The Parliament of Queensland enacts—

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Integrity and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2022.

2 Commencement

- (1) This Act, other than sections 50 and 56 and part 3A, commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.
- (2) Sections 50 and 56 commence on 1 March 2023, immediately after the commencement of the Public Sector Act 2022, section 3.

Part 2 Amendment of Auditor-General Act 2009

3 Act amended

This part amends the Auditor-General Act 2009.

4 Amendment of s 6 (Auditor-general and audit office)

- (1) Section 6—
insert—
 - (1A) The auditor-general is an officer of the Parliament.
- (2) Section 6(1A) to (4)—
renumber as section 6(2) to (5).

[s 5]

5 Amendment of s 8 (Auditor-general not subject to direction)

Section 8(2)—

omit.

6 Insertion of new ss 8A–8C

After section 8—

insert—

8A Audit office not public sector entity

The audit office is an entity prescribed not to be a public sector entity for the Public Sector Act 2022, section 8(2)(s).

8B Audit office to comply with obligations relating to equity, diversity, respect and inclusion

The audit office is an entity prescribed for the Public Sector Act 2022, section 25, definition prescribed entity, paragraph (c).

8C Application of provisions of Public Sector Act 2022

- (1) A regulation may—
 - (a) apply particular provisions of the Public Sector Act 2022, including, for example, particular directives made under the Public Sector Act 2022, to the audit office, the auditor-general and employees; and
 - (b) provide for the way in which the provisions mentioned in paragraph (a) are to apply, including, for example, that they apply with or without change.
- (2) Before recommending to the Governor in Council the making of a regulation under subsection (1), the Minister must consult with the auditor-general about the proposed regulation.

- (3) If a regulation is made under subsection (1)—
 - (a) the Public Sector Act 2022 applies to the audit office, the auditor-general and employees only to the extent provided for under the regulation; and
 - (b) the Public Sector Act 2022 applies in the way mentioned in paragraph (a) with necessary changes.
- (4) Also, a regulation may prescribe anything necessary or convenient to be prescribed—
 - (a) to enable a regulation under subsection (1) to be made; or
 - (b) to carry out or give effect to a regulation made under subsection (1); or
 - (c) because of the making of a regulation under subsection (1), including, for example, the portability of employment rights and entitlements.

7 Insertion of new s 11A

After section 11—

insert—

11A Oath before performing duties

- (1) Before performing the duties of office, the auditor-general must make an oath or affirmation to the effect that they will faithfully and impartially perform the duties of the office.
- (2) The oath must be administered by the Speaker, or if there is no Speaker or the Speaker is unavailable, the clerk of the Parliament.

[s 8]

8 Omission of s 14 (Preservation of rights)

Section 14—

omit.

9 Amendment of s 15 (Leave of absence)

Section 15, ‘Minister’—

omit, insert—

Speaker

10 Insertion of new s 19A

After section 19—

insert—

19A Restriction on employment after office ends

- (1) This section applies to a person who stops holding office as the auditor-general, whether because of resignation or ending a term of appointment.
- (2) For 2 years after the person stops holding the office, the person must not hold an office in or be employed by a public sector entity.

11 Replacement of s 22 (Deputy auditor-general employed under Public Sector Act 2022)

Section 22—

omit, insert—

22 Employment of deputy auditor-general

- (1) The auditor-general may employ a deputy auditor-general.
- (2) Division 4 applies in relation to the employment of the deputy auditor-general as if the deputy auditor-general were a member of the staff of the audit office.

12 Amendment of s 24 (Deputy auditor-general subject only to direction of auditor-general)

Section 24(2)—

omit.

13 Insertion of new ss 25A and 25B

After section 25—

insert—

25A Oath of office before acting as auditor-general

- (1) Before performing the duties of office while acting as auditor-general, the deputy auditor-general must make an oath or affirmation under section 11A as if the deputy auditor-general were the auditor-general.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person employed as the deputy auditor-general if—
 - (a) the person has previously made an oath or affirmation before performing the duties of office while acting as auditor-general; and
 - (b) the person has continued in the person's employment as deputy auditor-general since the oath or affirmation was made.

