4 Dictionary	19
The dictionary in schedule 1 defines particular words used in this Act.	20 21

5	Meaning of court	1
	In this Act—	2
	court means, if otherwise appropriate—	3
	(a) in the context of the Supreme Court—the Supreme Court; or	4 5
	(b) in the context of the District Court—the District Court; or	6 7
	(c) in the context of Magistrates Courts—a Magistrates Court.	8 9
6	Act binds all persons	10
	This Act binds all persons, including the State.	11
Part 2	Law and equity	12
7	Concurrent administration of law and equity	13
	(1) A court must exercise its jurisdiction in a proceeding to ensure, as far as possible, that—	14 15
	(a) all matters in dispute between the parties are completely and finally decided; and	16 17
	(b) multiplicity of legal proceedings is avoided.	18
	(2) A court must give the same effect as it did immediately before the commencement of this section—	19 20
	(a) to all equitable estates, titles, rights, remedies, defences and counterclaims, and to all equitable duties and liabilities; and	21 22 23
	(b) subject to the matters mentioned in paragraph (a), to all legal claims and demands and all estates, titles, rights, duties, obligations and liabilities existing under the	24 25 26

[s 8]

	common law or under any custom or created under any statute.	1 2
(3)	If there is a conflict or difference between the rules of equity and the rules of the common law, the rules of equity prevail.	3 4
(4)	Nothing in this Act affects a court's power to stay a proceeding if appropriate, either on its own initiative or on the application of any person, whether or not a party.	5 6 7
(5)	Nothing in this section limits any inherent or other power of a court to make an order for the decision by the court of a question or issue separately from another question or issue or to state a case for the opinion of the Court of Appeal.	8 9 10 11
(6)	Also, nothing in this section increases the jurisdiction given to the District Court under the District Court of Queensland Act 1967 or to a Magistrates Court under the Magistrates Courts Act 1921 .	12 13 14 15
8	Equitable damages	16
9	Injunction	21
(1)	If a court has jurisdiction to hear an application for an injunction, the court may, at any stage of a proceeding, by injunction, restrain a threatened or apprehended breach of contract or other wrongful conduct.	22 23 24 25
(2)	If waste or trespass is threatened or apprehended, for subsection (1), it does not matter whether—	26 27
(a)	the person against whom the injunction is sought (the relevant person) is in possession under any claim of title or otherwise; or	28 29 30

	(b) if the relevant person is not in possession, the relevant person claims a right to do the act sought to be restrained under any claim of title; or	1 2 3
	(c) the estate claimed by any party is legal or equitable.	4
	(3) The court may also, at any stage of a proceeding, grant an interlocutory injunction if it considers it just or convenient.	5 6
10	Declaratory order	7
	(1) This section applies to the Supreme Court only.	8
11	Order to fulfil duty	12
	(1) This section applies to the Supreme Court only.	13
	(2) The court may order any person to fulfil any duty in the fulfilment of which the person seeking the order is personally interested.	14 15 16
	(3) The court may make an interlocutory order under subsection (2) if it considers it just or convenient.	17 18
12	Order to appoint receiver	19
	(1) This section applies to the Supreme Court only.	20
	(2) The court may, at any stage of a proceeding, make an interlocutory order appointing a receiver if it considers it just or convenient.	21 22 23

[s 13]

Part 3	Orders	1
Division 1	Orders generally	2
13	Power to make orders	3
	(1) This section applies to a court making an order under this Act.	4
	(2) Unless otherwise stated in this Act, the court may make the order on its own initiative or on an application made to it under this Act.	5 6 7
14	Power to impose appropriate conditions	8
	A court may impose on an order conditions it considers appropriate.	9 10
15	Power to award costs	11
	A court may award costs in all proceedings unless otherwise provided.	12 13
Division 2	Particular orders	14
16	Amendment for new cause of action or party	15
	(1) This section applies to an amendment of a claim, anything written on a claim, pleadings, an application or another document in a proceeding.	16 17 18
	(2) The court may order an amendment to be made, or grant leave to a party to make an amendment, even though—	19 20
	(a) the amendment will include or substitute a cause of action or add a new party; or	21 22
	(b) the cause of action included or substituted arose after the proceeding was started; or	23 24

- (c) a relevant period of limitation, current when the proceeding was started, has ended. 1 2
- (3) Despite subsection (2), the rules of court may limit the circumstances in which amendments may be made. 3 4
- (4) This section applies despite the Limitation of Actions Act 1974. 5 6
- 17 Interested person may become a party and may be bound by outcome 7 8
- (1) This section applies if the court considers— 9
- (a) not all persons interested in the subject matter of a proceeding or the relief sought in a proceeding are before the court; and 10
12
- (b) the proceeding ought not to proceed, or relief ought not to be given, without particular persons being given notice of the proceeding. 13
14
15
- (2) The court may— 16
- (a) order that the particular persons be included as parties to the proceeding; or 17 18
- (b) stay the proceeding until notice of the proceeding has been given, as the court may direct, to the particular persons. 19 20
21
- (3) If a person given notice does not elect to be included as a party to the proceeding, the person is bound by the outcome of the proceeding in relation to any subject matter or relief in which the person was interested. 22
23
25
- 18 Order binds persons who are represented 26
- (1) This section applies to an order made in a proceeding started and continued by or against 1 or more persons (the representative party) who have the same interest in the proceeding as representing all of the persons who have the same interest and could have been parties to the proceeding. 27
28
29
30
31

[s 19]

- (2) Unless the court orders otherwise, as well as binding the parties to the proceeding, the order binds the persons who have the same interest as the representative party and could have been parties to the proceeding. 1
2
4
- (3) The order may be enforced against a person not named as a party only with the court's leave. 5 6

19 Interpleader orders 7

- (1) On an application for relief by way of interpleader, the court may do 1 or more of the following— 8 9
 - (a) if a proceeding is pending against the applicant—order a claimant be included as a defendant in the proceeding in addition to or in substitution for the applicant; 10
11
12
 - (b) order a question between the claimants be stated and tried and direct which of the claimants is to be the plaintiff and which the defendant and give any necessary directions for the trial; 13
14
15
16
 - (c) order the applicant to pay or transfer all or part of the property in dispute or the proceeds of sale into court or otherwise dispose of the property or proceeds of sale; 17
18
19
 - (d) if a claimant claims to be entitled to any of the property by way of security for a debt—make orders for the sale of all or part of the property and for the application of the proceeds of sale; 20 21
22
23
 - (e) decide in a summary way a question of law or fact arising on the application; 24
25
 - (f) make an order it considers appropriate, including an order finally disposing of all issues arising in the proceeding. 26
27
28
- (2) If— 29
 - (a) an application for relief by way of interpleader is made; 30
and 31
 - (b) several proceedings are pending in the court for or about any or all of the property in dispute; and 32
33

- (c) the court makes an order in any 2 or more of the proceedings;
the order is binding on all the parties to all the proceedings to which it applies.

