15

(c) is formed or carried on for the purpose of providing financial gain for its members;² or

16

17

(d) is provided for in a special Act that—

18

(i) incorporates—

19

(A) the association’s governing body; or 20

(B) the trustees holding property for the association; or

21

(ii) provides the association may sue or be sued, or hold property, in the name of the association or an officer of the association; or

22

24

(iii) specially regulates its affairs; or

25

² Whether an association has the purpose of providing financial gain for its members see section 6 (Whether association is formed or carried on for the purpose of financial gain for its members).

Associations Incorporation Amendment

- (e) has as its main purpose the holding of property— 1
- (i) in which its members have a disposable interest; or 2
- (ii) that the members have a right to divide between all or some 3 of them; or 4
- (iii) for use by some or all of its members or among persons 5
claiming through, or nominated by, some or all of its 6
members; or 7
- (iv) for distribution of the property, or income from the property, 8 among some or all of its members or among persons 9 claiming through, or nominated by, some or all of its 10
members; or 11
- (f) has an object of raising a fund by subscription of its members to 12
make loans to them. 13

‘(2) However, subsection (1)(e)(iv) does not make an association 14 ineligible for incorporation if the chief executive is satisfied the association 15 has as its main purpose the holding of property for meeting the medical, 16 hospital, nursing and rehabilitation costs (the “medical costs”), and similar 17 and related costs, of an individual who is suffering from a serious medical 18 condition or injury. 19

‘Association may resolve to incorporate and adopt proposed rules 20

‘8.(1) An association may, by special resolution (the “incorporation 21 resolutions”)— 22

- (a) decide to incorporate under this Act; and 23
- (b) adopt proposed rules for the incorporated association. 24

‘(2) The proposed rules may be the model rules or its own rules. 25

‘Appointment of person to apply for incorporation 26

‘9.(1) After passing the incorporation resolutions, the association must, 27 by resolution of its members, appoint an individual (the “appointed 28 person”) to prepare and make an application for the association to be 29 incorporated under this Act. 30

Associations Incorporation Amendment

‘(2) The appointed person may do anything necessary or desirable to obtain the incorporation of the association. 1
2

‘(3) Subsection (2) has effect despite anything in the association’s rules. 3

‘Interim officers 4

‘10.(1) After passing the incorporation resolutions, the association must also elect interim officers for the incorporated association. 5
6

‘(2) The interim officers must include a president and treasurer for the incorporated association. 7
8

‘(3) The interim officers may include a secretary and other officers for the incorporated association.³ 9
10

‘(4) The interim officers are taken to hold the offices for which they are elected— 11
12

(a) on the association becoming incorporated; and 13

(b) until office holders are elected or appointed to office by the incorporated association. 14
15

‘Division 2—Incorporation 16

‘Form of application etc. 17

‘11.(1) An application for incorporation of an association may be made to the chief executive in the approved form. 18
19

‘(2) The application must be accompanied by the information, documents and fees required under the regulations. 20 21

‘(3) The application must— 22

(a) if the association’s proposed rules are the model rules—state that fact and include a copy of the objects proposed for the incorporated association; and 23

3 For the qualifications required for the secretary of an incorporated association see section 35B (Management committee to ensure association has appropriate individual as secretary).

Associations Incorporation Amendment

- (b) if the association’s proposed rules are not the model rules—be accompanied by a copy of the proposed rules and a statutory declaration by the appointed person stating that the rules comply with this Act.⁴

‘Giving notice of application etc.

‘12.(1) On receiving the association’s application for incorporation, the chief executive may require the association to—

- (a) give further relevant information or documents to the chief executive about the application; and
- (b) publish a notice about the application (the “application notice”).

‘(2) The chief executive may require the association to include in the application notice a statement that a person may object to the association’s incorporation by giving the chief executive a written notice (an “objection notice”) clearly stating the objector’s reasons for objecting within 14 days after the notice is published.

‘(3) The chief executive may require the association to publish the application notice by public advertisement and other ways the chief executive considers appropriate.

