1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the State Buildings Protective Security Regulation 2008.

2 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 2 defines particular words used in this regulation.

3 Declaration of state building—Act, s 4(4)

- (1) For section 4(4) of the Act, the buildings and their precincts located on the land described in the schedule are state buildings.
- (2) This section expires on 30 June 2011.

4 Security officers to serve in state buildings as directed

A security officer must serve in any state building in which the manager directs the officer to serve.

5 Standards of physique and physical fitness for security officers—Act, s 9(2)

- (1) The standard of physique and state of physical fitness for protective security officers is a physique suitable, and level of physical fitness appropriate, for performing the functions of a protective security officer.
- (2) The standard of physique and state of physical fitness for senior protective security officers is a physique suitable, and level of physical fitness appropriate, for performing the functions of a senior protective security officer.

6 Uniforms

The uniform for a security officer is the uniform decided for the officer by the administrator.

7 Surrender of uniforms—Act, s 30(1)(c)

For section 30(1)(c) of the Act, a security officer's uniform is a prescribed thing.

8 Hand over of duties

- (1) A security officer (the duty officer) performing the duty officer's functions in a state building must remain on duty in the building until—
 - (a) relieved of duty by another security officer; or
 - (b) authorised by the manager to leave the building.
- (2) However, the duty officer may leave the building if it is necessary for performing the duty officer's functions.

9 Emergency duties

A security officer must take up duty promptly in an emergency, if directed by the manager, unless the security officer has a reasonable excuse.

10 Security officers on duty not to be under the influence of liquor or a drug

- (1) This section applies to a security officer who is on duty.
- (2) The security officer must not be under the influence of liquor or a drug to the extent the security officer is not fit to perform the security officer's functions.

11 Security officers in uniform not to obtain liquor

- (1) A security officer in uniform must not obtain liquor from licensed premises.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if—
 - (a) the security officer obtains the liquor in a motor vehicle; and
 - (b) the motor vehicle is not a State Government Protective Security Service motor vehicle; and

[s 12]

- (c) the liquor is in a sealed container; and
- (d) the security officer leaves the licensed premises immediately after obtaining the liquor.

12 Security officers in uniform not to enter or remain on licensed premises

- (1) A security officer in uniform must not enter licensed premises or remain on licensed premises.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if—
 - (a) the security officer enters or remains on licensed premises to perform the security officer's functions; or
 - (b) the security officer enters or remains on licensed premises under section 11(2).

13 Repeal

The State Buildings Protective Security Regulation 1998, SL No. 98 is repealed.
