Who is a security officer	1
Clause 7.(1) A security officer is a person who, for reward, patrols or guards another person's property.	2 3
(2) Despite subsection (1), a person is not a security officer merely because the person—	4 5
(a) is an employee of a person who does not, for reward, patrol or guard another person's property; and	6 7
(b) as an employee, patrols or guards the employer's property.	8

PART 2—LICENCES

Requirement to be licensed	10
Clause 8.(1) Unless a person holds the appropriate licence, the person must not—	11 12
(a) carry out the functions of a security provider; or	13
(b) advertise, or in any way hold out, that the person carries out or is willing to carry out, the functions of a security provider.	14 15
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	16
(2) A person must not, directly or indirectly, for reward, engage an individual to carry out the functions of a security provider unless the individual holds the appropriate licence.	17 18 19
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	20
(3) Unless a person holds the appropriate licence, the person is not entitled to any reward for carrying out the functions of a security provider.	21 22
(4) Subsection (3) has effect despite any arrangement to the contrary.	23

Application for licence by individual	24
Clause 9.(1) A person may apply to the chief executive for the grant of a licence.	25 26

- (2) Only an individual may apply for, or be granted, a licence. 1
- (3) The chief executive, by written notice, may request the applicant to 2 give further information or documents relevant to the application. 3
- (4) The chief executive may reject the application if the applicant fails to 4 comply with the request without reasonable excuse. 5

Who is entitled to a licence 6

Clause 10.(1) A person is entitled to a licence if the chief executive is 7 satisfied that the person— 8

- (a) is 18 or more; and 9
- (b) has successfully completed a training course approved by the 10
chief executive; and 11
- (c) is an appropriate person to hold the licence. 12

(2) In deciding whether a person is an appropriate person to hold a 13 licence, the chief executive is limited to considering the matters mentioned 14 in subsections (3) and (4). 15

(3) In deciding whether a person is an appropriate person to hold a 16 licence, the chief executive may consider the following matters as indicating 17 that the person may not be an appropriate person— 18

- (a) that in dealings in which the person has been involved, the person 19 has— 20
 - (i) shown dishonesty or lack of integrity; or 21
 - (ii) used harassing tactics; 22
- (b) that the person associates with a criminal in a way that indicates 23 involvement in unlawful activity; 24
- (c) that the person has taken advantage, as a debtor, of the laws of 25 bankruptcy; 26
- (d) that the person is or was a patient within the meaning of the 27
Mental Health Act 1974; 28
- (e) that the person has been convicted of an offence. 29

(4) A person is not an appropriate person to hold a licence if the person, 30

within 10 years of applying for a licence, has been convicted of—	1
(a) a disqualifying offence; or	2
(b) an offence that would be a disqualifying offence if committed in Queensland.	3 4
Inquiries about person’s appropriateness to hold licence	5
Clause 11.(1) The chief executive may make inquiries about a person to assist in deciding whether the person is an appropriate person to hold a licence.	6 7 8
(2) If requested by the chief executive, the Commissioner must give the chief executive a written report about the person’s criminal history.	9 10
(3) Subsection (2) applies to the criminal history—	11
(a) that is in the Commissioner’s possession; or	12
(b) to which the Commissioner ordinarily has access through arrangements with the police service of the Commonwealth, another State or a Territory.	13 14 15
Decision on application	16
Clause 12.(1) The chief executive must consider an application for a licence and either—	17 18
(a) grant the licence; or	19
(b) refuse to grant the licence.	20
(2) If the chief executive decides to grant the licence, the chief executive must promptly give the applicant—	21 22
(a) the licence; and	23
(b) if a condition is stated on the licence—a written notice stating that the applicant may appeal against the imposition of the condition within 28 days to a Magistrates Court.	24 25 26
(3) If the chief executive decides to refuse to grant the licence, the chief executive must promptly give the applicant a written notice stating—	27 28
(a) the decision; and	29

- (b) the reasons for the decision; and 1
 - (c) that the applicant may appeal against the decision within 28 days 2
to a Magistrates Court. 3

Conditions of licence 4

Clause 13.(1) The chief executive may grant a licence on conditions stated on 5
the licence. 6

(2) The licensee must comply with the conditions of the licence. 7

(3) The contravention of a condition that is prescribed by regulation for 8
the purposes of this section is an offence. 9

