A BILL

FOR

An Act to amend the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991, and for other purposes

The Parliament of Queensland enacts— 1

PART 1—PRELIMINARY 2

Clause 1 Short title 3

This Act may be cited as the Discrimination Law Amendment Act 2002. 4

Clause 2 Commencement 5

This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation. 6

PART 2—AMENDMENT OF ACTS INTERPRETATION
ACT 1954 7
8

Clause 3 Act amended in pt 2 9

This part amends the Acts Interpretation Act 1954. 10

Clause 4 Insertion of new s 32DA 11

After section 32D— 12

insert— 13

‘32DA Meaning of “de facto partner” 14

‘(1) In an Act, a reference to a “de facto partner” is a reference to 15 either 1 of 2 persons who are living together as a couple on a genuine 16 domestic basis but who are not married to each other or related by family. 17

‘(2) In deciding whether 2 persons are living together as a couple on a 18 genuine domestic basis, any of their circumstances may be taken into 19 account, including, for example, any of the following circumstances— 20

(a) the nature and extent of their common residence; 21

(b) the length of their relationship; 22

Discrimination Law Amendment Bill 2002

- (c) whether or not a sexual relationship exists or existed; 1
- (d) the degree of financial dependence or interdependence, and any arrangement for financial support; 2 3
- (e) their ownership, use and acquisition of property; 4
- (f) the degree of mutual commitment to a shared life, including the care and support of each other; 5 6
- (g) the care and support of children; 7
- (h) the performance of household tasks; 8
- (i) the reputation and public aspects of their relationship. 9

‘(3) No particular finding in relation to any circumstance is to be regarded as necessary in deciding whether 2 persons are living together as a couple on a genuine domestic basis. 10
12

‘(4) Two persons are not to be regarded as living together as a couple on a genuine domestic basis only because they have a common residence. 13
14

‘(5) For subsection (1)— 15

- (a) the gender of the persons is not relevant; and 16
- (b) a person is related by family to another person if the person and the other person would be within a prohibited relationship within the meaning of the Marriage Act 1961 (Cwlth), section 23B, if they were parties to a marriage to which that section applies.¹ 17
18
20

‘(6) In an Act enacted before the commencement of this section, a reference to a spouse includes a reference to a de facto partner as defined in this section unless the Act expressly provides to the contrary.’. 21
22
23

Clause 5 Amendment of s 36 (Meaning of commonly used words and expressions) 24 25

Section 36— 26

insert— 27

‘“de facto partner” see section 32DA. 28

1 Marriage Act 1961 (Cwlth), section 23B (Grounds on which marriages are void)

“de facto relationship” means the relationship existing between 2 persons as a couple because each is the de facto partner of the other. 1
2
“spouse” includes de facto partner.’. 3

PART 3—AMENDMENT OF ADOPTION OF CHILDREN ACT 1964 4 5

Clause 6 Act amended in pt 3 6
This part amends the Adoption of Children Act 1964. 7

Clause 7 Amendment of s 6 (Definitions) 8
Section 6— 9
insert— 10
‘“adoption entry”, of an adopted person, means the particulars about the adopted person that are— 11
12
(a) stated in a schedule to an adoption order for, or a schedule to a memorandum or copy of an adoption order for, the adopted person, and entered in the Adopted Children Register; or 13
14
15
(b) if there is no schedule to an adoption order for, or no schedule to a memorandum or copy of an adoption order for, the adopted person— 16
17
18
(i) stated in the adoption order, memorandum or copy; and 19
(ii) entered in the Adopted Children Register; or 20
(c) stated in the register kept by the registrar general titled ‘Record of Children whose Births have been registered in the State of Queensland and who have been transferred under Deed of Adoption’.’. 21
22
23
24

Clause 8 Amendment of s 39C (Entitlement to certain records etc.) 25
(1) Section 39C(b)(i), ‘amended birth entry’— 26
omit, insert— 27

Discrimination Law Amendment Bill 2002

‘adoption entry’.	1
(2) Section 39C(b)—	2
insert—	3
‘(iii) if the adopted person’s adoption has been reregistered under the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages Act 1962 and 1 or more changes of the person’s name have been entered in the Adopted Children Register after the reregistration—a certified copy of the reregistered adoption entry.’.	4 5 6 7 8 9
(3) Section 39C—	10
insert—	11
‘(2) Subsection (1)(b)(i) applies even if the adoption entry is closed under the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages Act 1962 , section 29B(2)(b)(i) or (4)(b) or 29C(6)(a), and access to it is restricted under section 55A of this Act.’.	12 13 14 15

