Information about this reprint

This regulation is reprinted as at 1 November 2002. The reprint—

- shows the law as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before that day (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(c))
- incorporates all necessary consequential amendments, whether of punctuation, numbering or another kind (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(d)).

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes.

This page is specific to this reprint. See previous reprints for information about earlier changes made under the Reprints Act 1992. A table of earlier reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about—

- when provisions commenced
- editorial changes made in earlier reprints.

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, hard copy and electronic, are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If a hard copy reprint is dated earlier than an electronic version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown for an electronic version previously published, it merely means that the electronic version was published before the hard copy version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published electronic version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown on another hard copy reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

TRANSPORT OPERATIONS (ROAD USE MANAGEMENT—DRIVER LICENSING) REGULATION 1999

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 1 November 2002]

PART 1—INTRODUCTORY

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Transport Operations (Road Use Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999.

2 Commencement

This regulation commences on 1 December 1999.

3 Fees

The fees payable under this regulation are in schedule 1.

4 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 6 defines particular words used in this regulation.

PART 2—QUEENSLAND DRIVER LICENCE IS AUTHORITY TO DRIVE

5 Motorbike licences

(1) The holder of a class RE learner licence is authorised to learn to ride a class RE motorbike.

(2) The holder of a class RE P type or open licence is authorised to ride a class RE motorbike.

(3) The holder of a class RE provisional, probationary or open licence is authorised to learn to ride a class R motorbike, if the holder has held the licence for at least 1 year.

(3A) The holder of a class RE learner, provisional, probationary or open licence is authorised to learn to ride a class R motorbike if, while riding the motorbike, the person carries a certificate in the approved form stating the person has a special need for the licence.

(4) The holder of a class R P type or open licence is authorised to ride a class R motorbike.

(5) However, a holder who is authorised to learn to ride a motorbike under subsection (1), (3) or (3A) must not ride the motorbike on a road unless—

- (a) a passenger on the motorbike—
 - (i) holds an O type licence for the class of motorbike that the holder is riding; and
 - (ii) has held the licence for at least 1 year; or
- (b) the holder is driving under the direction of a person who—
 - (i) holds an O type licence for the class of motorbike that the holder is riding; and
 - (ii) has held the licence for at least 1 year.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(6) In this section—

“P type licence” includes a driver licence granted outside Queensland that corresponds to a P type licence.

6 Other types of licences

(1) The holder of a class C learner licence is authorised to learn to drive a class C vehicle.

(2) The holder of a class C P type or open licence is authorised—

- (a) to drive a class C vehicle; and
- (b) to learn to drive a class LR, MR, HR or UD vehicle.

(3) The holder of a class LR P type or open licence is authorised—

- (a) to drive a class LR vehicle; and
- (b) to learn to drive a class MR, HR or UD vehicle.

(4) The holder of a class MR P type or open licence is authorised—

- (a) to drive a class MR vehicle; and
- (b) to learn to drive a class HR, HC or UD vehicle.

(5) The holder of a class HR P type or open licence is authorised—

- (a) to drive a class HR vehicle; and
- (b) to learn to drive a class HC, MC or UD vehicle.

(5A) The holder of a class HC learner licence is authorised to learn to drive a class HC vehicle.

(6) The holder of a class HC P type or open licence is authorised—

- (a) to drive a class HC vehicle; and
- (b) to learn to drive a class MC or UD vehicle.

(7) The holder of a class MC P type or open licence is authorised—

- (a) to drive a class MC vehicle; and
- (b) to learn to drive a class UD vehicle.

(8) The holder of a class UD P type or open licence is authorised to drive a class UD vehicle.

(8A) If this section authorises the holder of a licence to drive a class of motor vehicle, the holder is authorised to learn to drive the class of vehicle with either an automatic or manual transmission or with a synchromesh gearbox.

*Transport Operations (Road Use
Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999*

(9) However, a holder who is authorised to learn to drive a vehicle under this section, section 35(10) or section 37B(2) must not drive the vehicle on a road unless—

- (a) for a vehicle with passenger seating capacity—
 - (i) a passenger sits next to the holder; and
 - (ii) the passenger holds an O type licence for the class of vehicle that the holder is driving, and has held the licence for at least 1 year; or
- (b) for a vehicle without passenger seating capacity—
 - (i) the holder is driving under the direction of a person who holds an O type licence for the class of vehicle that the holder is driving; and
 - (ii) the person has held the licence for at least 1 year.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

7 Licence must be valid

A reference in this part to a licence is a reference to a valid licence.

PART 3—ELIGIBILITY FOR QUEENSLAND DRIVER LICENCES

8 Minimum age

(1) A person is not eligible for a Queensland driver licence if the person is not at least—

- (a) for a learner licence—16 years and 6 months; or
- (b) for another type of licence—17 years.

(2) However, subsection (1) does not apply to the grant of a learner or provisional licence if the chief executive is satisfied the person has a special need for the licence.¹

9 Testing

(1) This section prescribes the tests that a person must pass to be eligible for a Queensland driver licence.

(2) The person must, if required by the chief executive to take an eyesight test, pass an eyesight test.

(3) The following persons must pass a road rules test—

- (a) an applicant for a learner licence;
- (b) an applicant for a provisional, probationary or open licence who holds a foreign driver licence;
- (c) an applicant for a provisional or probationary licence who holds a provisional or probationary licence of a different class;
- (d) an applicant for an open licence who holds an open licence of a different class.

(4) However, subsection (3) does not apply if the person, within 5 years before applying for the licence,—

- (a) passed a road rules test for the class of licence being applied for;
or
- (b) held an Australian driver licence for the class of licence applied for.

(5) The following persons must pass a practical driving test in the class of vehicle that is authorised to be driven under the licence—

- (a) an applicant for a class of provisional, probationary or open licence who holds a learner licence of that class;
- (b) an applicant for a provisional, probationary or open licence who holds a foreign driver licence;
- (c) an applicant for a provisional or probationary licence who holds a provisional or probationary licence of a different class;

¹ See section 14 (Special need—learner or provisional licence).