20 Set-off

- (1) If there are mutual debts between a plaintiff and a defendant in a proceeding, the defendant may, by way of defence, set off against the plaintiff's claim any debt owed by the plaintiff to the defendant that was due and payable at the time the defence of set-off was filed.
- (2) For subsection (1), it does not matter whether the mutual debts are different in nature.
- (3) This section extends to a proceeding in which 1 or more of the mutual debts is owed by or to a deceased person who is represented by a personal representative.
- (4) However, this section does not apply to the extent to which a plaintiff and a defendant have agreed that debts, whether generally, or in relation to specific debts, may not be set off against each other.
- (5) This section—
- (a) does not affect other rights of set-off or obligation of a debtor or creditor whether arising in equity or otherwise; and
- (b) applies subject to any express provision in another Act.
- (6) In this section—
debt means any liquidated claim.

21 Abatement of proceedings

- (1) If a party to a proceeding dies or becomes bankrupt, the proceeding does not abate because of the death or bankruptcy unless the cause of action does not survive the death or bankruptcy.

[s 22]

(2)	If a proceeding abates for any reason before an order for costs made in the proceeding is satisfied—	1 2
(a)	the order for costs remains enforceable; and	3
(b)	the proceeding continues for the purpose only of enforcement of the order for costs.	4 5
22	Dismissal of proceedings for want of prosecution	6
(1)	This section applies to the District Court and Magistrates Courts.	7 8
	Note—	9
	The Supreme Court has inherent power to dismiss proceedings for want of prosecution.	10 11
(2)	If 2 years have passed since the last step was taken in a proceeding, the court may dismiss the proceeding.	12 13
(3)	For this section, an application on which no order was made is taken not to be a step.	14 15
23	Effect of default judgment given by registrar	16
	A default judgment given by a registrar has effect as a judgment given by the court.	17 18
24	Discharge of lien or security	19
(1)	This section applies to a proceeding if—	20
(a)	a party (the claimant) claims the recovery of particular property other than land (the relevant property); and	21 22
(b)	the party from whom recovery is sought—	23
(i)	claims to be entitled to retain the relevant property because of a lien or as security for money; and	24 25
(ii)	does not otherwise dispute the title of the claimant.	26
(2)	The court may make an order—	27

[s 28]

- within the jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is pending. 1 2
- (2) The party may apply to a court that would have jurisdiction if the amendment were made (the other court) for— 3 4
- (a) leave to amend; and 5
- (b) an order that the proceeding be transferred to the other court. 6 7
- (3) If, apart from any jurisdictional consideration, the other court considers the amendment appropriate, the other court may give leave to amend and, if it gives leave, must order that the proceeding be transferred to it. 8
9
10
11
- 28 Transfer because claim beyond jurisdiction 12
- (1) This section applies if the court in which a proceeding is pending (the relevant court) considers it does not have jurisdiction for the proceeding (other than because of a counterclaim). 13
14
15
16
- (2) If the relevant court considers another court has jurisdiction for the proceeding, the relevant court may, by order, transfer the proceeding to the other court. 17
18
19
- (3) Unless an order is made under subsection (2), the relevant court— 20 21
- (a) must strike out the proceeding; and 22
- (b) may order the party who started the proceeding to pay the costs of any other party to the proceeding. 23
24
- 29 Transfer because counterclaim beyond jurisdiction 25
- (1) This section applies if a party to a proceeding in a court (the relevant court) files a counterclaim for relief not within the relevant court's jurisdiction. 26
27
28
- (2) A court having jurisdiction for the counterclaim may order that— 29 30
- (a) all of the proceeding be transferred to that court; or 31

- (b) the counterclaim be transferred to that court; or 1
 - (c) all of the proceeding be heard and decided by the 2 relevant court. 3
 - (3) If an order is made under subsection (2), the registrar of the 4 court that made the order must give a copy of it to the registrar 5 of the relevant court. 6
 - (4) If an order is made under subsection (2)(b)— 7
 - (a) the relevant court must hear and decide the balance of 8
the proceeding; and 9
 - (b) unless the court hearing the counterclaim orders 10
otherwise, enforcement of any judgment in relation to 11
the balance of the proceeding is stayed until judgment is 12 given in relation to the counterclaim. 13
 - (5) Despite any other Act or law, the relevant court is taken to 14 have jurisdiction to hear and decide all of the proceeding if— 15
 - (a) no application is made for an order under subsection 16
(2)(a) or (b) within 14 days after the counterclaim is 17 served on the other party or parties to the proceeding; or 18
 - (b) an order is made under subsection (2)(c). 19

30 Copy of order and filed documents 20

- (1) If a court orders that all or part of a proceeding be transferred 21 to or from another court, the registrar of the court must give 22
the registrar of the other court a copy of the order. 23
- (2) If a proceeding in a court is transferred to another court, the 24 registrar of the court must give to the registrar of the other 25 court all filed documents. 26
- (3) If part of a proceeding in a court is transferred to another 27 court, the registrar of the court must give to the registrar of the 28 other court a copy of all filed documents. 29

	(b) a conference required under the rules because there is a claim for damages for personal injury or death.	1 2
35	Resolution agreement	3
	(1) If, at a relevant conference, the parties agree on a resolution of their dispute or part of it, the agreement must be written down and signed by or for each party.	4 5 6
	(2) The agreement has effect as a compromise.	7
36	Evidence from relevant conference	8
	(1) Evidence of anything done or said, an admission made, or a document tendered, at a relevant conference about a dispute is admissible at the trial of the dispute or in another civil proceeding in the court or elsewhere only if—	9 10 11 12
	(a) all the parties to the dispute agree; or	13
	(b) the evidence is an agreement under section 35.	14
	(2) In this section—	15
	civil proceeding does not include a civil proceeding founded on fraud alleged to be connected with, or to have happened during, a relevant conference.	16 17 18
Part 6	ADR processes	19
Division 1	Preliminary	20
37	Objects of pt 6	21
	The objects of this part are—	22

[s 38]

- (a) to provide an opportunity for litigants to participate in ADR processes in order to achieve negotiated settlements and satisfactory resolution of disputes; and
- (b) to improve access to justice for litigants and to reduce cost and delay; and
- (c) to provide a legislative framework allowing ADR processes to be conducted as quickly, and with as little formality and technicality, as possible; and
- (d) to safeguard ADR processes—
 - (i) by extending the same protection to participants in an ADR process as they would have if the dispute were before a court; and
 - (ii) by ensuring they remain confidential.

38 Application of pt 6

This part does not apply to a dispute that is the subject of an employment claim under the Magistrates Courts Act 1921.

Division 2 Interpretation

39 ADR process

- (1) An ADR process is a process of mediation or case appraisal under which the parties are helped to achieve an early, inexpensive settlement or resolution of their dispute.
- (2) In this part, an ADR process includes all the steps involved in an ADR process, including—
 - (a) pre-mediation and post-mediation sessions; and
 - (b) a case appraisal session; and
 - (c) joint sessions; and
 - (d) private sessions; and
 - (e) another step prescribed under the rules.

