(b) a regulation giving effect to a management plan for a World Heritage Management Area or International Agreement Area commences.	24 25 26
‘(2) If a land-holder’s interest in land is injuriously affected by a restriction or prohibition imposed under the declaration or regulation on the	27 28

Nature Conservation Amendment

land-holder's existing use of the land, the land-holder is entitled to be paid by the State the reasonable compensation because of the restriction or prohibition that is agreed between the State and the land-holder or, failing agreement, decided by the Land Court.

'(3) The land-holder's interest in the land is not injuriously affected if the restriction or prohibition under the declaration or regulation is the same, or to the same effect, as a provision of another law applying to the land immediately before the commencement of the declaration or regulation.

'(4) Compensation is not payable if compensation has already been paid for—

- (a) the restriction or prohibition; or
- (b) a restriction or prohibition to the same effect.

'(5) A claim for compensation must—

- (a) be made in a form approved by the chief executive; and
- (b) be made to the chief executive within 6 months after the declaration of the protected area or the commencement of the regulation, or the longer period the chief executive or Land Court in special circumstances allows.

'(6) In making a determination, the Land Court must have regard to the following matters—

- (a) the capacity of the land to sustain the existing use;
- (b) any change in the value of the land because of the declaration or regulation;
- (c) any change in the profitability of the land because of the declaration or regulation;
- (d) any conservation agreement with the land-holder.

'(7) Subsection (6) does not limit the matters to which the Land Court may have regard in making a determination.

'(8) Subsection (2) does not apply to land—

- (a) if—
 - (i) a regulation giving effect to a management plan for a Nature Refuge is in force; and

Nature Conservation Amendment

(ii) the Nature Refuge is declared to be included in a World Heritage Management Area or International Agreement Area; and	1 2 3
(iii) the regulation continues to apply to the Nature Refuge after declaration; and	4 5
(iv) the land-holder receives, or is entitled to receive, compensation under this section in relation to the land because of the declaration of the Nature Refuge; or	6 7 8
(b) if—	9
(i) an area is identified in a conservation plan as, or including, a critical habitat or an area of major interest; and	10 11
(ii) the area is declared to be a protected area; and	12
(iii) the regulation making the declaration declares that the plan continues to apply to the area after declaration; and	13 14
(iv) the land-holder receives, or is entitled to receive, compensation under section 115 (Compensation) in relation to the land because of the approval of the plan.	15 16 17
‘(9) In this section—	18
“existing use” of land includes a lawful use made of the land immediately before the commencement of the declaration or regulation that restricts or prohibits the use.’.	19 20 21
Replacement of s 65 (Unlawful use of certain words)	22
14. Section 65—	23
omit, insert—	24
‘Unlawful use of certain words	25
‘65.(1) A person must not use words about an area that is not a protected area in a way that is likely to cause someone else reasonably to believe the area is a protected area.	26 27 28
‘(2) A person must not use words about a protected area in a way that is likely to cause someone else reasonably to believe the area is a protected area of a different class.	29 30 31

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.’.	1
Insertion of new ss 79A and 79B	2
15. After section 79—	3
insert—	4
‘Property in newly protected animals	5
‘79A.(1) In this section—	6
“commencing day” means the day on which this Division commences;	7
“declaration day” for an animal means the day on which the animal becomes a newly protected animal;	8 9
“newly protected animal” means a protected animal that, immediately before the commencing day, was not fauna under the Fauna Conservation Act 1974 .	10 11 12
‘(2) If a person is keeping a newly protected animal at the beginning of the declaration day, the animal and its progeny do not become the property of the State merely because of the animal becoming a protected animal.	13 14 15
‘Preservation of existing property rights	16
‘79B. Sections 78 (Property in protected animals) and 79 (Property in protected plants) do not affect property rights a person (other than the State) has in native wildlife immediately before the wildlife becomes protected wildlife.’.	17 18 19 20
Amendment of s 81 (Restriction on taking etc. protected animals)	21
16. Section 81(1)—	22
insert—	23
‘(c) an exemption under a regulation.’.	24
Amendment of s 82 (Restriction on taking etc. protected plants)	25
17. Section 82(1)—	26

insert—	1
‘(c) an exemption under a regulation.’	2
Insertion of new s 82A	3
18. After section 82—	4
insert—	5
‘Restriction on using threatened or rare plants	6
‘82A. Subject to section 85 (Aborigines’ and Torres Strait Islanders’ rights to take etc. protected wildlife), a person must not use a protected plant that is threatened or rare wildlife other than under—	7
(a) a licence, permit or other authority issued under a regulation; or	10
(b) an exemption under a regulation.	11
Maximum penalty—1 000 penalty units.’	12
Amendment of s 100 (Compensation)	13
19. Section 100(2)(b)—	14
omit, insert—	15
‘(b) be made to the chief executive within 6 months after the making of the order or the longer period the chief executive or the Land Court in special circumstances allows.’	16
	17
	18
Insertion of new s 101A	19
20. Before section 102, in Part 7—	20
insert—	21
‘Meaning of “land-holder” in Part	22
‘101A. In this section—	23
“land-holder” includes a person having an interest in land.’	24

Amendment of s 102 (When plans must or may be prepared)	1
21.(1) Section 102, heading—	2
omit, insert—	3
‘Management plans’.	4
(2) Section 102(2)(a)—	5
omit, insert—	6
‘(a) the dedication or declaration is a dedication or declaration of a change in the class of a protected area; and’.	7
	8
(3) Section 102(3) and (4)—	9
omit, insert—	10
‘(3) Subsection (1) does not apply if—	11
(a) on the dedication or declaration of a protected area (the “new area”), the new area is amalgamated with another protected area for which a management plan is in force; and	12
	13
	14
(b) the regulation dedicating or declaring the new area declares that the management plan applies to the amalgamated area.	15
	16
‘(4) If—	17
(a) on or after the dedication or declaration of a protected area (the “new area”), the new area is amalgamated with another protected area (the “original area”) for which a management plan is in force; and	18
	19
	20
	21
(b) a management plan is required to be prepared for the new area under this section;	22
	23
the Minister may prepare a management plan for the amalgamated area or a management plan amending the plan for the original area to apply the plan to the new area.	24
	25
	26
‘(5) If—	27
(a) on or after the dedication or declaration of a protected area, the area is included in an aggregation of protected areas assigned a name under section 59 (Naming of protected areas); and	28
	29
	30

Nature Conservation Amendment

(b) a management plan is required to be prepared for the area under this section;

the Minister may prepare a management plan for the aggregation of areas instead of a plan for the area (whether or not plans have been prepared for other areas included in the aggregation of areas).

‘(6) If the Minister decides to prepare a management plan for an amalgamated area or aggregation of areas, this Part applies to the preparation and approval of the plan with any necessary changes and any changes prescribed by regulation.’.

Amendment of s 103 (When Minister may require plan)

22.(1) Section 103, heading—

omit, insert—

‘Conservation plans’.

(2) Section 103(1) to (3)—
