	48A Policy about how complaints involving public official are to be dealt with	23 24
	(1) A public official must, in consultation with the chairman, prepare a policy about how the unit of public administration for which the official is responsible will deal with a complaint that involves or may involve corruption of the public official.	25 26 27 28 29 30

- (2) The policy may nominate a person other than the public official to notify the commission of the complaint under section 37 or 38, and to deal with the complaint under subdivision 1 or 2, on behalf of the public official. 1
2
3
5
- (3) If the policy includes a nomination as mentioned in subsection (2), this Act applies as if a reference about notifying or dealing with the complaint to the public official were a reference to the nominated person. 6 7
8
9
10
- Example of operation of subsection (3)—* 11
- If a policy prepared under this section for a unit of public administration includes a nomination as mentioned in subsection (2)— 12

269 Delegation—commission 26

(1) The commission’s functions and powers under 27
this Act or another Act, other than the 28

commission's functions under sections 234,	1
251(1) and (2) and 259, are delegated to—	2
(a) for a function or power under sections 40,	3
245, 254, 256, 258, 260 and 346B, the	4
commission's financial accountability	5
functions and the commission's public	6
record powers—the chief executive officer;	7
or	8
(b) otherwise—the chairman.	9
(2) However, in issuing a direction under section 40,	10
the chief executive officer is subject to the	11
direction and control of the chairman.	12
(3) The chief executive officer may sub-delegate a	13
function or power of the commission delegated to	14
the chief executive officer under subsection (1) to	15
an appropriately qualified commission officer.	16
(4) However—	17
(a) the commission's powers under section 254	18
in relation to the appointment of a person at	19
a level equivalent to or above the level of a	20
senior officer can not be sub-delegated by	21
the chief executive officer; and	22
(b) the commission's functions and powers	23
under section 346B, and the commission's	24
public record powers, may only be	25
sub-delegated to a senior executive officer;	26
and	27
(c) the commission's financial accountability	28
functions can not be sub-delegated by the	29
chief executive officer.	30
(5) The chairman may sub-delegate a function or	31
power of the commission delegated to the	32
chairman under subsection (1) to an	33
appropriately qualified commission officer.	34

[s 59]

- (6) However, the commission's powers under the provisions mentioned in column 1 of the following table may only be sub-delegated to the commission officer or officers mentioned in column 2 of the table—

Division 9	Disciplinary action for senior officers and commission staff and agents etc.	1 2 3 4
-------------------	---	------------------

273A Definitions for div 9		5
-----------------------------------	--	---

In this division—		6
-------------------	--	---

disciplinary action see section 273C(1).		7
---	--	---

disciplinary finding means a finding that a disciplinary ground exists.		8 9
--	--	--------

disciplinary ground means a ground for disciplining a relevant commission officer or former relevant commission officer under section 273B.		10 11 12 13
--	--	----------------------

employment , in relation to a person, includes secondment and engagement.		14 15
--	--	----------

former relevant commission officer see section 273D(1)(a).		16 17
---	--	----------

relevant commission officer means—		18
---	--	----

(a) a senior officer; or		19
--------------------------	--	----

(b) a person employed under section 254 or seconded under section 255; or		20 21
---	--	----------

(c) a person engaged under section 256.		22
---	--	----

273B Grounds for discipline		23
------------------------------------	--	----

(1) The chief executive officer may discipline a relevant commission officer if the chief executive officer is reasonably satisfied the officer has—		24 25 26
--	--	----------------

(a) performed the officer's duties carelessly, incompetently or inefficiently; or		27 28
---	--	----------

(b) been guilty of misconduct; or		29
-----------------------------------	--	----

- (c) been absent from duty without approved leave and without reasonable excuse; or
- (d) contravened, without reasonable excuse, a direction given to the officer by a responsible person; or
- (e) used, without reasonable excuse, a substance to an extent that has adversely affected the competent performance of the officer's duties; or
- (f) contravened, without reasonable excuse, a requirement of the chief executive officer under section 273G(1) in relation to the officer's employment by, in response to the requirement—
- (i) failing to disclose a serious disciplinary action; or
- (ii) giving false or misleading information; or
- (g) contravened, without reasonable excuse—
- (i) a provision of this Act; or
- (ii) a standard of conduct applying to the officer under an approved code of conduct under the Public Sector Ethics Act 1994; or
- (iii) a standard of conduct, if any, applying to the officer under an approved standard of practice under the Public Sector Ethics Act 1994.
- (2) Also, the chief executive officer may discipline a former relevant commission officer under section 273D on the same grounds mentioned in subsection (1).
- (3) A disciplinary ground arises when the act or omission constituting the ground is done or made.

