After section 20—

insert—

20A When material change of use for providing COVID-19 vaccination service is not assessable development

- (1) This section applies to a material change of use of premises that—
 - (a) is stated in schedule 10 to be assessable development; and
 - (b) would, but for subsection (2), be assessable development under section 20(1).
- (2) Despite section 20(1), the material change of use is not assessable development under that section to the extent the material change of use is or involves a material change of use that is accepted development under schedule 7, section 4A.
- (3) This section expires on 31 December 2021.

4 Amendment of sch 6 (Development local categorising instrument is prohibited from stating is assessable development)

Schedule 6, after section 7B—

insert—

7C Particular material change of use for providing COVID-19 vaccination service

- (1) A material change of use of premises for a health care service if—
 - (a) the material change of use is for providing a COVID-19 vaccination service; and
 - (b) the COVID-19 vaccination service is provided by or for the Commonwealth, the State or a public sector entity.
- (2) This section expires on 31 December 2021.
- (3) In this section—

COVID-19 vaccination service see the Health (Drugs and Poisons) Regulation 1996, section 213D.

5 Amendment of sch 7 (Accepted development)

Schedule 7, after section 4—

insert—

4A Particular material change of use for providing COVID-19 vaccination service

- (1) A material change of use of premises in relation to which schedule 6, section 7C applies.
- (2) This section expires on 31 December 2021.
