despite section 7(2)(f), 7A(2)(g) or 9(6)(b) or (c) or (10)(b) or (c),¹³ the requirement mentioned in the provision must have been satisfied at the time the chief executive received the application.

34 Eligibility and other requirements for certain persons transferred to the expression of interest register or assessment register

(1) This section applies if—

(a) immediately before the commencement, a person is named in the General Children's Adoption List or Foreign Children's Adoption List; and

(b) information about the person was transferred—

(i) under section 71(3) or (4) of the Act, to the expression of interest register; or

(ii) under section 71(5) of the Act, to the assessment register.

(2) The person is taken to have, in response to an invitation, expressed interest in being assessed as suitable to be a prospective adopter.

(3) Despite section 7(2)(f), 7A(2)(g) or 9(6)(b) or (c) or (10)(b) or (c), the requirement mentioned in the provision must have been satisfied at the time the chief executive received the application.

12 Section 71 (Transfer of names from the General Children's Adoption List or Foreign Children's Adoption List) of the Act