*Transport Operations (Road Use
Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999*

- (d) an applicant for an open licence who holds an open licence of a different class.

Example of subsection (5)(d)—

A person who holds an open class C licence who is applying for an open class LR licence must pass a practical driving test in a class LR type vehicle.

- (6) However, subsection (5) does not apply if—

- (a) for a class UD licence for a vehicle for which a WHS certificate is issued—the person holds the certificate; or

- (b) for a class MC licence—

- (i) the person has successfully completed a training course in driving a class MC vehicle approved by the chief executive; or

- (ii) the person produces a declaration, in the approved form, confirming the person's ability to drive a B-double or road train; or

- (c) for a class LR, MR or HR licence—the person is a police officer and the officer gives the chief executive a notice signed by the commissioner stating the officer has the ability to drive the class of vehicle that is authorised to be driven under the licence; or

- (d) for any licence—

- (i) the person has, at some time, passed a practical driving test to obtain an Australian driver licence for a class that corresponds to the class of licence applied for; and

- (ii) the person—

- (A) holds an Australian driver licence (other than a learner licence) for a class that corresponds to the class of licence applied for; or

- (B) has, within 5 years before applying for the licence, held an Australian driver licence or foreign driver licence (other than a learner licence) for a class that corresponds to the class of licence applied for.

- (7) However, subsection (5)(b) does not apply to a person if the person holds or has, within 5 years before applying for the licence, held—

- (a) a driver licence granted in New Zealand; or

*Transport Operations (Road Use
Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999*

- (b) for an application for a class RE, R or C licence—a driver licence, granted under the law of a country prescribed in schedule 4, that corresponds to a class RE, R or C licence.

9A Learner licence—class HC

A person is not eligible for a class HC learner licence unless—

- (a) the person—
- (i) is at least 17 years old; and
 - (ii) holds a class C provisional, probationary or open licence; and
- (b) the chief executive is satisfied the person has a special need for the licence.²

10 Provisional or probationary licences—class RE or C

(1) A person is not eligible for a class RE provisional or probationary licence unless—

- (a) the person—
- (i) holds a class RE learner licence; and
 - (ii) has held the licence for at least 6 months during the 2 years before applying for the licence; or
- (b) the person has, within 5 years before applying for the licence, held a class RE P type licence.

(2) A person is not eligible for a class C provisional or probationary licence unless—

- (a) the person—
- (i) holds a class C learner licence; and
 - (ii) has held the licence for at least 6 months during the 2 years before applying for the licence; or
- (b) the person has, within 5 years before applying for the licence, held a class C P type licence.

² See section 14AA (Special need—HC licence).

(3) However, this section does not apply if the chief executive is satisfied the person has a special need for the licence.³

(4) In this section—

“learner licence” includes a driver licence granted outside Queensland that corresponds to a learner licence.

“P type licence” includes a driver licence granted outside Queensland that corresponds to a P type licence.

10A Provisional or probationary licences—special need for class R

(1) This section applies to a person if the chief executive is satisfied, under section 14A,⁴ that the person has a special need for a class R licence.

(2) The person is not eligible for a class R provisional or probationary licence unless—

- (a) the person holds a class C, LR, MR, HR, HC or MC provisional or probationary licence and has held the licence for at least 3 years; and
- (b) the person—
 - (i) holds a class RE learner licence and has held the licence for at least 6 months during the 2 years before applying for the licence; or
 - (ii) holds a class RE provisional or probationary licence.

(3) In this section—

“learner licence” includes a driver licence granted outside Queensland that corresponds to a learner licence.

“provisional or probationary licence” includes a driver licence granted outside Queensland that corresponds to a provisional or probationary licence.

11 Open licences—class RE or C

(1) A person is not eligible for a class RE open licence unless—

³ See section 14 (Special need—learner or provisional licence).

⁴ Section 14A (Special need—class R licence)

*Transport Operations (Road Use
Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999*

- (a) the person—
 - (i) holds a class RE learner licence; and
 - (ii) has held a class RE learner licence for at least 6 months during the 2 years before applying for the licence; and
 - (iii) holds an O type licence of another class; or
 - (b) the person—
 - (i) holds a class RE P type licence; and
 - (ii) has held the licence for the required period; or
 - (c) the person has, within 5 years before applying for the licence, held a class RE O type licence that has not been cancelled; or
 - (d) the person—
 - (i) has, within 5 years before applying for the licence, held a class RE O type licence that has been cancelled; and
 - (ii) holds a class RE P type licence; and
 - (iii) has, since the cancellation of the O type licence, held a class RE P type licence for at least 1 year.
- (2) A person is not eligible for a class C open licence unless—
- (a) the person—
 - (i) holds a class C learner licence; and
 - (ii) has held a class C learner licence for at least 6 months during the 2 years before applying for the licence; and
 - (iii) holds a class RE or R O type licence; or
 - (b) the person—
 - (i) holds a class C P type licence; and
 - (ii) has held the licence for the required period; or
 - (c) the person has, within 5 years before applying for the licence, held a class C O type licence that has not been cancelled; or
 - (d) the person—
 - (i) has, within 5 years before applying for the licence, held a class C O type licence that has been cancelled; and
 - (ii) holds a class C P type licence; and

*Transport Operations (Road Use
Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999*

- (iii) has, since the cancellation of the O type licence, held a class C P type licence for at least 1 year; or
- (e) the person—
 - (i) has, within 5 years before applying for the licence, held a class C P type licence that has been cancelled; and
 - (ii) holds a class C P type licence; and
 - (iii) has held the P type licence for the greater period of—
 - (A) at least 1 year; or
 - (B) the balance of the required period that had not expired before the P type licence was cancelled.

(3) In this section—

“learner licence” includes a driver licence granted outside Queensland that corresponds to a learner licence.

“P type licence” includes a driver licence granted outside Queensland that corresponds to a P type licence.