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units. 10

Amendment of conditions 11

Clause 14.(1) If the chief executive considers that the conditions on a licence 12 should be amended, the chief executive must give the licensee a written 13 notice (the “show cause notice”) that— 14

(a) states the reasons for the amendment; and 15

(b) outlines the facts and circumstances that form the basis of the 16 reasons; and 17

(c) invites the licensee to show cause within a specified time, of not 18 less than 28 days, why the conditions should not be amended. 19

(2) The chief executive may amend the conditions if, after considering all 20 representations made within the specified time, the chief executive still 21 believes that the conditions should be amended— 22

(a) in the way mentioned in the show cause notice; or 23

(b) in another way, having regard to the representations. 24

(3) If the chief executive decides to amend the conditions, the chief 25 executive must give the licensee a written notice stating— 26

(a) the way in which the conditions have been amended; and 27

(b) that the licensee may appeal against the amendment of the 28 conditions within 28 days to a Magistrates Court. 29

- (4) Subsections (1) to (3) do not apply if the conditions of a licence are to be amended only— 1
2
- (a) by omitting a condition; or 3
 - (b) for a formal or clerical reason; or 4
 - (c) in another way that does not adversely affect the licensee’s interests. 5 6
- (5) The chief executive may make an amendment of a type mentioned in subsection (4) by written notice given to the licensee. 7
8

Notice to return licence for alteration 9

Clause 15.(1) The chief executive may, by written notice, require the licensee to return the licence to the chief executive within a specified time, of not less than 14 days, to enable the chief executive to amend the statement of conditions on the licence. 10
11
13

(2) After amending the statement of conditions, the chief executive must return the licence to the licensee. 14
15

(3) A licensee must comply with a notice under subsection (1), unless the person has a reasonable excuse not to comply with it. 16
17

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units. 18

(4) The amendment of the conditions of a licence under section 14 does not depend on the statement of conditions being altered under this section. 19
20

Production of licence 21

Clause 16. A licensee must produce the licensee’s licence for inspection on the request of— 22
23

- (a) an inspector; or 24
- (b) a police officer; or 25
- (c) if the licensee is not wearing the prescribed identification—the person with whom the licensee is dealing in carrying out the licensee’s functions. 26
27
28

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units. 29

Period of validity of licence	1
Clause 17. A licence is for the term, of not longer than 1 year, specified in the licence.	2 3
Renewal of licence	4
Clause 18.(1) A person may apply to the chief executive for the renewal of a licence within the period starting 1 month before the licence ends and ending 6 months after the licence ends.	5 6 7
(2) If an application for renewal of a licence is made, the chief executive must renew the licence unless the chief executive refuses to renew it under section 20.	8 9 10
(3) A renewal begins at the end of the day on which, apart from its renewal, the licence would have ended.	11 12
(4) A renewal is for the period, of not longer than 1 year, specified in the renewed licence.	13 14
Grounds for suspension, cancellation or refusal to renew	15
Clause 19.(1) Each of the following is a ground for the suspension or cancellation of a licence or the refusal to renew a licence—	16 17
(a) the licence was obtained on the basis of incorrect or misleading information;	18 19
(b) the licensee has contravened a condition of the licence;	20
(c) the licensee has committed an offence against this Act;	21
(d) the licensee is not, or is no longer, an appropriate person to hold a licence.	22 23
(2) The question whether a person is an appropriate person to continue to hold a licence is decided in the same way as the question whether a person is an appropriate person to be granted the licence.	24 25 26
(3) The fact that a licensee has been charged with a disqualifying offence is a ground for suspending, or refusing to renew, the licensee's licence until the end of the proceeding in relation to the charge.	27 28 29
(4) The power of the court to impose conditions of bail under the Bail	30

Act 1980 includes the power to impose a condition that the licensee not act as a security provider as stated in the condition. 1

Procedure for suspension, cancellation or refusal to renew 3

Clause 20.(1) If the chief executive considers that reasonable grounds exist to suspend, cancel or refuse to renew a licence (the “action”), the chief executive must give the licensee a written notice (the “show cause notice”) that— 4
5
7

- (a) states the action proposed; and 8
- (b) states the grounds for proposing to take the action; and 9
- (c) outlines the facts and circumstances that form the basis for the chief executive’s belief; and 10 11
- (d) if the chief executive proposes to suspend the licence—states the proposed suspension period; and 12
13
- (e) invites the licensee to show cause within a specified time, of not less than 28 days, why the action proposed should not be taken. 14
15