40	Mediation	1
	Mediation is a process under the rules in which the parties use a mediator to help them resolve their dispute by negotiated agreement without adjudication.	2 3 4
41	Case appraisal	5
	(1) Case appraisal is a process under the rules in which a case appraiser provisionally decides a dispute.	6 7
	(2) A case appraiser’s decision is not binding on the parties until—	8 9
	(a) the time prescribed under the rules for filing an election to go to trial has passed; and	10 11
	(b) a court, by order, gives effect to the decision.	12
Division 3	ADR process	13
42	Parties may agree to ADR process	14
	(1) The parties to a dispute may agree to refer their dispute to an ADR process.	15 16
	(2) If the parties agree to the referral, they must file a consent order in the approved form.	17 18
	(3) A consent order filed under this section is taken to be a referring order.	19 20
43	Court may refer dispute to ADR process	21
	(1) A court may require the parties or their representatives to attend before it to enable it to decide whether the parties’ dispute should be referred to an ADR process.	22 23 24
	(2) This section also applies if—	25
	(a) a party applies to the court for an order referring a dispute to an ADR process; or	26 27

[s 44]

- (b) the parties are otherwise before the court. 1
 - (3) The court may, by order (referring order), refer the dispute to mediation or case appraisal. 2 3
 - (4) Without limiting the court’s discretion, the court may take the following matters into account when deciding whether to refer a dispute to case appraisal— 4
6
 - (a) whether the costs of litigating the dispute to the end are likely to be disproportionate to the benefit gained; 7 8
 - (b) the likelihood of an appraisal producing a compromise or an abandonment of a claim or defence. 9 10
 - (5) If the court decides to refer the dispute to a mediator under the Dispute Resolution Centres Act 1990, it is sufficient if it appoints the director of a stated dispute resolution centre as mediator. 11
12
13
14
- 44 Parties must attend at ADR process if court orders 15
- (1) If a referring order is made, the parties— 16
 - (a) must attend before the ADR convenor appointed to conduct the ADR process; and 17 18
 - (b) must not impede the ADR convenor in conducting and finishing the ADR process within the time allowed under the referring order. 19 20
21
 - (2) If a party impedes the ADR process, the court may impose sanctions against the party, including— 22
23
 - (a) by ordering that any claim for relief by the defaulting party is stayed until further order; and 24 25
 - (b) by taking the party’s action into account when awarding costs in the proceeding or in another related proceeding between the parties. 26 27
28
- 45 Procedure at case appraisal 29
- (1) At a case appraisal, the case appraiser— 30

(a)	must decide the procedure to be used at the case appraisal; and	1 2
(b)	may adopt any procedure that will, in the case appraiser's opinion, enable a sound opinion of the likely outcome of the dispute to be reached; and	3 4 5
(c)	must finish the case appraisal as quickly as possible.	6
(2)	However, the case appraiser may, in special circumstances—	7
(a)	receive evidence; and	8
(b)	examine witnesses, and administer oaths to witnesses, who have been lawfully called before the case appraiser.	9 10
(3)	The court may, at any time, give directions about procedure to be used at the case appraisal.	11 12
(4)	This section is subject to section 46.	13
46	Subpoenas	14
(1)	A person may not be subpoenaed to attend a mediation.	15
(2)	A person may be subpoenaed to attend a case appraisal only by order of the court.	16 17
(3)	A person subpoenaed to attend a case appraisal must not be compelled to answer a question, or produce a document, the person could not be compelled to answer or produce before the court.	18 19 20 21
(4)	Sections 55 and 56 apply in relation to a failure to comply with the court's order as if the case appraiser were a person having authority to take evidence for the court.	22 23 24
47	Party unable to pay share of costs	25
(1)	If, at any time, the court is of the opinion a party to the ADR process is unable, because of the party's financial circumstances, to pay the party's percentage of the ADR costs, the court may make an order appropriate in the circumstances.	26 27 28 29 30

[s 48]

(2)	Without limiting subsection (1), the order may provide—	1
(a)	the reference to the ADR process be cancelled; or	2
(b)	the referring order be revoked and another referring order made.	3 4
Division 4	At end of ADR process	5
48	Mediated resolution agreement	6
(1)	If, at a mediation, the parties agree on a resolution of their dispute or part of it, the agreement must be written down and signed by or for each party and by the mediator.	7 8 9
(2)	The agreement has effect as a compromise.	10
49	Documents to be filed	11
(1)	As soon as practicable after a mediation has finished, the mediator must file a certificate about the mediation in the approved form.	12 13 14
(2)	As soon as practicable after a case appraisal has finished, the case appraiser must file—	15 16
(a)	a certificate about the case appraisal in the approved form; and	17 18
(b)	the case appraiser’s decision, if any.	19
50	Orders giving effect to mediation agreement	20
(1)	A party may apply to the court for an order giving effect to an agreement reached at or after a mediation.	21 22
(2)	However, a party may apply for the order only after the mediator’s certificate has been filed.	23 24
(3)	The court may make any order it considers appropriate in the circumstances.	25 26

51	Orders giving effect to case appraiser's decision	1
(1)	A party may apply to the court for an order giving effect to a case appraiser's decision after the time prescribed under the rules for electing to go to trial has passed.	2 3 4
(2)	However, a party may apply for the order before the time mentioned in subsection (1) has passed if all parties agree.	5 6
(3)	The court may make any order it considers appropriate in the circumstances.	7 8
Division 5	Protection, immunity and confidentiality	9 10
52	Ordinary protection and immunity allowed	11
(1)	In performing the functions of an ADR convenor under a referring order, the ADR convenor has the same protection and immunity as a Supreme Court judge performing a judicial function.	12 13 14 15
(2)	A party attending an ADR process has the same protection and immunity the party would have if the ADR process were a proceeding being heard before the court.	16 17 18
(3)	A witness attending an ADR process has the same protection and immunity as a witness attending before the court.	19 20
(4)	A document produced at, or used for, an ADR process has the same protection during the ADR process it would have if produced before the court.	21 22 23
(5)	In subsection (2)— party includes a party's lawyer or agent.	24 25
53	Evidence from ADR process	26
(1)	Evidence of anything done or said, or an admission made, at an ADR process about the dispute is admissible at the trial of the dispute or in another civil proceeding before the court or elsewhere only if all parties to the dispute agree.	27 28 29 30

[s 54]

(2)	In subsection (1)—	1
	civil proceeding does not include a civil proceeding founded on fraud alleged to be connected with, or to have happened during, the ADR process.	2 3 4
54	Preservation of confidentiality	5
(1)	An ADR convenor must not, without reasonable excuse, disclose information coming to the ADR convenor’s knowledge during an ADR process.	6 7 8
	Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	9
(2)	It is a reasonable excuse to disclose information if the disclosure is made—	10 11
(a)	with the agreement of all the parties to the ADR process; or	12 13
(b)	for the purpose of giving effect to this part; or	14
(c)	for statistical purposes not likely to reveal the identity of a person to whom the information relates; or	15 16
(d)	for an inquiry or proceeding about an offence happening during the ADR process; or	17 18
(e)	for a proceeding founded on fraud alleged to be connected with, or to have happened during, the ADR process; or	19 20 21
(f)	under a requirement imposed under an Act.	22
Part 7	Compliance with subpoena etc.	23
55	Nonattendance of individual witness	24
(1)	This section applies if an individual fails to comply with a subpoena or order of a court requiring attendance to give	25 26

- evidence or produce a document or thing to the court or a person having authority to take evidence for the court. 1 2
- (2) The court may make an order for the issue of a warrant for— 3
- (a) the arrest of the individual; and 4
- (b) the production of the individual as required by the subpoena or order for the purpose of the proceeding; 5
7
- (c) the detention in custody of the individual until released 8
by the court. 9
- (3) The court may order an individual who did not attend as 10 required by the subpoena or order to pay the costs and 11 expenses wasted by, or resulting from, noncompliance with 12
the subpoena or order. 13

