1 Short title	4
This Act may be cited as the Psychologists Registration Act 2001 .	5
2 Commencement	6
This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.	7
Division 2—Operation of Act	8
3 Act binds all persons	9
(1) This Act binds all persons, including the State.	10
(2) Nothing in this Act makes the State liable to be prosecuted for an offence.	11 12
4 The legislative scheme	13
This Act is part of a legislative scheme (the “ legislative scheme ”) consisting of the health practitioner registration Acts, the Health Practitioner Registration Boards (Administration) Act 1999 and the Health Practitioners (Professional Standards) Act 1999 .	14 15 16 17
5 Board’s decisions to accord with decisions of certain bodies under the Health Practitioners (Professional Standards) Act 1999	18 19
(1) This section applies if the board is making—	20
(a) a decision on an application for registration; or	21
(b) a decision, under this Act, affecting a registrant’s registration.	22

(2) The decision must comply with, and be consistent with, any decision of the board, a disciplinary committee, a professional conduct review panel, the Health Practitioners Tribunal or the Court of Appeal, affecting the applicant or registration, under the Health Practitioners (Professional Standards) Act 1999 .	1 2 3 4 5
6 Mutual recognition legislation not affected	6
This Act does not affect the operation of the Mutual Recognition (Queensland) Act 1992 or the Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition (Queensland) Act 1999 .	7 8 9
Division 3—Objects
7 Objects of Act	11
(1) The objects of this Act are—	12
(a) to protect the public by ensuring health care is delivered by registrants in a professional, safe and competent way; and	13 14
(b) to uphold the standards of practice within the profession; and	15
(c) to maintain public confidence in the profession.	16
(2) The objects are to be achieved mainly by—	17
(a) establishing the Psychologists Board of Queensland; and	18
(b) providing for the registration of persons under this Act; and	19
(c) imposing obligations on persons in relation to the practice of the profession; and	20 21
(d) providing for compliance with this Act to be monitored and enforced.	22 23

(p) to perform other functions given to the board under this or another Act.	23 24
Example for paragraph (p)—	25
Under the Health Practitioners (Professional Standards) Act 1999 , section 374, the board may develop codes of practice, or adopt another entity’s code of practice, to provide guidance to registrants as to appropriate professional conduct or practice.	26 27 28 29

12 Board’s independence etc. 30

In performing its functions, the board is to act independently, impartially and in the public interest. 31
32

13 Powers of board	1
(1) The board has all the powers of an individual, and may, for example—	2 3
(a) enter into contracts; and	4
(b) enter into service agreements; and	5
(c) acquire, hold, dispose of, and deal with, property; and	6
(d) appoint agents and attorneys; and	7
(e) engage consultants; and	8
(f) fix charges, and other terms, for services and other facilities it supplies; and	9 10
(g) do anything else necessary or convenient to be done for, or in connection with, its functions.	11 12
(2) This section does not authorise the board to obtain administrative and operational support other than as required by the Health Practitioner Registration Boards (Administration) Act 1999 .	13 14 15
(3) Without limiting subsection (1), the board has the powers given to it under this or another Act.	16 17
(4) The board may exercise its powers inside or outside Queensland.	18
(5) Without limiting subsection (4), the board may exercise its powers outside Australia.	19 20
14 Delegation by board	21
(1) The board may delegate its powers under this Act to—	22
(a) a member; or	23
(b) a committee of the board consisting of appropriately qualified persons, 1 of whom must be a member; or	24 25
(c) the executive officer; or	26
(d) with the agreement of the executive officer—an appropriately qualified member of the office's staff.	27 28
(2) However, the board may not delegate its power under this Act—	29
(a) to decide to register, or refuse to register, an applicant for registration; or	30 31

(b) to decide to refuse to renew a renewable registration; or	1
(c) to decide to refuse to restore a renewable registration; or	2
(d) to decide to cancel a registration; or	3
(e) to decide to impose, or remove, conditions on a registration; or	4
(f) to enter into a service agreement.	5
(3) In this section—	6
“ appropriately qualified ” includes having the qualifications, experience or standing appropriate to exercise the power.	7 8
Example of ‘standing’ for a member of the office’s staff—	9
The staff member’s classification level in the office.	10
Division 2—Membership
15 Membership of board	12
(1) The board consists of at least 7, but not more than 11, members appointed by the Governor in Council.	13 14
(2) The board must include—	15
(a) persons who are general registrants (the “ registrant members ”); and	16 17
(b) persons (the “ public members ”) having an interest in, and knowledge of, consumer health issues who are not, and have not been—	18 19 20
(i) registered under a health practitioner registration Act or an earlier corresponding Act; or	21 22
(ii) registered or enrolled under the Nursing Act 1992 or an earlier corresponding Act; or	23 24
(iii) registered or enrolled under a law applying, or that applied, in another State or foreign country that provides, or provided, for the same matter as a health practitioner registration Act or the Nursing Act 1992 or a provision of the Act; and	25 26 27 28 29
(c) 1 lawyer nominated by the Minister.	30

(3) Also, the Minister may nominate persons who do not belong to the categories of persons mentioned in subsection (2) to be members.	1 2
(4) A majority of the members must be registrant members.	3
(5) In this section—	4
“ earlier corresponding Act ”, in relation to a health practitioner registration Act, means an earlier Act that provided for the same matter as the health practitioner registration Act or a provision of the health practitioner registration Act.	5 6 7 8
“ earlier corresponding Act ”, in relation to the Nursing Act 1992 , means an earlier Act that provided for the same matter as the Nursing Act 1992 or a provision of the Nursing Act 1992 .	9 10 11
16 Registrant members	12
The registrant members must consist of—	13
(a) at least 2 general registrants nominated by the bodies the Minister considers represent the interests of registrants; and	14 15
(b) if there are educational institutions established in the State—1 general registrant nominated by the governing bodies of the institutions chosen by the Minister; and	16 17 18
(c) at least 1 general registrant nominated by the Minister.	19
17 Public members	20
The public members must consist of—	21
(a) at least 1 person nominated by community groups and other entities the Minister considers have an interest in consumer health issues; and	22 23 24
(b) at least 1 other person nominated by the Minister.	25
18 Certain nominee board members	26
(1) This section applies for the nomination of a person or persons for a position or positions on the board under section 16(a) or (b) or 17(a).	27 28
(2) The Minister must give the entities who may make the nomination notice stating a reasonable period within which they may nominate the person or persons for the position or positions.	29 30 31

- (3) The Minister may in the notice ask the entities to nominate more than the required number of persons for the position or positions. 1
- (4) Subject to subsections (5) and (6), if the entities nominate more than the required number of persons for the position or positions— 3
- (a) the Minister must choose the nominee or nominees for the position or positions from the nominations; and 5
- (b) the person or persons chosen are taken to be the nominee or nominees, under the relevant provision mentioned in subsection (1), for the position or positions. 7
- (5) Subsection (6) applies if— 10
- (a) the entities do not nominate a person or persons for the position or positions within the period stated in the notice; or 11
- (b) the entities nominate a number of persons for the position or positions that is less than the number requested by the Minister under subsection (3); or 13
15
- (c) the person or any of the persons nominated by the entities are not eligible to be appointed to the position or positions concerned. 16
17
20
- (7) To remove doubt, if subsection (5)(b) applies, it is declared that a nomination under subsection (6) may be of, or include, a person or persons nominated by the entities. 21

19 Chairperson and deputy chairperson of board 24

- (1) The Governor in Council is to appoint a registrant member to be the chairperson, and another registrant member to be the deputy chairperson, of the board. 25
27
- (2) A person may be appointed as the chairperson or deputy chairperson at the same time the person is appointed as a member. 28
29
- (3) The chairperson or deputy chairperson holds office for the term decided by the Governor in Council, unless the person's term of office as a member ends sooner than the person's term of office as chairperson or deputy chairperson. 30 31
33

(4) A vacancy occurs in the office of chairperson or deputy chairperson if the person holding the office resigns the office by signed notice of resignation given to the Minister or ceases to be a registrant member.	1 2 3
(5) However, a person resigning the office of chairperson or deputy chairperson may continue to be a member.	4 5
(6) The deputy chairperson is to act as chairperson—	6
(a) during a vacancy in the office of chairperson; and	7
(b) during all periods when the chairperson is absent from duty or, for another reason, can not perform the functions of the office.	8 9
20 Term of appointment	10
A member is to be appointed for a term of not more than 4 years.	11
21 Disqualification from membership	12
(1) A person can not become, or continue as, a member if the person—	13
(a) is affected by bankruptcy action; or	14
(b) is, or has been, convicted of an indictable offence; or	15
(c) is, or has been, convicted of an offence against this Act.	16
(2) For subsection (1)(a), a person is affected by bankruptcy action if the person—	17 18
(a) is bankrupt; or	19
(b) has compounded with creditors; or	20
(c) as a debtor, has otherwise taken, or applied to take, advantage of any law about bankruptcy.	21 22
22 Vacation of office	23
(1) A member is taken to have vacated office if the member—	24
(a) resigns his or her position on the board by signed notice of resignation given to the Minister; or	25 26
(b) can not continue as a member under section 21; or	27
(c) is absent without the board's permission from 3 consecutive meetings of the board of which due notice has been given.	28 29

(2) Also, a member is taken to have vacated office in any of the following circumstances—	1 2
(a) if the member is a registrant member—the member stops being a general registrant;	3 4
(b) if the member is a public member—the member stops being a person mentioned in section 15(2)(b);	5 6
(c) if the member was nominated, for membership of the board, under section 15(2)(c)—the member stops being a lawyer.	7 8
(3) In this section—	9
“meeting” means the following—	10
(a) if the member does not attend—a meeting with a quorum present;	11 12
(b) if the member attends—a meeting with or without a quorum present.	13 14
23 When notice of resignation takes effect	15
A notice of resignation under section 19(4) or 22(1)(a) takes effect when the notice is given to the Minister or, if a later time is stated in the notice, the later time.	16 17 18
24 Leave of absence for a member	19
(1) The Minister may approve a leave of absence for a member (the “ approved absent member ”) of more than 3 months.	20 21
(2) The Minister may appoint another person to act in the office of the approved absent member while the member is absent on the approved leave.	22 23 24
(3) A person appointed under subsection (2) must belong to the same category of persons mentioned in section 15(2) or (3) to which the approved absent member belongs.	25 26 27
(4) If the approved absent member is the deputy chairperson, the Minister may appoint another registrant member to act in the deputy chairperson’s office while the deputy chairperson is absent on the approved leave.	28 29 30 31

25	Effect of vacancy in membership of board	1
	(1) Subsection (2) applies despite sections 15 to 17. <sup>1</sup>	2
	(2) The performance of a function, or exercise of a power, by the board is not affected merely because of a vacancy in the membership of the board.	3 4 5
26	Remuneration of members	6
	A member is entitled to be paid the fees and allowances decided by the Governor in Council.	7 8
	Division 3—Board business	9
27	Conduct of business	10
	Subject to this division, the board may conduct its business, including its meetings, in the way it considers appropriate.	11 12
28	Times and places of meetings	13
	(1) Board meetings are to be held at the times and places the chairperson decides.	14 15
	(2) However, the chairperson must call a meeting if asked, in writing, to do so by the Minister or at least the number of members forming a quorum for the board.	16 17 18
29	Quorum	19
	A quorum for the board is the number equal to one-half of the number of its members or, if one-half is not a whole number, the next highest whole number.	20 21 22

1 Sections 15 (Membership of board), 16 (Registrant members) and 17 (Public members)

30 Presiding at meetings	1
(1) The chairperson is to preside at all meetings of the board at which the chairperson is present.	2 3
(2) If the chairperson is absent from a board meeting, but the deputy chairperson is present, the deputy chairperson is to preside.	4 5
(3) If the chairperson and deputy chairperson are both absent from a board meeting or the offices are vacant, a registrant member chosen by the members present is to preside.	6 7 8
 31 Conduct of meetings	 9
(1) A question at a board meeting is decided by a majority of the votes of the members present.	10 11
(2) Each member present at the meeting has a vote on each question to be decided and, if the votes are equal, the member presiding also has a casting vote.	12 13 14
(3) A member present at the meeting who abstains from voting is taken to have voted for the negative.	15 16
(4) The board may hold meetings, or allow members to take part in its meetings, by using any technology allowing reasonably contemporaneous and continuous communication between members taking part in the meeting.	17 18 19 20
Example of 'technology allowing reasonably contemporaneous and continuous communication'—	21 22
Teleconferencing.	23
(5) A member who takes part in a board meeting under subsection (4) is taken to be present at the meeting.	24 25
(6) A resolution is validly made by the board, even if it is not passed at a board meeting, if—	26 27
(a) a majority of the board members gives written agreement to the resolution; and	28 29
(b) notice of the resolution is given under procedures approved by the board.	30 31

32 Minutes	1
(1) The board must keep—	2
(a) minutes of its meetings; and	3
(b) a record of any resolutions made under section 31(6).	4
(2) Subsection (3) applies if a resolution is passed at a board meeting by a majority of the members present.	5 6
(3) If asked by a member who voted against the passing of the resolution, the board must record in the minutes of the meeting that the member voted against the resolution.	7 8 9
Division 4—Board committees	10
33 Committees	11
(1) The board may establish committees of the board for effectively and efficiently performing its functions.	12 13
(2) A committee may include a person who is not a member of the board.	14 15
(3) The board is to decide the terms of reference of a committee.	16
(4) The functions of a committee are to—	17
(a) advise and make recommendations to the board about matters, within the scope of the board’s functions, referred by the board to the committee; and	18 19 20
(b) exercise powers delegated to it by the board. <sup>2</sup>	21
(5) A committee must keep a record of the decisions it makes when exercising a power delegated to it by the board.	22 23
(6) The board may decide matters about a committee that are not provided for under this Act, including, for example, the way a committee must conduct meetings.	24 25 26

