The Parliament of Queensland enacts—	1
PART 1—PRELIMINARY	2
Division 1—Introduction	3
1 Short title	4
This Act may be cited as the Pest Management Act 2001 .	5
2 Commencement	6
This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.	7
3 Act binds all persons	8
(1) This Act binds all persons, including the State.	9
(2) Nothing in this Act makes the State liable to be prosecuted for an offence.	10 11
4 Main object of Act	12
(1) The main object of this Act is to protect the public from—	13
(a) health risks associated with pest control activities and fumigation activities; and	14 15
(b) the adverse results of the ineffective control of pests.	16
(2) The object is to be achieved by—	17
(a) establishing a licensing regime to—	18
(i) regulate pest control activities and fumigation activities; and	19
(ii) ensure the activities are carried out by pest management technicians in a safe and competent way; and	20 21
(b) providing for compliance with this Act to be monitored and enforced.	22 23

5	Definitions	1
	The dictionary in schedule 3 defines particular words used in this Act.	2
	Division 2—Application	3
6	Definitions for div 2	4
	In this division—	5
	“ aerial distribution ” means spraying, spreading or dispersing, whether intentionally or not, from an aircraft in flight.	6 7
	“ agricultural chemical product ” has the meaning given by the Agvet Code of Queensland, section 4. <sup>1</sup>	8 9
	“ household pesticide ” means a household pesticide under section 7(i).	10
	“ primary production ” means the production, storage, or preparation for marketing or export, of agricultural or horticultural products.	11 12

1 Agvet Code of Queensland, section 4—

4 Definition of agricultural chemical product

(1) This section defines what is meant by an agricultural chemical product for the purposes of this Code.

(2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), an agricultural chemical product is a substance or mixture of substances that is represented, imported, manufactured, supplied or used as a means of directly or indirectly—

- (a) destroying, stupefying, repelling, inhibiting the feeding of, or preventing infestation by or attacks of, any pest in relation to a plant, a place or a thing; or
- (b) destroying a plant; or
- (c) modifying the physiology of a plant or pest so as to alter its natural development, productivity, quality or reproductive capacity; or
- (d) modifying an effect of another agricultural chemical product; or
- (e) attracting a pest for the purpose of destroying it.

(3) An agricultural chemical product includes a substance or mixture of substances declared by the regulations to be an agricultural chemical product.

(4) An agricultural chemical product does not include:

- (a) a veterinary chemical product; or
- (b) a substance or mixture of substances declared by the regulations not to be an agricultural chemical product.

7 Non-application of Act	1
This Act does not apply to the following pest management activities—	2
(a) a pest control activity carried out by aerial distribution of an agricultural chemical product or of a preparation containing an agricultural chemical product; <sup>2</sup>	3 4 5
(b) a pest control activity being used in primary production, regardless of whether the activity is carried out by the producer or another entity;	6 7 8
Examples for paragraph (b)—	9
1. Spraying pesticide on an agricultural crop by using a motor vehicle with attached spray booms.	10 11
2. Laying baits to protect stockfeed from attack by rats.	12
3. Dipping fruit in a pesticide to protect the fruit from damage by insects.	13
(c) a fumigation activity carried out on a farming property in primary production;	14 15
Examples for paragraph (c)—	16
1. Sterilising soil on a farming property by using a fumigant to prepare the soil for planting an agricultural crop.	17 18
2. Fumigating a grain storage facility on a farming property.	19
(d) a pest control activity being used in relation to processing grain or seed for use as food for animals;	20 21
(e) a pest control activity relating to the caring for, or growing of, a plant at a place that is primarily used for recreational or sporting activities;	22 23 24
Example for paragraph (e)—	25
Spraying a bowling green to protect it from damage by insects.	26
(f) the use of an approved preservative treatment under the Timber Utilisation and Marketing Act 1987 by a person authorised under that Act to use the treatment;	27 28 29
(g) a pest control activity being used to control a pest on an animal;	30

2 The Agricultural Chemicals Distribution Control Act 1966 contains provisions about the aerial distribution of agricultural products or preparations containing agricultural products.

Pest Management Bill 2001

Example for paragraph (g)—	1
Using a pesticide to control fleas or ticks on a dog.	2
(h) a pest control activity carried out by a person at residential premises—	3
(i) occupied by the person, whether or not the person is the owner of the premises; or	5
(ii) owned by the person but not occupied by any person;	7
(i) a pest control activity carried out by a person using only a pesticide (a “ household pesticide ”)—	8
(i) ordinarily used for household use; and	10
(ii) ordinarily available for purchase in a retail store where groceries are sold; and	11
	12
(iii) packaged in a way the pesticide is ordinarily available for purchase in a store mentioned in subparagraph (ii).	13
	14
Example of a pesticide for paragraph (i)—	15
A spray pack of pesticide available for purchase at a supermarket.	16
8 Whether pest control activity is used in primary production	17
(1) Without limiting section 7(b), a pest control activity is being used in primary production if the activity is being used in relation to an unprocessed product—	18
	20
(a) while the product is in the form in which it left the place where it was produced; and	21
	22
(b) until the product is transported to a place where—	23
(i) it is processed from the form in which it left the place where it was produced into another form; or	24
	25
(ii) it is stored by a processor before being processed into another form.	26
	27
Examples for paragraph (b)—	28
1. Wheat until it is transported to a flour mill.	29
2. Sugar cane until it is transported to a sugar mill.	30
3. Cattle until they are transported to an abattoir.	31

Pest Management Bill 2001

(2) In this section—	1
“ processor ” means a person who processes an agricultural or horticultural product from the form in which it left the place where it was produced into another form.	2 3 4
“ unprocessed product ” means an agricultural or horticultural product that is to be processed from the form in which it left the place where it was produced into another form.	5 6 7
9 Pest control activities using household pesticides	8
Despite section 7(i), this Act applies to a pest control activity carried out by a person using a household pesticide as part of a business of providing a pest control activity.	9 10 11
Division 3—Exemptions
10 Limited exemptions under regulation	12 13
(1) A regulation may exempt from this Act or any of its provisions all or any of the following—	14 15
(a) a particular pest management activity or a type of pest management activity;	16 17
(b) the use of a particular fumigant or pesticide;	18
(c) the use of a particular form or concentration of a fumigant or pesticide;	19 20
(d) a particular method of use of a fumigant or pesticide.	21
(2) An exemption may be given under a regulation only if the activity, use or method could be reasonably expected to pose no, or only a negligible, health risk to any person.	22 23 24

PART 2—LICENCES

Division 1—Licences generally

11 Licence is required to carry out pest management activity

A person must not carry out a pest management activity unless the person is—

(a) a pest management technician who holds a licence for the activity; or

(b) a trainee who is being properly supervised by a pest management technician who holds a licence for the activity.

Maximum penalty—1000 penalty units.

10

12 Restriction on application for licence

11

Only an individual may apply for a licence.

12

13 Transfer of licence prohibited

13

A licence may not be transferred.

14

Division 2—Suitability to hold licences

15

14 Suitability of person to hold licence

16

(1) In deciding whether a person is a suitable person to hold, or continue to hold, a licence the chief executive may have regard to all of the following—

17

19

(a) the person's skills and competency to carry out a pest management activity under the licence;

20

(b) the person's physical and mental capacity to carry out a pest management activity under the licence;

22

(c) if the person has held a licence or pest management authority that was affected—

(i)	by the imposition of a condition—the nature of the condition and the reason for its imposition; or	1 2
(ii)	by a suspension or cancellation—the reason for the suspension or cancellation; or	3 4
(iii)	in another way—the way it was affected and why it was affected;	5 6
(d)	whether disciplinary action relating to a pest management activity has been taken against the person under—	7 8
(i)	repealed section 101 of the Queensland Building Services Authority Act 1991 ; or	9 10
(ii)	the Queensland Building Tribunal Act 2000 , part 5, division 3; <sup>3</sup>	11 12
(e)	if the person has a conviction, other than a spent conviction, for a relevant offence, the nature of the offence and the circumstances of its commission;	13 14 15
(f)	any other issue relevant to the person’s ability to competently and safely carry out a pest management activity.	16 17
(2)	In this section—	18
	“repealed section 101 of the Queensland Building Services Authority Act 1991” means section 101 of that Act as in force before the section was omitted by the Queensland Building Tribunal Act 2000 .	19 20 21
15	Requirement to undergo health assessment	22
(1)	This section applies if the chief executive, in deciding whether a person is a suitable person to hold, or to continue to hold, a licence, or to hold a licence as proposed to be varied under an application under section 34(1), <sup>4</sup> reasonably believes it is necessary to obtain an assessment of the person’s physical and mental capacity to carry out a pest management activity under the licence (a “health assessment” ).	23 24 25 26 27 28
(2)	The chief executive may require the person to undergo a health assessment by a doctor.	29 30

3 Queensland Building Tribunal Act 2000, part 5 (Particular jurisdiction of the tribunal), division 3 (Disciplinary proceedings)

4 Section 34 (Varying licence—application by pest management technician)

(3) The chief executive must give the person a notice stating—	1
(a) the reason for the assessment; and	2
(b) the name, position, if any, and qualifications of the doctor who is to conduct the assessment; and	3 4
(c) the reasonable place where the assessment is to be conducted; and	5 6
(d) the reasonable day and time when the assessment is to be conducted.	7 8
(4) A doctor who conducts a health assessment must give the chief executive a written assessment report (an “ assessment report ”).	9 10
(5) The assessment report must include the doctor’s findings about the person’s mental and physical capacity to carry out a pest management activity under the licence.	11 12 13
16 Applicant failing to undergo health assessment	14
(1) This section applies if—	15
(a) a person who makes an application to the chief executive is required under section 15 to undergo a health assessment; and	16 17
(b) the person fails, without reasonable excuse, to undergo the assessment.	18 19
(2) The person’s application is taken to have been withdrawn.	20
17 Use of assessment report	21
(1) An assessment report is not admissible in a proceeding, other than a review or appeal started under part 4 (a “ part 4 proceeding ”). <sup>5</sup>	22 23
(2) A person can not be compelled to produce the report, or to give evidence about the report or its contents, in a proceeding, other than a part 4 proceeding.	24 25 26
(3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply if the report is admitted or produced, or evidence about the report or its contents is given, with the consent of the person to whom the report relates.	27 28 29

5 Part 4 (Reviews and appeals)

(4) In this section—	1
“assessment report” includes a copy of the report, or a part of the report or copy.	2 3
18 Payment for health assessment and report	4
A doctor who conducts a health assessment and prepares an assessment report for the chief executive is entitled to be paid for his or her work by the chief executive.	5 6 7
Division 3—Applications for licences	8
19 Requirements about application for licence	9
An application for a licence must—	10
(a) be made to the chief executive; and	11
(b) be in the approved form; and	12
(c) be accompanied by the fee prescribed under a regulation.	13
20 Further information or documents to support application for licence	14 15
(1) The chief executive may, by notice given to the applicant, require the applicant to give the chief executive, within a reasonable period of at least 21 days stated in the notice, further information or a document the chief executive reasonably requires to decide the application.	16 17 18 19
(2) The chief executive may, in the notice, require the applicant to verify the further information or document by statutory declaration.	20 21
(3) The applicant is taken to have withdrawn the application if the applicant does not comply with a requirement under subsection (1) or (2) within the stated period.	22 23 24

Division 4—Decisions about applications for licences21 Decision about application for licence

(1) The chief executive must consider the application and either grant, or refuse to grant, the application.

