Information about this reprint

This regulation is reprinted as at 15 December 2006. The reprint shows the law as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before that day (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(c)).

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes. Also see list of legislation for any uncommenced amendments.

This page is specific to this reprint. See previous reprints for information about earlier changes made under the Reprints Act 1992. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about—

- when provisions commenced
- editorial changes made in earlier reprints.

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, hard copy and electronic, are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If a hard copy reprint is dated earlier than an electronic version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown for an electronic version previously published, it merely means that the electronic version was published before the hard copy version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published electronic version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown on another hard copy reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

Police Powers and Responsibilities Regulation 2000

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 15 December 2006]

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Police Powers and Responsibilities Regulation 2000.

2 Commencement

This regulation commences on 1 July 2000.

3 Dictionary

The dictionary in schedule 12 defines words used in this regulation.

Part 2A Forensic procedure provisions

Division 1 QDNA indexes

8C QDNA indexes

Each of the following indexes is a QDNA index for the Act, schedule 6,¹ definition QDNA index—

1 The Act, schedule 6 (Dictionary)

- (a) the crime scene index;
- (b) the missing persons index;
- (c) the serious offenders index;
- (d) the suspects index;
- (e) the unknown deceased persons index;
- (f) the volunteers (limited purpose) index;
- (g) the volunteers (unlimited purpose) index;
- (h) the statistical index.

8D Crime scene index

(1) Crime scene index means—

- (a) an index of the results of a DNA analysis of material obtained from a person or thing at a crime scene or other place that is, or may be, evidence of the commission of an offence; or
- (b) a declared agency's index of the results of a DNA analysis of material of a kind mentioned in paragraph (a).

(2) In this section—

crime scene means—

- (a) any place where an offence was committed or is reasonably suspected of having been committed; or
- (b) any place associated with, or relevant to, the commission or suspected commission of an offence.

8E Missing persons index

Missing persons index means—

- (a) an index of the results of a DNA analysis of material known to relate, or that may relate, to a missing person; or
- (b) a declared agency's index of the results of a DNA analysis of material known to relate, or that may relate, to a missing person.

8F Serious offenders index

Serious offenders index means—

- (a) an index of the results of a DNA analysis of a sample taken from a person or a prisoner under the following provisions of the Act—
 - (i) section 485;
 - (ii) section 487;² or
- (b) an index of the results of a DNA analysis of a sample taken from a person convicted of an indictable offence that is not already included because of paragraph (a); or
- (c) a declared agency's index of the results of a DNA analysis of a sample relating to a person convicted of an offence under the law of the Commonwealth or another State.

8G Suspects index

Suspects index means—

- (a) an index of the results of a DNA analysis of a sample taken, under a forensic procedure order or otherwise, from a person who is charged with or suspected of having committed an indictable offence; or
- (b) a declared agency's index of the results of a DNA analysis of a sample taken from a person who is charged with or suspected of having committed an offence against a law of the Commonwealth or another State.

8H Unknown deceased persons index

Unknown deceased persons index means—

- (a) an index of the results of a DNA analysis of a sample taken from an unknown deceased person; or

² Section 485 (Taking DNA sample after finding of guilt) or 487 (Taking DNA sample from transferred prisoner) of the Act

- (b) a declared agency's index of the results of a DNA analysis of a sample taken from an unknown deceased person.

8I Volunteers (limited purpose) index

Volunteers (limited purpose) index means—

- (a) an index of the results of a DNA analysis of a sample taken from a person under a forensic procedure consent, or a consent obtained before 2 February 2004—
 - (i) that limited the purposes for which the results of the analysis may be used; or
 - (ii) that is otherwise subject to a limitation under the Act on the purposes for which the results of the analysis may be used; or

Note for subparagraph (ii)—

Under section 479(2)³ of the Act, a DNA sample taken from a child under 14 may only be used for the purpose for which consent to take the sample was given.

- (b) an index of the results of a DNA analysis of a sample that are not subject to a limitation under the Act but are to be used for a limited purpose; or
- (c) a declared agency's index of the results of a DNA analysis of a sample taken from a person under a consent given under a law of the Commonwealth or another State—
 - (i) that limited the purpose for which the result of the analysis may be used; or
 - (ii) that is otherwise subject to a limitation, under the law under which the consent was given, on the purposes for which the results of the analysis may be used.

3 Section 479 (Use of DNA analysis of DNA sample taken from child under 14) of the Act

8J Volunteers (unlimited purpose) index

Volunteers (unlimited purpose) index means—

- (a) an index of the results of a DNA analysis of a sample taken from a person under a forensic procedure consent, or a consent obtained before 2 February 2004, that did not limit the purposes for which the results of the analysis may be used; or
- (b) an index of the results of a DNA analysis of a sample taken from a known deceased person; or
- (c) a declared agency's index of the results of a DNA analysis of a sample taken from a person under a consent given under a law of the Commonwealth or another State—
 - (i) that did not limit the purpose for which the results of the analysis may be used; or
 - (ii) that is not otherwise subject to a limitation, under the law under which the consent was given, on the purposes for which the results of the analysis may be used.

8K Statistical index

Statistical index means—

- (a) an index of the results of DNA analyses—
 - (i) from which it is not possible to identify the person to whom the results relate; and
 - (ii) that is used only to gather statistical information; or
- (b) a declared agency's index of the results of DNA analyses—
 - (i) from which it is not possible to identify the person to whom the results relate; and
 - (ii) that is used only to gather statistical information.

Division 2 Northern Territory database indexes

8KB Non-volunteers (NT) index

Non-volunteers (NT) index means that part of an NT database containing the results of a DNA analysis of a sample obtained from—

- (a) a person who was, or could have been, required to undergo an intimate procedure or a non-intimate procedure; or
- (b) a place; or
- (c) a thing.

8KC Volunteers (NT) index

Volunteers (NT) index means that part of an NT database containing the results of a DNA analysis of a sample obtained from a person—

- (a) who has consented to the carrying out of an intimate procedure or a non-intimate procedure; and
- (b) who could not have been required to undergo the procedure.

