report; and

(b) decide who must pay the fee.

Example—

The tribunal may decide it will pay the fee or the parties, or 1 of them, must pay the fee.’

Insertion of new div 6A

Clause 8. After section 6Z—

insert—

‘Division 6A—Application for assessment of account under client agreement

‘Application of div 6A

‘6ZA.(1) This division applies if a client—

(a) is given an account that—

(i) is in a form agreed to in a client agreement between the client and the practitioner or firm; or

(ii) clearly sets out all items of work done for the client and the amount charged for each item; and

(b) applies to the tribunal for an appointment by the clerk of the tribunal of a costs assessor to assess the account.

‘(2) However, this division does not apply if—

(a) the client agreement is for a lump sum amount only; or

(b) the client is 1 of the following—

(i) the Commonwealth or a State;

(ii) a public company, subsidiary of a public company, a foreign company or a registered Australian body (within the meaning of the Corporations Law);

(iii) a partnership if 1 of the partners is an entity mentioned in subparagraphs (i) or (ii);

Civil Justice Reform Bill

- (iv) a joint venture if 1 of the joint venturers is an entity mentioned in subparagraphs (i) or (ii). 1

‘Effect of request for appointment of assessor 3

‘6ZB.(1) A client who asks for the appointment of a costs assessor under this division is taken to dispute only the amount payable under the client agreement. 4

‘(2) The client may not subsequently challenge the validity or enforceability of the client agreement. 7
8

‘Clerk may appoint costs assessor to assess account 9

‘6ZC. The clerk of the tribunal may appoint a costs assessor from the tribunal’s register of costs assessors to assess a practitioner’s or firm’s account. 10
12

‘Fees of costs assessor 13

‘6ZD.(1) A client and a practitioner or firm may agree about payment of the fee for a costs assessor appointed by the clerk of the tribunal. 14
15

‘(2) If there is no agreement and the practitioner’s or firm’s account is reduced by the costs assessor by 20% or more, the practitioner or firm must pay all of the assessor’s fee. 16
17
18

‘(3) Otherwise, the client must pay all of the assessor’s fee. 19

‘When costs assessment binding 20

‘6ZE.(1) A costs assessment by an assessor appointed by the clerk of the tribunal is binding on the client and practitioner or firm only if— 21
22

(a) the client and practitioner or firm have agreed in writing that it will be; or 23
24

(b) at the end of 30 days after the assessment, no application has been made to a court to decide the reasonableness of the fees and costs 25
26

Civil Justice Reform Bill

charged in the assessed account.⁶

‘(2) A binding costs assessment may be enforced as a debt for the assessed amount and the parties may not subsequently challenge the amount payable.

‘Application to court after assessment

‘6ZF.(1) Within 30 days after a costs assessment by an assessor appointed by the clerk of the tribunal, the client or the practitioner or firm may apply to a court having jurisdiction for the amount in the account for the court to decide the reasonableness of the fees and costs charged in the account.

‘(2) A court having jurisdiction for the amount in the account may extend the application time and order that, despite section 6ZE(1)(b), the costs assessment by an assessor appointed by the clerk of the tribunal is not binding.

‘(3) If an application is made to a court, the court must decide the reasonableness of the fees and costs charged in the assessed account.

‘(4) In deciding the reasonableness of the fees and costs, the court may—

(a) appoint a person from the tribunal’s register of costs assessors or another person to assess the account and make an order about the appointee’s fee; and

(a) receive in evidence any written costs assessment (whether by the assessor appointed by the clerk of the tribunal or by the assessor appointed by the court) and have regard to a matter contained in the assessment.

‘(5) The court may make any order it considers appropriate, including, for example, an order that a party pay an amount to another party.’

Insertion of new pts 4A and 4B

Clause 9. After part 4—

insert—

⁶ Also see section 6ZF(2) (Application to court after assessment).

‘PART 4A—CLIENT AGREEMENTS

‘Usual client agreement

‘48.(1) This section does not apply to urgent work or work if the maximum amount a practitioner or firm charges as fees for the work is $750 or less.

