| ‘(4) | The commission— | 10 |
| (a) | must consult with the remaining licensed insurers about their capacity to underwrite the CTP insurance policies; and | 11 12 13 |
| (b) | may consult with any insurer the commission considers appropriate for the purpose of the insurer becoming a licensed insurer; and | 14 15 16 |
| (c) | must have regard to the results of any consultation with APRA relevant to the matter. | 17 18 |
| ‘(5) | Subject to subsection (6), transport administration must randomly allocate the CTP insurance policies to the remaining licensed insurers in proportion to their shares of the market for CTP insurance. | 19 20 21 22 |
| ‘(6) | Subsection (5) does not apply, and transport administration must allocate the CTP insurance policies as decided by the commission, if— | 23 24 25 |
| (a) | the commission decides that the remaining licensed insurers do not have the capacity the commission considers appropriate to underwrite the CTP insurance policies that would be randomly allocated to them under subsection (5); or | 26 27 28 29 30 |
| (b) | an insurer mentioned in subsection (4)(b) becomes a licensed insurer. | 31 32 |
| ‘(7) | Subsections (3), (5) and (6) are subject to section 67A.’ | 33 |

[s 10]

- (4) Section 67— 1
insert— 2
- ‘(9) In this section— 3
APRA means the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority 4 established under the Australian Prudential Regulation 5 Authority Act 1998 (Cwlth).’. 6

- Clause 10 Insertion of new s 67A 7
After section 67— 8
insert— 9
- ‘67A When State may underwrite CTP insurance policies 10
- ‘(1) This section applies if— 11
- (a) an insurer’s licence is withdrawn or suspended; and 12
- (b) the commission considers CTP insurance policies of the 13 insurer can not be appropriately allocated to another 14 insurer under section 67(5) or (6), including for 15 example, if the commission considers— 16
- (i) there is no insurer with appropriate capacity to 17 underwrite the policies; or 18
- (ii) the circumstances are urgent. 19
- ‘(2) The commission may request the Minister to authorise the 20
State to underwrite the CTP insurance policies 21
- ‘(3) The commission must provide the Minister with the 22 information and the recommendations on matters decided by 23
the Minister. 24
- ‘(4) The Minister may authorise the State to underwrite the 25 policies starting from a day stated by the Minister, including 26 from a day before the Minister authorises the underwriting. 27
- ‘(5) The State becomes the insurer underwriting the policies from 28
the day stated by the Minister. 29

- ‘(6) If the State becomes an insurer under subsection (5), a regulation may make provision for the State to, under section 21—
- (a) become an insurer of a motor vehicle, even if, in a particular case, the State is not the insurer of the motor vehicle under subsection (4); or
 - (b) stop being the insurer of a motor vehicle.
- ‘(7) For subsections (5) and (6), this Act, other than the following provisions, applies to the State—
- (a) sections 62 to 64;
 - (b) section 66;
 - (c) section 67(1) and (2);
 - (d) sections 68 and 69;
 - (e) sections 71 to 87.
- ‘(8) For subsection (7), a reference, in an applied provision, to an insurer, licensed insurer or CTP insurer includes a reference to the State.
- ‘(9) A regulation may modify an applied provision for the purpose of its application to the State, including, for example—
- (a) to modify the way an insurer’s premiums are fixed under sections 13 and 13A if the State is the insurer; or
 - (b) to exempt the State from compliance with section 22.
- ‘(10) A regulation may provide for anything necessary or convenient relating to the transfer to the State of CTP insurance business from the old insurer, including for example the following—
- (a) the transfer of some or all of the rights and liabilities of the old insurer relating to CTP insurance policies transferred to the State;
 - (b) continuing or further obligations of the old insurer relating to the transferred CTP insurance policies;

[s 11]

(c) the payment of amounts into or out of any fund 1 controlled by the State that relates to insurance provided 2 for or by the State. 3

‘(11) In this section— 4

applied provision means a provision of this Act applied to the 5
State under subsection (7). 6

old insurer means the insurer whose licence is withdrawn or 7 under suspension.’. 8

Clause 11 Insertion of new s 72A 9

After section 72— 10

insert— 11

‘72A Declarations from licensed insurer 12

‘(1) The commission may by notice in writing require the chief 13 executive officer or another appropriate officer of a licensed 14 insurer, or both, to give the commission within a reasonable 15 period a declaration for the period to which the notice 16 relates— 17