“required period” means a period of at least—

- (a) if the applicant was issued with the P type licence when under 23 years—3 years; or
- (b) if the applicant was issued with the P type licence when at least 23 years but under 24 years—2 years; or
- (c) if the applicant was issued with the P type licence when at least 24 years—1 year.

11A Open licence—special need for class R

(1) This section applies to a person if the chief executive is satisfied, under section 14A,⁵ that the person has a special need for a class R licence.

(2) A person is not eligible for a class R open licence unless—

- (a) the person holds a class C, LR, MR, HR, HC or MC O type licence and has held the licence for at least 3 years; and
- (b) the person—

⁵ Section 14A (Special need—class R licence)

*Transport Operations (Road Use
Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999*

- (i) holds a class RE learner licence and has held the licence for at least 6 months during the 2 years before applying for the licence; or
- (ii) holds a class RE O type licence.

(3) In this section—

“learner licence” includes a learner licence granted outside Queensland that corresponds to a learner licence.

12 Upgrading licence class

(1) This section applies to a licence for a class other than class RE or C.

(2) A person is not eligible for the licence unless—

(a) for a class R licence—

- (i) the person holds a class RE licence; and
- (ii) the person has held the licence for at least 1 year; or

(b) for a class LR or MR licence—

- (i) the person holds a class C licence; and
- (ii) the person has held the licence for at least 1 year; or

(c) for a class HR licence—

- (i) the person—
 - (A) holds a class C licence; and
 - (B) has held the licence for at least 2 years; or
- (ii) the person—

- (A) holds a class LR or MR licence; and
- (B) has held the licence at least 1 year; or

(d) for a class HC licence—

- (i) the person—
 - (A) holds a class C licence; and
 - (B) has held the licence for at least 1 year; and
 - (C) has a special need for the HC licence; or

*Transport Operations (Road Use
Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999*

- (ii) the person—
 - (A) holds a class MR or HR licence; and
 - (B) has held the licence for at least 1 year; or
- (e) for a class MC licence—
 - (i) the person holds a class HR or HC licence; and
 - (ii) the person has held the licence for at least 1 year; or
- (f) for a class UD licence—the person holds a class C, LR, MR, HR, HC or MC licence.

(2A) However, subsection (2)(a) does not apply to a person if the chief executive is satisfied, under section 14A,⁶ that the person has a special need for a class R licence.

(3) In this section—

“licence” means—

- (a) a provisional, probationary or open licence; or
- (b) a driver licence granted outside Queensland that corresponds to a licence mentioned in paragraph (a).

13 Generally

(1) A person is not eligible for the grant or renewal of a Queensland driver licence if—

- (a) the person is prohibited from obtaining a licence under section 127(6) of the Act; or
- (b) the person does not reside in Queensland; or
- (c) the chief executive reasonably believes the person has a mental or physical incapacity that is likely to adversely affect the person’s ability to drive safely; or
- (d) the person is the holder of another driver licence, unless the person gives the chief executive—
 - (i) the driver licence; and

⁶ Section 14A (Special need—class R licence)

*Transport Operations (Road Use
Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999*

- (ii) a written notice of surrender of the driver licence addressed to the person who granted it; or
- (e) the authority to drive on a Queensland road under the person's non-Queensland driver licence is suspended under section 26(2);⁷ or
- (f) the person is not eligible to hold a Queensland driver licence under section 27 or 28.⁸

(2) For subsection (1)(c), the chief executive may require the person to give the chief executive a doctor's certificate, in the approved form, stating that the person does not have a mental or physical incapacity likely to affect that person's ability to drive safely.

(3) Subsection (1)(d) does not apply if the chief executive is satisfied it would be unreasonable for it to apply to the person.

Example of subsection (3)—

The chief executive may not require a person to surrender a foreign driver licence that forms part of the person's identity documents for the foreign country.

14 Special need—learner or provisional licence

(1) A person has a special need for a learner or provisional licence if—

- (a) the person needs to drive a motor vehicle—
 - (i) to, or from, the person's place of employment; or
 - (ii) in the course of the person's employment; or
 - (iii) to, or from, an educational institution that the person attends; or
 - (iv) to get medical treatment for the person or a member of the person's family; and
- (b) there is no other transport reasonably available to the person; and
- (c) a refusal to grant the licence would cause severe hardship.

(2) A person claiming a special need must apply to the chief executive in the approved form.

7 Section 26 (Non-Queensland driver licence holder)

8 Section 27 (Former driver licence holder) or 28 (Unlicensed person)

*Transport Operations (Road Use
Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999*

(3) The approved form must be accompanied by a signed statement supporting the application from—

- (a) for an application under subsection (1)(a)(i) or (ii)—the person’s employer; or
- (b) for an application under subsection (1)(a)(iii)—the person in charge of the educational institution; or
- (c) for an application under subsection (1)(a)(iv)—a doctor.

(4) In deciding whether to approve the application, the chief executive must consider—

- (a) the times of day when the person must travel; and
- (b) how often the person must travel; and
- (c) the distance the person must travel; and
- (d) the person’s traffic history.

14A Special need—class R licence

(1) A person has a special need for a class R licence if, because of a permanent incapacity, the person can not ride a 2 wheeled motorbike unless a sidecar is attached.

(2) A person claiming a special need must apply to the chief executive in the approved form.

(3) The approved form must be accompanied by a signed statement from a doctor that supports the person’s claim that, because of a permanent incapacity, the person can not ride a 2 wheeled motorbike unless a sidecar is attached.

(3A) The chief executive must not approve the application unless the person—

- (a) holds a class C, LR, MR, HR, HC or MC P or O type licence; and
- (b) has held the licence for at least 3 years.

(4) In deciding whether to approve the application, the chief executive must also consider the person’s traffic history.

(5) In this section—

“P type licence” includes a driver licence granted outside Queensland that corresponds to a P type licence.

14AA Special need—HC licence

(1) A person has a special need for a class HC licence if the person—

- (a) resides in a remote area; and
- (b) needs to drive a class HC vehicle in the course of the person’s employment; and
- (c) can not get a class LR or MR licence because the person does not have access to a type LR or MR vehicle to learn to drive that type of vehicle.