25B Acting deputy auditor-general

The auditor-general may appoint a person to act as the deputy auditor-general during—

- (a) a vacancy in the office of deputy auditor-general; or
- (b) a period when the deputy auditor-general is absent from duty or from Australia or is, for another reason, unable to perform the functions of the office.

[s 14]

14 Replacement of pt 2, divs 4 and 5

Part 2, divisions 4 and 5—

omit, insert—

Division 4 Staff of audit office

26 Employment of staff

- (1) The auditor-general may employ the persons the auditor-general considers necessary for staffing the audit office.
- (2) The staff of the audit office are employed under this Act and not the Public Sector Act 2022.
- (3) Subject to this Act and any relevant industrial instrument within the meaning of the Industrial Relations Act 2016, the conditions of service of the staff of the audit office are those decided by the auditor-general.
- (4) The employment of a member of the staff of the audit office may be—
 - (a) full-time or part-time; or
 - (b) on a permanent, temporary or casual basis.

27 Secondment of public service employees

- (1) A public service employee may be seconded to the audit office.
- (2) While seconded under this section—
 - (a) the person is taken to be a member of the staff of the audit office; and
 - (b) the Public Sector Act 2022 does not apply to the person.

28 Restriction on employment or secondment of person

A person may not be employed under section 22 or 26, or seconded under section 27, unless the person has given the auditor-general written consent to obtain the information mentioned in section 29(1)(a) and (b) in relation to the person's criminal history.

29 Criminal history report

- (1) To decide if a person is suitable to be employed under section 22 or 26, or seconded under section 27, the auditor-general may ask the commissioner of the police service for—
 - (a) a written report about the criminal history of the person; and
 - (b) a brief description of the circumstances of a conviction mentioned in the criminal history.
- (2) However, the auditor-general may make the request only if the person has given the auditor-general written consent for the request.
- (3) The commissioner of the police service must comply with the request.
- (4) However, the duty to comply applies only to information in the commissioner's possession or to which the commissioner has access.
- (5) Before using information obtained under subsection (1) to decide if the person should be employed or seconded, the auditor-general must—
 - (a) disclose the information to the person; and
 - (b) allow the person a reasonable opportunity to make representations to the auditor-general about the information.

[s 14]

(6) In this section—

criminal history, of a person, means the person's criminal history within the meaning of the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986.

29A Confidentiality of criminal history information

- (1) This section applies to a person who possesses criminal history information because the person is or was the auditor-general, deputy auditor-general or a member of the staff of the audit office.
- (2) The person must not, directly or indirectly, disclose the criminal history information to another person unless the disclosure is permitted under subsection (3).

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

- (3) The person may disclose the criminal history information to another person—
 - (a) to the extent necessary to perform the person's functions under this Act; or
 - (b) if the disclosure is authorised under an Act; or
 - (c) if the disclosure is otherwise required or permitted by law; or
 - (d) if the person to whom the information relates consents to the disclosure; or
 - (e) if the disclosure is in a form that does not identify the person to whom the information relates; or
 - (f) if the information is, or has been, lawfully accessible to the public.
- (4) The auditor-general must ensure the criminal history information is destroyed as soon as practicable after it is no longer needed for the purpose for which it was requested.

(5) In this section—

criminal history information means a report or information given to the auditor-general under section 29.

Division 5 Preservation of rights

29B Preservation of rights if public service employee appointed or employed

- (1) This section applies if a person who is a public service employee is appointed or employed as—
 - (a) the auditor-general; or
 - (b) the deputy auditor-general; or
 - (c) a member of the staff of the audit office.
- (2) The person is entitled to retain all existing and accruing rights to superannuation or recreation, sick, long service or other leave as if service in the audit office under this Act were a continuation of service as a public service employee.

29C Preservation of rights if person becomes public service employee

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a person is appointed or employed as a public service employee; and
 - (b) immediately before the appointment or employment, the person was the deputy auditor-general or a member of the staff of the audit office.
- (2) The person's service in the audit office under this Act must be regarded as service as a public service employee.