2 See section 14 for the board’s power of delegation.

34 Remuneration of committee members	1
A committee member is entitled to be paid the fees and allowances decided by the Governor in Council.	2 3
Division 5—Disclosure of interests by board members and committee members	4 5
35 Disclosure of interests	6
(1) This section applies to a board or committee member (the “interested person”) if—	7 8
(a) the interested person has a direct or indirect interest in an issue being considered, or about to be considered, by the board or committee; and	9 10 11
(b) the interest could conflict with the proper performance of the person’s duties about the consideration of the issue.	12 13
(2) As soon as practicable after the relevant facts come to the interested person’s knowledge, the person must disclose the nature of the interest to a board or committee meeting.	14 15 16
(3) Unless the board or committee otherwise directs, the interested person must not—	17 18
(a) be present when the board or committee considers the issue; or	19
(b) take part in a decision of the board or committee about the issue.	20
(4) The interested person must not be present when the board or committee is considering whether to give a direction under subsection (3).	21 22
(5) If there is another person who must, under subsection (2), also disclose an interest in the issue, the other person must not—	23 24
(a) be present when the board or committee is considering whether to give a direction under subsection (3) about the interested person; or	25 26 27
(b) take part in making the decision about giving the direction.	28
(6) If—	29
(a) because of this section, a board or committee member is not present at a board or committee meeting for considering or	30 31

deciding an issue, or for considering or deciding whether to give a direction under subsection (3); and	1 2
(b) there would be a quorum if the member were present;	3
the remaining persons present are a quorum of the board or committee for considering or deciding the issue, or for considering or deciding whether to give the direction, at the meeting.	4 5 6
(7) A disclosure under subsection (2) must be recorded in the board's or committee's minutes.	7 8
 Division 6—Directions by Minister	 12
 36 Minister's power to give directions in the public interest	 13
(1) The Minister may give the board a written direction about a matter relevant to the performance of its functions under this Act if the Minister is satisfied it is necessary to give the direction in the public interest.	14 15 16
(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the direction may be to—	17
(a) give reports and information; or	18
(b) apply to the board a policy, standard or other instrument applying to a public sector unit.	19 20
(3) The direction can not be about—	21
(a) the registering of, or refusal to register, an applicant for registration; or	22 23
(b) the renewing of, or refusal to renew, a renewable registration; or	24
(c) the restoring of, or refusal to restore, a renewable registration; or	25
(d) the cancelling of a registration; or	26
(e) the imposing, or removal, of conditions on a registration.	27
(4) Despite section 12, <sup>3</sup> the board must comply with the direction.	28

3 Section 12 (Board's independence etc.)

Division 7—Annual reports		1
37	Matters to be included in annual report	2
	(1) The board’s annual report under the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1977 for a financial year must include the following—	3 4
	(a) copies of all ministerial directions given to the board under section 36 during the financial year;	5 6
	(b) the number of registrants at the end of the financial year;	7
	(c) details of the amount of the board’s funds spent, in the financial year, on investigations and inspections under part 5; <sup>4</sup>	8 9
	(d) details of the amount of the board’s funds spent, in the financial year, on developing or adopting training programs in the practice of the profession that are relevant to a person’s eligibility for registration;	10 11 12 13
	(e) details of the amount of the board’s funds spent in the financial year on research, relevant to the legislative scheme, into the regulation of the profession;	14 15 16
	(f) details of any policies or programs developed, or initiatives taken, by the board in the financial year for the general benefit of users of registrants’ services.	17 18 19
	(2) However, the board must exclude from the copies mentioned in subsection (1)(a) all information likely to identify a person mentioned in the direction.	20 21 22
Division 8—Other provisions about the board		23
38	Board is statutory body under the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1977	24 25
	The board is a statutory body under the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1977 .	26 27

4 Part 5 (Investigation and enforcement)

39 Board is statutory body under the Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982	1 2
(1) The board is a statutory body under the Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982 .	3 4
(2) The Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982 , part 2B <sup>5</sup> sets out the way in which the board's powers under this Act are affected by the Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982 .	5 6 7
40 Board's common seal	8
The board's common seal is to be kept in the custody of a person nominated by the board and may be used only as authorised by the board.	9 10
PART 3—REGISTRATION	11
Division 1—Preliminary	12
41 Who may apply for registration	13
Only an individual may apply for registration.	14
Division 2—Applications for general registration	15
Subdivision 1—Applications	16
42 Procedural requirements for applications	17
(1) An application for general registration must—	18
(a) be made to the board; and	19
(b) be in the approved form; and	20

5 Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982, part 2B (Powers under this Act and relationship with other Acts)

- (c) be accompanied by— 1
- (i) satisfactory evidence of relevant qualifications; and 2
  - (ii) the application fee prescribed under a regulation (the “application fee”); and 3 4
  - (iii) the registration fee prescribed under a regulation (the “registration fee”); and 5 6
  - (iv) any other documents, identified in the approved form, the board reasonably requires; and 7 8
  - (v) if the applicant is registered under a corresponding law, written details of any conditions of the registration. 9 10
- (2) Information in the application must, if the approved form requires, be verified by a statutory declaration. 11 12

Subdivision 2—Eligibility for general registration 13

43 Eligibility 14

(1) An applicant for general registration is eligible for general registration if— 15 16

- (a) the applicant is qualified for general registration under section 44; and 17 18
- (b) the applicant is fit to practise the profession. 19

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the board may be satisfied the applicant is eligible for general registration by imposing conditions on the registration under section 59.<sup>6</sup> 20 21 22

(3) Also, section 57<sup>7</sup> states when an applicant’s general registration must be subject to probationary conditions. 23 24

44 When applicant is qualified for general registration 25

(1) An applicant for general registration is qualified for general registration if— 26 27

---

6 Section 59 (Imposition of other conditions by board)

7 Section 57 (Imposition of probationary conditions)

Psychologists Registration Bill 2001

- (a) the applicant has an approved qualification; or 1
- (b) the applicant has a qualification that is substantially equivalent to, or based on similar competencies to that required for, a current approved qualification; or 2
- (c) the applicant has passed a qualifying examination in the profession set by or for, or recognised by, the board. 5
- (2) In deciding whether subsection (1)(b) is satisfied, the board may have regard to the following— 7
- (a) the advice and recommendations of— 9
- (i) an entity recognised by the board as competent to assess qualifications in the profession; or 10
- (ii) an entity responsible for accrediting courses, or accrediting institutions to educate persons, for the profession; 12
13
- (b) the attributes of the course leading to the applicant's qualification; 14
15
- Example of 'attributes' of a course—* 16
- The course objectives and competencies. 17
- (c) any other relevant issue. 18
- (3) In this section— 19
- “approved qualification” means— 20
- (a) a qualification that— 21
- (i) is conferred or awarded as a result of the successful completion of a course offered by an Australian or New Zealand educational institution; and 22
- (ii) meets the minimum requirements prescribed under a regulation; and 25
26
28
- (b) a qualification that is prescribed under a regulation. 30
- “current approved qualification” means an approved qualification that may be conferred or awarded as a result of the successful completion of a course offered, at the date of the applicant's application for 31 general registration, by the educational institution mentioned in relation to the qualification in the approval or regulation. 1

45 Fitness to practise the profession 3

(1) In deciding whether an applicant for general registration is fit to practise the profession, the board may have regard to the following— 4

- (a) the applicant’s mental and physical health; 6
- (b) the applicant’s command of the English language; 7
- (c) whether the applicant has been convicted of an indictable offence; 8
- (d) whether the applicant has been convicted of an offence against the repealed Act, this Act, the Health Practitioners (Professional Standards) Act 1999 or a corresponding law; 10
- (e) whether the applicant has been convicted of an offence, relating to the practice of the profession, against a law applying, or that applied, in the State, the Commonwealth, another State or a foreign country (other than laws mentioned in paragraph (d)), including, for example an offence of that type against— 13
17
  - (i) the Health Act 1937; or 18
  - (ii) the Fair Trading Act 1989; 19
  - (i) by the imposition of a condition—the nature of the condition and the reason for its imposition; or 23
24
  - (ii) by its suspension or cancellation—the reason for its suspension or cancellation; or 25
26
  - (iii) in another way—the way it was affected and the reason for it being affected; 27
28
- (g) if the qualification relied on by the applicant to obtain registration was conferred or awarded on a day (the “qualification day”) that is more than 3 years before the date of application, the nature, extent and period of any practice of the profession by the applicant since the qualification day; 29 30
32

- (h) any other issue relevant to the applicant’s ability to competently and safely practise the profession. 1
- (2) In subsection (1)(c), (d) or (e), mention of a conviction does not include a conviction that is not part of the applicant’s criminal history. 3
- (3) For subsection (1)(g)— 5
- (a) the passing of an examination mentioned in section 44(1)(c) is taken to be a qualification; and 6
- (b) the day the examination was passed is taken to be the qualification day. 8
- (5) If asked by the board, the commissioner of the police service must give the board a written report about the criminal history of the applicant, including the criminal history in the commissioner’s possession or to which the commissioner has access. 12
- (6) In this section— 16
- “criminal history”, of an applicant, means the applicant’s criminal history as defined under the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986, other than convictions for which the rehabilitation period has expired, and not been revived, under that Act. 17

Subdivision 3—Inquiries into applications 21

46 Board’s powers before deciding applications 22

- (1) Before deciding the application, the board— 23
- (a) may investigate the applicant; and 24
- (b) may, by notice given to the applicant, require the applicant to give the board, within a reasonable time of at least 30 days stated in the notice, further information or a document the board reasonably requires to decide the application; and 25
28
- (c) may, by notice given to the applicant, require the applicant to undergo a written, oral or practical examination within a reasonable time of at least 30 days stated in the notice, and at a reasonable place; and 29 30

---

- (d) may, by notice given to the applicant, require the applicant to undergo a health assessment within a reasonable time of at least 30 days stated in the notice, and at a reasonable place. 1
- (2) The board may require the information or document mentioned in subsection (1)(b) to be verified by a statutory declaration. 4
- (3) The purpose of an examination under subsection (1)(c) must be to assess the applicant's ability to competently and safely practise the profession. 6
- (4) The purpose of an assessment under subsection (1)(d) must be to assess the applicant's mental and physical capacity to competently and safely practise the profession. 9
- (5) The applicant is taken to have withdrawn the application if, within the stated time, the applicant— 12
13
- (a) does not comply with a requirement under subsection (1)(b); or 14
- (b) does not undergo an examination under subsection (1)(c); or 15
- (c) does not undergo an assessment under subsection (1)(d). 16
- (6) A notice under subsection (1)(b), (c) or (d) must be given to the applicant within 60 days after the board receives the application. 17 18
- (7) Also, a notice under subsection (1)(d) must state— 19
- (a) the reason for the assessment; and 20
- (b) the name and qualifications of the person appointed by the board to conduct the assessment; and 21
22
- (c) the place where, and the day and time at which, the assessment is to be conducted. 23
24
- 47 Appointment of appropriately qualified person to conduct health assessment 25 26
- (1) This section applies if the board believes it is necessary for the applicant to undergo a health assessment under section 46(1)(d). 27
28
30
- (3) At least 1 of the persons appointed to conduct the assessment must be a medical practitioner. 31
32

(4) Before appointing a person to conduct a health assessment, the board must be satisfied the person does not have a personal or professional connection with the applicant that may prejudice the way in which the person conducts the assessment.	1 2 3 4
(5) In this section—	5
“appropriately qualified”, for a medical practitioner or other person conducting a health assessment, includes having the qualifications, experience, skills or knowledge appropriate to conduct the assessment.	6 7 8 9
48 Report about health assessment	10
(1) A person appointed under section 47 to conduct all or part of a health assessment of the applicant must prepare a report about the assessment (an “assessment report”).	11 12 13
(2) The assessment report must include—	14
(a) the person’s findings as to the applicant’s mental and physical capacity to competently and safely practise the profession; and	15 16
(b) if the person finds the applicant does not have the mental and physical capacity to practise the profession, the person’s recommendations as to any conditions that could be imposed on the applicant’s registration as a general registrant to overcome the incapacity.	17 18 19 20 21
(3) The person must give the assessment report to the board.	22
49 Use of assessment report	23
(1) An assessment report is not admissible in any proceedings, other than stated proceedings.	24 25
(2) A person can not be compelled to produce the report, or to give evidence relating to the report or its contents, in any proceedings, other than stated proceedings.	26 27 28
(4) In this section—	33

“assessment report” includes a copy of the report, or a part of the report or copy.	1 2
“proceedings under the Health Practitioners (Professional Standards) Act 1999 ” includes a health assessment of a registrant by a health assessment committee under that Act.	3 4 5
“stated proceedings” means—	6
(a) a review of conditions under division 8; <sup>8</sup> or	7
(b) an appeal started under part 6; <sup>9</sup> or	8
(c) proceedings under the Health Practitioners (Professional Standards) Act 1999 , not including proceedings for an offence against that Act.	9 10 11
50 Payment for health assessments and reports	12
A person who conducts a health assessment and prepares an assessment report for the board is entitled to be paid for his or her work by the board.	13 14
Subdivision 4—Decision on applications	15
51 Decision	16
The board must consider the application and decide to register, or refuse to register, the applicant as a general registrant.	17 18
52 Steps to be taken after application decided	19
(1) If the board decides to register the applicant as a general registrant, it must as soon as practicable issue a certificate of general registration to the applicant.	20 21 22
(2) If the board decides to refuse to register the applicant as a general registrant, it must as soon as practicable give the applicant an information notice about the decision.	23 24 25

8 Division 8 (Reviewing conditions of general registrations)

9 Part 6 (Appeals)

53 Failure to decide applications

(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), if the board fails to decide the application within 60 days after its receipt, the failure is taken to be a decision by the board to refuse to register the applicant as a general registrant.

(2) Subsection (3) applies if the board has—

- (a) under section 46(1)(b),<sup>10</sup> required the applicant to give the board further information or a document; or
- (b) under section 46(1)(c), required the applicant to undergo an examination; or
- (c) under section 46(1)(d), required the applicant to undergo a health assessment.

(3) The board is taken to have decided to refuse to register the applicant as a general registrant if it fails to decide the application by the latest of the following days—

- (a) the day that is 60 days after the board receives the further information or document;
- (b) the day that is 60 days after the board receives the results of the examination;
- (c) the day that is 60 days after the board receives the assessment report.

(4) This section does not apply if the applicant is registered as a provisional general registrant.<sup>11</sup>

(5) This section is subject to section 54.

54 Further consideration of applications

(1) This section applies if the board considers it needs further time to make a decision on the application because of the complexity of the matters that need to be considered in deciding the application.

Example of an application for general registration that may require the consideration of complex matters—	1 2
An application requiring the board to obtain and consider information about the applicant from a foreign regulatory authority.	3 4
(2) The board may at any time before the final consideration day give notice to the applicant that—	5 6
(a) because of the complexity of the matters that need to be considered in deciding the application, the board needs further time to decide the application; and	7 8 9
(b) the period within which the board must decide the application is extended to a day (the “ extended day ”) that is 60 days after the final consideration day.	10 11 12
(3) Also, the applicant and board may at any time before the final consideration day agree in writing on a day (the “ agreed extended day ”) by which the application is to be decided.	13 14 15
(4) The board is taken to have decided to refuse to register the applicant as a general registrant if it does not decide the application by—	16 17
(a) if subsection (2) applies—the extended day; or	18
(b) if subsection (3) applies—the agreed extended day; or	19
(c) if both subsections (2) and (3) apply—the later of the extended day or agreed extended day.	20 21
(5) Subsection (4) does not apply if the applicant is registered as a provisional general registrant. <sup>12</sup>	22 23
(6) In this section—	24
“ final consideration day ” means the latest of the following days—	25
(a) the day that is 60 days after receipt of the application;	26
(b) if the board has, under section 46(1)(b), required the applicant to give the board further information or a document—the day that is 60 days after the board receives the further information or document;	27 28 29 30

12 If the applicant is registered as a provisional general registrant, section 73 states when the board is taken to have decided to refuse to register the applicant as a general registrant.