17
18

- (a) if the show cause notice was a notice of intention to suspend the licence for a specified period—suspend the licence for a period not longer than the specified period; or 19 20
21
- (b) if the show cause notice was a notice of intention to cancel the licence— 22
23
 - (i) cancel the licence; or 24
 - (ii) suspend the licence for a period; or 25
- (c) if the show cause notice was a notice of intention not to renew the licence— 26
27
 - (i) refuse to renew the licence; or 28
 - (ii) refuse to renew the license for a period. 29

(3) The chief executive must inform the licensee of the decision by written notice. 30
31

- (4) If the chief executive decides to cancel, suspend or refuse to renew the licence, the notice must state—
- (a) the reasons for the decision; and
 - (b) that the licensee may appeal against the decision within 28 days to a Magistrates Court.
- (5) The decision takes effect on the later of the following—
- (a) the day on which the notice is given to the licensee;
 - (b) the day specified in the notice.

Return of suspended or cancelled licence

Clause 21.(1) If the chief executive cancels or suspends a person's licence, the chief executive may give the person a written notice requiring the person to return the licence as specified within a specified period, of not less than 14 days.

(2) The person must comply with the notice, unless the person has a reasonable excuse not to comply with it.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(3) If a licence returned to the chief executive is still current at the end of the suspension period, the chief executive must return the licence to the licensee.

Automatic cancellation on conviction

Clause 22.(1) If a licensee is convicted of a disqualifying offence, the licensee's licence is cancelled.

(2) The licensee must return the licence to the chief executive within 14 days after the conviction.

Maximum penalty for subsection (2)—20 penalty units.

Replacement licences

Clause 23.(1) A licensee may apply to the chief executive for the replacement of a lost, stolen or destroyed licence.

- (2) The chief executive must consider each application and either— 1
- (a) replace the licence; or 2
 - (b) refuse to replace the licence. 3
- (3) If the chief executive is satisfied that the licence has been lost, stolen 4 or destroyed, the chief executive must replace the licence. 5
- (4) If the chief executive decides to refuse to replace the licence, the chief 6 executive must give the applicant a written notice stating— 7
- (a) the decision; and 8
 - (b) the reasons for the decision; and 9
 - (c) that the applicant may appeal against the decision within 28 days 10
to a Magistrates Court. 11

Right to appeal to the Court 12

Clause 24.(1) An applicant for a licence may appeal against the chief 13 executive's decision to refuse to grant the licence. 14

- (2) A licensee may appeal against a decision of the chief executive— 15
- (a) to impose a condition on a licence; or 16
 - (b) to amend a condition on a licence; or 17
 - (c) to suspend or cancel a licence; or 18
 - (d) to refuse to renew a licence; or 19
 - (e) to refuse to replace a licence. 20
- (3) The appeal may be made to the Magistrates Court nearest the place 21 where the applicant or licensee resides or carries on, or proposes to carry 22 on, business or employment under the licence. 23

How to start appeal 24

- Clause 25.(1)* An appeal is started by— 25
- (a) filing a written notice of appeal with the clerk of the court of the 26
Magistrates Court; and 27
 - (b) serving a copy of the notice on the chief executive. 28

(2) The notice of appeal must be filed within 28 days after the appellant receives notice of the decision appealed against. 1
2

(3) The Court may at any time extend the period for filing the notice of appeal. 3
4

(4) The notice of appeal must state the grounds of the appeal. 5

Stay of operation of decisions 6

Clause 26.(1) The Court has power to grant a stay of a decision appealed against for the purpose of securing the effectiveness of the appeal. 7 8

(2) A stay— 9

(a) may be granted on conditions that the Court considers appropriate; and 10
11

(b) has effect for the period specified by the Court; and 12

(c) may be revoked or amended by the Court. 13

(3) The period of a stay specified by the Court must not extend past the time when the Court decides the appeal. 14
15

(4) An appeal against a decision does not affect the operation or carrying out of the decision unless the decision is stayed. 16
17

Hearing procedures 18

Clause 27.(1) The power under the Magistrates Courts Act 1921 to make rules for Magistrates Courts includes power to make rules for appeals to Magistrates Courts under this Act. 19
20
21

(2) The procedure for an appeal to a Magistrates Court under this Act is to be in accordance with— 22
23