‘(4) The chief executive may also require the association to give notice of the application in other ways, and to other persons, the chief executive considers appropriate.

‘Objections to applications for incorporation

‘13. A person (an “objector”) may object to the association’s application for incorporation by giving the chief executive an objection notice within 14 days after the application notice is published.

‘Chief executive to make decision about application

‘14. After considering the association’s application for incorporation and ⁴ Under section 7 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, ‘Act’ includes statutory instruments made or in force under the Act.

any objections properly made to the application, the chief executive must—	1
(a) grant the application; or	2
(b) refuse the application.	3
‘Chief executive to advise association and objectors of decision	4
‘15.(1) Within 14 days after granting or refusing the association’s application, the chief executive must give written notice of the decision to the association and each objector.	5 6 7
‘(2) If the application is refused, the notice to the association must include the chief executive’s reasons for the decision.	8 9
‘(3) If the application is granted, the notice to each objector must include the chief executive’s reasons for the decision.	10 11
‘Registration of association	12
‘16.(1) If the chief executive grants the association’s application for registration, the chief executive must register the association by entering particulars of the association in the register.	13 14 15
‘(2) On registration—	16
(a) the association is incorporated; and	17
(b) the members of the association become members of the incorporated association; and	18 19
(c) the name for the incorporated association becomes the registered name of the incorporated association.	20 21
‘Certificate of incorporation	22
‘17. On registration of the association, the chief executive must issue a certificate of incorporation to the association.	23 24

‘Division 3—Miscellaneous‘Register of incorporated associations

‘18.(1) The chief executive must keep a register of incorporated associations.

‘(2) The register must include the following particulars about each incorporated association—

- (a) the association’s name;
- (b) the address of the association’s registered office;
- (c) the day the association’s particulars are entered in the register;
- (d) other particulars the chief executive considers appropriate.

‘Registered office

‘18A.(1) The members of the management committee of an incorporated association must ensure the association has a registered office complying with subsection (2).

Maximum penalty for each member of the management committee—5 penalty units.

‘(2) The registered office must be a place in the State where a document can be served personally on a person.

Example—

A post office box is not a place that can be shown as a registered office.

‘(3) It is a defence to a prosecution of a member of a management committee for an offence against subsection (1) for the member to prove he or she took all reasonable steps to ensure the association complied with subsection (1).

‘(4) If the association’s registered office changes, the secretary must give written notice in the approved form of the change to the chief executive within 14 days of the change.

Maximum penalty—5 penalty units.

‘Person may inspect register etc.	1
‘18B. On payment of the fee prescribed under the regulations, a person may—	2 3
(a) inspect the register at the department’s Brisbane office when the office is open to the public; and	4 5
(b) take extracts from, or obtain a copy of details in, the register.	6
‘False or misleading information	7
‘18C.(1) A person must not for an application made under this Part—	8
(a) state anything to the chief executive the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular; or	9 10
(b) omit from a statement made to the chief executive anything without which the statement is, to the person’s knowledge, misleading in a material particular.	11 12 13
Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.	14
‘(2) It is enough for a complaint against a person for an offence against subsection (1)(a) or (b) to state the statement was false or misleading to the person’s knowledge.	15 16 17
‘False, misleading or incomplete documents	18
‘18D.(1) A person must not give the chief executive a document containing information the person knows is false, misleading or incomplete in a material particular.	19 20 21
Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.	22
‘(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who, when giving the document—	23 24
(a) informs the chief executive, to the best of the person’s ability, how it is false, misleading or incomplete; and	25 26
(b) gives the correct information to the chief executive if the person has, or can reasonably obtain, the correct information.	27 28
‘(3) It is enough for a complaint against a person for an offence against	29 subsection (1) to state the statement was false, misleading or incomplete to the person's knowledge.

