3 Replacement of ss 4 and 5

Sections 4 and 5—

omit, insert—

4 Oath of office—Act, s 3.3

For section 3.3 of the Act, the following oath is prescribed—

‘I, [state full name], swear that, from this date until I am legally discharged—

I will well and truly serve His Majesty King Charles the Third and His heirs and successors according to law, as a police officer for the Queensland Police Service, with honour, diligence and integrity and with respect for human rights;

I will protect life and property, preserve peace and good order, and prevent the commission of offences; and

I will, to the best of my knowledge and skill, discharge my duties faithfully, without favour or affection, malice or ill will and according to law.

So help me God!’.

5 Affirmation of office—Act, s 3.3

For section 3.3 of the Act, the following affirmation is prescribed—

‘I, [state full name], solemnly, sincerely and truly affirm and declare that, from this date until I am legally discharged—

I will well and truly serve His Majesty King Charles the Third and His heirs and successors according to law, as a police officer for the Queensland Police Service, with honour, diligence and integrity and with respect for human rights;

I will protect life and property, preserve peace and good order, and prevent the commission of offences; and
