- (c) the charge is withdrawn or dismissed;
- (d) a nolle prosequi or no true bill is presented in relation to the charge.

offence includes an act or omission committed outside Queensland that would be an offence if it were committed in Queensland.

Division 2 Suspension of students by principal

Subdivision 1 General provisions

281 Principal's power to suspend

- (1) The principal of a State school at which a student is enrolled may, under this division, suspend the student from the school if the principal is reasonably satisfied a ground exists for the suspension.
- (2) The principal may act under this division whether or not the student has already been suspended or excluded under this part.
- (3) In this division, a reference to suspension is a reference to suspension of a student in exercise of the power under subsection (1).

282 Grounds for suspension

- (1) Each of the following is a ground for suspension—
 - (a) disobedience;
 - (b) misbehaviour;
 - (c) conduct that adversely affects, or is likely to adversely affect, other students;
 - (d) conduct that adversely affects, or is likely to adversely affect, the good order and management of the school;
 - (e) the student's attendance at the school poses an unacceptable risk to the safety or wellbeing of other students or of staff;
 - (f) the student is charged with a serious offence.

- (2) It is also a ground for suspension if—
 - (a) the student is charged with an offence other than a serious offence; and
 - (b) the principal is reasonably satisfied it would not be in the best interests of other students or of staff for the student to attend the school while the charge is pending.
- (3) To remove any doubt, it is declared that, for subsection (1)(c) or (d), conduct may be a ground for suspension even if the conduct does not happen on school premises or during school hours.
- (4) Each of the grounds under subsection (1)(f) or (2) is a charge-related ground.

283 Duration and notice of suspension

- (1) Suspension may be—
 - (a) generally—for not more than 10 school days; or
 - (b) on a ground other than a charge-related ground and if the principal is reasonably satisfied the ground is so serious that the suspension should be for more than 10 school days—for not more than 20 school days; or
 - (c) on a charge-related ground—until the day the principal makes a decision under section 288.
- (2) The suspension starts when the principal tells the student about it.
- (3) As soon as practicable after telling the student, the principal must give the student a notice in the approved form about the suspension.
- (4) If the student is suspended under subsection (1)(b) or (c), the notice must state that the student may make a written submission against the suspension to the chief executive.

284 Continuing education during suspension

A principal who suspends a student must take reasonable steps to arrange for the student's access to an educational program that allows the student to continue the student's education during the suspension.

285 Submission against suspension

- (1) This section applies for suspension under section 283(1)(b) or (c).
- (2) The student may make a written submission against the suspension.

Note—

See also section 331 (Parent may also make submission, representation or application).

- (3) The submission must be made to the chief executive and state fully the grounds for the submission and the facts relied on.

286 Dealing with submission against suspension

- (1) If a submission is made to the chief executive under section 285(2), the chief executive must, as soon as practicable after receiving it, review the principal's decision to suspend the student and—
 - (a) confirm the decision; or
 - (b) vary the decision; or
 - (c) set aside the decision and substitute another decision.
- (2) As soon as practicable after making the decision under subsection (1), the chief executive must tell the student and the principal—

[s 12]

- (a) about the decision; and
 - (b) if the decision allows the student to resume attendance at the school earlier, or later, than if the principal's decision had been confirmed—when the student may resume attendance at the school.
- (3) As soon as practicable after telling the student and the principal, the chief executive must give each of them a notice in the approved form about the decision.

Subdivision 2 Charge-related suspensions

287 Application of sdiv 2

This subdivision applies for suspension on a charge-related ground.

288 Principal must decide whether to exclude student after charge dealt with

- (1) As soon as practicable after the charge is dealt with, the principal must decide, under division 3, whether to propose to exclude the student from the school.

Note—

The principal may propose to exclude on the ground mentioned in section 292(2) or on another ground mentioned in section 292(1).

- (2) If the principal decides not to propose to exclude, the principal must tell the student about the decision and that the suspension has ended.
- (3) As soon as practicable after telling the student, the principal must give the student a notice in the approved form about the decision.

289 Principal may decide to end suspension before charge dealt with

- (1) This section applies if, on a day before the charge is dealt with, the principal is satisfied it would no longer not be in the best interests of other students or of staff for the student to attend the school while the charge is pending.
- (2) Despite section 283(1)(c), the principal may decide to end the suspension.
- (3) The principal must tell the student about the decision and that the suspension has ended.
- (4) As soon as practicable after telling the student, the principal must give the student a notice in the approved form about the decision.

Subdivision 3 Chief executive's powers

290 Chief executive may exercise suspension power

- (1) This section applies if the principal of a State school, or the chief executive, reasonably believes it would be appropriate for the chief executive to exercise the suspension power.