(2) A person claiming a special need must apply to the chief executive in the approved form.

(3) The approved form must be accompanied by a signed statement from the person’s employer that supports the person’s claim.

(4) In deciding whether to approve the application, the chief executive must consider the person’s traffic history.

(5) If the chief executive decides to approve the application, the chief executive must grant a class HC learner licence to the person.

(6) In this section—

“remote area” means the areas of the shires under the Local Government Act 1993 mentioned in schedule 5.

PART 3A—ALTERNATIVE ELIGIBILITY FOR MOTORBIKE LICENCES

14B Definitions for pt 3A

In this part—

“authorising licence” means—

- (a) a class C, LR, MR, HR, HC or MC provisional, probationary or open licence; or
- (b) a driver licence granted outside Queensland that corresponds to a licence mentioned in paragraph (a).

“competency declaration” means a valid competency declaration under the principal regulation.

“principal regulation” means the Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Regulation 1995.

“Q-Ride training” has the meaning given by the principal regulation.

“registered service provider” has the meaning given by the principal regulation.

“registered service provider standards” has the meaning given by the principal regulation

“verified receipt” means a receipt that—

- (a) is issued in writing by a registered service provider for payment for Q-Ride training; and
- (b) states the particulars required under the registered service provider standards for a receipt for Q-Ride training.

14C Object of pt 3A

The object of this part is to provide a person with an alternative to some of the eligibility requirements in parts 2 and 3 for obtaining a class RE or R licence.

14D Application

This part applies despite sections 5(1) and (3), 9(5), 10(1)(a), 11(1)(a) and 12(2)(a).

14E Licences authorising learning to ride under Q-Ride training

(1) The holder of a class RE learner licence who is undertaking Q-Ride training is authorised to learn to ride a class R motorbike for 6 months from the issue of a verified receipt for the holder if the holder—

- (a) carries the receipt; and
- (b) holds an authorising licence and has held the licence for at least 3 years.

*Transport Operations (Road Use
Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999*

(2) The holder of a declared class RE licence who is undertaking Q-Ride training is authorised to learn to ride a class R motorbike for 6 months from the issue of a verified receipt for the holder if the holder carries the receipt.

(3) However, a holder who is authorised to learn to ride a motorbike under subsection (1) or (2) must not ride the motorbike on a road unless—

- (a) a passenger on the motorbike—
 - (i) holds an O type licence for the class of motorbike that the holder is riding; and
 - (ii) has held the licence for at least 1 year; or
- (b) the holder is riding under the direction of a person who—
 - (i) holds an O type licence for the class of motorbike that the holder is riding; and
 - (ii) has held the licence for at least 1 year.

Maximum penalty for subsection (3)—20 penalty units.

(4) In this section—

“declared class RE licence” means a licence granted to a person by the chief executive because the person holds a competency declaration for a class RE motorbike.

14F Class RE provisional or probationary licences

A person is eligible for a class RE provisional or probationary licence if the person holds—

- (a) a competency declaration for a class RE motorbike; and
- (b) a class RE learner licence or a driver licence granted outside Queensland that corresponds to that licence.

14G Class RE open licences

A person is eligible for a class RE open licence if the person holds—

- (a) a competency declaration for a class RE motorbike; and
- (b) a class RE learner licence or a driver licence granted outside Queensland that corresponds to that licence; and
- (c) an O type licence of another class.

14H Class R provisional or probationary licences

A person is eligible for a class R provisional or probationary licence if the person holds—

- (a) a competency declaration for a class R motorbike; and
- (b) a class RE provisional or probationary licence or a driver licence granted outside Queensland that corresponds to either licence and has held the licence for at least 1 year.

14I Class R open licences

A person is eligible for a class R open licence if the person holds—

- (a) a competency declaration for a class R motorbike; and
- (b) either—
 - (i) a class RE O type licence and has held the licence for at least 1 year; or
 - (ii) an authorising licence and has held the licence for at least 3 years.

PART 4—GRANT OF QUEENSLAND DRIVER LICENCES

15 Applying for licences

(1) A person may apply to the chief executive, in the approved form, for the grant or renewal of a Queensland driver licence.

(2) The chief executive, by written notice, may request the applicant to give further information or documents relevant to the application.

(3) If the applicant does not comply with the request without reasonable excuse, the chief executive may refuse to consider the application.

16 Deciding applications for licence

(1) The chief executive must consider an application for a Queensland driver licence and either—

- (a) grant or renew the licence; or
- (b) refuse to grant or renew the licence.

(2) The chief executive must not grant or renew a licence if the applicant is not eligible for that type or class of licence.

(3) If the chief executive decides to grant or renew the licence, the chief executive must promptly give the applicant the licence.

(4) If the chief executive decides to refuse to grant or renew the licence, the chief executive must promptly give the applicant a written notice stating—

- (a) the decision; and
- (b) the reasons for the decision; and
- (c) that the applicant may contest the refusal by—
 - (i) applying under section 38 for reconsideration of the decision; or
 - (ii) appealing under section 131(1) of the Act.

(5) However, if the reason for the decision was that the applicant failed a road rules test or practical driving test, the chief executive may give an oral notice instead of a written notice unless the applicant asks for a written notice.

17 Duration of licences

The chief executive may—

- (a) grant a class HC learner licence for a period of up to 15 months; or
- (b) grant or renew another Queensland driver licence for a period of up to 10 years.

18 Conditions on licences

(1) The chief executive may grant a Queensland driver licence with stated conditions.

(2) The licensee must comply with a condition stated on the licence.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

18A Exception for licence granted to interstate licence holder

(1) This section applies if an applicant for a Queensland driver licence is the holder of a valid interstate licence, other than a defence force licence.

(2) If the chief executive decides to grant the Queensland driver licence, the chief executive may, at the choice of the applicant, grant the Queensland driver licence—

- (a) for the same period as the unexpired period of the interstate licence; or
- (b) for another period that includes the unexpired period.

