Freedom of Information Act 1992

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 1 September 2005]

An Act to require information concerning documents held by government to be made available to members of the community, to enable members of the community to obtain access to documents held by government and to enable members of the community to ensure that documents held by the government concerning their personal affairs are accurate, complete, up-to-date and not misleading, and for related purposes

Part 1 Preliminary

Division 1 Introductory

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Freedom of Information Act 1992.

2 Commencement

Parts 3 to 6 commence 3 months after the date of assent.

3 Deferred application to local governments

- (1) Part 2 does not apply to local governments until 6 months after the date of assent.
- (2) Despite section 2, parts 3 to 6 do not apply to local governments until 9 months after the date of assent.

Division 2 Object of Act and matters relevant to its administration and interpretation

4 Object of Act and its achievement

- (1) The object of this Act is to extend as far as possible the right of the community to have access to information held by Queensland government.
- (2) Parliament recognises that, in a free and democratic society—
 - (a) the public interest is served by promoting open discussion of public affairs and enhancing government's accountability; and
 - (b) the community should be kept informed of government's operations, including, in particular, the rules and practices followed by government in its dealings with members of the community; and
 - (c) members of the community should have access to information held by government in relation to their personal affairs and should be given a way to ensure the information is accurate, complete, up-to-date and not misleading.
- (3) Parliament also recognises there are competing interests in that the disclosure of particular information could be contrary to the public interest because its disclosure in some instances would have a prejudicial effect on—
 - (a) essential public interests; or
 - (b) the private or business affairs of members of the community about whom information is collected and held by government.
- (4) This Act is intended to strike a balance between those competing interests.
- (5) The object of this Act is achieved by—
 - (a) giving members of the community a right of access to information held by government to the greatest extent possible with limited exceptions for the purpose of

- preventing a prejudicial effect on the public interest of a kind mentioned in subsection (3); and
- (b) requiring particular information and documents concerning government operations to be made available to the public; and
 - (c) giving members of the community a right to bring about the amendment of documents held by government containing information in relation to their personal affairs to ensure the information is accurate, complete, up-to-date and not misleading.
- (6) It is Parliament's intention that this Act be interpreted to further the object stated in subsection (1) in the context of the matters stated in subsections (2) to (5).

6 Matter relating to personal affairs of applicant

If an application for access to a document is made under this Act, the fact that the document contains matter relating to the personal affairs of the applicant is an element to be taken into account in deciding—

- (a) whether it is in the public interest to grant access to the applicant; and
- (b) the effect that the disclosure of the matter might have.

 - (c) has made a relevant application, or part of a relevant application, to the wrong agency or Minister;

it is the duty of the agency or Minister to inform the person how to make the application in a way that complies with section 25 or to inform the person of the appropriate agency or Minister to whom application should be made.

- (2) An agency or Minister must not refuse to deal with an application because it does not comply with section 25 without first giving the applicant a reasonable opportunity of consultation with a view to making an application in a form complying with section 25.
- (3) If, after consulting under subsection (2), an agency or Minister decides—
- (a) the application does not contain sufficient information to enable a responsible officer of the agency or the Minister to identify the document; or
 - (b) an application fee is payable, because a document sought by the applicant does not concern the applicant's personal affairs, but is unpaid; the agency or Minister must give the applicant written notice of the decision.

- (4) The time between the date of the notice and when the applicant gives the information or pays the application fee does not count as part of the appropriate period under section 27.¹¹
- (5) However, the applicant is taken to have withdrawn the application if—
- (a) the applicant fails to give the information within 30 days after the day the notice of a decision under subsection (3)(a) is sent to the applicant; or
 - (b) after the applicant is sent the notice of a decision under subsection (3)(b), the applicant fails to pay the application fee—
 - (i) if an application for review is made within the period within which an application for review under this Act may be made—within 30 days after the review has been finally disposed of (unless on the review it is decided the application fee is not payable); or

 - (b) immediately give the applicant written notice of the transfer, specifying in the notice the day on which, and the agency to which, the application has been transferred.
- (4) An agency is not required to include exempt matter in a notice.
- (5) An application that is transferred from 1 agency to another is taken to have been received by the other agency—
- (a) on the day on which it is transferred; or
 - (b) 14 days after the day on which it was received by the agency to which it was originally made;
- whichever is the earlier.
- (6) If—
- (a) an application is made to an agency for access to more than 1 document; and
 - (b) 1 or more of the documents is a document to which subsection (2) applies;
- this section applies to each of the documents as if separate applications had been made to the agency for each of the documents.
- (7) If part of an application is transferred under this section and the transferred part of the application relates to a document that does not concern the applicant's personal affairs, a separate application fee is payable for the transferred part of the application.