56 Nonattendance of corporation 14

- (1) This section applies if a corporation or an officer of the 15 corporation fails to comply with a subpoena or order of a 16 court requiring attendance to give evidence or produce a 17 document or thing to the court or a person having authority to 18 take evidence for the court. 19
- (2) The court may make an order for the issue of a warrant for— 20
- (a) the arrest of the officer of the corporation to whom the 21 subpoena or order was directed; and 22
- (b) the production of the officer as required by the subpoena 23 or order for the purpose of the proceeding; and 24
- (c) the detention in custody of the officer until released by 25
the court. 26
- (3) However, if the subpoena or order was directed to the ‘proper 27 officer’ of the corporation, the court may make an order for 28
the issue of a warrant for the arrest of a particular officer only 29
if it is proved the officer had received the subpoena or order, 30 or otherwise had actual knowledge of it. 31
- (4) The court may order a corporation that did not attend as 32
required by the subpoena or order to pay the costs and 33

[s 57]

expenses wasted by, or resulting from, noncompliance with 1
the subpoena or order. 2

57 Noncompliance is contempt of court 3

(1) Failure to comply with a subpoena without lawful excuse is 4 contempt of court and a person who fails to comply may be 5 dealt with for contempt of court. 6

(2) Nothing in section 55 or 56 affects a court's power to punish 7 for contempt. 8

Part 8 Interest 9

58 Interest up to judgment 10

(1) This section applies in relation to a proceeding in a court for 11
the payment of money, including a proceeding for debt, 12 damages or the value of goods. 13

(2) This section does not apply in relation to— 14

(a) a proceeding for a cause of action arising before 21
December 1972; or 16

(b) a proceeding for the payment of money on which 17 interest is payable as of right whether because of an 18 agreement or otherwise. 19

Editor's note— 20

The Common Law Practice Act Amendment Act 1972 commenced on 21
December 1972. 22

(3) The court may order that there be included in the amount for 23 which judgment is given interest at the rate the court considers 24 appropriate for all or part of the amount and for all or part of 25
the period between the date when the cause of action arose 26 and the date of judgment. 27

(4) This section does not— 28

(a)	authorise the giving of interest on interest; or	1
(b)	affect damages recoverable for the dishonour of a bill of exchange.	2 3
59	Interest after money order	4
(1)	This section does not apply in relation to a proceeding for a cause of action arising before 21 December 1972.	5 6
(2)	Interest is payable from the date of a money order on the money order debt unless the court otherwise orders.	7 8
(3)	The interest is payable at the rate prescribed under a practice direction made under the Supreme Court of Queensland Act 1991 unless the court otherwise orders.	9 10 11
(4)	However—	12
(a)	if the money order includes an amount for damages and the damages are paid within 21 days of the date of the order, interest on the damages is not payable unless the court otherwise orders; and	13 14 15 16
(b)	if the money order includes an amount for costs and the costs are paid within 21 days after assessment, interest on the costs is not payable unless the court otherwise orders.	17 18 19 20
Part 9	Assessment of damages	21
60	Income tax reduction for loss of earnings award	22
(1)	This section applies to claims for damages for any of the following—	23 24
(a)	personal injury;	25
(b)	loss of dependency;	26
(c)	wrongful dismissal.	27

[s 61]

- (2) Damages based on any of the following— 1
- (a) deprivation or impairment of earning capacity; 2
 - (b) loss of earnings; 3
 - (c) loss of future probable earnings; 4
- must be reduced by the amount the court considers would 5 have been paid on the relevant earnings as income tax had 6
they been received. 7

61 Discount rate for lump sum award 8

- (1) This section applies to an award of damages for deprivation or 9 impairment of earning capacity, or for a liability to incur 10 expenditure in the future. 11
- (2) However, this section does not apply to an award of damages 12 to which the Civil Liability Act 2003, chapter 3 applies. 13
- (3) When assessing an amount of damages as a lump sum for a 14 future loss or expense, the amount must be the present value, 15 calculated using the prescribed discount rate, of the future loss 16 or expense. 17
- (4) In this section— 18
- prescribed discount rate*, for an award, means— 19
- (a) the discount rate prescribed under a regulation as in 20 force when the award is made; or 21
 - (b) if a discount rate is not prescribed under a regulation 22
when the award is made—5%. 23

Part 10 Wrongful death proceedings 24

62 Definitions for pt 10 25

In this part— 26

- child* includes a grandchild and a stepchild. 1
- member of the deceased's family* means— 2
- (a) a child of the deceased, including a child born alive after 3 the death of the deceased; or 4
 - (b) a person to whom the deceased acted, immediately 5 before his or her death, in place of a parent; or 6
 - (c) a parent of the deceased; or 7
 - (d) a person who acted, immediately before the death of the 8 deceased, in place of a parent to the deceased; or 9
 - (e) a spouse of the deceased. 10
- parent* includes a step-parent and a grandparent. 11
- personal representative*, for a deceased person, means an 12 executor or administrator of the deceased's estate. 13
- spouse* see section 63. 14

63 Meaning of spouse 15

- (1) For this part, the spouse of a deceased person includes a de 16 facto partner of the deceased only if the deceased and the de 17 facto partner lived together as a couple on a genuine domestic 18 basis within the meaning of the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, 19
section 32DA— 20
 - (a) generally— 21
 - (i) for a continuous period of at least 2 years ending 22 on the deceased's death; or 23
 - (ii) for a shorter period ending on the deceased's death, 24
if the circumstances of the de facto relationship of 25
the deceased and the de facto partner evidenced a 26 clear intention that the relationship be a long term, 27 committed relationship; or 28
 - (b) if the deceased left a dependant who is a child of the 29 relationship—immediately before the deceased's death. 30
- (2) In this section— 31

[s 64]

child of the relationship means a child of the deceased person 1 and the de facto partner, and includes a child born after the 2 deceased's death. 3

dependant, of a deceased person, includes a child born after 4 the deceased's death who would have been wholly or partially 5 dependent on the deceased's earnings after the child's birth if 6
the deceased had not died. 7

64 Liability for a death 8

- (1) This section applies if— 9
- (a) a death is caused by a wrongful act or omission, whether 10 or not an offence; and 11
 - (b) the act or omission would, if death had not resulted, 12 have entitled the deceased person to recover damages in 13
a proceeding for personal injury. 14
- (2) The person who would have been liable if the death had not 15 resulted is liable for damages despite the death and whether or 16 not the death was caused by circumstances that were an 17 offence. 18
- (3) In a proceeding under this part, a court may award to the 19 members of the deceased person's family the damages it 20 considers to be proportional to the damage to them resulting 21 from the death. 22

65 One proceeding for benefit of members of deceased 23 person's family 24

- (1) Not more than 1 proceeding under this part may be brought 25 against a person in relation to a death. 26
- (2) The proceeding may be brought by the personal representative 27 of the deceased person, or by any 1 or more of the members of 28
the deceased's family who suffered damage because of the 29 death, for the benefit of the members of the deceased's family 30 who suffered damage because of the death. 31

