PART 1—PRELIMINARY

Short title

1. This regulation may be cited as the Water Resources (Areas and Boards) Regulation 2000.

Commencement

2. This regulation commences on 30 June 2000.

Map and plan references

3. A map or plan mentioned in a schedule is held by the department.¹

PART 2—CATCHMENT AREAS

Declaration of catchment areas—Act, s 27

4.(1) For each item in schedule 1, part 1, the part of Queensland shown on the map in the schedule to the order in council published in the gazette on the date, and at the pages, stated in column 2 is declared to be a catchment area and given the name stated opposite in column 1.

(2) For each item in schedule 1, part 2, the part of Queensland shown on the plan stated in column 2, is declared to be a catchment area and given the name stated opposite in column 1.

PART 3—DECLARED SUBARTESIAN AREAS

Declared subartesian areas

5.(1) For each item in schedule 2, the part of Queensland shown on the plan stated in column 2 is declared to be a subartesian area and given the name stated opposite in column 1.

(2) A bore used for a purpose stated in schedule 2, column 3, for a subartesian area is declared to be a small bore for the area.

PART 4—IRRIGATION AREAS

Constitution of irrigation areas—Act, s 115

6. For each item in schedule 3, the part of Queensland shown on the plan stated in column 2 is constituted an irrigation area for the irrigation undertaking approved by the Legislative Assembly by resolution on the date stated opposite in column 3 and is assigned the name stated opposite in column 1.

PART 5—WATER SUPPLY AREAS AND DRAINAGE AREAS AND BOARDS

Division 1—Constitution of water supply areas and drainage areas and establishment of boards

Constitution of water supply areas without establishing water supply boards—Act, s 129

7.(1) For each item in schedule 4, the part of Queensland shown on the plan stated in column 2 is constituted as a water supply area and assigned the name stated opposite in column 1.

(2) For each water supply area, the matters relating to works and the diversion of water in the order in council published in the gazette on the date, and at the pages, stated in column 3 for the area are given effect.

Constitution of water supply areas and establishment of water supply boards—Act, s 129

8.(1) For each division in schedule 5, the part of Queensland shown on the plan stated, or described in the division, is constituted as a water supply area and assigned the name stated.

(2) For each water supply area, the matters relating to works and the diversion of water in the instruments stated in the division are given effect.

(3) A water supply board is established for each water supply area.

(4) The board is assigned the name, and consists of the members, stated in the division.

Constitution of drainage areas and establishment of drainage boards—Act, s 129

9.(1) For each division in schedule 6, the part of Queensland shown on the plan stated is constituted as a drainage area and assigned the name stated.

(2) For each drainage area, the matters relating to works in the instruments stated in the division are given effect.

(3) A drainage board is established for each drainage area.

(4) The board is assigned the name, and consists of the members, stated in the division.

Appointment of chief executive to administer area—Act, s 209

10.(1) The establishment of a board takes effect immediately after the first members of the board have been appointed and elected.

(2) The chief executive is appointed to administer an area until the board for the area is established and to exercise the powers and to perform the functions of the board as if the board had been properly established.

Division 2—Election of board membersSubdivision 1—Returning officerReturning officer

11.(1) For the first election of board members, the chief executive must appoint persons the chief executive considers appropriate as—

- (a) the returning officer; and
- (b) the deputy returning officer.

(2) For a subsequent election of board members, the board must appoint persons the board considers appropriate as—

- (a) the returning officer; and
- (b) the deputy returning officer.

(3) The returning officer—

- (a) must conduct an election in the way stated in this part; and
- (b) may take the action and give the directions the returning officer considers reasonably necessary—
 - (i) to ensure no irregularities happen in the election; or
 - (ii) to remedy a procedural defect that appears to the returning officer to exist in relation to the election.

(4) The returning officer must not influence, or attempt to influence, the outcome of an election.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

(5) If the returning officer is not reasonably able to perform the returning officer's functions, including, for example, because of illness, the deputy returning officer must perform the functions.

Subdivision 2—Pre-election proceduresRoll of voters

12.(1) The returning officer must compile a roll of voters stating the full name and address of each ratepayer.

(2) If 2 or more ratepayers are joint owners or occupiers, the returning officer must ask them to nominate in writing an individual to represent them.

(3) The returning officer must insert on the roll the name and address of—

- (a) the person nominated; or
- (b) if no-one is nominated—the owner or occupier whose name appears first in the records of the chief executive or the board.