Psychologists Registration Bill 2001

(c)	if the board has, under section 46(1)(c), required the applicant to undergo an examination—the day that is 60 days after the board receives the results of the examination;	1 2 3
(d)	if the board has, under section 46(1)(d), required the applicant to undergo a health assessment—the day that is 60 days after the board receives the assessment report.	4 5 6
	Subdivision 5—Information in certificates of general registration	7
55	Forms of certificates of general registration	8
(1)	A certificate of general registration must be in the approved form.	9
(2)	The approved form must provide for the inclusion of the following—	10
(a)	the registrant’s name;	11
(b)	the period of the registration;	12
(c)	any conditions of registration, including, for example, any probationary conditions.	13 14
	Subdivision 6—Period of general registration	15
56	Period	16
(1)	The period of registration that is to apply to general registrants is the period (the “ general registration period ”), not more than 3 years, prescribed under a regulation.	17 18 19
(2)	If the board decides to register an applicant for general registration as a general registrant during a general registration period, the registration remains in force for the period—	20 21 22
(a)	commencing on the day when the board makes the decision; and	23
(b)	ending on the last day of the general registration period.	24

Subdivision 7—Conditions of general registration	1
57 Imposition of probationary conditions	2
(1) This section applies if—	3
(a) the board decides to register an applicant for general registration as a general registrant; and	4 5
(b) the applicant—	6
(i) has not completed, to the board’s satisfaction, the supervised practice program for the profession; and	7 8
(ii) does not, in the board’s reasonable opinion, have relevant practical experience in the profession.	9 10
(2) The board must impose the following conditions on the registration—	11 12
(a) for a registrant who has not, in the board’s reasonable opinion, practised in the profession—	13 14
(i) that the registrant may practise the profession only in accordance with the supervised practice program for the profession; and	15 16 17
(ii) that the registrant must complete, to the board’s satisfaction, the supervised practice program within the period prescribed under a regulation;	18 19 20
(b) for a registrant who has practised in the profession but does not, in the board’s reasonable opinion, have relevant practical experience—	21 22 23
(i) that the registrant may practise the profession only in accordance with the part of the supervised practice program (the “ partial program ”) decided by the board for the registrant; and	24 25 26 27
(ii) that the registrant must complete, to the board’s satisfaction, the partial program within the period decided by the board.	28 29
(3) In deciding whether an applicant has practised in the profession, the board may have regard only to practice undertaken by the applicant after completing the qualification for registration.	30 31 32

- (4) In deciding the part of the supervised practice program to be completed, and the period within which it must be completed, the board may have regard to the following—
- (a) the nature, extent and recency of any practice in the profession by the applicant, including, for example, any practice undertaken as part of a qualification in the profession the applicant has in addition to the qualification for registration;
  - (b) any reports from persons who have supervised the applicant in the practice of the profession.
- (5) The board may have regard to practice mentioned in subsection (4)(a) whether or not the practice has been undertaken under supervision.
- (6) The board must as soon as practicable give the applicant an information notice about the conditions.
- (7) Despite subsection (6), if in the application the applicant does not claim to have practised in the profession since obtaining the qualification for registration, the applicant is not entitled to an information notice merely because probationary conditions are imposed on the applicant's registration.

58 Relevant practical experience in the profession

- (1) An applicant has relevant practical experience in the profession if the applicant has experience in the practice of the profession that is substantially equivalent to the nature and extent of the practice of the profession provided under the supervised practice program.
- (2) To remove doubt, it is declared that an applicant's experience in the practice of the profession may be substantially equivalent to the practice of the profession provided under the supervised practice program even if the applicant's practice was not undertaken under the supervision of a registrant.
- (3) In deciding whether an applicant has relevant practical experience in the profession, the board may have regard to the following—
- (a) any qualifications in the profession the applicant has in addition to the qualifications for general registration;
  - (b) the nature and extent of any practice in the profession by the applicant since the applicant obtained the qualification for registration;

(c) reports from persons who have supervised the applicant in the practice of the profession;	1 2
(d) advice and recommendations about the applicant from an entity recognised by the board as competent to assess the applicant's ability to meet the competencies stated for the supervised practice program;	3 4 5 6
(e) any other relevant issue.	7
59 Imposition of other conditions by board	8
(1) In addition to any conditions imposed under section 57, the board may decide to register an applicant for general registration as a general registrant on conditions the board considers necessary or desirable for the applicant to competently and safely practise the profession.	9 10 11 12
Example of conditions of general registration—	13
A condition prohibiting a general registrant engaging in stated procedures related to the practice of the profession.	14 15
(2) If the board decides to register an applicant for general registration as a general registrant on conditions, it must as soon as practicable—	16 17
(a) also decide the review period applying to the conditions; <sup>13</sup> and	18
(b) give the applicant an information notice about the decisions.	19
(3) If the board decides to register an applicant for general registration as a general registrant on conditions because of the applicant's mental and physical health, it must also decide whether details of the conditions must be recorded in the register for the period for which the conditions are in force.	20 21 22 23 24
(4) The board must decide not to record details of the conditions mentioned in subsection (3) in the register unless it reasonably believes it is in the interests of users of the registrant's services or the public to know the details.	25 26 27 28

13 The conditions may be reviewed under division 8 (Reviewing conditions of general registrations).

60	Contravention of conditions	1
	A general registrant must not contravene a condition of the registration, including, for example, probationary conditions, imposed under this Act.	2
	Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	3
	Subdivision 8—Provisions relating to probationary registrants	5
61	Supervised practice program	6
	(1) A supervised practice program for the profession is a program, prescribed under a regulation, that provides experience, for probationary registrants, in the practice of the profession.	7
	(2) Without limiting subsection (1), a regulation prescribing a program may provide for the following—	10
		11
	(a) the number of hours of practice of the profession to be undertaken and the frequency with which the practice must be undertaken;	12
	(b) what constitutes practice of the profession for the program;	15
	(c) the requirements for the professional practice settings in which the practice of the profession must be undertaken;	16
		17
	(d) the number of hours of supervision to be undertaken and the frequency with which the supervision must happen;	18
		19
	(e) what constitutes supervision for the program;	20
	(f) the methods of supervision to be used for the program;	21
	(g) the activities to be undertaken during the program;	22
	(h) the competencies registrants must demonstrate to complete the program;	23
		24
	(i) the minimum period during which the program may be completed.	25
		26
	(3) Also, a regulation prescribing a program may provide for matters incidental to a program, including, for example—	27
		28
	(a) the responsibilities, under the program, of probationary registrants and supervisors and other persons who supervise probationary registrants; and	29
		30

(b) the requirements for probationary registrants to keep records and prepare reports relevant to the program, including, for example, log books; and	1 2 3
(c) the board's power to require a probationary registrant, the registrant's supervisor and other persons who supervise the probationary registrant in undertaking the supervised practice program, to provide information or documents, or prepare reports, about the registrant's progress and performance in undertaking the program.	4 5 6 7 8 9
62 Certain registrants must have supervised practice plan	10
(1) A probationary registrant must, within 28 days of being registered or changing supervisors, have a supervised practice plan, unless the registrant has a reasonable excuse.	11 12 13
Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.	14
(2) The probationary registrant must, in consultation with the registrant's supervisor, review the registrant's supervised practice plan at the times, and in the way, prescribed under a regulation, unless the registrant has a reasonable excuse.	15 16 17 18
Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.	19
(3) As soon as practicable after completing the review, the probationary registrant must—	20 21
(a) amend the supervised practice plan in an appropriate way and include a notation in the plan, signed by the registrant and the registrant's supervisor, that the plan has been reviewed; or	22 23 24
(b) if the registrant does not consider it practicable to amend the plan—prepare another supervised practice plan.	25 26
Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.	27
(4) In this section—	28
“ supervised practice plan ” means a plan prepared by a probationary registrant, in consultation with the registrant's supervisor, that—	29 30
(a) is in the approved form or, if a form has not been approved, includes the information prescribed under a regulation; and	31 32
(b) has been signed by the registrant and the registrant's supervisor.	33

63 Board may require probationary registrant to produce plan	1
(1) The board may, by notice given to a probationary registrant, require the registrant to give the board, within 14 days after receipt of the notice, a copy of the registrant’s supervised practice plan.	2 3 4
(2) The probationary registrant must comply with the notice, unless the registrant has a reasonable excuse.	5 6
Maximum penalty for subsection (2)—10 penalty units.	7
64 Person ceasing to be supervisor must give report to board or nominated person	8 9
(1) This section applies if—	10
(a) a person is the supervisor for a probationary registrant; and	11
(b) the person ceases to be the registrant’s supervisor.	12
(2) The person must, within 28 days after ceasing to be the probationary registrant’s supervisor, give a report about the registrant to—	13 14
(a) if a person has been prescribed under a regulation—the prescribed person; or	15 16
(b) otherwise—the board.	17
Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.	18
(3) The report must be in the approved form or, if a form has not been approved, must include the details prescribed under a regulation.	19 20
(4) Subsection (2) does not apply if a person ceases to be a probationary registrant’s supervisor because the board decides, under section 98(3), that the registrant must undertake the supervised practice program under the supervision of another supervisor.	21 22 23 24
Division 3—Provisional general registration	25
65 Meaning of “authorised person” for div 3	26
(1) In this division—	27
“authorised person” means any of the following persons who are authorised by the board to decide to register a person as a provisional general registrant—	28 29 30

(a) the executive officer;	1
(b) a member;	2
(c) a member of the office's staff.	3
(2) An authority mentioned in subsection (1) may be limited by reference to specified conditions, exceptions or factors.	4 5
66 Provisional general registration of person on probationary conditions	6 7
(1) This section applies to an applicant for general registration who does not, in the applicant's application, claim to have practised in the profession since obtaining the qualification for registration.	8 9 10
(2) Subsection (3) applies if an authorised person reasonably considers—	11 12
(a) the applicant is eligible for the registration without conditions (other than probationary conditions); and	13 14
(b) because of the period before the board is likely to consider the application in the ordinary course of its business, it is not reasonable for the applicant to wait for the board to consider the application.	15 16 17 18
(3) The authorised person may decide to register the applicant as a provisional general registrant on the probationary conditions mentioned in section 57(2)(a).	19 20 21
(4) Subsection (5) applies if an authorised person or the board—	22
(a) reasonably considers, subject to the applicant giving the board further evidence of the applicant's relevant qualifications, the applicant is eligible for the registration without conditions (other than probationary conditions); or	23 24 25 26
(b) reasonably considers—	27
(i) the applicant would be eligible for the registration without conditions (other than probationary conditions), other than for the fact that the relevant qualifications relied on by the applicant have not been conferred on, or awarded to, the applicant; and	28 29 30 31 32
(ii) the applicant is entitled to have the relevant qualifications conferred on, or awarded to, him or her.	33 34

(5) The authorised person or board may decide to register the applicant as a provisional general registrant on the probationary conditions mentioned in section 57(2)(a).	1 2 3
(6) If the authorised person or board decides to register the applicant as a provisional general registrant, the authorised person or board must as soon as practicable issue a certificate of provisional general registration to the applicant.	4 5 6 7
(7) The provisional general registration of a person must not be on conditions, other than probationary conditions mentioned in section 57(2)(a).	8 9 10
67 Confirmation or cancellation of provisional general registration	11
(1) If an authorised person decides to register an applicant for general registration as a provisional general registrant, the authorised person must as soon as practicable report to the board about the basis for the authorised person's decision.	12 13 14 15
(2) The board must consider the report and decide whether to confirm or cancel the provisional general registration.	16 17
(3) In making its decision, the board must consider whether the authorised person should have decided to register the applicant as a provisional general registrant.	18 19 20
(4) If the board decides to cancel the provisional general registration, it must as soon as practicable give the applicant notice of its decision.	21 22
68 Procedure after cancellation of provisional general registration	23
(1) This section applies if the board decides, under section 67, to cancel a person's provisional general registration.	24 25
(2) The notice of cancellation must include the reason for the decision.	26
(3) The decision takes effect on the day the notice is given to the person.	27
Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.	31

(5) Even though the board decides to cancel a person's provisional general registration, it must still consider the person's application for general registration. 1

69 Form of certificate of provisional general registration 4

(1) A certificate of provisional general registration must be in the approved form. 5

(2) The approved form must provide for the inclusion of the following— 7

(a) the registrant's name; 8

(b) the period of the registration; 9

(c) the condition that the registrant may practise the profession only in accordance with the probationary conditions mentioned in section 57(2)(a). 10

70 Period 13

The provisional general registration of a person remains in force for the period, not more than 6 months, decided by the authorised person or board when deciding to register the person as a provisional general registrant. 14

71 Board decides to register provisional general registrant as a general registrant 17 18

(1) This section applies if— 19

(a) a person is a provisional general registrant; and 20

(b) the board decides to register the person as a general registrant. 21

(2) The provisional general registration is cancelled when the person receives a certificate of general registration under section 52(1).<sup>14</sup> 22

(3) The general registration— 24

(a) is taken to have started from the day the person was registered as a provisional general registrant; and 25
26

(b) is subject to the probationary conditions to which the provisional general registration was subject. 27
28

14 Section 52 (Steps to be taken after application decided)

(4) The probationary conditions are taken to have been imposed under section 57(2)(a).	1 2
72 Board decides to refuse to register provisional general registrant as a general registrant	3 4
(1) This section applies if—	5
(a) a person is a provisional general registrant; and	6
(b) the board decides to refuse to register the person as a general registrant.	7 8
(2) The provisional general registration is cancelled when an information notice about the decision is given to the person under section 52(2).	9 10 11
(3) The person must return the certificate of provisional general registration to the board within 14 days after receiving the information notice, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	12 13 14
Maximum penalty for subsection (3)—10 penalty units.	15
73 Deemed refusal by board to register provisional general registrant as a general registrant	16 17
(1) This section applies if—	18
(a) a person is a provisional general registrant; and	19
(b) other than for section 53(4) or 54(5), <sup>15</sup> the board would have been taken to have decided to refuse to register the person as a general registrant.	20 21 22
(2) The board is taken to have decided to refuse to register the person as a general registrant on the expiry of the provisional general registration.	23 24

15 Section 53 (Failure to decide applications) or 54 (Further consideration of applications)

Division 4—Renewal of general registrations	1
Subdivision 1—Preliminary	2
74 Meaning of “recency of practice requirements”	3
(1) “Recency of practice requirements” are requirements, prescribed under a regulation, that if satisfied demonstrate that an applicant for renewal of a general registration has maintained an adequate connection with the profession.	4 5 6 7
(2) The requirements may include requirements about the following—	8
(a) the nature, extent and period of practice of the profession by the applicant;	9 10
(b) the nature and extent of any continuing professional education undertaken by the applicant;	11 12
(c) the nature and extent of any research, study or teaching, relating to the profession, undertaken by the applicant;	13 14
(d) the nature and extent of any administrative work, relating to the profession, performed by the applicant.	15 16
Subdivision 2—Applications for renewal of general registrations	17
75 Notification of imminent expiry of registration	18
The board must give a general registrant notice of the imminent expiry of the registration at least 60 days before the expiry.	19 20
76 Procedural requirements for applications	21
(1) A general registrant may apply to the board for the renewal of the registration.	22 23
(2) The application must be made within the period—	24
(a) starting—	25
(i) 60 days before the expiry of the registration; or	26