- (3) A notice given under an Act by a person able to bring a proceeding is taken to have been given on behalf of all members of the deceased's family who suffered damage because of the death. 1
2
4
- (4) A person able to bring a proceeding may apply to the Supreme Court for directions relating to the steps required to be taken to comply with a requirement under an Act or relating to a proceeding under this part before starting the proceeding. 5 6
8
- (5) The amount of damages awarded must, after deducting any costs not recovered from the defendant, be divided in the shares the court decides among the members of the deceased's family who suffered damage because of the death. 9 10
12
- 66 Surviving proceeding other than by personal representative 13 14
- If a person, other than the personal representative of the deceased person, brings a proceeding under this part, the person— 15 16
17
- (a) may also, on behalf of the estate of the deceased person, pursue any cause of action that survives under the Succession Act 1981, section 66; and 18 19
20
- (b) must account to the personal representative for any amount the person recovers under paragraph (a). 21
22
- 67 Damages for spouse's benefit 23
- (1) This section applies if, in a proceeding under this part, a court is assessing damages in relation to financial benefits lost by a spouse of the deceased person as a result of the deceased's death. 24
25
26
27
29
30
- (3) Subsection (2) applies even if the spouse intends to enter into a new relationship. 31
32

[s 68]

- (4) However, if the spouse has entered into a new relationship since the deceased person's death, the court may take into account any financial benefits that the spouse has received, and any financial benefits that the spouse is likely to receive, as a result of the new relationship.
- (5) Subsection (4) applies even if the new relationship ends before the assessment.
- (6) In considering what financial benefits the spouse is likely to receive as a result of the new relationship, the court must not assume—
- (a) that the new relationship will necessarily continue; or
 - (b) that the spouse will necessarily continue to receive the same financial benefits as a result of the new relationship as the spouse has already received as a result of the new relationship.
- (7) In this section—
- financial benefits* means either or both of the following—
- (a) monetary benefits;
 - (b) other material benefits having a monetary value, including, for example, domestic services.
- relationship* means—
- (a) a marriage; or
 - (b) a de facto relationship within the meaning of the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 36.

68 Damages for child's benefit

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) in a proceeding under this part, a court is assessing damages in relation to financial benefits lost by a child of the deceased person as a result of the deceased's death; and
 - (b) the deceased predeceases another parent of the child (the surviving parent).

- (2) If there was a relationship between the deceased person and the surviving parent immediately before the deceased's death, it is irrelevant to the assessment whether or not the relationship would have continued apart from the death. 1 2
4
- (3) If there was a relationship between the deceased person and the surviving parent that ended before the deceased's death, any damages assessed must not be reduced because the relationship ended before the death. 5 6
8
- (4) In assessing damages, the court must not take into account any financial benefits that the child has received, or may receive, from any person other than the deceased person, including any financial benefits that the child has received, or may receive, as a result of— 9 10
12
13
- (a) a new relationship that the surviving parent may enter into after the assessment; or 14 15
- (b) a new relationship entered into by the surviving parent since the death of the deceased. 16
17
- (5) In this section— 18
financial benefits see section 67. 19 relationship see section 67. 20
- 69 Transitional application of assessment provisions 21
Sections 67 and 68 apply in relation to any assessment made in a proceeding under this part regardless of when the death occurred. 22
23
24
- 70 Amounts not to be taken into account in assessing damages 25 26
- (1) In assessing damages in relation to liability under this part, the following must not be taken into account to reduce the damages— 27
28
29
- (a) an amount paid or payable on the death of the deceased person under a contract of insurance; 30
31

Note—

For circumstances within the scope of the Navigation Act 1912 (Cwlth), see section 265A of that Act.

ship see the Transport Operations (Marine Safety) Act 1994, section 10.

72 Damages for personal injury

- (1) This section applies if loss of life or personal injury is suffered by a person on board a ship because of the fault of the ship and 1 or more other ships.
- (2) The liability of the owners of the ships is joint and several.
- (3) Nothing in this section—
 - (a) deprives a person of any right of defence that the person has apart from this section; or
 - (b) affects a person’s right to limit the person’s liability; or
 - (c) affects the operation of the Law Reform Act 1995, section 10.

Notes—

1 For circumstances within the scope of the Navigation Act 1912
(Cwlth), see section 260 of that Act.

2 The Law Reform Act 1995, section 10 deals with the apportionment of liability if there was contributory negligence by the injured or deceased person.

73 Right of contribution

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) loss of life or personal injury is suffered by a person on board a ship because of the fault of the ship and 1 or more other ships; and
 - (b) a proportion of the damages is recovered from 1 ship owner that is more than the proportion in which the ship was at fault.

[s 74]

- (2) The ship owner may recover by way of contribution the amount of the excess from the owners of the other ships in proportion to the degree to which each ship was at fault. 1
3
- (3) However, an amount may not be recovered by way of contribution if, for any reason, it could not have been recovered in the first instance as damages by the person entitled to sue for them. 4
5
7
- (4) In addition to any other remedy provided by law and subject to this Act, a ship owner entitled to recover an amount under subsection (2) has, for the purposes of recovering the amount, the same rights and powers as the person entitled to sue for damages in the first instance. 8 9
10
11
12
- Note—* 13
- For circumstances within the scope of the Navigation Act 1912 (Cwlth), see section 261 of that Act. 14 15

74 Other damages 16

- (1) This section applies if, because of the fault of 2 or more ships, damage or loss is caused to 1 or more ships. 17
18
- (2) The Civil Liability Act 2003, chapter 2, part 2 does not apply to a claim for the damage or loss. 19 20
- Note—* 21
- The Civil Liability Act 2003, chapter 2, part 2 deals with proportionate liability. 22 23
- (3) Each ship is liable for the damage or loss in proportion to the degree to which it was at fault. 24
25
- (4) If it is not possible to establish different degrees of fault, each ship at fault is equally liable for the damage or loss. 26
27
- (5) Nothing in this section makes a ship liable for damage or loss to which the ship's fault has not contributed. 28
29
- (6) Also, nothing in this section— 30
- (a) affects a person's liability under any contract; or 31
- (b) imposes a liability on a person from which the person is exempted by any contract or law; or 32
33

- (c) affects a person's right to limit the person's liability. 1
- (7) For this section— 2
- (a) damage or loss is caused to a ship if damage or loss is 3 caused to— 4
- (i) the ship; or 5
- (ii) the ship's cargo or freight, including passage 6
money and hire; or 7
- (iii) any property on board the ship; and 8
- (b) damage or loss caused by the fault of a ship includes any 9 salvage or other expenses resulting from that fault that 10 are recoverable at law by way of damages. 11

Note— 12

For circumstances within the scope of the Navigation Act 1912 (Cwlth), 13
see section 259 of that Act. 14

75 No statutory presumption of fault 15

If there is a collision, a ship is not taken to be at fault solely 16 because it infringed any regulation for the prevention of 17
collisions at sea made under the Transport Operations 18
(Marine Safety) Act 1994. 19

Note— 20

For circumstances within the scope of the Navigation Act 1912 (Cwlth), 21
see section 263 of that Act. 22

Editor's note— 23

The International Regulations for Preventing Collisions at Sea have 24 effect as if they were part of the Transport Operations (Marine Safety) 25
Regulation 2004 under section 125 of that regulation. 26