(3) Despite section 3 and schedule 1—

- (a) if the licence is granted only for the same period as the unexpired period, no fee is payable for the licence; and
- (b) if the licence is granted for another period that includes the unexpired period, no fee is payable for the licence to the extent the licence is for the unexpired period.

PART 5—RESTRICTIONS ON DRIVING

19 L plates

A person must not drive, on a road, a motor vehicle displaying an L plate unless the person—

- (a) holds a learner licence; or
- (b) is a driver trainer.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

20 Passengers on motorbikes

(1) A person must not ride, on a road, a class RE motorbike with a passenger unless the person—

- (a) holds a class RE or R P type or open licence; and
- (b) has held the licence for at least 1 year.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(2) A person must not ride, on a road, a class R motorbike with a passenger unless the person—

- (a) holds a class R P type or open licence; and
- (b) has held the licence for at least 1 year.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(3) This section does not prevent a person riding a motorbike with a passenger on a road if the person is learning to ride and riding as required by section 5(5) or 14E(3).⁹

21 Towing vehicles

(1) A person must not occupy the driver's position of a class of motor vehicle being towed on a road by another vehicle unless the person holds a P type or open licence for that class of vehicle.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(2) A person must not drive a motor vehicle towing a motor vehicle unless another person holding a P type or open licence authorising the other person to drive the towed vehicle is in control of the towed vehicle for the purposes of the towing.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

22 Licence holder 75 years or older

(1) The holder of a Queensland driver licence who is 75 years or older must not drive a motor vehicle, on a road, unless the holder is—

⁹ Section 5 (Motorbike licences) or 14E (Licences authorising learning to ride under Q-Ride training)

*Transport Operations (Road Use
Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999*

- (a) carrying a current medical certificate in the approved form; and
- (b) driving the vehicle in accordance with the certificate.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(2) Despite subsection (1)(a), if the holder is required by an authorised officer to produce the medical certificate, the holder does not commit an offence if the holder—

- (a) holds the certificate at the time that the requirement is made; and
- (b) produces the certificate to a person reasonably nominated by the authorised officer within 48 hours.

PART 6—DEMERIT POINTS

23 Allocation of demerit points

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) a person has been convicted for a contravention of—
 - (i) a demerit points offence; or
 - (ii) an interstate offence; or
- (b) an order has been made against a person under—
 - (i) the State Penalties Enforcement Act 1999, section 38¹⁰ for a demerit points offence; or
 - (ii) a corresponding law for a interstate offence.

(2) The chief executive may record on the person's traffic history—

- (a) particulars of the offence; and
- (b) the penalty imposed on the person; and
- (c) the number of demerit points allocated for the offence; and
- (d) the date the offence was committed.

10 State Penalties Enforcement Act 1999, section 38 (Issue of enforcement order)

(3) The number of demerit points to be allocated is the number of points mentioned in schedule 3 for—

- (a) if the offence is a demerit points offence—the offence; or
- (b) if the offence is an interstate offence—the offence that corresponds to the interstate offence.

(4) The demerit points are taken to be allocated on the day the offence was committed.

(5) To remove doubt, the Criminal Code, section 16,¹¹ applies to this part.

(6) In this section—

“demerit points offence” means an offence, other than an offence committed by a person while riding a bicycle, tricycle or power-assisted cycle, against a provision mentioned in schedule 3.

“interstate offence” means an offence under a corresponding law that corresponds to a demerit points offence.

24 Effect of suspension

If a person is required to hold a class or type of driver licence (other than a restricted licence) for a period, and the person’s licence is suspended, the period is extended by the length of the period for which the licence is suspended.

25 Queensland driver licence holder

(1) This section applies—

- (a) if—
 - (i) 4 or more demerit points are recorded on a person’s traffic history; and
 - (ii) the demerit points were allocated in a continuous 1 year period while the person did not hold a driver licence; and
 - (iii) the person holds a Queensland driver licence; or
- (b) if—

¹¹ Criminal Code, section 16 (Person not to be twice punished for same offence)

*Transport Operations (Road Use
Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999*

- (i) 4 or more demerit points are recorded on a person's traffic history; and
- (ii) the demerit points were allocated in a continuous 1 year period; and
- (iii) during any part of the period the person held a learner or P type licence, or a driver licence granted outside Queensland that corresponds to a learner or P type licence, but did not hold an O type licence of another class; and
- (iv) the person holds a Queensland driver licence; or
- (c) if—
 - (i) 12 or more demerit points are recorded on a person's traffic history; and
 - (ii) the demerit points were allocated in a continuous 3 year period, and during any part of the period the person held a Queensland driver licence; and
 - (iii) the person holds an open licence.

(2) The chief executive must, by written notice (a “notice to choose”) require the person, within a specified time of at least 21 days, to choose between—

- (a) having the person's licence suspended for the requisite suspension period; or
- (b) agreeing to be of good behaviour while driving for a year.

(3) A person is of good behaviour while driving for a year, if no more than 1 demerit point is allocated to the person's traffic history during the year.

(4) If, within the specified time, the person—

- (a) notifies the chief executive that the person chooses for subsection (2)(a) to apply; or
- (b) does not notify the chief executive of the person's choice under subsection (2)(a) or (b);

the person's licence is suspended¹² for the requisite suspension period starting on the sanction date.

¹² See section 127(4) of the Act for the effect of a suspension of licence.

*Transport Operations (Road Use
Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999*

(5) If—

- (a) within the specified time, the person notifies the chief executive that the person chooses for subsection (2)(b) to apply; and
- (b) 2 or more demerit points are allocated to the person's traffic history during the year starting on the sanction date;

the chief executive must, by written notice, inform the person that the person's licence is suspended for double the requisite suspension period starting on the day after the date stated in the notice.

(6) The date stated must not be less than 21 days after the date of the notice.

(7) The notice must also inform the person that the person may appeal against the suspension under section 29.¹³

(8) The person's licence is suspended for double the requisite suspension period starting on—

- (a) the day after the date stated in the notice; or
- (b) if the person notifies the chief executive that the person wants the suspension to start earlier than the date stated in the notice—the day, not before the date on which the person gives the notice to the chief executive, chosen by the person.