requirements of the registering authority.	1
‘(5) However, the Stamp Act 1894 does not apply to an action done or a thing created because of this section.	2 3
‘(6) The registering authority must comply with the request of the secretary under subsection (1) even if the request is made after the day mentioned in subsection (2).	4 5 6
Division 3—Powers of incorporated associations	7
‘General powers	8
‘20.(1) An incorporated association has, in the exercise of its affairs, all the powers of an individual.	9 10
‘(2) An incorporated association may, for example—	11
(a) enter into contracts; and	12
(b) acquire, hold, deal with and dispose of property; and	13
(c) make charges for services and facilities it supplies; and	14
(d) do other things necessary or convenient to be done in carrying out its affairs.	15 16
‘(3) An incorporated association may also issue secured and unsecured notes, debentures and debenture stock for the association.	17 18

Division 1—Preliminary	21
--------------------------------------	----

‘Name of incorporated association to include ‘incorporated’ etc.	22
---	----

‘21.(1) An incorporated association must have the word ‘incorporated’ or ‘inc’ as part of and at the end of its name.	23 24
---	----------

Associations Incorporation Amendment

‘(2) The association may use the words ‘incorporated’ or ‘inc’ interchangeably. 1
2

‘Use of ‘incorporated’ as part of name etc. 3

‘21A.(1) A person or unincorporated association must not operate under, 4 or use as its name or title, a name or title that includes the word 5
‘incorporated’, or an abbreviation of the word. 6

‘(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1), and each person having 7 the control of the management of an association that contravenes the 8 subsection, commits an offence. 9

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units. 10

‘(3) For this section, a person has control of the management of an 11 association if the person is in a position to influence the association’s 12 conduct of the association in relation to the offence. 13

‘(4) However, it is a defence for the person to prove that the person took 14 all reasonable steps to ensure that the association complied with 15 subsection (1). 16

‘Name on seal 17

‘21B.(1) An incorporated association’s name must appear on its seal in 18
legible characters. 19

‘(2) If an incorporated association’s name does not appear on its seal in 20 legible characters, the use of the seal is not effective. 21

‘Name of incorporated association to appear on documents 22

‘21C. An incorporated association must ensure a document it endorses 23 or issues (including advertising material) has the association’s name in 24
legible characters. 25

‘Division 2—Exemption from use of ‘incorporated’	1
‘Incorporated association may be exempted from using word ‘incorporated’	2
	3
‘22.(1) An association may, by resolution of its members, decide to apply to the chief executive for exemption from section 21 ⁵ —	4 5
(a) at the time of incorporation of the association; or	6
(b) if it is an incorporated association—at another time.	7
‘(2) The application must be in the approved form and be accompanied by the information, documents and fees required under the regulations.	8 9
‘(3) After considering the application, the chief executive may grant or refuse it.	10 11
‘(4) Within 14 days after granting or refusing the association’s application, the chief executive must give written notice of the decision to the association.	12 13 14
‘(5) If the application is granted, the chief executive must require the association to notify members of the public of the grant within 30 days after being informed by the chief executive of the grant.	15 16 17
‘(6) The chief executive may require the association to give the notice by public advertisement and other ways the chief executive considers appropriate.	18 19 20
‘(7) If the application is refused, the notice to the association must include the chief executive’s reasons for the decision.	21 22
 ‘Division 3—Change of name	 23
‘Definitions for Division	24
‘23. In this Division—	25
“new name” of an incorporated association means a name registered for the association under this Division instead of its old name.	26 27

⁵ Section 21 (Name of incorporated association to include ‘incorporated’ etc.).

Associations Incorporation Amendment

- “old name” of an incorporated association means the name of the association immediately before its new name is registered under this Division. 1 2