(2) The chief executive may grant the application only if the chief executive is satisfied the applicant—

(a) is at least 17 years; and

(b) is a suitable person to hold the licence applied for;<sup>6</sup> and

(c) holds a pest management qualification relevant to a pest management activity the applicant intends to carry out under the licence.

(3) If the chief executive decides to grant the application, the chief executive must, as soon as practicable, issue the licence applied for to the applicant.

(4) If the chief executive decides to refuse to grant the application, the chief executive must, as soon as practicable, give the applicant an information notice about the decision.

22 Failure to decide application

(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), if the chief executive fails to decide the application within 60 days after its receipt, the failure is taken to be a decision by the chief executive to refuse to grant the application.

(2) Subsection (3) applies if the chief executive has—

(a) under section 20(1), required the applicant to give the chief executive further information or a document; or

(b) under section 15, required the applicant to undergo a health assessment.

(3) The chief executive is taken to have refused to grant the application if the chief executive does not decide the application before the expiry of 60 days after the chief executive receives the further information or

document, verified, if required, by statutory declaration, or an assessment report.	1 2
(4) This section is subject to section 23.	3
23 Further consideration of application for licence	4
(1) This section applies if the chief executive considers more time is needed to make a decision about the application because of the complexity of the matters that need to be considered in deciding the application.	5 6 7
Example of an application likely to raise complex matters—	8
An application requiring the chief executive to obtain and consider further information about the applicant from a foreign regulatory authority.	9 10
(2) The chief executive may at any time before the final consideration day give notice to the applicant that—	11 12
(a) because of the complexity of the matters that need to be considered in deciding the application, the chief executive needs more time to decide the application; and	13 14 15
(b) the period within which the chief executive must decide the application is extended to a day (the “ extended day ”) that is 60 days after the final consideration day.	16 17 18
(3) Also, the applicant and chief executive may, at any time before the final consideration day, agree in writing on a day (the “ agreed extended day ”) by which the application is to be decided.	19 20 21
(4) The chief executive is taken to have refused to grant the application if the chief executive does not decide the application by the latest of the following days—	22 23 24
(a) if the chief executive has given a notice to the applicant under subsection (2)—the extended day;	25 26
(b) if there is an agreement between the applicant and chief executive under subsection (3)—the agreed extended day;	27 28
(5) In this section—	31
“ final consideration day ” means the latest of the following days—	32
(a) the day that is 60 days after receipt of the application;	33

- (b) if the chief executive has, under section 20, required the applicant to give the chief executive further information or a document—the day that is 60 days after the chief executive receives the further information or document verified, if required, by statutory declaration;
- (c) if the chief executive has, under section 15, required the applicant to undergo a health assessment—the day that is 60 days after the chief executive receives an assessment report.

*Division 5—Issue of licences24 Form of licence

- (1) A licence must be in the approved form.
- (2) The licence must—
- (a) contain a recent photograph of the pest management technician; and
- (b) state the following particulars—
- (i) the pest management technician’s name;
- (ii) the licence number;
- (iii) the date of issue of the licence;
- (iv) the date the licence expires;
- (v) each pest management activity that may be carried out under the licence;
- (vi) if a fumigation activity may be carried out under the licence only in a certain site environment, the site environment;
- (vii) each condition imposed under section 26(2).

25 Term of licence

The chief executive may issue a licence for a period up to 5 years.

Division 6—Conditions of licences		1
26	Conditions of licence	2
	(1) A licence is subject to the following conditions—	3
	(a) the pest management technician may carry out only a pest management activity stated in the technician’s licence;	4 5
	(b) if a fumigation activity may be carried out under the licence only in a certain site environment, the pest management technician may carry out the activity only in the environment;	6 7 8
	(c) the pest management technician must not use a fumigant or pesticide that is a registered chemical product in contravention of the Chemical Usage (Agricultural and Veterinary) Control Act 1988 , section 8 or 8A. <sup>7</sup>	9 10 11 12
	(2) The chief executive may issue a licence on additional conditions the chief executive reasonably considers necessary or desirable to protect persons from health risks associated with a pest management activity.	13 14 15
	(3) If the chief executive decides to issue a licence on additional conditions, the chief executive must, as soon as practicable, give the applicant for the licence an information notice about the decision.	16 17 18
	(4) In this section—	19
	“ registered chemical product ” has the meaning given by the Agvet Code of Queensland, section 3. <sup>8</sup>	20 21
27	Contravention of condition	22
	(1) A pest management technician must not contravene a condition of the technician’s licence.	23 24
	Maximum penalty—200 penalty units.	25

8 Agvet Code of Queensland, section 3—

“registered chemical product” means a chemical product registered under Part 2 of the Agvet Code of this jurisdiction.

(2) The penalty under subsection (1) may be imposed whether or not the licence is cancelled or suspended because of the contravention. 1

Division 7—Renewals of licences 3

28 Notice of imminent expiry of licence 4

The chief executive must give a pest management technician notice of the imminent expiry of the technician's licence at least 60 days before the expiry. 5

29 Requirements about application for renewal of licence 8

(1) A pest management technician may apply to the chief executive for renewal of the technician's licence within 60 days before the licence expires. 9

(2) However, if the technician receives a notice under section 28 more than 60 days before the licence expires, the technician may apply to the chief executive for renewal at any time after the technician receives the notice and before the licence expires. 12
15

(3) The application must be— 16

(a) in the approved form; and 17

(b) accompanied by the fee prescribed under a regulation. 18

30 Further information or documents to support application for renewal 19 20

(1) The chief executive may, by notice given to a pest management technician, require the technician to give the chief executive, within a reasonable period of at least 21 days stated in the notice, further information or a document the chief executive reasonably requires to decide the application. 21
25

(2) The chief executive may, in the notice, require the technician to verify the further information by statutory declaration. 26
27

(3) The technician is taken to have withdrawn the application if the technician does not comply with a requirement under subsection (1) or (2) within the stated period. 28
29

(4) A notice under subsection (1) must be given to the technician within 60 days after the chief executive receives the application.	1 2
31 Decision about application for renewal	3
(1) The chief executive must consider the application and either grant, or refuse to grant, the application.	4 5
(2) The chief executive may grant the application only if the chief executive is satisfied the pest management technician is a suitable person to continue to hold a licence. <sup>9</sup>	6 7 8
(3) If the chief executive decides to grant the application, the chief executive must, as soon as practicable, issue a new licence to the technician.	9 10 11
(4) If the chief executive decides to refuse to grant the application, the chief executive must, as soon as practicable, give the technician an information notice about the decision.	12 13 14
(5) If the chief executive decides to grant the application before the expiring licence expires, the new licence must take effect from the expiry of the expiring licence.	15 16 17
32 Expiring licence continues in force	18
(1) If a pest management technician applies for a renewal under section 29, the technician's licence continues in force from the day it would, apart from this section, have expired until—	19 20 21
(a) if the application is granted—a new licence is issued to the technician; or	22 23
(b) if the application is withdrawn—the day the application is withdrawn; or	24 25
(c) if the application is refused—the day the information notice about the decision is given to the technician.	26 27
(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the licence is earlier suspended or cancelled.	28 29

9 See section 14 (Suitability of person to hold licence)

Division 8—Variation of licences	1
Subdivision 1—Variation on chief executive’s initiative	2
33 Varying licence—chief executive’s initiative	3
(1) The chief executive may vary a licence if the chief executive reasonably believes it is necessary or desirable to do so to protect persons from health risks associated with a pest management activity that may be carried out under the licence.	4 5 6 7
(2) A variation must relate only to—	8
(a) a pest management activity that may be carried out under the licence; or	9 10
(b) a condition of the licence.	11
(3) Before varying the licence, the chief executive must—	12
(a) give the pest management technician a notice (a “ notice of intention ”) stating—	13 14
(i) particulars of the proposed variation; and	15
(ii) the grounds for the proposed variation; and	16
(iii) an outline of the facts and circumstances forming the basis for the grounds; and	17 18
(iv) that the technician may make a written submission to the chief executive about the proposed variation before a stated day; and	19 20 21
(b) have regard to any written submissions made to the chief executive by the technician before the stated day.	22 23
(4) The stated day must not be earlier than 21 days after the notice is given to the technician.	24 25
(5) If, after giving the technician the notice of intention and taking into account any written submissions made by the technician, the chief executive decides to vary the technician’s licence, the chief executive must, as soon as practicable, give the technician an information notice about the decision.	26 27 28 29 30

(6) The variation takes effect on the day the information notice is given and does not depend on the issue of a new licence mentioned in section 39(2). 1

Subdivision 2—Applications for variation 4

34 Varying licence—application by pest management technician 5

(1) A pest management technician may apply to the chief executive to vary the technician's licence in relation to— 6

(a) a pest management activity that may be carried out under the licence; or 8

(b) a condition of the licence. 10

(2) The application must— 11

(a) be in the approved form; and 12

(b) be accompanied by the fee prescribed under a regulation. 13

35 Further information or documents to support application for variation 14
15

(1) The chief executive may, by notice given to the applicant, require the applicant to give the chief executive, within a reasonable period of at least 21 days stated in the notice, further information or a document the chief executive reasonably requires to decide the application. 16
17
19

(2) The chief executive may, in the notice, require the applicant to verify the further information or document by statutory declaration. 20
21

(3) The applicant is taken to have withdrawn the application if the applicant does not comply with a requirement under subsection (1) or (2) within the stated period. 22

36 Decision about application for variation of licence 25

(1) The chief executive must consider the application and either grant, or refuse to grant, the application. 26
27

(2) The chief executive may grant the application only if the chief executive is satisfied the applicant— 28
29