4 Police Administration Act (NT), section 147 (Databases)

Division 3 Permissible comparisons

8L Table of permissible comparisons

- (1) This section applies to a comparison of a result of a DNA analysis in an index with the results of other DNA analyses in an index or indexes using the CrimTrac database.
- (2) The table in schedule 1 and subsections (3) and (4) state when a result of a DNA analysis included in a QDNA index mentioned in column 1 of the table may be compared with the results of DNA analyses in an index mentioned in another column of the table.
- (3) The comparison is permitted if the word ‘yes’ appears in the relevant column of the table.
- (4) The comparison is also permitted if—
 - (a) the words ‘if within purpose’ appear in a column of the table; and
 - (b) the purpose for the proposed comparison is consistent with the purpose for which the sample to which the results relate was taken.
- (5) A comparison permitted under subsection (3) or (4) may be made whether or not—
 - (a) a name stated in the table for an index is identical to the name of a declared agency’s index; or
 - (b) for a comparison with a declared agency’s index—what may be included in an index under this part differs from what may be included in the declared agency’s index.

8M Exemption

A comparison of the results of a DNA analysis included in a QDNA index with another result of a DNA analysis is exempt from section 494(2) of the Act if the comparison is made using—

- (a) QDNA only; or
- (b) a database of a declared agency without using CrimTrac.

Schedule 10 Responsibilities code

section 16

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This code may be cited as the Police Responsibilities Code 2000.

2 Code does not generally apply to covert operations

Unless this code otherwise expressly provides, this code does not apply to functions of a police officer performed as part of a covert operation.

2A Definitions

In this code—

suspect, for part 6, division 2, see section 46.

Schedule 10 (continued)

Part 2 Provisions about search warrants, obtaining documents, and crime scenes*Division 1 Search warrants*3 Search warrant application

An application for a search warrant¹⁴ must state the following—

- (a) the applicant's name, rank, registered number and station;
- (b) a description of the place to be searched;
- (c) for an occupied place, the name of the occupier of the place, if known;
- (d) the offence, suspected offence or confiscation related activity to which the application relates or, for a forfeiture proceeding, the Act under which the proceeding may be started;
- (e) a description of the nature of the thing sought that is reasonably suspected of being evidence of the commission of the offence or confiscation related evidence in relation to the confiscation related activity;
- (f) information or evidence being relied on to support a reasonable suspicion evidence of the commission of an offence or the confiscation related evidence is at the place, or is likely to be taken to the place within the next 72 hours;
- (g) for each search warrant issued in the previous year in relation to the place or a person suspected of being involved in the commission of the offence or suspected

14 Applications are made under the Act, section 150 (Search warrant application).

offence, or the confiscation related activity, to which the application relates¹⁵—

- (i) when and where the warrant was issued; and
 - (ii) the type of offence or confiscation related activity to which the warrant related; and
 - (iii) whether anything was seized under the warrant or a proceeding was started after a search;
- (h) if authority to exercise any of the following powers is being sought—why it is necessary to exercise the power—
- (i) power to search anyone found at the place for anything sought under the warrant that can be concealed on the person;
 - (ii) power to search anyone or anything in on or about to board, or be put on, a transport vehicle;
 - (iii) power to take a vehicle to, and search for evidence of the commission of an offence that may be concealed in a vehicle at, a place with appropriate facilities for searching the vehicle;
- (i) if authority to execute the warrant at night is being sought, why it is necessary to execute the warrant at night;
- (j) for an application for an order requiring a stated person to give to a police officer stated documents¹⁶—the name or position of the person to be ordered to produce the documents and a description of the documents the person is to be required to produce.

Examples for paragraph (h)—

- 1 Power to search anyone found at the place may be necessary because the nature of the thing sought may be concealed on a person.

15 See the Act, section 150(5)(b) (Search warrant application).

16 See the Act, section 153 (Order in search warrants about documents).

- 2 Power to search anyone or anything in on or about to board, or be put on, a transport vehicle may be necessary because the offence relates to a transport vehicle and involves the safety of the vehicle or anyone who may be in or on it.
- 3 Power to take a vehicle to a place with appropriate facilities for searching the vehicle may be necessary because the nature of the thing sought may be concealed in a vehicle or because the vehicle needs to be scientifically examined.

Example for paragraph (i)—

It may be necessary to execute the warrant at night for an early morning search to prevent the loss or destruction of evidence, or because the occupier is only at the place at night.

Example for paragraph (j)—

An order requiring a person to give stated types of documents to a police officer may be necessary because the place contains many documents unrelated to the offence or forfeiture proceeding or because the documents are stored electronically, and accessing the relevant documents is difficult.

4 Statement to accompany copy of search warrant

The statement to be given to the occupier of a place with a copy of a search warrant¹⁷ must state the following—

- (a) the nature of the powers a police officer may exercise under the warrant;
- (b) the senior police officer present during the search must, as soon as reasonably practicable, state the officer's name, rank and station or, if not in uniform, state he or she is a police officer and produce his or her identity card for inspection;
- (c) the occupier may ask another police officer present for his or her name, rank and station and, if not in uniform, he or she, if asked, must produce an identity card for inspection;

¹⁷ See the Act, section 158 (Copy of search warrant to be given to occupier).

