Penalties and Sentences Legislation Amendment Act 1993

Act No. 36 of 1993

---

An Act to amend certain Acts in relation to penalties and sentences

[Assented to 23 July 1993]

The Parliament of Queensland enacts—

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Penalties and Sentences Legislation Amendment Act 1993.

PART 2—AMENDMENT OF PENALTIES AND SENTENCES ACT 1992

Amended Act

2. The Penalties and Sentences Act 1992 is amended as set out in this Part and Schedule 1.

Insertion of new s.33A

3. After section 33—

insert—

‘Failing to obey condition of recognisance

‘33A.(1) If the court is satisfied that the offender has failed to obey a condition of the recognisance, the court may forfeit the recognisance and issue a warrant to arrest the offender.

‘(2) The warrant is to be directed to all police officers to arrest and bring the offender before the court or a court of like jurisdiction.

‘(3) The court before which the offender is brought may—

- (a) sentence the offender for the offence with which the offender was originally charged; or

- (b) make another order that the court could lawfully have made if the offender had not been released on recognisance.’.

Replacement of s.38 (Extension of time)

4. Section 38—

omit, insert—

‘Extension of time

‘38.(1) The time stated in an order made under section 35(1) within which the restitution is to be made, or the compensation is to be paid, may be extended by—

- (a) the court that made the order; or
- (b) a court of like jurisdiction; or
- (c) the proper officer of the court.

‘(2) The court or officer that grants an extension under subsection (1) may further extend the time.

‘(3) Application for an extension under subsection (1), or further extension under subsection (2), must be in writing.’.

Replacement of s.56 (Application to clerk of court for order after end of time allowed for payment of fine)

5. Section 56—

omit, insert—

‘Application to proper officer of court after end of time allowed for payment of fine

‘56.(1) This section applies to an offender—

- (a) for whom an original order has been made by a court (whether before or after the commencement of this section); and
- (b) who has not applied for a fine option order—
  - (i) under section 53; or
  - (ii) under section 55 in the time allowed by section 55(2).

‘(2) Before a warrant may be issued for the commitment of the offender to prison, the proper officer of the court that imposed the fine must—

- (a) send an application for a fine option order by post to the offender at the offender’s address last known to the proper officer; and
- (b) advise the offender that if the offender fails to make application for a fine option order within 15 business days after the application is posted to the offender, a warrant may be issued for the commitment of the offender to prison for failing to pay the fine.

‘(3) The offender may apply to the proper officer even though a warrant of commitment has been issued or executed in relation to the original order.

‘(4) The application must—

- (a) be in the approved form; and
- (b) state the particulars that are relevant having regard to the matters of which the proper officer is required to be satisfied under section 57(1); and
- (c) be signed by the applicant.’.

Insertion of new s.58

6. Before section 59—

insert—

‘Proper officer must reconsider offender’s financial position

‘58.(1) If—

- (a) an offender has previously been refused a fine option order; and
- (b) the court records show that the refusal was made because of section 57(1)(a); and
- (c) the proper officer of the court is satisfied that the offender’s financial position has become worse since the refusal;

the proper officer must consider a fresh application, if made, by the offender for a fine option order.

‘(2) The application must—

- (a) be made to the proper officer of the court that, or the proper officer who, previously refused an application for a fine option order; and
- (b) be in the approved form; and
- (c) state how the offender's financial position has become worse; and
- (d) be signed by the applicant; and
- (e) be lodged—
  - (i) if the court is the Supreme Court or a District Court—in the registry of the court; or
  - (ii) if the court is a Magistrates Court—with the clerk of the court.

‘(3) The offender may make the application even though a warrant of commitment has been issued or executed in relation to the original order.

‘(4) The offender cannot make more than 1 application under subsection (1).’.

Replacement of s.68 (Extension of 1 year mentioned in s.66(b) may be made)

7. Section 68—

omit, insert—

‘Period mentioned in s.66(2) may be extended

‘68.(1) The 1 year or other time mentioned in section 66(2) may be extended—

- (a) by a court, or the proper officer of the court, at any time before the end of the 1 year or other time; or
- (b) by a court under section 74(4)(a).

‘(2) Application for an extension under subsection (1) may be made by an authorised Commission officer.

‘(3) The court, or proper officer of the court, must advise the Commission and the offender when the application will be heard.

‘(4) The application may be heard in the absence of the offender if the court or proper officer is satisfied that the offender is unable to be present.’.

Replacement of s.83 (Court to notify court that imposed fine option order)

8. Section 83—

omit, insert—

‘Court to notify court that imposed fine option order

‘83. If a court that revokes an order under section 79 is not the court that imposed the fine option order, the first court must notify the court that imposed the fine option order of the action taken under section 80.’.