(a)	is a suitable person to hold the licence as proposed to be varied; <sup>10</sup> and	1 2
(b)	if relevant, holds a pest management qualification relevant to the pest management activity the applicant intends to carry out under the licence as proposed to be varied.	3 4 5
(3)	If the chief executive decides to grant the application, the chief executive must, as soon as practicable, give the applicant a notice (a “ variation notice ”) stating the decision.	6 7 8
(4)	If the chief executive decides to refuse to grant the application, the chief executive must, as soon as practicable, give the applicant an information notice about the decision.	9 10 11
(5)	A variation to the licence takes effect on the day the variation notice is given to the applicant.	12 13
37	Failure to decide application for variation of licence	14
(2)	Subsection (3) applies if the chief executive has—	18
(a)	under section 35(1), required the applicant to give the chief executive further information or a document; or	19 20
(b)	under section 15, required the applicant to undergo a health assessment.	21 22
(3)	The chief executive is taken to have refused to grant the application if the chief executive does not decide the application before the expiry of 60 days after the chief executive receives the further information or document, verified, if required, by statutory declaration, or an assessment report.	23 24 25 26 27
(4)	This section is subject to section 38.	28
38	Further consideration of application for variation	29
(1)	This section applies if the chief executive considers the chief executive needs more time to make a decision about the application	30 31

because of the complexity of the matters that need to be considered in deciding the application.	1 2
Example of an application likely to raise complex matters—	3
An application requiring the chief executive to obtain and consider further information about the applicant from a foreign regulatory authority.	4 5
(2) The chief executive may at any time before the final consideration day give notice to the applicant that—	6 7
(a) because of the complexity of the matters that need to be considered in deciding the application, the chief executive needs more time to decide the application; and	8 9 10
(b) the period within which the chief executive must decide the application is extended to a day (the “ extended day ”) that is 60 days after the final consideration day.	11 12 13
(3) Also, the applicant and chief executive may at any time before the final consideration day agree in writing on a day (the “ agreed extended day ”) by which the application is to be decided.	14 15 16
(4) The chief executive is taken to have refused to grant the application if the chief executive does not decide the application by the latest of the following days—	17 18 19
(a) if the chief executive has given a notice to the applicant under subsection (2)—the extended day;	20 21
(b) if there is an agreement between the applicant and chief executive under subsection (3)—the agreed extended day;	22 23
(c) if both subsections (2) and (3) apply—the later of the extended day and the agreed extended day.	24 25
(5) In this section—	26
“ final consideration day ” means the latest of the following days—	27
(a) the day that is 60 days after receipt of the application;	28
(b) if the chief executive has, under section 35, required the applicant to give the chief executive further information or a document—the day that is 60 days after the chief executive receives the further information or document, verified, if required, by statutory declaration;	29 30 31 32 33

(c) if the chief executive has, under section 15, <sup>11</sup> required the applicant to undergo a health assessment—the day that is 60 days after the chief executive receives an assessment report.	1 2 3
Subdivision 3—Recording variations	4
39 Varied licence to be produced and new licence issued	5
(1) If the chief executive decides to vary a licence under this division, the pest management technician must return the licence to the chief executive within 7 days after receiving an information notice under section 33(5) or a variation notice under section 36(3), unless the technician has a reasonable excuse.	6 7 8 9 10
Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.	11
(2) When the chief executive receives the licence, the chief executive must, as soon as practicable, issue a new licence to the technician.	12 13
(3) Failure to issue a new licence recording the variation, does not affect the validity of the variation.	14 15
Division 9—Replacement of licences	16
40 Application for replacement of licence	17
(1) A pest management technician may apply for replacement of the technician's licence if the licence has been damaged, destroyed, lost or stolen.	18 19 20
(2) The application must—	21
(a) be made to the chief executive; and	22
(b) include information about the circumstances in which the licence was damaged, destroyed, lost or stolen; and	23 24
(c) be accompanied by the fee prescribed under a regulation.	25

11 Section 15 (Requirement to undergo health assessment)

41 Decision about application for replacement of licence	1
(1) The chief executive must consider the application and either grant, or refuse to grant, the application.	2 3
(2) The chief executive must grant the application if the chief executive is satisfied the licence has been destroyed, lost or stolen, or damaged in a way to require its replacement.	4 5 6
(3) If the chief executive decides to grant the application, the chief executive must, as soon as practicable, issue another licence to the applicant to replace the damaged, destroyed, lost or stolen licence.	7 8 9
(4) If the chief executive decides to refuse to grant the application, chief executive must, as soon as practicable, give the applicant an information notice about the decision.	10 11 12
 Division 10—Surrender of licences
42 Surrender of licence	13 14
(1) A pest management technician may surrender the technician's licence by notice given to the chief executive.	15 16
(2) The surrender takes effect—	17
(a) on the day the notice is given to the chief executive; or	18
(b) if a later day of effect is stated in the notice—on the later day.	19
(3) The technician who surrenders the licence must return the licence to the chief executive within 7 days after the day the surrender takes effect, unless the technician has a reasonable excuse.	20 21 22
Maximum penalty —10 penalty units.	23
 Division 11—Suspension and cancellation of licences
43 Grounds for suspension or cancellation	24 25
Each of the following is a ground for suspending or cancelling a licence—	26 27

(a) the pest management technician is not, or is no longer, a suitable person to hold, or continue to hold, the licence; <sup>12</sup>	1 2
(b) the pest management technician has failed, without reasonable excuse, to undergo a health assessment the chief executive has required the technician to undergo under section 15(2);	3 4 5
(c) the pest management technician has contravened a provision of this Act;	6 7
(d) the pest management technician has contravened a condition of the licence;	8 9
(e) the pest management technician has carried out a pest management activity in a fraudulent or improper way;	10 11
Example of fraudulent way—	12
Purporting to carry out a pest management activity and, for that purpose, using water or another substance instead of an appropriate pesticide.	13 14
(f) the licence was issued because of a materially false or misleading representation or declaration.	15 16
44 Show cause notice	17
(1) This section applies if the chief executive believes a ground exists to suspend or cancel a licence, and—	18 19
(a) the pest management technician has not been given, and it is not intended to give the technician, a compliance notice about a matter to which the ground relates; or	20 21 22
(b) the pest management technician has been given a compliance notice about a matter to which the ground relates and the technician has failed, without a reasonable excuse, to comply with the notice.	23 24 25 26
(2) The chief executive must give the pest management technician a notice under this section (a “ show cause notice ”).	27 28
(3) The show cause notice must state each of the following—	29
(a) the action (the “ proposed action ”) the chief executive proposes taking under this division;	30 31
(b) the grounds for the proposed action;	32

12 See section 14 (Suitability of person to hold licence)

(c)	an outline of the facts and circumstances forming the basis for the grounds;	1 2
(d)	if the proposed action is suspension of the licence—the proposed suspension period;	3 4
(e)	an invitation to the technician to show within a stated period (the “ show cause period ”) why the proposed action should not be taken.	5 6 7
(4)	The show cause period must be a period ending at least 21 days after the show cause notice is given to the technician.	8 9
45	Representations about show cause notice	10
(1)	The pest management technician may make written representations about the show cause notice to the chief executive in the show cause period.	11 12 13
(2)	The chief executive must consider all written representations (the “ accepted representations ”) made under subsection (1).	14 15
46	Ending show cause process without further action	16
(1)	This section applies if, after considering the accepted representations for the show cause notice, the chief executive no longer believes a ground exists to suspend or cancel the licence.	17 18 19
(2)	The chief executive must not take any further action about the show cause notice.	20 21
(3)	The chief executive must, as soon as practicable, give the pest management technician notice that no further action will be taken about the show cause notice.	22 23 24
47	Suspension or cancellation	25
(1)	This section applies if, after considering the accepted representations for the show cause notice, the chief executive—	26 27
(a)	still believes a ground exists to suspend or cancel the licence; and	28
(b)	believes suspension or cancellation of the licence is warranted.	29
(2)	This section also applies if there are no accepted representations for the show cause notice.	30 31

(3) The chief executive may—	1
(a) if the proposed action stated in the show cause notice was to suspend the licence for a stated period—suspend the licence for not longer than the stated period; or	2 3 4
(b) if the proposed action stated in the show cause notice was to cancel the licence—either cancel the licence or suspend it for a period.	5 6 7
(4) The chief executive must, as soon as practicable, give the pest management technician an information notice about the decision.	8 9
(5) The decision takes effect on the later of the following days—	10
(a) the day the information notice is given to the pest management technician; or	11 12
(b) the day stated in the information notice for that purpose.	13
48 Return of cancelled or suspended licence to chief executive	14
(1) This section applies if the chief executive has cancelled or suspended a licence and given the pest management technician an information notice about the decision.	15 16 17
(2) The technician must return the licence to the chief executive within 7 days after receiving the information notice, unless the technician has a reasonable excuse.	18 19 20
Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.	21
49 Immediate suspension of licence	22
(1) The chief executive may suspend a licence immediately if the chief executive believes—	23 24
(a) a ground exists to cancel the licence; and	25
(b) it is necessary, in the interests of the health or safety of any person, to immediately suspend the licence until the formal cancellation procedure is completed.	26 27 28

- (2) The suspension— 1
- (a) must be effected by an information notice given to the pest 2 management technician about the decision to suspend the 3 technician's licence together with a show cause notice;<sup>13</sup> and 4
- (b) operates immediately the notices are given; and 5
- (c) continues to operate until the earliest of the following happens— 6
- (i) the chief executive cancels the remaining period of the 7 suspension; 8
- (ii) the show cause notice is finally dealt with; 9
- (iii) 60 days have passed since the notices were given to the 10
technician. 11
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if— 12
- (a) a suspension under this section stops because— 13
- (i) the chief executive cancels the remaining period of the 14 suspension; or 15
- (ii) the show cause notice is finally dealt with by a decision 16 being made not to cancel the licence; or 17
- (iii) 60 days have passed since the notices mentioned in 18
subsection (2)(a) were given to the technician; and 19
- (b) the pest management technician has returned the licence to the 20
chief executive under section 48. 21
- (4) The chief executive must, as soon as practicable, give the licence to 22
the technician. 23

Division 12—Offences 2450 Holding out while unlicensed 25

(1) A person who is not licensed to carry out a pest management activity 26 must not advertise or hold out that the person carries out the activity. 27

13 See section 44 (Show cause notice).

Pest Management Bill 2001

(2) Subsection (3) applies to a person who is not licensed to carry out a pest management activity, but carries on a business that provides the pest management activity and the activity is carried out by a pest management technician who is licensed to carry out the activity. 1

(3) Despite subsection (1), the person does not commit an offence under that subsection merely because the person advertises or holds out that the person carries on a business of providing the activity. 5

51 When pest management technician etc. must not permit or require another person to carry out a pest management activity 8

(1) This section applies to a pest management technician, or another person carrying on a business of providing a pest management activity, (the “relevant person”). 10

(2) The relevant person must not permit or require another person to carry out a pest management activity unless the other person is— 13
14

(a) a pest management technician who is authorised to carry out the activity under the technician’s licence; or 15
16

(b) a trainee who is properly supervised in carrying out the activity. 17

Maximum penalty—1 000 penalty units. 18

52 Failure to supervise trainee 19

(1) This section applies if a pest management technician, or another person carrying on a business of providing a pest management activity, (the “employer”) employs or otherwise engages a trainee to carry out a pest management activity. 20
23

(2) The employer must ensure the trainee is properly supervised while the trainee is carrying out the activity. 24