- (d) the effect of the Act, sections 622, 623, 626, 681 and 691.¹⁸

Division 2 Post-search approval5 Post-search approval application

An application for a post-search approval order¹⁹ must state the following—

- (a) the applicant's name, rank, registered number and station;
- (b) information or evidence relied on to support a reasonable suspicion—
- (i) in the circumstances existing before the search, evidence of the commission of an offence was at or about the place, or in the possession of a person at or about the place and would have been concealed or destroyed unless the place was immediately entered and searched; or
- (ii) a part 2 offence²⁰ has been, is being, or may be committed in, on or in relation to a transport vehicle and involves the safety of the vehicle or anyone who may be in or on it;
- (c) in relation to the thing sought—the type of offence in relation to which the search was conducted, or the Act under which a forfeiture proceeding may be started;
- (d) the nature of the thing sought that was reasonably suspected of being evidence of the commission of an offence;

18 The Act, sections 622 (Receipt for seized property), 623 (Right to inspect seized documents), 626 (Limitation on period of detention for search), 681 (Persons to be given copy of information in register) and 691 (Return of relevant things)

19 Applications are made under the Act, section 161 (Post-search approval).

20 See the Act, section 159 for what is a part 2 offence.

- (e) the time, date and place of the search;
- (f) a description of anything seized because of the search;
- (g) if known, the name, age and address of each person detained or searched;
- (h) information about any proceeding started against a person, before or because of the search, for an offence in relation to which the search was conducted;
- (i) if an order under the Act, section 693 or 694,²¹ for the retention, disposal, return or destruction of anything seized is sought, why the order should be made.

6 Appeal

- (1) This section applies if a police officer considers the commissioner should appeal against a decision of a magistrate to order the disposal, destruction or return of a thing seized because of a search to prevent loss of evidence.²²
- (2) The police officer must give to the commissioner a report explaining the reasons for appealing against the order.
- (3) The report must be accompanied by—
 - (a) a copy of the application; and
 - (b) a copy of any transcript of the proceeding; and
 - (c) an affidavit identifying any relevant document and stating anything else relevant to the appeal.

21 The Act, section 693 (Application by owner etc. for court order for return of relevant thing) or 694 (Application by police officer for order if ownership dispute)

22 See the Act, section 163 (Appeal).

Division 3 Crime scenes7 Who is an authorised assistant for crime scene powers

For the Act, schedule 6, definition authorised assistant, a person who is not a police officer is an authorised assistant if—

- (a) in the opinion of the responsible officer at a crime scene, the person has specialised knowledge or skills of a kind necessary for exercising a power mentioned in the Act, section 176(1)²³ at the crime scene; and
- (b) the person is asked by the responsible officer or an investigating police officer to exercise the power.

Examples—

- a doctor, pathologist or forensic scientist
- a photographer or fingerprint expert

An application for a crime scene warrant²⁴ must state the following—

- (a) the applicant's name, rank, registered number and station;
- (b) a description of the place to which the application relates;
- (c) for a crime scene that is an occupied place—
 - (i) the name of the occupier of the place, if known; and

23 The Act, section 176 (Powers at crime scene)

24 See the Act, section 170 (Application for crime scene warrant).

- (ii) when the occupier was given notice of the application or, if the occupier has not been given notice, why notice has not been given;
- (d) information or evidence being relied on to reasonably satisfy the issuer of the warrant—
 - (i) a seven year imprisonment offence or an offence involving deprivation of liberty happened at the place; or
 - (ii) there may be at the place evidence, of a significant probative value, of the commission of a serious violent offence that happened somewhere else;
- (e) whether the application is to establish a crime scene or relates to a crime scene established under the Act, section 165;²⁵
- (f) the suspected offence to which the application relates;
- (g) if the crime scene is a secondary crime scene, when and where the relevant offence was committed, if known;
- (h) why it is necessary to protect the place to search for and gather evidence of the commission of the suspected offence;
- (i) information about any proceeding started against a person for the offence for which the crime scene is, or is to be, established.

9 Crime scene warrant extension application

An application for the extension of a crime scene warrant²⁶ must be accompanied by a copy of the original warrant and state the following—

- (a) the applicant's name, rank, registered number and station;

²⁵ The Act, section 165 (Initial establishment of crime scene)

²⁶ Under the Act, section 173(2), the application must be made before the warrant stops having effect.

- (b) when and where the crime scene was established;
- (c) for a crime scene that is an occupied place—when the occupier was given notice of the application or, if the occupier has not been given notice, why notice has not been given;
- (d) what investigations have been conducted at the crime scene;
- (e) why it is necessary to extend the warrant;
- (f) information about any proceeding started against a person for the offence for which the crime scene was established;
- (g) the time for which the extension is sought.

10 Statement to accompany copy of crime scene warrant

The statement to be given to the occupier of a place with a copy of a crime scene warrant²⁷ must state the following—

- (a) the nature of the powers a police officer may exercise at the crime scene;
- (b) the responsible officer at the crime scene must, as soon as reasonably practicable, state the officer's name, rank and station, and, if not in uniform, state he or she is a police officer and produce an identity card for inspection;
- (c) the occupier may ask another police officer present for his or her name, rank and station and, if not in uniform, the officer, if asked, must produce an identity card for inspection;

²⁷ See the Act, section 175 (Copy of crime scene warrant to be given to occupier).

- (d) the effect of the Act, sections 179, 622, 623, 626, 681 and 691.²⁸

Division 2 Use of surveillance devices under surveillance warrants*15 Applications to Supreme Court judge to be made with help of lawyer

An application to a Supreme Court judge for a surveillance warrant must, if reasonably practicable, be made with the help of a lawyer approved by the commissioner.

22 Security of facilities used under a surveillance device warrant

- (1) This section applies to premises containing equipment being used by an interceptor to electronically record a conversation or visual images under a surveillance device warrant.
- (2) The premises must—
 - (a) be capable of being locked; and
 - (b) have suitable facilities for securely storing recordings made under the warrant; and
 - (c) be used in a way that prevents anyone outside it from hearing or seeing anything being listened to or monitored.
- (3) The interceptor must take reasonable steps to ensure—
 - (a) only police officers helping or involved in the investigation, other interceptors, and persons authorised under subsection (4) enter the premises; and
 - (b) when the premises are unattended, the premises are locked and any recordings made under the warrant are securely stored at the premises or another secure place.
- (4) The following persons are also authorised to enter the premises—
 - (a) the police officer who applied for the surveillance device warrant;

Schedule 10 (continued)

- (b) persons responsible for the management of the premises;
 - (c) persons appointed by the commissioner to investigate misconduct;
 - (d) anyone else the interceptor permits to be present for helping in or monitoring the investigation.
- (5) This section does not apply to the exercise of powers in Queensland under a corresponding warrant or corresponding emergency authorisation.