26 Non-Queensland driver licence holder

(1) This section applies—

- (a) if—
 - (i) 4 or more demerit points are recorded on a person's traffic history; and
 - (ii) the demerit points were allocated in a continuous 1 year period while the person did not hold a driver licence; and
 - (iii) the person holds a non-Queensland driver licence; or
- (b) if—
 - (i) 4 or more demerit points are recorded on a person's traffic history; and

¹³ Section 29 (Appeal against suspension for double the requisite period)

*Transport Operations (Road Use
Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999*

- (ii) the demerit points were allocated in a continuous 1 year period, and during any part of the period the person held a learner or P type licence, but did not hold an O type licence of another class; and
 - (iii) the person holds a non-Queensland driver licence; or
- (c) if—
- (i) 12 or more demerit points are recorded on a person’s traffic history; and
 - (ii) the demerit points were allocated in a continuous 3 year period, and during any part of the period the person held a driver licence; and
 - (iii) the person holds a driver licence granted outside Queensland that corresponds to a open licence.

(2) The chief executive must, by written notice, inform the person that the authority to drive on a Queensland road under the person’s non-Queensland driver licence is suspended for the requisite suspension period starting on the day after the date stated in the notice.

(3) The date stated must not be less than 21 days after the date of the notice.

(4) In this section—

“learner licence” includes a driver licence granted outside Queensland that corresponds to a learner licence.

“P type licence” includes a driver licence granted outside Queensland that corresponds to a P type licence.

27 Former driver licence holder

(1) This section applies to a person if section 25 or 26¹⁴ would apply to the person except that the person is unlicensed because, since the allocation of demerit points—

- (a) the person’s driver licence has expired; or
- (b) the person’s driver licence has been surrendered; or

14 Section 25 (Queensland driver licence holder) or 26 (Non-Queensland driver licence holder)

*Transport Operations (Road Use
Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999*

- (c) the authority to drive on a Queensland road under the person's non-Queensland driver licence has been withdrawn under section 35(5).¹⁵
- (2) The chief executive must, by written notice, inform the person that—
- (a) the person is not eligible to hold a Queensland driver licence for the requisite suspension period starting on the day after the date stated in the notice; and
 - (b) any non-Queensland driver licence held by the person does not authorise the person to drive on a Queensland road during the requisite suspension period starting on the day after the date stated in the notice.
- (3) The date stated must not be less than 21 days after the date of the notice.

28 Unlicensed person

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) 4 or more demerit points are recorded on a person's traffic history; and
 - (b) the demerit points were allocated in a continuous 1 year period while the person did not hold a driver licence; and
 - (c) the person does not hold a driver licence.
- (2) The chief executive must, by written notice, inform the person that the person is not eligible to hold a Queensland driver licence for 3 months starting on the date stated in the notice.
- (3) The date stated must not be less than 14 days after the date of the notice.

29 Appeal against suspension for double the requisite period

- (1) This section applies if a person's Queensland driver licence is suspended for double the requisite suspension period under section 25(5).¹⁶

15 Section 35 (Non-Queensland driver licence)

16 Section 25 (Queensland driver licence holder)

*Transport Operations (Road Use
Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999*

(2) The person may appeal against the suspension only on the grounds that the suspension would cause extreme hardship to the person, or the person's family, by depriving the person of the means of earning a living.

(3) The person may appeal by—

- (a) lodging a notice of appeal in the approved form, with the Magistrates Court in the district where the person resides, within 21 clear days after the date the licence is suspended; and
- (b) serving a copy of the notice on the chief executive.

(4) On lodging the appeal with the court, the suspension is stayed until the court decides the appeal.

(5) The court may dismiss an appeal if, considering the person's traffic history, the court considers it would be inappropriate to allow the appeal.

(6) The chief executive may give the court information from the person's traffic history.

(7) If the court dismisses an appeal, the person's licence is suspended from the date of the court's decision for that part of the suspension period that had not been served before the appeal was lodged.

(8) Despite the Justices Act 1886, the court's decision is final and can not be appealed against.

(9) The clerk of the court must give the chief executive a copy of the order setting out the court's decision.

PART 7—AMENDING, SURRENDERING, SUSPENDING OR CANCELLING LICENCES

31 Surrendering licence

(1) The holder of a Queensland driver licence may surrender the licence by written notice to the chief executive.

(2) If the licence is in the holder's possession, it must be forwarded to the chief executive with the written notice.

32 Grounds for amending, suspending or cancelling licences

Each of the following is a ground for amending, suspending or cancelling a Queensland driver licence—

- (a) the licensee has a mental or physical incapacity that is likely to adversely affect the licensee's ability to drive safely;
- (b) the licence was obtained on the basis of false or misleading information;
- (c) the licensee has contravened a condition of the licence;
- (d) the licensee has been disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver licence in another State or another country;
- (e) the licensee has obtained a non-Queensland driver licence;
- (f) for a class HC learner licence—the person no longer has a special need for a class HC licence;
- (g) the person no longer resides in Queensland.

33 Procedure for amending, suspending or cancelling licences

(1) If the chief executive considers that reasonable grounds exist to amend, suspend or cancel a person's Queensland driver licence (the "proposed action"), the chief executive must give the person a written notice that—

- (a) states the proposed action; and
- (b) states the grounds for the proposed action; and
- (c) outlines the facts and circumstances forming the basis for the grounds; and
- (d) if the proposed action is to amend a condition of the licence—stating the proposed amendment; and
- (e) if the proposed action is to suspend the licence—states the proposed suspension period; and
- (f) invites the person to show cause, within a specified time, why the proposed action should not be taken.

(2) The time specified in subsection (1)(f) must be—

- (a) for a ground mentioned in section 32(a)—at least 48 hours; or

*Transport Operations (Road Use
Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999*

(b) otherwise—at least 28 days.

(3) The chief executive may, before or after the end of the specified time, extend the time within which the person may show cause.