(a) that the licensed insurer has complied with section 18
96(1); and 19

(b) that the licensed insurer has not established or treated 20 the cost of any inducement to which section 96(2)(c) or 21 (3)(b) applies as a cost, expense or charge under or 22 against the insurer’s CTP insurance policies or CTP 23 business generally; and 24

(c) that the licensed insurer has complied with section 25
97(5). 26

‘(2) The commission may require the declaration to be given on an 27 annual basis or in relation to a particular period, as stated by 28
the commission in the notice. 29

‘(3) A person of whom the declaration is required must be a 30
resident of Australia. 31

‘(4) A person of whom the declaration is required— 32

- (a) must give the declaration as required, unless the person has a reasonable excuse; and
 - (b) must not make a false declaration.
- Maximum penalty—300 penalty units.

- ‘(5) In this section—
- appropriate officer of the licensed insurer* means an officer of the licensed insurer who the commission considers is appropriate to provide the declaration.’.

Clause 12 Insertion of new s 96

After section 95—

insert—

‘96 Inducement for CTP insurance business prohibited

- ‘(1) A licensed insurer or other person acting for a licensed insurer must not give, or offer to give, to an entity, including an entity acting for the insurer, an inducement for directing CTP insurance business to the licensed insurer.

Maximum penalty—300 penalty units

- ‘(2) A licensed insurer or other person does not contravene subsection (1) if—

- (a) the inducement is given or offered to be given to an entity only on the basis that the entity will direct an associate of the entity—

- (i) to enter into or renew a CTP insurance policy with the licensed insurer; and

- (ii) to ask the licensed insurer, on each occasion the associate pays a premium to the licensed insurer, to make a particular donation to—

- (A) a particular registered charity; or

- (B) a particular road safety research entity; or

- (C) an entity prescribed under a regulation; and

[s 12]

- Note—* 1
- ‘direct’ has a meaning that corresponds to the defined term 2 directing CTP insurance business. 3
- (b) the inducement is the donations made by the licensed 4 insurer on every occasion the associate makes the 5 request mentioned in paragraph (a)(ii); and 6
- (c) the licensed insurer does not intend to, and does not, 7
establish or treat the cost of the inducement as a cost, 8 expense or charge under or against the insurer’s CTP 9
insurance policies or CTP business generally. 10
- ‘(3) Also, a licensed insurer or other person does not contravene 11 subsection (1) in relation to a CTP insurance policy if— 12
- (a) the entity to whom the inducement is given, or offered to 13 be given, is the person who is to enter or renew the CTP 14 insurance policy (the policy holder or proposed policy 15 holder); and 16
- (b) the licensed insurer does not intend to, and does not, 17
establish or treat the cost of the inducement as a cost, 18
expense or charge under or against the insurer’s CTP 19
insurance policies or CTP business generally. 20
- ‘(4) However, subsection (3) does not apply if— 21
- (a) the policy holder or proposed policy holder conducts the 22 business of selling motor vehicles; and 23
- (b) the CTP insurance policy is for a motor vehicle that will 24 be sold in the ordinary course of the business, even if the 25 vehicle is not for sale when the inducement is given or 26 offered; and 27
- (c) the entering or renewal of the CTP insurance policy by 28
the policy holder or proposed policy holder would 29 effectively direct CTP insurance business to the licensed 30 insurer when the vehicle is sold. 31
- ‘(5) Subsections (2), (3) and (4) provide for exemptions under the 32
Justices Act 1886, section 76. 33
- ‘(6) A court that convicts a licensed insurer of an offence against 34 subsection (1) may, by order, withdraw the licence. 35

