Reprinted as in force on 1 October 2005

Reprint No. 2

This reprint is prepared by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel
Warning—This reprint is not an authorised copy

Information about this reprint

This regulation is reprinted as at 1 October 2005. The reprint shows the law as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before that day (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(c)).

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes. Also see list of legislation for any uncommenced amendments.

Minor editorial changes allowed under the provisions of the Reprints Act 1992 have also been made to use aspects of format and printing style consistent with current drafting practice (s 35).

This page is specific to this reprint. See previous reprints for information about earlier changes made under the Reprints Act 1992. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about—

- when provisions commenced
- editorial changes made in earlier reprints.

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, hard copy and electronic, are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If a hard copy reprint is dated earlier than an electronic version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown for an electronic version previously published, it merely means that the electronic version was published before the hard copy version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published electronic version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown on another hard copy reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

overseas higher education institution see the Higher Education (General Provisions) Act 2003, schedule 2.

registration includes a change of registration and a renewal of registration.

State college see Vocational Education, Training and Employment Act 1991, section 4.

State educational institution see Education (General Provisions) Act 1989, section 2.

written policy means a policy written in English and in a way that makes it easily understood by a reader whose first language is not English.

4 Persons who may make applications—Act, s 7(1)

- (1) Any of the following persons may make an application for registration as a provider if the person intends to provide, arrange or promote a course conducted by the person to an overseas student—
- (a) the person holding the office of the principal of a State educational institution;
 - (b) the person holding the office of the director of an institute of TAFE;
 - (c) the director of the agricultural college;

- (d) a university established by an Act, or the university company within the meaning of the Bond University Act 1987.¹
- (2) Also, the following entities may make an application for registration as a provider if the entity is a person and intends to provide, arrange or promote a course conducted by the person to an overseas student—
 - (a) a non-State school;
 - (b) a non-university provider;
 - (c) an overseas higher education institution;
 - (d) a State college;
 - (e) an approved training organisation;
 - (f) an institution issued with an accreditation certificate by the National ELICOS Accreditation Scheme Limited ACN 003 980 667.
- (3) If an entity mentioned in subsection (2) is not a person, the person who intends to provide, arrange or promote a course conducted at, or by means of, the entity to an overseas student may make the application for registration as a provider in relation to the entity.

5 Registration criteria for deciding applications

- (1) Under section 7(4) of the Act, the chief executive must apply the registration criteria for deciding—
 - (a) whether to approve an application; and
 - (b) if the application is approved—the conditions to apply to the registration.
- (2) Division 2 states the registration criteria the chief executive must apply for deciding an application for registration as a provider.

¹ Central Queensland University, Griffith University, James Cook University, Queensland University of Technology, University of Queensland and University of Southern Queensland have been established by Acts.

- (3) Division 3 states the registration criteria the chief executive must apply for deciding an application for registration of a course conducted by the applicant.

Division 2 Registration criteria for providers

6 Policy about entry requirements for registered courses

- (1) An applicant for registration as a provider must have a written policy about entry requirements, that is expressed as applying to the applicant as a registered provider.
- (2) The policy about entry requirements must state—
 - (a) the way in which the registered provider must inform an overseas student or intending overseas student about the entry requirements for each registered course offered by the registered provider; and
 - (b) the processes for applying the requirements to each overseas student or intending overseas student.
- (3) In this section—

entry requirements, for a registered course, means written requirements for entry to the course, including applicable academic and English language skills reasonably necessary for the course.

7 Policy about refunding fees

- (1) An applicant for registration as a provider must have a written policy about refunding fees, that is expressed as applying to the applicant as a registered provider.
- (2) The policy about refunding fees must protect the financial interests of overseas students and intending overseas students, including—
 - (a) by stating all the circumstances under which a refund of all or part of the fees must be paid by the registered provider and the way in which the amount of the refund is to be calculated; and

- (b) by providing for a refund to be paid by the registered provider directly to the person who enters into the contract with the registered provider about the student, unless the person gives a written direction to the registered provider to pay the refund to someone else; and
 - (c) by providing for a refund to be fully paid by the registered provider in the same currency in which the fees were paid, unless payment in that currency is impracticable; and
 - (d) by providing for the total amount of each refund to be paid no later than 2 months after it is due.
- (3) Also, the policy must provide that the registered provider must give a copy of the policy to each intending overseas student at a reasonable time before a contract about the student is entered into or an amount is paid for a registered course, whichever happens first.
- (4) A policy providing for someone other than the registered provider to pay a refund, including, for example, the registered provider's agent in another country, does not comply with subsection (2)(b).

