The Parliament of Queensland enacts—

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Police Service Administration and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2023.

2 Commencement

The following provisions commence on a day to be fixed by proclamation—

- (a) part 2;
- (b) part 3, division 3;
- (c) part 5, division 3;
- (d) schedule 1, part 2.

Part 2 Amendment of Disaster Management Act 2003

3 Act amended

This part amends the Disaster Management Act 2003.

4 Amendment of s 20B (Chairperson may give notice about deemed approvals under Planning Act)

Section 20B(4) and (5)—

omit, insert—

- (4) The notice must state—

[s 5]

- (a) a day (the stated day), being not more than 20 business days after the disaster situation ends, the notice ceases to have effect; and
 - (b) how the notice affects any affected applications.
- (5) As soon as practicable after giving a notice to a local government under subsection (2), the chairperson must ensure the following is published on the website of the department in which the Planning Act is administered—
- (a) a statement that the notice has been given to the local government;
 - (b) a copy of the notice.

5 Insertion of new pt 14, div 3, sdiv 4

(1) Section 86A(1), ‘impose a fire ban’—

omit, insert—

, by notice published under section 86B, impose a ban on the lighting of fires

(2) Section 86A(2)—

omit, insert—

(2) A local fire ban—

(a) must not be imposed for a period of more than 14 days; and

(b) may—

(i) be imposed for an entire local government area or part of a local government area; and

(ii) prohibit the lighting of all, or only particular, types of fires.

8 Replacement of s 86B (Publicising local fire ban)

Section 86B—

omit, insert—

86B Notifying local fire ban

(1) Notice of the imposition of a local fire ban must be published on the department’s website (normal publication).

(2) However, if notice of the imposition of a local fire ban can not for technical or other reasons be conveniently published by normal publication, notice of the imposition may be published

(alternative publication)—

- (a) in another way decided by the commissioner; and
 - (b) by normal publication as soon as practicable.
- (3) Notice of the imposition of a local fire ban must—
- (a) state the local government area to which the ban applies; and
 - (b) if appropriate, describe the part of the local government area to which the ban applies; and
 - (c) state the types of fires the lighting of which are prohibited under the ban; and
 - (d) state the period of the ban.
- (4) As well as publishing notice of the imposition of a local fire ban by normal publication or alternative publication, the commissioner may cause the imposition of the ban to be publicised in any other way the commissioner considers appropriate.
- (5) This section applies despite the Financial Accountability Act 2009, section 88F.

9 Amendment of s 86C (Cancelling local fire ban)

- (1) Section 86C(1), after ‘must’— insert—

, by notice published under this section,

- (2) Section 86C(2) and (3)—

omit, insert—

- (2) Notice of the cancellation of a local fire ban must be published on the department’s website (normal publication).

[s 10]

- (3) However, if notice of the cancellation of a local fire ban can not for technical or other reasons be conveniently published by normal publication, notice of the cancellation may be published (alternative publication)—
- (a) in another way decided by the commissioner; and
 - (b) by normal publication as soon as practicable.
- (3) Section 86C(4), ‘using a newspaper or broadcast notice to cancel a local fire ban’—
- omit, insert—*
- publishing notice of the cancellation of a local fire ban by normal publication or alternative publication
- (4) Section 86C—
- insert—*
- (5) This section applies despite the Financial Accountability Act 2009, section 88F.

10 Replacement of s 86D (Period of local fire ban)

Section 86D—

omit, insert—

86D Period of local fire ban

- (1) A local fire ban takes effect on the day and at the time stated in the notice published under section 86B for imposing the ban.
- (2) The cancellation of a local fire ban takes effect on the day and at the time stated in the notice published under section 86C for cancelling the ban.
- (3) For subsections (1) and (2), the day and time stated in the notice must not be before the day and time the notice is published.

- (4) A local fire ban remains in force until the earlier of the following happens—
- (a) the period of the ban stated in the notice published for the ban ends;
 - (b) the ban is cancelled.

 - (i) on the department’s website;
 - (ii) by radio or television in the area to which it applies.
- (4) Section 88(2), from ‘where’ to ‘sooner.’—

omit, insert—

if it is sooner notified under subsection (1)(b)—the date on which it is notified under subsection (1)(b).

- (5) Section 88(3)—

[s 12]

omit, insert—

- (3) To ensure public knowledge of a declaration of a state of fire emergency or an amendment or revocation of a declaration in the area to which it applies, the commissioner must take measures to give widespread publicity of the declaration or the amendment or revocation of the declaration.
- (4) However, any alleged failure to take measures under subsection (3) in relation to a declaration of a state of fire emergency or an amendment of a declaration is not an excuse for failure to comply with the declaration.
- (5) This section applies despite the Financial Accountability Act 2009, section 88F.

12 Replacement of s 104FE (Public notice of guidelines)

Section 104FE—

omit, insert—

8.6 Dismissal

- (1) On being sentenced for the offence, the person is dismissed from the service.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies despite any other provision of this Act or another Act.