29D Preservation of rights if public service employee seconded

- (1) A public service employee seconded under section 27—
 - (a) keeps the person's existing and accruing rights to superannuation or recreation, sick, long service or other leave as if employment as a member of the staff of the audit office were a continuation of employment as a public service employee; and
 - (b) may apply for positions, and be employed, in the public service as if the person were a public service employee.
- (2) On ending the secondment, the person's employment on secondment as a member of the staff of the audit office is taken to be employment of the same nature in the public service for working out the person's rights as a public service employee.
- (3) If the secondment ended for a reason other than misconduct, the person is entitled—
 - (a) to return to the person's employment as a public service employee; and
 - (b) to be employed on the same terms of employment as applied to the person's employment as a public service employee before the secondment, subject to any subsequent variation of the terms under—
 - (i) any relevant laws or industrial instruments applying to the person's employment; or
 - (ii) the person's contract of employment.

16 Amendment of s 37A (Performance audit of public sector entities)

(1) Section 37A(3)—

omit, insert—

(3) The object of the performance audit includes—

- (a) deciding whether the objectives of the public sector entity are being achieved economically, efficiently and effectively and in compliance with all relevant laws; and
- (b) identifying any opportunities for the public sector entity to achieve its objectives more economically, efficiently and effectively.

(2) Section 37A(6) and (7)—

omit.

(3) Section 37A(8)—

renumber as section 37A(6).

17 Omission of s 38 (Audit of performance management systems)

Section 38—

omit.

18 Amendment of s 38A (Preparation of strategic audit plans for performance audits)

Section 38A(1), ‘sections 37A and 38’—

omit, insert—

section 37A

19 Amendment of s 56 (Audit fees)

(1) Section 56(3)—

[s 20]

omit.

- (2) Section 56(4), ‘subsection (3)’—

omit, insert—

section 56A

- (3) Section 56(4) and (5)—

renumber as section 56(3) and (4).

20 Insertion of new s 56A

After section 56—

insert—

56A Basic rates of fees

- (1) The auditor-general may decide the basic rates of fees for section 56.
- (2) In deciding the basic rates of fees, the auditor-general must have regard to—
 - (a) the reasonable costs that may be incurred for conducting an audit; and
 - (b) amounts ordinarily charged for conducting an audit by entities that provide audit services.
- (3) The auditor-general may increase the basic rates of fees once each financial year, with the approval of the parliamentary committee.
- (4) The auditor-general must include the reasons for a proposed increase in the basic rates of fees for a financial year when seeking the parliamentary committee’s approval for the increase.
- (5) For deciding whether or not to approve a proposed increase in the basic rates of fees for a financial year, the parliamentary committee may—

- (a) have regard to the government indexation rate for the financial year; and
 - (b) obtain, and have regard to, advice from the Treasurer about the proposed increase.
- (6) As soon as practicable after deciding to approve or not approve a proposed increase in the basic rates of fees for a financial year, the parliamentary committee must prepare a report to the Legislative Assembly stating—
- (a) whether or not the parliamentary committee approved the increase; and
 - (b) the reasons for the parliamentary committee's decision, including, details about whether the parliamentary committee considered either of the following in making the decision—
 - (i) the government indexation rate for the financial year;
 - (ii) advice obtained from the Treasurer about the proposed increase.
- (7) In this section—
- government indexation rate, for a financial year, means the government indexation rate for fees and charges published in the State budget for the financial year.

21 Replacement of pt 4, hdg (Strategic review of the audit office)

Part 4, heading—

omit, insert—

Part 4

Monitoring and oversight

[s 22]

Division 1 Role of parliamentary committee

67A Functions of parliamentary committee

The parliamentary committee has the following functions—

- (a) to monitor and review the performance by the auditor-general of the auditor-general's functions under this Act;
- (b) to report to the Legislative Assembly on any matter concerning the auditor-general's functions or the performance of the auditor-general's functions that the committee considers should be drawn to the Legislative Assembly's attention;
- (c) the other functions conferred on the committee by this Act or another Act.