‘(2) Within a reasonable time after starting work for a client, a practitioner or firm must make a written agreement with the client expressed in clear plain language and specifying the following matters—

(a) the work the practitioner or firm is to perform;

9

(b) the fees and costs payable by the client for the work.

10

‘(3) The fees and costs payable by the client for work must specify—

11

(a) a lump sum amount; or

12

(b) the basis on which fees and costs will be calculated (whether or not including a lump sum amount).

13

14

‘(4) The notice in the schedule⁷ must be completed by the practitioner or firm and given to the client before the client signs the client agreement.

15

16

‘(5) The client agreement must not be inconsistent with the notice in the schedule.

17

18

‘(6) Subsections (4) and (5) do not apply if the client is 1 of the following—

19

20

(a) a public company, a subsidiary of a public company, a foreign company or a registered Australian body (within the meaning of the Corporations Law);

21

23

(b) the Commonwealth or a State;

24

(c) a partnership if 1 of the partners is an entity mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b);

25

26

(d) a joint venture if 1 of the joint venturers is an entity mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b).

27

28

⁷ Schedule (Important notice to client)

‘Enforcement of client agreement	1
‘48A. A client agreement may be enforced in a court of competent jurisdiction in the same way as another contract.	2 3
‘Agreement may be amended	4
‘48B.(1) A client and a practitioner or firm may agree to amend a client agreement at any time.	5 6
‘(2) However, an agreement to amend a client agreement under section 48 ⁸ must be in writing.	7 8
‘Provision protecting from liability or responsibility prohibited	9
‘48C.(1) A client agreement may not include a provision preventing a civil liability (including liability for negligence) attaching to a practitioner or firm or relieving a practitioner or firm from a responsibility the practitioner or firm would otherwise have as a practitioner or firm.	10 11 12 13
‘(2) However, subsection (1) does not prohibit the inclusion of a qualified advice provision in a client agreement.	14 15
‘(3) In this section—	16
“qualified advice provision” means a provision to the effect that—	17
(a) certain advice to be given to the client may be qualified by, or is conditional on, information not yet available or future events; and	18 19
(b) if the client acts on a part of an advice that is clearly specified as qualified or conditional advice, the practitioner or firm is not liable in relation to the part of the advice to the extent that the information or events make the part incorrect.	20 21 22 23
‘Contingency fees and costs prohibited	24
‘48D.(1) A client agreement must not include a provision by which all or part of fees or costs payable for the work are calculated by reference to the amount of the award or settlement or the value of property that may be	25 26 27

⁸ Section 48 (Usual client agreement)

Civil Justice Reform Bill

recovered in a proceeding to which the work relates.	1
‘(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the extent that the client agreement adopts the scale for the work provided under an Act.	2 3
‘(3) Also, subsection (1) does not prevent a solicitor or firm accepting a lower fee if the actual outcome of the work is less than the outcome sought, for example, the amount recovered is less than the amount sought.	4 5 6
‘Interest in proceeding prohibited	7
‘48E. A client agreement must not include a provision transferring to the practitioner or firm all or part of the client’s interest in a proceeding instead of the client being required to pay the practitioner or firm all or part of fees or costs that would otherwise be payable.	8 9 10 11
‘Effect of non-compliance or prohibited provision	12
‘48F.(1) If a client agreement to which section 48 ⁹ applies does not comply with that section, the client agreement is void.	13 14
‘(2) If a provision is included in a client agreement and inclusion of the provision is prohibited by this part, the provision is void.	15 16
‘Disclosure of client agreement	17
‘48G. In a proceeding before a court or tribunal about work done, or the fees or costs payable for work done, for a client, a practitioner or firm must disclose any client agreement for the work between the practitioner or firm and the client.	18 19 20 21

⁹ Section 48 (Usual client agreement)

‘PART 4B—PAYMENT FOR WORK

‘Division 1—Interpretation

‘Definition for pt 4B

3

‘48H. In this part—

“tribunal costs assessor”, for an assessment, means a person from the tribunal’s register of costs assessors who is approved for the assessment by the chairperson of the tribunal.

