Information about this reprint

This regulation is reprinted as at 31 May 2006. The reprint shows the law as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before that day (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(c)).

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes. Also see list of legislation for any uncommenced amendments.

This page is specific to this reprint. See previous reprints for information about earlier changes made under the Reprints Act 1992. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about—

- when provisions commenced
- editorial changes made in earlier reprints.

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, hard copy and electronic, are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If a hard copy reprint is dated earlier than an electronic version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown for an electronic version previously published, it merely means that the electronic version was published before the hard copy version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published electronic version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown on another hard copy reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

Child Protection Regulation 2000

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 31 May 2006]

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Child Protection Regulation 2000.

Part 2 Licensing of care services

2 Independent evaluation of a care service

- (1) The purpose of this section is to require the chief executive to obtain certain information about a care service, from an independent source, to help the chief executive decide if the standard of care provided, or proposed to be provided, by the care service under a licence complies with the statement of standards.
- (2) Before granting an application for a licence or renewal of a licence, the chief executive must—
 - (a) obtain a written evaluation, from an independent person, of the care services provided, or proposed to be provided, under the licence; and
 - (b) give a copy of the evaluation to the applicant; and
 - (c) give the applicant a written invitation to give the chief executive, within a reasonable stated time of at least 14 days after the invitation, a submission about anything contained in the evaluation.
- (3) In this section—

independent person means a person who is independent of the applicant and the department.

3 Licensee must have policy about reporting matters of concern

- (1) A licensee must prepare a policy under this section, keep the policy up-to-date, and ensure the licensee's staff members are aware of the policy.¹
- (2) The policy required by subsection (1) is a policy that facilitates the reporting by the licensee's staff members of any matters of concern they may have.
- (3) The policy may, for example, include the following—
 - (a) a statement that the licensee supports the staff members in the reporting of matters of concern;
 - (b) for a licence relating to a licensed residential facility, provision for ensuring the staff members are aware of their obligations under section 148² of the Act;
 - (c) addresses, phone numbers or other contact details for reporting matters of concern.
- (4) In this section—

matter of concern, for a staff member of a licensee, means—

- (a) harm that the staff member has become aware, or reasonably suspects, has been caused to a child in the care of the licensed care service operated under the licence; or
- (b) a concern that the staff member has about the standards of the care services provided under the licence.

staff member, of a licensee, means a person employed in the licensed care service operated under the licence.

1 Under section 139(1)(d) of the Act, the chief executive may suspend or cancel an authority on the ground that the holder has contravened a provision of the Act.

2 Section 148 (Obligation to report harm to children in departmental and licensed care services) of the Act

4 Licensee to keep, and allow chief executive to inspect, records

- (1) A licensee must keep records under this section.³
- (2) The records must include the following—
 - (a) the name, date of birth and sex of each child who receives care services from the licensee;
 - (b) the first and last days of each period during which the child received the services;
 - (c) the name and address of—
 - (i) the licensed residential facility in which the child is residing; or
 - (ii) the carer in whose care the child has been placed by the chief executive;
 - (d) details of—
 - (i) any written complaint, received by the licensee, in relation to the provision of the services to the child; and
 - (ii) any action taken by the licensee in relation to the complaint;
 - (e) details of—
 - (i) any written allegation of breach of the statement of standards, received by the licensee, in relation to the child's care by a licensed care service operated under the licence; and
 - (ii) any action taken by the licensee in relation to the allegation;
 - (f) if the child is residing in a licensed residential facility, details of any significant event relating to the child that happened during the residency.
- (3) The licensee must allow the chief executive to inspect the records during office hours on business days.³

³ Under section 139(1)(d) of the Act, the chief executive may suspend or cancel an authority on the ground that the holder has contravened a provision of the Act.

(4) In this section—

significant event, relating to the child, means an event that is significant in the child's life, having regard to the child's age and circumstances.

Examples of a significant event relating to the child—

- 1 Non-routine medical treatment received by the child.
- 2 Punishment received by the child at the facility.
- 3 Contact between the child and the child's family.
- 4 Receipt by the child of a schooling or sporting award.

5 Return by licensee

- (1) The chief executive may, by written notice given to a licensee, require the licensee to give a return under this section.
- (2) The notice must state the time, not less than 30 days after the notice is given, for giving the return.
- (3) If a licensee is given a notice under subsection (1), the licensee must give a return as required by this section relating to the details in the records required to be kept by the licensee under section 4.⁴
- (4) The return must—
 - (a) be in the approved form; and
 - (b) be given to the chief executive within the time stated in the notice.

6 Suitability of methods for the selection, training and management of people engaged in providing care services—Act, s 126(d)

In deciding, under section 126(d)⁵ of the Act, the suitability of the methods for the selection, training and management of people engaged in providing care services, the chief executive

4 Under section 139(1)(d) of the Act, the chief executive may suspend or cancel an authority on the ground that the holder has contravened a provision of the Act.

