Information about this reprint

This Act is reprinted as at 1 July 2009. The reprint shows the law as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before that day (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(c)).

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes. Also see list of legislation for any uncommenced amendments.

This page is specific to this reprint. See previous reprints for information about earlier changes made under the Reprints Act 1992. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about—

- when provisions commenced
- editorial changes made in earlier reprints.

Spelling

The spelling of certain words or phrases may be inconsistent in this reprint or with other reprints because of changes made in various editions of the Macquarie Dictionary (for example, in the dictionary, ‘lodgement’ has replaced ‘lodgment’). Variations of spelling will be updated in the next authorised reprint.

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, authorised (that is, hard copy) and unauthorised (that is, electronic), are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If an authorised reprint is dated earlier than an unauthorised version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown for an unauthorised version previously published, it merely means that the unauthorised version was published before the authorised version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published unauthorised version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown on another authorised reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

Family Services Act 1987

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 1 July 2009]

An Act to provide for assistance to be made available to families and children and for other purposes

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Family Services Act 1987.

2 Definitions

In this Act—

agent means an agent under a contract entered into under section 5.

approved form see section 30.

charge, of an offence, means a charge in any form, including, for example, the following—

- (a) a charge on an arrest;
- (b) a notice to appear served under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 382;
- (c) a complaint under the Justices Act 1886;
- (d) a charge by a court under the Justices Act 1886, section 42(1A) or another provision of an Act;
- (e) an indictment.

child means a person who has not attained the age of 18 years.

conviction includes a finding of guilt by a court, or the acceptance of a plea of guilty by a court, whether or not a conviction is recorded.

criminal history, of a person, means—

- (a) every conviction of the person for an offence, in Queensland or elsewhere, and whether before or after the commencement of this definition; and
- (b) every charge made against the person for an offence, in Queensland or elsewhere, and whether before or after the commencement of this definition.

engaged by the department see section 14(2).

guardian means any person who is recognised in law as a legal guardian of a child.

honorary officer means a person holding appointment as an honorary officer under section 4.

person includes an association of persons that is not incorporated.

sentence, of a person, means any penalty or imprisonment ordered to be paid or served, or any other order made, by a court after the person is convicted of an offence.

serious offence means—

- (a) an offence against a provision mentioned in the schedule to the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992; or
- (b) an offence against the Drugs Misuse Act 1986, section 9; or
- (c) an offence against a provision of the Criminal Code mentioned in the schedule; or
- (d) an offence of counselling or procuring the commission of, or attempting or conspiring to commit, an offence mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c).

Part 2 Objects and administration

Division 1 Objects

3 Objects

Without limiting the operation of this Act, the objects of this Act include—

- (a) the promotion and support of the welfare of families as the basis of community wellbeing;
- (b) the establishment of services and the encouragement of the development of services that promote, support and protect the wellbeing of families;
- (c) the encouragement of the development of coordinated social welfare services and programs that promote and strengthen local, neighbourhood and community interests;
- (d) the promotion of the wellbeing of the community by assisting individuals and families to overcome social problems with which they are confronted.

Division 2 Administration

4 Honorary officers

- (1) The chief executive may appoint, in writing, such persons, having qualifications or experience appropriate to the proper discharge of their duties, as the chief executive thinks fit, to be honorary officers—
 - (a) for the purpose of assisting officers of the department in giving effect to this Act or any other Act; and
 - (b) for a term not exceeding 2 years; and
 - (c) upon such terms and conditions as the chief executive thinks fit and specifies in the officers' appointments.

[s 5]

- (2) An honorary officer may be reappointed from time to time for a term not exceeding 2 years in respect of any reappointment.
- (3) The chief executive, by writing addressed to an honorary officer, may remove the officer from his or her appointment at any time.
- (4) The chief executive may pay an honorary officer such amounts as the chief executive thinks fit to reimburse the officer for expenses reasonably incurred, or reasonably expected to be incurred, in the course of the officer's duties.
- (5) The chief executive shall arrange for an honorary officer to receive such training and to be subject to such supervision as the chief executive thinks fit.
- (6) An honorary officer, while carrying out the duties of an honorary officer, is taken to be employed by the chief executive.
- (7) The chief executive must enter into a contract of insurance with Workcover Queensland or another insurer for insurance for honorary officers.

5 Engagement of agents

The chief executive may enter into contracts for services with such persons having qualifications and experience appropriate to the proper discharge of the contracts as the chief executive thinks fit with a view to those persons acting as the chief executive's agents in giving effect to this Act or any other Act.