Maximum penalty—200 penalty units. 26

Division 13—Notices to be given to chief executive 27

53 Pest management technician to give chief executive notice about certain events 28
29

(1) This section applies if — 30

Pest Management Bill 2001

(a) a pest management technician is convicted of a relevant offence; or	1 2
(b) a pest management authority held by a pest management technician is suspended or cancelled.	3 4
(2) The technician must give the chief executive a notice under subsections (3) and (4) about the conviction, cancellation or suspension within 21 days after the technician becomes aware of it.	5 6 7
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	8
(3) The notice must be in the approved form.	9
(4) Information in the notice must, if the approved form requires, be verified by a statutory declaration.	10 11
54 Notice of change in circumstances	12
A pest management technician must, within 21 days after the happening of a change in the technician's circumstances prescribed under a regulation, advise the chief executive of the change.	13 14 15
Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.	16
PART 3—MONITORING, INVESTIGATION AND ENFORCEMENT	17 18
Division 1—Inspectors	19
55 Appointment and qualifications	20
(1) The chief executive may appoint any of the following persons as an inspector—	21 22
(a) an officer of the department;	23
(b) a health service employee.	24
(2) However, the chief executive may appoint a person as an inspector only if the chief executive is satisfied the person is qualified for appointment because the person has the necessary expertise or experience.	25 26 27

56 Appointment conditions and limit on powers	1
(1) An inspector holds office on any conditions stated in—	2
(a) the inspector’s instrument of appointment; or	3
(b) a signed notice given to the inspector; or	4
(c) a regulation.	5
(2) The instrument of appointment, a signed notice given to the inspector or a regulation may limit the inspector’s powers under this Act.	6 7
(3) In this section—	8
“ signed notice ” means a notice signed by the chief executive.	9
57 Issue of identity card	10
(1) The chief executive must issue an identity card to each inspector.	11
(2) The identity card must—	12
(a) contain a recent photo of the inspector; and	13
(b) contain a copy of the inspector’s signature; and	14
(c) identify the person as an inspector under this Act; and	15
(d) state an expiry date for the card.	16
(3) This section does not prevent the issue of a single identity card to a person for this Act and other purposes.	17 18
58 Production or display of identity card	19
(1) In exercising a power under this Act in relation to a person, an inspector must—	20 21
(a) produce the inspector’s identity card for the person’s inspection before exercising the power; or	22 23
(b) have the identity card displayed so it is clearly visible to the person when exercising the power.	24 25
(2) However, if it is not practicable to comply with subsection (1), the inspector must produce the identity card for the person’s inspection at the first reasonable opportunity.	26 27 28

(3) For subsection (1), an inspector does not exercise a power in relation to a person only because the inspector has entered a place as mentioned in section 62(1)(b) or (2). 1

59 When inspector ceases to hold office 4

(1) An inspector ceases to hold office if any of the following happens— 5

(a) the term of office stated in a condition of office ends; 6

(b) under another condition of office, the inspector ceases to hold office; 7

(c) the inspector’s resignation under section 60 takes effect. 9

(2) Subsection (1) does not limit the ways an inspector may cease to hold office. 10
11

(3) In this section— 12

“condition of office” means a condition on which the inspector holds office. 13

60 Resignation 15

(1) An inspector may resign by signed notice given to the chief executive. 16
17

(2) However, if holding office as an inspector is a condition of the inspector holding another office, the inspector may not resign as an inspector without resigning from the other office. 18

61 Return of identity card 21

A person who ceases to be an inspector must return the person’s identity card to the chief executive within 21 days after ceasing to be an inspector, unless the person has a reasonable excuse. 22

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units. 25

Division 2—Powers of inspectors	1
Subdivision 1—Entry of places	2
62 Power to enter places	3
(1) An inspector may enter a place if—	4
(a) its occupier consents to the entry; or	5
(b) it is a public place and the entry is made when the place is open to the public; or	6 7
(c) the entry is authorised by a warrant; or	8
(d) it is a place where a pest management technician carries on business under the technician’s licence and the place is open for carrying on the business or otherwise open for entry; or	9 10 11
(e) it is a place where a person carries on a business of providing pest management activities by employing pest management technicians to conduct the activities and the place is open for carrying on business or otherwise open for entry; or	12 13 14 15
(f) it is a building site; or	16
(g) the inspector reasonably believes a pest management activity is being carried on by a pest management technician at the place and the place is open for carrying on business or otherwise open for entry.	17 18 19 20
(2) For the purpose of asking the occupier of a place for consent to enter, an inspector may, without the occupier’s consent or a warrant—	21 22
(a) enter land around premises at the place to an extent that is reasonable to contact the occupier; or	23 24
(b) enter part of the place the inspector reasonably considers members of the public ordinarily are allowed to enter when they wish to contact the occupier.	25 26 27
(3) Subsection (4) applies if an individual carries on business at a place and also resides at the place.	28 29
(4) Subsection (1)(d), (e) or (g) does not authorise an inspector to enter a part of the place in which the individual resides.	30 31

- (5) In this section— 1
- “building” includes a structure of any type and part of a building or 2 structure. 3
- “building site” means a place, other than a place where an individual 4 resides, where building work is being, or is about to be, carried out 5 and at which a sign must, under the Queensland Building Services 6
Authority Act 1991, section 52,<sup>14</sup> be exhibited. 7
- “building work” means— 8
- (a) an activity (a “building activity”) of— 9
- (i) building, repairing, altering, underpinning (whether by 10 vertical or lateral support), moving or demolishing a 11 building; or 12
- (ii) providing airconditioning, drainage, heating, lighting, 13
sewerage, ventilation or water supply for a building; or 14
- (b) excavating or filling— 15
- (i) for, or incidental to, a building activity; or 16
- (ii) that may adversely affect the stability of a building, whether 17 on the land on which the building is situated or on adjoining 18 land; or 19
- (c) supporting (whether vertically or laterally) land for a building 20 activity. 21

Subdivision 2—Procedure for entry 22

63 Consent to entry 23

(1) This section applies if an inspector intends to ask an occupier of a 24 place to consent to the inspector or another inspector entering the place 25 under section 62(1)(a). 26

- (2) Before asking for the consent, the inspector must tell the occupier— 27
- (a) the purpose of the entry; and 28
- (b) that the occupier is not required to consent. 29

14 Queensland Building Services Authority Act 1991, section 52 (Signs to be exhibited)

- (3) If the consent is given, the inspector may ask the occupier to sign an acknowledgment of the consent. 1
- (4) The acknowledgment must state— 3
- (a) the occupier has been told— 4
    - (i) the purpose of the entry; and 5
    - (ii) that the occupier is not required to consent; and 6
  - (b) the purpose of the entry; and 7
  - (c) the occupier gives the inspector consent to enter the place and exercise powers under this division; and 8
  - (d) the time and date the consent was given. 10
- (5) If the occupier signs an acknowledgment, the inspector must immediately give a copy to the occupier. 11
- (6) If— 13
- (a) an issue arises in a proceeding about whether the occupier consented to the entry; and 14 15
  - (b) an acknowledgment complying with subsection (4) for the entry is not produced in evidence; 16
17
- the onus of proof is on the person relying on the lawfulness of the entry to prove the occupier consented. 18

64 Application for warrant 20

- (1) An inspector may apply to a magistrate for a warrant for a place. 21
- (2) The application must be sworn and state the grounds on which the warrant is sought. 22
23
- (3) The magistrate may refuse to consider the application until the inspector gives the magistrate all the information the magistrate requires about the application in the way the magistrate requires. 24
25
- Example—* 27
- The magistrate may require additional information supporting the application to be given by statutory declaration. 28

65 Issue of warrant	1
(1) The magistrate may issue a warrant only if the magistrate is satisfied there are reasonable grounds for suspecting—	2 3
(a) there is a particular thing or activity (the “ evidence ”) that may provide evidence of an offence against this Act; and	4 5
(b) the evidence is at the place, or may be at the place within the next 7 days.	6 7
(2) The warrant must state—	8
(a) that a stated inspector may, with necessary and reasonable help and force—	9 10
(i) enter the place and any other place necessary for entry; and	11
(ii) exercise the inspector’s powers under this division; and	12
(b) the offence for which the warrant is sought; and	13
(c) the evidence that may be seized under the warrant; and	14
(d) the hours of the day or night when the place may be entered; and	15
(e) the date, within 14 days after the warrant’s issue, the warrant ends.	16 17
66 Special warrant	18
(1) An inspector may apply for a warrant (a “ special warrant ”) by phone, fax, radio or another form of communication if the inspector considers it necessary because of—	19 20 21
(a) urgent circumstances; or	22
(b) other special circumstances, including, for example, the inspector’s remote location.	23 24
(2) Before applying for the warrant, the inspector must prepare an application stating the grounds on which the warrant is sought.	25 26
(3) The inspector may apply for the warrant before the application is sworn.	27 28
(4) After issuing the warrant, the magistrate must immediately fax a copy to the inspector if it is reasonably practicable to fax the copy.	29 30

- (5) If it is not reasonably practicable to fax a copy to the inspector— 1
- (a) the magistrate must tell the inspector— 2
    - (i) what the terms of the warrant are; and 3
    - (ii) the date and time the warrant was issued; and 4
  - (b) the inspector must complete a form of warrant (a “warrant form”) and write on it— 5
    - (i) the magistrate’s name; and 7
    - (ii) the date and time the magistrate issued the warrant; and 8
    - (iii) the terms of the warrant. 9
- (6) The facsimile warrant, or the warrant form properly completed by the inspector, authorises the entry and the exercise of the other powers stated in the warrant issued by the magistrate. 10
- (7) The inspector must, at the first reasonable opportunity, send to the magistrate— 13 14
- (a) the sworn application; and 15
  - (b) if the inspector completed a warrant form—the completed warrant form. 16 17
- (8) On receiving the documents, the magistrate must attach them to the warrant. 18 19
- (9) If— 20
- (a) an issue arises in a proceeding about whether an exercise of a power was authorised by a special warrant; and 21
  - (b) the warrant is not produced in evidence; 23
- the onus of proof is on the person relying on the lawfulness of the exercise of the power to prove a special warrant authorised the exercise of the power. 24
- 67 Warrant—procedure before entry 27
- (1) This section applies if an inspector named in a warrant issued under this division for a place is intending to enter the place under the warrant. 28
29
- (2) Before entering the place, the inspector must do or make a reasonable attempt to do the following— 30 31

(a) identify himself or herself to a person present at the place who is an occupier of the place by producing a copy of the inspector's identity card or other document evidencing the appointment;	1 2 3
(b) give the person a copy of the warrant or, if the entry is authorised by a facsimile warrant or warrant form mentioned in section 66(6), a copy of the facsimile warrant or warrant form;	4 5 6
(c) tell the person the inspector is permitted by the warrant to enter the place;	7 8
(d) give the person an opportunity to allow the inspector immediate entry to the place without using force.	9 10
(3) However, the inspector need not comply with subsection (2) if the inspector believes on reasonable grounds that immediate entry to the place is required to ensure the effective execution of the warrant is not frustrated.	11 12 13
68 Stopping motor vehicles	14
(1) This section applies if an inspector suspects on reasonable grounds, or is aware, that a thing in or on a motor vehicle may provide evidence of the commission of an offence against this Act.	15 16 17
(2) For the purpose of exercising the powers of an inspector under this division, an inspector may—	18 19
(a) if the motor vehicle is moving—ask or signal the person in control of the motor vehicle to stop the motor vehicle; and	20 21
(b) whether or not the motor vehicle is moving—ask or signal the person in control of the motor vehicle to bring the motor vehicle to a convenient place within a reasonable distance to allow the inspector to exercise the inspector's powers under this division.	22 23 24 25
(3) Despite section 58, <sup>15</sup> for the purpose of exercising a power under subsection (2)(a), the inspector must—	26 27
(a) have with him or her the inspector's identity card; and	28
(b) produce the identity card for the person's inspection immediately after the motor vehicle is stopped.	29 30
(4) The person must comply with the inspector's request or signal, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	31 32