Division 2 Strategic review of audit office

22 Replacement of pt 5, hdg (Independent audit of Queensland Audit Office)

Part 5, heading—

omit, insert—

Division 3 Independent audit of audit office

23 Renumbering of pt 6 (General provisions)

Part 6—

renumber as part 5.

24 Renumbering of pt 7 (Transitional provisions)

Part 7—

renumber as part 6.

25 Insertion of new pt 6, div 4

Part 6, as renumbered by this Act—

insert—

Division 4 Transitional provisions for the Integrity and Other
Legislation Amendment
Act 2022

Subdivision 1 Provisions about office of auditor-general

90 Definitions for subdivision

In this subdivision—

existing auditor-general means the person who, immediately before the commencement, was holding office as the auditor-general.

existing deputy auditor-general means the person who, immediately before the commencement, was holding office as the deputy auditor-general.

91 Existing appointment unaffected

The amendment of this Act by the Integrity and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2022 does not affect the appointment of the existing auditor-general.

92 Oath of office

- (1) The existing auditor-general must comply with section 11A—
 - (a) if, on the commencement, the existing auditor-general is absent from duty or from Australia or is, for another reason, unable to perform the functions of the office—before the auditor-general starts performing the duties of office after the commencement; or
 - (b) otherwise—within 28 days after the commencement.
- (2) If, on the commencement, the existing deputy auditor-general is acting as auditor-general, the existing deputy auditor-general must comply with section 25A within 28 days after the commencement.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply, or stops applying, if the existing deputy auditor-general stops acting as auditor-general before the 28-day period mentioned in the subsection ends.

Subdivision 2 Provision about audits

93 Existing audits

- (1) This section applies in relation to an audit under this Act started but not finished before the commencement.
- (2) The audit must be continued under this Act as in force before the commencement as if the Integrity and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2022 had not been enacted.

Subdivision 3 Provisions about employment arrangements

94 Definitions for subdivision

In this subdivision—

existing deputy auditor-general means the person who, immediately before the commencement, was holding office as the deputy auditor-general.

existing staff member means a person who, immediately before the commencement, was employed as a member of the staff of the audit office.

95 Change of employment

- (1) On the commencement, a person who is the existing deputy auditor-general or an existing staff member—
 - (a) is taken to be employed under this Act; and
 - (b) stops being employed as a public service employee.
- (2) The person's employment continues on the same terms of employment as applied to the person immediately before the commencement, subject to any subsequent variation of the terms under—
 - (a) any relevant laws or industrial instruments applying to the person's employment; or
 - (b) the person's contract of employment.
- (3) The change in the person's employment under subsection (1) does not—
 - (a) prejudice the person's existing or accruing rights to superannuation or recreation, sick, long service or other leave; or
 - (b) interrupt continuity of service, except that the person is not entitled to claim the benefit of a right or entitlement more than once in relation to the same period of service; or

[s 25]

- (c) constitute a termination of employment, retrenchment or redundancy.
- (4) Subsection (1)(a) applies despite sections 28 and 29.

96 Right of return to public service

- (1) A person who is the existing deputy auditor-general or an existing staff member may, within 6 months after the commencement, elect to return to being a public service employee by giving written notice to the auditor-general.

Note—

See also section 29C in relation to a person who is appointed as a public service employee after being the deputy auditor-general or a member of the staff of the audit office.

- (2) An election under subsection (1) takes effect when the person who made the election is transferred to a department or public service entity as a public service employee.
- (3) On a person's return to the public service—
 - (a) the person is taken not to have stopped being a public service employee when the person's employment changed under section 95(1); and
 - (b) the person's service as a public service employee is taken to have continued while the person was employed in the audit office under this Act; and
 - (c) the person's terms of employment are the same terms of employment that applied to the person immediately before the person's employment changed under section 95(1), subject to any changes in relevant laws or industrial instruments applying to the person's employment.

- (4) Subsection (3) does not allow the person to claim the benefit of a right or entitlement more than once in relation to the same period of service.

26 Amendment of schedule (Dictionary)

Schedule, definition audit office, ‘section 6(3)’—
omit, insert—
section 6(4)