[s 62]

- (4) In this section— 1
- misconduct* means— 2
- (a) inappropriate or improper conduct in an 3 official capacity; or 4
- (b) inappropriate or improper conduct in a 5 private capacity that reflects seriously and 6 adversely on the commission. 7
- Example of misconduct—* 8
- victimising another commission officer in the course of 9
the other officer’s employment or engagement with the 10
commission 11
- responsible person*, for a direction, means a 12 person with authority to give the direction, 13 whether the authority derives from this Act or 14 otherwise. 15

273C Disciplinary action that may be taken against 16
a relevant commission officer 17

- (1) In disciplining a relevant commission officer, the 18
chief executive officer may take the action, or 19 order the action be taken, (disciplinary action) 20 that the chief executive officer considers 21 reasonable in the circumstances. 22
- Examples of disciplinary action—* 23
- termination of employment 24
 - reduction of classification level and a consequential 25 change of duties 26
 - transfer or redeployment to another unit of the 27
commission 28
 - forfeiture or deferment of a remuneration increment 29 or increase 30
 - reduction of remuneration 31
 - imposition of a monetary penalty 32

- if a penalty is imposed, a direction that the amount of the penalty be deducted from the officer's periodic remuneration payments
 - a reprimand
 - counselling
- (2) A monetary penalty can not be more than the total of 2 of the relevant commission officer's periodic remuneration payments.
- (3) Also, an amount directed to be deducted from any particular periodic remuneration payment of the relevant commission officer—
- (a) must not be more than half of the amount payable to or for the officer in relation to the payment; and
 - (b) must not reduce the amount of salary payable to the officer in relation to the period to less than—
 - (i) if the officer has a dependant—the guaranteed minimum wage for each week of the period; or
 - (ii) otherwise—two-thirds of the guaranteed minimum wage for each week of the period.
- (4) An order under subsection (1) is binding on anyone affected by it.
- 273D Disciplinary action that may be taken against a former relevant commission officer
- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) a disciplinary ground arises in relation to a relevant commission officer (the former relevant commission officer); and

[s 62]

- (b) after the disciplinary ground arises, the officer's employment as a relevant commission officer ends for any reason. 1
3
- (2) The chief executive officer may make a disciplinary finding, or take disciplinary action under this section, against the former relevant commission officer in relation to the disciplinary ground. 4 5
6
7
8
- (3) The disciplinary finding or disciplinary action must be made or taken within a period of 2 years after the end of the relevant commission officer's employment. 9 10
12
- (4) For subsections (2) and (3), the chief executive officer takes disciplinary action against a former relevant commission officer by making a disciplinary declaration against the officer. 13
14
16
- (5) The chief executive officer may only make a disciplinary declaration if the disciplinary action that would have been taken against the former relevant commission officer if the officer's employment had not ended would have been— 17
18
20
21
- (a) dismissal; or 22
- (b) reduction of classification level. 23
- (6) The making of the disciplinary declaration does not affect the way in which the relevant commission officer's employment ended, or any benefits, rights or liabilities arising because the employment ended. 24
25
26
27
28
- (7) In this section— 29
- disciplinary declaration means a declaration of— 30 31
- (a) the disciplinary finding against the former relevant commission officer; and 32 33
- (b) the disciplinary action that would have been taken against the relevant commission 34 35 officer if the officer's employment had not 1 ended. 2

273E Suspension of relevant commission officer 3 liable to disciplinary action 4

- (1) The chief executive officer may suspend a 5 relevant commission officer from duty if the 6 chief executive officer reasonably believes the 7 officer is liable to disciplinary action under this 8
Act. 9
- (2) However, before suspending the relevant 10 commission officer, the chief executive officer 11 must consider all alternative duties that may be 12 available for the officer to perform. 13
- (3) During the period of the suspension the relevant 14 commission officer is entitled to normal 15 remuneration, less any amount earned by the 16 officer from alternative employment that the 17 officer engages in during the period. 18
- (4) For subsection (3), alternative employment does 19 not include employment of the relevant 20 commission officer if— 21
- (a) the officer was engaged in the employment 22 at the time of the suspension; and 23
- (b) the officer's engaging in the employment 24 was not in contravention of this Act or an 25 obligation imposed on the officer under a 26 code of conduct approved under the Public 27 Sector Ethics Act 1994. 28
- (5) The deduction under subsection (3) must not be 29 more than the amount of the relevant commission 30 officer's normal remuneration during the period 31 of the suspension. 32
- (6) The continuity of the relevant commission 33
officer's service as a relevant commission officer 34