(4) If, after considering any personal or written representations made within the time specified or allowed, the chief executive still considers grounds exist to take the proposed action, the chief executive may—

- (a) if the proposed action was to amend the licence—
 - (i) amend the licence in the way mentioned in the notice; or
 - (ii) amend the licence in another way, having regard to the representations; or
- (b) if the proposed action was to suspend the licence—suspend the licence for a period not longer than the period stated in the notice; or
- (c) if the proposed action was to cancel the licence—
 - (i) suspend the licence for a period; or
 - (ii) cancel the licence.

(5) The chief executive must inform the person of the decision by written notice.

(6) If the chief executive decides to amend, suspend or cancel the licence, the notice must state—

- (a) the reasons for the decision; and
- (b) that the person may contest the decision by—
 - (i) applying under section 38 for reconsideration of the decision; or
 - (ii) appealing under section 131(1)¹⁷ of the Act.

(7) Except for a ground mentioned in section 32(b), the decision takes effect on the later of the following¹⁸—

- (a) the day the notice is given to the person;

17 Section 131 (Appeals with respect to issue of licences etc.) of the Act

18 Section 126(2) (Fraud and unlawful possession of licences) of the Act applies for a ground mentioned in section 32(b).

*Transport Operations (Road Use
Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999*

(b) a later day specified in the notice.

(8) Subsections (1) to (6) do not apply if the chief executive proposes to amend the licence only—

(a) by omitting a condition; or

(b) for a formal or clerical reason; or

(c) in another way that does not adversely affect the person's interests.

(9) The chief executive may amend a licence under subsection (8) by written notice given to the person.

(10) In this section—

“amend” a licence includes impose conditions on the licence that was unconditional before amendment.

34 Return of licence for amendment

(1) The chief executive may, by written notice, require the holder of a Queensland driver licence to return the licence, in a stated way and within a stated time of at least 14 days, to enable the conditions stated on the licence to be altered.

(2) The person must comply with the notice, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(3) The chief executive must return the amended licence to the person once the conditions stated on the licence have been altered.

(4) The conditions as amended take effect from the appropriate day under section 33(9), even if the person does not return the licence for alteration.

PART 8—RECOGNITION OF OTHER DRIVER LICENCES

35 Non-Queensland driver licence

(1) A valid non-Queensland driver licence authorises the holder to drive, on a Queensland road, a class of motor vehicle that the holder is authorised to drive under the licence.

(2) The holder of a non-Queensland driver licence must comply with a condition of the licence.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(3) The chief executive may, by written notice to the holder of a non-Queensland driver licence, withdraw the authority if the chief executive reasonably believes the holder has a mental or physical incapacity that is likely to adversely affect the holder's ability to drive safely.

(4) The notice must also—

- (a) outline the facts and circumstances forming the basis for the chief executive's belief; and
- (b) state the date, that is at least 14 days after the date of the notice, from which the authority is withdrawn.

(5) If the holder takes up residence in Queensland, the authority is withdrawn—

- (a) for an interstate licence—3 months after the holder takes up residence; or
- (b) for a foreign licence—
 - (i) if the holder is an Australian citizen—3 months after the holder takes up residence; or
 - (ii) if the holder is not an Australian citizen but has a resident visa before taking up residence—3 months after the holder takes up residence; or
 - (iii) if the holder is not an Australian citizen but gets a resident visa after taking up residence—3 months after the holder gets the visa.

*Transport Operations (Road Use
Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999*

(6) Subsection (5)(a) does not apply to a defence force member, or an eligible family member of the member, who carries a defence force identification while driving.

(7) Also, the authority is withdrawn when the holder is granted a Queensland driver licence.

(8) Despite subsections (5) and (7), a valid non-Queensland driver licence, granted for a class of motor vehicle, authorises the holder to take a practical driving test in a corresponding class of motor vehicle.

(9) A person who holds or has, within the last 5 years, held a non-Queensland driver licence, granted for a class of motor vehicle, is eligible for a learner licence for a corresponding class of motor vehicle.

(10) If the holder is granted a learner licence for the corresponding class of motor vehicle, the holder is authorised to learn to drive the corresponding class of motor vehicle.

(11) In this section—

“resident visa” means a permanent visa, or a special category visa, under the Migration Act 1958 (Cwlth).

36 Defence force licence

(1) A valid defence force licence authorises the holder to drive, on a road, a class of defence force vehicle that the holder is authorised to drive under the licence in the performance of the holder’s functions.

(2) In this section—

“defence force vehicle” means a motor vehicle owned by, or appropriated to the use of, the Australian Defence Force.

37 Power to require document to be produced

(1) An authorised officer may require a person to produce a non-Queensland driver licence, defence force licence or defence force identification for inspection.

(2) The person must comply with the requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

PART 9—GENERAL

37A Retesting—medical fitness

(1) This section applies if the chief executive receives information from a health professional mentioned in section 142 of the Act that indicates—

- (a) the applicant for, or holder of, a Queensland driver licence has a mental or physical incapacity; and
- (b) the incapacity is likely to adversely affect the person's ability to drive safely.

Example—

The chief executive may receive information from a person's doctor that the person has a physical incapacity that affects the person's balance, which the doctor considers may affect the person's ability to safely ride a motorbike.

(2) The chief executive may, by written notice, require the person to take a practical driving test in a class of vehicle that is authorised to be driven under the licence.

(3) The notice must state—

- (a) the reasons why the person is required to take a practical driving test; and
- (b) the class of vehicle for which the test is to be undertaken; and
- (c) the date and time for the test, that is at least 7 days after the date of the notice; and
- (d) the place where the test is to be taken.

(4) No fee is payable for the test.

37B Retesting—Act, s 128

(1) If, under section 128¹⁹ of the Act, a person is required by a superintendent to take a practical driving test in a class of motor vehicle, the person is eligible for a learner licence of that class.

¹⁹ Section 128 (Effect of disqualification on subsequent issue of Queensland driver licence) of the Act

(2) If the person is granted a learner licence of that class, the person is authorised to learn to drive the class of motor vehicle.

