	If 10 members are appointed to the board, the quorum is 6 (half the number of members (5) plus 1).	9 10
(b)	a question is to be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting; and	11 12
(c)	if the votes are equal, the member presiding at the meeting has a casting vote.	13 14
(2)	A resolution of the board is valid, even though it is not passed at a board meeting, if—	15 16
(a)	a majority of the members agree, in writing, to the resolution; and	17 18
(b)	notice of the resolution is given in accordance with procedures approved by the board.	19 20
Subdivision 3	Duty of members	21
31	Disclosure of interests	22
(1)	This section applies to a member (the interested member) if—	23
(a)	the member has a direct or indirect interest in an issue being considered or about to be considered by the board; and	24 25 26
(b)	the interest could conflict with the proper performance of the member’s duties about the consideration of the issue.	27 28 29

- (2) As soon as practicable after the relevant facts come to the interested member's knowledge, the member must disclose the nature of the interest to a board meeting. 1
2
3
- (3) Unless the board otherwise directs, the interested member must not— 4
5
- (a) be present when the board considers the issue; or 6
- (b) take part in a decision of the board about the issue. 7
- (4) The interested member must not be present when the board is considering whether to give a direction under subsection (3). 8
- (5) If there is another member who must under subsection (2) also disclose an interest in the issue, the other member must not— 10
11
- (a) be present when the board is considering whether to give a direction under subsection (3) about the interested member; or 12
13
14
- (b) take part in making the decision about giving the direction. 15
16
- (6) If— 17
- (a) because of this section a member is not present at a board meeting for considering or deciding an issue or for considering or deciding whether to give a direction under subsection (3); and 18
19
20
21
- (b) there would be a quorum if the member were present; 22
the remaining members present are a quorum of the board for 23
considering or deciding the issue or for considering or 24 deciding whether to give the direction at the meeting. 25
27
28
- (8) A disclosure under subsection (2) must be recorded in the board's minutes. 29