[s 62]

is taken not to have been broken only because of 1
the suspension. 2

(7) The chief executive officer may cancel the 3 suspension at any time. 4

273F Procedure for disciplinary action 5

(1) In disciplining a relevant commission officer or 6 former relevant commission officer or 7 suspending a relevant commission officer, the 8 chief executive officer must comply with this Act 9 and the principles of natural justice. 10

(2) However, natural justice is not required if the 11 suspension is on normal remuneration. 12

(3) If the chief executive officer decides to suspend 13 or terminate the employment of a relevant 14
commission officer, the chief executive officer 15 must give the officer notice of the suspension or 16 termination. 17

(4) The notice must state— 18

(a) for a suspension— 19

(i) when the suspension starts and ends; 20
and 21

(ii) the remuneration to which the relevant 22 commission officer is entitled for the 23 period of the suspension under section 24 273E; and 25

(b) for a termination—the day when it takes 26 effect. 27

Division 4	Commissioners from commencement day	10 11
Subdivision 1	Existing appointments	12
402 Acting chairperson		13
(1)	This section applies to a person who, immediately before the commencement day, holds an appointment to act as the chairperson of the commission.	14 15 16 17
	Note—	18
	See section 397 in relation to the continuation of the person's appointment to act as the chairperson until the commencement day.	19 20 21
(2)	The person is appointed to act as the chairman of the commission—	22 23
(a)	from the start of the commencement day; and	24 25
(b)	until the earlier of the following—	26
(i)	31 October 2014;	27
(ii)	the day a person's appointment as chairman under section 229 takes effect.	28 29 30

- (3) The person's appointment and employment to act as the chairman of the commission is subject to the same terms and conditions applying to the person's appointment and employment to act as the chairperson before the commencement day (other than the duration of that appointment).
- (4) Until the person's appointment to act as the chairman of the commission ends under subsection (2)(b)—
- (a) a reference in a provision of this part to the chairman is taken to be a reference to the person; and
- (b) for that purpose, the provision applies with necessary changes.
- (5) Subsection (6) applies if the person is appointed as a commissioner from the day the person's appointment under subsection (2) ends.
- (6) The period for which the person was appointed to act as the chairperson immediately before the commencement day, and the period of the person's appointment under subsection (2), is to be counted as a period for which the person holds office in the commission as a commissioner for the purposes of section 231(3).

403 Part-time commissioners

- (1) This section applies if a person who was a part-time commissioner immediately before the commencement day—
- (a) is appointed as a commissioner from the commencement day; or
- (b) is appointed to act as a commissioner from the commencement day and is appointed as a commissioner from when that acting appointment ends.

[s 81]

- Note—* 1
- See section 398 in relation to the continuation of the 2 person’s appointment as a part-time commissioner until 3
the commencement day. 4
- (2) The period for which the person was a part-time 5 commissioner immediately before the 6 commencement day is to be counted as a period 7 for which the person holds office in the 8 commission as a commissioner for the purposes 9
of section 231(3). 10
- (3) Also, if subsection (1)(b) applies, the period for 11
which the person was appointed to act as a 12 commissioner from the commencement day is to 13
be counted as a period for which the person holds 14
office in the commission as a commissioner for 15
the purposes of section 231(3). 16

404 Acting part-time commissioners 17

- (1) This section applies if a person who held an 18 appointment to act as a part-time commissioner 19 immediately before the commencement day— 20
- (a) is appointed as a commissioner from the 21 commencement day; or 22
- (b) is appointed to act as a commissioner from 23
the commencement day and is appointed as 24
a commissioner from when that acting 25 appointment ends. 26

- Note—* 27
- See section 398 in relation to the continuation of the 28
person’s appointment to act as a part-time commissioner 29 until the commencement day. 30