‘Division 2—General

8

‘Maximum payment for work

9

‘48I.(1) The maximum amount of fees and costs a practitioner or firm may charge and recover from a client for work done is—

10

11

- (a) an amount calculated in accordance with the client agreement between the practitioner or firm and the client for the work; or
- (b) if there is no client agreement and there is a scale for the work provided under an Act—an amount calculated in accordance with the scale; or
- (c) if there is no client agreement and there is no scale for the work provided under an Act—an amount assessed as a reasonable amount for the work by a tribunal costs assessor.

12

14

15

16

17

18

19

‘(2) However, a practitioner or firm may only charge and recover from the client for an extraordinary item of work if the extraordinary item is expressly authorised by the client.

20

22

‘(3) Subsection (2) does not apply if there is a client agreement for the work specifying a lump sum amount only.

23

24

‘(4) In this section—

25

“extraordinary item of work” means an item of work that would not normally be incurred in doing work similar to the work done for the client.

26

27

28

Civil Justice Reform Bill

‘Division 3—Legal proceedings

‘Prerequisite to legal proceeding to recover payment for work

‘48J.(1) A practitioner or firm may start a proceeding in a court to recover fees or costs from a client only if the practitioner or firm has given the client an account that—

- (a) is in a form agreed to in a client agreement between the practitioner or firm and the client; or
- (b) clearly sets out all items of work done for the client and the amount charged (whether by way of fees or costs) for each item.

‘(2) Further, the practitioner or firm must obtain the court’s leave to start the proceeding if—

- (a) it is 1 month or less since the account was given; or
- (b) the client has applied for an appointment by the clerk of the tribunal of a costs assessor to assess the account and the assessment has not concluded.

‘Court may appoint costs assessor to assess account

‘48K.(1) In a proceeding to recover the fees or costs, the court may—

- (a) appoint a tribunal costs assessor or another person to assess the account; and
- (b) make an order about payment of the appointee’s fee.

‘(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the client and the practitioner or firm are bound by an assessment of the fees or costs by a costs assessor appointed by the clerk of the tribunal.¹⁰

‘Court may have regard to assessor’s assessment

‘48L. In a proceeding to recover the fees or costs, the court may—

- (a) receive in evidence a written costs assessment by an assessor

¹⁰ See section 6ZE (When costs assessment binding).

Civil Justice Reform Bill

appointed under this Act by the clerk of the tribunal or a court;	1
and	2
(b) have regard to a matter contained in the assessment.	3
‘Client may change practitioner	4
‘48M.(1) A client may change practitioner or firm at any time.	5
‘(2) Subsection (1) applies despite any contrary provision in a client agreement between a practitioner or firm and the client.	6 7
‘(3) If a client has a client agreement with a practitioner or firm (the “original practitioner or firm”) and the client changes practitioner or firm, the original practitioner or firm may charge and recover fees and costs from the client for work done before the original practitioner or firm was given notice of the change.	8 9 10 11 12
‘(4) Nothing in this section affects a right a practitioner or firm may have to maintain or enforce a lien or charge for unpaid fees or costs.	13 14
‘Division 4—Other provisions about costs assessors	15
‘Application of div 4	16
‘48N. This division applies for a costs assessor appointed under this Act by the clerk of the tribunal or a court to assess a practitioner’s or firm’s account.	17 18 19
‘Information for costs assessor	20
‘48O.(1) The client, practitioner or firm must comply with all reasonable requests for information made by the assessor if the request will facilitate the assessment.	21 22 23
‘(2) The client, practitioner or firm may apply, to a court having jurisdiction for the amount in the account, for an order about disclosure of the requested information.	24 25 26
‘(3) Compliance with this section does not affect a right the practitioner	27

or firm may have to maintain or enforce a lien or charge for unpaid fees or costs.	1 2
‘Written costs assessment	3
‘48P. The costs assessor must make a written assessment.	4
‘When costs assessment concluded	5
‘48Q. The costs assessment is not concluded until the costs assessor gives a copy of the assessment to the client and the practitioner or firm.	6 7
‘Protection from liability	8
‘48R.(1) The costs assessor is not civilly liable for an act done, or omission made, honestly and without negligence under this Act.	9 10
‘(2) If subsection (1) prevents a civil liability attaching to a costs assessor, the liability attaches instead to the State.	11 12
‘Preservation of confidentiality	13
‘48S.(1) If a person gains confidential information because of being, or an opportunity given by being, a costs assessor, the person must not make a record of the information or intentionally or recklessly disclose the information other than under subsection (2).	14 15 16 17
‘(2) The person may make a record of confidential information, or disclose it to someone else—	18 19
(a) for this Act; or	20
(b) to discharge a function under another law; or	21
(c) for a proceeding in a court or tribunal; or	22

section 48(4)

‘Who to contact if there are problems

‘1. You may contact the Queensland Law Society if you have a complaint about the fees and costs charged or the work performed by your solicitor or firm.