27 How applications are dealt with

- (1) If an application for access to a document is made to an agency or Minister under this Act, the agency or Minister must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the applicant is notified that the application has been received as soon as practicable, but in any case not later than 14 days, after the application is received.
- (2) After considering the application, the agency or Minister must decide—
 - (a) whether access is to be given to the document; and
 - (b) if access is to be given—any charge that must be paid before access is granted; and
 - (c) any charge payable for dealing with the application.
- (3) If giving access to a document will disclose to the applicant matter the agency or Minister reasonably considers is not relevant to the application, the agency or Minister may delete the irrelevant matter from a copy of the document before giving access to the document.
- (4) The agency or Minister may give access to a document by giving access to a copy of the document with the irrelevant matter deleted only if the agency or Minister considers, from the application or after consultation with the applicant—
 - (a) the applicant would accept the copy; and
 - (b) it is reasonably practicable to give access to the copy.
- (5) If the agency or Minister fails to decide an application and notify the applicant under section 34 within—
 - (a) the appropriate period; or
 - (b) if action is required under section 51 in relation to the application—a period equal to the appropriate period plus 15 days;

the agency's principal officer or the Minister is taken to have refused access to the document to which the application relates at the end of the period.
- (6) This section does not require an agency to determine an application that has been transferred to another agency under section 26.

(7) In this section—

appropriate period means—

- (a) in relation to an application to an agency or Minister for a document that—
 - (i) came into existence more than 5 years before the commencement of this part; and

- (b) in relation to any other application—45 days after the application is received by the agency or Minister.

27A Calculation of appropriate period for s 27

- (1) If an applicant gives an agency or Minister a copy of the applicant's concession card, the period commencing on the day the applicant gives the copy and ending on—
 - (a) the day the applicant is notified of the decision of the agency or Minister under schedule 4, section 8(2) or schedule 4, section 9(2)(b);¹² or
 - (b) the day the agency or Minister, having not notified the applicant of the decision, is taken to have made a decision under schedule 4, section 9(3);does not count as part of the appropriate period under section 27.
- (2) If an applicant is given a preliminary assessment notice before the end of the original section 27 period applying to the application, the period commencing on the day the applicant is given the notice and ending on—
 - (a) the day the applicant—
 - (i) if no deposit is payable, agrees in writing to pay the relevant charge; or

¹² Schedule 4 (Process for assessment of charges), section 8 (Concession card given and accepted) or section 9 (Concession card given but not accepted)

- (ii) pays the relevant deposit and agrees in writing to pay the relevant charge; or
- (b) the day the applicant, having not agreed to pay the relevant charge, or having not paid the relevant deposit and agreed in writing to pay the relevant charge, is notified of a decision, whether or not made on review, that no charges are payable because the charges have been wrongly assessed or are to be waived;

does not count as part of the appropriate period under section 27.

Note—

The appropriate period for section 27 may also be affected by section 29A(7).

- (3) In this section—

original section 27 period, for an application, means the period under the definition appropriate period in section 27(7) that would apply to the application in the absence of this section.

relevant charge means the original charge or amount of the charge decided on review.

relevant deposit means the original deposit or the deposit, if any, on account of the charge decided on review that the applicant is required to pay.

 - (b) the agency or Minister considers the document has been kept in, and is retrievable from, the backup system.

29 Refusal to deal with application—agency's or Minister's functions

- (1) An agency or Minister may refuse to deal with an application for access to documents or, if the agency or Minister is considering 2 or more applications by the applicant, all the applications, if the agency or Minister considers the work involved in dealing with the application or all the applications would, if carried out—
- (a) substantially and unreasonably divert the resources of the agency from their use by the agency in the performance of its functions; or

- (b) interfere substantially and unreasonably with the performance by the Minister of the Minister's functions.
- (2) Without limiting the matters to which the agency or Minister may have regard in making a decision under subsection (1), the agency or Minister must have regard to the resources that would have to be used—
- (a) in identifying, locating or collating the documents in the filing system of the agency or the Minister's office; or
 - (b) in deciding whether to give, refuse or defer access to the documents, or to give access to edited copies of the documents, including resources that would have to be used—
 - (i) in examining the documents; or
 - (ii) in consulting with an entity in relation to the application; or
 - (c) in making a copy, or edited copy, of the documents; or
 - (d) in notifying any interim or final decision on the application.

