Local Government Bill 2009

Erratum to Explanatory Notes

Title of the Bill

Local Government Bill 2009

Reason for Erratum

The erratum is necessary to include content in the explanatory notes to ensure increased clarity of the intent and therefore operation of clause 172.

Notes on Provisions

The explanatory notes should include, in addition to the existing explanatory note:

The clause does not apply if the matter is an ordinary business matter (defined in the Schedule 3 Dictionary). This exemption is provided in recognition that there are certain matters, which are central to the operation of council, in which all councillors will have an interest. For example, setting rates as a councillor that the councillor may then be liable to pay as a ratepayer, or voting on councillor salaries. This exemption is carried over from the LGA section 6(3).