- (2) The period for which the person was appointed to 31 act as a part-time commissioner immediately 32 before the commencement day is to be counted as 33 a period for which the person holds office in the 34

commission as a commissioner for the purposes 1
of section 231(3). 2

- (3) Also, if subsection (1)(b) applies, the period for 3
which the person was appointed to act as a 4
commissioner from the commencement day is to 5
be counted as a period for which the person holds 6
office in the commission as a commissioner for 7
the purposes of section 231(3). 8

Subdivision 2 New appointments 9

405 Provision for selection processes for roles of 10 commissioners 11

An appointment of a person as a commissioner after 12 the enactment of the amendment Act is not to be taken 13 to be invalid only because action was taken in relation 14 to the filling of the role of the commissioner before the 15 enactment. 16

Subdivision 3 Other provisions about 17 former commissioners 18

406 Hearing, investigation or operation being 19 conducted by former commissioner 20

- (1) This section applies to a commission hearing, 21 commission investigation or specific intelligence 22 operation that, immediately before the 23 commencement day, was being conducted by a 24 former commissioner. 25
- (2) From the start of the commencement day, the 26 commission hearing, commission investigation or 27 specific intelligence operation may be continued 28 and be conducted by the following person (the 29 presiding officer)— 30

407 Things done by or in relation to former commissioner	1 2
(1) This section applies to anything done by or in relation to a former commissioner under an Act (the empowering Act)—	3 4 5
(a) whose effect had not ended immediately before the commencement day; and	6 7
(b) that, on and from the commencement day, is something that can be done by or in relation to a commissioner under the empowering Act; and	8 9 10 11
(c) that is not otherwise dealt with by a provision of this division.	12 13
(2) The thing done by or in relation to the former commissioner—	14 15
(a) continues to have effect; and	16
(b) from the start of the commencement day, is taken to have been done by or in relation to—	17 18 19
(i) if the thing is something that may be done by or in relation to the chairman under the empowering Act—the chairman; or	20 21 22 23
(ii) if subparagraph (i) does not apply and the thing is something that may be done by or in relation to the deputy chairman under the empowering Act—the deputy chairman; or	24 25 26 27 28
(iii) if subparagraph (i) does not apply and the thing is something that may be done by or in relation to the chief executive officer under the empowering Act—the chief executive officer; or	29 30 31 32 33
(iv) otherwise—a commissioner.	34

[s 81]

- (3) In this section— 1
former commissioner means a person who was 2 any of the following under this Act as in force 3 before the commencement day— 4
- (a) the chairperson; 5
 - (b) the acting chairperson; 6
 - (c) a part-time commissioner; 7
 - (d) an acting part-time commissioner. 8

Division 5 Assistant commissioners 9

408 Assistant commissioners continue as senior executive officers 10 11

- (1) This section applies to a person who, 12
immediately before the commencement day, 13
holds an appointment as an assistant 14
commissioner. 15
- (2) At the start of the commencement day, the 16 appointment and employment of the person as an 17 assistant commissioner ends. 18
- (3) From the start of the commencement day, the 19
person is appointed as— 20
- (a) for the assistant commissioner (crime)—the 21 senior executive officer (crime); or 22
 - (b) for the assistant commissioner 23
(misconduct)—the senior executive officer 24 (corruption). 25
- (4) The person is taken to be employed as the senior 26
executive officer (crime) or senior executive 27 officer (corruption) under the contract under 28 which the person was employed as an assistant 29 commissioner before the commencement day. 30

- (5) Without limiting subsection (4), the person's appointment and employment as the senior executive officer (crime) or senior executive officer (corruption) continues on the same terms, conditions and entitlements as those applying to the person's appointment and employment as an assistant commissioner. 1 2
3
4
5
6
7
- (6) Also, the following applies for the person— 8
- (a) the person retains and is entitled to all rights, benefits and entitlements that have accrued to the person because of the person's previous employment as an assistant commissioner, including because of the operation of section 249(2) as in force before the commencement day; 9 10
12
13
14
15
- (b) the person's accruing rights, including to superannuation or recreation, sick, long service or other leave, are not affected; 16
17
18
- (c) continuity of service is not interrupted, except that the person is not entitled to claim the benefit of a right or entitlement more than once in relation to the same period of service; 19 20
21
22
23
- (d) the employment does not constitute a termination of employment or a retrenchment or redundancy; 24
25
26
- (e) the person is not entitled to a payment or other benefit because he or she is no longer an assistant commissioner; 27
28
29
- (f) section 249(3) as in force before the commencement day does not apply to the person in relation to the person ceasing to be an assistant commissioner. 30

officer (crime); or 32
 - (b) if the hearing, investigation or operation was 33
being conducted by the assistant 34

