Information about this reprint

This Act is reprinted as at 1 January 2012. The reprint shows the law as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before that day (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(c)).

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes. Also see list of legislation for any uncommenced amendments.

This page is specific to this reprint. See previous reprints for information about earlier changes made under the Reprints Act 1992. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about—

- when provisions commenced
- editorial changes made in earlier reprints.

Spelling

The spelling of certain words or phrases may be inconsistent in this reprint or with other reprints because of changes made in various editions of the Macquarie Dictionary (for example, in the dictionary, ‘lodgement’ has replaced ‘lodgment’). Variations of spelling will be updated in the next authorised reprint.

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, authorised (that is, hard copy) and unauthorised (that is, electronic), are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If an authorised reprint is dated earlier than an unauthorised version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown for an unauthorised version previously published, it merely means that the unauthorised version was published before the authorised version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published unauthorised version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown on another authorised reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

Industrial Development Act 1963

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 1 January 2012]

An Act relating to industrial development

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Industrial Development Act 1963.

2 Dictionary

The dictionary in the schedule defines particular words used in this Act.

3 Corporation of the Minister

- (1) Subject to this section the corporation sole by the name of the Minister of Industries Assistance (the corporation) constituted under the provisions repealed by this Act of the Labour and Industry Act 1946 is hereby preserved, continued in existence and constituted under this Act.
- (2) On and from the date of the commencement of this Act—
 - (a) the name of the corporation shall be the Minister for Industrial Development of Queensland; and
 - (b) the Minister for Industrial Development in office at such date shall constitute the corporation in succession to the then Minister for Labour and Industry and thereafter the corporation shall be constituted in perpetual succession by the persons respectively who are successively the Minister administering this section.
- (3) The corporation shall be a corporation sole by the name of the Minister for Industrial Development of Queensland, and by that name shall have perpetual succession and an official seal, and shall be capable in law of suing and being sued in its corporate name.

- (4) All courts, judges and persons acting judicially shall take judicial notice of the seal of the corporation affixed to any document or other writing whatsoever and, until the contrary is proved, shall presume that such seal was duly so affixed.
- (5) For all purposes of this Act the corporation shall have and may exercise all or any of the powers, privileges, rights and remedies of the Crown.
- (6) Subsection (5) applies so as not to exempt the corporation from any liability in respect of rates or charges or land tax for which a mortgagee of land is liable under the Local Government Act 2009, or, in respect of the City of Brisbane the City of Brisbane Act 2010, or under the Land Tax Act 2010 or the repealed Land Tax Act 1915.

4 Functions of the corporation

- (1) The primary function of the corporation is to deal in land to facilitate the use of land for industrial purposes.
- (2) The functions of the corporation also include—
 - (a) dealing in other property to facilitate the use of land or other property for industrial purposes; and
 - (b) providing or contributing to the provision of infrastructure to facilitate the use of land under the corporation's control, including, for example, electricity, gas and water services, and roads; and
 - (c) performing functions given to the corporation under another Act; and
 - (d) performing functions incidental to the corporation's other functions.

Examples of performing an incidental function—

- 1 Disposing of land when it is no longer required for industrial purposes.

- 2 Leasing land when it is not immediately required for industrial purposes.

5 General powers of the corporation

- (1) The corporation has all the powers of an individual and may, for example—
- (a) deal in land or other property; and
 - (b) enter into agreements, arrangements, contracts and deeds; and
 - (c) enter into obligations as a purchaser or seller of a service; and
 - (d) appoint agents and attorneys; and
 - (e) engage consultants and contractors; and
 - (f) contribute to or undertake studies about land in the State that may be used for an industrial purpose; and
 - (g) exercise powers given to it under another Act; and
 - (h) do anything else necessary or convenient to be done, for or in connection with, the performance of its functions.
- (2) If the corporation deals in land or other property for industrial purposes, the corporation may—
- (a) lend money, or enter into other financial arrangements, as part of the dealing, including, for example, by providing finance to a purchaser; and
 - (b) enter into instalment contracts or other deferred payment arrangements as a creditor, including, for example, by constructing a research facility for an entity and recovering the costs of its construction by a lease of the facility to the entity; and
 - (c) enter into joint ventures or other cooperative arrangements, with the Governor in Council's approval.
- (3) However, the corporation may only exercise a power under subsection (2)(a) or (b) if the corporation has considered a matter prescribed under a regulation about lending money, entering into other financial arrangements or entering into instalment contracts or other deferred payment arrangements.

- (4) If the corporation considers it appropriate for doing anything under subsection (2), the corporation may take any form of security or charge over land or other property.
- (5) The corporation may charge a fee for dealing in land or other property, providing services or otherwise exercising its powers.
- (6) The corporation shall not, in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by the corporation or by any person acting under the corporation's authority under the corporation's power under this section to construct roads, be subject to any duty, obligation, liability or responsibility except to the extent to which a local government would be subject to that duty, obligation, liability or responsibility were the act or omission committed by it.
- (7) Without limiting the power to make regulations under section 12, regulations may be made under that section conferring upon the corporation for the purposes of this section any right, power, protection, privilege or obligation relating to roads had by a local government or by the chief executive (of the department in which the Transport Infrastructure Act 1994 is administered) under the Local Government Act 2009 or the Transport Infrastructure Act 1994.
- (8) Without limit to the generality of subsection (7), regulations may be made regulating, prohibiting or restricting traffic or any class of traffic upon any road constructed or under construction by the corporation pursuant to this section or upon any part of any such road or confining traffic or any class of traffic to any specified part of any such road.
- (9) At any time after the completion of the construction of any road constructed by the corporation pursuant to this section the Governor in Council may, by gazette notice, fix a date on and after which the provisions of the Local Government Act 2009 shall apply to the road.
- (10) On and after the date so fixed—

- (a) the corporation shall not be subject to any duty, obligation, liability or responsibility whatsoever in respect of the road; and
 - (b) any regulations made pursuant to the provisions of this section shall cease to apply to the road; and
 - (c) the provisions of the Local Government Act 2009 shall apply in respect of the road as if it had been constructed by the local government in the area whereof it is situated.
- (11) Until the date fixed by the Governor in Council under subsection (9), the Local Government Act 2009 does not apply to a road constructed or under construction pursuant to this section.
- (12) In this section—
power includes legal capacity.

