(4) An alternative association member attending a meeting has the same rights and duties as the president.

(5) An official member is not eligible to be an elected or appointed member, and an elected or appointed member is not eligible for appointment by an association's president as an alternative association member.

(6) The elected parent members of a school's council must be elected—

(3) Despite section 54(4), if an alternative association member is attending a council meeting in place of the president of an association who is also the chairperson of the council, the alternative association member may not preside at the meeting, unless the alternative association member is chosen to preside under section 64(2).⁴

(4) The chairperson holds office for the term decided by the council (the “chairperson’s term”) unless the person’s term of office as a member of the council ends sooner than the chairperson’s term.

56 Terms of office for elected and appointed members

(1) Each elected or appointed member holds office for the term, not longer than 2 years, provided in the council’s constitution.

(2) However, subject to section 54(2), the council’s constitution may provide for up to one-half of the first elected members (or, if one-half of the number of the first elected members is not a whole number, the next highest whole number) to hold office for a term of not longer than 3 years.

(3) A member elected or appointed to fill a casual vacancy in the office of an elected or appointed member—

(a) must be the same type of member under section 54 as the vacating member; and

- (a) the day the vacancy is filled;
- (b) the expiry of 3 months after the day the vacancy arose.

57 Ineligibility on conviction of indictable offence

(1) A person is ineligible to be an elected parent member, elected staff member or appointed member of a school council if the person has been convicted of an indictable offence, unless the Minister gives an approval under this section.

(2) If the Minister considers it would be reasonable, having regard to the circumstances of the indictable offence of which a person has been convicted, the Minister may—

- (a) if the person was a member when convicted—give written notice to the chairperson and the person that the person is restored as a member, and may be subsequently re-elected or reappointed, despite the conviction; or
- (b) otherwise—give written approval for the person to be elected or appointed as a member despite the conviction.

(5) In this section—

“convicted”, of an offence, means the person has been found guilty of the offence, on a plea of guilty or otherwise, whether or not a conviction was recorded.

58 Appointment not affected by other laws restricting employment

If another Act prohibits or regulates a person's employment, or other engagement in activities, outside of a stated office or position, the Act does not prevent the person from—

- (a) being a member of a school council; or
- (b) carrying out the person's functions as a member of the council; or
- (c) being paid for expenses incurred in attending council meetings.

- (6) In preparing a proposed amendment, a council must have regard to relevant provisions of the model constitutions.
- (7) An amendment has no effect until it is approved by the chief executive.
- (8) The chief executive must not approve an amendment unless the chief executive is satisfied—

 - (i) allows sufficient representation by parents, staff, students and other members of the school community; and
 - (ii) takes into account the profile of the school community;
- (b) whether it provides for the council to carry out its functions in an effective and fair way;
- (c) whether its provisions are otherwise sufficient, clear and appropriate.

60 Model constitutions for school councils

(1) The chief executive may prepare model constitutions for school councils.

(2) Each school council must have regard to the model constitutions when preparing and adopting amendments of its constitution.

Division 5—Council business

61 Conduct of business

(1) Subject to its constitution, a school council may conduct its business, including its meetings, in the way it considers appropriate.

⁷ See section 63 (Quorum) to calculate the quorum for a particular school council.

(2) However, a council may only make decisions about how it will carry out its functions if it does so at a council meeting at which a quorum is present.

(3) This section is subject to this Act, including, for example, section 64.

62 Time and place of meetings

(1) School council meetings are to be held at the times and places the council decides.

(2) However, the council must meet at least twice in each semester.

(3) The chairperson—

(a) may call a meeting at any time; and

(b) must call a meeting if asked, in writing, to do so by the Minister, the chief executive or at least the number of members constituting a quorum for the school council.

63 Quorum

A quorum for a school council is the number equal to two-thirds of the number of its members or, if two-thirds is not a whole number, the next highest whole number.

64 Conduct of meetings

(1) The chairperson is to preside at all school council meetings at which the chairperson is present.

(2) If the chairperson is absent, another member chosen by the members present is to preside.

(3) A question at a meeting (other than a question about an amendment of the council's constitution) is decided by a majority of the votes of the members present.

(4) Each member present at the meeting has a vote on each question to be decided and, if the votes are equal, the member presiding has a casting vote.

(5) A member present at the meeting who abstains from voting is taken to have voted for the negative.

(7) A member who takes part in a meeting under a permission under subsection (6) is taken to be present at the meeting.

65 Attendance by proxy

(2) As soon as practicable after the relevant facts come to the interested member’s knowledge, the member must disclose the nature of the interest to a meeting of the council.

(3) Unless the council otherwise directs, the interested member must not—

- (a) be present when the council considers the issue; or

- (b) take part in making the decision about giving the direction.

(6) If, because of this section, a member is not present at a council meeting for considering or deciding an issue, or for considering or deciding whether to give a direction under subsection (3), but there would be a quorum if the member were present, the remaining members present are a quorum of the council for considering or deciding the issue at the meeting.

(7) A disclosure under subsection (2) must be recorded in the council's minutes.

(3) Without limiting subsection (2), the governing body is taken to comply with subsection (2) if the details are given to the board, on the governing body's behalf, by an authorised nominee of the governing body.

(4) If the governing body does not comply with this section, the noncompliance is a ground for stopping payment of the allowances.

(5) In this section—

“allowance acquittal details”, for a school for a calendar year, means details of how the allowances have been expended, during the calendar year, by the school's governing body.

134C Annual report

134I Minister's discretion not limited

(1) The ground, mentioned in section 134B(4), for stopping payment of allowances to a school under section 134A(2)(b) does not limit the Minister's discretion to stop payment for another reason.

(2) Also, if the Minister decides under section 134H that payment of allowances to a school under section 134A(2)(b) not be stopped, the decision does not limit the Minister's discretion to stop payment at a later time.