5 Section 126 (Restrictions on granting application) of the Act

Child Protection Regulation 2000

- (iii) information about the resources needed to meet the special needs;
- (h) the amounts to be paid to the approved carer for the child's care and maintenance.
- (2) In this section—
 - notice provision* means section 85(2) or 86(2)⁸ of the Act.

8 Matters to consider before telling parents about child placed in care—Act, ss 85(3) and 86(3)

- (1) This section states the matters that the chief executive must consider for sections 85(3) and 86(3) of the Act.
- (2) The chief executive must consider whether a parent of the child, a partner of a parent of the child, or another person closely associated with a parent of the child—
 - (a) has a history of violence relevant to the safety of the child or anyone else with whom the child is living; or
 - (b) has recently made a threat to harm the child or anyone else with whom the child is living; or
 - (c) is likely to behave in a way that is likely to intimidate or frighten the child or another child with whom the child is living; or
 - (d) is likely to attempt to intimidate or otherwise adversely influence the child in relation to future court proceedings; or
 - (e) is likely to attempt to remove the child from the chief executive's custody or guardianship; or
 - (f) has previously engaged in violent behaviour, harassment or other harmful behaviour in response to an action taken to protect a child.

⁸ Section 85 (Chief executive to tell parents of placing child in care—assessment order) or 86 (Chief executive to notify parents of placing child in care—child protection order) of the Act

Part 4 Suitable persons

9 Suitable person—Act, sch 3, definition suitable person

- (1) A person is a suitable person for having the custody or guardianship of a child if the person—
- (a) does not pose a risk to the child’s safety; and
 - (b) is able and willing to care for the child in a way that meets the standards of care in the statement of standards; and
 - (c) is able and willing to protect the child from harm; and
 - (d) understands, and is committed to, the principles for administering the Act.⁹

Note—

Under section 61 (Types of child protection orders) of the Act, the Childrens Court may make an order granting custody or guardianship of a child.

- (2) A person is a suitable person to be an approved foster carer of any child if the person—
- (a) does not pose a risk to a child’s safety; and
 - (b) is able and willing to protect a child from harm; and
 - (c) understands, and is committed to, the principles for administering the Act; and
 - (d) has completed any training reasonably required by the chief executive to ensure the person is able to properly care for a child.
- (3) A person is a suitable person to be an approved kinship carer of a child if the person—
- (a) does not pose a risk to the child’s safety; and
 - (b) is able and willing to protect the child from harm; and
 - (c) understands, and is committed to, the principles for administering the Act; and

9 See section 5 (Principles for administration of Act) of the Act.

Child Protection Regulation 2000

- (d) has completed any training reasonably required by the chief executive to ensure the person is able to properly care for a child.
- (4) A person is a suitable person to be an provisionally approved carer of a child if the person—
 - (a) does not pose a risk to the child’s safety; and
 - (b) is able and willing to protect the child from harm.
- (5) A person is a suitable person for associating on a daily basis with children or a particular child if the person does not pose a risk to the children’s or child’s safety.
- (6) A person is a suitable person for managing a licensed care service if the person—
 - (a) does not pose a risk to the safety of children who, under the Act, are in the care of the licensee; and
 - (b) is able and willing to manage the service in a way that—
 - (i) assists the nominee to ensure the provision of care complies with the statement of standards; and
 - (ii) implements the methods mentioned in section 126(d)¹⁰ of the Act; and
 - (c) understands, and is committed to, the principles for administering the Act.
- (7) A person is a suitable person to be a director of an applicant for a licence or a director of a licensee for a licensed care service if the person—
 - (a) does not pose a risk to the safety of children who, under the Act, are in the care of the licensee; and
 - (b) is able and willing to manage the service, or ensure the service is managed, in a way that ensures the provision of care by the service complies with the statement of standards; and
 - (c) understands, and is committed to, the principles for administering the Act.

10 Section 126 (Restrictions on granting application) of the Act

- (f) if the responsible person knows the identity of any other person who may be able to give information about the harm or suspected harm, particulars of the identity.

12 Chief executive to keep records

- (1) The chief executive must keep records under this section.
- (2) The records must include—
 - (a) details of any report given to the chief executive about—
 - (i) harm caused, or suspected to have been caused, to a child who, under the Act, is in the care of an entity mentioned in section 82(1) of the Act.
 - (ii) a breach, or claimed breach, of the statement of standards; and
 - (b) the results of any investigation of a matter mentioned in paragraph (a).
- (3) The information recorded about a matter concerning a child must include the type of care being provided to the child.
- (4) The records must be kept in a way that enables the chief executive to—
 - (a) access or collect information about a particular carer or care service; or
 - (b) analyse trends across all the recorded information.

13 Information to be given to Children’s Commissioner

- (1) The chief executive must, on a regular basis, give the Children’s Commissioner a written report about the information recorded under section 12.
- (2) If requested in writing by the Children’s Commissioner, the chief executive must give the Children’s Commissioner details of a particular matter mentioned in the records kept under section 12.