- (7) In this section— 1
- associate* includes member, employee or supporter. 2
- directed CTP insurance business* means the CTP insurance 3 business directed to, or obtained for, a licensed insurer 4 because of an inducement. 5
- directing CTP insurance business*, to a licensed insurer, 6 includes— 7
- (a) obtaining CTP business for a licensed insurer; and 8
- (b) giving any form of advice, encouragement or suggestion 9 intended to direct CTP business to a licensed insurer. 10
- inducement* means any reward, consideration or benefit, 11 including, for example, the following— 12
- (a) a commission; 13
- Examples—* 14
- commissions based on any premium for CTP insurance 15 policies resulting from directed CTP insurance business 16
 - commissions paid on insurance products not involving CTP 17 insurance business but based on directed CTP insurance 18 business 19
- (b) an administration payment; 20
- Example—* 21
- a fee payable to a motor dealer based on the cost to the 22
motor dealer for work done in directing the directed CTP 23 insurance business to the licensed CTP insurer 24
- (c) general financial support. 25
- Examples (where the directed CTP insurance business is being 26 directed to a CTP insurer by a motor dealer)—* 27
- discounts or subsidies applying to premiums for insurance 28 relating to the motor dealer’s business or business 29 connected to the motor dealer’s business 30
 - contributions made to the motor dealer’s general operating 31 expenses, including floor plan charges, entertainment, 32 sponsorship, memberships, sales incentive awards and 33 associated functions 34
- registered charity* means— 35
- (a) a charity registered under the Collections Act 1966; or 36

[s 13]

- (b) a charity registered under a law of another State— 1
 - (i) that is prescribed under a regulation for this 2 section; or 3
 - (ii) if a law is not prescribed under subparagraph 4
(i)—with objects similar to the Collections Act 5
1966 and that provides for the registration of 6 charities. 7

road safety research entity means an entity that is, or is 8 conducting, a research program, affiliated with a university, 9 relating to— 10

 - (a) the causes of motor vehicle accidents and their 11
prevention; or 12
 - (b) rehabilitation of persons injured in motor vehicle 13
accidents.’. 14

- Clause 13 Amendment of s 97 (CTP premiums not to be discounted etc.) 15 16
- (1) Section 97(5)— 17
renumber as section 97(6). 18
 - (2) Section 97— 19
insert— 20
 - ‘(5) A licensed insurer or other person acting for a licensed insurer 21 must not give, or offer to give, to a person an inducement to 22 enter into or renew an insurance policy, including a CTP 23 insurance policy, with the insurer if the insurer intends to 24 establish or treat the cost of the inducement as a cost, expense 25 or charge under or against the insurer’s CTP insurance 26 policies or the insurer’s CTP business generally. 27
- Examples of an inducement*— 28
- 1 A licensed insurer offers a discount to policy holders who hold 29 several policies of insurance with the insurer. The offer is available if 30 one of the policies is a CTP insurance policy. The discount is applied 31 to a policy that is not a CTP insurance policy, but the cost of the 32 discount is held partly against the account for the CTP insurance 33 policy. 34

2 A licensed insurer offers to give a person a gift if the person selects 1 the licensed insurer as the insurer under a CTP insurance policy for 2 the person's motor vehicle. The insurer intends to treat the cost of 3 the gift as a cost of the insurer's CTP business. 4

Maximum penalty—300 penalty units.' 5

Clause 14 Insertion of new pt 7, div 6 6

Part 7— 7

insert— 8

'Division 6 Transitional provisions for the 9
Motor Accident Insurance and 10
Other Legislation Amendment Act 11
2010 12

'113 Termination of s 96 inducement 13

'(1) This section applies to an arrangement entered into before 1 14
October 2010 between a licensed insurer, or a person acting 15 for a licensed insurer, and another entity (the entity) if under 16
the arrangement— 17

(a) a prohibited inducement is to be given to the entity on or 18
after 1 October 2010 for directing CTP insurance 19 business to the licensed insurer before, on or after 1 20
October 2010; or 21

(b) a prohibited inducement has been given to the entity 22 before 1 October 2010 for directing CTP insurance 23 business to the licensed insurer on or after 1 October 24 2010. 25

'(2) The arrangement is terminated, and is void and unenforceable, 26 to the extent it makes provision for— 27

(a) the prohibited inducement; and 28

(b) directing CTP insurance business to the licensed insurer 29 in return for the prohibited inducement. 30

'(3) No compensation is payable to any person for the termination 31 of the arrangement. 32

[s 14]