(ii) on an earlier day, if any, stated in the notice given to the registrant under section 75; and	1 2
(b) ending immediately before the expiry.	3
(3) The application must—	4
(a) be in the approved form; and	5
(b) be accompanied by—	6
(i) the registration fee; and	7
(ii) any documents, identified in the approved form, the board reasonably requires to decide the application.	8 9
(4) Information in the application must, if the approved form requires, be verified by a statutory declaration.	10 11
(5) The approved form must require the applicant to state the following—	12 13
(a) whether the applicant suffers from any ongoing medical condition, of which the applicant is aware, that the applicant knows or ought reasonably to know adversely affects the applicant's ability to competently and safely practise the profession; <sup>16</sup>	14 15 16 17 18
(b) if there are recency of practice requirements relevant to the applicant, details of the extent to which the applicant has satisfied the requirements.	19 20 21
77 General registration taken to be in force while application is considered	22 23
(1) If an application is made under section 76, the applicant's general registration is taken to continue in force from the day it would, apart from this section, have expired until—	24 25 26
(a) if the board decides to renew the applicant's general registration—the day a new certificate of general registration is issued to the applicant under section 81(1); or	27 28 29

Subdivision 3—Decision on applications 9

78 Inquiries into applications 10

- (1) Before deciding the application, the board— 11
- (a) may investigate the applicant; and 12
16
- (c) may, if the board is not satisfied the applicant has satisfied recency of practice requirements, by notice given to the applicant, require the applicant to undergo a written, oral or practical examination within a reasonable time of at least 30 days stated in the notice, and at a reasonable place. 17
21
- (2) The board may require the information or document mentioned in subsection (1)(b) to be verified by a statutory declaration. 22
23
- (3) The purpose of an examination under subsection (1)(c) must be to assess any effect the applicant's non-satisfaction of the requirements has on the applicant's ability to competently and safely practise the profession. 24
- (4) The applicant is taken to have withdrawn the application if, within the stated time, the applicant— 27
28
- (a) does not comply with a requirement under subsection (1)(b); or 29
- (b) does not undergo an examination under subsection (1)(c). 30

79 Decision

(1) The board must consider the application and decide to renew, or refuse to renew, the applicant's general registration.

(2) In making its decision, the board must have regard only to the extent, if any, to which the applicant has satisfied recency of practice requirements.<sup>17</sup>

(3) If there are no recency of practice requirements relevant to the applicant, the board must decide to renew the applicant's general registration.

80 Recency of practice requirements are not satisfied

(1) This section applies if the board is not satisfied the applicant has satisfied recency of practice requirements.

(2) The board may decide to renew the applicant's general registration on conditions ("recency of practice conditions") the board considers will sufficiently address the extent to which the applicant has not satisfied the requirements.

(3) Before deciding to renew the registration on recency of practice conditions, the board must—

(a) give notice to the applicant—

(i) of the details of the proposed conditions; and

(ii) of the reason for the proposed imposition of the conditions; and

(iii) that the applicant may make a written submission to the board about the proposed conditions within a reasonable time of at least 14 days stated in the notice; and

(b) have regard to any written submission made to the board by the applicant before the stated day.

(4) If the board decides to renew the registration on recency of practice conditions, it must as soon as practicable—

<sup>17</sup> Under section 80(2), the board may decide to renew the registration on recency of practice conditions if the board is not satisfied the applicant has satisfied recency of practice requirements.

- (a) also decide the review period applying to the conditions;<sup>18</sup> and 1
- (b) give the applicant an information notice about the decisions. 2
- (5) The imposition of the conditions takes effect on the later of the 3 following— 4
- (a) when the information notice is given to the applicant; 5
- (b) immediately after the day the registration would have expired, 6
other than for its renewal. 7

81 Steps to be taken after application decided 8

(1) If the board decides to renew the applicant's general registration, it 9 must as soon as practicable issue a new certificate of general registration to 10 the applicant. 11

(2) If the board decides to refuse to renew the applicant's general 12 registration, it must as soon as practicable give the applicant an information 13 notice about the decision. 14

(3) Without affecting section 80(2), if the board decides to renew the 15 applicant's general registration, the renewed general registration is subject 16 to the conditions, including, for example, probationary conditions, 17 attaching to the registration immediately before the decision takes effect.<sup>19</sup> 18

Division 5—Restoration of general registrations 19

82 Application of div 4, sdivs 1 and 3 20

For restoring a general registration, division 4, subdivisions 1 and 3, 21 other than sections 80(5) and 81(3),<sup>20</sup> apply as if— 22

- (a) an application for renewal of a general registration were an 23 application for restoration of a general registration; and 24

18 The conditions may be reviewed under division 8 (Reviewing conditions of general registrations).

19 The conditions may include conditions imposed under the Health Practitioners (Professional Standards) Act 1999.

20 Division 4 (Renewal of general registrations), subdivisions 1 (Preliminary) and 3 (Decision on applications), sections 80 (Recency of practice requirements are not satisfied) and 81 (Steps to be taken after application decided)

(b)	an applicant for renewal of a general registration were an applicant for restoration of a general registration; and	1 2
(c)	a renewal of a general registration were a restoration of a general registration.	3 4
83	When an application for restoration of a general registration may be made	5 6
	If a person's general registration has expired, the person may apply to the board for restoration of the registration within 3 months after the expiry.	7 8 9
84	Procedural requirements for applications	10
(1)	The application must—	11
(a)	be in the approved form; and	12
(b)	be accompanied by—	13
(i)	the restoration fee prescribed under a regulation (the “restoration fee”); and	14 15
(ii)	any documents, identified in the approved form, the board reasonably requires to decide the application.	16 17
(2)	Information in the application must, if the approved form requires, be verified by a statutory declaration.	18 19
(3)	The approved form must require the applicant to state the following—	20 21
(a)	whether the applicant suffers from any ongoing medical condition, of which the applicant is aware, that the applicant knows or ought reasonably to know adversely affects the applicant's ability to competently and safely practise the profession; <sup>21</sup>	22 23 24 25 26
(b)	if there are recency of practice requirements relevant to the applicant, details of the extent to which the applicant has satisfied the requirements.	27 28 29

21 If this information indicates to the board that the applicant may be an impaired registrant under the Health Practitioners (Professional Standards) Act 1999, the applicant may be dealt with under that Act.

85	Period of restored registration	1
	If the board decides to restore the applicant's general registration during a general registration period, the registration remains in force for the period—	2 3 4
	(a) commencing on the day when the board makes the decision; and	5
	(b) ending on the last day of the general registration period.	6
86	Conditions of expired registration	7
	Without affecting section 80(2), as applied by section 82, if the board decides to restore the applicant's general registration, the registration is subject to the conditions, including, for example, probationary conditions, attaching to the registration immediately before its expiry.	8 9 10 11
87	When recency of practice conditions take effect	12
	If the board decides to restore the applicant's general registration on recency of practice conditions, the imposition of the conditions takes effect when the information notice about the decision is given by the board to the applicant.	13 14 15 16
	Division 6—Cancellation of general registrations	17
88	Grounds for cancellation	18
	A person's general registration may be cancelled, under this division, on any of the following grounds—	19 20
	(a) that the registration happened because of a materially false or misleading representation or declaration;	21 22
	(b) for a registration on probationary conditions—that the registrant has failed to comply with the supervised practice program so far as it relates to the requirement for supervision;	23 24 25
	(c) for a registration on probationary conditions mentioned in section 57(2)(a)—that the registrant has failed to complete, to the board's satisfaction, the supervised practice program within the period stated in section 57(2)(a)(ii);	26 27 28 29

(d) for a registration on probationary conditions mentioned in section 57(2)(b)—that the registrant has failed to complete, to the board’s satisfaction, the supervised practice program within the period decided by the board under section 57(2)(b)(ii);	1 2 3 4
(e) for a registration on probationary conditions extended under section 98(1)(b)(ii)—that the registrant has failed to complete, to the board’s satisfaction, the supervised practice program within the extended period.	5 6 7 8
89 Show cause notice	9
(1) If the board believes the ground exists to cancel a general registration, the board must before taking action to cancel the registration give the registrant a notice (a “ show cause notice ”).	10 11 12
(2) The show cause notice must—	13
(a) state the board proposes to cancel the registration; and	14
(b) state the ground for the proposed cancellation; and	15
(c) outline the facts and circumstances forming the basis for the ground; and	16 17
(d) invite the registrant to show within a stated period (the “ show cause period ”) why the registration should not be cancelled.	18 19
(3) The show cause period must be a period ending not less than 21 days after the show cause notice is given to the registrant.	20 21
90 Representations about show cause notices	22
(1) The registrant may make written representations about the show cause notice to the board in the show cause period.	23 24
(2) The board must consider all written representations (the “ accepted representations ”) made under subsection (1).	25 26
91 Ending show cause process without further action	27
(1) This section applies if, after considering the accepted representations for the show cause notice, the board no longer believes the ground exists to cancel the registration.	28 29 30

(2) The board must not take any further action about the show cause notice.	1 2
92 Cancellation	6
(1) This section applies if, after considering the accepted representations for the show cause notice, the board—	7 8
(a) still believes the ground exists to cancel the registration; and	9
(b) believes cancellation of the registration is warranted.	10
(2) This section also applies if there are no accepted representations for the show cause notice.	11 12
(3) The board may decide to cancel the registration.	13
(4) If the board decides to cancel the registration, it must as soon as practicable give the registrant an information notice about the decision.	14 15
(5) The decision takes effect on the day the information notice is given to the registrant.	16 17
93 Return of cancelled certificate of general registration to board	18
(1) This section applies if the board decides to cancel a general registration and gives an information notice for the decision to the registrant.	19 20 21
(2) The registrant must return the certificate of general registration to the board within 14 days after receiving the information notice, unless the registrant has a reasonable excuse.	22 23 24
Maximum penalty for subsection (2)—10 penalty units.	25
Division 7—Reviewing probationary conditions on general registrations	26
94 Review of probationary conditions	27
Probationary conditions may be reviewed under this division.	28

95	Registrant to give notice about completion of program to board	1
	(1) A probationary registrant must, within 7 days after completing the supervised practice program, or the partial program, give notice of the completion to the board.	2 3 4
	(2) The notice must—	5
	(a) be in the approved form; and	6
	(b) be accompanied by the fee prescribed under a regulation.	7
96	Board to give notice to supervisor	8
	(1) As soon as practicable after receiving the probationary registrant's notice under section 95, the board must give a notice to the registrant's supervisor.	9 10 11
	(2) The notice must require the supervisor to give, within a reasonable time of at least 30 days stated in the notice, a supervised practice report for the probationary registrant to the board.	12 13 14
	(3) The supervisor must comply with the board's notice, unless the supervisor has a reasonable excuse.	15 16
	Maximum penalty for subsection (3)—10 penalty units.	17
97	Board's powers before making decision	18
	(1) Before making its decision under section 98, the board—	19
	(a) may investigate the probationary registrant; and	20
	(b) may, by notice given to the registrant, require the registrant to give the board, within a reasonable time of at least 30 days stated in the notice, further information or a document the board reasonably requires to make the decision; and	21 22 23 24
	(c) may, by notice given to the registrant, require the registrant to undergo a written, oral or practical examination within a reasonable time of at least 30 days stated in the notice, and at a reasonable place; and	25 26 27 28
	(d) may, by notice given to the registrant's supervisor or another relevant person, require the supervisor or relevant person to give the board, within a reasonable time of at least 30 days stated in	29 30 31

the notice, further information or a document the board reasonably requires to make the decision.

(2) The board may require the information or document mentioned in subsection (1)(b) or (d) to be verified by a statutory declaration.

(3) The purpose of an examination under subsection (1)(c) must be to assess the probationary registrant's ability to competently and safely practise the profession.

(4) In this section—

“relevant person” means—

(a) a person who was previously the registrant's supervisor; or

(b) another person who supervised the registrant in undertaking the supervised practice program, or the partial program.

98 Decision

(1) After reviewing the supervised practice report and any other relevant information or document about the probationary registrant, the board must decide—

(a) if the board is satisfied the probationary registrant has satisfactorily completed the program, or the partial program—to remove the probationary conditions; or

(b) otherwise—

(i) to cancel the registrant's registration under division 6; or

(ii) to extend the probationary conditions, for a period of not more than 1 year, by requiring the registrant to undertake a part of the program decided by the board if the board reasonably considers the registrant will satisfactorily complete the program during the period.

(2) Subsection (1)(b)(ii) applies despite section 57(2)(a)(ii) or (b)(ii).

(3) If the board decides to extend the probationary conditions, it may also impose additional conditions about the requirements for supervision on the probationary registrant's registration, including, for example, requiring the registrant to undertake the partial program under the supervision of a stated supervisor.