6 Sale of surplus land

- (1) For the purposes of this section—
surplus land means land held by or on behalf of the corporation which has been acquired by the corporation for valuable consideration for the purposes of this Act whether at the material time held in fee simple or surrendered to the Crown and which is not required for carrying out the corporation's functions under this Act.
- (2) The corporation may, on sound commercial terms, sell any estate in fee simple in surplus land at its market value—
- (a) by public tender or auction on a cash basis; or
 - (b) by private treaty with a department of the Government of the Commonwealth or of the State or a statutory body constituted under any Act of the Commonwealth or of the State; or
 - (c) in any other way prescribed under a regulation.

7 Delegations

- (1) The corporation may delegate its powers to the chief executive.
- (2) The delegation may permit the subdelegation of the power by the chief executive to an appropriately qualified officer or employee of the department.
- (3) In subsection (2)—
appropriately qualified, for an officer or employee to whom a power under this Act may be delegated, includes having the qualifications, experience or standing appropriate to exercise the power.

Example of standing—

A person's classification level in the department.

8 Security

For the purposes of this Act the corporation may hold, until the same can be advantageously disposed of, any property real or personal taken by the corporation or to which the corporation has become entitled as security for or in satisfaction, liquidation, or discharge of any debt owing to it.

9 Corporation may provide land for industrial purpose

To help a person obtain land on which to establish and carry on, or expand, an undertaking for an industrial purpose, the corporation may enter into arrangements with a person for the grant to the person of an appropriate lease under the Land Act 1994 of unallocated State land available for the undertaking.

10 Estates Construction Fund

- (1) The Estates Construction Fund (the fund) is continued in existence subject to the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1977, part 8, division 2.
- (2) Accounts for the fund must be kept as part of the departmental accounts of the department.

- (2A) However, amounts received for the fund must be deposited in a departmental financial-institution account of the department used only for amounts received for the fund.
- (3) The corporation must credit to the fund—
- (a) amounts paid to the department as part of the department's departmental vote under the Financial Accountability Act 2009 and made available by the department for the fund; and
 - (b) amounts for a lease arranged under section 9, or on the conversion of the lease, that are received by the corporation; and
 - (c) other amounts received by the corporation, including, for example, proceeds from a dealing in land, proceeds from a borrowing and interest on the corporation's funds.
- (4) The amounts credited to the fund may be applied in payment of any or all of the following—
- (a) the corporation's costs and expenses in performing its functions;
 - (b) principal and interest for a borrowing;
 - (c) an amount the Minister and the Treasurer direct the corporation, in writing, to pay into the consolidated fund or departmental accounts.
- (5) In this section—

borrowing means a borrowing by the corporation under the Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982, section 34.

departmental accounts, of a department, means the accounts of the department under the Financial Accountability Act 2009, section 69.

departmental financial-institution account, of a department, means an account of the department kept under the Financial Accountability Act 2009, section 83.

11 Declaration that corporation is statutory body

- (1) The corporation is a statutory body for the Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982.
- (2) The Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982, part 2B sets out the way in which the corporation's powers under this Act are affected by the Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982.

12 Regulation-making power

The Governor in Council may make regulations under this Act.

13 Existing arrangements

- (1) This section applies to an arrangement entered into by the corporation and in existence immediately before the commencement of this section.
- (2) The arrangement continues to have effect after the commencement.
- (3) This Act as in force immediately before the commencement continues to apply to the arrangement.
- (4) In this section—
arrangement includes advances, advances by way of loan and guarantees.

14 Transitional provision for funds—Industrial Development Amendment Act 1998

- (1) This section applies to each amount that, immediately before the commencement of the Industrial Development Amendment Act 1998, section 13, was the balance credited to each of the following funds—
 - (a) the Assistance to Industries Fund;
 - (b) the Industrial Estates Construction Fund;
 - (c) the Estates Maintenance Fund.

- (2) The corporation must transfer each of the amounts to the estates construction fund established under section 10.

Schedule Dictionary

section 2

- (d) research and development, including, for example, medical and pharmaceutical research and designing aircraft.

land means—

- (a) land; or
- (b) land and improvements on the land; or
- (c) improvements on land.

remediate land or other property means—

- (a) rehabilitate the land or other property; or
- (b) restore the land or other property; or
- (c) take other action to prevent or minimise serious environmental harm being caused by the hazardous contaminant contaminating the land or other property.

serious environmental harm see the Environmental Protection Act 1994, section 17.

Editor's note—

Environmental Protection Act 1994, section 17 reads as follows—

17 Serious environmental harm

- (1) Serious environmental harm is environmental harm (other than environmental nuisance)—
- (a) that is irreversible, of a high impact or widespread; or
 - (b) caused to an area of high conservation value or special significance; or
 - (c) that causes actual or potential loss or damage to property of an amount of, or amounts totalling, more than the threshold amount; or
 - (d) that results in costs of more than the threshold amount being incurred in taking appropriate action to—
 - (i) prevent or minimise the harm; and
 - (ii) rehabilitate or restore the environment to its condition before the harm.
- (2) In this section—
- threshold amount means $50000 or, if a greater amount is prescribed by regulation, the greater amount.