- ‘(4) The following are taken not to be in breach of the terminated arrangement—
- (a) the licensed insurer, or person acting for the licensed insurer, for failing to give the prohibited inducement mentioned in subsection (2)(a) to the entity in accordance with the provisions of the terminated arrangement;
 - (b) the entity, for failing to direct the CTP insurance business to the licensed insurer in return for the prohibited inducement mentioned in subsection (1)(a) or (b) in accordance with the provisions of the terminated arrangement.
- ‘(5) If, before 1 October 2010, the entity has received an amount that on the commencement of this section becomes a prohibited inducement under a terminated arrangement, the entity within a reasonable period must repay the amount to the licensed insurer, or the person acting for a licensed insurer, who gave the amount to the entity.
- ‘(6) If the entity fails to repay an amount under subsection (5), the licensed insurer, or other person entitled to be repaid the amount, may recover it as a debt.
- ‘(7) In this section—
- arrangement* includes contract and agreement.
- prohibited inducement* means an inducement of a type mentioned in section 96(1) the giving or offering of which would be prohibited under section 96(1) if the arrangement were entered into on or after 1 October 2010.
- terminated arrangement* means the arrangement to which subsection (2) applies to the extent it is terminated by the subsection.

| | ‘(1) Despite section 72, part 5 does not apply to the service mentioned in subsection (2). | 23 |
| | | 24 |

[s 62]

- ‘(2) The service is the use of rail transport infrastructure for providing transportation by rail between Queensland and another State if—
- (a) the infrastructure is standard gauge track; and
 - (b) the transportation is effected by using standard gauge rolling stock.
- ‘(3) Subsection (1) stops applying at the end of the expiry day.

‘250 Saving of declarations of particular services

- ‘(1) Each of the following services is taken to be a service declared by the Ministers under part 5, division 2—
- (a) the use of a coal system for providing transportation by rail;
 - (b) the use of rail transport infrastructure for providing transportation by rail if the infrastructure is used for operating a railway for which Queensland Rail Limited, or a successor, assign or subsidiary of Queensland Rail Limited, is the railway manager;
 - (c) the handling of coal at Dalrymple Bay Coal Terminal by the terminal operator.

Note—

The services mentioned in subsection (1) were, immediately before the commencement of this part, declared under a regulation made under repealed section 97.

- ‘(2) Subsection (1) stops having effect in relation to a service, or part of a service—
- (a) at the end of the expiry day; or
 - (b) if the declaration of the service or part of the service is revoked under part 5, division 2, subdivision 5—when the revocation takes effect.

Notes—

- 1 See section 95 in relation to the effect of the declaration ending.

- 2 Subsection (1) ceasing to have effect in relation to a service does 1 not prevent the Ministers declaring the service under part 5, 2 division 2 with effect after the expiry day. 3
- ‘(3) For this section, coal system means rail transport 4 infrastructure that is— 5
- (a) part of any of the following— 6
- (i) the Blackwater system, being the railway 7
connecting Gregory, Rolleston and Minerva to 8
Gladstone, including the part of the North Coast 9
Line between Parana and Rocklands, as shown on 10
the diagram in schedule 1; 11
- (ii) the Goonyella system, being the railway 12
connecting Gregory, North Goonyella and Blair 13 Athol mine to the Port of Hay Point, as shown on 14
the diagram in schedule 1; 15
- (iii) the Moura system, being the railway connecting 16
Moura mine to Gladstone, as shown on the 17
diagram in schedule 1; 18
- (iv) the Newlands system, being the railway connecting 19
Newlands to the Port of Abbott Point, including 20
the part of the North Coast Line between 21 Durroburra and Kaili, as shown on the diagram in 22 schedule 1; or 23
- (b) directly or indirectly connected to a system mentioned 24 in paragraph (a) and owned or leased by the owner or 25 lessee, or a related body corporate of the owner or 26 lessee, of the system. 27
- ‘(4) Also, a coal system includes an extension of the coal system 28 that— 29
- (a) is built on or after 30 July 2010; and 30
- (b) does not directly connect the coal system to a coal basin 31 to which the coal system was not directly connected on 32 30 July 2010; and 33
- (c) is owned or leased by— 34
- (i) the owner or lessee of the coal system; or 35

[s 62]