6 Delegation, and exercise of powers on behalf of chief executive

- (1) Subject to any direction by the Minister to the contrary, the chief executive, by signed writing, may delegate, either generally or in a particular case and whether given or imposed under this or any other Act, all or any of the chief executive's powers, authorities, functions and duties as specified therein (other than this power of delegation) to—
 - (a) any officer of the department; or

- (b) any holder of an office within the department specifying its title but not the name of the holder for the time being; or
 - (c) an honorary officer; or
 - (d) an agent;

and may in like manner and subject as aforesaid revoke at any time a delegation made by the chief executive under this subsection.

- (2) In making a delegation under subsection (1)(c) or (d) the chief executive may only delegate such of the chief executive's powers, authorities, functions and duties as are necessary to enable the honorary officer to carry out the duties of his or her office or, as the case may be, the agent to discharge his or her contract.
- (3) Subject to any direction by the Minister to the contrary, the chief executive, by signed writing, may delegate to an individual who has the care of a child of whom the chief executive is guardian all or any of the chief executive's powers, authorities, functions and duties specified therein (other than this power of delegation) had by the chief executive as such guardian, and may in like manner and subject as aforesaid revoke at any time a delegation made by the chief executive under this subsection.
- (4) The chief executive may make pursuant to subsection (1) such and as many delegations of the same power, authority, function or duty and to such number of persons as the chief executive considers necessary or desirable.
- (5) A delegation—
 - (a) may be made subject to such conditions as the chief executive thinks fit and specifies in the instrument of delegation or free of any condition; and
 - (b) shall be authority to the delegate thereunder to exercise the delegated power or authority or discharge the delegated function or duty subject to and in accordance with the instrument of delegation; and

- (c) shall not prevent or prejudice the exercise or discharge by the chief executive of the power, authority, function or duty thereby delegated.
- (6) A delegation under subsection (3) shall not be made, if the child has attained the age of 15 years, unless the child consents thereto.
- (7) If the chief executive is at any time absent from duty or unable to perform the duties of office, any power, authority, function or duty had by the chief executive pursuant to this or any other Act or arising by reason of the chief executive having guardianship or custody of a child may be exercised or discharged by another officer of the department authorised in writing in that behalf by the Minister, without any delegation by the chief executive in respect thereof.

7 Advisory committees

- (1) The Minister may establish as many advisory committees as the Minister considers appropriate for the administration of this Act.
- (2) An advisory committee has the functions the Minister decides.
- (3) A member of an advisory committee is entitled to be paid the fees and allowances that may be decided by the Governor in Council.

8 Offences with respect to officers of the department etc.

- (1) A person who, with intent to influence any officer of the department or any other person in the exercise of the person's powers or authorities or the discharge of the person's duties or functions under this Act, gives, offers or promises any bribe, recompense, inducement or reward to that officer or other person, or attempts so to do, commits an offence against this Act.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment.

- (2) A person who—
- (a) falsely assumes or uses the name, designation or description of any honorary officer, agent or other person appointed for any purpose of this Act; or
 - (b) pretends that the person is any honorary officer, agent or other person appointed for any purpose of this Act;

for the purpose of assuming to do any act, exercise any power or authority or discharge any duty or function had by, or imposed on, that officer, agent or person pursuant to this Act or any other Act administered in the department commits an offence against this Act.

Maximum penalty for subsection (2)—40 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment.

9 Annual report

- (1) In each year the chief executive shall furnish to the Minister a report on the operation of this Act and any other Act administered in the department during the year covered by the report.
- (2) The Minister shall lay every such report before the Legislative Assembly within 14 sitting days from the date on which the Minister receives the report.

Part 3 Family and community services

10 Chief executive may develop or carry out programs

- (1) The chief executive may—
 - (a) develop or carry out; or
 - (b) where the Minister so approves under section 11(3), make grants to any body corporate or association of persons that is not incorporated to develop or carry out; programs for the provisions of family or community services.

[s 11]

- (2) In considering whether to develop or carry out a program referred to in subsection (1), or whether to recommend to the Minister that a grant be made for that purpose, the chief executive shall consider whether the program has as its object—
 - (a) the promotion and protection of family life; or
 - (b) the development and strengthening of local, neighbourhood and community interests; or
 - (c) the preservation and fostering of the dignity and independence of individuals; or
 - (d) the provision of assistance to individuals who are disadvantaged or disabled; or
 - (e) any other object that is consistent with the objects of this Act.

