Information about this reprint

This regulation is reprinted as at 1 July 2010. The reprint shows the law as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before that day (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(c)).

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes. Also see list of legislation for any uncommenced amendments.

This page is specific to this reprint. See previous reprints for information about earlier changes made under the Reprints Act 1992. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about—

- when provisions commenced
- editorial changes made in earlier reprints.

Spelling

The spelling of certain words or phrases may be inconsistent in this reprint or with other reprints because of changes made in various editions of the Macquarie Dictionary (for example, in the dictionary, ‘lodgement’ has replaced ‘lodgment’). Variations of spelling will be updated in the next authorised reprint.

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, authorised (that is, hard copy) and unauthorised (that is, electronic), are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If an authorised reprint is dated earlier than an unauthorised version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown for an unauthorised version previously published, it merely means that the unauthorised version was published before the authorised version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published unauthorised version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown on another authorised reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

Funeral Benefit Business Regulation 2000

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 1 July 2010]

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Funeral Benefit Business Regulation 2000.

2 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 2 defines particular words used in this regulation.

Part 2 Board for corporations registered at commencement of the Act

3 Application of pt 2

This part applies to a part 3 corporation in relation to funeral benefit agreements entered into by the corporation and in force immediately before the commencement of the Second-hand Dealers and Pawnbrokers Act 2003, section 139.

[s 4]

4 Representative of corporations

- (1) To assist the Minister in recommending to the Governor in Council an appointment to the board under section 9(3)(d) of the Act, the Minister may request each corporation to submit to the Minister the names of at least 3 persons for consideration for recommendation for appointment.
- (2) The Minister may disregard a submission if the submission—
 - (a) is not given within the times stated in the Minister's request; or
 - (b) does not include the names of at least 3 persons.
- (3) Two or more corporations may make a joint submission to the Minister.

5 Duties of secretary

The duties of the secretary of the board are—

- (a) to keep minutes of meetings of the board; and
- (b) issue notices of meetings; and
- (c) attend to correspondence of the board; and
- (d) the other duties stated under this regulation.

6 Chairperson to preside at meetings

- (1) The chairperson is to chair a meeting of the board at which the chairperson is present.
- (2) If the chairperson is absent another member, chosen with the members' consent by the members present and forming a quorum, is to chair the meeting.

7 Holding of ordinary meetings

An ordinary meeting of the board is to be held at least once a month.

8 Notice of ordinary meeting

Each member of the board is to be given at least 7 days prior written notice of—

- (a) the time and place of a proposed ordinary meeting of the board; and
- (b) the business for the meeting.

9 Business to be transacted at ordinary meeting

The business for an ordinary meeting of the board is—

- (a) the business stated in the notice of meeting; and
- (b) any other business raised by members at the meeting.

10 Quorum

- (1) A quorum for a meeting of the board is 3 members.
- (2) However, if a quorum is not present at the notified time for the meeting to start, 15 minutes is to be allowed after the notified time to form a quorum.
- (3) If a quorum is formed within 15 minutes, the meeting is taken to have been regularly commenced.
- (4) If a quorum is not formed within 15 minutes, the meeting lapses and the secretary is to record the lapse and the names of the members present in the minute book.

11 Special meetings of board

- (1) A special meeting of the board—
 - (a) may be called by the chairperson on the chairperson's initiative; or
 - (b) must be called by the chairperson if 2 board members give the chairperson a written notice signed by the 2 members asking for a special meeting and stating the business to be discussed at it.

[s 12]

- (2) Each member of the board is to be given at least 7 days written notice of the time and place of the meeting and the business to be discussed at it.
- (3) Only business stated in the notice may be transacted at the meeting.

12 Voting at meetings

- (1) At meetings of the board, all questions are to be decided by a majority of votes of the members present at the meeting.
- (2) Voting is to be open voting unless the chairperson calls for a secret ballot.
- (3) If the votes are equal, the chairperson has a second or casting vote.
- (4) If a member abstains from voting, the member's vote must be counted as a 'no' vote.