(a) the rules made under the Magistrates Courts Act 1921; or 24

(b) in the absence of relevant rules—directions of the Court. 25

(3) An appeal is to be by way of rehearing, unaffected by the chief executive's decision. 26
27

(4) In deciding an appeal, the Court— 28

(a) is not bound by the rules of evidence; and 29

(b)	must observe natural justice; and	1
(c)	may hear the appeal in court or chambers.	2

Clause 28.	(1) In deciding an appeal, the Court may—	4
(a)	confirm the decision appealed against; or	5
(b)	set aside the decision and substitute another decision; or	6
(c)	set aside the decision and return the matter to the chief executive with directions that the Court considers appropriate.	7 8
(2)	In substituting another decision, the Court has the same powers as the chief executive.	9 10
Example—		11
The Court may decide that an unsuccessful applicant for a licence be granted the licence either unconditionally or on particular conditions.		12 13
(3)	If the Court substitutes another decision, the substituted decision is taken, for the purposes of this Act, to be the chief executive’s decision.	14 15
Appeal to District Court on questions of law only		16
Clause 29.	A party aggrieved by the decision of the Court may appeal to a District Court, but only on a question of law.	17 18
PART 3—INSPECTORS		19
Appointment of inspectors		20
Clause 30.	(1) The chief executive may appoint an officer of the public service to be an inspector.	21 22
(2)	The chief executive may appoint a person to be an inspector only if—	23
(a)	the chief executive believes that the person has the necessary expertise or experience to be an inspector; or	24 25

(b) the person has satisfactorily completed a course of training approved by the chief executive.	1 2
(3) The chief executive may limit the powers of an inspector by stating conditions in the instrument of appointment.	3 4
Inspector's identity card	5
Clause 31. (1) The chief executive must issue an identity card to each inspector.	6 7
(2) The identity card must—	8
(a) contain a recent photograph of the inspector; and	9
(b) be signed by the inspector.	10
(3) A person who stops being an inspector must return the identity card to the chief executive as soon as practicable after stopping to be an inspector, unless the person has a reasonable excuse for not returning it.	11 12 13
Maximum penalty for subsection (3)—20 penalty units.	14
Production of inspector's identity card	15
Clause 32. (1) An inspector may exercise a power under this Act in relation to a person only if the inspector first produces or displays the inspector's identity card for inspection by the person.	16 17 18
(2) If, for any reason, it is not practicable to comply with subsection (1), the inspector must produce the identity card for inspection by the person at the first reasonable opportunity.	19 20 21
Entry of place by inspector	22
Clause 33. An inspector may enter a place if—	23
(a) the occupier of the place consents to the entry; or	24
(b) it is a public place and the entry is made when the place is open to the public; or	25 26
(c) the entry is authorised by a warrant.	27

Warrants	1
Clause 34.(1) An inspector may apply to a Magistrate for a warrant for a place.	2 3
(2) The application must—	4
(a) be sworn; and	5
(b) set out the grounds on which the warrant is sought.	6
(3) The Magistrate may refuse to consider the application until the inspector gives the Magistrate all the information that the Magistrate requires about the application in the way that the Magistrate requires.	7 8 9
Example—	10
The Magistrate may require that additional information supporting the application be given by a statutory declaration	11 12
(4) The Magistrate may issue a warrant only if the Magistrate is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that—	13 14
(a) there is a particular thing (the “ evidence ”) that may provide evidence of the commission of an offence against this Act; and	15 16
(b) the evidence is, or may be within the next 7 days, at the place.	17
(5) The warrant must state—	18
(a) that the inspector is authorised, with assistance and force that may be necessary and reasonable—	19 20
(i) to enter the place; and	21
(ii) to exercise the inspector’s powers under this Act; and	22
(b) the evidence for which the warrant is issued; and	23
(c) the hours of the day when entry may be made; and	24
(d) the day (within 14 days after the warrant’s issue) on which the warrant stops having effect.	25 26
 Warrants—applications made otherwise than in person	 27
Clause 35.(1) An inspector may apply for a warrant by phone, fax, radio or another form of communication if the inspector considers it necessary	28 29