11 Grants

- (1) An application for a grant under section 10 shall be made in writing to the chief executive and shall be made in accordance with such guidelines as are issued by the chief executive, with the approval of the Minister, and shall contain such information as is required by the chief executive.
- (2) The chief executive may make such inquiries in respect of an application for a grant as the chief executive thinks fit.
- (3) The Minister may approve or refuse an application for a grant as the Minister thinks fit.
- (4) If a grant is approved the Minister may subject to the grant to such conditions as the Minister thinks fit.
- (5) If the chief executive has reasonable cause to suspect that the conditions of a grant are not being, or have not been, complied with, the chief executive may call upon the person who received the grant, by notice served upon the person, to show cause to the chief executive within 21 days of receipt of the notice why further payments of the grant should be made or, as the case may be, moneys paid under the grant should not be refunded.

- (6) If after the expiration of the 21 days, the chief executive, after considering any submission made by the person, is satisfied that the conditions of a grant are not being or have not been complied with, the chief executive, with the approval of the Minister, may refuse to make further payments of the grant.
- (7) If that noncompliance consists of the application of moneys paid under the grant to a purpose other than the purpose for which the grant was approved the amount of those moneys may be recovered from the applicant by action in a court of competent jurisdiction as a debt due and owing to the Crown.

12 Chief executive may inspect books etc.

- (1) If the chief executive has reasonable cause to suspect that the conditions of a grant made under section 10 are not being, or have not been, complied with, the chief executive may request the person to whom the grant has been made to produce to the chief executive any books and records kept by that person in respect of moneys received under that grant.
- (2) The chief executive may examine and make copies of, or take extracts from, the books and records so produced relating to the receipt and expenditure of those moneys.

13 Auditor-general may audit books etc.

- (1) If the chief executive has reasonable cause to suspect that the conditions of a grant made under section 10 are not being, or have not been, complied with, the chief executive may request the auditor-general to audit the accounts of the person to whom the grant has been paid.
- (2) The auditor-general shall have with respect to such audit all the powers and authorities conferred on the auditor-general by the Auditor-General Act 2009 in respect of an audit of the description of audit that the auditor-general is performing under subsection (1) and the provisions of that Act shall apply in respect of such audit and to all persons concerned therein.

Part 4 Criminal histories of persons engaged by the department

Division 1 Preliminary

14 Persons engaged by the department

- (1) This part is about the chief executive obtaining the criminal histories of persons engaged by the department and other information about the persons.
- (2) Each of the following persons is engaged by the department—
 - (a) a public service employee in the department;
 - (b) an honorary officer;
 - (c) an agent;
 - (d) a person working in the department as a volunteer or as a student on work experience.

15 Purpose

The purpose of this part is to ensure the chief executive has all the relevant information the chief executive needs to assess a person's suitability to be, or continue to be, engaged by the department.

16 This part applies despite the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986

This part applies to a person despite anything in the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986.

17 Chief executive to advise of duties of disclosure etc.

Before a person is engaged by the department, the chief executive must tell the person—

- (a) of the person's duties of disclosure under this part; and
 - (b) that the chief executive may obtain the information about the person mentioned in section 22; and
 - (c) that guidelines for dealing with information obtained by the chief executive under this part are available from the chief executive on request.

Division 2 Disclosure of criminal history

18 Persons seeking to be engaged by the department must disclose criminal history

A person seeking to be engaged by the department must disclose to the chief executive, before being engaged—

- (a) whether or not the person has a criminal history; and
- (b) if the person has a criminal history—the person's complete criminal history.

19 Persons engaged by the department must disclose changes in criminal history

- (1) If there is a change in the criminal history of a person engaged by the department, the person must immediately disclose to the chief executive the details of the change.
- (2) For a person who does not have a criminal history, there is taken to be a change in the person's criminal history if the person acquires a criminal history.

20 Requirements for disclosure

- (1) To comply with section 18 or 19, a person must give the chief executive a disclosure in the approved form.
- (2) The information disclosed by a person about a conviction or charge of an offence in the person's criminal history must include—

[s 21]

- (a) the existence of the conviction or charge; and
- (b) when the offence was committed or alleged to have been committed; and
- (c) the details of the offence or alleged offence; and
- (d) for a conviction—whether or not a conviction was recorded and the sentence imposed on the person.

