18 Insertion of new s 52A

After section 52—

insert—

‘52A Working out period of imprisonment for arrest and imprisonment warrant

- ‘(1) The period of imprisonment that may be stated in an arrest and imprisonment warrant for an amount ordered to be paid by a court must be the period worked out by dividing the amount stated in the warrant, less any enforcement or administrative fees added by SPER, by the relevant cut-out rate for a court order rounded down to the nearest whole number and expressed as a number of days.
- ‘(2) The period of imprisonment that may be stated in an arrest and imprisonment warrant for an infringement notice offence must be the period worked out by dividing the amount stated in the warrant, less any enforcement or administrative fees added by SPER, by the cut-out rate for an infringement notice offence, rounded down to the nearest whole number and expressed as a number of days.
- ‘(3) However, the maximum period that may be stated in an arrest and imprisonment warrant for an amount a surety must pay under the Bail Act 1980 or the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992 must not be more than 2 years.’.

19 Amendment of s 56 (Applications for cancellation of enforcement orders)

- (1) Section 56(1)—

insert—

‘(d) the person is applying to a Magistrates Court to hear the matter of the offence to which the relevant enforcement order relates.’.

- (2) Section 56—

insert—

- ‘(2A) Despite subsection (2), an application under subsection (1)(d) may be made after the periods mentioned in subsection (2) have ended if the registrar is satisfied the applicant has reasonable grounds for the delay.’.

- (3) Section 56(2A) and (3)—
renumber as section 56(3) and (4).

20      Amendment of s 57 (Decision on application)

Section 57(4) to (6)—

omit, insert—

- ‘(4) If the registrar cancels the relevant enforcement order, the registrar must refer the matter of the offence to the administering authority.
- ‘(5) The administering authority may start a proceeding against the applicant for the offence.
- ‘(6) The registrar must give the applicant notice of the decision in the approved form.’.

21      Amendment of s 58 (Appeal against refusal to cancel enforcement order)

- (1) Section 58(1), ‘section 57(5)’—

omit, insert—

‘section 57(6)’.

- (2) Section 58(6), ‘referral notice’—

omit.

26 Replacement of s 118 (Good behaviour order when imprisonment not appropriate)

Section 118—

insert—

‘118 Good behaviour order when imprisonment not appropriate

‘(1) This section applies if—

(a) an enforcement warrant or a fine collection notice has been or may be issued for an enforcement debtor for an unpaid amount; and

(b) the registrar is satisfied that—

(i) the enforcement debtor is not suitable for performing community service under a fine option order; and

(ii) the enforcement debtor can not pay or continue to pay all or part of the unpaid amount; and

- (iii) in the particular circumstances, it may be inappropriate to enforce the payment of the amount by issuing an arrest and imprisonment warrant for the enforcement debtor.
- ‘(2) For subsection (1)(b), in deciding whether the registrar is satisfied of the matters mentioned in that paragraph, the registrar may have regard to any relevant advice, including expert advice, the registrar considers appropriate.
- ‘(3) The registrar may, with the consent of the enforcement debtor, order that the enforcement debtor must be of good behaviour for the period, of not longer than 3 years, stated in the order (the good behaviour order) on the conditions the registrar considers appropriate.
- ‘(4) As soon as practicable after making the good behaviour order, the registrar must give a copy of the order to the enforcement debtor.
- ‘(5) The good behaviour order must include information about—
- (a) the enforcement debtor’s right to apply to have the order cancelled or varied; and
  - (b) how the application may be made; and
  - (c) the consequences and enforcement action the registrar may take if the good behaviour order is cancelled.
- ‘(6) The enforcement debtor may apply to SPER to have the good behaviour order cancelled or varied.
- ‘(7) The application must be made—
- (a) in the approved form; or
  - (b) in another way acceptable to SPER.
- Examples of other ways an application may be made that may be acceptable to SPER—*
- by telephone
  - by use of the internet
- ‘(8) If the enforcement debtor applies for the good behaviour order to be cancelled or the registrar is satisfied the enforcement debtor has contravened the good behaviour order, including, for example, by incurring a further fine, the registrar may, without notice to the enforcement debtor, cancel the order.

- ‘(9) If the registrar cancels the good behaviour order—
- (a) the unpaid amount becomes payable; and
  - (b) the registrar may take any enforcement action the registrar could have taken if the good behaviour order had not been made.
- ‘(10) If the period stated in the good behaviour order ends without the registrar cancelling the order, the unpaid amount is no longer payable.’.

27 Amendment of s 119 (Enforcement by imprisonment)

Section 119(4), ‘section 39’—

omit, insert—

‘section 52A’.

28 Amendment of s 135 (Default certificate for infringement notice offence)

Section 135(e)(iii)—

omit, insert—

‘(iii) make to the administering authority an election to have the matter of the offence decided in a Magistrates Court;’.

