Information about this reprint

This Act is reprinted as at 1 October 2008. The reprint shows the law as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before that day (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(c)).

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes. Also see list of legislation for any uncommenced amendments.

Minor editorial changes allowed under the provisions of the Reprints Act 1992 mentioned in the following list have also been made to—

- use different spelling consistent with current drafting practice (s 26(2))
- use aspects of format and printing style consistent with current drafting practice (s 35).

This page is specific to this reprint. See previous reprints for information about earlier changes made under the Reprints Act 1992. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about—

- when provisions commenced
- editorial changes made in earlier reprints.

Spelling

The spelling of certain words or phrases may be inconsistent in this reprint or with other reprints because of changes made in various editions of the Macquarie Dictionary (for example, in the dictionary, ‘lodgement’ has replaced ‘lodgment’).

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, authorised (that is, hard copy) and unauthorised (that is, electronic), are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If an authorised reprint is dated earlier than an unauthorised version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown for an unauthorised version previously published, it merely means that the unauthorised version was published before the authorised version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published unauthorised version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown on another authorised reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

Whistleblowers Protection Act 1994

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 1 October 2008]

An Act to protect whistleblowers and for other purposes

Part 1 Preliminary

Division 1 Title and commencement

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Whistleblowers Protection Act 1994.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

Division 2 Object of Act

3 Principal object of Act

This Act's principal object is to promote the public interest by protecting persons who disclose—

- unlawful, negligent or improper conduct affecting the public sector
- danger to public health or safety
- danger to the environment.

[s 4]

Division 3 Definitions

4 Definitions and dictionary

- (1) The dictionary in schedule 6 defines particular words used in this Act.
- (2) Schedule 5 contains certain definitions in separate sections.
- (3) Schedule 5 definitions and definitions found elsewhere in this Act are signposted in the dictionary.

Division 4 Operation of Act

5 Act generally binding

This Act binds all persons, including the State.

6 Other protection saved

This Act does not limit the protection given by another law to a person who makes disclosures of any type or affect another remedy available to the person.

Part 2 General explanation of Act

7 What is the general nature of the Act's scheme?

- (1) This Act provides a scheme that, in the public interest, gives special protection to disclosures about unlawful, negligent or improper public sector conduct or danger to public health or safety or the environment.
- (2) Because the protection is very broad, the scheme has a number of balancing mechanisms intended to—
 - (a) focus the protection where it is needed; and

- (b) make it easier to decide whether the special protection applies to a disclosure; and
 - (c) ensure appropriate consideration is also given to the interests of persons against whom disclosures are made; and
 - (d) encourage the making of disclosures in a way that helps to remedy the matter disclosed; and
 - (e) prevent the scheme adversely affecting the independence of the judiciary and the commercial operations of corporatised corporations.
- (3) The scheme gives protection only to a public interest disclosure, which is a particular type of disclosure defined by reference to the person who makes the disclosure, the type of information disclosed and the entity to which the disclosure is made (the appropriate entity).

Editor's note—

Each expression in this part that is in bold type and italics is defined either in the dictionary or in a section signposted by the dictionary.

- (4) Certain types of public interest disclosures may be disclosed under the scheme by a public officer, which includes any officer of a public sector entity.
- (5) The expression public sector entity is widely defined and a list can be found in schedule 5, section 2.
- (6) Other types of public interest disclosures may be made under the scheme by anybody.

8 Public disclosures made by public officers (pt 3)

- (1) Under section 15, a public officer may disclose official misconduct, an expression defined in the Crime and Misconduct Act 2001.
- (2) Under section 16, a public officer may disclose maladministration that specifically, substantially and adversely affects someone's interests.

[s 9]

- (3) Maladministration is widely defined to cover illegal, arbitrary, oppressive or improper public sector administrative action.
- (4) Under section 17, a public officer may disclose negligent or improper management involving a substantial waste of public funds.
- (5) The disclosure may concern the conduct of any public officer or public sector entity or anyone contracting to supply goods or services (other than as an employee) to a public sector entity.
- (6) Under section 18, a public officer may disclose a substantial and specific danger to public health or safety or the environment.
- (7) Public health or safety is widely defined in this Act and the wide definition of environment in the Environmental Protection Act 1994 is introduced by cross-reference.