6
- ‘Incorporated association may apply to change its name’ 7
- ‘23A.(1) An incorporated association may, by special resolution, decide to change its name. 8 9
- ‘(2) The incorporated association may apply to the chief executive to have the change of name registered. 10 11
- ‘(3) The application must be— 12
- (a) made within 14 days after the passing of the special resolution; 13 and 14
 - (b) in the approved form; and 15
 - (c) accompanied by the information, documents and fees required under the regulations. 16 17
- ‘Giving notice of application to change name’ 18
- ‘23B.(1) On receiving the incorporated association’s application to change its name, the chief executive may require the association to— 19 20
- (a) give further relevant information or documents to the chief executive about the application; or 21
22
 - (b) publish a notice about the application (the “application notice”). 23
- ‘(2) The chief executive may require the association to include in the application notice a statement that a person may object to the association’s change of name by giving the chief executive a written notice (an “objection notice”) clearly stating the objector’s reasons for objecting within 14 days after the notice is published. 24

‘(4) The chief executive may also require the association to give notice of the application in other ways, and to other persons, the chief executive considers appropriate.	2 3 4
‘(5) The chief executive may give notice of the application in the ways, and to the persons, the chief executive considers appropriate.	5 6
‘Objections to application for change of name	7
‘23C. A person (an “objector”) may object to the incorporated association’s application to change its name by giving the chief executive an objection notice with 14 days after the application notice is published.	8 9 10
‘Chief executive to advise association and objectors of decision	11
‘23D. After considering the incorporated association’s application to change its name and any objections properly made to the application, the chief executive must—	12 13 14
(a) grant the application; or	15
(b) refuse the application.	16
‘Notice of decision	17
‘23E.(1) Within 14 days after granting or refusing the incorporated association’s application, the chief executive must give written notice of the decision to the association and each objector.	18 19 20
‘(2) If the application is refused, the notice to the association must include the chief executive’s reasons for the decision.	21 22
‘(3) If the application is granted, the notice to each objector must include the chief executive’s reasons for the decision.	23 24
‘Registration of new name	25
‘23F.(1) If the chief executive grants the incorporated association’s application to change its name, the chief executive must register the new name for the incorporated association by entering the name in the register.	26 27 28

Associations Incorporation Amendment

‘(2) The change of name has effect only when it is registered by the chief executive. 1
2

‘New certificate of incorporation 3

‘23G.(1) On registration of the incorporated association’s new name, the chief executive must issue the association with a new certificate of incorporation. 4
6

‘(2) However, the chief executive may act under subsection (1) only if the association’s existing certificate of incorporation has been returned to the chief executive or the chief executive is satisfied that it has been lost or destroyed. 7
8
10

‘Change of name does not affect legal personality 11

‘23H.(1) A change of name of an incorporated association does not— 12

(a) affect its legal personality or identity; or 13

(b) affect a right or obligation of the association or anyone else; or 14

(c) make legal proceedings by or against the association defective. 15

‘(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the change of name of the incorporated association does not affect a right, obligation or benefit the association would have had or enjoyed apart from the change of name. 16
18

‘Division 4—Undesirable names 23

‘Association must not have undesirable name 24

‘24.(1) An incorporated association must not have an undesirable name or an undesirable name as part of its name. 25
26

‘(2) An undesirable name for an incorporated association is a name— 27

Associations Incorporation Amendment

- (a) a reasonable individual may mistake for— 1
- (i) the name of another association incorporated under this or 2
another Act of the State; or 3
- (ii) a name— 4
- (A) reserved or registered under the Corporations Law; or 5
- (B) registered under the Business Names Act 1962; or 6
- (b) that may cause a reasonable individual— 7
- (i) to be offended; or 8
- (ii) to be deceived about the nature and identity of the 9 association; or 10
- (c) the chief executive, by Gazette notice, declares is an undesirable 11
name; or 12
- (d) declared by regulation to be an undesirable name. 13
- ‘Notice to associations having or proposing to have undesirable name 14
- ‘24A.(1) The chief executive must send a written notice to an association 15
if the chief executive considers that— 16
- (a) the proposed name for the association on its incorporation is, or 17 includes, an undesirable name; or 18
- (b) the proposed new name for the incorporated association is, or 19 includes, an undesirable name. 20
- ‘(2) The notice must— 21
- (a) inform the association that the chief executive considers that the 22 proposed name, or proposed new name, for the incorporated 23 association is, or includes, an undesirable name; and 24
- (b) give reasons why the name is undesirable. 25
- ‘(3) If the association is an incorporated association, the chief executive 26 may send a written notice to the association— 27
- (a) stating that the chief executive considers that the association’s 28
name is an undesirable name; and 29