Clause 9 Insertion of new s 47A	16
After section 47—	17
insert—	18
‘47A Use of certified copy or extract	19
‘(1) This section applies if the adoption of a person (the “ reregistered person ”) has been reregistered under the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages Act 1962 , section 29B(4). ³	20 21 22
‘(2) A person, whether or not the reregistered person, who is aware of the reregistration must not produce to another person, for a purpose (the “ relevant purpose ”) of a law of another State or of the Commonwealth, a certified copy or extract obtained under this Act that shows the reregistered person’s sex as recorded in the Adopted Children Register after the reregistration unless—	23 24 25 26 27 28

2 Section 55A (Certified copy or extract)

3 Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages Act 1962, section 29B (Changing particulars in register of births or adopted children register)

Discrimination Law Amendment Bill 2002

- (a) the laws of the other State or of the Commonwealth expressly allow the certified copy or extract to be produced for the relevant purpose; or
- (b) the person, when producing the certified copy or extract, informs the person to whom it is produced that a change of the reregistered person's sex has been entered in the Adopted Children Register.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment.

‘(3) The reregistered person must not, with intent to deceive, produce to another person a certified copy or extract obtained under this Act, or another document, however obtained, showing the reregistered person's sex as recorded in the Adopted Children Register before the reregistration.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment.

‘(4) In this section—

“certified copy or extract”, obtained under this Act, includes a copy of the certified copy or extract.’.

Clause 10 Insertion of new s 55A

After section 55—

insert—

‘55A Certified copy or extract

‘(1) After the reregistration of the adoption of a person (the “relevant person”) under the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages Act 1962, section 29B(4), a certified copy or extract obtained under this Act from the registrar general—

- (a) must show the relevant person's sex in accordance with the reregistration; and
- (b) must not include a statement or other clear indication to the effect that a change of the relevant person's sex has been entered in the Adopted Children Register.

‘(2) However, any of the following persons may, on payment of the appropriate fee prescribed under the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages Act 1962, apply to the registrar general for a certified copy from the adoption entry of the relevant person that was closed on the reregistration—

- (a) the relevant person; 1
- (b) a child of the relevant person; 2
- (c) a parent of the relevant person, if the relevant person is a child; 3
- (d) a person prescribed under a regulation.’. 4

‘Division 3A—Offers to settle 15

‘213A Presumption of order for costs if offer to settle is rejected 16

‘(1) This section applies if— 17

- (a) a party to a proceeding before the tribunal gives another party an offer in writing to settle the proceeding; and 18 19
- (b) the other party does not accept the offer while the offer is open; and 20 21
- (c) the offer complies with any requirements of this division for an offer to settle; and 22
23
- (d) in the tribunal’s opinion, the orders made by the tribunal in the proceeding are not more favourable to the other party than the offer. 24
25
26

‘(2) If the tribunal considers it reasonable to do so, it may make an order in favour of the party who made the offer requiring the other party to pay all costs incurred by the offering party after the offer was made. 27

‘(4) In deciding whether its orders are or are not more favourable to a party than an offer, the tribunal—	1 2
(a) must take into account any costs it would have ordered on the date the offer was made; and	3 4
(b) must disregard any interest or costs it orders for any period after the date the offer was received.	5 6
‘213B Offer to settle	7
‘(1) An offer to settle is taken to have been made without prejudice.	8
‘(2) The tribunal is not able to be told of the making of the offer to settle until after it has made its orders under section 209 or 210. ¹⁰	9 10
‘(3) A party may give more than 1 offer to settle.	11
‘(4) If an offer to settle provides for the payment of money, the offer must state when the money is to be paid.	12 13
‘213C Acceptance of offer to settle	14
‘(1) An offer to settle must be open for acceptance until immediately before the tribunal makes any order under section 209 or 210, or until the expiry of a stated period after the offer is made, whichever happens first.	15 16 17
‘(2) The stated period must be at least 14 days.	18
‘(3) Without the permission of the tribunal, an offer to settle can not be withdrawn, whether or not to make a new offer, while it is open for acceptance.	19 20 21
‘(4) For the decision of whether to give permission under subsection (3)—	22 23
(a) the tribunal must be constituted by a member who is not the member constituting the tribunal for the proceeding generally; and	24 25 26
(b) the tribunal may examine the offer to settle.	27
‘(5) A party can only accept an offer to settle by giving the party who made it a signed notice of acceptance.	28 29

1

‘The address for service of a relevant party for a complaint as advised to the commissioner or the tribunal must be a residential or business address or a post office box address.