- commissioner (misconduct)—the senior 1
executive officer (corruption). 2
- (3) For subsection (2), anything done by the assistant 3 commissioner in relation to the commission 4 hearing, commission investigation or specific 5 intelligence operation is taken to have been done 6
by— 7
- (a) if the hearing, investigation or operation was 8
being conducted by the assistant 9
commissioner (crime)—the senior executive 10
officer (crime); or 11
- (b) if the hearing, investigation or operation was 12
being conducted by the assistant 13
commissioner (misconduct)—the senior 14
executive officer (corruption). 15
- (4) In this section— 16
conducted includes undertaken. 17
- 411 Things done by or in relation to assistant 18
commissioner (crime) 19
- (1) This section applies to anything done by or in 20 relation to the assistant commissioner (crime) 21 under an Act (the empowering Act)— 22
- (a) whose effect had not ended immediately 23
before the commencement day; and 24
- (b) that, on and from the commencement day, is 25
something that may be done by or in relation 26 to the senior executive officer (crime) under 27
the empowering Act; and 28
- (c) that is not otherwise dealt with by a 29
provision of this division. 30
- (2) The thing done by or in relation to the assistant 31
commissioner (crime)— 32
- (a) continues to have effect; and 33

[s 81]

- (b) from the start of the commencement day, is 1
taken to have been done by or in relation to 2
the senior executive officer (crime). 3

412 Things done by or in relation to assistant 4
commissioner (misconduct) 5

- (1) This section applies to anything done by or in 6
relation to the assistant commissioner 7 (misconduct) under an Act (the empowering 8 Act)— 9
 - (a) whose effect had not ended immediately 10
before the commencement day; and 11
 - (b) that, on and from the commencement day, is 12
something that may be done by or in relation 13 to the senior executive officer (corruption) 14 under the empowering Act; and 15
 - (c) that is not otherwise dealt with by a 16
provision of this division. 17
- (2) The thing done by or in relation to the assistant 18
commissioner (misconduct)— 19
 - (a) continues to have effect; and 20
 - (b) from the start of the commencement day, is 21
taken to have been done by or in relation to 22
the senior executive officer (corruption). 23

Division 6 Functions of parliamentary 24
commissioner 25

413 Investigations on parliamentary 26 commissioner's own initiative 27

Section 314(4) applies only in relation to conduct, of a 28 commission officer, engaged in on or after the 29
commencement day. 30

414 Hearings conducted by parliamentary commissioner	1 2
(1) Section 318 as in force on the commencement day applies only in relation to a matter that comes to the parliamentary commissioner's knowledge on or after the commencement day.	3 4 5 6
(2) Section 318 as in force before the commencement day continues to apply in relation to a matter that comes to the parliamentary commissioner's knowledge before the commencement day, as if the amendment Act had not been enacted.	7 8 9 10 11 12
415 Use of report of investigation conducted by parliamentary commissioner	13 14
Section 323A applies only in relation to a report of an investigation started on or after the commencement day.	15 16 17
Division 7 Other provisions	18
416 Existing complaints	19
(1) The commission or a public official must deal with an existing complaint under this Act as in force on the commencement day.	20 21 22
(2) However, section 36(3) does not apply in relation to an existing complaint.	23 24
(3) Also, section 216 as in force before the commencement day continues to apply in relation to an existing complaint.	25 26 27
(4) Section 216A does not apply in relation to an existing complaint, even if the person who made the complaint takes further action in relation to the complaint on or after the commencement day.	28 29 30 31

[s 81]

- (5) If an existing complaint relates to conduct that was official misconduct within the meaning of this Act as in force before the commencement day but is not corrupt conduct within the meaning of this Act as in force on the commencement day—
- (a) anything done by the commission or public official in relation to the complaint before the commencement day is not invalidated by the amendment of this Act by the amendment Act; but
- (b) the commission or public official must take no action or discontinue action under this Act in relation to the complaint.
- (6) Subsection (5)(b) does not affect a public official's functions or powers about dealing with the complaint other than under this Act.
- (7) In this section—
- existing complaint* means either of the following made or referred to the commission, but not finally dealt with, immediately before the commencement day—
- (a) a complaint under section 36;
- (b) a complaint made to another entity that is under an obligation to refer the complaint to the commission.