Associations Incorporation Amendment

(b) asking the association to apply for a new name for the association within 35 days of sending the notice. 1
2

‘(4) If the incorporated association does not comply with the request under subsection (3)(b) within 40 days after it is given the notice, the chief executive may cancel the association’s incorporation. 3

‘Associations may be allowed to have undesirable names 6

‘24B.(1) An association may, by special resolution, decide to make an application to the chief executive to have a name for the association that is, or includes, an undesirable name. 7
9

11

‘(3) The application must be in the approved form and be accompanied by the information, documents and fees required under the regulations. 12
13

‘(4) After considering the association’s application, the chief executive must grant or refuse the application. 14
15

17
18

‘(6) If the application is refused, the notice to the association must include the chief executive’s reasons for the decision. 19
20

‘(7) This section has effect despite section 24.⁶ 21

6 Section 24 (Association must not have undesirable name).

‘PART 3—RULES

1

‘Division 1—Registration of rules

2

‘Registration of incorporated association’s rules

3

‘25.(1) If an association’s proposed rules on incorporation are the model rules, on registration of the association the chief executive must make an entry in the register stating the model rules are the rules of the association.

4

6

‘(2) On registration, the rules of the incorporated association consist of—

7

(a) the association’s name; and 8

(b) the objects for the association stated in the application for incorporation of the association; and

9

10

(c) the model rules in the form in which they exist when the association is incorporated.

11

12

‘(3) If an association’s proposed rules on incorporation are its own rules, on registration of the association the chief executive must make an entry in the register stating the association’s rules are its own rules.

13

15

‘(4) On registration of the association mentioned in subsection (3), the rules of the incorporated association are its own rules.

16

17

‘Matters not provided for in rules provided for in model rules

18

‘25A.(1) If a matter is not provided for under an incorporated association’s own rules but the matter is provided for under a provision of the model rules (the “additional provision”), the association’s own rules are taken to include the additional provision.

19

21

22

‘(2) This section does not affect the ability of an incorporated association to amend its rules under this Act.

23

24

‘(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to an incorporated association as far as its own rules provide that the subsection does not apply to the association.

25

26

‘Division 2—Amending rules	1
‘Application to register amendment of rules	2
‘26A.(1) An incorporated association may, by special resolution, decide to amend its rules.	3 4
‘(2) An incorporated association may apply to the chief executive to have the amendment registered.	5 6
‘(3) The application must be in the approved form and be accompanied by the information, documents and fees required under the regulations.	7 8
‘(4) The application must also be accompanied by—	9
(a) a copy of the amendment or the complete rules with the amendment clearly shown; and	10 11
(b) a statutory declaration by the association’s secretary stating the amendment complies with this Act. ⁷	12 13
‘(5) After considering the association’s application, the chief executive must grant or refuse the application.	14 15
‘(6) Within 14 days after granting or refusing the association’s application, the chief executive must give written notice of the decision to the association.	16 17 18
‘(7) If the application is refused, the notice to the association must include the chief executive’s reasons for the decision.	19 20
‘Registration of amendment	21
‘26B.(1) If the chief executive grants the application for registration of the amendment of the incorporated association’s rules, the chief executive must register the amendment.	22 23 24
‘(2) On registration of the amendment, the incorporated association’s rules are its rules as amended.	25 26

⁷ Under section 7 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, ‘Act’ includes statutory instruments made or in force under the Act.

