‘692H Reference in a new State instrument to a federal organisation	1 2
‘(1) If a term of a new State instrument is expressed to refer to a federal organisation, from the relevant day it is taken to refer instead to an organisation under this Act of which the federal organisation is a counterpart federal body as defined under section 411.	3 4 5 6 7
‘(2) If the federal organisation is not a counterpart federal body of an organisation under this Act, the federal organisation is taken to be an organisation under this Act for the representation in the State system of the employees of the relevant declared employer.	8 9 10 11 12
‘(3) Subsection (2) stops applying to the federal organisation when the new State instrument stops binding the relevant declared employer.	13 14 15
‘(4) This section has effect subject to—	16
(a) a contrary intention in this Act; and	17
(b) a regulation.	18
‘692I Counting service under the old federal instrument	19
‘(1) Subsection (2) applies for the purpose of deciding the entitlements of a declared employee under a new State instrument.	20 21 22
‘(2) Service of the declared employee with a declared employer before the relevant day that counted under the old federal instrument also counts as service of the declared employee with the declared employer under the new State instrument.	23 24 25 26

[s 61]

‘692J Accruing entitlements—leave accrued immediately before the relevant day	1 2
‘(1) This section applies to leave of the following types, however described, accruing to an employee (the leave)—	3 4
(a) annual leave;	5
(b) sick leave, personal leave or carer’s leave;	6
(c) long service leave.	7
‘(2) If a declared employee to whom a new State instrument applies had, immediately before the relevant day, an accrued entitlement to an amount of the leave, the accrued leave is taken to have accrued under the new State instrument.	8 9 10 11
‘(3) It does not matter whether the leave accrued under the old federal instrument, under the national fair work legislation or this Act.	12 13 14
Note—	15
The reference to the accrual of leave under this Act arises if the old federal instrument refers to leave accruing in accordance with this Act.	16 17
‘(4) A regulation may deal with other matters relating to how a new State instrument applies to any other accrued entitlement that, immediately before the relevant day, a declared employee had under the old federal instrument or the Commonwealth Act.	18 19 20 21 22
‘692K Leave that is being, or is to be, taken under the old federal instrument	23 24
‘(1) If a declared employee was, immediately before the relevant day, taking a period of leave under the old federal instrument or under the Commonwealth Act, the employee is entitled to continue on that leave under the new State instrument or this Act for the remainder of the period.	25 26 27 28 29
‘(2) If a declared employee has, before the relevant day, taken a step under the old federal instrument or the Commonwealth Act that the employee is required to take so that the employee can, from the relevant day, take a period of leave under the old federal instrument or the Commonwealth Act, the employee is	30 31 32 33 34

taken to have taken the step under the new State instrument or this Act.	1 2
‘(3) A regulation may deal with other matters relating to how a new State instrument applies to leave that, immediately before the relevant day, is being, or is to be, taken by a declared employee under the old federal instrument or the Commonwealth Act.’	3 4 5 6 7