38 Reconsideration of decision by chief executive

(1) This section applies if the chief executive—

- (a) has refused to grant a person—
 - (i) a Queensland driver licence; or
 - (ii) a particular class or type of Queensland driver licence; or
- (b) has refused to renew a person's licence; or
- (c) has amended, suspended or cancelled a person's licence under section 33; or
- (d) has withdrawn a person's authority to drive in Queensland under section 35(3); or
- (e) has, under section 37A, required a person to take a practical driving test at a particular time and place.

(2) The person may apply, in the approved form, to the chief executive to reconsider the chief executive's decision.

(3) The application must be made—

- (a) for a decision mentioned in subsection (1)(a) to (d)—within 28 days after—
 - (i) the day the notice of the chief executive's decision is given to the person; or
 - (ii) if the applicant is given oral notice of the decision and asks for written notice—the day the written notice is given to the applicant; or
- (b) for a decision mentioned in subsection (1)(e)—within 7 days after the date of the notice.

(4) After reconsidering the decision, the chief executive may—

- (a) confirm the decision; or
- (b) set aside the decision and substitute another decision.

(5) The chief executive must promptly give the person written notice of the decision.

(6) The notice must state that, if the person is dissatisfied with the decision, the person may appeal against the decision under section 131(1)²⁰ of the Act.

(7) However, subsection (6) does not apply to a decision mentioned in subsection (1)(d).

39 Change of name or address

(1) If the holder of a Queensland driver licence changes the holder's name or address, the holder must notify the chief executive of the change within 14 days of the change.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(2) If the chief executive is satisfied the information given by the holder is correct, the chief executive must issue—

- (a) for a change of name—a replacement licence with the holder's new name; or
- (b) for a change of address—a change of address label.

(3) On receipt of a change of address label, the holder must immediately attach the label to the back of the licence, in the space provided.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

40 Replacement licences

(1) If a Queensland driver licence is lost, stolen or destroyed, the licensee must apply to the chief executive as soon as practicable, in the approved form, for a replacement licence.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(2) If a licence that has been replaced later comes into the licensee's possession, the licensee must return it to the chief executive.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

²⁰ Section 131 (Appeals with respect to issue of licences etc.) of the Act

41 Defacing or destroying licences

A person must not wilfully deface or destroy a Queensland driver licence.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

42 Seizing licences

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) a person produces an invalid Queensland driver licence to an authorised officer under section 49²¹ of the Act; or
- (b) an authorised officer finds an invalid Queensland driver licence.

(2) The authorised officer may seize the licence.

43 Codes on Queensland driver licences

(1) A licence class, condition or type may be stated on a Queensland driver licence by a code.

(2) A code stated on a Queensland driver licence granted after 30 November 1999 indicates the corresponding driver licence type, class or condition appearing in schedule 2, part 1.

(3) A code in schedule 2, part 2, column 2 stated on a Queensland driver licence granted before 1 December 1999 but after 8 April 1996 is taken to be the corresponding code in column 1.

(4) A code in schedule 2, part 2, column 3 stated on a Queensland driver licence granted before 9 April 1996 but after 30 June 1991 is taken to be the corresponding code in column 1.

(5) A code in schedule 2, part 2, column 4 stated on a Queensland driver licence granted before 1 July 1991 is taken to be the corresponding code in column 1.

(6) A receipt issued after 30 June 1991 but before 9 April 1996 is taken to be—

21 Section 49 (Power to require documents to be produced) of the Act

- (a) if issued for a class RP licence—an order under section 87 or 88²² of the Act; or
- (b) if about a vehicle modification—a vehicle modification notice.

44 Licence labels

A label issued by the chief executive for attachment to a Queensland driver licence forms part of the licence for which it was issued.

45 Application for restricted licence—Act, s 81

An application under section 81²³ of the Act must be in the approved form.

PART 10—TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

46 Application of pt 6

Part 6 applies in relation to demerit points allocated before or after the commencement of the part.

47 2 point provisional licences

(1) This section applies to a person—

- (a) if, immediately before the commencement of this section, the person's licence could have been cancelled under the repealed section 26; or
- (b) if—
 - (i) on the commencement of this section, the person held a provisional licence granted under the repealed section 25; and

22 Section 87 (Issue of restricted licence to disqualified person) or 88 (Variation of conditions) of the Act

23 Section 81 (Notices to offenders for certain first offences) of the Act

*Transport Operations (Road Use
Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999*

- (ii) 2 or more demerit points are recorded on the person's traffic history; and
- (iii) the demerit points are allocated in a continuous 1 year period, and during any part of the year the person held the provisional licence; and
- (iv) the person holds a type of Queensland driver licence.

(2) The chief executive must inform the person by written notice that, subject to subsection (5)(b), the person's licence is suspended for 6 months starting on the day after the date stated in the notice.

(3) The date stated must not be less than 21 days after the date of the notice.

(4) The notice must also inform the person that the person may appeal against the suspension under section 29.²⁴

(5) The person's licence is suspended for 6 months starting on—

- (a) the day after the date stated in the notice; or
- (b) if the person notifies the chief executive that the person wants the suspension to start earlier than the date stated in the notice—the day, not before the date on which the person gives the notice to the chief executive, chosen by the person.

(6) In this section—

“repealed section 25” means section 25 as in force immediately before the commencement of this section.

“repealed section 26” means section 26 as in force immediately before the commencement of this section.

48 Undecided appeals against cancellation

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) a person has, before the commencement of this section, lodged a notice of appeal under the repealed section 29 against the cancellation of the person's driver licence; and
- (b) the appeal has not been decided before the commencement.

²⁴ Section 29 (Appeal against suspension for double the requisite period)

*Transport Operations (Road Use
Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999*

(2) The court must decide the appeal, under section 29, as if—

- (a) the cancellation of the licence was a suspension of the licence; and
- (b) the suspension was for the period for which the person, because of the cancellation, was disqualified from holding or obtaining a licence.

(3) In this section—

“repealed section 29” means section 29 as in force immediately before the commencement of this section.