- because of— 1
- (a) urgent circumstances; or 2
 - (b) other special circumstances, including, for example, the officer’s remote location. 3 4
- (2) Before applying for the warrant, the inspector must prepare an application that sets out the grounds on which the warrant is sought. 5 6
- (3) The inspector may apply for the warrant before the application is sworn. 7 8
- (4) If the Magistrate issues the warrant and it is reasonably practicable to fax a copy of it to the inspector, the Magistrate must immediately fax the copy to the inspector. 9 10
11
- (5) If the Magistrate issues the warrant but it is not reasonably practicable to fax a copy of it to the inspector— 12
13
- (a) the Magistrate must— 14
 - (i) tell the inspector what the terms of the warrant are; and 15
 - (ii) tell the inspector the date and time the warrant was signed; 16 and 17
 - (iii) record the reasons for issuing the warrant on the warrant; 18
and 19
 - (b) the inspector must— 20
 - (i) complete a form of warrant in the same terms as the warrant issued by the Magistrate; and 21
22
 - (ii) write on the warrant form the name of the Magistrate and the date and time the Magistrate signed the warrant. 23
24
- (6) The facsimile warrant, or the warrant form properly completed by the inspector, is authority for the entry and the exercise of the other powers authorised by the warrant issued by the Magistrate. 25
26
27
- (7) The inspector must send to the Magistrate— 28
- (a) the sworn application; and 29
 - (b) if a warrant form was completed by the inspector—the completed warrant form. 30 31

- (8) The sworn application and any completed warrant form must be sent to the Magistrate at the earliest practicable opportunity. 1
2
- (9) On receipt of the application and any warrant form, the Magistrate must attach them to the warrant issued by the Magistrate. 3 4
- (10) If— 5
- (a) it is material for a court to be satisfied that the exercise of a power was authorised by a warrant issued under this section; and 6 7
 - (b) the warrant is not produced in evidence; 8
- the court must assume the exercise of power was not authorised by a warrant, unless the contrary is proved. 9 10

Inspector's general powers in a place 11

Clause 36.(1) After entering a place under section 33 (Entry of place by inspector), an inspector may exercise a power mentioned in subsection (2) only if— 12
13
14

- (a) the occupier of the place consents to the exercise of the power; or 15
- (b) the entry was authorised by a warrant. 16

(2) The inspector may— 17

- (a) search any part of the place; or 18
- (b) if entry was authorised by a warrant—seize the evidence for which the warrant was issued; or 19 20
- (c) in any case—seize a thing if the inspector believes on reasonable grounds that— 21
22
 - (i) the thing is evidence of the commission of an offence against this Act; and 23 24
 - (ii) the seizure is necessary to prevent— 25
 - (A) the concealment, loss or destruction of the thing; or 26
 - (B) the use of the thing in committing, continuing or repeating an offence against this Act; or 27
28
- (d) inspect, examine, photograph or film anything in or on the place; or 29 30

- (e) take extracts from, or make copies of, any documents in or on the place; or 1 2
 - (f) take into or onto the place any person, equipment and materials that the inspector reasonably requires for the purpose of exercising any powers in relation to the place. 3
4
5

Procedure after thing seized 6

Clause 37.(1) As soon as practicable after a thing is seized by an inspector under section 36 (Inspector's general powers in a place), the inspector must give a receipt for it to the person from whom it was seized. 7
9

(2) The inspector must allow a person who would be entitled to the seized thing if it were not in the inspector's possession— 10
11

- (a) to inspect it; or 12
- (b) if it is a document—to take extracts from it or make copies of it. 13

(3) The inspector must return the seized thing to the person at the end of— 14
15

- (a) 6 months; or 16
- (b) if a prosecution for an offence involving it is started within 6 months—the proceeding for the offence and any appeal from the proceeding. 17
19

(4) Despite subsection (3), the inspector must return the seized thing to the person if the inspector is satisfied that— 20
21

- (a) its retention as evidence is no longer necessary; and 22
- (b) its return is not likely to result in its use in repeating the offence. 23

Power to require name and address 24

Clause 38.(1) An inspector may require a person to state the person's name and address if the inspector— 25
26

- (a) finds the person committing an offence against this Act; or 27
29

person has recently committed an offence against this Act in the vicinity.

(2) When making the requirement, the inspector must warn the person that it is an offence to fail to state the person's name and address, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

(3) The inspector may require the person to give evidence of the correctness of the person's name or address if the inspector suspects, on reasonable grounds, that the name or address given is false.

(4) A person must comply with an inspector's requirement under subsection (1) or (2), unless the person has a reasonable excuse for not complying with it.

Maximum penalty—60 penalty units.

(5) The person does not commit an offence against this section if—

- (a) the inspector required the person to state the person's name and address on suspicion of the person having committed an offence against this Act; and
- (b) the person is not proved to have committed the offence.