- (a) any reasons the applicant gives for applying for access; or
 - (b) the agency's or Minister's belief about what are the applicant's reasons for applying for access.
- (4) If—
- (a) an application is expressed to relate to all documents, or to all documents of a stated class, that contain information of a stated kind or relate to a stated subject matter; and
 - (b) it appears to the agency or Minister that all of the documents to which the application relates are exempt documents;

the agency or Minister may refuse to deal with the application without having identified any or all of the documents.

- (5) The notice of the agency's or Minister's decision under subsection (4) to refuse to deal with an application must identify the provision under which the documents are exempt documents.

29A What an agency or Minister must do before refusing to deal with application under s 29

- (1) An agency or Minister may refuse to deal with an application under section 29(1) only if—
- (a) the agency or Minister has given the applicant a written notice—
 - (i) stating an intention to refuse to deal with the application; and
 - (ii) advising that, for a consultation period, the applicant may consult with a stated officer of the agency or a stated member of the staff of the Minister with a view to making an application in a form that would remove the ground for refusal; and
 - (iii) advising that the consultation period ends 21 days after the day the applicant is given the notice; and
 - (iv) stating the effect of subsections (2), (3), (4), (5), (6) and (7); and
 - (b) the agency or Minister has given the applicant a reasonable opportunity to consult with the officer or member; and
 - (c) the agency or Minister has, as far as is reasonably practicable, provided the applicant with any information that would help the making of an application in a form that would remove the ground for refusal.
- (2) During consultation, the applicant and officer or member may agree what is to be the appropriate period for section 27 in relation to the application.
- (3) Following consultation, the applicant may give the officer or member written notice either confirming or altering the application.

8 Preambles from amending legislation

Freedom of Information Amendment Act 1993 No. 59 reads, in part, as follows—

Whereas—

(1) The Westminster system of government is based on the responsibility of Cabinet to Parliament and Parliament to the electorate;

(2) The purpose of the convention of Ministerial responsibility under the Westminster system is to secure the collective responsibility of Ministers to Parliament;

(3) The collective responsibility of Ministers is only possible if Cabinet debate is candid and unrestricted;

(4) An object of Parliament in enacting the Freedom of Information Act 1992 was to ensure that the convention of Ministerial responsibility was preserved;

(5) It is, therefore, the intention of Parliament to make provision, by amendments included in the amendments made by this Act, to remove any doubt that Cabinet documents and discussions are to receive a level of confidentiality appropriate to preserving the convention of Ministerial responsibility intended by Parliament;

Freedom of Information (Review of Secrecy Provision Exemption) Amendment Act 1994 No. 34 reads, in part, as follows—

Parliament’s reasons for enacting this Act are—

1. In order to balance openness against legitimate claims for secrecy in the interest of people about whom the Government holds information and in the public interest, the Freedom of Information Act 1992 (the “FOI Act”) allows exemptions from access to certain matters.

2. Section 48 of the FOI Act makes matter exempt if it falls within the terms of a specified type of secrecy provision (a “section 48 secrecy provision”) and its disclosure would, on balance, be contrary to public interest.

3. The exemption in section 48 operates only for 2 years from the FOI Act's date of assent on 19 August 1992.

4. On a reference from the Government, the Queensland Law Reform Commission has reviewed existing secrecy provisions in Queensland legislation identified by Government departments.

5. The purpose of the review was to—

- (a) identify section 48 secrecy provisions; and
- (b) recommend whether the exemption from access given by each section 48 secrecy provision should continue.

6. As a result of its review, the Commission recommended that the exemption from access given by the section 48 secrecy provision in certain Acts should continue.

7. The Parliament of Queensland accepts the recommendation.

8. The Parliament of Queensland also considers the exemption from access given by the section 48 secrecy provision in section 83 of the Criminal Justice Act 1989 should continue.
