(1) Section 50(1), from ‘in a book’—

omit, insert—

- (a) as written entries in a book; or
- (b) in an electronic form; or
- (c) in another certified way.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.’.

(2) Section 50, after subsection (2)—

insert—

‘(2A) If the controlled drugs register is in an electronic form, the licensee must ensure the entries in the register are stored in a computer system that has enough capacity and backup capability for the purpose.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.’

8 Replacement of s 86 (Record of transactions involving controlled drugs to be kept by pharmacist)

Section 86—

omit, insert—

‘86 Record of transactions involving controlled drugs to be kept by pharmacist

‘(1) The pharmacist in charge of a dispensary must keep a record of transactions about controlled drugs (a “controlled drugs record”) as required by this section—

- (a) as written entries in a book; or
- (b) in an electronic form; or
- (c) in another certified way.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

‘(2) If the controlled drugs record is in a book, the book must be bound.

‘(3) Each page or part of the record must—

- (a) be sequentially numbered; and
- (b) relate to 1 class of controlled drug; and
- (c) have a heading describing the class of controlled drug and the measurement unit in which quantities of the drug involved in a transaction are recorded.

‘(4) Despite subsection (3)(b) and (c), entries made in the controlled drugs record about controlled drugs returned to the pharmacist for destruction may be made on a single page in, or in a single part of, the record.

‘(5) If the pharmacist starts a new controlled drugs record, the pharmacist must check the dispensary stock of controlled drugs and record in the record—

- (a) the stock held when the record is started; and

- (b) a reference to the most recent entry about each class of controlled drug in the previous record.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

‘(6) If a person who administers, dispenses or supplies a controlled drug at a dispensary makes an entry on a page or part of the controlled drugs record on which there is no other entry, the person must record as the first entry on the page or part—

- (a) the quantity or volume of the class of controlled drug, described in the page or part heading, that is in stock when the page or part is started; and
- (b) a reference to the most recent entry about the class of controlled drug.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

‘(7) If a controlled drugs record is in an electronic form, the pharmacist must ensure the entries in the record are stored in a computer system that has enough capacity and backup capability for the purpose.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.’.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.’.

(4) Section 87(5), after ‘change’—

insert—

‘, delete’.

(5) Section 87(6)—

omit, insert—

‘(6) However, the person who made the entry in a controlled drugs record may correct the entry as follows—

- (a) for a controlled drugs record kept in a book—by a signed and dated marginal note or footnote that gives the date of the correction and the correct details;
- (b) for a controlled drugs record kept in another form—by a note, that does not prevent the original or existing entry being read, of—
 - (i) the person’s name; and
 - (ii) the correct details; and
 - (iii) the date of the correction.’.

10 Amendment of s 88 (Stock to be checked)

(1) Section 88(1)(b)—

omit, insert—

- ‘(b) enter the quantity or volume of each class of controlled drug in stock in the appropriate page or part of the controlled drugs record and—
- (i) for a controlled drugs record kept in a book—sign and date each entry; and