21 False, misleading or incomplete disclosure or failure to disclose

- (1) A person must not—
 - (a) give the chief executive a disclosure for the purposes of this division that is false, misleading or incomplete in a material particular; or
 - (b) fail to give the chief executive a disclosure as required under section 19, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment.

- (2) Subsection (1)(a) does not apply to a person in relation to particular information that the person is unable to provide if the person—
 - (a) indicates in the disclosure the information that the person is unable to provide; and
 - (b) otherwise gives the information in the disclosure to the best of the person's ability.
- (3) In a proceeding for an offence against subsection (1)(a), it is enough for a charge to state that the disclosure was, without specifying which, 'false, misleading or incomplete'.

Division 3 Chief executive may obtain information from other entities about criminal history and certain investigations

22 Chief executive may obtain report from commissioner of police service

- (1) This section applies to a person who—
 - (a) is engaged by the department; or
 - (b) seeks to be engaged by the department and has given the chief executive a disclosure for the purposes of division 2.
- (2) The chief executive may ask the commissioner of the police service to give the chief executive the following information about the person—
 - (a) a written report about the person’s criminal history;
 - (b) a brief description of the circumstances of a conviction or charge mentioned in the person’s criminal history;
 - (c) information about an investigation relating to the possible commission of a serious offence by the person.
- (3) Subject to subsections (4) and (5), the commissioner of the police service must comply with the request.
- (4) The duty imposed on the commissioner of the police service to comply with the request—
 - (a) applies only to information in the commissioner’s possession or to which the commissioner has access; and
 - (b) in relation to information mentioned in subsection (2)(c)—applies only to information recorded on a central electronic database kept by the commissioner.
- (5) The commissioner of the police service must not give information about an investigation relating to the possible commission of a serious offence by the person if—

[s 23]

- (a) the commissioner is reasonably satisfied that giving the information—
 - (i) may prejudice or otherwise hinder an investigation to which the information may be relevant; or
 - (ii) may lead to the identification of an informant; or
 - (iii) may affect the safety of a police officer, complainant or other person; or
- (b) for an investigation that has been completed—the investigation has not led, and the commissioner is reasonably satisfied it is unlikely to lead, to a reasonable suspicion that the person committed a serious offence; or
- (c) for an investigation that has not been completed—the commissioner is reasonably satisfied the investigation is unlikely to lead to a reasonable suspicion that the person committed a serious offence.

23 Prosecuting authority to notify chief executive about committal, conviction etc.

- (1) This section applies if a person is charged with an indictable offence and the commissioner of the police service or the director of public prosecutions (a prosecuting authority) is aware that the person is engaged by the department.
- (2) If the person is committed by a court for trial for an indictable offence, the prosecuting authority must, within 7 days after the committal, give written notice to the chief executive of the following—
 - (a) the person's name;
 - (b) the court;
 - (c) particulars of the offence;
 - (d) the date of the committal;
 - (e) the court to which the person was committed.

- (3) If the person is convicted before a court of an indictable offence, the prosecuting authority must, within 7 days after the conviction, give written notice to the chief executive of the following—
- (a) the person's name;
 - (b) the court;
 - (c) particulars of the offence;
 - (d) the date of the conviction;
 - (e) the sentence imposed by the court.
- (4) If the person is convicted of an indictable offence, and has appealed the conviction, and the appeal is finally decided or has otherwise ended, the prosecuting authority must, within 7 days after the decision or the day the appeal otherwise ends, give written notice to the chief executive of the following—
- (a) the person's name;
 - (b) particulars of the offence;
 - (c) the date of the decision or other ending of the appeal;
 - (d) if the appeal was decided—
 - (i) the court in which it was decided; and
 - (ii) particulars of the decision.
- (5) If the prosecution process ends without the person being convicted of an indictable offence, the prosecuting authority must, within 7 days after the end, give written notice to the chief executive about the following—
- (a) the person's name;
 - (b) if relevant—the court in which the prosecution process ended;
 - (c) particulars of the offence;
 - (d) the date the prosecution process ended.
- (6) For subsection (5), a prosecution process ends if—
- (a) an indictment is presented against the person and—

[s 24]

- (i) a nolle prosequi is entered on the indictment; or
 - (ii) the person is acquitted; or
 - (b) the prosecution process has otherwise ended.
- (7) A reference in this section to a conviction of an indictable offence includes a summary conviction of an indictable offence.