Division 3 Covert search25 Applications to be made with help of lawyer

An application to a Supreme Court judge for a covert search warrant must, if reasonably practicable, be made with the help of a lawyer approved by the commissioner.

- (b) a description of the place to be searched;
- (c) the type of organised crime related offence, designated offence or terrorism to which the application relates;
- (d) for an occupied place—if known, the name of the occupier of the place and any person reasonably suspected of being involved in the offence;
- (e) a description of the nature of the thing sought that is reasonably suspected of being evidence of the commission of an organised crime related offence, designated offence or terrorism;
- (f) information or evidence being relied on to satisfy a judge there are reasonable grounds for believing there is evidence of the organised crime, designated offence or terrorism at the place;

- (g) for each warrant issued in the previous year in relation to the place or person suspected of being involved in the organised crime to which the application relates—
 - (i) the type of warrant; and
 - (ii) when and where the warrant was issued; and
 - (iii) for a surveillance device warrant or covert search warrant, how long the warrant was in force; and
 - (iv) whether the warrant related to a person or a place; and
 - (v) the type of offence to which the warrant related; and
 - (vi) any evidence seized during a search; and
 - (vii) how a previous covert search or surveillance device warrant helped in the investigation or another investigation; and
 - (viii) information about any proceeding started after the search or use of the surveillance device.

27 Covert search warrant extension application

An application for an extension of a covert search warrant must state the following—

- (a) the applicant's name, rank, registered number and station;
- (b) a description of the place to be searched;
- (c) for an occupied place—if known, the name of the occupier of the place and any person reasonably suspected of being involved in the offence;
- (d) the type of organised crime related offence to which the warrant relates;

- (e) a description of the nature of the thing sought that is reasonably suspected of being evidence of the commission of an organised crime related offence;
- (f) information or evidence being relied on to satisfy a judge there are reasonable grounds for believing there is evidence of organised crime at the place;
- (g) information included in the application for the covert search warrant about each warrant issued in the previous year in relation to the place or person suspected of being involved in the organised crime to which the application relates.

28 Report on covert search

A report on the exercise of powers under a covert search warrant must be accompanied by a copy of the warrant and state the following—

- (a) the reporting police officer's name, rank, registered number and station;
- (b) the organised crime related offence to which the warrant relates;
- (c) when the powers under the warrant were exercised;
- (d) the facts and circumstances of compliance with the warrant and the conditions of its issue;
- (e) particulars of anything seized, inspected or photographed under the warrant;
- (f) a description of any order sought in relation to anything seized or photographed under the warrant and the reason for the order.

Examples of an order—

- an order that anything seized and any photograph taken be retained for the purpose of the investigation of the organised crime related offence or another serious indictable offence
- an order that anything seized and any photograph taken be retained for the purpose of a proceeding started under the

Criminal Proceeds Confiscation Act 2002 relating to an offence arising out of the investigation

- an order that anything seized and any photograph taken be retained for use as evidence in the prosecution of the persons named in the application
- an order that a thing seized be destroyed in a way the commissioner considers appropriate

An application for an order of a Childrens Court authorising a DNA sampler to take a DNA sample from a child for DNA analysis³⁶ must state the following—

- (a) the applicant's name, rank, registered number and station;
- (b) the name of the child;
- (c) a stated indictable offence has been committed;
- (d) information or evidence that may be relied on to support a reasonable suspicion that the child has committed the indictable offence;
- (e) taking a DNA sample for DNA analysis may tend to prove or disprove the child's involvement in the offence;
- (f) notice of the making of the application has been given under the Act, section 488 and when the notice was given.

³⁶ Applications are made under the Act, section 488 (Taking DNA sample from child).

31 Disease test order application

An application for a disease test order³⁷ must state the following—

- (a) the applicant's name, rank, registered number and station;
- (b) the name of the person to whom the application relates;
- (c) a stated relevant offence has been committed;
- (d) taking a blood or urine sample may help find out whether the person may have transmitted a relevant disease to the victim of the offence or another person;
- (e) information supporting the application and indicating semen, blood, saliva or another bodily fluid may have been transmitted to another person during or soon after the commission of the offence;
- (f) the person has been advised of the person's right to have a lawyer present at the hearing of the application;
- (g) if the person is a child—notice of the application has been given under the Act, section 541(2) and when the notice was given.

³⁷ Applications are made under the Act, section 540 (Application for order for blood and urine testing of person).

Part 5 Powers and responsibilities relating to investigations and questioning for indictable offences*Division 1 Questioning relevant persons about indictable offences*32 Application of div 1

This division only applies to indictable offences.

33 Asking persons to attend for questioning

(1) This section applies if a police officer wants to question a person as a suspect, other than a person mentioned in the Act, section 398.

(2) If the police officer approaches the person when not at a police station or police establishment, the police officer must caution the person in a way substantially complying with the following—

‘I am (name and rank) of (name of police station or police establishment).

I wish to question you about (briefly describe offence).

Are you prepared to come with me to (place of questioning)?

Do you understand that you are not under arrest and you do not have to come with me?’.

(3) If the person, while not in the company of a police officer, attends a police station or police establishment for questioning, the caution must substantially comply with the following—

‘I am (name and rank) of (name of police station or police establishment).

I wish to question you about (briefly describe offence).

Did you come here of your own free will?'

- (4) Before the police officer starts to question the person, the police officer must caution the person in a way substantially complying with the following—

'Do you understand you are not under arrest?

Do you understand you are free to leave at any time unless you are arrested?'

- (5) If the police officer reasonably suspects the person does not understand the caution, the officer may ask the person to explain the meaning of the caution in the person's own words.
- (6) If necessary, the police officer must further explain the caution.

34 Right to communicate with friend, relative or lawyer

- (1) If a police officer must advise a relevant person of his or her right to contact a friend, relative or lawyer,³⁸ the advice the police officer gives must substantially comply with the following—

'You have the right to telephone or speak to a friend or relative to inform that person where you are and to ask him or her to be present during questioning.