‘2. Here are the phone number and postal address for the Queensland Law Society— (insert phone number and postal address).

‘Client able to negotiate agreement and get legal advice

10

‘3. You have the right to negotiate this client agreement with your solicitor or firm before you sign it.

11

12

‘4. You may obtain independent legal advice before signing this client agreement.

13

14

‘Client able to change solicitor or firm

15

‘5. You may change solicitor or firm at any time even if this client agreement says otherwise.

16

17

‘6. If you change solicitor or firm, it is important for you to give your original solicitor or firm notice of the change as your original solicitor or firm may charge and recover fees and costs from you for work done before notice is given.

18

20

21

‘7. Your original solicitor or firm may keep your file until you pay all fees and costs or reach an agreement about paying them.

22

*Civil Justice Reform Bill‘Agreement about who will do legal work

8. This client agreement must state the names and status (for example, partner/associate/employed solicitor/articled clerk/paralegal/consultant) of the people who will do legal work for you.

‘Agreement about fees and costs payable for work

9. This client agreement is the basis for determining how much you pay for work done by your solicitor or firm.

10. A client agreement may set a lump sum amount for fees and costs.

11. Otherwise, the client agreement must state the basis on which fees and costs will be calculated (whether or not including a lump sum) and give either—

- an estimate of the total amount of fees and costs likely to be payable for the work; or
- if it is not reasonably practicable to estimate the total amount of fees and costs likely to be payable for the work—a range of estimates of the total amount of fees and costs likely to be payable for the work and an explanation of the significant variables that will affect the calculation of the amount.

12. However, your solicitor or firm is not bound by the estimate or range of estimates given in this client agreement.

13. Extraordinary items of work not normally done for similar work must be expressly approved by you even if this client agreement says otherwise.

14. Clause 13 has no application if this client agreement sets a lump sum amount only for fees and costs.

‘Agreement about type and frequency of accounts

15. An account from your solicitor or firm must be in the form agreed to in this client agreement or must clearly set out all items of work done for you and the amount charged for each item.

16. This client agreement should state the intervals for giving you accounts.

‘Advice if work includes litigation

‘17. If the work involves or is likely to involve litigation, this client agreement must include an explanation and estimate of the range of costs you may recover from another party if you are successful or you may be required to pay the other party if you are not successful.

‘Agreement may be amended

‘18. This agreement may be amended if you and your solicitor or firm agree to the changes in writing.

‘When client may be sued for outstanding fees or costs

9

10

12

‘20. However, your solicitor or firm may ask the court for permission to sue before that time.

13

‘Can a client be sued for outstanding fees or costs if the client has applied to the Solicitors Complaints Tribunal for an assessment?

15

‘21. Generally, your solicitor or firm may not sue you for an outstanding account if you have applied to the Solicitors Complaints Tribunal for the appointment of a costs assessor to assess the account and the assessment has not concluded.

17

19

20

‘22. However, your solicitor or firm may ask the court for permission to sue.

21

‘Other remedies

23

‘23. You may have other remedies against your solicitor or firm concerning this agreement or the work done under it.

24

25

‘24. You may obtain independent legal advice about the remedies available.’.

‘Division 2—Procedural

‘Subdivision 1—Constitution of court by judicial registrar

2

‘Judicial registrar’s power to hear and decide applications

3

‘73.(1) A judicial registrar may hear and decide an application prescribed under the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules for this section.

‘(2) For those applications, the judicial registrar constitutes, and may exercise all the jurisdiction and powers of, the court.

‘(3) However, a judicial registrar may not exercise any power of the court to punish for contempt.

