(6) Any increased contribution payable in pursuance of paragraph (c) of subsection (4) of this section is payable as from the first day of the periodical interval at which contributions to the Fund are prescribed to be made next after the date of the election.

25. Contributions by members of Police Force who retire at sixty-five years of age. (1) This section applies to every member of the Police Force for whom the age for retirement is sixty-five years of age.

(2) Every member of the Police Force to whom this section applies who was a contributor immediately before the time at which he became such a member of the Police Force shall continue to contribute to the Fund until he attains the age of sixty years the sum that he was contributing thereto immediately before that time and the contribution shall be in respect of the number of units of benefits for which he was so contributing and which shall continue to be based upon an age for retirement of sixty years.

(3) Where a member of the Police Force to whom subsection (2) of this section applies is required or entitled pursuant to this Act to increase the amount of his contribution to the Fund by reason of an increase in salary on becoming such a member of the Police Force or thereafter, he shall increase his contribution to the Fund by such sum as will, at rates of contributions determined by the actuary appointed pursuant to this Act upon the basis of an age for retirement of sixty-five years and approved by the Board, provide additional units of benefits to the number for which he is required to contribute or, as the case may be, for which, being entitled to elect to contribute, he so elects.

(4) A member of the Police Force to whom this section applies shall not be entitled on attaining the age of sixty years to payment of annuity benefit in respect of the units of such benefit for which pursuant to subsection (2) of this section he continued to make contributions based upon an age for retirement of sixty years but subject to subsection (5) of this section he shall on attaining the age of sixty-five years be entitled to receive annuity benefit in respect of those units in all respects as if he had been contributing for those units on attaining the age of sixty-five years.

(5) The amount of annuity benefit payable in respect of the units to which subsection (4) of this section applies shall be increased by an amount ascertained by multiplying the portion of the annuity benefit corresponding to the contributions made by the contributor by a percentage determined by the actuary appointed pursuant to this Act and approved by the Board as being attributable to the increase in value of the contributions to the Fund in respect of the units of annuity benefit in question derived from the contributor by reason that payment of annuity benefit was postponed until the contributor attained the age of sixty-five years.

(6) On attaining the age of sixty years, a member of the Police Force to whom subsection (2) of this section applies shall thereafter until he attains the age of sixty-five years continue to contribute to the Fund for units of incapacity benefit to the number for which he was contributing pursuant to subsections (2) and (3) of this section immediately before attaining the age of sixty years and shall contribute such sum as will, at rates of contributions determined by the actuary appointed pursuant to this Act upon the basis of an age for retirement of sixty-five years and approved by the Board, provide those units of incapacity benefit.

(7) Every member of the Police Force to whom this section applies who was not a contributor immediately before becoming such a member of the Police Force shall contribute to the Fund for the units of benefits for which he is required or entitled to contribute pursuant to this Act such sum as will, at rates of contributions determined by the actuary appointed pursuant to this Act upon the basis of an age for retirement of sixty-five years and approved by the Board, provide units of benefits to the number for which he is required to contribute or, as the case may be, for which, being entitled to elect to contribute, he so elects.

26. When member of Police Force may voluntarily increase his contribution. (1) Any member of the Police Force who is not contributing to the Fund for units of benefits to the number thereof specified in the scale contained in Schedule I to this Act opposite to the salary group within which his or her salary falls may, subject to this section, elect to increase the amount of his or her contribution.

(2) Such an election may be to contribute for any further number of units of benefits up to, but not exceeding, the difference between—

(a) the number thereof specified in the said scale opposite to the salary group in which the salary of the member of the Police Force making the election falls; and

(b) the number thereof for which such member of the Police Force is contributing.

(3) Unless exempted by the Board therefrom a member of the Police Force shall, before at any time increasing the amount of his or her contribution to the Fund under this section, be medically examined at his or her own expense by a medical practitioner.

(4) A member of the Police Force shall not at any time increase the amount of his or her contribution to the Fund under this section if, after considering the report of the medical practitioner, the Board is not satisfied that the health and physical condition of such member of the Police Force are such as would justify his or her being then accepted as a contributor.

(5) Any increased contribution under this section shall be payable as from the first day of the periodical interval at which contributions to the Fund are prescribed to be made next after the date when the Board accepts as a contributor under this section the member of the Police Force making the election.

27. Power to Board to exempt, etc., from contributing. (1) According as the circumstances of any case in its opinion warrant, the Board may exempt a member of the Police Force wholly or partly from the requirement imposed upon him or her by this Act to contribute, or at any time to increase the amount of his or her contribution, to the Fund, or the Board may defer (either for a period specified by it or without specifying any period) such requirement in respect of either such contribution or any increase in the amount thereof.

(2) When the Board specifies the period for which it defers the contribution or any increased contribution required by this Act to be paid by a member of the Police Force, then upon the expiration of that period (or of any extension thereof which it is hereby declared the Board may grant) that member of the Police Force shall, unless the Board wholly or partly exempts him or her from so doing, pay to the Fund the contribution or increased contribution then required in his or her case by this Act.

(3) When the Board does not specify the period for which it defers the contribution, or any increased contribution, required by this Act to be paid by a member of the Police Force, the Board may at any later time determine that deferment and thereupon, unless the Board wholly or partly exempts him or her from so doing, the member of the Police Force concerned shall pay to the Fund the contribution or increased contribution then required in his or her case by this Act.

(4) In the case of any member of the Police Force (including a member of the Police Force to whom subsection (2) or (3) of this section applies) partly exempted by the Board from making the contribution or any increased contribution required in his or her case by this Act, the payment which he or she would be otherwise required to make shall be reduced by the amount of the exemption.