9 Public interest disclosures made by anybody

- (1) Under section 19, anybody may disclose a substantial and specific danger to the health or safety of a person with a disability.
- (2) The wide definition of disability in the Disability Services Act 2006 is introduced by cross-reference.
- (3) Under section 19, anybody may disclose a substantial and specific danger to the environment from contraventions of, or of conditions under, provisions of Acts listed in schedule 2.
- (4) Under section 20, anybody may disclose a reprisal taken against anybody for making a public interest disclosure.

10 How must a public interest disclosure be made (pt 4)?

- (1) Under part 4, division 2, a public interest disclosure must be made to an appropriate entity, which is a public sector entity identified under the division or to a member of the Legislative Assembly who may refer it to a public sector entity identified under the division.

- (2) This requirement ensures that—
 - (a) public interest disclosures are made or referred to public sector entities that have responsibility or power to take appropriate action about the information disclosed or to provide an appropriate remedy; and
 - (b) unfair damage is not caused to the reputations of persons against whom disclosures are made by inappropriate publication of unsubstantiated disclosures.
 - (3) Under the division, a public interest disclosure may be made to an appropriate entity—
 - (a) in any way, unless certain exceptions apply including, for example, another law requiring a particular procedure or the appropriate entity having established reasonable procedures; and
 - (b) despite any exception otherwise applying, always to specified persons within the appropriate entity, if it is a public sector entity, including the appropriate entity's chief executive officer.
 - (4) Under part 4, division 3—
 - (a) public sector entities receiving public interest disclosures are required to keep proper records about them, because of the special protection given for public interest disclosures; and
 - (b) certain information about public interest disclosures is required to be provided annually to the Legislative Assembly; and
 - (c) reasonable information about action taken on a public interest disclosure made or referred to an appropriate entity, and the results, is required to be given to the discloser or referrer.
 - (5) Part 4, division 4 provides for the application of the Act to courts, tribunals and judicial officers in a way intended to prevent the Act's administration adversely affecting judicial work or independence.

[s 11]

- (6) Part 4, division 6 provides for the application of the Act to corporatised corporations in a way intended to prevent the Act's administration adversely affecting corporatised corporation's commercial operations.

11 What is the special protection given for public interest disclosures (pt 5)?

- (1) Under part 5, division 2, a person is declared not to be liable, civilly, criminally or under an administrative process, for making a public interest disclosure.
- (2) Under part 5, divisions 3 to 5, causing or attempting or conspiring to cause detriment to any person because of a public interest disclosure is declared to be a reprisal and unlawful, both under the civil law of tort and the criminal law.
- (3) Under part 5, division 6—
 - (a) public sector entities must establish reasonable procedures to protect their officers from reprisals; and
 - (b) public officers with existing rights to appeal against, or to apply for a review of, disciplinary action, appointments, transfers or unfair treatment are permitted to use these rights against reprisals; and
 - (c) public service employees are given an additional right to appeal to the chief executive of the Public Service Commission to be relocated to remove the danger of reprisals.
- (4) Under part 5, division 7, the industrial commission, or, if the industrial commission does not have jurisdiction, the Supreme Court, may grant injunctions against reprisals.

12 General sections (pt 6)

- (1) Part 6 provides for certain offences and the criminal proceedings about the offences.
- (2) The part makes it an offence—

- (a) for a public officer to record or disclose certain confidential information gained through involvement in this Act's administration other than under certain circumstances including, for example, the investigation under an Act of information disclosed under a public interest disclosure; and
 - (b) for a person intentionally to give false or misleading information as a public interest disclosure or in subsequent inquiries into the person's disclosure.
- (3) The part also declares that a public officer who commits one of these offences or the offence of reprisal is guilty of misconduct under any Act under which the officer may be dismissed or disciplined for misconduct.

Part 3 Disclosures that may be made

13 Purpose of part

The purpose of this part is to describe the type of disclosures that may be made as public interest disclosures under this Act and who may make them.

14 What type of information can be disclosed?

- (1) The types of information that may be disclosed by a public interest disclosure, and who may make the disclosure, are specified in sections 15 to 20.
- (2) A person has information about conduct or danger specified in sections 15 to 20 if the person honestly believes on reasonable grounds that the person has information that tends to show the conduct or danger.
- (3) If information is about an event, it may be about something that has or may have happened, is or may be happening, or will or may happen.

[s 15]

- (4) If the information is about someone else's conduct, the information may be about conduct in which the other person has or may have engaged, is or may be engaging, or is or may be intending to engage.
- (5) The information need not be in a form that would make it admissible evidence in a court proceeding.