Division 4 Controls on use of information about criminal history and certain investigations

24 Use of information obtained under this part

- (1) This section applies to the chief executive in considering information about a person received under this part.
- (2) The information must not be used for any purpose other than assessing the person's suitability to be, or continue to be, engaged by the department.
- (3) When making the assessment, the chief executive must have regard to the following matters relating to information about the commission, or alleged or possible commission, of an offence by the person—
 - (a) when the offence was committed, is alleged to have been committed or may possibly have been committed;
 - (b) the nature of the offence and its relevance to the person's proposed duties or duties under the sought engagement or engagement;
 - (c) anything else the chief executive considers relevant to the assessment of the person.

25 Person to be advised of information obtained

- (1) This section applies to information obtained by the chief executive about a person, under this part, from the commissioner of the police service.
- (2) Before using the information to assess the person's suitability to be, or continue to be, engaged by the department, the chief executive must—
 - (a) disclose the information to the person; and
 - (b) allow the person a reasonable opportunity to make representations to the chief executive about the information.

26 Confidentiality

- (1) This section applies to a person who—
 - (a) is, or has been, a public service employee in the department or a selection panel member; and
 - (b) in that capacity acquired information, or gained access to a document, under this part about someone else's criminal history or about an investigation relating to the possible commission of a serious offence by someone else.
- (2) The person must not disclose the information, or give access to the document, to anyone else.
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply to the disclosure of information, or giving of access to a document, about a person—
 - (a) to a public service employee in the department, or a selection panel member, for the purpose of assessing the person's suitability to be, or continue to be, engaged by the department; or
 - (b) with the person's consent; or

[s 27]

(c) if the disclosure or giving of access is otherwise required under an Act.

(4) In this section—

selection panel member means a member of a panel formed to make a recommendation to the chief executive about a person's engagement by the department.

27 Guidelines for dealing with information

- (1) The chief executive must make guidelines, consistent with this Act, for dealing with information obtained by the chief executive under this part.
- (2) The purpose of the guidelines is to ensure—
 - (a) natural justice is afforded to the persons about whom the information is obtained; and
 - (b) only relevant information is used in assessing the persons' suitability to be, or continue to be, engaged by the department; and
 - (c) decisions about the suitability of persons, based on the information, are made consistently.
- (3) The chief executive must give a copy of the guidelines, on request, to a person seeking to be engaged, or engaged, by the department.

Part 5 Miscellaneous

28 Evidentiary provisions

- (1) This section applies to a proceeding under or in relation to this Act.
- (2) Unless a party, by reasonable notice, requires proof of—

- (a) the appointment of an honorary officer under this Act; or
- (b) the authority of an honorary officer to do an act under this Act;

the appointment or authority must be presumed.

- (3) A signature purporting to be the signature of the chief executive or an honorary officer is evidence of the signature it purports to be.
- (4) A certificate purporting to be signed by the chief executive stating a stated document is a copy of a notice or approval given under this Act is evidence of the matter.

29 Liability for offences by bodies corporate and unincorporate

- (1) Where an offence against this Act is committed by a body corporate each of the following persons is deemed to have committed the offence and may be proceeded against and punished in respect of the offence—
 - (a) the body corporate;
 - (b) the managing director, manager or other governing officer (by whatever name called).
- (2) Where an offence against this Act is committed and any association of persons that is not incorporated is by this Act liable therefor, each member of the committee or other governing body (by whatever name called) of the association is deemed to have committed the offence and may be proceeded against and punished in respect of the offence.
- (3) If an individual referred to in subsection (1) or (2) is charged with an offence against this Act it shall be a defence to show that the contravention or failure to comply in question occurred without his or her consent or connivance and that he or she exercised all due diligence to prevent it.

[s 30]

30 Approved forms

The chief executive may approve forms for use under this Act.

30A Delegation

(1) The Minister may delegate the Minister's powers under section 11(3), (4) and (6) to an appropriately qualified public service officer or employee.

(2) In this section—

appropriately qualified, for a person to whom a power may be delegated, includes having the qualifications, experience or standing appropriate to exercise the power.

Part 6 Transitional provisions

33 Family and Youth Services Act 1987 references

In an Act or document, a reference to the Family and Youth Services Act 1987 is a reference to this Act.

34 Reference in schedule to Criminal Code offences

The schedule applies as if the reference to the Criminal Code, section 415 included a reference to the Criminal Code, sections 415, 416 and 417 as in force at any time before their repeal by the Criminal Code and Other Acts Amendment Act 2008.
