of the 1984 Act; and 7
- (b) whose pension under this Act had ceased before the passing of 8
the 1984 Act because the widow married or remarried after 9 becoming the member's widow; and 10
- (c) who, before the commencement of this section, had not again 11 become entitled to a pension under section 34B(5).<sup>26</sup> 12
- “married widow's entitlement”, for a married widow, means the 13
fortnightly pension the widow would be entitled to under 14
section 34B(5) if that subsection were to apply to the widow on the 15
election day. 16
- “pensioner” means a person receiving annuity benefit under this Act. 17
- “potential widow”, of a pre-1984 member, means the person who, as the 18
member's widow, would become entitled to a benefit under this Act 19 on the member's death. 20
- “potential widow's entitlement”, for a pre-1984 member's potential 21 widow, means the member's lump sum percentage of the fortnightly 22 pension the potential widow would be entitled to under this Act if the 23 member were to die on the election day. 24
- “pre-1984 member” means a male former contributor or pensioner— 25
- (a) who attained the age for retirement or retired before the passing of 26
the 1984 Act; and 27

under section 39A.<sup>27</sup>

‘Election to surrender potential widow’s entitlement

‘48A.(1) A pre-1984 member may elect to surrender the potential widow’s entitlement of the member’s potential widow.

‘(2) To remove doubt, it is declared that the election may be made only if the pre-1984 member and the member’s potential widow are alive on the member’s election day.

‘Election to surrender married widow’s entitlement

‘48B. A married widow may elect to surrender the widow’s married widow’s entitlement.

‘Making of election to surrender

‘48C.(1) An election to surrender must—

- (a) be made in writing to the board within 6 months after the commencement of this section; and
- (c) be accompanied by the documents (including documents verified by statutory declaration) the board reasonably requires; and
- (b) if it is an election to surrender a potential widow’s entitlement—be accompanied by the potential widow’s written agreement to the surrender.

‘(2) Despite section 78,<sup>28</sup> the board may extend the period mentioned in subsection (1)(a) only if it is satisfied—

- (a) an election was not made within the period because—
  - (i) the pre-1984 member or married widow was unaware of the entitlement to make an election to surrender; or
  - (ii) of circumstances beyond the control of the pre-1984