2

4

‘263D Advice to tribunal of address for service

5

‘(1) An address for service of a relevant party for a complaint, as notified to the commissioner, may be used by both the commissioner and the tribunal as the relevant party’s address for service for the complaint.

6

8

‘(2) However, if a relevant party for a complaint has not given the commissioner the party’s address for service, the relevant party must advise the tribunal of the relevant party’s address for service if the complaint is referred to the tribunal.

9

11

12

‘263E Change of address for service

13

‘(1) A relevant party for a complaint may, at any time before the complaint is finally dealt with by the commissioner, give written notice to the commissioner of a change in the relevant party’s address for service.

14

16

‘(2) A relevant party for a complaint may, at any time before the complaint is finally dealt with by the tribunal, advise the tribunal of a change in the relevant party’s address for service.

17

18

19

‘(3) A relevant party for a complaint—

20

(a) must give all other relevant parties for the complaint a copy of a written notice given under subsection (1) or (2); and

21

22

(b) must give the commissioner a copy of a written notice given under subsection (2).

23

24

‘263F Use of address for service

25

‘(1) For a complaint, the address for service of a relevant party for the complaint is the relevant party’s address for service—

26

27

(a) for the commissioner or the tribunal—as most recently notified to the commissioner or the tribunal; or

28

29

(b) for another relevant party for the complaint—as most recently notified to the other relevant party.

- ‘(2) If a document is required or permitted to be given to a relevant party for a complaint, the document is taken to be given to the relevant party if of the following applies—
- (a) the relevant party is an individual, and the document is handed to the relevant party personally;
 - (b) the document is posted to the relevant party’s address for service;
 - (c) the relevant party’s address for service is a residential address, and the document is left with someone apparently living at the address who is apparently at least 16 years;
 - (d) the relevant party is a body corporate, its address for service is a business address, and the document is left at the address for service.
- ‘(3) Despite subsection (2)(c) and (d), if the relevant party’s address for service is a residential or business address and is a place in a building or area to which a person delivering a document is denied access, the document is taken to be given to the relevant party if it is left at the building or area in a position where it is reasonably likely to come to the attention of the relevant party.
- ‘(4) Subsection (2)(b) does not stop the relevant party from establishing that the relevant party was not given the document by proving that the document was not delivered to the address for service.
- ‘(5) If the document is given to a relevant party under subsection (2)(c) or (d) or (3), the giving of the document is taken to have been effected on the business day after the document is left in the way required.
- ‘263G Communication effected by giving of document
- ‘(1) This section applies if the commissioner or tribunal is required or permitted under this Act, in relation to a complaint, to communicate with a relevant party for the complaint including, for example, by doing any of the following—
- (a) notifying the relevant party of something, whether or not in writing;
 - (b) asking or telling the relevant party something, whether or not in writing;
 - (c) giving the relevant party reasons for something, whether or not in writing;

Discrimination Law Amendment Bill 2002

(d) giving the relevant party a direction, or otherwise ordering the relevant party to do something, whether or not in writing;	1 2
(e) writing to the relevant party to tell the relevant party something.	3
‘(2) The commissioner or tribunal may effect the communication by—	4
(a) putting the substance of the communication into a document; and	5
(b) giving the document to the relevant party in a way provided for under this part for the giving of a document to a relevant party for a complaint.	6 7 8
Example—	9
Section 169(1) ¹² includes a requirement for the commissioner to tell a complainant in writing that a complaint will lapse unless the complainant indicates that the complainant wishes to continue with it. The commissioner may tell the complainant about the lapsing of the complaint by including the information in a document and posting the document to the complainant’s address for service.	10 11 12 13 14
‘263H No address for service advised	15
‘(1) This section applies if the address for service of a relevant party for a complaint is not known—	16 17
(a) because of the relevant party’s failure to comply with a requirement for advising an address for service; or	18 19
(b) because the relevant party is a respondent, and has not yet been notified under section 143. ¹³	20 21
‘(2) The relevant party’s address for service is taken to be—	22
(a) for an individual—the individual’s last known place of business or residence; or	23 24
(b) for a body corporate—the body corporate’s head office or its principal or registered office.	25 26
‘(3) For subsection (1)(a), a relevant party’s failure to comply with a requirement for advising an address for service includes a respondent’s failure to advise the commissioner of the respondent’s address for service after receiving a notice under section 143.	27 28 29 30