(4) If the board does not receive the supervised practice report within the time stated in section 96(2), the board must make a decision mentioned in subsection (1) on the basis of other relevant information or documents about the probationary registrant.	1 2

(5) If the board decides—	3
(b) to extend the probationary conditions and impose additional conditions about the requirements for supervision, it must as soon as practicable give the registrant an information notice about the decision; or	7 8 9 10
(c) to remove the probationary conditions, it must give the registrant notice of the decision.	11 12
(6) In this section—	13
“ relevant information or document ”, about a probationary registrant, includes—	14 15
(a) a report about the registrant given to the board or another person under section 64; and	16 17
(b) information or a document about the registrant obtained by the board under section 97; and	18 19
(c) information or a document about the registrant obtained by the board under a regulation under section 61(3).	20 21
99 When decision takes effect	22
(1) If the board decides to extend the probationary conditions, or to extend the probationary conditions and impose additional conditions, the decision takes effect when an information notice about the decision is given to the probationary registrant under section 98(5)(a) or (b).	23 24 25 26

100 Failure by board to make decision on application	1
(1) This section applies if the board fails to make a decision under section 98—	2 3
(a) within 60 days after receiving the supervised practice report; or	4
(b) if the board does not receive the report, within 60 days of the latest day on which the board should have received the report.	5 6
(2) Subject to subsections (2) and (4), the failure is taken to be a decision by the board to remove the probationary conditions.	7 8
(3) Subsection (4) applies if the board has—	9
(a) under section 97(1)(b), required the probationary registrant to give the board further information or a document; or	10 11
(b) under section 97(1)(c), required the registrant to undergo an examination; or	12 13
(c) under section 97(1)(d), required the registrant’s supervisor or another relevant person to give the board information or a document.	14 15 16
(4) The board is taken to have decided to remove the probationary conditions if the board fails to decide the application by the later of the following days—	17 18 19
(a) the day that is 60 days after the board receives the further information or document;	20 21
(b) the day that is 60 days after the board receives the results of the examination.	22 23
(5) The conditions are taken to have been removed on the later of the days mentioned in subsection (1) or (4) and the removal does not depend on the certificate of general registration being amended to record the removal or a replacement certificate of general registration being issued.	24 25 26 27
101 When additional conditions end	28
(1) This section applies if the board decides to extend a probationary registrant’s probationary conditions and impose additional conditions on the registration.	29 30 31
(2) The conditions remain in force until the earlier of the following days—	32 33

(a)	the day the probationary conditions are removed, under section 98(1)(a), from the probationary registrant's registration;	1 2
(b)	if the board's decision under section 98 states a day on which the conditions are to end, the stated day.	3 4
102	Amendment of, or replacing, certificates of general registration	5
(1)	This section applies if—	6
(a)	a probationary registrant receives an information notice, under section 98(5)(a) or (b), about a decision to extend probationary conditions or to extend probationary conditions and impose additional conditions;	7 8 9 10
(b)	a probationary registrant receives a notice under section 98(5)(c);	11
(c)	additional conditions imposed on a probationary registrant's general registration end under section 101(2);	12 13
(d)	the board is taken, under section 100(2) or (4), to have decided to remove probationary conditions from a general registrant's general registration.	14 15 16
(2)	The registrant must return the certificate of general registration to the board—	17 18
(a)	if subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c) applies—within 14 days after receiving the notice; or	19 20
(b)	if subsection (d) applies—within 14 days after the day the registrant actually becomes aware of the removal.	21 22
	Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.	23
(3)	On receiving the certificate, the board must—	24
(a)	amend the certificate in an appropriate way and return the amended certificate to the registrant; or	25 26
(b)	if the board does not consider it practicable to amend the certificate, issue another certificate of general registration to the registrant to replace the certificate returned to the board.	27 28 29

Division 8—Reviewing conditions of general registrations	1
Subdivision 1—Review of conditions imposed by the board or District Court	2 3
103 Review of conditions	4
Conditions, other than probationary conditions and conditions imposed under section 98(3), imposed on a general registration under this Act may be reviewed under this division.	5 6 7
104 How registrant may start a review	8
(1) The registrant to whom the conditions relate may apply to the board for a review of the conditions.	9 10
(2) However, the application must not be made—	11
(a) during the review period applying to the conditions; or	12
(b) while an appeal to the District Court about the decision to impose the conditions is pending.	13 14
(3) The application must—	15
(a) be in the approved form; and	16
(b) be accompanied by the fee prescribed under a regulation.	17
(4) The approved form must require the registrant to state—	18
(a) that the registrant believes the conditions are no longer appropriate; and	19 20
(b) the reason for the registrant’s belief.	21
(5) The board must consider the application and make a decision under section 109.	22 23
105 Review of conditions during review period	24
(1) This section applies if, during the review period applying to the conditions, the board reasonably believes the conditions may no longer be appropriate.	25 26 27

- (2) The board may, with the written agreement of the registrant to whom the conditions relate, review the conditions. 1
- 106 Board’s powers before making decision 3
- (1) Before making its decision under section 109, the board— 4
- (a) may investigate the registrant; and 5
  - (c) may, by notice given to the registrant, require the registrant to undergo a written, oral or practical examination within a reasonable time of at least 30 days stated in the notice, and at a reasonable place; and 10
13
  - (d) may, by notice given to the registrant, require the registrant to undergo a health assessment within a reasonable time of at least 30 days stated in the notice, and at a reasonable place. 14
16
- (2) The board may require the information or document mentioned in subsection (1)(b) to be verified by a statutory declaration. 17
18
- (3) Subject to section 109(2), the purpose of an examination under subsection (1)(c) must be to assess the registrant’s ability to competently and safely practise the profession. 19
21
- (4) Subject to section 109(2), the purpose of an assessment under subsection (1)(d) must be to assess the registrant’s mental and physical capacity to competently and safely practise the profession. 22
24
- (5) Also, a notice under subsection (1)(d) must state— 25
- (a) the reason for the assessment; and 26
  - (b) the name and qualifications of the person appointed by the board to conduct the assessment; and 27
28
  - (c) the place where, and the day and time at which, the assessment is to be conducted. 29
30

107 Application of ss 47–50

(1) This section applies if the board believes it is necessary for the registrant to undergo a health assessment under section 106(1)(d).

(2) Sections 47 to 50<sup>22</sup> apply as if—

(a) an applicant for general registration were the registrant; and

(b) the reference in section 47(1) to section 46(1)(d) were a reference to section 106(1)(d).

108 Deemed withdrawal of application etc.

(1) Subsections (2) and (3) apply if the conditions are being reviewed because of an application made by the registrant under section 104.

(2) The registrant is taken to have withdrawn the application if, within the stated time, the registrant—

(a) does not comply with a requirement under section 106(1)(b); or

(b) does not undergo an examination under section 106(1)(c); or

(c) does not undergo an assessment under section 106(1)(d).

(3) A notice under section 106(1)(b), (c) or (d) must be given to the registrant within 60 days after the board receives the application.

(4) Subsections (5) and (6) apply if the conditions are being reviewed under section 105.

(5) The board is taken to have decided to confirm the conditions if, within the stated time, the registrant—

(a) does not comply with a requirement under section 106(1)(b); or

(b) does not undergo an examination under section 106(1)(c); or

(c) does not undergo an assessment under section 106(1)(d).

(6) A notice under section 106(1)(b), (c) or (d) must be given to the registrant within 60 days after the board agrees with the registrant to review the conditions.

<sup>22</sup> Sections 47 (Appointment of appropriately qualified person to conduct health assessment), 48 (Report about health assessment), 49 (Use of assessment report) and 50 (Payment for health assessments and reports)

109 Decision	1
(1) After reviewing the conditions, the board must decide—	2
(a) to confirm the conditions; or	3
(b) to remove the conditions; or	4
(c) to change the conditions.	5
(2) In making its decision, the board must consider whether the conditions remain necessary or desirable for the registrant to competently and safely practise the profession.	6 7 8
(3) If the board decides to confirm or change the conditions, the conditions may only be confirmed or changed for the reasons the conditions were initially imposed.	9 10 11
(4) If the board decides to confirm or change the conditions, it must as soon as practicable—	12 13
(a) also decide the review period applying to the confirmed or changed conditions; and	14 15
(b) give the registrant an information notice about the decisions.	16
(5) If the board decides to remove the conditions, it must as soon as practicable give the registrant notice of the decision.	17 18
 110 When decision takes effect	 19
(1) If the board decides to confirm the conditions, the decision takes effect when it is made.	20 21
(2) If the board decides to change the conditions, the change takes effect when an information notice about the decision is given to the registrant under section 109(4)(b) and does not depend on the certificate of general registration being amended to record the change or a replacement certificate of general registration being issued.	22 23 24 25 26

111 Failure by board to make decision on application	1
(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), if the board fails to decide an application under section 104 <sup>23</sup> within 60 days after its receipt, the failure is taken to be a decision by the board to remove the conditions.	2 3 4
(2) Subsection (3) applies if the board has—	5
(a) under section 106(1)(b), <sup>24</sup> required the applicant to give the board further information or a document; or	6 7
(b) under section 106(1)(c), required the applicant to undergo an examination; or	8 9
(c) under section 106(1)(d), required the applicant to undergo a health assessment.	10 11
(3) The board is taken to have decided to remove the conditions if the board fails to decide the application by the latest of the following days—	12 13
(a) the day that is 60 days after the board receives the further information or document;	14 15
(b) the day that is 60 days after the board receives the results of the examination;	16 17
(c) the day that is 60 days after the board receives the assessment report.	18 19
(4) The removal of the conditions under subsection (1) or (3) does not depend on the certificate of general registration being amended to record the removal or a replacement certificate of general registration being issued.	20 21 22 23
 112 Failure by board to make decision on review agreed to under s 105	 24
(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), if the board fails to make a decision on a review agreed to under section 105 <sup>25</sup> within 60 days after the agreement, the failure is taken to be a decision by the board to remove the conditions.	25 26 27 28

113 Further decision required if certain conditions changed 20

(1) This section applies if the conditions were imposed because of the registrant's mental and physical health. 21

(2) If the board decides to change the conditions, it must also decide whether details of the changed conditions must be recorded in the register for the period for which the conditions are in force. 23

(3) The board must decide not to record details of the changed conditions in the register unless it reasonably believes it is in the interests of users of the registrant's services or the public to know the details. 26

Subdivision 2—Recording change, or removal, of conditions 29114 Amendment of, or replacing, certificates of general registration 30

(1) This section applies if— 31

Psychologists Registration Bill 2001

- (a) a general registrant receives an information notice, under section 109(4)(b), about decisions relating to a change of the conditions of the registration; or
- (b) a general registrant receives a notice, under section 109(5), about a decision to remove the conditions of the registration; or
- (c) the board is taken, under section 111 or 112, to have decided to remove the conditions of a general registration.
- (2) The registrant must return the certificate of general registration to the board—
- (a) if subsection (1)(a) or (b) applies—within 14 days after receiving the notice, unless the registrant has a reasonable excuse; or
- (b) if subsection (1)(c) applies—within 14 days after the day the registrant actually becomes aware of the removal.
- Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.
- (3) On receiving the certificate, the board must—
- (a) amend the certificate in an appropriate way and return the amended certificate to the registrant; or
- (b) if the board does not consider it practicable to amend the certificate, issue another certificate of general registration to the registrant to replace the certificate returned to the board.

*Division 9—Special purpose registrationsSubdivision 1—Applications for special purpose registration115 Undertaking of special activities relating to the profession

A person may obtain special purpose registration to undertake 1 or more of the following activities (the “special activities”) relating to the profession—

- (a) study or train at postgraduate level;
- (b) teach;
- (c) engage in research;
- (d) give clinical demonstrations.

116 Application of divs 2 and 3

(1) For a person being registered as a special purpose registrant, division 2 (other than subdivisions 2, 6, 7 and 8) and division 3 (other than sections 66 and 69(2)(c))<sup>26</sup> apply as if—

- (a) an application for general registration were an application for special purpose registration; and

- (c) a general registration were a special purpose registration; and
- (d) a general registrant were a special purpose registrant; and
- (e) a certificate of general registration were a certificate of special purpose registration; and
- (f) a provisional general registrant were a provisional special purpose registrant; and
- (g) a provisional general registration were a provisional special purpose registration; and
- (h) a certificate of provisional general registration were a certificate of provisional special purpose registration.

(2) The approved form for a certificate of special purpose registration, or provisional special purpose registration, must also provide for the inclusion of details of the special activity for which the registrant is registered.

117 Eligibility

An applicant for special purpose registration is eligible for special purpose registration if the applicant—

- (a) has a qualification required for special purpose registration; and
- (b) is a suitable person to be a special purpose registrant.

26 Division 2 (Applications for general registration), subdivisions 2 (Eligibility for general registration), 6 (Period of general registration), 7 (Conditions of general registration) and 8 (Provisions relating to probationary registrants) and division 3 (Provisional general registration), sections 66 (Provisional general registration of person on probationary conditions) and 69 (Form of certificate of provisional general registration)

118 Qualifications for special purpose registration

(1) An applicant for special purpose registration has a qualification required for special purpose registration if the applicant is the holder of a qualification in the profession recognised by the board.

(2) In deciding whether to recognise the qualification, the board may have regard to the following—

- (a) whether the course leading to the qualification has been accredited by an entity responsible for accrediting courses for the profession;
- (b) whether the educational institution conferring or awarding the qualification has been accredited by an entity responsible for accrediting institutions to educate persons for the profession;
- (c) the advice and recommendations of an entity recognised by the board as competent to assess qualifications in the profession.

119 Suitability to be a special purpose registrant

In deciding whether an applicant for special purpose registration is a suitable person to be a special purpose registrant, the board may have regard to the following—

- (a) whether the applicant has been convicted of an indictable offence;
- (b) whether the applicant has been convicted of an offence against the repealed Act, this Act, the Health Practitioners (Professional Standards) Act 1999 or a corresponding law;
- (c) if the applicant has been registered under this Act or the repealed Act or is, or has been, registered under a corresponding law and the registration was affected—
  - (i) by the imposition of a condition—the nature of the condition and the reason for its imposition; or
  - (ii) by its suspension or cancellation—the reason for its suspension or cancellation; or
  - (iii) in another way—the way it was affected and the reason for it being affected;
- (d) any other issue relevant to the applicant's ability to undertake the special activity the subject of the application.

120 Period of special purpose registration	1
If the board decides to register the applicant as a special purpose registrant, the registration remains in force for the period, not more than 1 year, decided by the board when deciding to register the applicant as a special purpose registrant.	2 3 4 5
121 Imposition of conditions by board	6
(1) The board may decide to register the applicant as a special purpose registrant on conditions, other than probationary conditions, the board considers necessary or desirable for the applicant to competently and safely undertake the special activity the subject of the application.	7 8 9 10
122 Contravention of conditions	14
A special purpose registrant must not contravene a condition of the registration imposed under this Act.	15 16
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	17
123 Provisional special purpose registration of a person	18
(1) Subsection (2) applies if an authorised person reasonably considers—	19 20
(a) an applicant for special purpose registration is eligible for the registration without conditions; and	21 22
(b) because of the period before the board is likely to consider the application in the ordinary course of its business, it is not reasonable for the applicant to have to wait for the board to consider the application.	23 24 25 26
(2) The authorised person may decide to register the applicant as a provisional special purpose registrant.	27 28
(3) Subsection (4) applies if an authorised person or the board—	29
(a) reasonably considers, subject to an applicant for special purpose registration giving the board further evidence of the applicant's	30 31

relevant qualification, the applicant is eligible for the registration without conditions; or	1 2
(b) reasonably considers—	3
(i) an applicant for special purpose registration would be eligible for special purpose registration without conditions, other than for the fact that the relevant qualification relied on by the applicant have not been conferred on, or awarded to, the applicant; and	4 5 6 7 8
(ii) the applicant is entitled to have the relevant qualification conferred on, or awarded to, him or her.	9 10
(4) The authorised person or board may decide to register the applicant as a provisional special purpose registrant.	11 12
(5) If the authorised person or board registers the applicant as a provisional special purpose registrant, the authorised person or board must as soon as practicable issue a certificate of provisional special purpose registration to the applicant.	13 14 15 16
(6) The provisional special purpose registration of a person must not be on conditions.	17 18
(7) In this section—	19
“authorised person” has the meaning given by section 65, as applied by section 116(1).	20 21

Subdivision 2—Renewal of special purpose registrations 22

124 Application of div 4, sdivs 2 and 3 23

For renewing a special purpose registration, division 4, subdivisions 2 and 3, other than sections 76(5)(a) and 81(3)<sup>27</sup> and the provisions to the extent to which they relate to recency of practice requirements, apply as if— 24

Division 10—General provisions about registrations 18

131 Person is taken to be registered under this part 19

- (1) This section applies if, under this Act, an entity decides to— 20
- (a) register a person; or 21
- (b) restore a person's registration. 22
- (2) The person is taken to be registered under this part. 23

132 Surrender of registrations 24

- (1) A registrant may surrender the registration by notice given to the board. 25 26
- (2) The surrender takes effect— 27
- (a) on the day the notice is given to the board; or 28
- (b) if a later day of effect is stated in the notice, on the later day. 29