[s 76]

Part 12	Assessors	1
76	Definitions for pt 12	2
	In this part—	3
	assessment means—	4
	(a) a costs assessment; or	5
	(b) an account assessment.	6
	assessor means a costs assessor, or an account assessor, appointed under the rules.	7 8
	costs assessment means assessment of a costs statement or itemised bill under the rules, chapter 17A.	9 10
77	Protection and immunity	11
	(1) In performing the functions of assessor, an assessor has the same protection and immunity as a Supreme Court judge performing a judicial function.	12 13 14
	(2) A party appearing in an assessment has the same protection and immunity as the party would have if the assessment were a proceeding being heard before the Supreme Court.	15 16 17
	(3) A witness attending in an assessment has the same protection and immunity as a witness attending before the Supreme Court.	18 19 20
	(4) A document produced at, or used for, an assessment has the same protection during the assessment as it would have if produced before the Supreme Court.	21 22 23
	(5) In this section— party includes a party’s lawyer or agent.	24 25
78	Preservation of confidentiality	26
	(1) A person who gains confidential information through being an assessor must not—	27 28

- (a) make a record of the information other than—
 - (i) for the purpose of carrying out the assessment; or
 - (ii) to discharge another function under a law; or
 - (b) disclose the information other than—
 - (i) under an order of a court or tribunal; or
 - (ii) as authorised by the person to whom the confidential information relates.
- (2) In this section—
- confidential information* includes information about a person's affairs, but does not include—
- (a) information already publicly disclosed unless further disclosure of the information is prohibited by law; or
 - (b) statistical information not likely to result in the identification of the person to whom the information relates.

79 Preservation of privilege 16
Privilege continues despite disclosure to an assessor. 17

Part 13 Enforcement 18

Division 1 Judgments 19

- 80 Judgment for detention of goods 20
- (1) This section applies to a proceeding for detention of goods. 21
 - (2) Judgment for detention of goods must be that— 22
 - (a) the defendant return specific goods to the plaintiff; or 23

[s 81]

- (b) the defendant return specific goods, or pay their value, to the plaintiff; or 1 2
 - (c) the defendant pay the value of the goods, whether with or without a condition that the value is not payable if specific goods are returned within a stated time. 3
4
5
 - (3) A judgment for detention of goods may also provide for damages for detention of the goods. 6
7

- 81 Judgment for return of goods 8
 - (1) A judgment under section 80(2)(a) that the defendant return specific goods to the plaintiff may be enforced by an enforcement warrant to seize and deliver the goods. 9
10
11
13
14
 - (a) punishment of the defendant for contempt; and 15
 - (b) an enforcement warrant to seize and deliver property. 16
19

- 82 Judgment for return of goods or payment of their value 20
 - (1) This section applies if judgment is given under section 80(2)(b) that the defendant return specific goods, or pay their value, to the plaintiff. 21
22
23
 - (2) If the value of the goods has been assessed— 24
 - (a) the judgment must provide for payment of the amount assessed; and 25 26
 - (b) the plaintiff may enforce the judgment as a money order for the amount assessed if the defendant does not return the goods. 27
28
29
 - (3) If the value of the goods has not been assessed— 30

- (a) the judgment must provide for the value to be assessed; 1
and 2
 - (b) the plaintiff may have the value assessed and may 3 enforce the judgment as a money order for the amount 4 assessed if the defendant does not return the goods. 5

83 Effect of money order 6

- (1) A money order has the effect of a judgment at law. 7
- (2) A money order may be enforced only under this part 8 regardless of whether the order was made in a court's 9 common law jurisdiction or its equitable jurisdiction. 10
- (3) If a court has jurisdiction to order a party to do an act, the 11 court may make a special order for the payment of money 12 enforceable as an order to do an act. 13

Division 2 Enforcement generally 14

84 Demand for compliance unnecessary 15

- (1) It is not necessary to demand compliance with an order before 16
starting enforcement proceedings for the order. 17
- (2) If, under an Act, the rules or an order of a court, an order must 18 be served on a person before the order may be enforced 19 against the person, the order may be served without a demand 20 for compliance. 21

85 Interest recoverable on enforcement 22

An enforcement warrant for the enforcement of a money order 23
authorises, without the need for any further order, the levying 24 of interest on the amount payable at the rate applying under 25
section 59. 26

[s 86]

86	Enforcement against partnership	1
(1)	An order against partners suing or sued in the name of the partnership may be enforced against any 1 or more of the following—	2 3 4
(a)	partnership property;	5
(b)	a partner who filed a notice of intention to defend;	6
(c)	a person who has admitted being a partner;	7
(d)	a person who the court has decided is a partner;	8
(e)	a person who has been individually served as a partner with the originating process and who has not filed a notice of intention to defend.	9 10 11
(2)	This section has effect subject to the Partnership Act 1891 , section 65.	12 13
	Editor's note—	14
	Partnership Act 1891 , section 65 (Legal proceedings)	15
87	Variation of order in partnership name	16
	Despite section 86, the court may vary an order against a partnership in the partnership name to make it an order against the persons who were partners when the cause of action arose.	17 18 19
88	Enforcement against property of a business	20
(1)	This section applies if—	21
(a)	a proceeding is brought against a person in relation to a business carried on by the person under a name or style other than the person's own name (whether or not the name or style is registered under the Business Names Act 1962); and	22 23 24 25 26
(b)	the proceeding is started in the name or style under which the person carries on business; and	27 28
(c)	the proceeding is continued by leave of the court.	29

- (2) An order in the proceeding may be enforced against any property of the person carrying on the business. 1

89 Variation of order in relation to a business name 3

Despite section 88, a court may vary its order, in relation to a business, made in the name or style under which 1 or more persons carry on the business (whether or not the name or style is registered under the Business Names Act 1962), to make it an order against a person carrying on the business. 4
5
6
7
8

Division 3 Enforcement warrants 9

90 Enforcement warrant 10

- (1) To enforce an order (the original order) other than an order for the payment of money into court, a person entitled to enforce the original order may obtain an enforcement warrant from the court. 11
12
13
14
- (2) An enforcement warrant may contain any order directed to enforcing the original order, including an order authorising— 15
16
- (a) an enforcement officer to seize and sell, in satisfaction of a money order debt, all real and personal property (other than exempt property) in which an enforcement debtor has a legal or beneficial interest; or 17
18
19
20
 - (b) redirection to an enforcement creditor of particular debts, belonging to an enforcement debtor, from a third person; or 21
22
23
 - (c) redirection to an enforcement creditor of particular earnings, of an enforcement debtor, from a third person; or 24
25
26
 - (d) an enforcement officer to enter and deliver possession of land; or 27
28
 - (e) an enforcement officer to seize and deliver specific goods; or 29 30

[s 91]