Example—

The information may take the form of hearsay.

15 Public officer may disclose official misconduct

A public officer may make a public interest disclosure about someone else's conduct if—

- (a) the officer has information about the conduct; and
- (b) the conduct is official misconduct.

Editor's note—

This and other sections allowing a person to make public interest disclosures as a public officer do not generally contain rules limiting the disclosures to disclosures about the public sector unit of which the person is an officer.

16 Public officer may disclose maladministration

A public officer may make a public interest disclosure about someone else's conduct if—

- (a) the officer has information about the conduct; and
- (b) the conduct is maladministration that adversely affects anybody's interests in a substantial and specific way.

17 Public officer may disclose negligent or improper management affecting public funds

- (1) A public officer may make a public interest disclosure about the conduct of another public officer, a public sector entity or a public sector contractor if—
 - (a) the officer has information about the conduct; and

- (b) the conduct is negligent or improper management directly or indirectly resulting, or likely to result, in a substantial waste of public funds.
- (2) The disclosure can not be based on a mere disagreement over policy that may properly be adopted about amounts, purposes and priorities of expenditure.

18 Public officer may disclose danger to public health or safety or environment

- (1) This section applies if a public officer has information about a substantial and specific danger to public health or safety or to the environment.
- (2) The public officer may make a public interest disclosure of the information.

19 Anybody may disclose danger to person with disability or to environment from particular contraventions

- (1) This section applies if anybody has information about—
 - (a) a substantial and specific danger to the health or safety of a person with a disability; or
 - (b) the commission of an offence against a provision mentioned in schedule 2, if commission of the offence is or would be a substantial and specific danger to the environment; or
 - (c) a contravention of a condition imposed under a provision mentioned in schedule 2, if the contravention is or would be a substantial and specific danger to the environment.
- (2) The person may make a public interest disclosure of the information.

20 Anybody may disclose reprisal

Anybody may make a public interest disclosure about someone else's conduct if—

[s 21]

- (a) the person has information about the conduct; and
- (b) the conduct is a reprisal.

21 Conduct of unknown person

A person may make a public interest disclosure whether or not the person is able to identify a particular person to which the information disclosed relates.

22 Involuntary disclosures

A disclosure may be a public interest disclosure even though it is made under a legal requirement.

23 Disclosure of events that happened before commencement

A public interest disclosure may be made under this Act about events that happened or may have happened before the commencement of this Act.

Part 4 Disclosure process

Division 1 Purpose of part

24 Purpose of part

The purpose of this part is to describe the ways in which a person may make a public interest disclosure and provide for related processes.

Division 2 Disclosure must be to appropriate entity

25 Disclosure must be made to an appropriate entity

- (1) Section 26 specifies appropriate entities to which public interest disclosures may be made.

Editor's note—

See division 4 for overriding limitations about courts, tribunals and judicial officers.

- (2) Section 27 provides more detail on how and to whom the public interest disclosure may be made within the appropriate entities.
- (3) To be treated as a public interest disclosure, a disclosure under sections 15 to 20 must be made to an appropriate entity.
- (4) The fact that a public interest disclosure may be made under a particular provision to a particular appropriate entity does not exclude it from being made under another provision to the same or another appropriate entity.

26 When public sector entity or member of Legislative Assembly is an appropriate entity

- (1) Any public sector entity is an appropriate entity to receive a public interest disclosure—
 - (a) about its own conduct or the conduct of any of its officers; or
 - (b) made to it about anything it has a power to investigate or remedy; or
 - (c) made to it by anybody who is entitled to make the public interest disclosure and honestly believes it is an appropriate entity to receive the disclosure under paragraph (a) or (b); or
 - (d) referred to it by another public sector entity under section 28.

- (1A) A member of the Legislative Assembly is an appropriate entity to receive any public interest disclosure.
- (2) However, subsection (1)(c) or (1A) does not permit a public sector entity or member of the Legislative Assembly to receive a public interest disclosure if, apart from this section, the public sector entity or member would not be able to receive the disclosure because of division 4 or 6.
- (3) If a person makes a public interest disclosure to an appropriate entity, the person may also make a public interest disclosure to the entity about a reprisal taken against the person for making the disclosure.

Examples—

Schedule 3 has examples of the operation of subsection (1)(a) and (b).