Associations Incorporation Amendment

‘Effect of amended rules	1
‘26C.(1) In this section—	2
“new rules” of an incorporated association means the association’s rules on registration of an amendment of its rules.	3 4
“old rules” of an incorporated association means the association’s rules immediately before registration of an amendment of its rules.	5 6
“registration” means registration under this Division.	7
(2) The new rules of an incorporated association do not affect a right, liability or obligation under the association’s old rules.	8 9
(3) However, rights, liabilities and obligations under the old rules are extinguished to the extent they—	10 11
(a) existed between—	12
(i) a member of the incorporated association and the incorporated association; or	13 14
(ii) the incorporated association’s members; and	15
(b) were not the subject of litigation immediately before the registration of the new rules.	16 17
‘Effect of amendment of model rules	18
‘26D.(1) This section applies if an incorporated association’s rules are the model rules and the association amends its rules.	19 20
(2) On registration of the amendments, the model rules as amended become the association’s own rules.	21 22
‘Chief executive may ask for copy of complete rules	23
‘26E.(1) The chief executive may ask the secretary of an incorporated association to send the chief executive, within 21 days of the chief executive making the request—	24 25 26
(a) a complete copy of the incorporated association’s rules; and	27
(b) a statutory declaration by the secretary stating that the copy of the rules sent to the chief executive is a copy of the complete rules of	28 29

the incorporated association.	1
‘(2) The secretary must comply with the request.	2
Maximum penalty for subsection (2)—2 penalty units.	3
Division 3—Miscellaneous
‘Secretary must make rules available to members if asked	5
‘27.(1) A member of an incorporated association may ask the association’s secretary for a copy of the association’s rules.	6 7
‘(2) The secretary may require the member to pay an amount to the secretary to cover the reasonable costs of providing the copy to the member.	8 9
‘(3) The secretary must give the member a complete copy of the association’s rules as soon as practicable after the member pays any reasonable costs required under subsection (2).	10 11 12
Maximum penalty for subsection (3)—1 penalty unit.	13
‘Form in which rules must be kept	14
‘27A. The secretary of an incorporated association must ensure the association’s rules, or a copy of the rules that is given or sold to someone else, are set out in printed legible form (whether typewritten or otherwise).	15 16 17
Maximum penalty—5 penalty units.	18

‘PART 4—GENERAL OPERATION OF INCORPORATED ASSOCIATION

1
2

‘Division 1—Meetings

3

‘First annual general meeting

4

‘28. An incorporated association must hold its first annual general meeting within 18 months after the day the association is incorporated.

5
6

‘Subsequent annual general meetings

7

‘29. An incorporated association must hold subsequent annual general meetings—

8
9

(a) at least once each year; and 10

(b) within 3 months after the end of the association’s previous financial year.

11
12

‘General meetings

13

‘29A.(1) The members of the management committee of an incorporated association must ensure that the association complies with its rules about the calling and holding of meetings.

14
15
16

Maximum penalty for each member of the management committee—10 penalty units.

17
18

‘(2) It is a defence to a prosecution of a member of the management committee for an offence against subsection (1) for the member to prove he or she took all reasonable steps to ensure the association complied with the subsection.

19
20
21
22

‘(3) If an incorporated association makes decisions at a meeting of the association in breach of its rules about quorums for the meeting, the decisions have no effect.

‘Division 1—Incorporation of branches 12

‘Members of branch may resolve to incorporate 13

‘43A.(1) The members of a branch, or group of branches, of a parent 14 association may decide to incorporate under this Act— 15

(a) after receiving the written agreement of the parent association; and 16

(b) by special resolution— 17

(i) for a branch—passed by the members of the branch; or 18

(ii) for a group of branches—passed by the members of each 19 branch of the group of branches. 20

‘(2) A group of branches may incorporate even if some or all of the 21 branches are already incorporated. 22

‘Powers of appointed person 23

‘43B.(1) After passing the special resolution under section 43A the 24 association must, by resolution of its members, appoint a person (the 25 “appointed person”) to prepare an application for the branch or group of 26

‘Appointment of appointed person to make application’ 3

‘43I.(1) After passing the special resolution, each old association must, 4 by resolution of its members, appoint the same individual (an “appointed 5 person”) to prepare an application for the old associations to be 6 incorporated as a new association. 7

‘(2) The common appointed person may do anything necessary or 8 desirable to obtain the amalgamation of the old associations to form a new 9 association. 10