(f)	an enforcement officer to seize and detain property.	1
(3)	An enforcement warrant may contain more than 1 order directed to enforcing the original order and may be issued to enforce an original order that is a money order and a non-money order.	2 3 4 5
(4)	However, only the Supreme Court may issue an enforcement warrant containing a charging order.	6 7
(5)	In this section—	8
	charging order includes an order charging all or part of an enforcement debtor’s legal or equitable interest in 1 or more of the following—	9 10 11
(a)	annuities;	12
(b)	debentures;	13
(c)	stocks;	14
(d)	bonds;	15
(e)	shares;	16
(f)	marketable securities;	17
(g)	prescribed interests;	18
(h)	units of shares, marketable securities or prescribed interests.	19 20
91	Period of enforcement warrant	21
	An enforcement warrant ends 1 year after it issues unless the warrant states that it ends at an earlier time.	22 23
92	Payment under enforcement warrant	24
	A payment under an enforcement warrant discharges the person making the payment to the extent of the payment.	25 26

93	Securities held by enforcement officer	1
(1)	This section applies if an enforcement officer seizes cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, specialties or other securities for money (the seized documents) under an enforcement warrant to enforce a money order.	2 3 4 5
(2)	The enforcement officer holds the seized documents as security for the amount to be recovered under the enforcement warrant for the benefit of the enforcement creditor.	6 7 8
(3)	The enforcement officer may receive an amount payable under a seized document from the person liable under it.	9 10
(4)	The rules may make provision about proceedings to recover amounts under a seized document, including who may start a proceeding.	11 12 13
94	Redirection of joint funds	14
(1)	This section applies if the debt belonging to the enforcement debtor is a fund of money owned by the enforcement debtor and others (a joint fund).	15 16 17
(2)	An enforcement warrant may authorise redirection to an enforcement creditor of a joint fund to the extent of the enforcement debtor's entitlement.	18 19 20
(3)	It is presumed a joint fund is owned by the fund owners in equal shares unless, on application of a fund owner or enforcement creditor, the court decides the actual beneficial entitlement of each fund owner.	21 22 23 24
95	State debts	25
(1)	If the debt belonging to an enforcement debtor is from a public sector unit and payable out of the consolidated fund or money controlled by a public sector unit (a State debt), an application for an enforcement warrant and the enforcement warrant must name the chief executive, by title, of the public sector unit as the third person in whose hands the State debt is redirected.	26 27 28 29 30 31 32

[s 96]

(2)	Subsection (1) applies despite the Crown Proceedings Act 1980 , section 8.	1 2
	Editor's note—	3
	Crown Proceedings Act 1980 , section 8(1)—	4
	'8 Mode of proceeding	5
(1)	Subject to this Act and any other Act or law, a claim by or against the Crown may be made and enforced by a proceeding by or against the Crown under the title the 'State of Queensland'.	6 7 8
(3)	In this section—	9
	public sector unit means any of the following—	10
(a)	a department;	11
(b)	a public service office;	12
(c)	an agency, authority, commission, corporation, instrumentality, office, or other entity, established under an Act or under State authorisation for a public or State purpose;	13 14 15 16
(d)	a part of an entity mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).	17
96	Redirection of partnership debts	18
	A court may issue an enforcement warrant authorising redirection to an enforcement creditor of particular debts, belonging to an enforcement debtor, from a partnership carrying on business in Queensland even if a partner resides outside Queensland.	19 20 21 22 23
97	Account with financial institution	24
(1)	An amount standing to the credit of an enforcement debtor in an account in a financial institution is, for enforcing a money order, a debt payable to the enforcement debtor, even if any of the following conditions applicable to the account have not been satisfied—	25 26 27 28 29
(a)	a condition requiring a demand or notice to be made before an amount is withdrawn;	30 31

(b)	a condition requiring a personal application to be made before an amount is withdrawn;	1 2
(c)	a condition requiring the production of a deposit book or a receipt for an amount deposited in the account before an amount is withdrawn;	3 4 5
(d)	a similar condition.	6
(2)	Subsection (1) applies, with any changes necessary, to an amount placed to the credit of an enforcement debtor in an account in a financial institution between the date of the enforcement warrant ordering the redirection and any hearing deciding the validity of the warrant.	7 8 9 10 11
98	Enforcement against a third person	12
(1)	If a third person—	13
(a)	does not comply with an enforcement warrant authorising redirection of a debt from the third person; and	14 15 16
(b)	does not file a notice of objection; and	17
(c)	fails to dispute the third person’s liability to pay the debt;	18 19
	the enforcement creditor has the same entitlement to enforce the debt as the enforcement debtor had.	20 21
(2)	To remove any doubt, it is declared that if the debt is a State debt under section 95, the Crown Proceedings Act 1980 , section 11 applies.	22 23 24
	Editor’s note—	25
	Crown Proceedings Act 1980 , section 11 (Satisfaction of judgment)	26
99	Redirection of earnings—protection of employee	27
	An employer must not dismiss an employee, or otherwise prejudice an employee, because an enforcement warrant	28 29

[s 100]

authorising redirection of the employee's earnings has been 1 made. 2

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units. 3

Division 4 Warrant for defendant's arrest 4

100 Issue of warrant for defendant's arrest 5

(1) Despite the District Court of Queensland Act 1967, section 6
69, only the Supreme Court may issue a warrant under this 7
section. 8

(2) The court may issue a warrant for the arrest of a defendant to a 9 claim in any court if the court is satisfied— 10

(a) the defendant has absconded or is about to abscond; and 11

(b) the absence of the defendant would materially prejudice 12
the plaintiff in prosecuting the proceeding or enforcing 13 any judgment that may be given. 14

(3) The warrant must be in the approved form for the arrest of a 15
defendant. 16

(4) The court may issue the warrant at any time, for example, 17 before the defendant has been served with a claim or before 18 judgment. 19

(5) The warrant must state— 20

(a) the name of the defendant; and 21

(b) the date, within 2 months after the warrant's issue, the 22 warrant ends. 23

(6) The court may fix an amount as security to be stated in the 24 warrant. 25

(7) On payment of the security, the defendant is entitled not to be 26 arrested or, if arrested, to be released. 27

(8) In fixing the amount, the court may have regard to any matter 28
it considers relevant, including the following matters— 29

(a) the amount, if any, of the plaintiff's claim; 30

- (b) the costs of issuing the warrant; 1
 - (c) an estimate of the costs of executing the warrant. 2

Division 5 Enforcement officers 3

101 Powers not impaired 4

Except as provided in this Act, this Act does not take away, 5 lessen or impair any power that was, immediately before the 6 commencement of this section, capable of being exercised by 7 an enforcement officer for a court. 8

102 No licence necessary for auction 9

An enforcement officer for a court may, in the course of 10 enforcement, sell property by auction without a licence. 11

103 Transfer to be executed 12

- (1) This section applies if an enforcement officer for a court sells 13 the right, title and interest of another person in relation to 14 land. 15
- (2) The sheriff, registrar or clerk of the court must execute the 16 appropriate transfer of the right, title and interest to the 17
purchaser. 18
- (3) A transfer executed under subsection (2) is evidence that the 19 enforcement officer had power to sell the right, title and 20 interest mentioned in the transfer. 21

Part 14 Miscellaneous provisions 22

104 Grant of representation before proceeding 23

- (1) This section applies if— 24

[s 105]

- (a) an originating process names as a defendant or respondent a person who is dead when the originating process issues; and 1 2
3
 - (b) the cause of action survives the person's death; and 4
 - (c) a grant of representation has been made when the originating process issues. 5 6
- (2) Unless the court orders otherwise, the proceeding is taken to be against the person's personal representative in the personal representative's capacity as personal representative of the person's estate. 7
8
9
10

