- ‘(4) The following persons may apply to the commission to revoke a determination—
- (a) the employer;
 - (b) a valid majority of the employees to whom the determination applies;
 - (c) an employee organisation that—
 - (i) is bound by the determination; and
 - (ii) has at least 1 member who is an employee bound by the determination.
- ‘(5) Before the determination’s nominal expiry date has passed, the commission must not revoke the determination unless satisfied—
- (a) the employer and the 1 or more employee organisations, or a valid majority of the employees, who are bound by the determination have agreed to the revocation (for example, because they propose to make an agreement under division 1²); and
 - (b) the revocation would not be against the public interest.
- ‘(6) After the determination’s nominal expiry date has passed, the commission must revoke the determination if, and only if, satisfied—
- (a) for a determination that provides that it may be revoked if particular conditions are met—the conditions have been met; or
 - (b) for a determination that does not provide for the way it may be revoked—it is in the public interest to revoke the determination.
- ‘(7) The revocation takes effect when the commission’s approval takes effect.
- ‘(8) While a determination operates—

2 Division 1 (Making agreements)

*Industrial Relations and Other Acts Amendment Bill

	‘(1) This section applies if—	17
	(a) all or any of the wages payable to an outworker in the clothing industry are not paid; or	18 19
	(b) all or any of the superannuation contributions payable for an outworker in the clothing industry are not paid.	20 21
	‘(2) The outworker may make a claim for the wages, or superannuation contributions, against a person who the outworker believes is his or her employer (the apparent employer).	22 23 24 25
	‘(3) However, the claim can not be made against a person whose only connection with the clothing industry is the sale of clothing by retail.	26 27 28
	‘(4) A claim, to the extent it relates to wages, must be made within 6 months after the work was finished.	29 30

*Industrial Relations and Other Acts Amendment Bill
2005*

‘(5) The outworker makes an unpaid wages claim by serving the apparent employer with a written notice that—	1 2
(a) claims payment of the wages or superannuation contributions; and	3 4
(b) states these particulars—	5
(i) the name of the outworker; and	6
(ii) the address at which the outworker may be contacted; and	7 8
(iii) a description of the work done; and	9
(iv) the date on which the work was done; and	10
(v) the amount of wages owing; and	11
(vi) the amount of superannuation contributions owing; and	12 13
(vii) details of the approved superannuation fund to which superannuation contributions should have been paid, that are sufficiently detailed to enable the contributions to be properly paid.	14 15 16 17
‘(6) The particulars stated in the claim must be verified by statutory declaration.	18 19

- ‘(2) An apparent employer may, within 14 days after being served with an unpaid wages claim, refer the claim to another person whom the apparent employer reasonably believes is the person for whom the work was done (the referred employer).’
- ‘(3) However, the claim can not be referred to a person whose only connection with the clothing industry is the sale of clothing by retail.’
- ‘(4) An apparent employer refers an unpaid wages claim by—
- (a) serving the referred employer with a copy of the unpaid wages claim and a written notice that states—
- (i) the name and address of the apparent employer; and
- (ii) the date on which the outworker served the apparent employer with the unpaid wages claim; and
- (b) advising the outworker in writing of—
- (i) the name and address of the referred employer; and
- (ii) the date on which the apparent employer served the referred employer with the referred claim.
- ‘(5) The apparent employer is not liable for any part of the amount claimed in an unpaid wages claim for which the referred employer accepts liability under section 400D.’

‘400D Liability of referred employer for unpaid wages’

- ‘(1) A referred employer may, within 14 days after being served with a referred claim, accept liability for all or part of the amount claimed by paying it to—
- (a) for wages—the outworker; or
- (b) for superannuation contributions—the superannuation fund stated in the unpaid wages claim.
- ‘(2) A referred employer who accepts liability must serve the apparent employer with a written notice of the acceptance and of the amount paid.’