8 Policy about dispute resolution process

- (1) An applicant for registration as a provider must have a written policy, that is expressed as applying to the applicant as a registered provider, about resolving disputes between the registered provider and overseas students enrolled in registered courses conducted by the registered provider.
- (2) The policy about resolving disputes must allow overseas students to participate in a timely and appropriate dispute resolution process, that has regard to their status as persons outside of Australia or only temporarily in Australia.
- (3) The policy must state, in a prominent way, that—
 - (a) an overseas student may contact the chief executive if the student is concerned about the conduct of the registered provider; and

- (b) the chief executive may, under part 2, division 2 of the Act, suspend or cancel the registration of a provider or course; and
 - (c) the dispute resolution process described in the policy does not prevent an overseas student from exercising the student's rights to other legal remedies.
- (4) Also, the policy must provide that the registered provider must give a copy of the policy to each overseas student—
- (a) before a contract about the student is entered into or an amount is paid for a registered course, whichever happens first; and
 - (b) within 7 days after the student starts attending a registered course conducted by the registered provider in which the student is enrolled.
- (5) To the extent a policy relates to the financial interests of overseas students, a reference in this section to an overseas student includes an intending overseas student.

9 Policy about arrangements for unaccompanied children

- (1) If an applicant for registration as a provider intends to offer courses to unaccompanied children, and to make arrangements for unaccompanied children to be accommodated with an approved family, the applicant must have a written policy about making the arrangements that is expressed as applying to the applicant as a registered provider.
- (2) The policy about making arrangements must provide for the approval of a family that is to provide accommodation services to an unaccompanied child, including, for example—
- (a) guidelines for selecting the family, in particular, guidelines for ensuring the family is able to provide the child with a stable environment for the duration of the registered course conducted by the registered provider in which the child is enrolled; and
 - (b) criteria about the accommodation services to be provided; and

Education (Overseas Students) Regulation 1998

- (c) an orientation program for the members of an approved family if the family has not previously accommodated an overseas student of the registered provider.
- (3) Also, the policy must include a copy of the form of contract for arrangements about providing accommodation services, if the registered provider intends to use the form for arrangements made by the registered provider.

- (4) In this section—

accommodation services includes accommodation, meals and other services.

approved family means a family approved by the registered provider for providing accommodation services to an unaccompanied child.

supervised arrangement, for an overseas student under 18 years, means an arrangement under which an adult normally resident in the State (other than an overseas student) is appointed in writing by a parent of the student to act on the student's behalf in matters about the student while the student is in the State.

unaccompanied child means an overseas student under 18 years, other than—

- (a) a student who lives with at least 1 parent while enrolled in a registered course conducted by the registered provider; or
- (b) a student who is covered by a supervised arrangement while enrolled in a registered course conducted by the registered provider; or
- (c) a student who, while enrolled in a registered course conducted by the registered provider—
 - (i) lives at a boarding school, residential college or student hostel, operated by or in association with the registered provider; or
 - (ii) is accommodated at a place operated by or in association with the registered provider under an arrangement for providing accommodation services and, under the arrangement, the student's residence at the place and attendance at the course is supervised.

10 Policy about students previously enrolled in relevant courses

- (1) An applicant for registration as a provider must have a written policy, that is expressed as applying to the applicant as a registered provider, about the following students—
 - (a) overseas students who apply to be enrolled in a registered course conducted by the registered provider and have previously completed a relevant course;
 - (b) overseas students who apply to be enrolled in a registered course conducted by the registered provider and who have been enrolled in a relevant course (other than with the registered provider) but have not completed the course.
- (2) The policy must provide that, in relation to an overseas student who has been enrolled in a relevant course, the registered provider must not admit the student to a registered course conducted by the registered provider unless—
 - (a) if the student previously completed the relevant course—the registered provider is satisfied the student demonstrated a commitment to the student’s studies during the course, had a good attendance record for the course and paid all fees for the course; or
 - (b) if the student has been enrolled in, but did not complete the relevant course—the registered provider is given a letter of release about the student for the relevant course.
- (3) Also, the policy must provide that if an overseas student has not completed a registered course but asks for a letter of release, the registered provider must give the student a letter of release.
- (4) In this section—

letter of release means a letter from the provider of a relevant course about a student that provides information about whether or not the student—