15 Section 58 (Production or display of identity card)

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	1
(5) If the motor vehicle is stopped, the inspector may direct the person—	2
(a) not to move the motor vehicle until the inspector has exercised the inspector’s powers under this division; or	3 4
(b) to move the motor vehicle to, and keep it at, a stated reasonable place to allow the inspector to exercise the inspector’s powers under this division.	5 6 7
(6) When giving the direction, the inspector must warn the person it is an offence not to comply with the direction, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	8 9 10
(7) The person must comply with the inspector’s direction, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	11 12
Maximum penalty for subsection (7)—50 penalty units.	13

Subdivision 3—Powers after entry 14

69 General powers after entering place	15
(1) This section applies to an inspector who enters a place.	16
(2) However, if an inspector enters a place to get the occupier’s consent to enter a place, this section applies to the inspector only if the consent is given or the entry is otherwise authorised.	17 18 19
(3) For monitoring or enforcing compliance with this Act, the inspector may—	20 21
(a) search any part of the place; or	22
(b) inspect, photograph or film any part of the place or anything at the place; or	23 24
(c) take a thing at the place for analysis; or	25
(d) take an extract from, or copy, a document at the place; or	26
(e) take into or onto the place any person, equipment and materials the inspector reasonably requires for exercising a power under this division; or	27 28 29

Pest Management Bill 2001

(f)	require the occupier of the place, or a person at the place, to give the inspector reasonable help to exercise the inspector's powers under paragraphs (a) to (e); or	1 2 3
(g)	require the occupier of the place, or a person at the place, to give the inspector information to help the inspector find out whether this Act is being complied with.	4 5 6
(4)	When making a requirement under subsection (3)(f) or (g), the inspector must warn the person it is an offence not to comply with the requirement unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	7 8 9
70	Failure to help inspector	10
(1)	A person required to give reasonable help under section 69(3)(f) must comply with the requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	11 12 13
	Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	14
(2)	If an individual is required under section 69(3)(f) to give information or produce a document, it is a reasonable excuse for the individual not to comply with the requirement that complying with the requirement might tend to incriminate the individual.	15 16 17 18
71	Failure to give information	19
(1)	A person of whom a requirement is made under section 69(3)(g) must comply with the requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	20 21 22
	Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	23
(2)	It is a reasonable excuse for an individual not to comply with the requirement that complying with the requirement might tend to incriminate the individual.	24 25 26
	Subdivision 4—Power to seize evidence	27
72	Seizing evidence at a place that may be entered without consent or warrant	28 29
	An inspector who enters a place that may be entered under this division without the consent of the occupier and without a warrant, may seize a	30 31

thing at the place if the inspector reasonably believes the thing is evidence of an offence against this Act.	1 2
73 Seizing evidence at a place that may only be entered with consent or warrant	3 4
(1) This section applies if—	5
(a) an inspector is authorised to enter a place under this division only with the consent of the occupier or a warrant; and	6 7
(b) the inspector enters the place after obtaining the necessary consent or warrant.	8 9
(2) If the inspector enters the place with the occupier’s consent, the inspector may seize a thing at the place if—	10 11
(a) the inspector reasonably believes the thing is evidence of an offence against this Act; and	12 13
(b) seizure of the thing is consistent with the purpose of entry as told to the occupier when asking for the occupier’s consent.	14 15
(3) If the inspector enters the place with a warrant, the inspector may seize the evidence for which the warrant was issued.	16 17
(4) The inspector also may seize anything else at the place if the inspector reasonably believes—	18 19
(a) the thing is evidence of an offence against this Act; and	20
(b) the seizure is necessary to prevent the thing being—	21
(i) hidden, lost or destroyed; or	22
(ii) used to continue, or repeat, the offence.	23
(5) Also, the inspector may seize a thing at the place if the inspector reasonably believes it has just been used in committing an offence against this Act.	24 25 26
74 Securing seized thing	27
Having seized a thing, an inspector may do 1 or more of the following—	28
(a) move the thing from the place where it was seized (the “ place of seizure ”);	29 30

Pest Management Bill 2001

(b) leave the thing at the place of seizure but take reasonable steps to restrict access to it;	1 2
Examples of restricting access to a thing—	3
1. Sealing a thing and marking it to show access to it is restricted.	4
2. Sealing the entrance to a room where the seized thing is situated and marking it to show access to it is restricted	5 6
(c) make the thing inoperable if it is equipment.	7
Example of making equipment inoperable—	8
Dismantling equipment or removing a component of equipment without which the equipment is not capable of being used.	9 10
75 Tampering with seized thing	11
(1) If an inspector restricts access to a seized thing, a person must not tamper, or attempt to tamper, with the thing, or something restricting access to the thing, without an inspector's approval.	12 13 14
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	15
(2) If an inspector makes seized equipment inoperable, a person must not tamper, or attempt to tamper, with the equipment, without an inspector's approval.	16 17 18
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	19
76 Powers to support seizure	20
(1) To enable a thing to be seized, an inspector may require the person in control of it—	21 22
(a) to take it to a stated reasonable place by a stated reasonable time; and	23 24
(b) if necessary, to remain in control of it at the stated place for a stated reasonable period.	25 26
(2) The requirement—	27
(a) must be made by notice in the approved form; or	28
(b) if for any reason it is not practicable to give the notice, may be made orally and confirmed by notice in the approved form as soon as practicable.	29 30 31

(3) A further requirement may be made under this section about the thing if it is necessary and reasonable to make the further requirement.	1 2
(4) A person of whom a requirement is made under subsection (1) or (3) must comply with the requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	3 4 5
Maximum penalty for subsection (4)—50 penalty units.	6
77 Receipt for seized thing	7
(1) As soon as practicable after an inspector seizes a thing, the inspector must give a receipt for it to the person from whom it was seized.	8 9
(2) However, if for any reason it is not practicable to comply with subsection (1), the inspector must leave the receipt at the place of seizure in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way.	10 11 12
(3) The receipt must describe generally each thing seized and its condition.	13 14
(4) This section does not apply to a thing if it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to give the receipt (given the thing's nature, condition and value).	15 16 17
78 Forfeiture of seized thing	18
(1) A seized thing is forfeited to the State if the inspector who seized the thing—	19 20
(a) can not find its owner, after making reasonable inquiries; or	21
(b) can not return it to its owner, after making reasonable efforts; or	22
(c) reasonably believes it is necessary to keep the thing to prevent it being used to commit an offence against this Act.	23 24
(2) In applying subsection (1)—	25
(a) subsection (1)(a) does not require the inspector to make inquiries if it would be unreasonable to make inquiries to find the owner; and	26 27 28
(b) subsection (1)(b) does not require the inspector to make efforts if it would be unreasonable to make efforts to return the thing to its owner.	29 30 31

Pest Management Bill 2001

Example for paragraph (b)—

The owner of the thing has migrated to another country.

(3) If the inspector makes a decision under subsection (1)(c), resulting in the seized thing being forfeited to the State, the inspector must, as soon as practicable, give the owner an information notice for the decision.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply if—

(a) the inspector can not find the owner, after making reasonable inquiries; or

(b) it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to give the information notice.

(5) Regard must be had to a thing's nature, condition and value—

(a) in deciding—

(i) whether it is reasonable to make inquiries or efforts; and

(ii) if making inquiries or efforts, what inquiries or efforts, including the period over which they are made, are reasonable; or

(b) in deciding whether it would be unreasonable to give the information notice.

79 Forfeiture on conviction

(1) On the conviction of a person for an offence against this Act, the court may order the forfeiture to the State of—

(a) anything used to commit the offence; or

(b) anything else the subject of the offence.

(2) The court may make the order—

(a) whether or not the thing has been seized; or

(b) if the thing has been seized—whether or not the thing has been returned to its owner.

(3) The court may make any order to enforce the forfeiture it considers appropriate.

(4) This section does not limit the court's powers under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992 or another law.

80 Dealing with forfeited things etc.	1
(1) On the forfeiture of a thing to the State, the thing becomes the State's property and may be dealt with by the chief executive as the chief executive considers appropriate.	2 3 4
(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the chief executive may destroy or dispose of the thing.	5 6
(3) Despite subsection (1), the chief executive must not deal with the thing in a way that could prejudice the outcome of—	7 8
(a) a review applied for under section 105 or an appeal started under section 109; or	9 10
(b) another appeal, relevant to the thing, of which the chief executive is aware.	11 12
81 Return of seized thing	13
(1) If a seized thing is not forfeited, the inspector must return it to its owner—	14 15
(a) generally—at the end of 6 months; or	16
(b) if a proceeding for an offence involving the thing is started within 6 months—at the end of the proceeding and any appeal from the proceeding.	17 18 19
(2) Despite subsection (1), unless the thing is forfeited, the inspector must, as soon as practicable, return a thing seized as evidence to its owner if the inspector stops being satisfied its continued retention as evidence is necessary.	20 21 22 23
82 Access to seized thing	24
(1) Until a seized thing is forfeited or returned, an inspector must allow its owner to inspect it and, if it is a document, to copy it.	25 26
(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to allow the inspection or copying.	27 28

Subdivision 5—Power to obtain information		1
83	Power to require name and address	2
	(1) This section applies if—	3
	(a) an inspector finds a person committing an offence against this Act; or	4 5
	(b) an inspector finds a person in circumstances that lead, or has information about a person that leads, the inspector to reasonably suspect the person has just committed an offence against this Act.	6 7 8
	(2) The inspector may require the person to state the person’s name and residential address.	9 10
	(3) When making the requirement, the inspector must warn the person it is an offence to fail to state the person’s name or residential address, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	11 12 13
	(4) The inspector may require the person to give evidence of the correctness of the stated name or residential address if the inspector reasonably suspects the stated name or address is false.	14 15 16
	(5) A requirement under subsection (2) or (4) is called a “ personal particulars requirement ”.	17 18
84	Failure to give name or address	19
	(1) A person of whom a personal particulars requirement is made must comply with the requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	20 21
	Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	22
	(2) A person does not commit an offence against subsection (1) if—	23
	(a) the person was required to state the person’s name and residential address by an inspector who suspected the person had committed an offence against this Act; and	24 25 26
	(b) the person is not proved to have committed the offence.	27
85	Power to require production of documents	28
	(1) An inspector may require a person to make available for inspection by an inspector, or produce to the inspector for inspection, at a reasonable time and place nominated by the inspector—	29 30 31