Power to require information from certain persons

Clause 39.(1) If an inspector suspects, on reasonable grounds, that a contravention of this Act has happened, the inspector may require any of the following persons to give information about the contravention—

- (a) a person who was a security provider at a time relevant to the contravention (a “relevant time”);
- (b) a person who had directly or indirectly engaged a security provider at a relevant time;
- (c) a person who was an employee of a person mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) at a relevant time.

(2) When making the requirement, the inspector must warn the person that it is an offence to fail to give the information, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

(3) The person must comply with the requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse for not complying with it.

Maximum penalty—60 penalty units.	1
(4) It is a reasonable excuse for the person to fail to give information if giving the information might tend to incriminate the person.	2 3
(5) The person does not commit an offence against this section if the information sought by the inspector is not in fact relevant to the contravention.	4 5 6
False or misleading information	7
Clause 40. (1) A person must not—	8
(a) state anything to an inspector that the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular; or	9 10
(b) omit from a statement made to an inspector anything without which the statement is, to the person’s knowledge, misleading in a material particular.	11 12 13
Maximum penalty—60 penalty units.	14
(2) A complaint against a person for an offence against subsection (1)(a) or (b) is sufficient if it states the statement made was false or misleading to the person’s knowledge.	15 16 17
Power to require production of documents	18
Clause 41. (1) An inspector may require a person to produce a document required to be held or kept by the person under this Act to the inspector for inspection.	19 20 21
(2) The person must produce the document, unless the person has a reasonable excuse for not producing it.	22 23
Maximum penalty—60 penalty units.	24
(3) The inspector may keep a document that is produced—	25
(a) to take an extract from the document; or	26
(b) to make a copy of the document.	27
(4) The inspector must return the document to the person as soon as practicable after taking the extract or making the copy.	28 29

False or misleading documents

Clause 42.(1) A person must not give to the chief executive or an inspector a document containing information the person knows is false, misleading or incomplete in a material particular.

Maximum penalty—60 penalty units.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who, when giving the document—

- (a) informs the chief executive or inspector of the extent to which the document is false, misleading or incomplete; and
- (b) gives the correct information to the chief executive or inspector if the person has, or can reasonably obtain, the correct information.

Obstruction of inspectors

Clause 43. A person must not obstruct an inspector in the exercise of a power, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—60 penalty units.

Compensation

Clause 44.(1) A person may claim compensation from the State if the person incurs loss or expense because of the exercise or purported exercise of a power under this Part.

(2) Payment of compensation may be claimed and ordered in a proceeding for—

- (a) compensation brought in a court of competent jurisdiction; or
- (b) an offence against this Act brought against the person making the claim for compensation.

(3) A court may order the payment of compensation for the loss or expense only if it is satisfied that it is just to make the order in the circumstances of the particular case.

PART 4—GENERAL

Identification to be worn by crowd controller

Clause 45.(1) When acting as a crowd controller, a licensed crowd controller must wear the identification prescribed by regulation so that it is clearly visible.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(2) This section does not apply to a person who is only acting as a bodyguard.

Confidentiality of information

Clause 46.(1) A person must not disclose, use or record information gained by the person through involvement in the administration of this Act.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to—

- (a) an act done for the purposes of this Act; or
- (b) disclosure of information to the Commissioner; or
- (c) disclosure of information ordered by a court or tribunal for a proceeding before it; or
- (d) disclosure of information under a regulation or another Act.

(3) A person gains information through involvement in the administration of this Act if the person gains the information in the course of, or because of an opportunity provided by, the involvement.

(4) The following persons are taken to be involved in the administration of this Act—

- (a) the chief executive;
- (b) officers and employees of the department;
- (c) inspectors.