13 Order of business at general meeting

The order of business at a meeting of the board, other than a special meeting, is as follows—

- (a) recording of attendances and apologies;
- (b) reading the minutes;
- (c) reading the correspondence;
- (d) consideration and payment of claims;
- (e) other business.

Part 3 Existing agreements with corporations registered at commencement of the Act

14 Application of pt 3

This part applies to a part 3 corporation in relation to funeral benefit agreements entered into by the corporation and in force immediately before the commencement of the Second-hand Dealers and Pawnbrokers Act 2003, section 139.

15 Certificate of contributions paid

If a contributor has paid all contributions due and payable by the contributor under a funeral benefit agreement or on any benefit accruing to the contributor after the contributor has stopped making contributions, the corporation must promptly—

- (a) send to the contributor at the contributor's last known address a certificate in the approved form setting out the amount of contributions paid by the contributor and the benefits to which the contributor is entitled; and
- (b) give a copy of the certificate to the registrar.

Maximum penalty—1 penalty unit.

16 Defined area

- (1) A corporation must ensure that its registered rules define an area (defined area) in which the corporation will provide a funeral benefit for a contributor or other person entitled to a funeral benefit under an agreement with the corporation.

- (2) A corporation must ensure that its registered rules include provisions to the following effect—
 - (a) if a contributor or other person for whom or on whose behalf contributions have been made dies in the defined area, the corporation must, if asked by a person and subject to the rules and any terms agreed between the corporation and the contributor, provide a funeral benefit for the deceased person;

- (b) the corporation may, by notice approved by and filed with the registrar and published not less than twice in a newspaper circulating in the area defined in the notice notify that the defined area is extended to include the area stated in the notice;
- (d) if a contributor or other person for whom or on whose behalf contributions have been made dies outside the defined area, the corporation may, if asked by a person and subject to the rules and any terms agreed between the corporation and the contributor, provide a funeral benefit for the deceased person.

Maximum penalty for subsection (2)—1 penalty unit.

17 Claim against fund for benefits

- (1) An application under section 16(3) of the Act must be in the approved form and be made by—
 - (a) the person who has paid or is liable to pay the funeral costs of the deceased person; or
 - (b) the personal representative of the deceased person.
- (2) The trustee is to pay the surrender value of the benefit provided by the corporation to the applicant under subsection (1).

18 Claims for funeral benefits provided outside defined area

A corporation must, when making a claim against the trustees for a funeral benefit provided outside its defined area, give to the registrar—

- (a) a certificate in the approved form signed by the funeral director who provided the funeral and by the corporation; and

- (b) if the death happened outside Queensland—a copy of the certificate of death of the person for whom service was provided.

19 Corporation to apply money to pay funeral director

- (1) Each amount paid to a corporation by the trustees for a funeral benefit provided outside the corporation's defined area must be applied by the corporation in payment to the funeral director who provided the funeral of the whole, or the unpaid balance, of the cost of the funeral.
- (2) Any amount remaining must be paid by the corporation to the person who paid part or all of the cost of the funeral to the funeral director.

20 Rules relating to certain agreements

A corporation must ensure that its registered rules provide that, for an agreement entered into with a contributor on or after the commencement of the Act—

- (a) if the agreement remains in force for at least 3 years and at least 3 years' contributions have been paid under the agreement—a surrender value must be paid to the contributor if the contributor surrenders the agreement; and
- (b) the surrender value must be worked out by the state actuary.

Maximum penalty—1 penalty unit.

- (ii) a statement of the corporation's investments for the funeral benefit business at the end of the financial year.

28 Extension of period for lodging annual return

- (1) A corporation requesting an extension under section 19 or 42 of the Act of the time within which to lodge its annual return must apply for the extension in writing sent to the registrar so as to reach the registrar no later than 4 months after the end of the financial year.
- (2) The registrar's decision on the application must be given to the corporation in writing.

Part 6 Accounts and funds for registered corporations

28A Application of pt 6