105 No grant of representation before proceeding 11

- (1) If— 12
- (a) an originating process names as a defendant or respondent a person who is dead when the originating process issues; and 13
14
15
 - (b) the cause of action survives the person's death; and 16
 - (c) a grant of representation has not been made when the originating process issues; 17
18
- the proceeding is taken to have been brought against the person's estate. 19 20
- (2) However, if a grant of representation is made after the originating process issues, then, unless the court orders otherwise, the proceeding is afterwards taken to be against the person's personal representative in the personal representative's capacity as personal representative of the person's estate. 21
22
23
24
25
26
- (3) Even if a grant of representation has not been made when an order is made in the proceeding, the order binds the estate to the same extent as if a grant had been made and a personal representative of the deceased had been a party to the proceeding. 27

‘(2)	A judge may be appointed as Chief Justice either at the time of the person’s appointment as a judge or at any time afterwards.	27 28 29

[s 180]

‘13	Chief Justice continues in office while judge	1
	‘(1) The Chief Justice holds office as Chief Justice while the person holds office as a judge.	2 3
	‘(2) The Chief Justice may resign office as Chief Justice without resigning office as a judge.	4 5
‘14	Title of Chief Justice	6
	‘The Chief Justice is called the Chief Justice of Queensland.	7
‘15	Administrative responsibility of Chief Justice	8
	‘(1) Without limiting the responsibilities, functions or powers of the Chief Justice, the Chief Justice, subject to this Act, is responsible for the administration of the Supreme Court and its divisions and the orderly and expeditious exercise of the court’s jurisdiction and power.	9 10 11 12 13
	‘(2) Subject to this Act, the Chief Justice has power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done to perform responsibilities under subsection (1).	14 15 16
‘16	Sittings	17
	‘The Chief Justice is to decide—	18
	(a) when and where the Supreme Court is to sit; and	19
	(b) the way notice of when and where the Supreme Court is to sit may be given.	20 21
‘17	Practice directions	22
	‘(1) The Chief Justice may make practice directions for the Supreme Court.	23 24
	‘(2) Subsection (1) does not affect any inherent or other power to make practice directions.	25 26
	‘(3) To remove any doubt, it is declared that a practice direction is not subordinate legislation.	27 28

'18	Supreme Court precincts	1
	'(1) Subject to this Act, the Chief Justice has power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done for the control and management of the Supreme Court precincts, including power to obtain, grant, prohibit or limit access to and from the precincts or part of the precincts.	2 3 4 5 6
	'(2) For subsection (1), a reference to the Supreme Court precincts includes a reference to court precincts part of which are occupied by the Supreme Court.	7 8 9
'19	Annual report	10
	'(1) As soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, but within 4 months after the end of the financial year, the Chief Justice must prepare and give to the Minister a written report about the operation of the Supreme Court during the year.	11 12 13 14
	'(2) The Minister must table a copy of the report in the Legislative Assembly within 14 sitting days after receiving the report.	15 16
'Division 3	Provisions relating to judges generally	17 18
'20	Power to act throughout State	19
	'A judge has power to act in any part of the State.	20
'21	Retirement of judges	21
	'(1) A judge must retire on reaching 70 years of age.	22
	'(2) Despite subsection (1), a judge who, before retiring, whether or not because of subsection (1), starts the hearing of a proceeding remains a judge for the purposes of finishing the proceeding.	23 24 25 26

[s 180]

‘22	Accepting and holding other public offices	1
‘(1)	Subject to this section, a judge may accept and hold another public office.	2 3
‘(2)	A judge who accepts another public office—	4
	(a) must immediately notify the Attorney-General in writing; and	5 6
	(b) must immediately resign the other public office if the Governor in Council decides, after consultation between the Attorney-General and the Chief Justice, that the holding of that office, or the conditions on which it is held, would be inconsistent with the proper discharge of the office of a judge.	7 8 9 10 11 12
‘(3)	A judge may receive remuneration in relation to the acceptance or holding of another public office only with the approval of the Governor in Council.	13 14 15
‘(4)	In this section—	16
	public office includes—	17
	(a) an office or appointment granted or made by the Government of the Commonwealth, another State or a Territory; and	18 19 20
	(b) an office or appointment in or in relation to a university or other educational institution, a hospital or a charitable institution.	21 22 23
‘23	Judicial office subject to Constitution of Queensland 2001	24 25
	‘A provision of this Act that provides for a judge or judge of appeal to hold another judicial office while the person holds office as a judge or judge of appeal is subject to the Constitution of Queensland 2001 , section 61.	26 27 28 29

	Constitution of Queensland 2001 , section 61 (Removal from office for misbehaviour or incapacity)	31 32

'24	Seniority	1
'(1)	The Chief Justice is senior to all other judges of the court.	2
'(2)	The President of the Court of Appeal is senior to all other judges of the court apart from the Chief Justice.	3 4
'(3)	Judges of appeal have seniority after the President of the Court of Appeal, and have seniority in relation to each other according to the dates of their commissions as judges of appeal.	5 6 7 8
'(4)	If the commissions of 2 or more judges of appeal have the same date, the judges of appeal have seniority in relation to each other according to the seniority assigned by their commissions or, in the absence of such an assignment, according to the order of their being sworn in.	9 10 11 12 13
'(5)	The Senior Judge Administrator has seniority after the judges of appeal.	14 15
'(6)	The remaining judges have seniority in relation to each other according to the dates of their commissions.	16 17
'(7)	If the commissions of 2 or more judges have the same date, the judges have seniority in relation to each other according to the seniority assigned by their commissions or, in the absence of such an assignment, according to the order of their being sworn in.	18 19 20 21 22
'(8)	In subsections (6) and (7), a reference to a judge includes a judge who has ceased to be the Senior Judge Administrator.	23 24
'25	Temporary judicial office holders	25
'(1)	When—	26
(a)	the office of Chief Justice, President of the Court of Appeal or Senior Judge Administrator is vacant; or	27 28
(b)	the Chief Justice, the President of the Court of Appeal or the Senior Judge Administrator is, for any reason, unable to discharge the person's office;	29 30 31
	the next most senior judge, who is willing, is to act in the office.	32 33

[s 180]

- ‘(2) When the Chief Justice, the President of the Court of Appeal or the Senior Judge Administrator is on leave or otherwise absent or is, for any other reason, unable to perform all of the ordinary functions of the person’s office, the next most senior judge, who is willing, is to perform the functions of the office that the person is unable to perform. 1

6
- ‘(3) While a judge is performing functions of a more senior judicial office, then, to the extent necessary— 7 8
- (a) the judge has all the powers and functions of the office; 9
and 10
- (b) this Act and other Acts apply to the judge as if the judge were the holder of the office. 11
12
- Note—* 13
- The same applies if a judge is acting in a more senior judicial office—Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 24B(8). 14 15
- ‘(4) The fact that a judge acts in, or performs functions of, a more senior judicial office is sufficient evidence of the judge’s authority to do so. 16
17
18
- ‘(5) Anything done by a judge in purporting to act in, or perform functions of, a more senior judicial office is not invalid merely because the occasion for the judge to act in, or perform functions of, the office had not arisen or had ceased. 19