- (a) demonstrated a commitment to the student's studies during the course; and
- (b) had a good attendance record for the course; and
- (c) paid all fees for the course.

relevant course means—

- (a) a registered course; or
- (b) a course registered under a law of the Commonwealth, or another State, for the registration of persons who provide courses to overseas students.

11 Policy about code of ethics

- (1) An applicant for registration as a provider must have a written policy, expressed as applying to the applicant as a registered provider, that provides the registered provider is bound by the code of ethics.
- (2) In this section—

code of ethics means the code, developed by Ministers of the Commonwealth and the States responsible for education matters, that is directed at ensuring overseas students are financially protected from default by providers.

Division 3 Registration criteria for courses

13 Registration criteria for applications for registration of courses

- (1) A course must—
 - (a) be conducted by the registered provider for the course; and
 - (b) have written requirements for entry to the course, including applicable academic and English language skills reasonably necessary for the course; and
 - (c) have stated and demonstrable educational outcomes for all students who enrol in the course and complete it; and

- (d) be suitable for overseas students, having regard to the qualifications, abilities and aspirations of the students.
- (2) Also, if the registered provider of the course, or the course, must be accredited, approved, registered or otherwise recognised under a law (other than the Act), the registered provider or the course must be accredited, approved, registered or otherwise recognised under the law.

Part 3

Register of registered providers and registered courses

14 Information to be kept in register—Act, s 26

- (1) This part states the information to be kept in the register of registered providers and registered courses, that the chief executive must keep under section 26(1) of the Act.
- (2) However, the chief executive may keep other information in the register if the chief executive considers it appropriate.

15 Information about each registered provider

For each registered provider, the register must include—

- (a) the information to be included in a registration certificate under section 9(4)(a) of the Act; and
- (b) other names used by the registered provider in promoting registered courses conducted by the registered provider; and
- (c) if the registered provider is not an individual—
 - (i) information about its legal status; and
 - (ii) any Australian company number or Australian registered body number for the registered provider under the Corporations Law; and
 - (iii) the name and title of its chief executive officer; and

- (d) the address, a telephone number and a fax number (if any) for the central or head office or campus of the registered provider; and
- (e) details of any suspensions or cancellations about the registered provider.

16 Information about each registered course

For each registered course, the register must include—

- (a) the information to be included in a registration certificate under section 9(4)(b) of the Act; and
- (b) the cost and duration of the course; and
- (c) details of any suspensions and cancellations about the course and its registered provider.

Part 4 Fees and repeal

17 Fee for application for registration as provider or renewal

The prescribed fee for an application for registration as a provider, or an application to renew the registration of a provider, is $231.50.

18 Fee for application for registration of course or renewal

- (1) The prescribed fee for a registered course application is $57.50.
- (2) If a registered course application relates to more than 20 courses, the prescribed fee is increased by $57.50 for each multiple of 20 courses or part of a multiple.
- (3) However, for a registered course application that is made on the same day as the provider of the course or courses makes a registered provider application—

- (a) the application fee otherwise payable under subsection (1) is waived if the provider application relates to not more than 20 courses; or
 - (b) the application fee otherwise payable under subsections (1) and (2) is reduced by $57.50 if the provider application relates to more than 20 courses.
- (4) In this section—

registered course application means—

- (a) an application for registration of a course or courses; or
- (b) an application to renew the registration of a course or courses.

registered provider application means—

- (a) an application for registration as a provider; or
- (b) an application to renew the registration of a registered provider.

19 Fee for application to change registration of provider or course

The prescribed fee for an application to change the registration of a registered provider or registered course is $57.50.

20 Repeal of Education (Overseas Students) Regulation 1997

The Education (Overseas Students) Regulation 1997 SL No. 350 is repealed.