You also have the right to telephone or speak to a lawyer of your choice to inform the lawyer where you are and to arrange or attempt to arrange for the lawyer to be present during questioning.

If you want to telephone or speak to any of these people, questioning will be delayed for a reasonable time for that purpose.

Is there anyone you wish to telephone or speak to?'

38 See the Act, section 418 (Right to communicate with friend, relative or lawyer).

Schedule 10 (continued)

- (2) If the police officer reasonably suspects the relevant person does not understand the advice, the police officer may ask the relevant person to explain the meaning of the advice in the person's own words.
- (3) If necessary, the police officer must further explain the advice.
- (4) If the relevant person wants to speak to a lawyer, the police officer must, without unreasonable delay, make available to the person—
 - (a) if there is a regional lawyer list available and the person has not asked to speak to a particular lawyer—the regional lawyer list; or
 - (b) a telephone directory for the region.
- (5) A police officer must not do or say anything with the intention of—
 - (a) dissuading the relevant person from obtaining legal advice; or
 - (b) persuading a relevant person to arrange for a particular lawyer to be present.³⁹

35 Right to remain silent not affected

- (1) This section applies if a person, the person's lawyer, or someone whose presence is required during questioning of a person indicates to the police officer questioning or intending to question the person—
 - (a) if questioning has not started—the person does not want to answer questions; or
 - (b) if questioning has started—the person does not want to answer any further questions.
- (2) The police officer must clarify the person's intention to exercise his or her right to silence by asking the person—

³⁹ For circumstances where this may not apply see the Act, section 441 (When sections 418–422, 432 and 434 do not apply).

- (a) whether the person does not want to answer any questions generally or only questions about the offence for which the person is being questioned; and
 - (b) if any further question was asked relating to the offence or another offence, whether the person would not answer the question.
- (3) If the person confirms that he or she does not want to answer any questions, the police officer must not question or continue to question the person.
- (4) However, if the person later indicates he or she is prepared to answer questions, a police officer must, before questioning or continuing to question the person, ask the person—
- (a) why he or she has decided to answer questions; and
 - (b) if a police officer or someone else in authority has told the person to answer questions.

36 Questioning of Aboriginal people and Torres Strait Islanders

- (1) A police officer who is about to question a relevant person the police officer reasonably suspects is an adult Aborigine or Torres Strait Islander must, unless he or she already knows the relevant person, first ask questions necessary to establish the person's level of education and understanding.
- (2) The questions the police officer may ask include questions, not related to the relevant person's involvement in the offence, that may help the police officer decide if the person—
- (a) is capable of understanding the questions put to him or her, what is happening to him or her, and his or her rights at law; and
 - (b) is capable of effectively communicating answers to the questions; and
 - (c) is aware of the reason the questions are being asked.
- (3) If the police officer considers it is necessary to notify a representative of a legal aid organisation that the relevant

person is about to be questioned in relation to an offence, the police officer must inform the relevant person of the intention to notify the legal aid organisation, in a way substantially complying with the following—

‘As you have not arranged for a lawyer to be present, a legal aid organisation will be notified you are here to be questioned about your involvement in an indictable offence’.⁴⁰

- (4) If the relevant person has indicated he or she does not wish to telephone or speak to a support person or arrange for a support person to be present during questioning, the police officer conducting the questioning must inform the relevant person that he or she may have a support person present during the questioning.

- (5) The information given under subsection (4) must substantially comply with the following—

‘Is there any reason why you don’t want to telephone or speak to a support person and arrange for a person to be present during questioning?

Do you understand that arrangements can be made for a support person to be present during the questioning?

Do you also understand that you do not have to have a support person present during questioning?

Do you want to have a support person present?’.

- (6) If the police officer reasonably suspects the person is at a disadvantage in comparison with members of the Australian community generally, and the person has not arranged for a support person to be present during the questioning, the police officer must arrange for a support person to be present.⁴¹

40 For the obligation to notify the legal aid organisation, see the Act, section 420.

41 See the Act, section 440 (List of support persons and interpreters).

Schedule 10 (continued)

37 Cautioning relevant persons about the right to silence

- (1) A police officer must caution a relevant person about the person's right to silence⁴² in a way substantially complying with the following—

‘Before I ask you any questions I must tell you that you have the right to remain silent.

This means you do not have to say anything, answer any question or make any statement unless you wish to do so.

However, if you do say something or make a statement, it may later be used as evidence.

Do you understand?’.

- (2) If the police officer reasonably suspects the relevant person does not understand the caution, the police officer may ask the person to explain the meaning of the caution in his or her own words.
- (3) If necessary, the police officer must further explain the caution.
- (4) If questioning is suspended or delayed, the police officer must ensure the relevant person is aware he or she still has the right to remain silent and, if necessary, again caution the person when questioning resumes.
- (5) If a police officer cautions a relevant person in the absence of someone else who is to be present during the questioning, the caution must be repeated in the other person's presence.

38 Provision of information relating to a relevant person

- (1) If a person who is a relative, friend or lawyer of a relevant person asks for information about the relevant person's whereabouts, the police officer receiving the request must, if the person asking for the information is not known to the police officer, ask the person—

42 See the Act, section 431 (Cautioning of persons).

Schedule 10 (continued)

- (a) if he or she is a relative, friend or lawyer of the relevant person; and
 - (b) for his or her name and address or, for a lawyer, place of business; and
 - (c) if the person makes the request personally—for proof of his or her identity.⁴³
- (2) The police officer may also ask any other question the police officer considers necessary to establish that the person is a relative, friend or lawyer of the relevant person.
- (3) Also, the police officer must make or cause to be made a check of the register for information about the relevant person.

39 Right to interpreter

- (1) This section applies for deciding whether to arrange for the presence of an interpreter during questioning of a relevant person.⁴⁴
- (2) A police officer may ask the relevant person a question, other than a question related to the person's involvement in the offence for which the person is to be questioned, that will help the police officer decide if an interpreter should be present.
- (3) In particular, the police officer may ask questions that may help the police officer decide whether or not the relevant person—
- (a) is capable of understanding the questions put to him or her, what is happening to him or her, and his or her rights at law; and
 - (b) is capable of effectively communicating answers to the questions; and
 - (c) is aware of the reason the questions are being asked.