29 Amendment of s 136 (Instalment payment notice)

(1) Section 136—

insert—

‘(ea) if the person has an unpaid amount under an instalment payment notice (an earlier instalment payment notice) given to the person earlier—

- (i) the offence to which the earlier instalment payment notice related; and

- (ii) the unpaid amount under the earlier instalment payment notice; and
  - (iii) that the amount to be paid for each instalment under this instalment payment notice (the current instalment payment notice) includes an amount paid to satisfy the earlier instalment payment notice; and
  - (iv) that the requirement to pay instalments under the earlier instalment payment notice ends on the giving of the current instalment payment notice to the person;’.
- (2) Section 136(ea) to (i)—
renumber as section 136(1)(f) to (j).
- (3) Section 136—
insert—
- ‘(2) If a person who has an earlier instalment payment notice is given a current instalment payment notice that states the information mentioned in subsection (1)(f), any previous arrangement to pay instalments under the earlier instalment payment notice ends on the giving of the current instalment payment notice to the person.
- ‘(3) For subsection (1)(f) and (2), a reference to an earlier instalment payment notice includes an instalment payment notice given to a person before the commencement of this subsection.’.

30 Amendment of s 137 (Enforcement order)

- (1) Section 137(1)(e)(ii)—
omit.
- (2) Section 137(1)(e)(v), ‘give’—
omit, insert— ‘make’.
- (3) Section 137(1)(e)(iii) to (v)—
renumber as section 137(1)(e)(ii) to (iv).

31 Amendment of s 147 (Effect of notices, orders and warrants)

Section 147, ‘or staff of the registry mentioned in section 11’ and footnote—

omit.

32 Insertion of new ss 150A and 150B

After section 150—

insert—

‘150A Registrar may write off unpaid fine or other amount

‘(1) The registrar may write off all or part of a fine or another amount payable by a person under this Act, whether or not any part of the fine or other amount is payable to someone other than the State—

- (a) if the person dies; or
- (b) if the person is a corporation that has been deregistered; or
- (c) if there is insufficient information to establish the identity of the person liable to pay the fine or other amount; or
- (d) in other circumstances permitted under a guideline issued by the Minister under section 150B.

‘(2) The fine or other amount stops being payable from the time it is written off.

‘150B Guidelines

- ‘(1) The Minister may issue guidelines about the writing off of fines and other amounts payable by persons under this Act.
- ‘(2) A guideline issued under subsection (1) must not be made available to members of the public.’.

33      Amendment of s 152 (Information from entities other than police service)

(1) Section 152(1)—

omit, insert—

‘(1) For enforcing this Act, the registrar may ask a relevant entity for relevant information about a stated person as shown in any records kept by the relevant entity.’.

(2) Section 152(2), ‘entity or local government’—

omit, insert—

‘relevant entity’.

(3) Section 152(2), (4) and (5), ‘information’—

omit, insert—

‘relevant information’.

(4) Section 152(9)—

insert—

‘relevant entity—

(a) means—

(i) an administering authority; or

(ii) an authorised person; or

(iii) a local government; or

(iv) a State entity; or

(v) the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Queensland Incorporated; but

(b) does not include the Queensland Police Service.

relevant information, about a person, means information about the following—

(a) the person’s current and any previous address;

(b) the person’s date of birth;

(c) the person’s telephone number;

(d) any bank account held by the person;

- (e) the person's employer;
- (f) any property in which the person has a legal or beneficial interest.'.

34 Replacement of pt 10, div 1, hdg

Part 10, division 1, heading—
omit, insert—

'Division 1 Transitional provisions for Act No. 70 of 1999'.

35 Insertion of new pt 10, div 3

After section 174—
insert—

'Division 3 Transitional provisions for State Penalties Enforcement and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2007

'175 Definition for div 3

'In this division—

amendment Act means the State Penalties Enforcement and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2007.

'176 Transitional provision about management of office

- '(1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement of the amendment provision, an enforcement order, warrant or fine collection notice properly made or issued by a member of the staff of the registry was still in force.
- '(2) The order, warrant or notice continues in force according to its terms as if the amendment provision had not commenced.
- '(3) A member of the staff of the registry continues to have the same immunities and protections in relation to making or issuing the relevant document as the staff member would have had if the amendment provision had not commenced.

‘(4) In this section—

amendment provision means section 4 of the amendment Act.

‘177 Transitional provision for extension of time to pay an amount stated in an enforcement order

‘(1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement of this section, an application for an extension of time to pay an amount stated in an enforcement order has been made under repealed section 41(b) or 42(1)(a) but not decided.

‘(2) On the commencement, the application is taken to be cancelled.

‘(3) In this section—

repealed section 41(a) or 42(1)(a) means section 41(a) or 42(1)(a) as in force before the commencement of section 15 of the amendment Act.

‘178 Transitional provision for cancellation of enforcement order

‘(1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement of this section, the registrar had cancelled an enforcement order under previous section 57 but had not referred the matter of the offence to a Magistrates Court.

‘(2) On the commencement—

(a) the registrar must not refer the matter of the offence to a Magistrates Court; and

(b) new section 57 applies to the cancellation of the enforcement order as if the cancellation had happened after the commencement.

‘(3) In this section—

new section 57 means section 57 as amended by the amendment Act.

previous section 57 means section 57 as in force before the commencement of section 20 of the amendment Act.