2005

- ‘(3) If the apparent employer pays all or any part of the amount claimed for which the referred employer does not accept liability, the apparent employer may deduct or set-off that amount from any amount that the apparent employer owes to the referred employer, whether or not in relation to the work that is the subject of the referred claim. 1

- ‘400F Recovery of unpaid wages 14
- ‘(1) An application may be made for an order that an apparent employer pay an unpaid wages claim. 15
16
- ‘(2) The application may be made to— 17
- (a) if the total amount claimed is $50 000 or less—the commission or a magistrate; or 18
19
- (b) otherwise—a magistrate. 20
- ‘(3) The application may be made by— 21
- (a) an outworker; or 22
- (b) an employee organisation of which the outworker is a member, acting for the outworker; or 23
24
- (c) an inspector. 25
- ‘(4) The application must be made within 6 years after the amount claimed in the application became payable. 26
27
- ‘(5) The commission or magistrate must order the apparent employer to pay the wages or superannuation contributions claimed unless the apparent employer proves that— 28

(b) an amount claimed is not the correct amount; or	1
(c) an amount claimed has already been paid.	2
‘(6) If the commission or magistrate is satisfied that an amount claimed is not the correct amount, the commission or magistrate may order payment of the amount that the commission or magistrate is satisfied is payable.	3 4 5 6
‘(7) For an order about superannuation contributions, the order must require the amount to be paid to—	7 8
(a) the approved superannuation fund; or	9
(b) a complying superannuation fund; or	10
(c) a superannuation fund nominated by the outworker; or	11
(d) an eligible rollover fund; or	12
(e) if the amount is less than the amount of total benefits than may revert to an employee under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (Cwlth)—the outworker.	13 14 15 16
‘(8) The superannuation contributions must be paid into the unclaimed moneys fund if the outworker does not nominate a superannuation fund for the purpose of the order, if the order requires a fund to be nominated.	17 18 19 20
‘(9) In this section—	21
superannuation contributions includes an amount equal to the return that would have been accrued in relation to the superannuation contributions had they been properly paid to an approved superannuation fund.	22 23 24 25
‘400G Offences relating to claims under this division	26
‘A person must not—	27
(a) by intimidation or by any other act or omission, intentionally hinder, prevent or discourage someone from making an unpaid wages claim or an application under section 400F; or	28 29 30 31

- (b) make any statement that the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular in any notice given for the purposes of section 400C or 400D; or
- (c) serve a referred claim on someone under section 400C if the person does not reasonably believe that the work under an unpaid wages claim was done for the other person.
- Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

‘400H Effect of sections 400B–400G

- ‘(1) Sections 400B to 400G do not limit or exclude any other rights of a person to recover wages or superannuation contributions, or any liability of any person in relation to the wages or superannuation contributions, whether or not arising under this Act, another law, or an industrial instrument.
- ‘(2) Nothing in section 400D(3) limits or excludes any right of recovery arising under any other law in relation to any amount of money owed by the apparent employer to the referred employer.

‘400I Mandatory code of practice for outworkers

- ‘(1) The Governor in Council may make a code of practice for the purpose of ensuring that outworkers in the clothing industry receive their lawful entitlements.
- ‘(2) In particular, the Governor in Council may make a code of practice if it is considered—
- (a) that current voluntary self-regulatory mechanisms are inadequate to achieve improvements in the level of compliance with obligations to ensure outworkers receive their lawful entitlements; or
- (b) that persons engaged in the clothing industry are not in good faith attempting to negotiate improvements or extensions to the current voluntary self-regulatory mechanisms.
- ‘(3) The code may require employers or other persons engaged in the clothing industry to adopt the standards of conduct and practice relating to outworkers in the clothing industry that are set out in the code. 1

‘(4) The Governor in Council must give notice of the making of the code of practice. 3

‘(5) The notice is subordinate legislation. 5

‘(6) A contravention of the code of practice is an offence. 6
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units. 7

‘(7) An award prevails over a code of practice to the extent of any inconsistency.’. 8