417 Initial research plan

The commission must prepare a research plan under section 52 for the period comprising—

- (a) the period starting from the start of the commencement day and ending at the end of the financial year in which commencement happens; and

(b) the following 2 financial years. 1

418 Investigation of holders of judicial officers 2

Section 58(2A) applies only in relation to conduct of a 3 judicial officer engaged in on or after the 4
commencement day. 5

419 Notifying parliamentary committee of 6 improper conduct 7

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if— 8
- (a) before the commencement day, the 9 chairperson of the commission suspected 10 conduct of a commission officer involved, or 11 may have involved, improper conduct 12 within the meaning of former section 329; 13
and 14
 - (b) immediately before the commencement day, 15
the chairperson had not notified the 16 parliamentary committee of the conduct 17 under former section 329. 18
- (2) Former section 329 applies in relation to the 19 conduct as if the reference to the chairperson 20 were a reference to the chairman. 21
- (3) New section 329 applies in relation to the 22 conduct of a commission officer engaged in 23 before the commencement day only if the 24 chairperson was not aware of the conduct before 25
the commencement day. 26
- (4) In this section— 27
- former section 329* means section 329 as in force 28
before the commencement day. 29
- new section 329* means section 329 as in force at 30
the commencement day. 31

	88I Commission may conduct review of department’s handling of work performance matters	26 27 28
	(1) This section applies if, on the basis of information received under a work performance information directive, the commission chief	29 30 31

- executive reasonably considers it may be beneficial to conduct a review under this section to promote—
- (a) the continuous improvement of a department's practices regarding the handling of work performance matters; or
 - (b) the optimal resolution of a current work performance matter.
- (2) The commission may—
- (a) conduct a review of—
 - (i) 1 or more work performance matters that have been handled by the department; or
 - (ii) a current work performance matter; and
 - (b) give the chief executive of the department a report about the review.
- (3) The report mentioned in subsection (2)(b) must include any recommendations made by the commission about—
- (a) for a review mentioned in subsection (2)(a)(i)—improvements to the department's practices regarding the handling of work performance matters; or
 - (b) for a review mentioned in subsection (2)(a)(ii)—the optimal resolution of the current work performance matter the subject of the review.
- (4) A review under this section must be conducted—
- (a) by the commission chief executive; or
 - (b) for the commission chief executive by—

[s 87]

- (i) a staff member of the commission to whom the function is delegated under section 62(1); or
 - (ii) any other appropriately qualified entity to whom the function is delegated under section 62(2).
- (5) In this section—
- current work performance matter* means a work performance matter being handled by the department at the time the commission chief executive forms the view mentioned in subsection (1).

88J Chief executive of department to provide help for review under s 88I

- (1) This section applies if the commission chief executive or another person (the reviewer) is conducting a review under section 88I for a department.
- (2) The chief executive of the department must give the reviewer the help the reviewer reasonably requires to conduct the review.
- (3) The reviewer may ask the chief executive of the department for information relevant to the review.
- (4) The chief executive of the department must comply with a request under subsection (3).

88K Exchange of information with external agency

- (1) The commission chief executive may enter into an information exchange agreement with the chief executive officer (however described) of an external agency.

chief executive; and 2
- (b) in that capacity, acquired confidential 3 information under this part. 4
- (2) The person must not disclose the confidential 5
information to anyone else. 6
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units. 7
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply to the disclosure of 8
confidential information— 9
- (a) for the purpose of administering this Act; or 10
(b) to the extent necessary to perform the 11
person’s functions under an Act; or 12
(c) for a proceeding in a court or tribunal; or 13
(d) with the consent of the person to whom the 14
confidential information relates; or 15
(e) if the disclosure is otherwise required or 16 permitted under another Act or law. 17
- (4) In this section— 18
- confidential information* means information 19 about a person’s affairs but does not include— 20
- (a) information in the public domain unless 21 further disclosure of the information is 22 prohibited by law; or 23
(b) statistical or other information that could not 24 reasonably be expected to result in the 25 identification of the person to whom the 26 information relates. 27
