PUBLIC ACTS
OF THE
PARLIAMENT OF QUEENSLAND,
8° EDWARDI VII.—(continued).

ACTS.

An Act for the Revision of the Statute Law.

8 Edw. VII.
No. 18.

[ASSENTED TO 23RD DECEMBER, 1908.]

THE STATUTE
LAW REVISION
ACT OF 1908.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Queensland in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as "The Statute Law Revision Act of 1908." Short title.

2. The Acts mentioned in the First Schedule to this Act are repealed to the extent therein expressed: Repeal.
Schedule I.

Provided that—

- (i.) The repeal by this Act of any enactment or Schedule shall not affect any enactment in which such enactment or Schedule has been applied, incorporated, or referred to;
- (ii.) When an enactment hereby repealed is a repealing enactment contained in an Act which re-enacts with or without modification the provisions of a former Act, references in any other Act to the provisions repealed by such repealing enactment shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be construed as references to the provisions so re-enacted;
- (iii.) This Act shall not affect the validity, invalidity, effect, or consequences of anything already done or suffered, or any existing status or capacity, or any right, title, obligation, or liability already acquired, accrued, or incurred, or any remedy or proceeding in respect thereof, or any release or discharge of or from any debt, penalty, obligation, liability, claim, or demand, or any indemnity, or the proof of any past act or thing;

- (iv.) This Act shall not affect any principle or rule of law or equity or established jurisdiction, form or course of pleading, practice or procedure, or the general or public nature of any Act, or any existing usage, franchise, liberty, custom, privilege, restriction, exemption, office, appointment, payment, allowance, emolument, or benefit, or any prospective right, notwithstanding that the same respectively may have been in any manner affirmed, recognised, or derived by, in, or from any enactment hereby repealed;
- (v.) This Act shall not revive or restore any jurisdiction, office, duty, fee, payment, franchise, liberty, custom, liability, right, title, privilege, restriction, exemption, usage, practice, procedure, form of punishment, or other matter or thing not now existing or in force.

Reprinting of amendments. Schedule II.

3. Where an enactment in any Act amends any prior Act—

- (a) Merely by the omission of words; or
 (b) Merely by the addition of words; or
 (c) By the omission of words and the insertion of other words, whether in lieu of the omitted words or not, or by the omission of the whole of an enactment, with or without the substitution of another enactment therefor, in every such case it shall be sufficient in any future edition of the Statutes of Queensland to reprint such prior Act as amended by the subsequent enactment, and it shall not be necessary to reprint the subsequent enactment by which such amendment is made.

The foregoing provision shall, without limiting its operation with respect to other Acts now in force or hereafter to be passed, apply to the Acts and groups of Acts mentioned in the Second Schedule to this Act.

Amendment of 3 Edw. VII. No. 10, s. 8 (2).

4. The second paragraph of subsection two of section eight of "The Acts Shortening Act Amendment Act of 1903"* is amended by the insertion after the expression "mentioned in the Second Schedule to this Act" of the following words:—

"or with any other group of Acts to which a collective title has been or shall hereafter be given."

Corrections in certain Acts. Schedule, III.

5. The Acts mentioned in the Third Schedule are amended by making therein the corrections set forth in the said Schedule.