Protection from liability	1
Clause 47. (1) In this section—	2
“official” means—	3
(a) the chief executive; or	4
(b) an inspector; or	5
(c) a person acting under the direction of an inspector.	6
(2) An official does not incur civil liability for an act or omission done honestly and without negligence under this Act. ²	7
(3) A liability that would, apart from this section, attach to an official attaches instead to the State.	8
	9
	10
Offences are summary offences	11
Clause 48. An offence against this Act is a summary offence.	12
Evidentiary provisions	13
Clause 49. (1) This section applies to any proceeding under this Act.	14
(2) Unless a party, by reasonable notice, requires proof of—	15
(a) the appointment of an inspector; or	16
(b) the authority of an inspector to do anything under this Act;	17
the appointment or authority must be presumed.	18
(3) A signature purporting to be the signature of the chief executive or an inspector is evidence of the signature it purports to be.	19
(4) A certificate purporting to be signed by the chief executive and stating any of the following matters is evidence of the matter—	20
(a) that a specified document is a licence or copy of a licence issued under this Act;	21
(b) that on a specified day, or during a specified period, a person was	22
	23
	24
	25

² “Under” includes “for the purposes of”. See section 36 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1954.

or was not a licensee or a specified type of licensee;	1
(c) that a licence—	2
(i) was or was not issued for a specified term; or	3
(ii) was or was not in force on a specified day or during a specified period; or	4 5
(iii) was or was not subject to conditions or a specified condition;	6
(d) that a document is a copy of a record kept under this Act.	7
Delegation by chief executive	8
Clause 50. The chief executive may delegate the chief executive's powers under this Act to an officer of the department.	9 10
Approved forms	11
Clause 51.(1) The chief executive may approve a form for the purposes of this Act.	12 13
(2) If the chief executive approves a form for a purpose, the form must be used for the purpose.	14 15
(3) A person may request the chief executive to give the person an approved form.	16 17
(4) The chief executive must promptly comply with the request.	18
Regulations	19
Clause 52.(1) The Governor in Council may make regulations for the purposes of this Act.	20 21
(2) A regulation may be made—	22
(a) providing that a security provider need not hold the appropriate licence for a specified type of activity, event or place, despite section 8; or	23 24 25
(b) authorising the chief executive to approve that a crowd controller or security officer need not hold the appropriate licence for a specified activity, event or place, despite section 8; or	26 27 28

- (c) setting the fees payable under this Act; or 1
 - (d) prescribing offences for contraventions of a regulation and fixing 2 a maximum penalty of not more than 20 penalty units for a 3
contravention; or 4
 - (e) regulating the conduct of security providers. 5

PART 5—TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS 6

Definitions 7

Clause 53. In this Part— 8

“crowd control functions” means the functions of a crowd controller 9 stated in section 5; 10

“private inquiry licence” means a private inquiry agent’s licence or a 11
subagent’s licence under the Invasion of Privacy Act 1971 that was in 12 force immediately before the commencement of this Act; 13

“private investigator functions” means the functions of a private 14 investigator stated in section 6; 15

“security officer functions” means the functions of a security officer 16
stated in section 7. 17

Pending applications may proceed under this Act 18

Clause 54.(1) If an application for a private inquiry agent’s licence, properly 19 made under the Invasion of Privacy Act 1971, was pending immediately 20 before the commencement of this Act, the application becomes an 21 application properly made under section 9. 22

(2) The application is taken to be an application for— 23

- (a) if the functions proposed to be carried out are crowd control 24 functions—a crowd controller’s licence; or 25
- (b) if the functions proposed to be carried out are private investigator 26 functions—a private investigator’s licence; or 27

- (c) if the functions proposed to be carried out are security officer functions—a security officer’s licence. 1

Transition to licensing under this Act 3

Clause 55. (1) Despite section 10, if a person was the holder of a private inquiry licence immediately before the commencement of this Act, on the commencement of this Act the licence is taken to be— 4
6

- (a) if the person was carrying out crowd control functions—a crowd controller’s licence; or 7 8
- (b) if the person was carrying out private investigator functions—a private investigator’s licence; or 9 10
- (c) if the person was carrying out security officer functions—a security officer’s licence. 11 12

(2) The licence is taken to have been granted under this Act on the day it was granted under the Invasion of Privacy Act 1971 and ends 1 year from that day. 13
14
15

(3) For the purposes of renewals of the licence under section 18, the criminal history of the person before the licence was granted or last renewed under the Invasion of Privacy Act 1971 must be disregarded. 16
17
18

(4) If the chief executive decides to renew the licence, the chief executive must issue an appropriate licence under this Act to the licensee. 19
20

(5) Despite section 8, if a person was lawfully engaged or employed in carrying out crowd control functions immediately before the commencement of this Act, the person may continue to be engaged or employed in carrying out the same functions for 6 months after the commencement without the appropriate licence. 21
22
23
24
25

Expiry of Part 26

Clause 56. This Part expires 1 year after the commencement of this Act. 27