- (a) a document issued to the person under this Act; or 1
- (b) a document required to be kept by the person under this Act. 2
- (2) The inspector may keep the document to copy it. 3
- (3) If the inspector copies a document mentioned in subsection (1)(b), or 4 an entry in the document, the inspector may require the person responsible 5 for keeping the document to certify the copy as a true copy of the document 6 or entry. 7
- (4) The inspector must return the document to the person as soon as 8 practicable after copying it. 9
- (5) However, if a requirement (a “document certification 10 requirement”) is made of a person under subsection (3), the inspector may 11 keep the document until the person complies with the requirement. 12
- (6) A requirement under subsection (1) is called a “document 13 production requirement”. 14

86 Failure to produce document 15

(1) A person of whom a document production requirement is made must 16
 comply with the requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse. 17

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units. 18

(2) It is not a reasonable excuse for a person not to comply with a 19 document production requirement that complying with the requirement 20 might tend to incriminate the person. 21

87 Failure to certify copy of document 22

A person of whom a document certification requirement is made must 23
 comply with the requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse. 24

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units. 25

88 Power to require information 26

(1) This section applies if an inspector reasonably believes— 27

(a) an offence against this Act has been committed; and 28

(b) a person may be able to give information about the offence. 29

Pest Management Bill 2001

(2) The inspector may, by notice given to the person, require the person to give information about the offence to the inspector at a stated reasonable time and place. 1

(3) The person must comply with a requirement under subsection (2), unless the person has a reasonable excuse. 4

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units. 6

(4) It is a reasonable excuse for an individual to fail to give information if giving the information might tend to incriminate the individual. 7

Division 3—General enforcement matters 9

89 Compliance notice 10

(1) This section applies if the chief executive or an inspector reasonably believes— 11 12

(a) a person— 13

(i) is contravening a provision of this Act; or 14

(ii) has contravened a provision of this Act in circumstances that make it likely the contravention will continue or be repeated; and 15

(b) a matter relating to the contravention is reasonably capable of being rectified; and 18
19

(c) it is appropriate to give the person an opportunity to rectify the matter; and 20
21

(d) if the person is a pest management technician—the chief executive has not given a show cause notice to the technician under section 44 relating to the contravention. 22
24

(2) The chief executive or inspector may give the person a notice (a “compliance notice”) requiring the person to rectify the matter. 25
26

(3) The compliance notice must state— 27

(a) that the chief executive or inspector believes the person— 28

(i) is contravening a provision of this Act; or 29

Pest Management Bill 2001

(ii)	has contravened a provision of this Act in circumstances that make it likely that the contravention will continue or be repeated; and	1 2 3
(b)	the provision the chief executive or inspector believes is being, or has been, contravened; and	4 5
(c)	briefly, how it is believed the provision is being, or has been contravened; and	6 7
(d)	the matter relating to the contravention that the chief executive or inspector believes is reasonably capable of being rectified; and	8 9
(e)	the reasonable steps the person must take to rectify the matter; and	10 11
(f)	that the person must take the steps within a stated reasonable period of not less than 21 days; and	12 13
(g)	that it is an offence to fail to comply with the compliance notice unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	14 15
(4)	The person must comply with the compliance notice, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	16 17
	Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	18
(5)	The person can not be prosecuted for contravention of the provision unless the person—	19 20
(a)	fails to comply with the compliance notice within the stated period; and	21 22
(b)	does not have a reasonable excuse for failing to comply with the notice.	23 24
90	Notice of damage	25
(1)	This section applies if—	26
(a)	an inspector damages property when exercising or purporting to exercise a power; or	27 28
(b)	a person (the “ other person ”) acting under the direction or authority of an inspector damages property.	29 30
(2)	The inspector must, as soon as practicable, give notice of particulars of the damage to the person who appears to the inspector to be the owner of the property.	31 32 33

- (3) If the inspector believes the damage was caused by a latent defect in the property or circumstances beyond the inspector's or other person's control, the inspector may state the belief in the notice. 1
- (4) If, for any reason, it is impracticable to comply with subsection (2), the inspector must leave the notice in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way where the damage happened. 4
- (5) This section does not apply to damage the inspector reasonably believes is trivial. 7
- (6) In this section— 9
“owner”, of property, includes the person in possession or control of it. 10

91 Compensation 11

- (1) A person may claim compensation from the State if the person incurs loss or expense because of the exercise or purported exercise of a power under any of the following subdivisions of division 2<sup>16</sup>— 12
13
- (a) subdivision 1 (Entry of places) 15
  - (b) subdivision 3 (Powers after entry) 16
  - (c) subdivision 4 (Power to seize evidence) 17
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), compensation may be claimed for loss or expense incurred in complying with a requirement made of the person under the subdivision. 18
20
- (3) Compensation may be claimed and ordered to be paid in a proceeding— 21
22
- (a) brought in a court with jurisdiction for the recovery of the amount of compensation claimed; or 23 24
  - (b) for an offence against this Act brought against the person claiming compensation. 25
26
- (4) A court may order compensation to be paid only if it is satisfied it is just to make the order in the circumstances of the particular case. 27

16 Division 2 (Powers of inspectors)

92 False or misleading statements	1
(1) A person must not state anything to an inspector the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular.	2 3
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	4
(2) In a proceeding for an offence against subsection (1), it is enough for a charge to state that the statement was, without specifying which, ‘false or misleading’.	5 6 7
 93 False or misleading documents	 8
(1) A person must not give an inspector a document containing information the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular.	9 10 11
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	12
(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person if the person, when giving the document—	13 14
(a) tells the inspector, to the best of the person’s ability, how it is false or misleading; and	15 16
(b) if the person has, or can reasonably obtain, the correct information—gives the correct information.	17 18
(3) In a proceeding for an offence against subsection (1), it is enough for a charge to state that the statement was, without specifying which, ‘false or misleading’.	19 20 21
 94 Obstructing inspector	 22
(1) A person must not obstruct an inspector in the exercise of a power, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	23 24
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	25
(2) If a person has obstructed an inspector and the inspector decides to proceed with the exercise of the power, the inspector must warn the person that—	26 27 28
(a) it is an offence to obstruct the inspector, unless the person has a reasonable excuse; and	29 30
(b) the inspector considers the person’s conduct is an obstruction.	31

(3) In this section—	1
“obstruct” includes hinder and attempt to obstruct or hinder.	2
95 Impersonation of inspector	3
A person must not pretend to be an inspector.	4
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	5
96 Dealing with certain things	6
(1) If an inspector takes a thing under section 69(3)(c), <sup>17</sup> or seizes a thing under section 72 or 73 <sup>18</sup> for analysis by a State analyst, the inspector must—	7
(a) divide the thing into 3 separate parts and—	10
(i) seal or fasten each part in a way that will, so far as is practicable, prevent a person tampering with the part; and	11
(ii) attach a label containing the label details to each part; and	13
(b) leave 1 part with the owner of the thing or the person from whom the thing was obtained; and	14
	15
(c) deal with 1 of the remaining parts under section 101; and	16
(d) keep the other remaining part for future comparison.	17
(2) Subsection (3) applies if a thing is in more than 1 package and the inspector reasonably believes that, because of the size of the packages, dividing 1 package of the thing for analysis into 3 separate parts would—	18
	20
(a) affect the composition or quality of the thing in a way that would make the separate parts unsuitable for accurate analysis; or	21
	22
(b) make the parts insufficient for accurate analysis; or	23
(c) make the thing in any other way unsuitable for analysis.	24
(3) If the inspector reasonably believes the packages contain the same substance, the inspector may—	25

18 Section 72 (Seizing evidence at a place that may be entered without consent or warrant) or 73 (Seizing evidence at a place that may only be entered with consent or warrant)

Pest Management Bill 2001

(a)	mix 2 or more of the packages and deal with the mixture under subsection (1); or	1 2
(b)	use more than 1 of the packages to make up each part mentioned in subsection (1).	3 4
(4)	Subsections (1) to (3) do not apply to a thing to the extent that, because of its nature, it is impossible or impractical to deal with it in the way mentioned in the subsections.	5 6 7
(5)	In this section—	8
	“label details” means—	9
(a)	an identification number; and	10
(b)	a description of the thing; and	11
(c)	the date it was taken or seized; and	12
(d)	the place where it was taken or seized; and	13
(e)	the inspector’s signature.	14
	 Division 4—State analysts	 15
97	Appointment and qualifications	16
(1)	The chief executive may appoint any of the following persons as a State analyst—	17 18
(a)	an officer of the department;	19
(b)	a health service employee.	20
(2)	However, the chief executive may appoint a person as a State analyst only if the chief executive is satisfied the person has the necessary expertise or experience to be a State analyst.	21 22 23
98	Appointment conditions and limit on powers	24
(1)	A State analyst holds office on any conditions stated in—	25
(a)	the State analyst’s instrument of appointment; or	26
(b)	a signed notice given to the State analyst; or	27
(c)	a regulation.	28

(2) The instrument of appointment, a signed notice given to the State analyst or a regulation may limit the State analyst’s powers under this Act.	1 2
(3) In this section—	3
“signed notice” means a notice signed by the chief executive.	4
99 When State analyst ceases to hold office	5
(1) A State analyst ceases to hold office if any of the following happens—	6 7
(a) the term of office stated in a condition of office ends;	8
(b) under another condition of office, the State analyst ceases to hold office;	9 10
(c) the State analyst’s resignation under section 100 takes effect.	11
(2) Subsection (1) does not limit the ways a State analyst may cease to hold office.	12 13
(3) In this section—	14
“condition of office” means a condition on which the State analyst holds office.	15 16
100 Resignation	17
(1) A State analyst may resign by signed notice given to the chief executive.	18 19
(2) However, if holding office as a State analyst is a condition of the State analyst holding another office, the State analyst may not resign as a State analyst without resigning from the other office.	20 21 22
101 Analysis	23
(1) If an inspector who takes a thing at a place under section 69(3)(c), <sup>19</sup> or seizes a thing at a place under section 72 or 73 <sup>20</sup> for analysis, is not a	24 25

State analyst, the inspector must, as soon as practicable, give it to a State analyst for analysis.	1 2
(2) The State analyst must, as soon as practicable, complete a certificate of analysis for the thing and give the certificate to the inspector.	3 4
(3) If an inspector who takes or seizes a thing as mentioned in subsection (1) is a State analyst, the inspector must, as soon as practicable, complete a certificate of analysis for the thing.	5 6 7
(4) For dealing with a part of a thing mentioned in section 96(1)(c), subsections (1) and (3) apply as if a reference to a thing were a reference to a part.	8 9 10
102 Certificates must indicate methodology used	11
The certificate of analysis must include information about the methodology used to conduct the analysis.	12 13
PART 4—REVIEWS AND APPEALS	14
Division 1—Internal review of decisions	15
103 Appeal process starts with internal review	16
(1) Subject to this division, a person who is given, or is entitled to be given, an information notice for a decision (the “ original decision ”) may appeal against the decision under this part.	17 18 19
(2) The appeal must be, in the first instance, by way of an application for internal review under section 104.	20 21
(3) To help users of this Act, schedule 1 identifies the decisions for which an information notice must be given under this Act.	22 23
104 Application for review to be made to the chief executive	24
The person may apply to the chief executive for a review of the original decision.	25 26