- (ii) a related body corporate of the owner or lessee of the coal system. 1

| | Chapter 7, part 8— | 18 |
| | insert— | 19 |
| | ‘266A Allocation of preserved train paths | 20 |
| | ‘(1) This section applies to a train path (a preserved train path) that is, on the commencement of this section, allocated for the provision of— | 21 22 23 |
| | (a) a regularly scheduled passenger service; or | 24 |
| | (b) a service involving the transportation of a type of freight other than coal. | 25 26 |
| | ‘(2) If a preserved train path becomes available for a railway manager to allocate, the railway manager must not allocate the train path to a person for the provision of a different type of service unless— | 27 28 29 30 |
| | (a) the railway manager gives written notice to the chief executive, at least 2 months before the day the proposed | 31 32 |

- allocation takes effect, stating details of the proposed allocation; and 1 2
- (b) the chief executive gives written notice to the railway manager stating the chief executive consents to the proposed allocation. 3
5
- ‘(3) Despite subsection (1), this section ceases to apply to a preserved train path if— 6 7
- (a) the chief executive gives written notice to the railway manager stating the train path is no longer subject to the requirements under this section; or 8
10
- (b) the preserved train path is allocated by the railway manager under subsection (2). 11 12
- ‘(4) The chief executive may give the railway manager a written notice requiring the railway manager to give the chief executive information reasonably required to determine the railway manager’s compliance with subsection (2). 13
14
15
16
- ‘(5) The railway manager must comply with the requirement within the reasonable period stated in the notice. 17 18
- ‘(6) This section does not prevent the railway manager allowing a preserved train path to be used for a different type of service when it is not being used for the service for which it is allocated. 19

‘266B Civil penalty for breach of train path obligation 23

- ‘(1) A railway manager is liable to pay the State a civil penalty if the railway manager breaches, without a reasonable excuse, any of the following obligations (the train path obligations)— 24
25
26
27
- (a) section 265(1); 28
- (b) section 266(4), (5A) or (5E); 29
- (c) section 266A(2). 30
- ‘(2) A civil penalty may be imposed on a railway manager either by— 31
32

- (a) a penalty notice given to the railway manager by the chief executive; or
- (b) an order made by the Supreme Court under section 266G.
- ‘(3) If the penalty is imposed under a penalty notice, the amount of the penalty is—
- (a) for breach of section 265(1), 266(4) or 266(5A)—$5000; or
- (b) for breach of section 266(5E) or 266A(2)—$25000.
- Note—*
- For the amount of the penalty that may be imposed by the Supreme Court, see section 266G.

‘266C Giving of notice proposing imposition of penalty

- ‘(1) This section applies if the chief executive—
- (a) suspects a railway manager has breached a train path obligation; and
- (b) proposes to impose a penalty on the railway manager under a penalty notice.
- ‘(2) The chief executive may give the railway manager a written notice (a proposed penalty notice) proposing to impose a penalty on the railway manager on the grounds of the breach.
- ‘(3) The proposed penalty notice must state each of the following—
- (a) the chief executive proposes to impose a penalty on the railway manager;
- (b) the grounds for imposing the proposed penalty;
- (c) an outline of the facts and circumstances forming the basis for the grounds for imposing the proposed penalty;
- (d) the railway manager may make a written submission to the chief executive, no later than 28 days after the

[s 75]

| | |
|---|----------------|
| railway manager is given the notice, as to why the penalty should not be imposed; | 1 2 |
| (e) the way in which the submission may be made. | 3 |
| ‘266D Submission against proposed imposition of penalty | 4 |
| ‘(1) The railway manager may make a submission against the imposition of the penalty in the way stated in the proposed penalty notice. | 5 6 7 |
| ‘(2) The submission must— | 8 |
| (a) be made to the chief executive no later than 28 days after the railway manager is given the proposed penalty notice; and | 9 10 11 |
| (b) state fully the grounds for the submission and the facts relied upon. | 12 13 |
| ‘(3) The chief executive may, by written notice given to the railway manager, state a longer period allowed for making the submission. | 14 15 16 |
| ‘266E Giving of penalty notice | 17 |
| ‘(1) This section applies if— | 18 |
| (a) the period under section 266D for making a submission against the imposition of the penalty has expired; and | 19 20 |
| (b) the chief executive has considered any submission made under section 266D; and | 21 22 |
| (c) the chief executive is satisfied the railway manager has breached the train path obligation mentioned in the proposed penalty notice without a reasonable excuse. | 23 24 25 |
| ‘(2) The chief executive may decide to impose a penalty on the railway manager on the grounds of the breach. | 26 27 |
| ‘(3) If the chief executive makes a decision under subsection (2), the chief executive must give the railway manager a penalty notice. | 28 29 30 |

