4 Insertion of new s 37H

Part 8B, after section 37G—

insert—

‘37H Prescribed activities—Act, s 142AL

‘(1) For section 142AL(b) of the Act, the following activities are prescribed for licensed premises or premises to which a permit relates—

- (a) the holding of an event or occasion in or on which a person’s membership of a group, or participation in the event or occasion, entitles the person to free or discounted liquor;

Examples—

a ‘blondes’ night’, ‘students’ night’, ‘nurses’ night’ or other theme night

- (b) a promotional or other activity that offers a person, as a reward, free or discounted liquor for consumption on the premises;

Example—

A raffle in which a person might win free or discounted liquor for a day.

- (c) a promotional or other activity that offers a person a reward, other than free or discounted liquor, if the person would need to drink more than 4 standard drinks on any day to win the reward.

Example—

A promotional activity in which a ‘drinks card’ is given to a person at a particular time, and to win a T-shirt by using the card the person would need to drink more than 4 standard drinks on any day.

- ‘(2) Also, for section 142AL(b) of the Act, all of the following activities are prescribed for licensed premises or premises to which a permit relates—
- (a) for the period from 7a.m. on a day to 9p.m. on the day—having a happy hour that is more than 2 hours;
 - (b) for the period from 9p.m. in the trading period to 1a.m. in the period—having a happy hour that is more than 1 hour;
 - (c) for the period after 1a.m. in the trading period—having a happy hour or part of a happy hour;
 - (d) if the premises have more than 1 happy hour on a day—having the happy hours without at least 1 hour between the end of each happy hour and the start of the following happy hour;
 - (e) on any day—having a happy hour that starts before 9p.m. and ends after 9p.m.

- ‘(3) In this section—

happy hour means a set period, commonly called a ‘happy hour’, during which liquor is generally available on the premises during the period for free or at a discounted price.

standard drink means the quantity of any kind of alcoholic drink that, if consumed, is equivalent to drinking 12.5mL of alcohol.’.