27 How to disclose to appropriate entity

- (1) A public interest disclosure may be made to an appropriate entity in any way, including anonymously.
- (2) However, if an appropriate entity establishes a reasonable procedure for making a public interest disclosure to the entity, the procedure must be used by a person making a public interest disclosure to the entity.
- (3) Despite subsection (2), a public interest disclosure made to an appropriate entity that is a public sector entity may always be made to—
 - (a) its chief executive officer; or

Editor's note—

See schedule 5, section 1 for the definition of chief executive officer.

- (b) if the appropriate entity that is a public sector entity has a governing body—a member of its governing body; or
- (c) if an officer of the entity is making the disclosure—a person who, directly or indirectly, supervises or manages the officer; or

- (d) an officer of the entity who has the task of receiving or taking action on the type of information being disclosed.
 - (4) This Act does not affect a procedure required under another Act for disclosing the type of information being disclosed.
 - (5) If a public interest disclosure is properly made to an appropriate entity, the entity is taken to have received the disclosure for the purpose of this Act.
 - (6) However, subsection (5) is subject to divisions 4 and 6.

Examples of subsection (3)(d)—

- 1 the entity's internal auditor, if the public interest disclosure is made under section 17
- 2 a health officer or environmental officer of the department having a statutory or administrative responsibility to investigate something mentioned in a disclosure under section 18(1) or 19(1)
- 3 the officer of the entity in charge of its human resource management if the public interest disclosure is made under section 20 and is about detriment to the career of an employee of the entity

28 Disclosure received by public sector entity may be referred

- (1A) This section applies if a public interest disclosure is received by an appropriate entity that is a public sector entity or is referred to the entity under section 28A.
 - (1) If the public interest disclosure is about—
 - (a) the conduct of another public sector entity or the actions of an officer of another public sector entity; or
 - (b) the conduct of anybody, including itself, or anything that another public sector entity has a power to investigate or remedy;the entity may refer the public interest disclosure to the other public sector entity.
 - (2) If the entity refers the disclosure to another public sector entity, its power to investigate or remedy is unaffected by the reference.

[s 28A]

- (3) An appropriate entity must not refer a public interest disclosure to another public sector entity unless it first considers whether there is an unacceptable risk that a reprisal would be taken against any person because of the reference.
- (4) In considering whether there would be an unacceptable risk, an appropriate entity must, if practicable, consult with the person who made the public interest disclosure.
- (5) An appropriate entity must not refer a public interest disclosure to another public sector entity if it considers there is an unacceptable risk.
- (6) This section does not affect another law under which the entity must refer a report, complaint, information or evidence to another entity.

28A Disclosure received by member of Legislative Assembly may be referred

- (1) If a member of the Legislative Assembly receives a disclosure, the member may refer the disclosure to another appropriate entity that is a public sector entity which the member considers has power to investigate or remedy the conduct the subject of the disclosure.
- (2) For the purposes of this Act, the member has no role in investigating the disclosure.
- (3) In this section—
disclosure means a public interest disclosure or purported public interest disclosure.

28B Legislative Assembly may still deal with disclosure

- (1) This Act does not limit the powers, rights and immunities of the Legislative Assembly and its members and committees in relation to a disclosure received by a member.
- (2) In this section—
committee means a committee of the Legislative Assembly, whether or not a statutory committee.

disclosure means a public interest disclosure or purported public interest disclosure.

- (2) The chief executive officer of a public sector entity must ensure that a proper record is kept about disclosures received by the public sector entity, including—
 - (a) the name of the person making the disclosure, if known; and
 - (b) the information disclosed; and
 - (c) any action taken on the disclosures.
- (3) The chief executive officer of a public sector entity must also ensure that a proper record is kept about each disclosure referred to the public sector entity under section 28A, including—

- (2) If the request is for written information, the information must be written.
- (3) Information need not be given under subsection (1) to a person who makes a public interest disclosure, if—

 - (b) the information requested has already been given to the person; or
 - (c) the request is vexatious.
- (4) Information must not be given under subsection (1), if giving the information would be likely to adversely affect—
- (a) anybody's safety; or
 - (b) the investigation of an offence or possible offence; or
 - (c) necessary confidentiality about an informant's existence or identity.
- (5) If the public interest disclosure is made to the Crime and Misconduct Commission in a complaint of misconduct or official misconduct, this section does not impose on the commission any duty that the commission does not already have under that Act.