‘(3) Subsection (2) has effect despite anything in the old associations’ 11 rules. 12

‘Chief executive may require notices to be sent to creditors’ 13

‘43J.(1) After considering an application to amalgamate, the chief 14 executive may require a secretary of an old association involved in the 15 proposed amalgamation to give— 16

- (a) to the association’s creditors written notice of the application in 17
the approved form; and 18
- (b) to the chief executive a statutory declaration stating the names and 19 addresses of all of the association’s creditors and stating that each 20 of the creditors was sent a notice under paragraph (a). 21

‘(2) The notice under subsection (1)(a) must include a statement that a 22 creditor may notify the chief executive in writing within 21 days after the 23 notice is given to the creditor that the creditor opposes the amalgamation 24 and the reasons for the creditor’s opposition. 25

‘(3) The secretary must comply with a requirement made under 26
subsection (1). 27

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units. 28

‘(4) If the chief executive receives a notice from a creditor within the time 29 stated in a notice under subsection (1)(a), the chief executive must not grant 30 the application without the sanction of the Supreme Court. 31

‘Modified application of Act

1

‘43K. The provisions of this Act providing for the incorporation of an association apply¹² to the incorporation of a new association with all necessary changes, all changes made under this Division and any changes prescribed under the regulations.

2

4

5 ‘Certificate of incorporation

6

‘43L.(1) On registration of a new association, the chief executive must issue the association with a certificate of incorporation.

8

‘(2) However, the chief executive may act under subsection (1) only if each of the existing certificates of incorporation of the old associations applying for amalgamation into the new association has been returned to the chief executive or the chief executive is satisfied that the certificate has been lost or destroyed.

9

11

12

13

‘Effect of incorporation

14

‘43M. On the incorporation of a new association—

15

(a) the assets and liabilities of the old associations become the assets and liabilities of the new association; and

16

17

(b) the incorporation of the old associations is cancelled.

18

‘Duty to notify Registrar of Titles of land or interest in land etc.

19

‘43N.(1) The secretary of a new association must ask the Registrar of Titles, or anyone else who is required to keep a register about dealings in property, (the “registering authority”) to record in the appropriate register land or an interest in land gained by the new association because of its incorporation under this Division.

20

22

23

24

‘(2) The secretary must make the request under subsection (1) within 30 days after the new association gains the land or interest in land.

25

26

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

27

¹² For provisions dealing with the incorporation of associations see Part 2.

Associations Incorporation Amendment

‘(3) If asked by the secretary of a new association, the registering authority must make in the appropriate register all entries necessary to record the land or interest in land gained by the new association because of its incorporation under this Division.

‘(4) The request must be made in a way that satisfies the usual requirements of the registering authority.

‘(5) However, the Stamp Act 1894 does not apply to an action done or a thing created because of this section.

‘(6) The registering authority must comply with the request of the secretary under subsection (1) even if the request is made after the day mentioned in subsection (2).

‘Amalgamation does not affect certain rights and obligations

‘430.(1) The amalgamation of old associations into a new association does not—

(a) affect a right or obligation of the old associations or anyone else; or

(b) make legal proceedings by or against an old association defective.

‘(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the amalgamation of the old associations into a new association does not affect a right, obligation or benefit the new association would have had or enjoyed apart from the amalgamation of the old associations.

Insertion of new Pt 7B 14

Clause 14. Before Part 8— 15
insert— 16

‘PART 7B—REVIEWS AND APPEALS 17

‘Division 1—Review of decisions 18

‘Affected person may apply for review 19

‘50A.(1) If a person’s interests are affected by a decision under this Act, the person may apply to the chief executive for a review of the decision. 20 21

‘(2) A person who may seek a review of a decision is entitled to receive a statement of reasons for the decision. 22 23

‘Applying for review 24

‘50B.(1) An application by a person for review of a decision must be made within 28 days after notice of the decision is given to the person. 25 26