Subdivision 3 Appeal after summary dismissal

8.7 Application of subdivision

This subdivision applies if, on appeal, the conviction for the offence is overturned or the sentence is changed to a sentence other than a sentence of imprisonment.

8.8 Reappointment

- (1) If the commissioner had appointed the person, the commissioner must within 5 business days after the appeal is decided reappoint the person to, and employ the person in, the same position or a similar position at the same classification level or rank the person held before the person was dismissed.
- (2) If the Governor in Council had appointed the person, the Governor in Council must reappoint the person to the same position at the same classification level or rank the person held before the person was dismissed.
- (3) If the commissioner reappoints the person under subsection (1), the position must be in the same location as the person was employed before the person was dismissed, unless the person consents to employment in a position in a different location in Queensland.
- (4) The person is taken never to have been dismissed under section 8.6.

8.9 Standing down or suspension after reappointment

- (1) Upon the person being reappointed, the person is subject to any standing down or suspension from duty under section 6.1, including any conditions of the standing down or suspension, that was in effect immediately before the person was dismissed.

[s 39]

- (2) If the person was stood down or suspended from duty under section 6.1 before the person was dismissed, the commissioner must, within 14 days after the person is reappointed, decide whether to revoke the standing down or suspension or again stand down or suspend the person from duty under section 6.1.
- (3) If the commissioner does not act under subsection (2), the standing down or suspension is revoked at the end of the 14 days after the person is reappointed.

8.10 Salary entitlement, continuous service and service history

- (1) The period from dismissal to reappointment of the person is taken to be a period of suspension from duty without an entitlement to be paid salary during the suspension for calculating the person's entitlement to salary and allowances under section 6.3(2)(b) for the period.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies regardless of whether the person resumes duty as an officer after reappointment.
- (3) To remove any doubt, it is declared that section 8.8(4) applies—
 - (a) for calculating continuous service of the person; and
 - (b) for the person's service history.

Subdivision 4 Operation of division

8.11 Interaction between division and pt 7

To remove any doubt, it is declared that—

- (a) any action taken under this division is not part of a disciplinary process under part 7; and
- (b) nothing in this division limits the operation of part 7.

[s 43]

- (i) a member of the service performing functions under or relating to the administration of this Act; or
 - (ii) another individual engaged to perform functions under or relating to the administration of this Act; or
 - (iii) an individual engaged by an entity that is engaged to perform functions under or relating to the administration of this Act; and
- (b) in that capacity, acquired confidential information or has access to, or custody of, confidential information.
- (2) This section also applies to a person who has acquired or has access to confidential information—
- (a) whether directly or indirectly, from a person mentioned in subsection (1); or
 - (b) as authorised under an Act, another law or an arrangement with the service.
- (3) The person must not use the confidential information other than under this section.
- Maximum penalty—100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment.
- (4) The person may use the confidential information—
- (a) to the extent the use is required or permitted under this Act or another Act or to perform the person's functions under this Act or another Act; or
 - (b) with the consent of the person to whom the information relates if the information would normally be made available to any member of the public on request; or

- (c) in compliance with lawful process requiring production of documents or giving of evidence before a court or tribunal; or
 - (d) if the use is otherwise required or permitted under another law.
- (5) In this section—
- confidential information—
- (a) means personal information about an individual or other information of a confidential nature; but
 - (b) does not include—
 - (i) information that is publicly available; or
 - (ii) statistical or other information that could not reasonably be expected to result in the identification of the individual to whom it relates.

[s 55]

substantially relates to the ground for disciplinary action—

- (a) a criminal proceeding started against a member of the service or a former officer within the meaning of section 7A.1(1)(b);
- (b) a proceeding for an application for a protection order under the Domestic and Family Violence Protection Act 2012 to which the subject officer is the respondent.

55 Amendment of s 7.13 (When ground for disciplinary action arises)

- (1) Section 7.13(7)—

insert—

integrity agency means a statutory body established under a law of the Commonwealth or another State, the functions of which include the investigation of matters relating to integrity or corruption in the police force or service, or the public service, of the Commonwealth or that State.

police agency means a police force or service of the Commonwealth or another State.

- (2) Section 7.13(7), definition prescribed operation, paragraph (c)—

omit, insert—

- (c) an investigation by the CCC or an integrity agency; or
- (d) an investigation carried out by the service, a police agency, the CCC or an integrity agency involving interception of telecommunications authorised by a warrant issued under the Telecommunications

(Interception and Access) Act 1979 (Cwlth); or

- (e) an investigation involving a surveillance device authorised by a surveillance device warrant issued under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000; or
- (f) an activity, operation or investigation that—
 - (i) is carried out by a police agency or an integrity agency under a law of the Commonwealth or another State; and
 - (ii) corresponds or substantially corresponds to an activity, operation or investigation mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).

56 Amendment of s 7.17 (Requirement to give subject officer an invitation and ability to seek further information)

Section 7.17(2)—

insert—

- (d) that the subject officer may refuse the invitation by giving the prescribed officer written notice of the refusal within the period mentioned in paragraph (c).