Replacement of s.151 (General provisions)

9. Section 151—

omit, insert—

‘Application of remission provisions to suspended sentences

‘151.(1) If a term of imprisonment is wholly suspended, the provisions of an Act that provide for remission of sentence—

- (a) do not apply to the term of imprisonment or the operational period; but
- (b) do apply to imprisonment ordered to be served under section 147(1)(b) or (c).

‘(2) If a term of imprisonment is partly suspended, the provisions of an Act that provide for remission of sentence—

- (a) do not apply to—
  - (i) the part of the term of imprisonment that is suspended; or
  - (ii) the operational period; or
  - (iii) the imprisonment that must be served before an order made under section 144(3) that suspends part of the term of imprisonment has effect; but
- (b) do apply to imprisonment ordered to be served under section 147(1)(b) or (c).’.

Insertion of new s.151A

10. After section 151—

insert—

‘Re-integration programs for suspended sentences

‘151A. An offender whose sentence of imprisonment is suspended is eligible for release to a re-integration program only in relation to imprisonment ordered under section 147(1)(b) or (c).’.

Insertion of new s.158A

11. After section 158—

insert—

‘Term of imprisonment does not run if offender on bail awaiting appeal

‘158A. The term of imprisonment of an offender who appeals against sentence, and is granted bail awaiting the determination of the appeal, does not run during the time the offender is on bail.’.

Insertion of new s.180A

12. After section 180—

insert—

‘Meaning of certain sentence provisions

‘180A. A provision of an Act that provides to the effect that the maximum penalty for an offence may be a fine or imprisonment means that the sentencing court may order the offender—

- (a) to pay a fine; or
- (b) to be imprisoned; or
- (c) to pay a fine and also to be imprisoned.

Example—

‘Maximum penalty—100 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years’ means the offender is liable to—

- (a) a maximum fine of 100 penalty units; or
- (b) maximum imprisonment of 2 years; or
- (c) a maximum fine of 100 penalty units and also maximum imprisonment of 2 years.’.

Insertion of new ss.182A and 182B

13. After section 182—

insert—

‘Court may make order for default payment of penalty

‘182A.(1) A court that orders an offender to pay a penalty may also order that, if the offender fails to pay the penalty immediately or within the time allowed by the court in its order, the offender is to be imprisoned for a term calculated under subsection (2)(a).

‘(2) The term of imprisonment—

- (a) must be—
  - (i) the term that, in the court’s opinion, will satisfy the justice of the case; but
  - (ii) not more than 14 days imprisonment for each penalty unit, or part of a penalty unit, that the offender was ordered to pay; and
- (b) must be served cumulatively with any term of imprisonment the offender is serving, or has been sentenced to serve, unless the court orders otherwise.

‘(3) This section has effect—

- (a) subject to the Act under which the penalty is ordered to be paid; and
- (b) despite section 152, whether or not a conviction is recorded.

‘Warrant for arrest and imprisonment

‘182B.(1) If the offender does not pay the penalty mentioned in section 182A immediately or within the time allowed by the court, the proper officer of the court must issue a warrant for the arrest and imprisonment of the offender for the term ordered by the court.

‘(2) A warrant under subsection (1) is to be directed to all police officers.

‘(3) The proper officer of the court must not issue a warrant under subsection (1) unless the officer has made the offender aware of the provisions of Division 2 of Part 4.’.

Insertion of new ss.185A and 185B

14. After section 185—

insert—

‘Power of proper officer to issue warrant

‘185A.(1) If a court makes an order under section 182A(1) or 185(1) and the penalty is not paid, the proper officer of the court must issue a warrant of commitment for the imprisonment of the offender as soon as practicable after the end of the time (if any) fixed by the court in which the penalty is to be paid.

‘(2) If a court makes an order under section 184 and the act ordered is not done, the proper officer of the court must issue a warrant of commitment for the imprisonment of the offender as soon as practicable after the end of the time (if any) fixed by the court for the doing of the act.

‘Power of proper officer to postpone warrant

‘185B.(1) The proper officer of the court may postpone the issue of a warrant under section 182B or 185A if the officer considers it just to postpone the issue of the warrant.

‘(2) Application for a postponement under subsection (1)—

- (a) must be in writing; and
- (b) may be made by a party to the proceedings in which the warrant is to be issued.’.

PART 3—MINOR AND CONSEQUENTIAL

AMENDMENTS OF OTHER ACTS

Amended Acts

15. Each Act mentioned in Schedule 2 is amended as set out in Schedule 2.