(4) The returning officer must—

- (a) allow a ratepayer to inspect the roll, free of charge, at the board's public office premises during business hours; and
- (b) on payment of a reasonable fee—give the ratepayer a copy of the roll.

(5) A person who is a ratepayer whose name does not appear on the roll may apply in writing to the returning officer to have the person's name included on the roll.

(6) If the returning officer is satisfied the person is a ratepayer, the returning officer must insert the person's name and address on the roll.

Nominations

13.(1) The returning officer must, by written notice to each ratepayer, call for nominations of qualified persons² for election to the board.

(2) The notice must state—

- (a) the day and time, at least 14 days after the notice is given, when nominations close; and

² See section 136 (Persons qualified to be elected) of the Act.

- (b) the day, not more than 28 days after nominations close, when voting material will be given to ratepayers if a ballot is necessary.

(3) A nomination must be—

- (a) written; and
- (b) signed by the candidate and 2 ratepayers; and
- (c) given to the returning officer before nominations close.

(4) A candidate may withdraw a nomination by written notice to the returning officer no later than 1 hour before nominations close.

When ballot must be held

14.(1) If, after nominations have closed, the number of candidates is not more than the number to be elected—

- (a) the returning officer must declare the candidates elected to the board; and
- (b) any office that has not been filled may be filled by the Governor in Council under section 134³ of the Act.

(2) However, if the number of candidates is more than the number to be elected, the returning officer must conduct a secret ballot.

(3) Failure to comply with section 15, 16, 19, 21, 22 or 24 does not affect the validity of a ballot.

Preparing ballot papers

15.(1) A ballot paper must comply with the following—

- (a) be made of paper that will hide a vote marked on it from view when it is folded once;
- (b) list the names of each candidate for election once, with the surname first, followed by the candidate's other names;
- (c) state how the ratepayer may vote;

³ Section 134 (Appointment of board members) of the Act

- (d) state the day and time the ballot starts and the day and time it ends;
- (e) state that, for the vote to be counted, the ratepayer must fill in and sign the declaration form.

(2) If 2 or more candidates have the same surname and other names, the candidates must be distinguished in an appropriate way, including, for example, by including the occupation of each candidate on the ballot paper.

(3) The order of names on the ballot paper must be decided by lot.

Distributing voting material

16.(1) The returning officer must give the following things (the “voting material”) to each ratepayer—

- (a) a ballot paper initialled by the returning officer;
- (b) a ballot envelope;
- (c) a declaration form stating ‘I certify that I am the person to whom this voting material has been given and I have voted on the ballot paper enclosed.’;
- (d) a return envelope addressed to the returning officer.

(2) The voting material must be given not more than 28 days after nominations close to arrive, if practicable, no later than the last working day before the ballot starts.

(3) If a ratepayer gives the returning officer written notice that the ratepayer will be absent from the address stated on the roll when voting material is to be given, the returning officer must give the ratepayer the material at the other address, if any, stated in the notice.

(4) Before giving voting material to a ratepayer, the returning officer must mark a ballot number on—

- (a) the roll against the ratepayer’s name; and
- (b) the declaration form; and
- (c) the return envelope.

(5) The ballot numbers must start with a number chosen by the returning officer.

(6) After giving the voting material, the returning officer must obtain a lockable ballot box and keys and keep them in a safe place.

How long ballot is open

17. The ballot must remain open for at least 14 days.

How to vote

18.(1) A ratepayer may vote only once in each election.

(2) A ratepayer may vote by completing the following steps—

- (a) writing a tick or a cross on the ballot paper in the squares opposite the names of up to the number of candidates that may be elected by the ratepayers for the area to constitute the board;
- (b) putting the ballot paper in the ballot envelope;
- (c) sealing the ballot envelope;
- (d) filling in and signing the declaration;
- (e) putting the declaration and the ballot envelope in the return envelope;
- (f) sealing the return envelope;
- (g) returning the return envelope to the returning officer before voting closes by—
 - (i) posting it to the returning officer; or
 - (ii) putting it in the ballot box.

(3) The returning officer must provide a ratepayer who wishes to vote at a polling booth with an unoccupied voting compartment in which to vote in private.

(4) If a ratepayer satisfies the returning officer that voting material given to the ratepayer has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the returning officer must give the ratepayer duplicate voting material.

How returning officer must deal with voting material

19.(1) The returning officer must put each return envelope received before voting closes into the ballot box.