105 Applying for review	1
(1) The application must be made within 28 days after—	2
(a) if the person is given an information notice for the decision—the day the person is given the information notice; or	3 4
(b) if paragraph (a) does not apply—the day the person otherwise becomes aware of the decision.	5 6
(2) The chief executive may, at any time, extend the time for applying for the review.	7 8
(3) The application must be in writing and state fully the grounds of the application.	9 10
106 Review decision	11
(1) After reviewing the original decision, the chief executive must make a further decision (the “ review decision ”) to—	12 13
(a) confirm the original decision; or	14
(b) amend the original decision; or	15
(c) substitute another decision for the original decision.	16
(2) The chief executive must, as soon as practicable, give the applicant notice of the review decision (the “ review notice ”).	17 18
(3) If the review decision is not the decision sought by the applicant, the review notice must also state—	19 20
(a) the reasons for the review decision; and	21
(b) that the applicant may appeal against the review decision to the District Court within 28 days after the person is given the notice; and	22 23 24
(c) how to appeal; and	25
(d) that the applicant may apply to the court for a stay of the review decision.	26 27
(4) If the chief executive does not give the notice within 60 days after the application is made, the chief executive is taken to have made a review decision confirming the original decision.	28 29 30

- (5) If the review decision confirms the original decision, for the purpose of an appeal to the court, the original decision is taken to be the review decision. 1
- (6) If the review decision amends the original decision, for the purpose of an appeal to the court, the original decision as amended is taken to be the review decision. 4
- 107 Stay of operation of decision 7
- (1) If an application is made for review of an original decision, the applicant may immediately apply to the District Court for a stay of the decision. 8
10
- (2) The court may stay the original decision to secure the effectiveness of the review and any later appeal to the court. 11 12
- (3) The stay— 13
- (a) may be given on conditions the court considers appropriate; and 14
  - (b) operates for the period fixed by the court; and 15
  - (c) may be revoked or amended by the court. 16
- (4) The period of the stay must not extend past the time when the chief executive makes a review decision about the original decision and any later period the court allows the applicant to enable the applicant to appeal against the review decision. 17
20
- (5) The application affects the original decision, or carrying out of the original decision, only if the original decision is stayed. 21
22

Division 2—Appeals 23

108 Who may appeal 24

A person who has applied for the review of an original decision under division 1 and is dissatisfied with the review decision may appeal to the District Court against the review decision. 25

109 Starting appeal 28

- (1) The appeal may be started at— 29

(a) the District Court at the place where the person resides or carries on business; or	1 2
(b) the District Court at Brisbane.	3
(2) Subsection (1) does not limit the District Court at which the appeal may be started under the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules 1999 .	4 5
(3) The notice of appeal under the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules 1999 must be filed with the registrar of the court within 28 days after—	6 7
(a) if the appellant is given a review notice for the review decision—the day the appellant is given the notice; or	8 9
(b) if paragraph (a) does not apply—the day the person otherwise becomes aware of the review decision.	10 11
(4) The court may, at any time, extend the period for filing the notice of appeal.	12 13
 110 Stay of operation of decision	 14
(1) The court may grant a stay of the operation of the review decision to secure the effectiveness of the appeal.	15 16
(2) The stay—	17
(a) may be given on conditions the court considers appropriate; and	18
(b) operates for the period fixed by the court; and	19
(c) may be revoked or amended by the court.	20
(3) The period of the stay must not extend past the time when the court decides the appeal.	21 22
(4) The appeal affects the decision, or carrying out of the decision, only if the decision is stayed.	23 24
 111 Hearing procedures	 25
(1) In deciding the appeal, the court—	26
(a) has the same powers as the chief executive; and	27
(b) is not bound by the rules of evidence; and	28
(c) must comply with natural justice.	29

(2) The appeal is by way of rehearing, unaffected by the original decision, on the material before the person who made the original decision and any further evidence allowed by the court. 1

112 Powers of court on appeal 4

(1) In deciding the appeal, the court may— 5

(a) confirm the review decision; or 6

(b) amend the review decision; or 7

(c) substitute another decision for the review decision; or 8

(d) set aside the review decision and return the issue to the chief executive with the directions the court considers appropriate. 9
10

(2) If the court amends the review decision or substitutes another decision for the review decision, the amended or substituted decision is, for this Act (other than this part) taken to be the chief executive's decision. 11
12

113 Appeal to Supreme Court only on questions of law 14

A person aggrieved by the court's decision may appeal to the Supreme Court, but only on a question of law. 15
16

PART 5—LEGAL PROCEEDINGS 17

Division 1—Application 18

114 Application of part 19

This part applies to a proceeding under this Act. 20

---

Division 2—Evidence	1
115 Appointments and authority	2
The following must be presumed unless a party to the proceeding, by reasonable notice, requires proof of it—	3 4
(a) the chief executive’s appointment;	5
(b) the appointment of an inspector or State analyst;	6
(c) the authority of the chief executive, an inspector or State analyst to do anything under this Act.	7 8
116 Signatures	9
A signature purporting to be the signature of the chief executive, an inspector or State analyst is evidence of the signature it purports to be.	10 11
117 Other evidentiary aids	12
(1) A certificate purporting to be signed by the chief executive stating any of the following matters is evidence of the matter—	13 14
(a) a stated document is an appointment, licence or notice made, given, issued or kept under this Act;	15 16
(b) a stated document is a document given to the chief executive under this Act;	17 18
(c) a stated document is a copy of a thing mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b);	19 20
(d) on a stated day, or during a stated period, a stated person was or was not the holder of a licence;	21 22
(e) on a stated day, or during a stated period, a licence—	23
(i) was or was not in force; or	24
(ii) was or was not subject to a stated condition;	25
(f) on a stated day, a licence was suspended or cancelled;	26
(g) on a stated day, or during a stated period, an appointment as an inspector or State analyst was, or was not, in force for a stated person;	27 28 29

Pest Management Bill 2001

- (h) on a stated day, a stated person was given a stated notice under this Act; 1
- (i) on a stated day, a stated requirement was made of a stated person. 3
- (2) A statement in a complaint for an offence against this Act that the matter of the complaint came to the knowledge of the complainant on a stated day is evidence of when the matter came to the complainant's knowledge. 4
- (3) A certificate purporting to be that of a State analyst in relation to a thing taken by an inspector at a place under section 69(3)(c),<sup>21</sup> or seized under section 72 or 73,<sup>22</sup> stating any of the following matters is evidence of the matters— 8
10
11
- (a) the analyst's qualifications; 12
- (b) the analyst took, or received from a stated person, the thing; 13
- (c) the thing was analysed at a stated place on a stated day or during a stated period; 14 15
- (d) the methodology used to analyse the thing; 16
- (e) the results of the analysis. 17
- (4) In a proceeding in which the chief executive applies under section 119 to recover costs incurred by the chief executive, a certificate by the chief executive stating that stated costs were incurred and the way in which, and purpose for which, they were incurred is evidence of the matters stated. 18 19
20
21
22
- (5) Subsections (6) and (7) apply if it is necessary to prove a particular article or substance (a “relevant item”) is, or contains, a particular fumigant or pesticide. 23
25
- (6) Evidence that a substance ordinarily sold under the same name or description as a relevant item is, or contains, a particular fumigant or pesticide is evidence that the relevant item is, or contains the fumigant or pesticide. 26 27
28
29
- (7) Evidence that a container holding a relevant item is labelled in the same way a container holding a particular fumigant or pesticide must be 30

22 Section 72 (Seizing evidence at a place that may be entered without consent or warrant) or 73 (Seizing evidence at a place that may only be entered with consent or warrant)

labelled under the Agvet Code of Queensland is evidence that the container holds the fumigant or pesticide. 1

Division 3—Proceedings 3

118 Summary proceedings for offences 4

(1) A proceeding for an offence against this Act is to be taken in a summary way under the Justices Act 1886. 5

(2) The proceeding must start— 7

(a) within 1 year after the commission of the offence; or 8

(b) within 6 months after the offence comes to the complainant's knowledge, but within 2 years after the commission of the offence. 9

119 Recovery of costs of investigation 12

(1) This section applies if— 13

(a) a court convicts a person of an offence against this Act; and 14

(b) the chief executive applies to the court for an order against the person for the payment of the costs the chief executive has incurred in taking a thing, conducting an analysis or doing something else during the investigation of the offence; and 15
16
18

(c) the court finds the chief executive has reasonably incurred the costs. 19
20

(2) The court may order the person to pay the chief executive an amount equal to the costs if it is satisfied it would be just to make the order in the circumstances of the particular case. 21
22
23

(3) This section does not limit the court's powers under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992 or another law. 24
25

120 Application for order for payment of costs under s 119 26

(1) An application to a court under section 119 is, and any order made by the court on the application is a judgment, in the court's civil jurisdiction. 27
28

(2) Any issue on the application is to be decided on the balance of probabilities.	1 2
121 Responsibility for acts or omissions of representatives	3
(1) This section applies in a proceeding for an offence against this Act.	4
(2) If it is relevant to prove a person's state of mind about a particular act or omission, it is enough to show—	5 6
(a) the act was done or omitted to be done by a representative of the person within the scope of the representative's actual or apparent authority; and	7 8 9
(b) the representative had the state of mind.	10
(3) An act done or omitted to be done for a person by a representative of the person within the scope of the representative's actual or apparent authority is taken to have been done or omitted to be done also by the person, unless the person proves the person could not, by the exercise of reasonable diligence, have prevented the act or omission.	11 12 13 14 15
(4) In this section—	16
“representative” , of a person, means—	17
(a) if the person is a corporation—an executive officer, employee or agent of the corporation; or	18 19
(b) if the person is an individual—an employee or agent of the individual.	20 21
“state of mind” of a person includes—	22
(a) the person's knowledge, intention, opinion, belief or purpose; and	23 24
(b) the person's reasons for the intention, opinion, belief or purpose.	25
122 Executive officers must ensure corporation complies with Act	26
(1) The executive officers of a corporation must ensure the corporation complies with this Act.	27 28
(2) If a corporation commits an offence against a provision of this Act, each of the corporation's executive officers also commits an offence, namely, the offence of failing to ensure the corporation complies with the provision.	29 30 31 32

Maximum penalty—the penalty for the contravention of the provision by an individual.	1 2
(3) Evidence that the corporation has been convicted of an offence against a provision of this Act is evidence that each of the executive officers committed the offence of failing to ensure the corporation complies with the provision.	3 4 5 6
(4) However, it is a defence for an executive officer to prove—	7
(a) if the officer was in a position to influence the conduct of the corporation in relation to the offence—the officer exercised reasonable diligence to ensure the corporation complied with the provision; or	8 9 10 11
(b) otherwise—the officer was not in a position to influence the conduct of the corporation in relation to the offence.	12 13