‘Subdivision 2—Removal of proceedings

10

‘Removal to Supreme Court

11

‘74.(1) The Supreme Court may order a proceeding pending in a Magistrates Court be transferred to the Supreme Court.

12

13

‘(2) A transfer under subsection (1) may be subject to conditions.

14

‘Removal to Magistrates Court

15

‘75.(1) The Supreme Court may transfer to a Magistrates Court a proceeding pending in the Supreme Court that is within the jurisdiction of a Magistrates Court.

16

18

‘(2) If a proceeding is transferred to a Magistrates Court, that court has the jurisdiction to make an order (including a judgment order) within its competence and the order is enforceable in the same way as another order made by a Magistrates Court.

19

21

22

‘Costs

23

‘76. Unless the court orders otherwise, if a proceeding is transferred

24

Civil Justice Reform Bill

under this division, costs are in accordance with the scale of costs for the court in which the proceeding was pending when the costs were incurred. 1

Division 3—Conferences 3

‘Resolution agreement’ 4

‘77.(1) If, at a relevant conference, the parties agree on a resolution of their dispute or part of it, the agreement must be written down and signed by or for each party and the court. 5

‘(2) The agreement has the same effect as another compromise. 8

‘(3) In this section— 9

“relevant conference” means— 10

(a) a directions conference; or 11

(b) a conference required under the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules because there is a claim for damages for personal injury or death. 12
13

‘Confidentiality’ 14

‘78.(1) Evidence of anything done or said, an admission made, or a document tendered, at a relevant conference about a dispute is admissible at the trial of the dispute or before another civil proceeding in the court or elsewhere only if— 15
16
17
18

(a) all the parties to the dispute agree; or 19

(b) the evidence is a resolution agreement under section 77. 20

‘(2) In subsection (1)— 21

“civil proceeding” does not include a civil proceeding founded on fraud alleged to be connected with, or to have happened during, the directions conference. 22
23
24

“relevant conference” means— 25

(a) a directions conference; or 26

(b) a conference required under the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules because there is a claim for damages for personal injury or death. 27

‘Division 4—Orders	1
‘Court’s power to make orders or give directions	2
‘79.(1) This section applies to a court in making an order or giving a direction under this Act.	3 4
‘(2) Unless otherwise stated in this Act, the court may make the order or give the direction on its own initiative or on an application made to it under this Act.	5 6 7
‘Court able to impose appropriate conditions	8
‘80. If a court has power to make an order, give a direction or leave, or do another thing, the court may make the order, give the direction or leave, or do the other thing on the conditions ¹⁹ the court considers appropriate.	9 10 11
‘Amendment for new cause of action or party	12
‘81.(1) This section applies to an amendment of a claim, anything written on a claim, pleadings, an application or another document in a proceeding.	13 14
‘(2) The court may order an amendment to be made, or grant leave to a party to make an amendment, even though—	15 16
(a) the amendment will include or substitute a cause of action or add a new party; or	17 18
(b) the cause of action included or substituted arose after the proceeding was started; or	19 20
(c) a relevant period of limitation, current when the proceeding was started, has ended.	21 22
‘(3) This section applies despite the Limitation of Actions Act 1974 .	23
‘Order binds persons who are represented	24
‘82.(1) This section applies to an order made in a proceeding started and	25

¹⁹ “Condition” includes term—schedule 2 (Dictionary).

Civil Justice Reform Bill

continued by or against 1 or more persons (the “representative party”) who have the same interest in the proceeding as representing all of the persons who have the same interest and could have been parties in the proceeding.

‘(2) Unless the court orders otherwise, in addition to binding the parties to the proceeding, the order binds the persons who have the same interest as the representative party and could have been parties in the proceeding.

‘(3) The order may be enforced against a person not named as a party only with the court’s leave.