(3) The registrant must return the certificate of registration to the board within 14 days after the day the surrender takes effect, unless the registrant has a reasonable excuse.	1 2 3
Maximum penalty for subsection (3)—10 penalty units.	4
133 Replacement of certificates of registration	5
(1) A registrant may apply to the board for the replacement of the certificate of registration if it has been lost, stolen, destroyed or damaged.	6 7
(2) The board must consider the application and decide to grant, or refuse to grant, the application.	8 9
(3) The board must decide to grant the application if it is satisfied the certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, or damaged in a way to require its replacement.	10 11 12
(4) If the board decides to grant the application, it must on payment of the fee prescribed under a regulation—	13 14
(a) replace the lost, stolen, destroyed or damaged certificate with another certificate of registration; and	15 16
(b) give the replacement certificate of registration to the applicant.	17
134 Certified copy of certificates of registration	20

- (a) prohibiting the person from providing, or carrying on or managing a business providing, a health service; or 1
- (b) prohibiting the person from having a financial interest in a business providing a health service; or 3
4
- (c) if the person is a corporation, prohibiting an executive officer of the corporation, who was in a position to influence the conduct of the corporation in relation to the offence, from managing a corporation that carries on a business providing a health service. 5
8
- (4) For subsection (3)(c), a person manages a corporation if the person is a director, or is in any way concerned in or takes part in the management of, the corporation. 9 10
11
- (5) Also, the court may make an order, applying for a period decided by the court— 12
13
- (a) prohibiting the person from entering into commercial arrangements with a person who provides, carries on or manages a business providing, a health service; or 14
16
- (b) if the person is a corporation, prohibiting an executive officer of the corporation, who was in a position to influence the conduct of the corporation in relation to the offence, from entering into commercial arrangements with a person who provides, carries on or manages a business providing, a health service. 17 18
20
21
24
- (7) A reference in subsection (5) to a person entering into commercial arrangements includes the entering into commercial arrangements on behalf of another person. 25 26
27
- (8) A person must not contravene an order under subsection (3) or (5). 28
- Maximum penalty for subsection (8)—1 000 penalty units. 29

148 Injunctions 30

- (1) This section applies if— 31
- (a) a person (the “offending party”)— 32
- (i) has engaged, is engaging or is proposing to engage in conduct; or 33

- (ii) has failed, is failing or is proposing to fail to do anything; and 1
- (b) the conduct or failure constituted, constitutes or would constitute a contravention of section 137, 138, 139, 144(1)(a), (2) or (3) or 146(1). 3
- (2) Application may be made to the court under this section for an injunction in relation to the conduct or failure. 6
- (3) The application may be made by the board or a person authorised in writing by the board. 8
- (4) The court may grant an interim injunction under this section until the application is finally decided. 10 11
- (5) On considering the application for the injunction, the court may— 12
- (a) in a case to which subsection (1)(a)(i) applies—grant an injunction restraining the offending party from engaging in the conduct concerned and, if in the court’s opinion it is desirable to do so, requiring the offending party to do anything; or 13
16
- (b) in a case to which subsection (1)(a)(ii) applies—grant an injunction requiring the offending party to do the thing concerned. 17
19
- (6) The court may grant the injunction— 20
- (a) if the court is satisfied that the offending party has engaged in the conduct, or failed to do the thing, mentioned in subsection (1), whether or not it appears to the court that the offending party intends— 21
22
23
24
- (i) to engage again, or continue to engage, in the conduct; or 25
- (ii) to again fail, or continue to fail, to do the thing; or 26
- (b) if it appears to the court that, if the injunction is not granted, it is likely that the offending party will engage in the conduct, or fail to do the thing, mentioned in subsection (1), whether or not the offending party has previously engaged in the conduct or failed to do the thing. 27
28
29
30
31
- (7) The court may grant the injunction on the terms the court considers appropriate. 32
33
- (8) Also, the court may grant an injunction requiring the offending party to take stated action (including action to disclose information or publish 34 35

- advertisements) to remedy any adverse effects of the offending party's conduct or failure. 1
- (9) The court may discharge an injunction granted under this section at any time. 3
- (10) The powers conferred on the court by this section are in addition to,
and do not limit, any other powers of the court. 5
- (11) In this section— 7
- “court” means— 8
- (a) if proceedings for an offence relating to the conduct or failure are pending in a Magistrates Court—the Magistrates Court; or 9 10
- (b) in any case—the District Court. 11

Division 6—Reprisals 12

149 Reprisal and grounds for reprisals 13

- (1) A person must not cause, or attempt or conspire to cause, detriment to another person because, or in the belief that— 14 15
- (a) anybody has given, or may give, information or assistance to the board or an inspector about a person's alleged contravention of division 1 or section 144(1)(a), (2) or (3) or 146(1);<sup>32</sup> or 16
- (b) anybody has given, or may give, evidence to the court in proceedings for an offence against division 1 or section 144(1)(a), (2) or (3) or 146(1). 19 20
21
- (2) An attempt to cause detriment includes an attempt to induce a person to cause detriment. 22
23
- (3) A contravention of subsection (1) is a reprisal or the taking of a reprisal. 24
25
- (4) A ground mentioned in subsection (1) as the ground for a reprisal is the unlawful ground for the reprisal. 26 27

32 Division 1 (Restricted titles and holding out), section 144 (Obligations of advertisers) or 146 (Aiding, abetting etc. conduct that is a ground for disciplinary action)

(5) For the contravention mentioned in subsection (3) to happen, it is sufficient if the unlawful ground is a substantial ground for the act or omission that is the reprisal, even if there is another ground for the act or omission.	1 2 3 4
150 Offence for taking reprisal	5
A person who takes a reprisal commits an offence.	6
Maximum penalty—167 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment.	7
151 Damages entitlement for reprisal	8
(1) A reprisal is a tort and a person who takes a reprisal is liable in damages to any person who suffers detriment as a result.	9 10
(2) Any appropriate remedy that may be granted by a court for a tort may be granted by a court for the taking of a reprisal.	11 12
(3) If the claim for damages goes to trial in the Supreme Court or the District Court, it must be decided by a judge sitting without a jury.	13 14
Division 7—Other provisions	15
152 Payment, or acceptance of payment, for referrals prohibited	16
(1) This section applies to a registrant, or a person carrying on a business providing professional services, (the “ service provider ”).	17 18
(2) The service provider must not, directly or indirectly, pay an amount or give another benefit, or attempt to pay an amount or give another benefit, to a person in return for the person referring another person to the service provider or service provider’s business.	19 20 21 22
Maximum penalty—200 penalty units.	23
(3) The service provider must not, directly or indirectly, accept payment or another benefit for referring a user of the professional services provided by the service provider, or service provider’s business, to a person providing, or carrying on a business providing, a health service.	24 25 26 27
Maximum penalty for subsection (3)—200 penalty units.	28

PART 5—INVESTIGATION AND ENFORCEMENT	1
Division 1—Inspectors	2
153 Functions of inspectors	3
An inspector has the function of conducting investigations and inspections to enforce compliance with this Act.	4 5
154 Powers of inspectors	6
For this Act, an inspector has the powers given to the person under this Act.	7 8
155 Limitation on powers of inspectors	9
The powers of an inspector may be limited under a condition of appointment.	10 11
Division 2—Appointment of inspectors and other matters	12
156 Appointments	13
The board may appoint the following persons as an inspector—	14
(a) a member;	15
(b) the executive officer;	16
(c) if the executive officer has agreed to the appointment, a member of the office’s staff the board considers has the necessary expertise or experience to be an inspector;	17 18 19
(d) another person the board considers has the necessary expertise or experience to be an inspector.	20 21
157 Appointment conditions	22
(1) An inspector holds office on the conditions stated in the instrument of appointment.	23 24

(2) An inspector ceases holding office—	1
(a) if the appointment provides for a term of appointment—at the end of the term; or	2 3
(b) if the conditions of appointment provide—on ceasing to hold another office (the “ main office ”) stated in the appointment conditions.	4 5 6
(3) An inspector may resign by signed notice of resignation given to the board.	7 8
(4) However, an inspector may not resign from the office of inspector (the “ secondary office ”) if a condition of the inspector’s employment to the main office requires the inspector to hold the secondary office.	9 10 11
158 Identity cards	12
(1) The board must give an identity card to each inspector.	13
(2) The identity card must—	14
(a) contain a recent photograph of the inspector; and	15
(b) be signed by the inspector; and	16
(c) identify the person as an inspector for this Act; and	17
(d) include an expiry date for the card.	18
(3) This section does not prevent the issue of a single identity card to a person for this Act and other Acts.	19 20
159 Failure to return identity card	21
A person who ceases to be an inspector must return the person’s identity card to the chairperson within 7 days after the person ceases to be an inspector, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	22 23 24
Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.	25
160 Production or display of inspector’s identity card	26
(1) An inspector may exercise a power in relation to someone else (the “ other person ”) only if the inspector—	27 28
(a) first produces the inspector’s identity card for the other person’s inspection; or	29 30

(b) has the identity card displayed so it is clearly visible to the other person.	1 2
(2) However, if for any reason it is not practicable to comply with subsection (1) before exercising the power, the inspector must produce the identity card for the other person's inspection at the first reasonable opportunity.	3 4 5 6
Division 3—Powers of inspectors
Subdivision 1—Entry of places
161 Power to enter places	9
(1) An inspector may enter a place if—	10
(a) its occupier consents to the entry; or	11
(b) it is a public place and the entry is made when the place is open to the public; or	12 13
(c) the entry is authorised by a warrant.	14
(2) For the purpose of asking the occupier of a place for consent to enter, an inspector may, without the occupier's consent or a warrant—	15 16
(a) enter land around premises at the place to an extent that is reasonable to contact the occupier; or	17 18
(b) enter part of the place the inspector reasonably considers members of the public ordinarily are allowed to enter when they wish to contact the occupier.	19 20 21
Subdivision 2—Procedure for entry
162 Entry with consent	23
(1) This section applies if an inspector intends to ask an occupier of a place to consent to the inspector or another inspector entering the place under section 161(1)(a).	24 25 26
(2) Before asking for the consent, the inspector must tell the occupier—	27
(a) the purpose of the entry; and	28

- (b) that the occupier is not required to consent. 1
- (3) If the consent is given, the inspector may ask the occupier to sign an acknowledgment of the consent. 2
- (4) The acknowledgment must state— 4
- (a) the occupier has been told— 5
- (i) the purpose of the entry; and 6
- (ii) that the occupier is not required to consent; and 7
- (b) the purpose of the entry; and 8
- (c) the occupier gives the inspector consent to enter the place and exercise powers under this part; and 9 10
- (d) the time and date the consent was given. 11
- (5) If the occupier signs the acknowledgment, the inspector must immediately give a copy to the occupier. 12
- (6) A court must find the occupier of a place did not consent to an inspector entering the place under this part if— 14
15
- (a) an issue arises in a proceeding before the court whether the occupier of the place consented to the entry under section 161(1)(a); and 16 17
18
- (b) an acknowledgment mentioned in subsection (4) is not produced in evidence for the entry; and 19 20
- (c) it is not proved by the person relying on the lawfulness of the entry that the occupier consented to the entry. 21
22

163 Application for warrant 23

- (1) An inspector may apply to a magistrate for a warrant for a place. 24
- (2) The application must be sworn and state the grounds on which the warrant is sought. 25
26
- (3) The magistrate may refuse to consider the application until the inspector gives the magistrate all the information the magistrate requires about the application in the way the magistrate requires. 27
28

Example— 30

The magistrate may require additional information supporting the application to be given by statutory declaration. 31
32

164 Issue of warrant	1
(1) The magistrate may issue a warrant only if the magistrate is satisfied there are reasonable grounds for suspecting—	2 3
(a) there is a particular thing or activity (the “ evidence ”) that may provide evidence of an offence against this Act; and	4 5
(b) the evidence is at the place, or may be at the place within the next 7 days.	6 7
(2) The warrant must state—	8
(a) that a stated inspector may, with necessary and reasonable help and force—	9 10
(i) enter the place and any other place necessary for entry; and	11
(ii) exercise the inspector’s powers under this part; and	12
(b) the offence for which the warrant is sought; and	13
(c) the evidence that may be seized under the warrant; and	14
(d) the hours of the day or night when the place may be entered; and	15
(e) the date, within 14 days after the warrant’s issue, the warrant ends.	16 17
165 Special warrants	18
(1) An inspector may apply for a warrant (a “ special warrant ”) by phone, fax, radio or another form of communication if the inspector considers it necessary because of—	19 20 21
(a) urgent circumstances; or	22
(b) other special circumstances, including, for example, the inspector’s remote location.	23 24
(2) Before applying for the special warrant, the inspector must prepare an application stating the grounds on which the warrant is sought.	25 26
(3) The inspector may apply for the special warrant before the application is sworn.	27 28
(4) After issuing the special warrant, the magistrate must immediately fax a copy (the “ facsimile warrant ”) to the inspector if it is reasonably practicable to fax the copy.	29 30 31
(5) If it is not reasonably practicable to fax a copy to the inspector—	32

(a) the magistrate must tell the inspector—	1
(i) what the terms of the special warrant are; and	2
(ii) the date and time the special warrant was issued; and	3
(b) the inspector must complete a form of warrant (a “ warrant form ”) and write on it—	4
(i) the magistrate’s name; and	5
(ii) the date and time the magistrate issued the special warrant; and	6
(iii) the terms of the special warrant.	7
(6) The facsimile warrant, or the warrant form properly completed by the inspector, authorises the entry and the exercise of the other powers stated in the special warrant issued.	8
(7) The inspector must, at the first reasonable opportunity, send to the magistrate—	9
(a) the sworn application; and	10
(b) if the inspector completed a warrant form, the completed warrant form.	11
(8) On receiving the documents, the magistrate must attach them to the special warrant.	12
(9) A court must find the exercise of the power by an inspector was not authorised by a special warrant if—	13
(a) an issue arises in a proceeding before the court whether the exercise of the power was authorised by a special warrant mentioned in subsection (1); and	14
(b) the special warrant is not produced in evidence; and	15
(c) it is not proved by the person relying on the lawfulness of the entry that the inspector obtained the special warrant.	16
166 Warrants—procedure before entry	17
(1) This section applies if an inspector named in a warrant issued under this part for a place is intending to enter the place under the warrant.	18
(2) Before entering the place, the inspector must do or make a reasonable attempt to do the following things—	19

- (a) identify himself or herself to a person present at the place who is an occupier of the place by producing a copy of the inspector's identity card or other document evidencing the inspector's appointment;
- (b) give the person a copy of the warrant or, if the entry is authorised by a facsimile warrant or warrant form mentioned in section 165(6), a copy of the facsimile warrant or warrant form;
- (c) tell the person the inspector is permitted by the warrant to enter the place;
- (d) give the person an opportunity to allow the inspector immediate entry to the place without using force.
- (3) However, the inspector need not comply with subsection (2) if the inspector believes on reasonable grounds that immediate entry to the place is required to ensure the effective execution of the warrant is not frustrated.