(2) If the returning officer receives a return envelope after voting closes, the returning officer must—

- (a) mark the envelope ‘Received by the returning officer after voting closed’; and
- (b) keep the envelope separate from return envelopes received before voting closed.

Scrutiny

20.(1) Before voting closes, the returning officer must give each candidate written notice of when and where votes are to be collected, examined and counted.

(2) A candidate may appoint 1 scrutineer to observe, with or without the candidate, the collection, examination and counting of votes.

(3) The candidate must give the returning officer written notice of the appointment.

(4) When a scrutineer arrives for the collection, examination and counting, the scrutineer must show the returning officer a copy of the notice of appointment or other suitable identification.

(5) The failure of a candidate or scrutineer to attend the scrutiny of votes does not affect the validity of the election.

Initial scrutiny of voting material

21.(1) As soon as possible after voting closes, the returning officer must—

- (a) take the ballot box to the place notified to the candidates as the place where votes are to be counted; and
- (b) deal with the votes in the way stated in this section in the presence of the candidates and scrutineers at the place.

(2) The returning officer must—

- (a) open each return envelope; and
- (b) take the declaration and ballot envelope out of the return envelope.

(3) The returning officer must put the declaration and the ballot envelope into separate containers if the returning officer is satisfied about the following matters—

- (a) the ballot number on the declaration corresponds with the ballot number marked beside the name of a ratepayer on the roll;
- (b) the person who filled in and signed the declaration is—
 - (i) the ratepayer to whom the declaration was given; or
 - (ii) a ratepayer who has not previously voted in the election and has a reasonable explanation for using someone else's voting material.

(4) If subsection (3)(b)(ii) applies, the returning officer must—

- (a) note the acceptance of the explanation on the declaration; and
- (b) record the correct ballot number on the roll against the name of the ratepayer who signed the declaration.

(5) If the returning officer is not satisfied about a matter mentioned in subsection (3)(a) or (b), the returning officer must keep the unsatisfactory voting material separate from the satisfactory voting material.

(6) The returning officer must then note the fact that the ratepayer has voted against the ratepayer's name on the roll.

Counting votes

22.(1) After separating the declaration forms and ballot envelopes, the returning officer must do the following in order—

- (a) seal the container holding declaration forms;
- (b) open the ballot envelopes;
- (c) take the ballot papers out of the ballot envelopes;
- (d) examine the ballot papers for votes;
- (e) count the votes.

(2) The returning officer must not include an informal vote in the count.

(3) A vote is not informal if the ratepayer's intention is clear.

What happens if votes for 2 or more candidates are equal

23. If the votes for 2 or more candidates are equal, the candidate elected must be decided by lots drawn by the returning officer.

Declaring election result

24.(1) The returning officer must give each candidate a signed declaration of the result of the election.

(2) If the election involved a ballot, the declaration must state the following—

- (a) how many ratepayers were on the roll when voting closed;
- (b) how many ballot papers were printed;
- (c) how many ballot papers were issued;
- (d) how many duplicate ballot papers were issued;
- (e) how many ballot papers were returned;
- (f) how many ballot papers were returned as unclaimed mail;
- (g) how many ballot papers were not returned;
- (h) how many ballot papers were rejected during scrutiny and the reasons for rejection;
- (i) how many ballot papers were counted;
- (j) the percentage of ratepayers who voted.

Examples of reasons for rejection mentioned in paragraph (h)—

1. The declaration form was not returned.
2. The ratepayer did not sign the declaration form.

(3) A scrutineer may countersign the declaration.

Term of office of elected board members

25. An elected board member holds office for 3 years.

Filling casual vacancies

26.(1) If a casual vacancy arises in the office of an elected board member, the office must be filled by the election of someone else under this division.⁴

(2) However, the person elected to fill the vacancy holds office only for the rest of the term of the office that became vacant.

PART 6—REPEALS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONSRepeals

27. The following instruments are repealed—

- (a) the Water Resources (Subartesian Localities) Order (No. 1) 1992;
- (b) the Water Resources (Areas and Boards) Regulation 1997;
- (c) the instruments (other than by-laws) in force under the Act establishing, declaring or making provision about areas.

Transitional

28. On the commencement of this section, a person who, immediately before the commencement, was a member of a board mentioned in schedule 5 or 6 continues to hold office for the remainder of the term for which the person was appointed or elected.

⁴ Under the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 25(1)(b), the power of the Governor in Council to appoint a member who is not elected includes a power to appoint someone else if the member's office becomes vacant.