43 See the Act, section 432 (Provision of information relating to a relevant person).

44 See the Act, section 433 (Right to interpreter).

40 Right of visiting foreign national to communicate with embassy etc.

- (1) This section applies if a police officer reasonably suspects a relevant person may have the right to telephone or attempt to telephone the embassy or consular office of the country of which the person is a citizen.⁴⁵
- (2) For deciding whether the relevant person has the right to telephone or attempt to telephone an embassy or consular office, a police officer may ask the relevant person a question, other than a question related to the person's involvement in the offence for which the person is to be questioned.
- (3) If the police officer reasonably suspects the person has the right to telephone or attempt to telephone an embassy or consular office, the police officer must inform the relevant person of the right in a way substantially complying with the following—

‘Before I ask you any questions I must tell you that you have the right to telephone, or attempt to telephone, the embassy or consular office of the country of which you are a citizen.

Do you want to telephone your embassy or consular office?’.
- (4) If the police officer reasonably suspects the relevant person does not understand the advice, the police officer may ask the person to explain the advice in his or her own words.
- (5) If necessary, the police officer must further explain the advice.

41 Rights of a person to be electronically recorded

- (1) If it is not reasonably practicable for a police officer to electronically record the giving to a relevant person of information, including a caution, the police officer must make a written record of the giving of the information and the person's response.⁴⁶

45 See the Act, section 434 (Right of visiting foreign national to communicate with embassy etc.).

46 See the Act, section 435 (Rights of a person to be electronically recorded).

Schedule 10 (continued)

- (2) The police officer must make the record as if the Act, section 437⁴⁷ applied to the giving of the information and the response.

42 Procedure for reading back a written record

- (1) This section applies if a police officer makes a written record of things said by or to a relevant person during questioning because it is not reasonably practicable to electronically record the things said.⁴⁸
- (2) Before reading to the relevant person the written record of the things said, the police officer questioning the person must explain the procedure in a way substantially complying with the following—

‘Some of the questions I have asked you and your responses have not been electronically recorded.

I have made a written record of the unrecorded conversation. This is your copy of the record. I will now read the written record aloud.

If you consider there is an error in the record or there is something left out of the record, you should say so after I read that part of the record aloud.

You will then be asked to say what the record should read.

Do you understand this is your opportunity to disagree with anything in the written record?

Do you understand this procedure?’.

- (3) If the police officer reasonably suspects the relevant person does not understand the explanation, the police officer may ask the person to explain the procedure in his or her own words.

47 The Act, section 437 (Requirements for written record of confession or admission)

48 See the Act, section 436 (Recording of questioning etc.) and 437 (Requirements for written record of confession or admission).

Schedule 10 (continued)

- (4) If necessary, the police officer must further explain the procedure.

Division 2 Questioning etc. of persons detained*43 Removal order application

An application for a removal order⁴⁹ must state the following—

- (a) the applicant's name, rank, registered number and station;
- (b) the name and age of the person to whom the application relates;
- (c) where the person is held in custody;
- (d) whether the person is in custody for an offence that has not been decided, or under sentence for a term of imprisonment or, for a child, under a detention order;
- (e) the type of indictable offence to which the questioning or investigation relates;
- (f) whether the removal of the person into police custody is for questioning the person or for a stated investigative procedure;
- (g) whether the person has been advised of the application;
- (h) information or evidence about the nature and seriousness of the offence;
- (i) information or evidence that may be relied on—
 - (i) to support a suspicion the person has committed the offence mentioned in the application; and
 - (ii) to satisfy a magistrate removal of the person from a prison or detention centre is necessary for ⁴⁹ See the Act, section 399 (Application for removal of person from lawful custody).

questioning the person or the investigation of the offence.

44 Detention period extension application

- (1) An application by a police officer for the extension of a detention period⁵⁰ must be made in a way that allows the relevant person or the person's lawyer to make submissions about the application.

Example for subsection (1)—

If the application is faxed to a magistrate, the relevant person may speak to the magistrate by telephone.

- (2) Before the application is made, the police officer must—
- (a) tell the relevant person or the person's lawyer of the application; and
 - (b) give the person a copy of the application; and
 - (c) ask the person or the person's lawyer if he or she—
 - (i) agrees to the application or wants to oppose it; and
 - (ii) wants to make submissions or say anything to the justice or magistrate hearing the application.
- (3) The application must state the following—
- (a) the applicant's name, rank, registered number and station;
 - (b) the following information about the person to whom the application relates—
 - (i) the person's name, age and address;
 - (ii) whether the person is in custody under the *Corrective Services Act 2000*⁵¹ or the Juvenile Justice Act 1992 for an offence that has not been 50 Applications are made under the Act, section 405 (Application for extension of detention period).

51 Now see the Corrective Services Act 2006, section 470.

Schedule 10 (continued)

- decided or under a sentence for a term of imprisonment or, for a child, a detention order;
- (iii) whether the person is an Aborigine, a Torres Strait Islander, a child, or a person with impaired capacity;
 - (iv) if the person is a child—whether a parent of the child has been advised of the child’s detention;
- (c) whether, since the questioning or detention started, the person has asked to telephone or speak to a relative, friend or lawyer and has since spoken to a relative, friend, lawyer or support person;
 - (d) when the detention period started, how long the person has been questioned, and what delays to questioning have happened;
 - (e) the offence to which the questioning or investigation relates and information and evidence about the nature and seriousness of the offence;
 - (f) information or evidence supporting a reasonable suspicion the relevant person has committed the offence mentioned in the application;
 - (g) what investigations have taken place;
 - (h) why further detention of the person is necessary;
 - (i) the time sought for time out, the purpose of the time out, and the period of time sought for questioning.
- (4) The applicant must tell the justice or magistrate whether or not the relevant person or the person’s lawyer wants to make submissions or say anything to the justice or magistrate.