Subdivision 3—Powers after entry

167 General powers after entering places

- (1) This section applies to an inspector who enters a place.
- (2) However, if an inspector enters a place to get the occupier's consent to enter premises, this section applies to the inspector only if the consent is given or the entry is otherwise authorised.
- (3) For enforcing compliance with this Act, the inspector may—
- (a) search any part of the place; or
- (b) inspect, measure, test, photograph or film any part of the place or anything at the place; or
- (c) take a thing, or a sample of or from a thing, for analysis or testing; or
- (d) take an extract from, or copy, a document at the place; or
- (e) take into or onto the place any person, equipment and materials the inspector reasonably requires for exercising a power under this part; or

(f) require the occupier of the place, or a person at the place, to give the inspector reasonable help to exercise the inspector's powers under paragraphs (a) to (e); or	1 2 3
(g) require the occupier of the place, or a person at the place, to give the inspector information to help the inspector ascertain whether this Act is being complied with.	4 5 6
(4) When making a requirement mentioned in subsection (3)(f) or (g), the inspector must warn the person it is an offence to fail to comply with the requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	7 8 9
168 Failure to help inspector	10
(1) A person required to give reasonable help under section 167(3)(f) must comply with the requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	11 12 13
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	14
(2) If an individual is required under section 167(3)(f) to give information, or produce a document, it is a reasonable excuse for the individual not to comply with the requirement that complying with the requirement might tend to incriminate the individual.	15 16 17 18
169 Failure to give information	19
(1) A person of whom a requirement is made under section 167(3)(g) must comply with the requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	20 21 22
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	23
(2) It is a reasonable excuse for an individual not to comply with the requirement that complying with the requirement might tend to incriminate the individual.	24 25 26
Subdivision 4—Power to seize evidence
170 Seizing evidence at a place that may be entered without consent or warrant	28 29
An inspector who enters a place that may be entered under this division without the consent of the occupier and without a warrant, may seize a	30 31

thing at the place if the inspector reasonably believes the thing is evidence of an offence against this Act.	1 2
171 Seizing evidence at a place that may only be entered with consent or warrant	3 4
(1) This section applies if—	5
(a) an inspector is authorised to enter a place under this division only with the consent of the occupier of the place or a warrant; and	6 7
(b) the inspector enters the place after obtaining the necessary consent or warrant.	8 9
(2) If the inspector enters the place with the occupier’s consent, the inspector may seize a thing at the place if—	10 11
(a) the inspector reasonably believes the thing is evidence of an offence against this Act; and	12 13
(b) seizure of the thing is consistent with the purpose of entry as told to the occupier when asking for the occupier’s consent.	14 15
(3) If the inspector enters the place with a warrant, the inspector may seize the evidence for which the warrant was issued.	16 17
(4) The inspector also may seize anything else at the place if the inspector reasonably believes—	18 19
(a) the thing is evidence of an offence against this Act; and	20
(b) the seizure is necessary to prevent the thing being—	21
(i) hidden, lost or destroyed; or	22
(ii) used to continue, or repeat, the offence.	23
(5) Also, the inspector may seize a thing at the place if the inspector reasonably believes it has just been used in committing an offence against this Act.	24 25 26
172 Securing seized things	27
Having seized a thing, an inspector may—	28
(a) move the thing from the place where it was seized (the “ place of seizure ”); or	29 30

(b) leave the thing at the place of seizure but take reasonable action to restrict access to it.	1 2
Examples of restricting access to a thing—	3
1. Sealing a thing and marking it to show access to it is restricted.	4
2. Sealing the entrance to a room where the seized thing is situated and marking the entrance to show access to the room is restricted.	5 6
173 Tampering with seized things	7
If an inspector restricts access to a seized thing, a person must not tamper, or attempt to tamper, with the thing, or something restricting access to the thing, without an inspector's approval.	8 9 10
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	11
174 Powers to support seizure	12
(1) To enable a thing to be seized, an inspector may require the person in control of it—	13 14
(a) to take it to a stated reasonable place by a stated reasonable time; and	15 16
(b) if necessary, to remain in control of it at the stated place for a reasonable time.	17 18
(2) The requirement—	19
(a) must be made by notice in the approved form; or	20
(b) if for any reason it is not practicable to give the notice, may be made orally and confirmed by notice in the approved form as soon as practicable.	21 22 23
(3) A further requirement may be made under this section about the same thing if it is necessary and reasonable to make the further requirement.	24 25 26
(4) A person of whom a requirement is made under subsection (1) or (3) must comply with the requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	27 28 29
Maximum penalty for subsection (4)—50 penalty units.	30

175 Receipts for seized things	1
(1) As soon as practicable after an inspector seizes a thing, the inspector must give a receipt for it to the person from whom it was seized.	2 3
(2) However, if for any reason it is not practicable to comply with subsection (1), the inspector must leave the receipt at the place of seizure in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way.	4 5 6
(3) The receipt must describe generally each thing seized and its condition.	7 8
(4) This section does not apply to a thing if it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to give the receipt, given the thing's nature, condition and value.	9 10 11
176 Forfeiture of seized things	12
(1) A seized thing is forfeited to the State if the inspector who seized the thing—	13 14
(a) can not find its owner, after making reasonable inquiries; or	15
(b) can not return it to its owner, after making reasonable efforts; or	16
(c) reasonably believes it is necessary to retain the thing to prevent it being used to commit an offence against this Act.	17 18
(2) In applying subsection (1)—	19
(a) subsection (1)(a) does not require the inspector to make inquiries if it would be unreasonable to make inquiries to find the owner; and	20 21 22
(b) subsection (1)(b) does not require the inspector to make efforts if it would be unreasonable to make efforts to return the thing to its owner.	23 24 25
(3) If the inspector makes a decision under subsection (1)(c), resulting in the seized thing being forfeited to the State, the inspector must immediately give the owner an information notice for the decision.	26 27 28
(4) Subsection (3) does not apply if—	29
(a) the inspector can not find the owner, after making reasonable inquiries; or	30 31
(b) it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to give the information notice.	32 33

(5) Regard must be had to a thing's nature, condition and value—	1
(a) in deciding—	2
(i) whether it is reasonable to make inquiries or efforts; and	3
(ii) if making inquiries or efforts, what inquiries or efforts, including the period over which they are made, are reasonable; or	4 5 6
(b) in deciding whether it would be unreasonable to give the information notice.	7 8
177 Forfeiture on conviction	9
(1) On the conviction of a person for an offence against this Act, the court may order the forfeiture to the State of—	10 11
(a) anything used to commit the offence; or	12
(b) anything else the subject of the offence.	13
(2) The court may make the order—	14
(a) whether or not the thing has been seized; and	15
(b) if the thing has been seized, whether or not the thing has been returned to its owner.	16 17
(3) The court may make any order to enforce the forfeiture it considers appropriate.	18 19
(4) This section does not limit the court's powers under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992 or another law.	20 21
178 Dealing with forfeited things etc.	22
(1) On the forfeiture of a thing to the State, the thing becomes the State's property and may be dealt with by the executive officer as the executive officer considers appropriate.	23 24 25
(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the executive officer may destroy or dispose of the thing.	26 27
(3) Despite subsection (1), the executive officer must not deal with the thing in a way that could prejudice the outcome of—	28 29
(a) an appeal started under section 193(3); or	30

(b) another appeal, relevant to the thing, of which the executive officer is aware.	1 2
179 Return of seized things	3
(1) If a seized thing has not been forfeited, the inspector must return it to its owner—	4 5
(a) at the end of 6 months; or	6
(b) if a proceeding for an offence involving the thing is started within 6 months, at the end of the proceeding and any appeal from the proceeding.	7 8 9
(2) Despite subsection (1), unless the thing has been forfeited, the inspector must immediately return a thing seized as evidence to its owner if the inspector stops being satisfied its continued retention as evidence is necessary.	10 11 12 13
180 Access to seized things	14
(1) Until a seized thing is forfeited or returned, an inspector must allow its owner to inspect it and, if it is a document, to copy it.	15 16
(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to allow the inspection or copying.	17 18
Subdivision 5—Power to obtain information
181 Power to require name and address	20
(1) This section applies if—	21
(a) an inspector finds a person committing an offence against this Act; or	22 23
(b) an inspector finds a person in circumstances that lead, or has information that leads, the inspector to reasonably suspect the person has just committed an offence against this Act.	24 25 26
(2) The inspector may require the person to state the person's name and residential address.	27 28

(4) The inspector may require the person to give evidence of the correctness of the stated name or residential address if the inspector reasonably suspects the stated name or address is false. 4

(5) A requirement under subsection (2) or (4) is called a “personal details requirement”. 7

182 Failure to give name or address 9

(1) A person of whom a personal details requirement is made must comply with the requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse. 10

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units. 12

(2) A person does not commit an offence against subsection (1) if— 13

(a) the person was required to state the person's name and residential address by an inspector who suspected the person had committed an offence against this Act; and 14

(b) the person is not proved to have committed the offence. 17

183 Power to require production of documents 18

(1) An inspector may require a person to make available for inspection by an inspector, or produce to the inspector for inspection, at a reasonable time and place nominated by the inspector a document issued to the person under this Act. 19
22

(2) The inspector may keep the document to copy it. 23

(3) The inspector must return the document to the person as soon as practicable after copying it. 24
25

(4) While the document is in the inspector's possession, the inspector must allow it to be inspected or copied, at a reasonable time, by a person who would be entitled to inspect or copy it were it not in the inspector's possession. 26 27
29

(5) A requirement under subsection (1) is called a “document production requirement”. 30
31

184 Failure to produce document

(1) A person of whom a document production requirement is made must comply with the requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

(2) It is not a reasonable excuse for an individual not to comply with a document production requirement if complying with the requirement might tend to incriminate the individual.

185 Power to require information

(1) This section applies if an inspector reasonably believes—

- (a) an offence against this Act has been committed; and
- (b) a person may be able to give information about the offence.

(2) The inspector may, by notice given to the person, require the person to give information, including a document, about the offence to the inspector at a stated reasonable time and place.

(3) The person must comply with a requirement under subsection (2), unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

(4) For this section, it is a reasonable excuse for an individual to fail to give information that giving the information might tend to incriminate the individual.

Division 4—General enforcement matters186 Notice of damage

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) an inspector damages property when exercising or purporting to exercise a power; or
- (b) a person (the “other person”) acting under the direction of an inspector damages property.

(2) The inspector must immediately give notice of particulars of the damage to the person who appears to the inspector to be the owner of the property.

- (3) If the inspector believes the damage was caused by a latent defect in the property or circumstances beyond the inspector's or other person's control, the inspector may state the belief in the notice. 1
- (4) If, for any reason, it is impracticable to comply with subsection (2), the inspector must leave the notice in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way where the damage happened. 4
- (5) This section does not apply to damage the inspector reasonably believes is trivial. 7 8
- (6) In this section— 9
“owner”, of property, includes the person in possession or control of it. 10

187 Compensation 11

- (1) A person may claim from the board the cost of repairing or replacing property damaged because of the exercise or purported exercise of a power under any of the following subdivisions of division 3<sup>33</sup>— 12
13
14
- subdivision 1 (Entry of places) 15
  - subdivision 3 (Powers after entry) 16
  - subdivision 4 (Power to seize evidence). 17
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), compensation may be claimed for loss or expense incurred in complying with a requirement made of the person under the subdivision. 18
20
- (3) Compensation may be claimed and ordered to be paid in a proceeding— 21 22
- (a) brought in a court with jurisdiction for the recovery of the amount of compensation claimed; or 23 24
  - (b) for an offence against this Act brought against the person claiming compensation. 25 26
- (4) A court may order compensation to be paid only if it is satisfied it is just to make the order in the circumstances of the particular case. 27

33 Division 3 (Powers of inspectors)

188 False or misleading information	1
A person must not give information to an inspector the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular.	2 3
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	4
189 False or misleading documents	5
(1) A person must not give an inspector a document containing information the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular.	6 7 8
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	9
(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person if the person, when giving the document—	10 11
(a) tells the inspector, to the best of the person’s ability, how it is false or misleading; and	12 13
(b) if the person has, or can reasonably obtain, the correct information, gives the correct information.	14 15
190 Obstructing inspectors	16
(1) A person must not obstruct an inspector in the exercise of a power, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	17 18
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	19
(2) If a person has obstructed an inspector and the inspector decides to proceed with the exercise of the power, the inspector must warn the person that—	20 21 22
(a) it is an offence to obstruct the inspector, unless the person has a reasonable excuse; and	23 24
(b) the inspector considers the person’s conduct is an obstruction.	25
(3) In this section—	26
“ obstruct ” includes hinder and attempt to obstruct or hinder.	27

191 Impersonation of inspectors	1
A person must not pretend to be an inspector.	2
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	3
PART 6—APPEALS	4
192 Who may appeal	5
(1) A person (the “ appellant ”) who is given, or is entitled to be given, an information notice for a decision (the “ original decision ”) may appeal against the decision to the District Court. <sup>34</sup>	6 7 8
(2) To help users of this Act, schedule 1 identifies the decisions for which an information notice must be given under this Act.	9 10
193 Starting appeals	11
(1) The appeal may be started at—	12
(a) the District Court at the place where the person resides or carries on business; or	13 14
(b) the District Court at Brisbane.	15
(2) Subsection (1) does not limit the District Court at which the appeal may be started under the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules 1999 .	16 17
(3) The notice of appeal under the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules 1999 must be filed with the registrar of the court within 28 days after—	18 19
(a) if the appellant is given an information notice for the original decision—the day the appellant is given the notice; or	20 21
(b) if paragraph (a) does not apply—the day the person otherwise becomes aware of the original decision.	22 23
(4) The court may, at any time, extend the period for filing the notice of appeal.	24 25

34 The Uniform Civil Procedure Rules 1999 contains provisions about appeals to the District Court.

194 Hearing procedures	1
(1) In deciding the appeal, the court—	2
(a) has the same powers as the person who made the original decision; and	3 4
(b) is not bound by the rules of evidence; and	5
(c) must comply with natural justice.	6
(2) The appeal is by way of rehearing, unaffected by the original decision, on the material before the person who made the original decision and any further evidence allowed by the court.	7 8 9
195 Powers of court on appeal	10
(1) In deciding the appeal, the court may—	11
(a) confirm the original decision; or	12
(b) amend the original decision; or	13
(c) substitute another decision for the original decision; or	14
(d) set aside the original decision and return the issue to the board with the directions the court considers appropriate.	15 16
(2) In substituting another decision for the original decision, the court has the same powers as the person who made the original decision.	17 18
Example—	19
The court may decide that an unsuccessful applicant for general registration be registered either unconditionally or on particular conditions.	20 21
(3) If the court amends the original decision or substitutes another decision for the original decision, the amended or substituted decision is, for this Act (other than this part) taken to be the decision of the person who made the original decision.	22 23 24 25
(4) If the court decides to impose conditions on a registration, the court must—	26 27
(a) state the reasons for the decision; and	28

- (b) if the registration is a general registration, decide and state the review period applying to the conditions.<sup>35</sup> 1
- (5) If the court decides to impose conditions on a registration because of the registrant's mental and physical health, it must also decide whether details of the conditions must be recorded in the register for the period for which the conditions are in force. 3
- (6) The court must decide not to record details of the conditions mentioned in subsection (5) in the register unless it reasonably believes it is in the interests of users of the registrant's services or the public to know the details. 7

196 Appointment of assessors 11

(1) If the court is of the opinion that the appeal involves a question of special knowledge and skill, the court may appoint 1 or more assessors who in the court's opinion possess the special qualifications necessary for the particular case to assist the court in its deciding the appeal. 12
15

(2) An assessor may advise the court on any matter, but all questions of law and fact are to be decided by the court. 16
17

(3) The court may give the weight to the advice that it considers appropriate. 18 19

PART 7—LEGAL PROCEEDINGS 20

Division 1—Evidence 21

197 Application of division 22

This division applies to a proceeding under this Act. 23

---

35 The conditions may be reviewed under part 3 (Registration), division 8 (Reviewing conditions of general registrations).