PART 6—MISCELLANEOUS

14

123 Notifiable incidents	15
(1) A pest management technician must, unless the technician has a reasonable excuse, give the chief executive notice about the occurrence of a notifiable incident that occurs—	16 17 18
(a) when the technician is carrying out a pest management activity; or	19 20
(b) when the technician is supervising the carrying out of a pest management activity by a trainee.	21 22
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	23
(2) For subsection (1)—	24
(a) the notice must—	25
(i) be given immediately, orally or in writing; and	26
(ii) state enough particulars to identify the incident, its nature and its location; and	27 28

(b) if notice is given orally, the technician must give the chief executive a written notice within 7 days from when the incident occurred.	1 2 3
(3) The pest management technician must not give the chief executive a notice the technician knows is false or misleading in a material particular.	4 5
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	6
(4) In a proceeding for an offence against subsection (3), it is enough for a charge to state that the statement was, without specifying which, ‘false or misleading’.	7 8 9
(5) In this section—	10
“notifiable incident” means an exposure, spillage or other release of a pesticide or fumigant that adversely affects, or is likely to adversely affect, a person’s health.	11 12 13
Example of an exposure—	14
Exposure of a person to a fumigant because of a failure of protective equipment.	15
124 Protecting officials from liability	16
(1) An official is not civilly liable for an act done, or omission made, honestly and without negligence under this Act.	17 18
(2) If subsection (1) prevents a civil liability attaching to an official, the liability attaches instead to the State.	19 20
(3) In this section—	21
“official” means—	22
(a) the chief executive; or	23
(c) an inspector or State analyst; or	24
(c) a person acting under the direction of an inspector;	25
(d) a person appointed by the chief executive to conduct a health assessment.	26 27
125 Information may be given to foreign regulatory authorities	28
The chief executive may disclose to a foreign regulatory authority information obtained by the chief executive under this Act about a person who is, or was, a pest management technician or an applicant for a licence	29 30 31

if the disclosure is necessary for the foreign regulatory authority to perform its functions.	1 2
126 Confidentiality of information about person's health	3
(1) This section applies to a person (the "relevant person") who is or was—	4 5
(a) the chief executive; or	6
(b) an inspector or State analyst; or	7
(c) a person appointed by the chief executive to conduct a health assessment; or	8 9
(d) a person otherwise involved in the administration of this Act.	10
(2) The relevant person must not disclose information about a person's health obtained by the relevant person in the course of performing the relevant person's functions under this Act.	11 12 13
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	14
(3) However, the relevant person may disclose the information—	15
(a) to the extent necessary to perform the relevant person's functions under this Act; or	16 17
(b) if the disclosure is authorised under this or another Act; or	18
(c) if the disclosure is otherwise required or permitted by law; or	19
(d) if the person to whom the information relates agrees to the disclosure; or	20 21
(e) if the disclosure is in a form that does not disclose the identity of a person.	22 23
127 Certain information may be disclosed	24
(1) The chief executive may disclose whether or not an individual is a pest management technician.	25 26
(2) For a pest management technician, the chief executive may disclose all the following—	27 28
(a) the number of the technician's licence;	29
(b) each pest management activity that may be carried out under the licence;	30 31

(c) any conditions imposed on the licence under section 26(2);	1
(d) if the technician’s licence is suspended—the licence is suspended and the period of the suspension;	2 3
(e) if the technician is employed as a technician, the name and address of the technician’s employer;	4 5
(f) if the technician is self-employed, the business name, if any, under which the technician carries on business.	6 7
128 Delegation by chief executive	8
(1) The chief executive may delegate the chief executive’s powers under this Act to an appropriately qualified officer of the department.	9 10
(2) However, the chief executive may not delegate the power to review an original decision under part 4, division 1. <sup>23</sup>	11 12
(3) In this section—	13
“ appropriately qualified ” includes having the qualifications, experience or standing appropriate to exercise the power.	14 15
Example of ‘standing’—	16
A person’s classification level in the department.	17
129 Approval of forms	18
The chief executive may approve forms for use under this Act.	19
130 Regulation-making power	20
(1) The Governor in Council may make regulations under this Act.	21
(2) A regulation may be made about the following—	22
(a) requirements about the conduct of persons, or procedures to be followed, before, while and after pest management activities are carried out;	23 24 25
(b) requirements about containers, equipment or motor vehicles used in relation to the carrying out of pest management activities;	26 27

23

(2) A fumigator’s licence is taken to be a licence under this Act to carry out a fumigation activity. 24
25

(3) A licence under subsection (1) or (2) is taken to have been issued— 26

---

25 Health Act 1937, part 4 (Drugs and other articles), division 7 (Pest control operators)

(a)	on the same conditions as those to which the pest control operator's licence or fumigator's licence was subject immediately before the commencement day; and	1 2 3
(b)	on the conditions mentioned in section 26(1). <sup>26</sup>	4
134	First renewal applications for certain licences	5
(1)	This section applies to a first renewal application for—	6
(a)	a restricted licence; or	7
(b)	a licence under section 133(2).	8
(2)	If the chief executive decides to grant the application, the licence issued under section 31(3) <sup>27</sup> expires on the determining day.	9 10
(3)	The fee for the application must be worked out using the following formula—	11 12
	$\frac{\mathbf{YF} \times \mathbf{FW}}{52}.$	13
(4)	In this section—	14
“FW”	means the number of full weeks from the day the licence mentioned in subsection (1) expires to the determining day.	15 16
“YF”	means the fee prescribed under a regulation for an application for renewal of a licence for 1 year.	17 18
135	No second renewals of certain licences	19
(1)	This section applies to a second renewal application for—	20
(a)	a restricted licence; or	21
(b)	a licence under section 133(2).	22
(2)	The chief executive must not grant the application unless the chief executive is satisfied the applicant holds a pest management qualification relevant to the pest management activity the applicant intends to carry out under the licence.	23 24 25 26

---

26 Section 26 (Conditions of licence)

27 Section 31 (Decision about application for renewal)

136 Certain licences not to include timber pests after determining day	1
(1) This section applies to a licence under section 133(1) that is not a restricted licence if, on the determining day, the pest management technician who holds the licence does not have a timber pests qualification.	2 3 4
(2) Starting on the determining day, the licence is taken not to authorise the carrying out of a pest control activity for timber pests.	5 6
(3) The technician must return the technician's licence to the chief executive within 7 days after the determining day unless the technician has a reasonable excuse.	7 8 9
Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.	10
(4) After the chief executive receives the licence, the chief executive must, as soon as practicable, issue a new licence to the technician.	11 12
137 Chief executive to give notice to pest management technicians	13
(1) This section applies if it appears to the chief executive that a licence will be affected by section 136(2).	14 15
(2) The chief executive must, at least 60 days before the determining day, give the pest management technician who holds the licence a notice that, starting on the determining day, the licence will no longer authorise the carrying out of a pest control activity for timber pests unless the technician holds a timber pests qualification.	16 17 18 19 20
138 Pending applications	21
(1) A pending application for a licence is taken to be an application for a licence under this Act.	22 23
(2) A pending application for renewal of an existing licence is taken to be—	24 25
(a) for a licence that would, if it had been renewed under a repealed provision immediately before the commencement day, be taken to be a restricted licence or a licence under section 133(2)—a first renewal application for the licence; or	26 27 28 29
(b) for a licence that would, if it had been renewed under a repealed provision immediately before the commencement day, be taken	30 31 to be a licence under section 133(1) other than a restricted licence—an application under section 29.<sup>28</sup>

(3) The provisions of this Act about making an application for a licence or an application for renewal in the approved form and paying a fee do not apply to the applications mentioned in subsections (1) and (2).

(4) In this section—

“pending application” means an application made under a repealed provision and not decided immediately before the commencement day.

139 Action to cancel or suspend an existing licence

(1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement day—

(a) a person holds an existing licence; and

(b) the person has received a notice under the Health Regulation 1996, section 107<sup>29</sup> to show cause why the licence should not be cancelled or suspended; and

(c) the commencement day is or precedes the day by which the person could show cause.

(2) The person may attempt to show cause under the repealed provisions as if this Act had not commenced.

(3) The chief executive may, after the person has attempted to show cause, cancel or suspend the existing licence under the repealed provisions as if this Act had not commenced.

(4) A suspension or cancellation under subsection (3) has effect as the suspension or cancellation of the licence the existing licence is taken to be under section 133(1).

140 Suspended licence

(1) This section applies if an existing licence has been suspended under a repealed provision and the period of suspension has not ended immediately before the commencement day.

<sup>28</sup> Section 29 (Requirements about application for renewal of licence)

(2) The suspension is taken to continue as a suspension of a licence under this Act.	1 2
141 Offences	3
(1) A proceeding for an offence against a repealed provision may be started or continued, and the repealed provisions, and other provisions of the Health Act 1937 , that are necessary or convenient to be used in relation to the proceeding continue to apply, as if this Act had not commenced.	4 5 6 7
(2) For subsection (1), the Acts Interpretation Act 1954 , section 20 <sup>30</sup> applies, but does not limit the subsection.	8 9
142 Things seized	10
A thing seized under a repealed provision, and in relation to which a proceeding for an offence under a repealed provision was not finalised or started immediately before the commencement day, is taken to have been properly seized under this Act.	11 12 13 14
143 Appeals	15
(1) Subsection (2) applies if—	16
(a) a person has, before the commencement day, appealed to the Minister under a repealed provision against a decision of the chief executive; and	17 18 19
(b) the Minister has not made a decision about the appeal before the commencement.	20 21
(2) The Minister may decide the appeal under the repealed provisions as if this Act had not commenced.	22 23
(3) Subsection (4) applies if—	24
(a) immediately before the commencement day a person could have appealed to the Minister under a repealed provision against a decision of the chief executive; and	25 26 27
(b) the person has not appealed before the commencement day.	28

30 Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 20 (Saving of operation of repealed Act etc.)

(4) The person may appeal, and the Minister may decide the appeal, under the repealed provisions as if this Act had not commenced.	1 2
(5) For giving effect to the Minister's decision under subsection (2) or (4), the Minister may give directions to the chief executive that the Minister considers necessary having regard to the provisions of this Act.	3 4 5
Example for subsection (5)—	6
On an appeal by a person against a decision of the chief executive to refuse to grant a licence under a repealed provision, the Minister may direct the chief executive to issue a licence to the person under this Act.	7 8 9
144 Governor in Council's power not affected	10
The amendment of the Health Regulation 1996 by part 8 and schedule 2 does not affect the power of the Governor in Council to further amend the regulation or to repeal it.	11 12 13
PART 8—AMENDMENT OF ACT AND REGULATION	14
145 Amendments—sch 2	15
Schedule 2 amends the legislation mentioned in it.	16