- ‘(4) A penalty notice is a written notice that states each of the following—
- (a) the chief executive has decided to impose a penalty on the railway manager;
 - (b) the reasons for the decision;
 - (c) the amount of the penalty provided for under section 266B(3), and the day by which it must be paid;
 - (d) that the railway manager may appeal to the Supreme Court against the decision within 28 days after the railway manager is given the penalty notice;
 - (e) how to appeal.
- ‘(5) The day for payment stated under subsection (4)(c) must not be less than 28 days after the day the penalty notice is given to the railway manager.
- ‘(6) The State may recover the penalty from the railway manager as a debt.
- ‘266F Appeal against imposition of penalty by penalty notice
- ‘(1) A railway manager who is given a penalty notice may appeal to the Supreme Court against the chief executive’s decision to impose the penalty.
- ‘(2) The Transport Planning and Coordination Act 1994, part 5, division 3 applies to an appeal mentioned in subsection (1) as if—
- (a) references in the division to a reviewed decision were references to the chief executive’s decision; and
 - (b) references in the division to an appeal court or the appeal court were references to the Supreme Court.
- ‘266G Proceeding for civil penalty order
- ‘(1) This section applies if, on the application of the chief executive, the Supreme Court is satisfied a railway manager

[s 75]

- has breached a train path obligation without a reasonable excuse. 1 2
- ‘(2) However, the chief executive may not make an application under this section if a penalty notice has been given to the railway manager for the breach and has not been revoked. 3 4 5
- ‘(3) To remove any doubt, it is declared that the chief executive may make an application under this section without first giving the railway manager a proposed penalty notice. 6 7 8
- ‘(4) The Supreme Court may order the railway manager to pay the State as a civil penalty an amount of no more than— 9 10
- (a) for breach of section 265(1), 266(4) or 266(5A)—$50000; or 11 12
- (b) for breach of section 266(5E) or 266A(2)—$250000. 13
- ‘(5) In fixing the penalty, the court must consider— 14
- (a) the nature and extent of the breach, including, for a breach of section 266(5E) or 266A(2)— 15 16
- (i) the benefit that the railway manager has obtained, or is likely to obtain, from the allocation of the train path; and 17 18 19
- (ii) the extent of the adverse economic impact of the allocation of the train path on providers, and customers of providers, of the service mentioned in section 266(5E) or 266A(1); and 20 21 22 23
- (iii) the extent of the social impact of the allocation of the train path; and 24 25
- (b) the circumstances in which the breach took place, including— 26 27
- (i) whether the breach was deliberate; and 28
- (ii) whether the railway manager took steps to attempt to prevent the breach occurring or to mitigate the effect of the breach; and 29 30 31
- (c) whether the railway manager has previously engaged in any similar conduct. 32 33

- ‘(6) If the Supreme Court orders payment of an amount under this section, the State may enforce the order as a judgment of the court for a debt of that amount.

‘266H Conduct by directors, servants or agents of railway manager for provisions about civil penalty

- ‘(1) This section applies for deciding whether a railway manager has failed to comply with a train path obligation without a reasonable excuse.
- ‘(2) If it is necessary to be satisfied of a railway manager’s state of mind, it is enough to be satisfied that a director, servant or agent (a representative) of the railway manager, acting within the scope of the representative’s actual or apparent authority, had the state of mind.
- ‘(3) Conduct engaged in for a railway manager by the following persons is taken to have been engaged in by the railway manager—
- (a) a representative of the railway manager, acting within the scope of the representative’s actual or apparent authority;
 - (b) another person at the direction, or with the consent or agreement, of a representative of the railway manager, if the giving of the direction, consent or agreement was within the scope of the representative’s actual or apparent authority.
- ‘(4) Conduct engaged in for a railway manager by the following persons is taken to have been engaged in by the railway manager—
- (a) a servant or agent of the railway manager, acting within the scope of the servant’s or agent’s actual or apparent authority;
 - (b) another person at the direction, or with the consent or agreement, of a servant or agent of the railway manager, if the giving of the direction, consent or agreement was