‘Interpleader orders

‘83.(1) On an application for relief by way of interpleader, the court may do 1 or more of the following—

- (a) if a proceeding is pending against the applicant—order a claimant be included as a defendant in the proceeding in addition to or in substitution for the applicant;
- (b) order a question between the claimants be stated and tried and direct which of the claimants is to be the plaintiff and which the defendant and give any necessary directions for the trial;
- (c) order the applicant to pay or transfer all or any of the property in dispute or the proceeds of sale into court or otherwise dispose of the property or proceeds of sale;
- (d) if a claimant claims to be entitled to any of the property by way of security for a debt—make orders for the sale of all or part of the property and for the application of the proceeds of sale;
- (e) decide summarily a question of law or fact arising on the application;
- (f) make an order it considers appropriate, including a judgment order finally disposing of all issues arising in the proceeding.

(2) If—

- (a) an application for relief by way of interpleader is made; and
- (b) several proceedings are pending in the court for or about any or all of the property in dispute; and

Civil Justice Reform Bill

(c) the court makes an order in any 2 or more of the proceedings; 1 the order is binding on all the parties to all the proceedings to which it 2 applies. 3

‘Effect of default judgment order 4

‘84. A default judgment order recorded and issued by a registrar has the 5 same effect as if it were a judgment order made by the court. 6

‘Dismissal of proceedings for want of prosecution 7

‘85.(1) This section applies to the District Court and Magistrates 8
 Courts.²⁰ 9

‘(2) If 2 years have passed since the last step was taken in a proceeding, 10 the court may dismiss the proceeding. 11

‘(3) For this section, an application on which no order was made is taken 12 not to be a step. 13

‘Division 5—Enforcement 14

‘Subdivision 1—Enforcement generally 15

‘Demand for compliance unnecessary 16

‘86.(1) It is not necessary to demand compliance with an order before 17 starting enforcement proceedings for the order. 18

‘(2) If, under an Act, the rules or an order of the court, an order must be 19 served on an enforcement debtor before the order may be enforced against 20 the enforcement debtor, the order may be served without a demand for 21 compliance. 22

²⁰ The Supreme Court has inherent power to dismiss proceedings for want of prosecution.

‘Interest recoverable on enforcement

‘87. The rate of interest payable on a money order debt is the rate set under the Supreme Court Act 1995, section 48,²¹ or, if the parties agree to a higher rate of interest, the higher rate.

‘Variation of order in partnership name

5

‘88. Despite section 89, the court may vary an order against a partnership in the partnership name to make it an order against the persons who were partners when the cause of action arose.

‘Enforcement against partnership

9

‘89.(1) An order against partners suing or sued in the name of the partnership may be enforced against any 1 or more of the following—

10

11

(a) partnership property;

12

(b) a partner who filed a notice of intention to defend;

13

(c) a person who has admitted being a partner;

14

(d) a person who the court has decided is a partner;

15

(e) a person who has been individually served as a partner with the originating process and who has not filed a notice of intention to defend.

16

18

‘(2) This section has effect subject to the Partnership (Limited Liability) Act 1988, section 21.²²

19

20

²¹ Section 48 (Interest on debt under judgment or order)

²² Partnership (Limited Liability) Act 1988, section 21—

‘Legal proceedings

‘21.(1) Legal proceedings other than proceedings in relation to an offence may be brought by or against the partners in a limited partnership in the firm name in which the partnership is registered under this Act.

‘(2) Action by way of execution under or enforcement of a judgment obtained in an action against a limited partnership sued in its firm name shall not be taken against the property or person of a limited partner in the partnership except with the prior leave of the Supreme Court.’.

‘Variation of order in business name	1
‘90. Despite section 91, the court may vary an order, in relation to a business, made in the name or style under which 1 or more persons carry on the business (whether or not the name or style is registered under the Business Names Act 1962), to make it an order against a person carrying on the business.	2 3 4 5 6
‘Enforcement against property of a business	7
‘91.(1) This section applies if—	8
(a) a proceeding is brought against a person in relation to a business carried on by the person under a name or style other than the person’s own name (whether or not the name or style is registered under the Business Names Act 1962); and	9 10 11 12
(b) the proceeding is started in the name or style under which the person carries on business; and	13 14
(c) the proceeding is continued by the court’s leave.	15
‘(2) An order in the proceeding may be enforced against any property of the person carrying on the business.	16 17
‘Subdivision 2—Enforcement warrants	18
‘Period of enforcement warrant	19
‘92. An enforcement warrant ends 1 year after it issues unless the warrant states that it ends at an earlier time.	20 21
‘Payment under enforcement warrant	22
‘93. A payment under an enforcement warrant discharges the person making the payment to the extent of the payment.	23 24
‘Enforcement warrant	25
‘93A.(1) To enforce a money order (but not an order for the payment of	26