57 Insertion of new s 7.17A

After section 7.17—

insert—

7.17A Ending of proceeding—subject officer does not accept invitation

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if the subject officer—
 - (a) does not give the prescribed officer a written submission and other material within the stated period under section 7.17(2)(c); or

[s 58]

- (b) gives the prescribed officer a written notice refusing the invitation within the stated period under section 7.17(2)(d); or
 - (c) fails to give the prescribed officer the required information within the period stated in section 7.17(5) or the further period stated in section 7.17(6).
- (2) The disciplinary proceeding under this division ends and a disciplinary proceeding against the subject officer may be started under division 4.
- (3) For starting a disciplinary proceeding against the subject officer under division 4, section 7.12(1)(b) applies as if it referred to the period of 6 months from the following day—
- (a) if the subject officer does not give the prescribed officer a written submission and other material within the stated period under section 7.17(2)(c)—the day the stated period ends;
 - (b) if the subject officer gives the prescribed officer a written notice refusing the invitation within the stated period under section 7.17(2)(d)—the day the notice is given;
 - (c) if the prescribed officer requires the subject officer to give the prescribed officer required information and the subject officer fails to give the information within the period stated in section 7.17(5) or the further period stated in section 7.17(6)—the day the period or further period ends.

58 Insertion of new pt 7, div 6, sdiv 1 and sdiv 2, hdg

Part 7, division 6—

insert—

Subdivision 1 Conduct of disciplinary proceeding if prescribed officer unable to continue

7.42A Application of subdivision

This subdivision applies if—

- (a) the commissioner has, under section 7.10, referred a complaint about a subject officer to a prescribed officer (the original prescribed officer); and
- (b) the original prescribed officer has started a disciplinary proceeding against the subject officer but the disciplinary proceeding has not been finally dealt with; and
- (c) the original prescribed officer is unable to continue to conduct the disciplinary proceeding because the prescribed officer—
 - (i) dies; or
 - (ii) stops being employed as an officer; or
 - (iii) is stood down or suspended from duty under section 6.1; or
 - (iv) is demoted, whether permanently or for a stated period; or
 - (v) has a certificate issued by a medical practitioner stating that the prescribed officer is incapable of continuing to conduct the disciplinary proceeding, whether temporarily or otherwise, because of mental or physical incapacity.

7.42B Appointment of new prescribed officer

- (1) The commissioner must, within 28 days after the commissioner becomes aware that the original prescribed officer is unable to continue to conduct the disciplinary proceeding, ask the subject officer to give the commissioner, within 14 days after the request (the stated period), written consent to appoint another prescribed officer (a new prescribed officer) to conduct the disciplinary proceeding.

[s 58]

- (2) If the subject officer gives written consent within the stated period or a longer period the commissioner allows, the commissioner may appoint a new prescribed officer with the power to impose the same or a lesser disciplinary sanction under this part as the original prescribed officer.

Note—

See section 7.35(2) for the disciplinary sanctions that may be imposed by particular prescribed officers.

- (3) The appointment of the new prescribed officer must be made within 28 days after the commissioner receives the subject officer's consent.
- (4) In conducting the disciplinary proceeding, the new prescribed officer may consider only—
- (a) any matters stated in an abbreviated process notice or the disciplinary charge stated in the disciplinary proceeding notice given to the subject officer under section 7.18 or 7.25; and
 - (b) any submissions and materials given to the original prescribed officer or new prescribed officer under section 7.19(2) or 7.26(1).
- (5) If the original prescribed officer had proposed imposing a professional development strategy on the subject officer under section 7.18 or 7.28, the new prescribed officer may impose the same or a different professional development strategy but must not impose a disciplinary sanction on the subject officer.

- (6) If the original prescribed officer had proposed imposing a disciplinary sanction on the subject officer under section 7.18 or 7.28 (the proposed sanction), the new prescribed officer must not impose a greater disciplinary sanction on the subject officer than the proposed sanction.

7.42C Ending of proceeding—subject officer does not give consent for new prescribed officer to conduct proceeding

- (1) This section applies if the subject officer does not give the commissioner, within the stated period under section 7.42B(1) or the longer period the commissioner allows, written consent to appoint a new prescribed officer to conduct the disciplinary proceeding.
- (2) The commissioner must appoint another prescribed officer to start a disciplinary proceeding under division 3 or 4 against the subject officer for the complaint (the new proceeding).

Note—

See section 7.35(2) for the disciplinary sanctions that may be imposed by particular prescribed officers.

- (3) The prescribed officer appointed under subsection (2) must have the power to impose the same or a lesser disciplinary sanction under this part as the original prescribed officer.
- (4) Upon the new proceeding starting, the disciplinary proceeding is taken to be withdrawn and is of no effect.
- (5) The prescribed officer must conduct the new proceeding without regard to any submissions or material given by the subject officer for the disciplinary proceeding, unless the subject officer consents to the submissions or material being used for the new proceeding.

[s 59]

- (6) Despite section 7.12, the new proceeding must start within 28 days after the appointment of the prescribed officer under subsection (2).