(5) Where a contributor satisfies the Board that adequate provision has been made for the contributor and, in the case of a male contributor, his family, or that continued contributions for the number of units for which he or she is contributing will cause him or her undue hardship, or that for any other reason which the Board deems adequate he or she should be permitted to surrender units, the Board may permit the contributor to surrender some or all of the units of benefits under this Act for which he or she is contributing.

(6) The surrender value, if any, in respect of any contributions paid by the contributor on units of annuity benefit, and in the case of a male contributor, assurance benefit surrendered under subsection (5) of this section shall be paid to the contributor.

(7) The units surrendered by a contributor under subsection (5) of this section shall be those for which he or she last began to contribute.

28. Member reduced in salary. (1) Where the salary of a contributor has been reduced and by reason of that reduction falls within a salary group in column 1 of the scale contained in Schedule 1 to this Act lower than the salary group in which it would fall if it had not been reduced, the contributor may elect to reduce the number of units in respect of which he or she shall contribute to a number not being less than the number of units appropriate to the salary group to which his or her salary has been reduced, and the surrender value, if any, payable in respect of contributions paid by him or her in respect of units of annuity benefit and, in the case of a male contributor, assurance benefit, in excess of the reduced number of units ~~shall be paid to him or her.~~

(2) A contributor electing under subsection (1) of this section shall surrender first the unit or units for which he or she last began to contribute.

(3) The benefits (save the additional assurance benefit in respect of children) payable under this Act in respect of units respectively of annuity benefit, incapacity benefit and assurance benefit included in the number of units in excess of the number appropriate to the salary group to which the salary of a contributor has been reduced shall, whilst the unit continues to be a unit in excess of the number appropriate to the salary group in which the salary of the contributor falls for the time being, be reduced to thirty-five per centum of the rates thereof which, save for this paragraph, apply under subsection (1) respectively of sections 38, 40 and 42 of this Act.

29. Units of benefits to be contributed for in equal numbers. At all times units (including units to which Division IV applies) respectively of annuity benefit, incapacity benefit and, in the case of a male contributor, assurance benefit, shall be contributed for in equal numbers and accordingly a contributor shall not be allowed to contribute at any time for more units of one such benefit than of another.

30. Period for which contributions are to continue. (1) Save as provided under section 25 of this Act, a member of the Police Force shall continue to contribute as prescribed to the Fund until he or she attains the age for retirement or his or her employment as a member of the Police Force is sooner terminated by death, resignation or otherwise howsoever and shall, in respect of any period of recreation leave, sick leave or other leave of absence, either with or without salary, pay contribution, as for a period of service, without reduction.

(2) Where a contributor is on leave of absence of any kind without salary, or at less than full salary the Board may, upon his or her application, permit the contribution in respect of the period of such absence to be made to the Fund in such manner as respects periodical amounts or times of payment, or both, as the Board approves.

Contributions according to scale graduated by age at commencement. The amount of contribution which shall be paid periodically by a member of the Police Force in respect respectively of annuity, incapacity and, in the case of a male member of the Police Force, assurance benefits, shall, except where otherwise provided in this Act, be based upon—

- (a) the number of units;
- (b) sex;
- (c) the age at which the member of the Police Force commences to contribute for each unit;

- (c) shall be payable as from the first day of the periodical interval at which contributions to the Fund are prescribed to be made next after the date on which the contributor elects to contribute for that reserve unit of benefit.

(4) Unless exempted by the Board therefrom a member of the Police Force shall, before at any time contributing or increasing the amount of his or her contributions for reserve units of benefits under this Division, be medically examined at his or her own expense by a medical practitioner.

(5) A member of the Police Force shall not at any time increase under this Division the amount of his or her contributions to the Fund if after considering the report of the medical practitioner, the Board is not satisfied that the health and physical condition of such member of the Police Force are such as would justify his or her being then accepted as a contributor.

33. When reserve units become ordinary units of benefits. Where a contributor—

- (a) who is contributing for one or more reserve units of benefits pursuant to this Division; and

- (b) who becomes required or entitled to contribute for additional units of benefits under the provisions of this Act (other than this Division), does not increase the amount of his or her contributions to the Fund by such sum as is sufficient to provide, in accordance with the appropriate rates of contributions applicable to the particular case under this Act, the additional units of benefits, such number of reserve units of benefits up to but not exceeding the number of such units for which he is contributing pursuant to this Division as is equal to the difference between—

- (a) the number of units of benefits specified in the scale contained in Schedule I to this Act opposite to the salary group within which the contributor's salary falls; and
- (b) the number thereof (other than reserve units of benefits) for which such member of the Police Force is contributing,

34. Contributor may discontinue contribution for reserve units.

A contributor who is contributing for one or more reserve units of benefits may, subject to section 29 of this Act, elect to discontinue his or her contributions in respect of all or any of those units in which case he or she shall be paid from the Fund the surrender value, if any, of the reserve units of annuity benefit and, in the case of a male contributor, assurance benefit in respect of which he or she has so elected to discontinue his or her contributions.

35. Payment of lump sum on ceasing to contribute. (1) Where a contributor who is contributing for one or more reserve units of benefits pursuant to this Division ceases to be a contributor there shall be paid to him or her or, if he or she has died, his or her personal representative or other person approved by the Board from the Fund the sum prescribed by this section in respect of such number of the reserve units of benefits for which he or she was contributing to the Fund pursuant to this Division at the time when he or she ceased to be a contributor as is equal to the difference between—

- (a) the number of units of benefits (including reserve units of benefits) for which the contributor was contributing at that time; and

(2) Payments to be made under this section by the Treasurer into the Fund shall be made from the Consolidated Revenue Fund (exclusive of moneys standing to the credit of the Loan Fund Account) which is hereby appropriated accordingly.