Civil Justice Reform Bill

money into court), an enforcement creditor must obtain a warrant from the court. 1 2

‘(2) An enforcement warrant may contain any order directed to enforcing a money order including an order authorising— 3
4

- (a) an enforcement officer to seize and sell in satisfaction of the money order debt all real and personal property (other than property exempted under the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules) in which an enforcement debtor has a legal or beneficial interest; or 5
8
- (b) redirection to an enforcement creditor of certain debts, belonging to an enforcement debtor, from a third person; or 9 10
- (c) redirection to an enforcement creditor of particular earnings, of an enforcement debtor, from a third person; or 11 12
- (d) satisfaction of the money order debt by instalment payments by an enforcement debtor. 13 14

‘(3) However, only the Supreme Court may issue an enforcement warrant containing a charging order. 15
16

‘(4) In this section— 17

“charging order” includes an order charging all or part of an enforcement debtor’s legal or equitable interest in 1 or more of the following— 18
19

- (a) annuities; 20
- (b) debentures; 21
- (c) stocks; 22
- (d) bonds; 23
- (e) shares; 24
- (f) marketable securities; 25
- (g) prescribed interests; 26
- (h) units of shares, marketable securities or prescribed interests. 27

‘Securities held by enforcement officer 28

‘93B.(1) An enforcement officer holds seized cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, specialties or other securities for money (“seized” 29 documents”) as security for the amount to be recovered under the enforcement warrant, for the benefit of the enforcement creditor. 1

‘(2) The enforcement officer may receive an amount payable under a seized document from the person liable under it. 3
4

‘(3) The Uniform Civil Procedure Rules may make provision about proceedings to recover amounts under a seized document, including who may start a proceeding. 5

‘Redirection of joint funds 8

‘93C.(1) This section applies if the debt belonging to the enforcement debtor is a fund of money owned by the enforcement debtor and others (a “joint fund”). 9
10
11

‘(2) An enforcement warrant may authorise redirection to an enforcement creditor of a joint fund to the extent of the enforcement debtor’s entitlement. 12
13
14

‘(3) Unless, on application of a fund owner or enforcement creditor, the court decides the actual beneficial entitlement of each fund owner, it is presumed a joint fund is owned by the fund owners in equal shares. 15
16

‘State debts 18

‘93D.(1) If the debt belonging to an enforcement debtor is from a public sector unit and payable out of public accounts (a “State debt”), an application for an enforcement warrant and the enforcement warrant must name the chief executive, by title, of the public sector unit as the third person in whose hands the State debt is redirected. 19 20
21
22
23

‘(2) Subsection (1) applies despite the Crown Proceedings Act 1980, section 8²³. 24
25

‘(3) In this section— 26

²³ The Crown Proceedings Act 1980, section 8(1)—

‘Subject to this Act and any other Act or law, a claim by or against the Crown may be made and enforced by a proceeding by or against the Crown under the title the ‘State of Queensland’.’.

“public accounts” see Financial Administration and Audit Act 1977 , section 10. ²⁴	1 2
“public sector unit” means any of the following—	3
(a) a department or part of a department;	4
(b) a public service office or part of a public service office;	5
(c) an agency, authority, commission, corporation, instrumentality, office, or other entity, established under an Act or under State authorisation for a public or State purpose;	6 7 8
(d) a part of an entity mentioned in paragraph (c).	9
‘Redirection of partnership debts	10
‘93E. A court may issue an enforcement warrant authorising redirection to an enforcement creditor of certain debts, belonging to an enforcement debtor, from a partnership carrying on business in Queensland even if a partner resides outside Queensland.	11 12 13 14
‘Account with financial institution	15
‘93F.(1) An amount standing to the credit of an enforcement debtor in an account in a financial institution is, for enforcing a money order, a debt payable to the enforcement debtor, even if any of the following conditions applicable to the account have not been satisfied—	16 17 18 19
(a) a condition requiring a demand or notice to be made before an amount is withdrawn;	20 21
(b) a condition requiring a personal application to be made before an amount is withdrawn;	22 23
(c) a condition requiring the production of a deposit book or a receipt for an amount deposited in the account before an amount is	24 25

²⁴ The Financial Administration and Audit Act 1977, section 10(1)—

‘The public accounts are to be kept by the Treasurer and are to consist of—

- (a) the consolidated fund;
- (b) the trust and special funds.’.