Division 3 Provisions about support persons44A Ensuring support persons understand role

- (1) Before a police officer questions a relevant person in the presence of a support person, the police officer must—

- (a) give the support person information in the approved form about the role of support persons during questioning; and
 - (b) ensure, as far as practicable, that the person understands the nature of the support person's role; and
 - (c) if the support person asks, give an explanation of anything relevant to the person's role as a support person; and
 - (d) inform the support person of the identity of the relevant person and why the person is being questioned.
- (2) The information must include the following—
- (a) a summary of sections 427, 428, 429 and 430⁵² of the Act;
 - (b) a statement that the support person must act in the best interests of the relevant person;
 - (c) a statement that, unless the support person is a lawyer, the support person must not provide legal advice to the relevant person but may ask the relevant person questions to ensure the relevant person understands—
 - (i) that the person may ask for a lawyer to be present during questioning or at any time before questioning ends; and
 - (ii) that the person is not obliged to say anything during questioning; and
 - (iii) that anything the relevant person says during questioning may be used in evidence in a court; and
 - (iv) what is said by a police officer during questioning.

⁵² Sections 427 (Application of div 5), 428 (When is a person unable to properly perform the role of a support person), 429 (Police officer may exclude support person from questioning) and 430 (If police officer excludes support person from questioning of relevant person) of the Act

Part 6 Powers in relation to persons in custodyDivision 1 General requirements for witness identification*45 Management of witnesses during identification procedure

- (1) The way an identification procedure is conducted must allow only 1 witness involved in the procedure to see or hear the procedure at a time.
- (2) Also, after a witness has taken part in the procedure, the witness must, as far as reasonably practicable, be prevented from speaking about the procedure to any other witness until the procedure ends.
- (3) Also, if reasonably practicable, the way a witness identifies a person during an identification procedure must be electronically recorded.
- (4) A police officer must not stop a person being present during the procedure to support the witness unless—
 - (a) the other person is a witness involved in the procedure; or
 - (b) the officer suspects the person will influence the witness's decision or disrupt the procedure.
- (5) If a police officer stops someone being present during the procedure to support a witness, the police officer must—
 - (a) give to the witness the reasons for stopping the person being present; and
 - (b) advise the witness he or she may arrange for someone else to be present to support the witness; and
 - (c) if asked, allow someone else to be present.

Division 2 Identification parades46 Application of div 2

This division applies if a police officer conducts an identification parade that includes a person reasonably suspected of having committed an offence (the suspect).

47 Recording of identification parade

If reasonably practicable, a police officer must cause the behaviour and position of each person in an identification parade to be photographed or otherwise electronically recorded.

48 Explanation of procedure

- (1) A police officer must explain the procedure for an identification parade to a suspect before conducting the identification parade.
- (2) If the police officer reasonably suspects the suspect does not understand the procedure, the police officer must ask the suspect to explain the procedure in his or her own words.
- (3) If necessary, the police officer must further explain the procedure.
- (4) The explanation must include the police officer telling the suspect the following—
 - (a) the identification parade can not be conducted unless the suspect agrees;
 - (b) the suspect may have a friend, relative or lawyer present at the identification parade if that person can attend within a reasonable time;
 - (c) anyone present may not interfere with the procedure in any way;

Schedule 10 (continued)

- (d) the suspect may choose a position in the parade and change position in the parade after each witness has viewed the parade;
- (e) the suspect's identity will not be given to a witness unless the witness identifies the person and a proceeding is started against the person.

49 Identification parade conditions

A police officer conducting an identification parade must, as far as reasonably practicable, replicate the conditions, described by the witness, when the witness saw a person involved in the offence, for example, by—

- (a) changing the lighting in the room; or
- (b) varying the distance from which the witness views the identification parade; or
- (c) concealing aspects of the participants in the identification parade.

50 Conducting the identification parade

- (1) Each witness must view the identification parade separately.
- (2) The police officer conducting the identification parade must ask the witness to carefully view the parade and to state whether the witness recognises anyone in the parade.
- (3) The police officer must ask the question in a way that does not suggest the identity of any participant in the identification parade.
- (4) If the witness indicates he or she recognises a person in the identification parade, the police officer conducting the parade must ask the witness to clearly identify the person recognised, for example, by stating the number of the person identified or describing his or her position in the parade.

51 Use of suitable persons in the identification parade

An identification parade must include the suspect and at least 11 other people of similar physical appearance and wearing similar clothing.

Division 3 Identification using photographs52 General requirements for identification using photographs

To avoid directing the attention of the witness to a particular photograph, the police officer must ensure nothing is marked on any photograph or the backing board on which the photograph is mounted.

53 Conducting a photoboard identification

- (1) A police officer showing witnesses a photoboard must show the photoboard to each witness separately.
- (2) Also, the police officer must ask the witness to carefully view the photoboard and to state whether the witness recognises anyone whose photo is on the photoboard.
- (3) The police officer must ask the question in a way that does not suggest the identity of a person whose photograph is on the photoboard.
- (4) If the witness indicates he or she recognises a person in a photo on the photoboard, the police officer must ask the witness to—
 - (a) clearly state the number of the photograph the witness has identified as being that of the person alleged to be responsible for committing the relevant offence; and
 - (b) write the photograph number and the date the photoboard was shown to the witness—
 - (i) on the front of an unmarked photocopy of the photoboard; or

Schedule 10 (continued)

- (ii) on the back of the photoboard or the selected photograph; and
- (c) sign the photoboard, photocopy or photograph where the person has written on it.

Part 7 The register54 Searches of persons

The following information about an enforcement act consisting of a search of a person must be included in the register of enforcement acts—

- (a) if known, the name of the person;
- (b) when and where the person was searched;
- (c) the purpose of the search;
- (d) whether the search involved the removal of outer clothing in circumstances requiring the search to be conducted out of public view;
- (e) for a search because of a reasonable suspicion—how long the person was detained for the search;
- (f) a description of anything seized because of the search;
- (g) information about the return, destruction or disposal of anything seized.