Example—

It would be appropriate for the chief executive to exercise the power if the principal was prevented from doing so by the principles of natural justice relating to bias.

- (2) The chief executive may exercise the power.
- (3) Each provision of this division applies as if a reference in the provision to the principal were a reference to the chief executive.

Division 3 Exclusion of students by principal

291 Principal's power to exclude

- (1) The principal of a State school at which a student is enrolled may, under this division, exclude the student from the school if the principal is reasonably satisfied a ground exists for the exclusion.
- (2) The principal may act under this division whether or not the student has already been suspended or excluded under this part.
- (3) In this division, a reference to exclusion is a reference to exclusion of a student in exercise of the power under subsection (1).

 - (a) persistent disobedience;
 - (b) misbehaviour;
 - (c) conduct that adversely affects, or is likely to adversely affect, other students;
 - (d) conduct that adversely affects, or is likely to adversely affect, the good order and management of the school;
 - (e) the student's attendance at the school poses an unacceptable risk to the safety or wellbeing of other students or of staff;if suspension of the student under division 2 is inadequate to deal with the disobedience, misbehaviour, conduct or risk.
- (2) It is also a ground for exclusion if—

- (a) the student has been convicted of an offence; and
 - (b) the principal is reasonably satisfied it would not be in the best interests of other students or of staff for the student to be enrolled at the school.
- (3) To remove any doubt, it is declared that, for subsection (1)(c) or (d), conduct may be a ground for exclusion even if the conduct does not happen on school premises or during school hours.

293 Suspension pending final decision about exclusion

- (1) This section applies if the principal of a State school proposes to exclude a student.
- (2) The principal must give the student a notice in the approved form about the proposed exclusion and—
 - (a) if the student is already suspended—tell the student that the suspension continues until the principal makes a final decision about the proposed exclusion; or
 - (b) if the student is not already suspended—suspend the student until the principal makes a final decision about the proposed exclusion.
- (3) The suspension starts when the principal tells the student about it.

294 Continuing education during suspension

A principal who suspends a student pending a final decision about exclusion must take reasonable steps to arrange for the student's access to an educational program that allows the student to continue the student's education during the suspension.

295 Final decision about exclusion

- (1) The principal of a State school must make a final decision about exclusion within 20 school days after giving the student a notice under section 293(2) (the proposed exclusion notice).
- (2) If the principal decides not to exclude, the principal must—
 - (a) tell the student, as soon as practicable—

 - (b) as soon as practicable after telling the student about the decision—give the student a notice in the approved form about the decision.
- (3) If the principal decides to exclude, the principal must exclude the student either permanently or for a period of not more than 1 year.
- (4) However, the exclusion can not be longer than the period stated in the proposed exclusion notice.
- (5) The principal must, as soon as practicable after deciding to exclude, give the student a notice in the approved form about the exclusion.
- (6) The notice mentioned in subsection (5) must state that—
 - (a) the student may make a written submission to the chief executive asking the chief executive to review the decision under division 6; and
 - (b) if the student is excluded permanently—the student may make a periodic written submission to the chief executive under division 7.

296 Effect of exclusion on enrolment

If a student is excluded from a State school at which the student is enrolled, the enrolment is taken to be cancelled.

297 Chief executive may exercise exclusion power

- (1) This section applies if the principal of a State school, or the chief executive, reasonably believes it would be appropriate for the chief executive to exercise the exclusion power.

Example—

It would be appropriate for the chief executive to exercise the power if the principal was prevented from doing so by the principles of natural justice relating to bias.

- (2) The chief executive may exercise the power.
- (3) Each provision of this division applies as if a reference in the provision to the principal were a reference to the chief executive.

 - (d) conduct that adversely affects, or is likely to adversely affect, the good order and management of the schools;
 - (e) the student's attendance at the schools poses an unacceptable risk to the safety or wellbeing of other students or of staff;
- if exclusion of the student under division 3 is inadequate to deal with the disobedience, misbehaviour, conduct or risk.
- (2) It is also a ground for exclusion if—
- (a) the student has been convicted of an offence; and
 - (b) the chief executive is reasonably satisfied it would not be in the best interests of other students or of staff for the student to be enrolled at the schools.
- (3) To remove any doubt, it is declared that, for subsection (1)(c) or (d), conduct of the student may be a ground for exclusion even if the conduct does not happen on school premises or during school hours.

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive proposes to exclude a student.
- (2) The chief executive must give the student a notice in the approved form about the proposed exclusion and—

- (3) If the chief executive decides to exclude, the chief executive must exclude the student either permanently or for a period of not more than 1 year.
- (4) However, the exclusion can not be longer than the period stated in the proposed exclusion notice.
- (5) The chief executive must, as soon as practicable after deciding to exclude, give the student a notice in the approved form about the exclusion.