Civil Justice Reform Bill

withdrawn;	1
(d) a similar condition.	2
‘(2) Subsection (1) applies, with any changes necessary, to an amount that is placed to the credit of an enforcement debtor in an account in a financial institution between the date of the enforcement warrant ordering the redirection and any hearing deciding the validity of the warrant.	3 4 5 6
‘Enforcement against the third person	7
‘93G.(1) If a third person—	8
(a) does not comply with an enforcement warrant authorising redirection of a debt from the third person; and	9 10
(b) does not file a notice of objection; and	11
(c) fails to dispute his or her liability to pay the debt;	12
the enforcement creditor has the same entitlement to enforce the debt as the enforcement debtor had.	13 14
‘(2) To remove any doubt, it is declared that if the debt is a State debt under section 93D, ²⁵ the Crown Proceedings Act 1980 , section 11 applies. ²⁶	15 16 17
‘Subdivision 3—Offences	18
‘Employment protection if enforcement warrant for redirection of earnings	19 20
‘93H. An employer must not dismiss an employee, or otherwise prejudice an employee in his or her employment, because an enforcement warrant authorising redirection of the employee’s earnings has been made.	21 22 23
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	24

‘Proceeding if no grant of representation when originating process issues

12

13

‘93J.(1) If—

14

- (a) an originating process names as a defendant or respondent a person who is dead when the originating process issues; and
- (b) the cause of action survives the person’s death; and
- (c) a grant of representation has not been made when the originating process issues;

15

16

17

18

19

the proceeding is taken to have been brought against the person’s estate.

20

‘(2) However, if a grant of representation is made after the originating process issues, then, unless the court orders otherwise, the proceeding is afterwards taken to be against the person’s personal representative in the personal representative’s capacity as personal representative of the person’s estate.

21

23

24

25

‘(3) Even if a grant of representation has not been made when an order is made in the proceeding, the order binds the estate to the same extent as if a grant had been made and a personal representative of the deceased had been a party to the proceeding.’

basis of taxation specified under the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules as the equivalent basis of taxation.

‘Act to prevail over Supreme Court Act 1995

‘134.(1) If a provision of the Supreme Court Act 1995 is inconsistent with this Act, this Act prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.

‘(2) In this section—

“inconsistency” includes—

- (a) direct inconsistency; and
- (b) covering the field inconsistency.

“this Act” includes the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules made under this Act.

‘Application of Uniform Civil Procedure Rules

‘135.(1) On the commencement of the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules, those rules apply to the next step or application in a proceeding pending in the Supreme Court, District Court or a Magistrates Court that can reasonably be taken in compliance with those rules.

‘(2) If a difficulty arises in the application of subsection (1) to a particular proceeding in a court, the court may, on application by a party or on its own initiative, make an order it considers appropriate to resolve the difficulty.

‘Transitional—abolition of Circuit Courts

‘136.(1) On the commencement of this section—

- (a) an order made by a Circuit Court continues to have effect as an order of the Supreme Court; and
- (b) anything done or existing in relation to a previous Circuit Court continues, and is taken to be done or existing in relation to the Supreme Court; and
- (c) a process pending in a previous Circuit Court is to be continued in the Supreme Court.

Civil Justice Reform Bill

‘(2) In an Act, other than the Supreme Court Act 1995, or another document, if the context permits, a reference to Circuit Courts or a Circuit Court is taken to be a reference to the Supreme Court. 1

‘(3) However, this section does not apply if its application would limit the jurisdiction or power of the Supreme Court in any way. 4

‘Saving of former court rules—Civil Justice Reform Act 1998 6

‘137. A rule in force immediately before the commencement of this section that was made under section 117,³¹ as in force immediately before the commencement— 7