55 Searches of vehicles

The following information about an enforcement act consisting of a search of a vehicle must be included in the register of enforcement acts—

- (a) if known, the name of the person in possession of the vehicle and anyone detained;
- (b) the registration number or a description of the vehicle;

Schedule 10 (continued)

- (c) when and where the search took place;
- (d) the purpose of the search;
- (e) how long the vehicle was detained for the search;
- (f) a description of anything seized because of the search;
- (g) whether anything was damaged because of the search;
- (h) information about the return, destruction or disposal of anything seized.

56 Searches of places other than vehicles

The following information about an enforcement act consisting of a search of a place other than a vehicle must be included in the register of enforcement acts—

- (a) if known, the name of the person in possession of the place and anyone detained;
- (b) when and where the search took place;
- (c) the purpose of the search;
- (d) a description of anything seized because of the search;
- (e) whether anything was damaged because of the search;
- (f) information about the return, destruction or disposal of anything seized.

57 Arrests and detentions

The following information about an enforcement act consisting of an arrest, the detention of a person detained for investigations or questioning⁵³ or a relevant person under section 415⁵⁴ of the Act must be included in the register of enforcement acts—

- (a) if known, the name of the person;

53 See the Act, section 403 (Initial period of detention for investigation or questioning).

54 Section 415 (When does this part apply to a person) of the Act

Schedule 10 (continued)

- (b) when the person was arrested or detained;
- (c) for an arrest, where a person is held;
- (d) for a person detained, each place to which the person is taken to or held for the investigation or questioning, and when;
- (e) any significant event affecting the time for which questioning was suspended or delayed, for example, because of a time out period and the purpose of the time out;
- (f) any apparent injury the person received during the arrest or detention.

58 Search warrants

The following details about search warrants must be included in the register of enforcement acts—

- (a) when and where the warrant was issued;
- (b) if known, the name of the person mentioned in the application for the search warrant as the person suspected of being involved in the offence, suspected offence or confiscation related activity to which the application relates;
- (c) the type of offence or the confiscation related activity to which the warrant related;
- (d) if the search warrant related to an existing or proposed forfeiture proceeding—the type of forfeiture proceeding to which the warrant related;
- (e) the benefits derived from the warrant, including, for example, anything seized during the search and any proceeding started after the search.

59 Production notices

The following information about a production notice⁵⁵ must be included in the register of enforcement acts—

- (a) when and where the notice was issued;
- (b) if known, the name of the person mentioned in the application for the production notice as the person suspected of being involved in the offence, suspected offence or confiscation related activity to which the application relates;
- (c) the type of offence or the confiscation related activity to which the production notice related;
- (ca) if the production notice related to an existing or proposed forfeiture proceeding—the type of forfeiture proceeding to which the production notice related;
- (d) the benefits derived from the production notice, including, for example, any document produced under the notice and any proceeding started after the document was produced;
- (e) information about the return of any document produced.

60 Production orders

The following information about a production order⁵⁶ must be included in the register of enforcement acts—

- (a) when and where the order was issued;
- (b) if known, the name of the person mentioned in the application for the production order as the person who was found guilty of the confiscation offence, is suspected of having committed the confiscation offence or is suspected of having engaged in the serious crime related activity to which the application relates;

55 See the Act, section 180 (Production notices).

56 See the Act, section 189 (Production order applications).

Schedule 10 (continued)

- (c) the type of confiscation offence or serious crime related activity to which the production order related;
- (d) the benefits derived from the production order, including, for example, any document produced under the order and any proceeding started after the document was produced;
- (e) information about the return of any document produced.

61 Monitoring orders and suspension orders

The following information about applications for monitoring orders or suspension orders⁵⁷ must be recorded in the register of covert acts—

- (a) when and where the application for the order was made;
- (b) the name of the financial institution mentioned in the application;
- (c) the name of the person in relation to whom the application was made;

58 The Act, section 48 (Direction may be given to person)

Schedule 10 (continued)

- (e) the name, rank, station and telephone contact number of the police officer who seized the thing;
- (f) where the thing will be taken, if known;
- (g) the date the receipt is issued.

67 Functions of property officer

- (1) A property officer has the following functions—
 - (a) to receive anything seized by a police officer under the Act;
 - (b) to keep records of anything received at the property point or by the property officer, including—
 - (i) the date the thing was received; and
 - (ii) the particulars of the police officer who seized the thing; and
 - (iii) a description of the thing seized; and
 - (iv) if it is removed from the property officer's custody—when and why it left the property officer's custody and when it was returned;
 - (c) to ensure the safe and secure storage at the property point of the thing seized;
 - (d) if appropriate, to transfer or arrange the transfer of the thing seized to—
 - (i) another property point for its safe and secure storage; or
 - (ii) another place for destruction or disposal; or
 - (iii) a declared agency;
 - (e) if required under the Act or any other Act—to destroy or dispose of the thing seized in the way decided by the commissioner;
 - (f) if the thing is money other than money that must be retained so it can be used as an exhibit in a court—depositing the money in a financial institution account operated by the police service.

- (2) Also, as soon as reasonably practicable after the property officer receives a seized thing, the property officer must ensure the thing is capable of being easily identified.

Example for subsection (2)—

The thing may have attached to it a label or tag with a number or other identifier identical to the number or identifier the property officer has assigned to the thing in the record.

68 Order after property seized

An application under the Act, section 694 or 695⁶¹ for an order relating to a seized thing must state the following—

- (a) the applicant's name, rank, registered number and station;
- (b) a description of the thing;
- (c) the circumstances of the seizure, including, for example, if the thing was seized under a search warrant;
- (d) relevant information about the thing, including, for example, the following—
 - (i) the nature of any interest a person has in the thing;
 - (ii) the approximate value of the thing;
 - (iii) whether the thing may be needed as evidence in a proceeding and the type of offence or forfeiture proceeding for which it may be evidence;
- (e) the order sought;
- (f) the reasons for seeking the order.
