	‘18.(1) This part is about the chief executive obtaining the criminal histories of persons engaged by the department and other information about the persons.	8 9 10
	‘(2) Each of the following persons is “engaged by the department” —	11
	(a) a public service employee in the department;	12
	(b) an honorary officer;	13
	(c) an agent;	14
	(d) a person working in the department as a volunteer or as a student on work experience.	15 16
	‘Purpose	17
	‘19. The purpose of this part is to ensure the chief executive has all the relevant information the chief executive needs to assess a person’s suitability to be, or continue to be, engaged by the department.	18 19 20
	‘This part applies despite the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986	21 22
	‘20. This part applies to a person despite anything in the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986 .	23 24

Family Services Amendment

‘Chief executive to advise of duties of disclosure etc.

‘21. Before a person is engaged by the department, the chief executive must tell the person—

- (a) of the person’s duties of disclosure under this part; and
- (b) that the chief executive may obtain the information about the person mentioned in section 26;⁵ and
- (c) that guidelines for dealing with information obtained by the chief executive under this part are available from the chief executive on request.

‘Division 2—Disclosure of criminal history

‘Persons seeking to be engaged by the department must disclose criminal history

‘22. A person seeking to be engaged by the department must disclose to the chief executive, before being engaged—

- (a) whether or not the person has a criminal history; and
- (b) if the person has a criminal history—the person’s complete criminal history.

‘Persons engaged by the department must disclose changes in criminal history

‘23.(1) If there is a change in the criminal history of a person engaged by the department, the person must immediately disclose to the chief executive the details of the change.

‘(2) For a person who does not have a criminal history, there is taken to be a change in the person’s criminal history if the person acquires a criminal history.

⁵ Section 26 (Chief executive may obtain report from commissioner of police service)

Family Services Amendment

‘Requirements for disclosure	1
‘24.(1) To comply with section 22 or 23, a person must give the chief executive a disclosure in the approved form.	2 3
‘(2) The information disclosed by a person about a conviction or charge of an offence in the person’s criminal history must include—	4 5
(a) the existence of the conviction or charge; and	6
(b) when the offence was committed or alleged to have been committed; and	7 8
(c) the details of the offence or alleged offence; and	9
(d) for a conviction—whether or not a conviction was recorded and the sentence imposed on the person.	10 11
‘False, misleading or incomplete disclosure or failure to disclose	12
‘25.(1) A person must not—	13
(a) give the chief executive a disclosure for the purposes of this division that is false, misleading or incomplete in a material particular; or	14 15 16
(b) fail to give the chief executive a disclosure as required under section 23, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	17 18
Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.	19
‘(2) Subsection (1)(a) does not apply to a person in relation to particular information that the person is unable to provide if the person—	20 21
(a) indicates in the disclosure the information that the person is unable to provide; and	22 23
(b) otherwise gives the information in the disclosure to the best of the person’s ability.	24 25
‘(3) In a proceeding for an offence against subsection (1)(a), it is enough for a charge to state that the disclosure was, without specifying which, ‘false, misleading or incomplete’.	26 27 28

‘Division 3—Chief executive may obtain information from other entities about criminal history and certain investigations	1 2
‘Chief executive may obtain report from commissioner of police service	3
‘26.(1) This section applies to a person who—	4
(a) is engaged by the department; or	5
(b) seeks to be engaged by the department and has given the chief executive a disclosure for the purposes of division 2.	6 7
‘(2) The chief executive may ask the commissioner of the police service to give the chief executive the following information about the person—	8 9
(a) a written report about the person’s criminal history;	10
(b) a brief description of the circumstances of a conviction or charge mentioned in the person’s criminal history;	11 12
(c) information about an investigation relating to the possible commission of a serious offence by the person.	13 14
‘(3) Subject to subsections (4) and (5), the commissioner of the police service must comply with the request.	15 16
‘(4) The duty imposed on the commissioner of the police service to comply with the request—	17 18
(a) applies only to information in the commissioner’s possession or to which the commissioner has access; and	19 20
(b) in relation to information mentioned in subsection (2)(c)—applies only to information recorded on a central electronic database kept by the commissioner.	21 22 23
‘(5) The commissioner of the police service must not give information about an investigation relating to the possible commission of a serious offence by the person if—	24 25 26
(a) the commissioner is reasonably satisfied that giving the information—	27 28
(i) may prejudice or otherwise hinder an investigation to which the information may be relevant; or	29 30
(ii) may lead to the identification of an informant; or	31