‘(2) However, if— 27

Associations Incorporation Amendment

- (a) the notice did not state reasons for the decision; and 1
- (b) the person asked for a statement of reasons for the decision 2 within the period mentioned in subsection (1); 3 the person may make the application within 28 days after the person is 4 given the statement of reasons. 5

‘(3) Also, the chief executive may extend the period for making an 6 application for review, even though the time for making the application has 7 expired. 8

‘(4) An application for review must be written and state in detail the 9 grounds on which the applicant seeks review of the decision. 10

‘Stay of operation of decision 11

‘50C.(1) If an application is made under this Part for review of a 12 decision, the applicant may immediately apply to a District Court for a stay 13 of the decision. 14

‘(2) The Court may stay the decision to secure the effectiveness of the 15 review and any later appeal to the Court. 16

‘(3) A stay— 17

- (a) may be given on conditions the Court considers appropriate; and 18
- (b) operates for the period fixed by the Court; and 19
- (c) may be revoked or amended by the Court. 20

‘(4) The period of a stay under this section must not extend past the time 21 when the chief executive reviews the decision and any later period the Court 22 allows the applicant to enable the applicant to appeal against the decision of 23 the chief executive. 24

‘(5) The making of an application under this Part for review of a decision 25 affects the decision, or the carrying out of the decision, only if the decision 26 is stayed. 27

‘Decision on reconsideration 28

‘50D.(1) This section applies to an application under this Part for review 29 of a decision (the “disputed decision”). 30

Associations Incorporation Amendment

‘(2) The chief executive may confirm the disputed decision, amend the disputed decision or substitute a new decision after considering the applicant’s representations. 1
3

‘(3) The chief executive must immediately give the applicant written notice of the chief executive’s decision on the application. 4
5

‘(4) If the decision is not the decision sought by the applicant, the notice must state— 6
7

(a) the reasons for the decision; and 8

(b) that the applicant may appeal against the decision to a District Court within 28 days. 9
10

‘Division 2—Appeals against reconsidered decisions 11

‘Who may make an appeal? 12

‘50E. A person whose interests are affected by a decision of the chief executive under this Act may appeal against the decision to a District Court. 13
14

‘Making appeals 15

‘50F.(1) An appeal under section 50E against a decision of the chief executive must be made within 28 days after the notice of the decision is given to the person. 16
17
18

‘(2) However, if— 19

(a) the notice did not state reasons for the decision; and 20

(b) the person asked for a statement of reasons for the decision within the period mentioned in subsection (1); 21 the person may make the application within 28 days after the person is given the statement of reasons. 23 24
22

‘(3) Also, the District Court may extend the period for making an appeal, even though the time for making the appeal has expired. 25
26

Associations Incorporation Amendment

‘Starting appeals	1
‘50G.(1) An appeal is started by filing a written notice of appeal with the District Court.	2 3
‘(2) A copy of the notice must be served on the chief executive.	4
‘(3) An appeal to a District Court may be made to the District Court nearest the place where the applicant resides or carries on business.	5 6
 ‘Stay of operation of decision	 7
‘50H.(1) A District Court to which an appeal against a decision lies under this Part may grant a stay of the decision to secure the effectiveness of the appeal.	8 9 10
‘(2) A stay—	11
(a) may be given on the conditions the District Court considers appropriate; and	12 13
(b) operates for the period fixed by the Court; and	14
(c) may be revoked or amended by the Court.	15
‘(3) The period of a stay under this section must not extend past the time when the court decides the appeal.	16 17
‘(4) An appeal against a decision affects the decision, or carrying out of the decision, only if the decision is stayed.	18 19
 ‘Powers of District Court on appeal	 20
‘50I.(1) In deciding an appeal, a District Court—	21
(a) has the same powers as the decision maker; and	22
(b) is not bound by the rules of evidence; and	23
(c) must comply with natural justice; and	24
(d) may hear the appeal in court or in chambers.	25
‘(2) An appeal is by way of rehearing, unaffected by the decision appealed against.	26 27
‘(3) The District Court may—	28