198 Appointments and authority	1
It is not necessary to prove—	2
(a) an inspector's, or member's, appointment; or	3
(b) the executive officer's appointment; or	4
(c) the authority of an inspector, a member, the executive officer or a member of the office's staff to do anything under this Act.	5 6
199 Signatures	7
A signature purporting to be the signature of the Minister, the chairperson, a member, an inspector, the executive officer or a member of the office's staff is evidence of the signature it purports to be.	8 9 10
200 Evidentiary provisions	11
A certificate purporting to be signed by the executive officer and stating any of the following matters is evidence of the matter—	12 13
(a) a stated document is one of the following things made, given, issued or kept under this Act—	14 15
(i) an appointment, approval or decision;	16
(ii) a notice, direction or requirement;	17
(iii) a certificate of registration;	18
(iv) a record, or an extract from a record;	19
(v) the register, or an extract from the register;	20
(b) a stated document is another document kept under this Act;	21
(c) a stated document is a copy of a thing mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b);	22 23
(d) on a stated day, or during a stated period, a stated person was or was not a registrant;	24 25
(e) on a stated day, or during a stated period, a registration—	26
(i) was or was not in force; or	27
(ii) was or was not subject to a stated condition;	28
(f) on a stated day, a registration was cancelled;	29

(g) on a stated day, or during a stated period, an appointment as an inspector was, or was not, in force for a stated person;	1 2
(h) on a stated day, a stated person was given a stated notice or direction under this Act;	3 4
(i) on a stated day, a stated requirement was made of a stated person.	5
 Division 2—Proceedings
201 Indictable and summary offences	7
(1) An offence against section 150 <sup>36</sup> is an indictable offence.	8
(2) Any other offence against this Act is a summary offence.	9
 202 Proceedings for indictable offences	 10
(1) A proceeding for an indictable offence against this Act may be taken, at the election of the prosecution—	11 12
(a) by way of summary proceeding under the Justices Act 1886 ; or	13
(b) on indictment.	14
(2) A magistrate must not hear an indictable offence summarily if—	15
(a) the defendant asks at the start of the hearing that the charge be prosecuted on indictment; or	16 17
(b) the magistrate considers the charge should be prosecuted on indictment.	18 19
(3) If subsection (2) applies—	20
(a) the magistrate must proceed by way of an examination of witnesses for an indictable offence; and	21 22
(b) a plea of the person charged at the start of the proceeding must be disregarded; and	23 24
(c) evidence brought in the proceeding before the magistrate decided to act under subsection (2) is taken to be evidence in the proceeding for the committal of the person for trial or sentence; and	25 26 27 28

36 Section 150 (Offence for taking reprisal)

(d) before committing the person for trial or sentence, the magistrate must make a statement to the person as required by the Justices Act 1886 , section 104(2)(b). <sup>37</sup>	1 2 3
203 Limitation on who may summarily hear indictable offence	4
(1) The proceeding must be before a magistrate if it is a proceeding—	5
(a) for the summary conviction of a person on a charge for an indictable offence; or	6 7
(b) for an examination of witnesses for a charge for an indictable offence.	8 9
(2) However, if the proceeding is brought before a justice who is not a magistrate, jurisdiction is limited to taking or making a procedural action or order within the meaning of the Justices of the Peace and Commissioners for Declarations Act 1991 .	10 11 12 13
204 Limitation on time for starting summary proceedings	14
A proceeding for a summary offence against this Act by way of summary proceeding under the Justices Act 1886 must start—	15 16
(a) within 1 year after the commission of the offence; or	17
(b) within 6 months after the offence comes to the complainant's knowledge, but within 2 years after the commission of the offence.	18 19 20
205 Allegations of false or misleading information or documents	21
In any proceeding for an offence against this Act defined as involving false or misleading information, or a false or misleading document, it is enough for a charge to state that the information or document was, without specifying which, 'false or misleading'.	22 23 24 25

<sup>37</sup> Justices Act 1886, section 104 (Proceedings upon an examination of witnesses in relation to an indictable offence)

206 Penalties to be paid to board	1
All penalties recovered as a result of proceedings for offences against this Act brought by the board must be ordered to be paid to the board.	2 3
207 Responsibility for acts or omissions of representatives	4
(1) This section applies in a proceeding for an offence against this Act.	5
(2) If it is relevant to prove a person’s state of mind about a particular act or omission, it is enough to show—	6 7
(a) the act was done or omitted to be done by a representative of the person within the scope of the representative’s actual or apparent authority; and	8 9 10
(b) the representative had the state of mind.	11
(3) An act done or omitted to be done for a person by a representative of the person within the scope of the representative’s actual or apparent authority is taken to have been done or omitted to be done also by the person, unless the person proves the person could not, by the exercise of reasonable diligence, have prevented the act or omission.	12 13 14 15 16
(4) In this section—	17
“representative” means—	18
(a) for a corporation—an executive officer, employee or agent of the corporation; or	19 20
(b) for an individual—an employee or agent of the individual.	21
“state of mind” of a person includes—	22
(a) the person’s knowledge, intention, opinion, belief or purpose; and	23 24
(b) the person’s reasons for the intention, opinion, belief or purpose.	25
208 Executive officers must ensure corporation complies with Act	26
(1) The executive officers of a corporation must ensure the corporation complies with this Act.	27 28
(2) If a corporation commits an offence against a provision of this Act, each of the corporation’s executive officers also commits an offence,	29 30

- namely, the offence of failing to ensure the corporation complies with the provision. 1
- Maximum penalty—the penalty for the contravention of the provision by an individual. 3
- (3) Evidence that the corporation has been convicted of an offence against a provision of this Act is evidence that each of the executive officers committed the offence of failing to ensure the corporation complies with the provision. 5
- (4) However, it is a defence for an executive officer to prove— 9
- (a) if the officer was in a position to influence the conduct of the corporation in relation to the offence, the officer exercised reasonable diligence to ensure the corporation complied with the provision; or 10
13
- (b) the officer was not in a position to influence the conduct of the corporation in relation to the offence. 14
15

PART 8—REGISTER, RECORDS AND INFORMATION 16

Division 1—Register 17

- 209 Register to be kept 18
- (1) The board must keep a register about registrants. 19
- (2) The register may be kept in the way the board considers appropriate, including, for example, in an electronic form. 20 21
- (3) The register must contain the following details for each registrant— 22
- (a) the registrant’s name; 23
- (b) an address of the registrant notified by the registrant to the board; 24
- (c) whether the registrant is a general registrant, provisional general registrant, special purpose registrant or provisional special purpose registrant; 25 26
27
- (d) the qualification relied on by the registrant to obtain registration; 28

Psychologists Registration Bill 2001

- (e) if the registrant is a special purpose registrant or provisional special purpose registrant, details of the special activity for which the registrant is registered; 1
- (f) if conditions, including, for example, any probationary conditions, are imposed, under this Act, on the registrant's registration— 4
- (i) for conditions imposed because of the registrant's mental and physical health, the details of which it has been decided under this Act not to record in the register—the fact that conditions have been imposed; or 7
10
- (ii) otherwise—details of the conditions; 11
- (g) any other information required to be recorded in the register under the Health Practitioners (Professional Standards) Act 1999; 12 13
14
- (h) other details prescribed under a regulation. 15
- (4) For subsection (3)(f), the fact or details must be recorded in the register for the period the conditions are in force. 16
17

210 Inspection of register 18

- (1) The board must— 19
- (a) keep the register open for inspection, free of charge, at the office by members of the public during ordinary office hours; and 20 21
- (b) give a person a copy of the register, or a part of it, on payment of the fee prescribed under a regulation. 22
23
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to details of the residential address of a registrant, unless the registrant gives notice to the board that he or she agrees to the details being able to be inspected. 24 25

Division 2—Records to be kept 27211 Records 28

- (1) The board must keep records of the following details about each registrant or former registrant— 29 30

Psychologists Registration Bill 2001

- |   |             |
|---|-------------|
| (a) if the registration was affected under the Health Practitioners (Professional Standards) Act 1999 , details of the way it was affected and the reason for it being affected; | 123 |
| (b) if the registration was cancelled under this Act, the fact of, and the reason for, the cancellation;  | 45      |
| (c) if conditions were, under this Act, imposed on the registration, details of the conditions and the reasons for their imposition;  | 67      |
| (d) other details prescribed under a regulation.  | 8           |
| (2) The records must be kept for at least 10 years.   | 9           |

Division 3—Information 10212 Confidentiality of information 11

(1) This section applies to a person (the “relevant person”) who is or was— 12
13

- |   |          |
|---|----------|
| (a) a member; or  | 14       |
| (b) a member of a committee; or   | 15       |

45 Section 19 (Chairperson and deputy chairperson of board)

“existing deputy chairperson” means the person who, immediately before the commencement, held office as the deputy chairperson of the former board.	1 2 3
245 Appeals	4
(1) Subsection (2) applies if—	5
(a) a person has appealed to the District Court under repealed section 27 before the commencement against a decision of the former board; and	6 7 8
(b) the appeal has not been decided before the commencement.	9
(2) The District Court may hear, or continue to hear, and decide the appeal under the repealed Act as if this Act had not commenced.	10 11
(3) Subsection (4) applies if—	12
(a) immediately before the commencement a person could have appealed to the District Court under the repealed section 27 against a decision of the former board; and	13 14 15
(b) the person has not appealed before the commencement.	16
(4) The person may appeal, and the District Court may hear and decide the appeal, under the repealed Act as if this Act had not commenced.	17 18
(5) For giving effect to its decision under subsection (2) or (4), the District Court may make the orders it considers necessary having regard to the provisions of this Act.	19 20 21
Example for subsection (5)—	22
On an appeal by a person against a decision of the former board to refuse to register the person as a psychologist under the repealed Act, the District Court may order that the board register the person under this Act.	23 24 25
(6) In this section—	26
“District Court” includes a District Court judge.	27
“repealed section 27” means section 27 of the repealed Act.	28
246 Existing registrations	29
(1) This section applies to a person who immediately before the commencement was registered, under the repealed Act, for a category of	30 31

Psychologists Registration Bill 2001

registration mentioned in column 1 of the following table (the “column 1 registration”)—

Table

column 1	column 2
1. registration as a psychologist under section 18 of the repealed Act	general registration
2. conditional registration as a psychologist under section 19 of the repealed Act	general registration
3. provisional registration as a psychologist under section 20 of the repealed Act	provisional general registration.

(2) The person is taken to be registered for the category of registration mentioned in column 2 of the table (the “column 2 registration”) shown opposite the column 1 registration.

(3) If the column 1 registration was, immediately before the commencement, subject to conditions, the column 2 registration is taken to be subject to the conditions.

(4) Despite section 56,<sup>46</sup> the column 2 registration continues until the later of the following days—

- (a) 31 January first happening after the commencement;
- (b) the day that is 3 months after the commencement.

(5) However, subsection (4) stops applying if the column 2 registration is surrendered or cancelled.

(6) Subsection (7) applies to a conditional registration as a psychologist, under section 19 of the repealed Act, that is taken under subsection (2) to be a general registration.

(7) The general registration is subject to the requirement that the registrant undertake the period of supervised practice in psychology that the registrant would have been required to complete under the repealed Act if this Act had not commenced.

<sup>46</sup> Section 56 (Period)

247 Review of conditions imposed under repealed Act	1
(1) This section applies to conditions mentioned in section 246(3) that were imposed, under the repealed Act, on an item 1 or 2 column 1 registration.	2 3 4
(2) Part 3, division 8 <sup>47</sup> applies to the conditions as if—	5
(a) the conditions had been imposed on the registration under this Act; and	6 7
(b) the review period applying to the conditions were the period of 3 years starting on the commencement.	8 9
248 Existing applications for certain column 1 registrations	10
(1) An application for an item 1 column 1 registration made under the repealed Act, and not decided before the commencement, must be decided under this Act.	11 12 13
(2) The application is taken to be for the column 2 registration shown opposite the column 1 registration.	14 15
(3) Part 3, division 2 <sup>48</sup> applies to the application.	16
(4) However, the provisions of part 3, division 2 dealing with making the application in the approved form and paying the application fee and registration fee, that would otherwise apply do not apply to the application.	17 18 19
249 Existing applications for restoration of certain column 1 registrations	20
(1) An application for the restoration of an item 1 or 2 column 1 registration made under section 22(3) of the repealed Act, and not decided before the commencement, must be decided under this Act.	21 22 23 24
(2) The application is taken to be for the restoration of the column 2 registration shown opposite the column 1 registration.	25 26
(3) Part 3, division 5 <sup>49</sup> applies to the application.	27
(4) However, the following provisions do not apply to the application—	28

47 Part 3 (Registration), division 8 (Reviewing conditions of general registrations)

48 Part 3 (Registration), division 2 (Applications for general registration)

49 Part 3 (Registration), division 5 (Restoration of general registrations)

(a) the provisions, applied by section 82, <sup>50</sup> to the extent to which they relate to recency of practice requirements;	1 2
(b) sections 83, 84 and 87. <sup>51</sup>	3
(5) If an item 2 column 1 registration is restored, the registration is subject to the requirement that the registrant undertake the period of supervised practice in psychology that the registrant would have been required to complete under the repealed Act if this Act had not commenced.	4 5 6 7 8
250 Suspended registrations	9
(1) This section applies if an item 1 or 2 column 1 registration has been suspended and the period of suspension has not ended before the commencement.	10 11 12
(2) The suspension is taken to continue as a suspension of the column 2 registration shown opposite the column 1 registration.	13 14
251 Approval of business names under repealed Act	15
(1) This section applies if—	16
(a) immediately before the commencement—	17
(i) there was in effect an approval of a name under section 29(1) of the repealed Act (the “ approval provision ”); or	18 19 20
(ii) an application for approval of a name under the approval provision had not been finally dealt with; and	21 22
(b) the holder of the approval or applicant is taken to be registered under section 246.	23 24
(2) The holder or applicant is taken to have given the board notice of the name as a business name under section 142(1). <sup>52</sup>	25 26