Family Services Amendment

(iii) may affect the safety of a police officer, complainant or other person; or	1 2
(b) for an investigation that has been completed—the investigation has not led, and the commissioner is reasonably satisfied it is unlikely to lead, to a reasonable suspicion that the person committed a serious offence; or	3 4 5 6
(c) for an investigation that has not been completed—the commissioner is reasonably satisfied the investigation is unlikely to lead to a reasonable suspicion that the person committed a serious offence.	7 8 9 10
 ‘Prosecuting authority to notify chief executive about committal, conviction etc.	 11 12
‘27.(1) This section applies if a person is charged with an indictable offence and the commissioner of the police service or the director of public prosecutions (a “prosecuting authority”) is aware that the person is engaged by the department.	13 14 15 16
‘(2) If the person is committed by a court for trial for an indictable offence, the prosecuting authority must, within 7 days after the committal, give written notice to the chief executive of the following—	17 18 19
(a) the person’s name;	20
(b) the court;	21
(c) particulars of the offence;	22
(d) the date of the committal;	23
(e) the court to which the person was committed.	24
‘(3) If the person is convicted before a court of an indictable offence, the prosecuting authority must, within 7 days after the conviction, give written notice to the chief executive of the following—	25 26 27
(a) the person’s name;	28
(b) the court;	29
(c) particulars of the offence;	30
(d) the date of the conviction;	31

Family Services Amendment

(e) the sentence imposed by the court. 1

‘(4) If the person is convicted of an indictable offence, and has appealed 2 the conviction, and the appeal is finally decided or has otherwise ended, the 3 prosecuting authority must, within 7 days after the decision or the day the 4 appeal otherwise ends, give written notice to the chief executive of the 5 following— 6

(a) the person’s name; 7

(b) particulars of the offence; 8

(c) the date of the decision or other ending of the appeal; 9

(d) if the appeal was decided— 10

(i) the court in which it was decided; and 11

(ii) particulars of the decision. 12

‘(5) If the prosecution process ends without the person being convicted 13 of an indictable offence, the prosecuting authority must, within 7 days after 14 the end, give written notice to the chief executive about the following— 15

(a) the person’s name; 16

(b) if relevant—the court in which the prosecution process ended; 17

(c) particulars of the offence; 18

(d) the date the prosecution process ended. 19

‘(6) For subsection (5), a prosecution process ends if— 20

(a) an indictment is presented against the person and— 21

(i) a nolle prosequi is entered on the indictment; or 22

(ii) the person is acquitted; or 23

(b) the prosecution process has otherwise ended. 24

(2) The person must not disclose the information, or give access to the document, to anyone else.	6 7
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment.	8
‘(3) Subsection (2) does not apply to the disclosure of information, or giving of access to a document, about a person—	9 10
(a) to a public service employee in the department, or a selection panel member, for the purpose of assessing the person’s suitability to be, or continue to be, engaged by the department; or	11 12 13
(b) with the person’s consent; or	14
(c) if the disclosure or giving of access is otherwise required under an Act.	15 16
(4) In this section—	17
“ selection panel member ” means a member of a panel formed to make a recommendation to the chief executive about a person’s engagement by the department.	18 19 20
‘Guidelines for dealing with information	21
‘31.(1) The chief executive must make guidelines, consistent with this Act, for dealing with information obtained by the chief executive under this part.	22 23 24
‘(2) The purpose of the guidelines is to ensure—	25
(a) natural justice is afforded to the persons about whom the information is obtained; and	26 27
(b) only relevant information is used in assessing the persons’ suitability to be, or continue to be, engaged by the department; and	28 29
(c) decisions about the suitability of persons, based on the information, are made consistently.	30 31

Family Services Amendment

‘(3) The chief executive must give a copy of the guidelines, on request, to a person seeking to be engaged, or engaged, by the department.’. 1
